Most Holy Place The most important room in the temple. The Box of the Agreement with the Cherub Angels on it was in this room. This was like God's throne. Once each year, on the Day of Atonement, the high priest went into this room to do the ceremony that atoned (covered or erased) the sins of the people of Israel.

in the land that was given to them. The Kohathite families got the first share of the land that was given to the Levite people.<sup>55</sup> They were given the town of Hebron and the fields around it. This was in the area of Judah.<sup>56</sup> But the fields farther from town and the villages near the town of Hebron were given to Caleb son of Jephunneh.<sup>57</sup> The descendants of Aaron were given the city of Hebron. Hebron was a city of safety.* They were also given the cities of Libnah, Jattir, Eshtemoa,<sup>58</sup> Hilen, Debir,<sup>59</sup> Ashan, Juttah, and Beth Shemesh. They got all those cities and the fields around them.<sup>60</sup> The people from the family group of Benjamin were given the cities of Gibeon, Geba, Alemeth, and Anathoth. They got all those cities and the fields around them.

Thirteen cities were given to the Kohathite families.

<sup>62</sup>The family groups that were the descendants* of Gershon got 13 cities. They got those cities from the family groups of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and the part of Manasseh living in the area of Bashan.

<sup>64</sup>So the Israelite people gave those towns and fields to the Levite people.<sup>65</sup> All those cities came from the family groups of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin. They decided which Levite family got which city by throwing lots.*

<sup>66</sup>The family group of Ephraim gave some of the Kohathite families some towns. Those towns were chosen by throwing lots.*<sup>67</sup> They were given the city of Shechem. Shechem is a city of safety.* They were also given the towns of Gezer,<sup>68</sup> Jokneam, Beth Horon,<sup>69</sup> Aijalon, and Gath Rimmon. They also got fields with those towns. Those towns were in the hill country of Ephraim.<sup>70</sup> And from half of Manasseh's family group the Israelite people gave the towns of Aner and Bileam to the Kohathite families. Those Kohathite families also got fields with those towns.

Other Levite Families Get Homes

<sup>71</sup>The Gershonite families got the towns of Golan in the area of Bashan and Ashtaroth from half of Manasseh's family group. They also got the fields near those towns.

<sup>72-73</sup>The Gershonite families also got the towns of Kedesh, Daberath, Ramoth, and Gannim from the family group of Issachar. They also got the fields near those towns.

<sup>74-75</sup>The Gershonite families also got the towns of Mashal, Abdon, Hukok, and Rehob from the family group of Asher. They also got the fields near those towns.

<sup>76</sup>The Gershonite families also got the towns of Kedesh in Galilee, Hammon, and Kiriathaim from the family group of Naphtali. They also got the fields near those towns.

<sup>77</sup>The rest of the Levite people are the Merarite families. They got the towns of Jokneam, Kartah, Rimmono, and Tabor from the family group of Zebulun. They also got the fields near those towns.

<sup>78-79</sup>The Merarite families also got the towns of Bezer in the desert, Jahzah, Kedemoth, and Mephaath from the family group of Reuben. The family group of Reuben lived on the east side of the Jordan River, east of the city of Jericho. These Merarite families also got the fields near those towns.

city of safety Any city where an Israelite could run and be safe from angry relatives if he accidentally killed someone. See Joshua 20:1-9.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

lot(s) Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

Issachar's Descendants

7 Issachar had four sons. Their names were Tola, Puah, Jashub, and Shimron.

<sup>7</sup>Tola's sons were Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam, and Samuel. They were all leaders of their families. Those men and their descendants* were strong soldiers. Their families grew until by the time David was king, there were 22,600 men ready for war.

<sup>8</sup>Uzzi's son was Izrahiah. Izrahiah's sons were Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Ishiah. All five of them were leaders of their families. Their family history shows they had 36,000 soldiers ready for war. They had a large family because they had many wives and children.

<sup>9</sup>The family history shows there were 87,000 strong soldiers in all the family groups of Issachar.

Benjamin's Descendants

<sup>11</sup>Bela had five sons. Their names were Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri. They were leaders of their families. Their family history shows they had 22,034 soldiers.

<sup>12</sup>Beker's sons were Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth. They all were Beker's children. Their family history shows who the family leaders were. And their family history also shows they had 20,200 soldiers.

<sup>13</sup>Jediael's son was Bilhan. Bilhan's sons were Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Kenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish, and Ahishahar. All of Jediael's sons were leaders of their families. They had 17,200 soldiers ready for war.

<sup>10</sup>These are the priests that lived in Jerusalem: Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jakin, and <sup>11</sup>Azariah. Azariah was Hilkiah's son. Hilkiah was Meshullam's son. Meshullam was Zadok's son. Zadok was Meraioth's son. Meraioth was Ahitub's son. Ahitub was the important official responsible for God's temple.* <sup>12</sup>Also there was Jeroham's son, Adaiah. Jeroham was Pashhur's son. Pashhur was Malkijah's son. And there was Adiel's son, Maasai. Adiel was Jahzerah's son. Jahzerah was Meshullam's son. Meshullam was Meshillemith's son. Meshillemith was Immer's son.

<sup>13</sup>There were 1,760 priests. They were leaders of their families. They were responsible for the work of serving in God's temple.*

<sup>14</sup>These are the people from the family group of Levi that lived in Jerusalem

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship
descendant(s) A person's children and all of their future families.

Hasshub's son, Shemaiah. Hasshub was Azrikam's son. Azrikam was Hashabiah's son. Hashabiah's was a descendant* of Merari.<sup>15</sup> Also living in Jerusalem were Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah. Mattaniah was Mica's son. Mica was Zicri's son. Zicri was Asaph's son.<sup>16</sup> Obadiah was Shemaiah's son. Shemaiah was Galal's son. Galal was Jeduthun's son. And Asa's son, Berekiah lived in Jerusalem. Asa was Elkanah's son. Elkanah lived in the small towns near the people of Netophah.

<sup>17</sup>These are the gatekeepers that lived in Jerusalem: Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their relatives. Shallum was their leader.<sup>18</sup> Now these men stand next to the King's Gate on the east side. They were the gatekeepers from the family group of Levi.<sup>19</sup> Shallum was Kore's son. Kore was Ebiasaph's son. Ebiasaph was Korah's son. Shallum and his brothers were gatekeepers. They were from the family of Korah. They had the job of guarding the gates to the Holy Tent.* They did this just like their ancestors* had done before them. Their ancestors had the job of guarding the entrance to the Holy Tent.<sup>20</sup> In the past, Phinehas was in charge of the gatekeepers. Phinehas was Eleazar's son. The Lord was with Phinehas.<sup>21</sup> Zechariah was the gatekeeper at the entrance to the Holy Tent.

gates on the four sides: east, west, north, and south.<sup>25</sup> The gatekeepers' relatives that lived in the small towns had to come and help them at certain times. They came and helped the gatekeepers for seven days each time.

<sup>26</sup>There were four gatekeepers that were the leaders of all the gatekeepers. They were Levite men. They had the job of caring for the rooms and treasures in God's temple.*<sup>27</sup> They stayed up all night guarding God's temple. And they had the job of opening God's temple every morning.

<sup>31</sup>There was a Levite named Mattithiah that had the job of baking the bread used for the offerings. Mattithiah was Shallum's oldest son. Shallum was from the Korah family.<sup>32</sup> Some of the gatekeepers that were in the Korah family had the job of preparing the bread put on the table every Sabbath.*

<sup>33</sup>The Levites that were singers and leaders of their families stayed in the rooms at the temple.* They did not have to do other work because they were responsible for the work in the temple day and night.

<sup>34</sup>All these Levites were leaders of their families. They were listed as leaders in their family histories. They lived in Jerusalem.

King Saul's Family History

seer This is another name for a prophet. See I Samuel 9:9-11.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

special oil Or "perfume." This might be the oil used to anoint priests, prophets, and kings. See Exodus 30:22-38.

Maacah. <sup>36</sup>Jeiel's oldest son was Abdon. Other sons were Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, <sup>37</sup>Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah, and Mikloth. <sup>38</sup>Mikloth was Shimeam's father. Jeiel's family lived near their relatives in Jerusalem.

<sup>39</sup>Ner was Kish's father. Kish was Saul's father. And Saul was the father of Jonathan, Malki-Shua, Abinadab, and Esh-Baal.

<sup>41</sup>Micah's sons were Piton, Melech, Tahrea, and Ahaz. <sup>42</sup>Ahaz was Judah's father. Judah was Jarah's father.* Jarah was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri. Zimri was Moza's father. <sup>43</sup>Moza was the father of Binea. Rephaiah was Binea's son. Eleasah was Rephaiah's son. And Azel was Eleasah's son.

The Death of King Saul

10 The Philistine people fought against the people of Israel. The people of Israel ran away from the Philistines. Many Israelite people were killed on Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines continued chasing Saul and his sons. They caught them and killed them. The Philistines killed Saul's sons Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malki-Shua. <sup>3</sup>The fighting became heavy around Saul. The archers* shot Saul with their arrows and wounded him.

<sup>4</sup>Then Saul said to his armor-bearer,* "Pull out your sword and use it to kill me. Then those foreigners* will not hurt and make fun of me when they come."

But Saul's armor-bearer* was afraid. He refused to kill Saul. Then Saul used his own sword to kill himself. He fell on the point of his sword. <sup>5</sup>The armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead. Then he also killed himself. He fell on the point of his own sword and died. <sup>6</sup>So Saul and three of his sons died. All of Saul's family died together.

<sup>7</sup>All the people of Israel living in the valley saw that their own army had run away. They saw that Saul and his sons were dead. So they left their towns and ran away. Then the Philistine people came into the towns the people of Israel had left. And the Philistine people lived in those towns.

<sup>11</sup>All the people living in the town of Jabesh Gilead heard everything the Philistine people had done to Saul. <sup>12</sup>All the brave men from Jabesh Gilead went to get the bodies of Saul and his sons. They brought them back to Jabesh Gilead. Those brave men buried the bones of Saul and his sons under the large tree in Jabesh. Then they fasted* for seven days.

<sup>13</sup>Saul died because he was not faithful to the Lord. Saul did not obey the Lord's word. Saul also went to a medium* and asked her for advice <sup>14</sup>instead of asking the Lord. That is why the Lord killed Saul and gave the kingdom to Jesse's son David.

David Becomes King Over Israel

11 All the people of Israel came to David at the town of Hebron. They said, to

Ahaz ... father Hebrew has only, "Ahaz was the father of Jarah."

archers Soldiers that use bows and arrows in war.

armor-bearer A young man that carried a soldier's weapons.

foreigners Men from other countries that are not circumcised. This showed that those men did not share in the special agreement with God.

Dagon The national god of the Philistine people. Its head, arms, and body looked like a person, and its lower body was like the tail of a fish.

fast(ed) To live without food for a special time of prayer and worship to God.

medium A person that lets a spirit take control of him and let him tell things that would happen in the future. See 1 Samuel 28:7-19.

David, "We are your own flesh and blood.* <sup>2</sup>In the past, you led us in war. You led us even though Saul was the king. The Lord said to you 'David, you will be the shepherd of my people, the people of Israel. You will become the leader over my people.'"

<sup>3</sup>All the leaders of Israel came to King David at the town of Hebron. David made an agreement with those leaders in Hebron before the Lord. The leaders anointed* David. That made him king over Israel. The Lord promised this would happen. The Lord had used Samuel to make that promise.

David Defeats Jerusalem

<sup>4</sup>David and all the people of Israel went to the city of Jerusalem. Jerusalem was called Jebus at that time. The people living in that city were named Jebusites. The people that lived in the city <sup>5</sup>said to David, "You can't get inside our city." But David did defeat those people. David took over the fortress* of Zion.* This place became the City of David.

<sup>6</sup>David said, "The person that leads the attack on the Jebusite people will become the commander over all my army." So Joab led the attack. Joab was Zeruiah's son. Joab became the commander of the army.

We are ... blood A way of saying they were David's relatives.

anoint(ed) To pour olive oil on a person's head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

fortress A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Millo The Millo was probably a raised platform of land southeast of the temple area in Jerusalem.

David's Mighty Heroes

<sup>10</sup>This is a list of the leaders over David's mighty heroes. These heroes gave support to David's kingdom. All the people of Israel also supported David's kingdom. These heroes and all the people of Israel made David king. That is what God had promised would happen.

Jashobeam was from the Hacmonite people. Jashobeam was the leader of the officers.* Jashobeam used his spear to fight with 300 men. He killed all 300 of those men at one time.

<sup>12</sup>Eleazar was another one of David's mighty heroes. Eleazar was Dodai's son. Dodai's was from Ahoah. Eleazar was one of The Three Heroes. <sup>13</sup>Eleazar was with David at Pasdammim. The Philistine people came to that place to fight a war. There was a field full of barley at that place. That is where the people of Israel ran away from the Philistine people. <sup>14</sup>But then they stopped in the middle of that field and fought the Philistines and killed them. And so the Lord gave the people of Israel a great victory.

<sup>15</sup>Once, David was at the cave of Adullam and the Philistine army was down in the Valley of Rephaim. Three of the 30 heroes crawled all the way to that cave to join David.

<sup>16</sup>Another time, David was in the fortress,* and a group from the Philistine army was in Bethlehem. <sup>17</sup>David was thirsty, so he said, "I wish I had some water from that well near the city gate in Bethlehem."*

<sup>18</sup>Then the Three Heroes fought their way through the Philistine army and took water out of the well of Bethlehem near the city gate. The Three Heroes took the water to David. But David refused to drink the water. <sup>19</sup>David said, "May God keep me from drinking this water! These men risked their lives to get this water for me. So it would be like I am drinking their blood if I drink this water." So David poured out the water as a drink offering to the Lord.

officers Or this might mean "30" or "The Three." See 2 Samuel 23:8.

well ... Bethlehem This was David's hometown. That is why David thought about drinking water from that well.

The Three Heroes did many brave things like that.

More of David's Mighty Heroes

<sup>20</sup>Abishai was the leader of the Three* Heroes. He fought 300 men with his spear and killed them. Abishai became famous like the Three Heroes. <sup>21</sup>Abishai was more famous than the Three Heroes. He became their leader even though he was not one of them.

<sup>22</sup>Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a brave fighter from Kabzeel. Benaiah did great things. He killed two of the best men from the country of Moab. He also went down into a hole in the ground and killed a lion there. This happened on a day when it was snowing. <sup>23</sup>And Benaiah killed a man from Egypt. That man was about 7½ feet* tall. That man from Egypt had a spear that was very large and heavy. It was like a large pole on a weaver's loom.* And Benaiah had only a club. But Benaiah took the spear from the Egyptian. Benaiah used that Egyptian's own spear and killed him. <sup>24</sup>These were the things Benaiah son of Jehoiada did. Benaiah became famous like the Three Heroes. <sup>25</sup>Benaiah had more honor than any of the Three Heroes, but he was not of them. David chose Benaiah to be the leader of his bodyguards.

7½ feet Or, "5 cubits."

loom A machine used for making cloth.

The Brave Men Who Joined David

<sup>3</sup>Ahiezzer, their leader, and Joash (Ahiezzer and Joash were Shemaah's sons. Shemaah was from the Gibeathite people); Jeziel and Pelet (Jeziel and Pelet were Azmaveth's sons); Beracah and Jehu from the town of Anathoth. <sup>4</sup>Ishmaiah from the town of Gibeon (Ishmaiah was a hero with the Three Heroes and he was also a leader of the Three Heroes); Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, and Jozabad from the Gederathite people; <sup>4</sup>Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, and Shemariah; Shephatiah from Haripha; <sup>6</sup>Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, all from the family group of Korah; <sup>7</sup>Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham from the town of Gedor.

The Gadites

<sup>8</sup>Part of the family group of Gad joined David at his fortress* in the desert. They were brave soldiers trained for war. They were skilled with the shield and spear. They looked as fierce as lions. And they could run as fast as gazelles* in the mountains.

<sup>9</sup>Ezer was the leader of the army from the family group of Gad. Obadiah was the second in command. Eliab was the third in command. <sup>10</sup>Mishmannah was the fourth in command. Jeremiah was the fifth in command. <sup>11</sup>Attai was the sixth in command. Eliel was the seventh in command. <sup>12</sup>Johanan was the eighth in command. Elzabad was the ninth in command. <sup>13</sup>Jeremiah was the tenth in command. Machbannai was the eleventh in command.

<sup>14</sup>Those men were leaders of the Gadite army. The weakest from that group could fight 100 enemy soldiers. The strongest from that group could fight 1,000 enemy soldiers. <sup>15</sup>The people from the family group of Gad were the soldiers that went across the Jordan River in the first month of the year. That was a time of year when the Jordan River was flooding. They chased away all the people living in the valleys. They chased those people to the east and to the west.

Other Soldiers Join David

<sup>16</sup>Other men from the family groups of Benjamin and Judah also came to David at the fortress.* <sup>17</sup>David went out to meet them. David said to them, "If you have come in peace to help me, I welcome you. Join with me. But if you have come to spy on me when I have done nothing wrong, then may the God of our ancestors* see what you did, and punish you."

<sup>18</sup>Then the Spirit* came to Amasai. Amasai was the leader of the 30* Heroes. Amasai said,

"We belong to you, David!
We are with you, son of Jesse!
Peace, peace to you!
Peace to people that help you,
Because your God helps you!"

Then David welcomed these men. He made them leaders in his army.

<sup>19</sup>Some of the men from the family group of Manasseh also joined David. They joined David when he went with the Philistines to fight Saul. But David and his men did not really help the Philistines. The Philistine leaders talked about David helping them, but then they decided to send him away. Those rulers said, "If David goes back to his master Saul, then our heads will be cut off!" <sup>20</sup>These were the men from Manasseh that joined David when he went to the town of Ziklag: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai. All of them were generals* from the family group of Manasseh. <sup>21</sup>They helped David fight against bad men. Those bad men were going around the country and stealing things from people. All these men of Manasseh were brave soldiers. They became leaders in David's army.

Other Men Join David at Hebron

<sup>23</sup>These are the numbers of the men that came to David at the town of Hebron. These men were ready for war. They came to give Saul's kingdom to David. That is what the Lord said would happen. This is their number:

ancestors Literally, "fathers." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Spirit Or, "spirit."

30 Or "Three."

generals Literally, "leaders over 1,000 men."

fortress A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

gazelles Animals like deer.

<sup>15</sup>From the family group of Simeon there were 7,100 men. They were brave soldiers ready for war.

<sup>16</sup>From the family group of Levi there were 4,600 men. <sup>17</sup>Jehoiada was in that group. He was a leader from Aaron's family. There were 3,700 men with Jehoiada. <sup>18</sup>Zadok was also in that group. He was a brave young soldier. He came with 22 officers from his family.

<sup>19</sup>From the family group of Benjamin there were 3,000 men. They were Saul's relatives. Most of those men stayed faithful to Saul's family until that time.

<sup>20</sup>From the family group of Ephraim there were 20,800 men. They were brave soldiers. They were famous men in their own families.

<sup>21</sup>From half of Manasseh's family group there were 18,000 men. They were called by name to come and make David king.

<sup>23</sup>From the family group of Zebulun there were 50,000 men. Those men were trained soldiers. They were ready for war with every kind of weapon. They were very faithful to David.

<sup>24</sup>From the family group of Naphtali there were 1,000 officers. They had 37,000 men with them. Those men carried shields and spears.

<sup>27</sup>From the east side of the Jordan River, there were 120,000 men from the family groups of Reuben, Gad, and half of Manasseh. Those men had every kind of weapon.

<sup>28</sup>All those men were brave fighters. They came to the town of Hebron fully agreed to make David king of all Israel. All the other people of Israel also agreed that David should be king. <sup>29</sup>The men spent three days at Hebron with David. They ate and drank, because their relatives had prepared food for them. <sup>30</sup>Also, their neighbors from the areas where the family groups of Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali live brought food on donkeys, camels, mules, and cows. They brought much flour, fig cakes, raisins, wine, oil, cattle, and sheep. The people in Israel were very happy.

Bringing Back The Box of the Agreement

13 David talked with all the officers of his army. <sup>2</sup>Then David called the people of Israel together. He said to them: "If you think it is a good idea, and if it is what the Lord wants, let us send a message to our brothers in all the areas of Israel. Let's also send the message to the priests and Levites that live with our brothers in their towns and the fields near those towns. Let the message tell them to come and join us. <sup>3</sup>Let's bring the Box of the Agreement* back to us in Jerusalem. We did not take care of the Box of the Agreement while Saul was king." <sup>4</sup>So all the people of Israel agreed with David. They all thought it was the right thing to do.

<sup>5</sup>So David gathered all the people of Israel from the Shihor River in Egypt to the town of Lebo Hamath. They came together to bring the Box of the Agreement* back from the town of Kiriath Jearim. <sup>6</sup>David and all the people of Israel with him went to Baalah of Judah. (Baalah is another name for Kiriath Jearim.) They went there to bring out the Box of the Agreement. That Box of the Agreement is the Box of God the Lord. He sits above the Cherub angels.* It is the Box that is called by the Lord's Name.

<sup>7</sup>The people moved the Box of the Agreement* from Abinadab's house. They put it on a new wagon. Uzzah and Ahio were driving the wagon.

Box of the Agreement Also called "The Ark of the Covenant," the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

<sup>8</sup>David and all the people of Israel were celebrating before God. They were praising God and singing songs. They were playing harps,* lyres,* drums, cymbals,* and trumpets.

<sup>9</sup>They came to Kidon's threshing floor.* The bulls pulling the wagon stumbled. And the Box of the Agreement* almost fell. Uzzah reached out with his hand to catch the Box. <sup>10</sup>The Lord became very angry at Uzzah. The Lord killed Uzzah because he touched the Box. So Uzzah died there in front of God. <sup>11</sup>God showed his anger at Uzzah. And this made David angry. Since that time until now that place has been called "Perez Uzzah."*

<sup>12</sup>David was afraid of God that day. David said, "I can't bring the Box of the Agreement* here to me!" <sup>13</sup>So David did not take the Box of the Agreement with him to the City of David.* He left the Box of the Agreement at Obed-Edom's house. Obed-Edom was from the city of Gath. <sup>14</sup>The Box of the Agreement stayed with Obed-Edom's family in his house for three months. The Lord blessed Obed-Edom's family and everything Obed-Edom owned.

David's Kingdom Grows

14 Hiram was king of the city of Tyre. Hiram sent messengers to David. Hiram also sent logs from cedar trees, stonecutters* and carpenters* to David. Hiram sent them to build a house for David. <sup>2</sup>Then David could see that the Lord had really made him king of Israel. The Lord made David's harps Musical instruments with several strings.

lyres An instrument with several strings, like a harp.

cymbals Brass plates that were hit together to make a ringing noise.

threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.

Box of the Agreement Also called "The Ark of the Covenant," the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

Perez Uzzah This means "the outburst at Uzzah."

kingdom very large and powerful. God did this because he loved David and the people of Israel.

David Defeats the Philistines

<sup>8</sup>The Philistine people heard David had been anointed* king of Israel. So, all the Philistine people went to look for David. David heard about it. Then he went out to fight the Philistine people. <sup>9</sup>The Philistines attacked the people living in the Valley of Rephaim and stole their things. <sup>10</sup>David asked God, "Should I go and fight the Philistine people? Will you let me defeat them?"

The Lord answered David, "Go. I will let you defeat the Philistine people."

<sup>11</sup>Then David and his men went up to the town of Baal Perazim. There David and his men defeated the Philistine people. David said, "Waters break out from a broken dam. In the same way, God has broken through my enemies! God has done this through me." That is why that place is named Baal Perazim.*

Another Victory Over the Philistine people

<sup>13</sup>The Philistines attacked the people living in the Valley of Rephaim again. <sup>14</sup>David prayed to God again. God answered David's prayer. God said, "David, don't go in front of the Philistine people when you attack. Instead, go around them. Hide in the place where the balsam trees are. <sup>15</sup>[Climb the trees.] From the top of the trees you will hear the sounds of

anoint(ed) To pour olive oil on a person's head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

marching. At that time, attack the Philistines. I (God) will go out in front of you and defeat the Philistine army!"<sup>16</sup> David did what God told him to do. So David and his men defeated the Philistine army. They killed Philistine soldiers all the way from the town of Gibeon to the town of Gezer.<sup>17</sup> So David became famous in all the countries. The Lord made all nations afraid of David.

The Box of the Agreement Brought to Jerusalem

15 David built houses for himself in the City of David.* Then he built a place to put the Box of the Agreement.* He set up a tent for it.<sup>2</sup> Then David said, "Only the Levites are permitted to carry the Box of the Agreement. The Lord chose them to carry the Box of the Agreement and to serve him forever."

<sup>3</sup>David got all the people of Jerusalem together to bring the Box of the Agreement* to the place he had made for it. 'David called together the descendants* of Aaron and the Levites. 'There were 120 people from Kohath's family group. Uriel was their leader. 'There were 220 people from Merari's family group. Asaiah was their leader. 'There were 130 people from Gershon's family group. Joel was their leader. 'There were 200 people from Elizaphan's family group. Shemaiah was their leader. 'There were 80 people from Hebron's family group. Eliel was their leader. <sup>10</sup>There were 112 people from Uzziel's family group. Amminadab was their leader.

David Talks to the Priests and Levites

<sup>11</sup>Then David asked the priests Zadok and Abiathar to come to him. David also asked these Levites to come to him: Uriel, Asaiah,

Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab.<sup>12</sup> David said to them, "You are the leaders from the family group of Levi. You and the other Levites must make yourselves holy.* Then bring the Box of the Agreement* to the place I have made for it.<sup>13</sup> The last time we did not ask the Lord how to carry the Box of the Agreement. You Levites did not carry it, and that is why the Lord punished us."

<sup>14</sup>Then the priests and Levites made themselves holy* so they could carry the Box of the Agreement* of the Lord God of Israel. <sup>15</sup>The Levites used the special poles to carry the Box of the Agreement on their shoulders, the way Moses commanded. They carried the Box just like the Lord said.

The Singers

<sup>17</sup>Then the Levites got Heman and his brothers, Asaph and Ethan. Heman was Joel's son. Asaph was Berekiah's son. Ethan was Kushaiah's son. These men were from the Merari family group.<sup>18</sup> There was also a second group of Levites. They were Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelihu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel. These men were the Levite guards.

Box of the Agreement Also called "The Ark of the Covenant," the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

holy This means "prepared to serve the Lord.

lyre(s) An instrument with several strings, like a harp.

cymbals Brass plates that were hit together to make a ringing noise.

alamoth We don't know the exact meaning of this word, but it probably means "high-pitched."

sheminith We don't know the exact meaning of this word, but it probably means "low-pitched."

the singing. Kenaniah had this job because he was very skilled at singing.

<sup>29</sup>When the Box of the Agreement* arrived at the City of David,* Michal looked through a window. Michal was Saul's daughter. She saw King David dancing and playing around. And she lost her respect for David—she thought he was being foolish.

16 The Levites brought the Box of the Agreement* and put it inside the tent

Box of the Agreement Also called "The Ark of the Covenant," the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

sacrifice(d) To offer a gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

ephod We do not know exactly what this was. It may have been a special vest or coat, like the High Priest of Israel wore (see Exodus 28). Or it may have been an idol.

cymbals Brass plates that were hit together to make a ringing noise.

David had set up for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to God. <sup>2</sup>After David had finished giving the burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, he used the Lord's name to bless the people. <sup>3</sup>Then he gave a loaf of bread, some dates, and raisins to every Israelite man and woman.

<sup>4</sup>Then David chose some of the Levites to serve before the Box of the Agreement.* Those Levites had the job of celebrating and giving thanks and praise to the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>5</sup>Asaph was the leader [of the first group]. Asaph's group played the cymbals.* Zechariah was the [leader of the] second [group]. The other Levites were: Uzziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel. These men played the lyres* and harps. <sup>6</sup>Benaiah and Jahaziel were the priests that always blew the trumpets before the Box of the Agreement. <sup>7</sup>That was the time that David first gave to Asaph and his brothers the job of singing praises to the Lord:

David's Song of Thanks

- Praise the Lord.
Call on his name.
Tell people about the great things the Lord has done.
- Sing to the Lord.
Sing praises to the Lord.
Tell about all his wonderful works.
- Be proud of the Lord's holy name;
Let all people that look to the Lord for help be happy.
- Look to the Lord and his strength;
Always go to him for help.
- Remember the wonderful things the Lord has done.
Remember his decisions, and the powerful things he has done.
- Children of Israel, servant of the Lord, you descendants* of Jacob, you are the Lord's chosen people.
- The Lord is our God,

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

- His power is everywhere.
 15 Remember his Agreement;
 He gave those commandments for a thousand generations.
 16 It is the Agreement the Lord made with Abraham.
 It is the promise the Lord made to Isaac.
 17 The Lord made it a law for the people of Jacob.
 It is the Agreement with Israel* that will last forever.
 18 The Lord said to Israel:
 "I will give the land of Canaan to you.
 The promised land will belong to
 you."
 19 God's people were only a few in number.
 They were strangers in the land.
 20 They went from one nation to another.
 They went from one kingdom to another.
 21 But the Lord did not let anyone hurt
 them.
 The Lord scolded kings because he loved Israel—
 22 The Lord told those kings:
 "Don't hurt my chosen people,
 Don't hurt my prophets."
 23 Sing to the Lord, all the earth.
 Each day you must tell the good news about the Lord saving us.
 24 Tell all nations about the Lord's glory.
 Tell all people about the Lord's wonderful works.
 25 The Lord is great;
 The Lord should be greatly praised.
 The Lord should be honored more than other gods—
 26 Because all the gods of those people are only idols.*
 But the Lord made the skies.
 27 The Lord has glory and honor;
 The Lord is like a bright and shining light.
 28 Families and people,

- praise the Lord's glory and power!
 29 Praise the Lord's glory.
 Show honor to his name.
 Bring your offering to the Lord.
 Worship the Lord and his holy beauty.
 30 The whole earth should shake with fear in front of the Lord!
 But he made the earth strong,
 the world won't move.
 31 Let the earth and skies be happy.
 Let people everywhere say,
 "The Lord rules!"
 32 Let the sea and everything in it shout!
 Let the fields and everything in them show their joy!
 33 The trees of the forest will sing with joy in front of the Lord!
 Why? Because the Lord is coming.
 He is coming to judge the world.
 34 Oh, thank the Lord—he is good.
 The Lord's love continues forever.
 35 Say to the Lord,
 "Save us, O God our Savior.
 Gather us together,
 and save us from the other nations.
 Then we can praise your holy name;
 Then we can praise you with our songs."
 36 Bless the Lord God of Israel forever and
 forever.
 All the people said "Amen!" They praised
 the Lord!

<sup>27</sup>Then David left Asaph and his brothers there in front of the Box of the Agreement.*
 David left them there to serve in front of it every day. <sup>28</sup>David also left Obed-Edom and 68 other Levites to serve with Asaph and his brothers. Obed-Edom and Hosah were guards.
 Obed-Edom was Jeduthun's son.

 priests that served with him in front of the Lord's tent* at the high place* in Gibeon. <sup>40</sup>Every morning and evening Zadok and the other priests offered burnt offerings on the altar of burnt offerings. They did this to follow the rules written in the Law of the Lord which the Lord had given Israel. <sup>41</sup>Heman and Jeduthun and all the other Levites were chosen by name to sing praises to the Lord, because the Lord's love continues forever! <sup>42</sup>Heman and Jeduthun were with them. They had the job of blowing the trumpets and playing cymbals.* They also had the job of playing other musical instruments when songs were sung to God. Jeduthun's sons guarded the gates.

God's Promise to David

17 After David had moved into his house, he said to Nathan the prophet, "Look, I am living in a house made of cedar wood, but the Box of the Agreement* sits under a tent. I want to build a temple* for God."

<sup>3</sup>But that night the word of God came to Nathan. <sup>4</sup>God said, "Go and tell these things to my servant David: The Lord says, 'David, you are not the person to build a house for me to live in.' <sup>5</sup>Since the time I brought Israel out of Egypt until now, I have not lived in a house. I have moved around in a tent. I chose people to be special leaders for the people of Israel. Those leaders were like shepherds for my people. While I was going around in Israel to different places, I never said to any of those leaders: Why haven't you built a house of cedar wood for me?"

<sup>7</sup>"Now, tell these things to my servant David: The Lord All-Powerful says, 'I took you from the fields and from taking care of the sheep. I made you king of my people Israel. <sup>8</sup>I have been with you everywhere you went. I went ahead of you and I killed your enemies. Now I will make you one of the most famous men on earth. <sup>9</sup>I am giving this place to my people Israel. They will plant their trees, and they will sit in peace under those trees. They won't be bothered anymore. Evil people won't hurt them like they did at first. <sup>10</sup>Those bad things happened, but I chose leaders to care for my people Israel. And I will also defeat all your enemies.

"I tell you that the Lord will build a house for you.* <sup>11</sup>When you die, and you join your ancestors,* then I will let your own son be the new king. The new king will be one of your sons. And I will make his kingdom strong. <sup>12</sup>Your son will build a house for me. I will make your son's family rule forever. <sup>13</sup>I will be his Father, and he will be my son. Saul was the king before you. And I took away my support from Saul. But I will never stop loving your son. <sup>14</sup>I will put him in charge of my house and kingdom forever. His rule will continue forever!"

<sup>15</sup>Nathan told David about the vision* and about all of the things that God had said.

David's Prayer

<sup>16</sup>Then King David went to the Holy Tent, and sat before the Lord. David said, "Lord God, you have done so much for me and my family. And I don't understand why. <sup>17</sup>Besides all those things, you let me know what will happen to my family in the future. You have treated me like a very important man. <sup>18</sup>What more can I say? You have done so much for me. And I am only your servant. You know that. <sup>19</sup>Lord, you have done this wonderful thing for me. And you did it because you wanted to. <sup>20</sup>There is no one like you, Lord. There is no God except you. We have never heard of any god doing wonderful things like those! <sup>21</sup>Is there any other nation like Israel? No! Israel is the only nation on earth that you have done these wonderful things for. You took us out of Egypt and you made us free. You made yourself famous! You went in front of your people, and forced other people to leave their land for us! <sup>22</sup>You took Israel to be your people forever. And Lord, you became their God!

<sup>23</sup>“Lord, you made this promise to me and my family. Now, keep your promise forever. Do what you said you would! <sup>24</sup>Show that you can be trusted! And may people honor your name forever. Then people will say, ‘The Lord All-Powerful is Israel’s God!’ I am your servant! Please let my family be strong and continue before you.

<sup>25</sup>“My God, you told me that you will build a house for me.* So I, your servant, decided to pray to you. <sup>26</sup>Lord, you are God. You have promised this good thing to me. <sup>27</sup>Lord, you have been so kind to bless my family! You promised it will continue before you forever. You have blessed my family, Lord, so my family will be blessed forever.”

David Wins Over Different Nations

18 Later David attacked the Philistine people. He defeated them. He took the town of Gath and the other small towns around it from the Philistine people.

<sup>2</sup>Then David defeated the country of Moab. The Moabite people became David’s servants. They brought tribute* to David.

My God ... me This does not mean a real house. It means the Lord would make men from David’s family kings for many, many years.

<sup>9</sup>Tou was king of the city of Hamath. Hadadezer was the king of Zobah. Tou heard that David had defeated all of Hadadezer’s army. <sup>10</sup>So Tou sent his son Hadoram to King David to ask for peace and to bless him. He did this because David had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him. Hadadezer had been at war with Tou before. Hadoram gave David all kinds of things made of gold, silver, and bronze. <sup>11</sup>King David made those things holy and gave them to the Lord. David did the same thing with all the silver and gold he had gotten from Edom, Moab, the Ammonite people, the Philistine people, and Amalekite people.

also put fortresses* in Edom and all the Edomite people became David's servants. The Lord gave David victory everywhere he went.

David's Important Officials

<sup>14</sup>David was king over all of Israel. He did what was right and fair for everyone. <sup>15</sup>Joab son of Zeruiah was the commander of David's army. Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud wrote about the things David did. <sup>16</sup>Zadok and Abimelech were the priests. Zadok was Ahitub's son, and Abimelech was Abiathar's son. Shavsha was the scribe.* <sup>17</sup>Benaiah was responsible for leading the Kerethite and Pelethite people.* Benaiah was Jehoiada's son. And David's sons were important officials. They served at King David's side.

The Ammonites Shame David's Men

19 Nahash was king of the Ammonite people. Nahash died, and his son became the new king. <sup>2</sup>Then David said, "Nahash was kind to me, so I will be kind to Hanun, Nahash's son." So David sent messengers to comfort Hanun about the death of his father. David's messengers went to the country of Ammon to comfort Hanun.

<sup>5</sup>David's men were too embarrassed to go home. Some people went to David and told him what happened to his men. So King David sent this message to his men: "Stay in the town of Jericho until your beards grow again. Then you can come back home."

<sup>6</sup>The Ammonite people saw they had caused themselves to become hated enemies of David. Then Hanun and the Ammonite people used 75,000 pounds* of silver to buy chariots and chariot drivers from Mesopotamia.* They also got chariots and chariot drivers from the towns of Maacah and Zobah in Aram. <sup>7</sup>The Ammonite people bought 32,000 chariots. They also paid the king of Maacah and his army to come and help them. The king of Maacah and his people came and set up a camp near the town of Medeba. The Ammonite people themselves came out of their towns and got ready for battle.

<sup>8</sup>David heard that the Ammonite people were getting ready for war. So he sent Joab and the whole army of Israel to fight the Ammonite people. <sup>9</sup>The Ammonites came out and got ready for battle. They were near the city gate. The kings that had come to help stayed out in the fields by themselves.

<sup>10</sup>Joab saw that there were two army groups ready to fight against him. One group was in front of him and the other group was behind him. So Joab chose some of the best soldiers of Israel. He sent them out to fight against the army of Aram. <sup>11</sup>Joab put the rest of the army of Israel under Abishai's command. Abishai was Joab's brother. Those soldiers went out to fight against the Ammonite army. <sup>12</sup>Joab said to Abishai, "If the army from Aram is too strong for me, then you must help me. But if the Ammonite army is too strong for you, then I will help you." <sup>13</sup>Let's be brave and strong while we fight for our people and for the cities of our God! May the Lord do what he thinks is right."

fortress(es) A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

scribe A man that wrote down and copied books and letters. He often became an expert at knowing the meaning of those writings ("scriptures").

Kerethite ... people These were the king's bodyguards.
cut ... beards It was against the Law of Moses for an Israelite man to cut off his beard.

75,000 pounds Literally, "1,000 kikars."

Mesopotamia Literally, "Aram Naharaim."

<sup>16</sup>The Aramean leaders saw that Israel had defeated them. So they sent messengers to get help from the Aramean people living east of the Euphrates River. Shophach was the commander of Hadadezer's army from Aram. Shophach also led those other Aramean soldiers.

<sup>17</sup>David heard the news that the people of Aram were gathering for battle. So David gathered all the people of Israel. David led them across the Jordan River. They came face to face with the Arameans. David got his army ready for battle and they attacked the Arameans. <sup>18</sup>The Arameans ran away from the Israelites. David and his army killed 7,000 Aramean chariot drivers and 40,000 Aramean soldiers. David and his army also killed Shophach the commander of the Aramean army.

<sup>19</sup>When Hadadezer's officers saw that Israel had defeated them, they made peace with David. They became David's servants. So the Arameans refused to help the Ammonites again.

Joab Destroys the Ammonites

20 In the spring,* Joab led the army of Israel out to battle. That was the time of year when kings went out to battle, but David stayed in Jerusalem. The army of Israel went to the country of Ammon and destroyed it. Then they went to the city of Rabbah. The army camped around the city—they stayed there to keep people from going in or out of the city. Joab and the army of Israel fought against the city of Rabbah until they destroyed it.

their king's Or, "Milcom," the god of the Ammonite people.

75 pounds Literally, "1 kikar."

David did the same thing to all the cities of the Ammonite people. Then David and all the army went back to Jerusalem.

Philistine Giants Are Killed

<sup>5</sup>Another time, the people of Israel again had war against the Philistine people. Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi. Lahmi was Goliath's brother. Goliath was from the town of Gath. Lahmi's spear was very big and heavy. It was like the large pole on a loom.*

<sup>6</sup>Later, the Israelites fought another war with the Philistine people at the town of Gath. In this town there was a very large man. He had 24 fingers and toes. That man had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. He also was a son of the giants. <sup>7</sup>So when that man made fun of Israel, Jonathan killed him. Jonathan was Shimea's son. Shimea was David's brother.

David Sins By Counting Israel

21 Satan was against the people of Israel. He encouraged David to count the people of Israel. <sup>2</sup>So David said to Joab and the leaders of the people, "Go and count all the people of Israel. Count everyone in the country—from the town of Beersheba all the way to the town of Dan. Then tell me, so I will know how many people there are."

<sup>3</sup>But Joab answered, "May the Lord make his nation 100 times as large! Sir, all the people of Israel are your servants. Why do you want to do this thing, my lord and king? You will make all the people of Israel guilty of sin!"

loom A machine for making cloth from thread.

“But King David was stubborn. Joab had to do what the king said. So Joab left and went through all the country of Israel counting the people. Then Joab came back to Jerusalem<sup>5</sup> and told David how many people there were. In Israel there were 1,100,000 men who could use a sword. And there were 470,000 men in Judah who could use a sword. <sup>6</sup>Joab did not count the family groups of Levi and Benjamin. Joab did not count those family groups because he did not like King David’s order. <sup>7</sup>David had done a bad thing in God’s sight. So God punished Israel.

God Punishes Israel

<sup>8</sup>Then David said to God, “I have done something very foolish. I have done a very bad sin by counting the people of Israel. Now, I beg you to take the sin away from me, your servant.”

<sup>9-10</sup>Gad was David’s seer.* The Lord said to Gad, “Go and tell David: ‘This is what the Lord says: I am going to give you three choices. You must choose one of them. Then I will punish you the way you choose.’”

<sup>11-12</sup>Then Gad went to David. Gad said to David, “The Lord says, ‘David, choose which punishment you want: three years without enough food, or three months of running away from your enemies while they use their swords to chase you, or three days of punishment from the Lord. Terrible sicknesses will spread through the country, and the Lord’s angel will go through Israel destroying the people.’ David, God sent me. Now, you must decide which answer I will give to him.”

<sup>13</sup>David said to Gad, “I am in trouble! I don’t want some man to decide my punishment. The Lord is very merciful, so let the Lord decide how to punish me.”

<sup>14</sup>So the Lord sent terrible sicknesses to Israel, and 70,000 people died. <sup>15</sup>God sent an angel to destroy Jerusalem. But when the angel started to destroy Jerusalem, the Lord saw it and felt sorry. So the Lord decided not to destroy Jerusalem. The Lord said to the angel who was destroying, “Stop! That is enough!” The angel of the Lord was standing at the threshing floor* of Araunah the Jebusite.*

<sup>18</sup>Then the angel of the Lord spoke to Gad. He said, “Tell David to build an altar* to worship the Lord. David must build that altar near the threshing floor* of Araunah the Jebusite.*” <sup>19</sup>Gad told those things to David, and David went to Araunah’s threshing floor.

<sup>22</sup>David said to Araunah, “Sell me your threshing floor.* I will pay you the full price. Then I can use the area to build an altar* to worship the Lord. Then the terrible sicknesses will be stopped.”

<sup>23</sup>Araunah said to David, “Take this threshing floor*! You are my lord and king. Do anything you want. Look, I will also give you cows for the burnt offering.* I will give the wooden floor boards so you can bum them for the fire on the altar.* And I will give the wheat

Jebusite A person that lived in Jerusalem before the Israelites took the city. “Jebus” was the old name for Jerusalem.

altar A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.

threshing Beating or walking on grain to remove the hulls from the grain.

burnt offering(s) Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.

for the grain offering. I will give all this to you!"

<sup>28</sup>David saw that the Lord had answered him on the threshing floor* of Araunah, so David offered sacrifices to the Lord. <sup>29</sup>(The Holy Tent* and the altar of burnt offerings were at the high place* in the town of Gibeon. Moses had made the Holy Tent while the people of Israel were in the desert. <sup>30</sup>David could not go to the Holy Tent to speak with God because he was afraid. David was afraid of the angel of the Lord and his sword.)

22 David said, "The temple* of the Lord God and the altar for burning offerings for the people of Israel will be built here."

David Makes Plans for the Temple

<sup>2</sup>David gave an order for all foreigners living in Israel to be gathered together. David chose stonecutters* from that group of foreigners. Their job was to cut stones ready to be used for building God's temple.* <sup>3</sup>David got iron for making nails and hinges for the gate doors. David also got more bronze than could be weighed. <sup>4</sup>And David got more cedar logs than could be counted. The people from the cities of Sidon and Tyre brought many cedar logs to David.

<sup>5</sup>David said, "We should build a very great temple* for the Lord. But my son Solomon is young and he hasn't learned the things he needs to know. The Lord's temple should be very great. It should be famous in all the nations because of its greatness and beauty. That is why I will make plans for building the Lord's temple." So David made many plans for building the temple, before he died.

<sup>11</sup>David also said, "Now, son, may the Lord be with you. May you be successful and build the temple* for the Lord your God, like he said you would. <sup>12</sup>The Lord will make you the king of Israel. May the Lord give you wisdom and understanding so you can lead the people and obey the law of the Lord your God. <sup>13</sup>And you will have success, if you are careful to obey the rules and laws that the Lord gave Moses for Israel. Be strong and brave. Don't be afraid.

altar A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.

sheath The case for carrying swords.

threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.

high place(s) Places for worshipping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for worshipping God.

<sup>14</sup>“Solomon, I have worked hard making plans for building the Lord’s temple.* I have given 3,750 tons* of gold. And I have given about 37,500 tons* of silver. I have given so much bronze and iron that it can’t be weighed. And I have given wood and stone. Solomon, you can add to them. <sup>15</sup>You have many stonecutters* and carpenters.* You have men skilled in every kind of work. <sup>16</sup>They are skilled in working with gold, silver, bronze, and iron. You have more skilled workers than can be counted. Now begin the work. And may the Lord be with you.”

<sup>17</sup>Then David ordered all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon. <sup>18</sup>David said to these leaders, “The Lord your God is with you. He has given you a time of peace. The Lord helped me to defeat the people living around us. The Lord and his people are now in control of this land. <sup>19</sup>Now give your heart and soul to the Lord your God, and do the things he says. Build the holy place of the Lord God. Build the temple* for the Lord’s name. Then bring the Box of the Agreement* and all the other holy things into the temple.”

Plans for the Levites to Serve in the Temple

23 David became an old man, so he made his son Solomon the new king of Israel. <sup>2</sup>David gathered all the leaders of Israel. He also gathered the priests and Levites. <sup>3</sup>David counted the Levites that were 30 years old and older. All together there were 38,000 Levites. <sup>4</sup>David said, “24,000 Levites will supervise the work of building the Lord’s temple.* 6,000 Levites will be policemen and judges. <sup>5</sup>4,000 Levites will be gatekeepers. And 4,000 Levites will be musicians. I made special

musical instruments for them. They will use those instruments to praise the Lord.”

<sup>6</sup>David separated the Levites into three groups. They were the family groups of Levi’s three sons, Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

The Gershon Family Group

<sup>7</sup>From the family group of Gershon there were Ladan and Shimei. <sup>8</sup>Ladan had three sons. His oldest son was Jehiel. His other sons were Zethan and Joel. <sup>9</sup>Shimei’s sons were Shelomoth, Haziël, and Haran. These three sons were leaders in Ladan’s families.

<sup>10</sup>Shimei had four sons. They were Jahath, Ziza, Jeush, and Beriah. <sup>11</sup>Jahath was the oldest son and Ziza was the second son. But Jeush and Beriah did not have many children. So Jeush and Beriah were counted like one family.

The Kohath Family Group

<sup>12</sup>Kohath had four sons. They were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. <sup>13</sup>Amram’s sons were Aaron and Moses. Aaron was chosen to be very special. Aaron and his descendants* were chosen to be special forever and ever. They were chosen to prepare the holy things for the Lord’s service. Aaron and his descendants were chosen to burn the incense* before the Lord. They were chosen to serve the Lord as priests. They were chosen to use the Lord’s name and give blessings to the people forever.

<sup>19</sup>Hebron’s oldest son was Jeriah. Hebron’s second son was Amariah. Jahaziel was the third son, and Jekameam was the fourth son.

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

The Merari Family Group

<sup>21</sup>Merari's sons were Mahli and Mushi. Mahli's sons were Eleazar and Kish. <sup>22</sup>Eleazar died without having sons. He only had daughters. Eleazar's daughters married their own relatives. Their relatives were Kish's sons. <sup>23</sup>Mushi's sons were Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth. There were three sons in all.

The Levites' Work

<sup>24</sup>These were Levi's descendants.* They were listed by their families. They were the leaders of families. Each person's name was listed. The people that were listed were 20 years old or older. They served in the Lord's temple.*

<sup>25</sup>David had said, "The Lord God of Israel has given peace to his people. The Lord has come to Jerusalem to live there forever. <sup>26</sup>So the Levites don't need to carry the Holy Tent* or any of the things used in its services any more."

<sup>27</sup>David's last instructions for the people of Israel was to count the descendants* from the family group of Levi. They counted the Levite men that were 20 years old and older.

<sup>28</sup>The Levites had the job of helping Aaron's descendants* in the service of the Lord's temple.* The Levites also cared for the temple yard and the side rooms in the temple. They had the job of making all holy things pure. It was their job to serve in God's temple. <sup>29</sup>They were responsible for putting the special bread on the table in the temple. They also were responsible for the flour, the grain offerings, and the bread made without yeast. They were also responsible for the baking pans and the mixed offerings. They did all the measuring. <sup>30</sup>The Levites stood every morning and gave thanks and praise to the Lord. They also did this every evening. <sup>31</sup>The Levites prepared all the burnt offerings* to the Lord on the special days of rest, at the New Moon* celebrations, and at all the special holidays. They served before the Lord every day. There were special rules for how many Levites should serve each time. <sup>32</sup>So the Levites did all the things they were supposed to do. They took care of the Holy Tent.* They took care of the Holy Place.* And they helped their relatives, (the priests,) Aaron's descendants. The Levites helped the priests with the services at the Lord's temple.

The Groups of the Priests

24 These were the groups of Aaron's sons: Aaron's sons were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. <sup>2</sup>But Nadab and Abihu died before their father did. And Nadab and Abihu had no sons. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as the priests. <sup>3</sup>David separated the family groups of Eleazar and Ithamar into two different groups. David did that so those groups could do the duties of work they were given to do. David did this with the help of Zadok and Ahimelech. Zadok was a descendant* of Eleazar, and Ahimelech was a descendant of Ithamar. <sup>4</sup>There were more leaders from Eleazar's family than from Ithamar's. There were 16 leaders from Eleazar's family and there were eight leaders from Ithamar's family. <sup>5</sup>Men were chosen from each family. They were chosen by throwing lots.* Some of the men were chosen to be in charge of the Holy Place.* And other men were chosen to serve as priests. All of these men were from the families of Eleazar and Ithamar.

temple Here this means the Holy Tent at Shiloh where people went to worship the Lord.

Holy Tent Also called the "tabernacle." The people would go to this tent to meet with God. The people used this tent until Solomon built the temple in Jerusalem.

burnt offering(s) Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.

New Moon This was the first day of the Hebrew month.

There were special meetings on these days to worship God.

Holy Place The room in the Holy Tent and in the temple that was used by the priests to do their daily service to God.

lot(s) Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

<sup>6</sup>Shemaiah was the secretary.* He was Nathanel's son. Shemaiah was from the family group of Levi. Shemaiah wrote the names of those descendants.* He wrote those names in front of King David and these leaders: Zadok the priest, Ahimelech, and the leaders from the families of the priests and of the Levites. Ahimelech was Abiathar's son. Each time they threw the lots* a man was chosen, and Shemaiah wrote down that man's name. So they divided the work among the men from families of Eleazar and Ithamar.

- <sup>7</sup> The first group was Jehoiarib's group.
- The second group was Jedaiah's group.
- <sup>8</sup> The third group was Harim's group.
- The fourth group was Seorim's group.
- <sup>9</sup> The fifth group was Malkijah's group.
- The sixth group was Mijamin's group.
- <sup>10</sup> The seventh group was Hakkoz's group.
- The eighth group was Abijah's group.
- <sup>11</sup> The ninth group was Jeshua's group.
- The tenth group was Shecaniah's group.
- <sup>12</sup> The eleventh group was Eliashib's group.
- The twelfth group was Jakim's group.
- <sup>13</sup> The thirteenth group was Huppah's group.
- The fourteenth group was Jeshebeab's group.
- <sup>14</sup> The fifteenth group was Bilgah's group.
- The sixteenth group was Immer's group.
- <sup>15</sup> The seventeenth group was Hezir's group.
- The eighteenth group was Happizzes's group.
- <sup>16</sup> The nineteenth group was Pethahiah's group.
- The twentieth group was Hezekel's group.
- <sup>17</sup> The twenty-first group was Jakin's group.
- The twenty-second group was Gamul's group.

secretary A man that wrote down and copied books and letters.

lot(s) Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

- <sup>18</sup> The twenty-third group was Delaiah's group.
- The twenty-fourth group was Maaziah's group.

<sup>19</sup>These were the groups chosen to serve in the Lord's temple.* They obeyed Aaron's rules for serving in the temple. The Lord God of Israel had given those rules to Aaron.

The Other Levites

- From Amram's descendants: Shubael.
- From Shubael's descendants: Jehdeiah.
- <sup>21</sup> From Rehabiah: Isshiah. (Isshiah was the oldest son.)
- <sup>22</sup> From Izhar family group: Shelomoth.
- From Shelomoth's family: Jahath.
- <sup>23</sup> Hebron's oldest son was Jeriah.
- Amariah was Hebron's second son.
- Jahaziel was his third son,
- and Jekameam was his fourth son.
- <sup>24</sup> Uzziel's son was Micah.
- Micah's son was Shamir.
- <sup>25</sup> Isshiah was Micah's brother. Isshiah's son was Zechariah.
- <sup>26</sup> Merari's* descendants were Mahli, Mushi, and Jaaziah his son.
- <sup>27</sup> Jaaziah son of Merari had sons named Shoham and Zaccur.
- <sup>28</sup> Mahli's son was Eleazar. But Eleazar did not have sons.
- <sup>29</sup> Kish's son was Jerahmeel.
- <sup>30</sup> Mushi's sons were Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth.

Those are the leaders of Levite families. They are listed by their families. <sup>31</sup>They were chosen for special jobs. They threw lots* like their relatives, the priests. The priests were Aaron's descendants.* They threw lots in front of David the king, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the leaders of the priests' and Levite families. The older families and the younger families were treated the same when their jobs were chosen.

The Music Groups

25 David and the leaders of the army separated Asaph's sons for special service. Asaph's sons were Heman and Jeduthun. Their special service was to prophesy* God's message by using harps, lyres,* and cymbals.* Here is a list of the men that served this way:

<sup>2</sup>From Jeduthun's family: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah. There were six of them. Jeduthun led his sons. Jeduthun used harps* to prophesy* and give thanks and praise to the Lord.

<sup>4</sup>Heman's sons that served were Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shubael, and Jerimoth; Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti and Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir and Mahazioth. <sup>5</sup>All these men were Heman's sons. Heman was David's seer.* God promised to make Heman strong. So Heman had many sons. God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters. <sup>6</sup>Heman led all his sons in singing in the Lord's temple.* Those sons used cymbals,* lyres,* and harps. That was their way of serving in God's temple. King David chose those men. <sup>7</sup>Those men and their relatives from the family group of Levi were trained to sing. There were 288 men that learned to sing praises to the Lord. <sup>8</sup>They threw lots* to choose the different kinds of work each person was to do. Every person was treated the same. Young and old were treated the same. And the teacher was treated the same as the student.

prophesy To announce God's message.

lyre(s) An instrument with several strings, like a harp.

cymbals A pair of metal platters that are hit against each other to make a loud sound.

seer This is another name for a prophet. See 1 Samuel 9:9-11.

temple Here this means the Holy Tent at Shiloh where people went to worship the Lord.

lot(s) Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

<sup>9</sup>First, there were 12 men chosen from Asaph's (Joseph), sons and relatives.

Second, there were 12 men chosen from Gedaliah's sons and relatives.

The Gate Keepers

26 The Groups of the Gatekeepers: These are the gatekeepers from the Korah family. Meshelemiah and his sons, (Meshelemiah was Kore's son. He was from Asaph's family group.) <sup>2</sup>Meshelemiah had sons. Zechariah was the oldest son. Jediel was the second son. Zebadiah was the third son. Jathniel was the fourth son. <sup>3</sup>Elam was the fifth son. Jehohanan was the sixth son. And Eliehoenai was the seventh son.

<sup>4</sup>Obed-Edom and his sons. Obed-Edom's oldest son was Shemaiah. Jehozabad was his second son. Joah was his third son. Sacar was his fourth son. Nethanel was his fifth son. <sup>5</sup>Ammiel was his sixth son. Issachar was his seventh son. And Peullethai was his eighth son. God truly blessed Obed-Edom. <sup>6</sup>Obed-Edom's son was Shemaiah. Shemaiah also had sons. Shemaiah's sons were leaders in their father's family because they were brave soldiers. <sup>7</sup>Shemaiah's sons were Othni, Rephael, Obed, Elzabad, Elihu, and Semakiah. Elzabad's relatives were skilled workers. <sup>8</sup>All those men were Obed-Edom's descendants.* Those men and their sons and relatives were powerful men. They were good guards. Obed-Edom had 62 descendants.

<sup>10</sup>These are the gatekeepers from the Merari family. There was Hosah. Shimri was chosen to be the first son. Shimri was not really the oldest, but his father chose him to be the firstborn* son. <sup>11</sup>Hilkiah was his second son. Tebaliah was his third son. And Zechariah was his fourth son. In all Hosah had 13 sons and relatives.

<sup>12</sup>These were the leaders of the groups of the gatekeepers. The gatekeepers had a special way to serve in the Lord's temple,* just like their relatives did. <sup>13</sup>Each family was given a gate to guard. Lots* were thrown to choose a gate for a family. Young and old were treated the same.

<sup>14</sup>Meshelemiah was chosen to guard the East Gate. Then lots* were thrown for Meshelemiah's son Zechariah. Zechariah was a wise counselor. Zechariah was chosen for the North Gate. <sup>15</sup>Obed-Edom was chosen for the South Gate. And Obed-Edom's sons were chosen to guard the house where the valuable things were kept. <sup>16</sup>Shuppim and Hosah were chosen for the West Gate and the Shalleketh Gate on the upper road.

Guards stood side by side. <sup>17</sup>Six Levites stood guard every day at the East Gate. Four Levites stood guard every day at the North Gate. Four Levites stood guard at the South Gate. And two Levites guarded the house where the valuable things were kept. <sup>18</sup>There were four guards at the western court.* And there were two guards on the road to the court.

The Moneykeeper and Other Officials

<sup>20</sup>Ahijah was from the family group of Levi. Ahijah was responsible for taking care of the valuable things in God's temple.* Ahijah also was responsible for the places where the holy things were kept.

<sup>23</sup>Other leaders were chosen, from the family groups of Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. <sup>24</sup>Shubael was the leader responsible for the valuable things in the Lord's temple.* Shubael was Gershom's son. Gershom was Moses' son. <sup>25</sup>These were Shubael's relatives:

Obed-Edom God blessed Obed-Edom when the Box of the Agreement stayed at his house. See 1 Chronicles 21.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

firstborn The first born child. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for worshiping God.

lot(s) Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

court We do not know the exact meaning of this word.

His relatives from Eliezer were: Rehabiah, Eliezer's son. Jeshaiiah, Rehabiah's son. Joram, Jeshaiiah's son. Zicri, Joram's son. And Shelomith, Zicri's son. <sup>26</sup>Shelomith and his relatives were responsible for all the things David had collected for the temple.

The officers of the army also gave things for the temple.* <sup>27</sup>They gave some of the things taken in wars. They gave those things to be used in building the Lord's temple. <sup>28</sup>Shelomith and his relatives also took care of all the holy things given by Samuel the seer,* Saul son of Kish; Abner son of Ner; and Joab son of Zeruiah. Shelomith and his relatives took care of all the holy things that people gave to the Lord.

<sup>29</sup>Kenaniah was from the Izhar family. Kenaniah and his sons had work outside the temple. They worked as policemen and judges in different places in Israel. <sup>30</sup>Hashabiah was from the Hebron family. Hashabiah and his relatives were responsible for all the Lord's work and for the king's business in Israel west of the Jordan River. There were 1,700 powerful men in Hashabiah's group. <sup>31</sup>The family history of the Hebron family shows that Jeriah was their leader. When David had been king for 40 years, he ordered his people to search through the family histories for strong and skilled men. Some of those men were found among the Hebron family living in the town of Jazer in Gilead. <sup>32</sup>Jeriah had 2,700 relatives that were powerful men and leaders of families. King David gave those 2,700 relatives the responsibility of leading the family groups of Reuben, Gad, and half of Manasseh in taking care of the Lord's work and the king's business.

Army Groups

27 This is the list of the Israelite people that served the king in the army. Each group was on duty one month each year. There were rulers of families, captains, generals, and the policemen that served the king. Each army group had 24,000 men.

<sup>3</sup>Dodai was in charge of the army group for the second month. He was from Ahoah. There were 24,000 men in Dodai's group.

<sup>4</sup>The third commander was Benaiah. Benaiah was the commander for the third month. Benaiah was Jehoiada's son. Jehoiada was the leading priest. There were 24,000 men in Benaiah's group. <sup>5</sup>He was the same Benaiah that was a brave soldier from the Thirty Heroes. Benaiah led those men. Benaiah's son Ammizabad was in charge of Banaiah's group.

<sup>7</sup>The fifth commander was Shamhuth. Shamhuth was the commander for the fifth month. Shamhuth was from Zerah's family. There were 24,000 men in Shamhuth's group.

<sup>8</sup>The sixth commander was Ira. Ira was the commander for the sixth month. Ira was Ikkesh's son. Ikkesh was from the town of Tekoa. There were 24,000 men in Ira's group.

<sup>9</sup>The seventh commander was Helez. Helez was the commander for the seventh month. He was from the Pelonite people, and a descendant* of Ephraim. There were 24,000 men in Helez's group.

<sup>10</sup>The eighth commander was Sibbecai. Sibbecai was the commander for the eighth month. Sibbecai was from Hushah. Sibbecai was from Zerah's family. There were 24,000 men in Sibbecai's group.

month. Abiezer was from the town of Anathoth. Abiezer was from the family group of Benjamin. There were 24,000 men in Abiezer's group.

<sup>13</sup>The tenth commander was Maharai. Maharai was the commander for the tenth month. Maharai was from Netophah. He was from Zerah's family. There were 24,000 men in Maharai's group.

<sup>14</sup>The eleventh commander was Benaiah. Benaiah was the commander for the eleventh month. Benaiah was from Pirathon. Benaiah was from the Ephraim family group. There were 24,000 men in Benaiah's group.

<sup>15</sup>The twelfth commander was Heldai. Heldai was the commander for the twelfth month. Heldai was from Netophah. Heldai was from Othniel's family. There were 24,000 men in Heldai's group.

Leaders of the Family Groups

<sup>16</sup>The leaders of the family groups of Israel were:

- Reuben: Eliezer son of Zicri.
- Simeon: Shephatiah son of Maacah.
- <sup>17</sup> Levi: Hashabiah son of Kemuel.
- Aaron: Zadok.
- <sup>18</sup> Judah: Elihu. (Elihu was one of David's brothers.)
- Issachar: Omri son of Michael.
- <sup>19</sup> Zebulun: Ishmaiah son of Obadiah.
- Naphtali: Jeremoth son of Azriel.
- <sup>20</sup> Ephraim: Hoshea son of Azaziah.
- West Manasseh: Joel son of Pedaiah.
- <sup>21</sup> East Manasseh: Iddo son of Zechariah.
- Benjamin: Jaasiel son of Abner.
- <sup>22</sup> Dan: Azarel son of Jeroham.

Those were the leaders of the family groups of Israel.

David Counts the Israelites

<sup>23</sup>David decided to count the men in Israel. There were very many people because God promised to make the people of Israel as many as the stars in the sky. So David only counted the men that were 20 years old and older. <sup>24</sup>Joab son of Zeruiah began to count the people, but he did not finish.* God became angry with the people of Israel. That is why the number of the people was not put in the history book about King David's rule.

The King's Administrators

<sup>25</sup>This is the list of men that were responsible for the king's property:

- Azmaveth son of Adiel was in charge of the king's storerooms.
- Jonathan son of Uzziyah was in charge of the storerooms in the small towns, villages, fields, and towers.
- <sup>26</sup> Ezri son of Kelub was in charge of the field workers.
- <sup>27</sup> Shimei was in charge of the fields of grapes. Shimei was from the town of Ramah.
- Zabdi was in charge of the storage and care of the wine that came from the fields of grapes. Zabdi from Shepham.
- <sup>28</sup> Baal-Hanan was in charge of the olive trees and sycamore trees in the western hill country. Baal-Hanan was from Geder.
- Joash was in charge of storing the olive oil.
- <sup>29</sup> Shitrai was in charge of the cows in the area of Sharon. Shitrai was from the area of Sharon.
- Shaphat son of Adlai was in charge of the cows in the valleys.
- <sup>30</sup> Obil was in charge of the camels. Obil was an Ishmaelite.
- Jehdeiah was in charge of the donkeys. Jehdeiah was a Meronothite.
- <sup>31</sup> Jaziz was in charge of the sheep. Jaziz was from the Hagrite people.

All these men were the leaders that took care of King David's property.

Joab ... finish God stopped him. See 1 Chronicles 21:1-30.

David's Plans for the Temple

28 David gathered all the leaders of the people of Israel. He commanded all those leaders to come to Jerusalem. David called all the leaders of the family groups, the commanders of the army groups serving the king, the captains, the generals, the officials taking care of the property and animals that belonged to the king and his sons, the king's important officials, the powerful heroes, and all the brave soldiers.

<sup>2</sup>King David stood up and said, "Listen to me, my brothers and my people. In my heart I wanted to build a place to keep the Box of the Lord's Agreement.* I wanted to build a place that would be God's footstool.* And I made the plans for building that house for God. <sup>3</sup>But God said to me, 'No David, you must not build a house for my name. You must not do that because you are a soldier, and you have killed many men.'

<sup>4</sup>"The Lord God of Israel chose the family group of Judah to lead the twelve family groups of Israel. And then from that family group, the Lord chose my father's family. And from that family, God chose me to be the king of Israel forever! God wanted to make me king of Israel!

scribe A man that wrote down and copied books and letters. He often became an expert at the meaning of those writings ("scriptures").

Box of the Agreement Also called "The Ark of the Covenant," the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

footstool Usually this was a small stool in front of a chair, but here it means the temple. It is like God is the king sitting in his chair and resting his feet on the building David wanted to build.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord has given me many sons. And from all those sons, the Lord chose Solomon to be the new king of Israel. But really, Israel is the Lord's kingdom. <sup>6</sup>The Lord said to me, 'David, your son Solomon will build my temple* and the area around it. Why? Because I have chosen Solomon to be my son, and I will be his father.* <sup>7</sup>Solomon is obeying my laws and commands now. If he continues to obey my laws, then I will make Solomon's kingdom strong forever!'

<sup>8</sup>David said, "Now, in front of all Israel and God, I tell you these things: Be careful to obey all the commands of the Lord your God! Then you can keep this good land. And you can pass it on to your descendants* forever.

<sup>9</sup>"And you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father. Serve God with a pure heart. Be happy in your heart (mind) to serve God. Why? Because the Lord knows what is in every person's heart (mind). The Lord understands everything you think. If you go to the Lord for help, you will get an answer. But if you turn away from the Lord, he will leave you forever. <sup>10</sup>Solomon, you must understand that the Lord has chosen you to build his holy place—the temple.* Be strong and finish the job."

<sup>11</sup>Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for building the temple.* Those plans were also for the porch around the temple, and for its buildings, its storerooms, its upper rooms, its inside rooms, and for the place for the mercy seat.* <sup>12</sup>David had made plans for all parts of the temple. David gave those plans to Solomon. David gave him all the plans for the yard around the Lord's temple, and for all the rooms around it. David gave him the plans for the temple storerooms and for the storerooms where they kept the holy things used in the temple. <sup>13</sup>David told Solomon about the groups

temple The special building in Jerusalem for worshiping God.

I have ... father This showed God was making Solomon the king. See Psalm 2:7.

of the priests and Levites. David told Solomon about all the work of serving in the Lord's temple and about all the things to be used in the temple service. <sup>14</sup>David told Solomon how much gold and silver should be used to make all the things to be used in the temple. <sup>15</sup>There were plans for gold lamps and lampstands, and there were plans for silver lamps and lampstands. David told Solomon how much gold or silver to use for each lampstand and its lamps. The different lampstands were to be used where needed. <sup>16</sup>David told how much gold should be for each table used for holy bread. David told how much silver should be used for the silver tables. <sup>17</sup>David told how much pure gold should be used to make the forks, sprinkling bowls, and pitchers. David told how much gold should be used to make each gold dish, and how much silver should be used to make each silver dish. <sup>18</sup>David told how much pure gold should be used for the altar of incense.* David also gave Solomon the plans for God's, chariot—the mercy seat* with the Cherub angels* spreading their wings over the Box of the Lord's Agreement.* The Cherub angels were made of gold.

<sup>20</sup>David also said to his son Solomon, "Be strong and brave and finish this work. Don't be afraid, because the Lord God, my God, is with you. He will help you until all the work is finished. He will not leave you. You will build the Lord's temple.* <sup>21</sup>The groups of the priests and Levites are ready for all the work on God's temple. Every skilled worker is ready to help you with all the work. The officials and all the people will obey every command you give."

Gifts for Building the Temple

29 King David said to all the people of Israel that were gathered together, "God chose my son Solomon. Solomon is young and does not know all that he needs to do this work. But the work is very important. This house isn't for people, this house is for the Lord God. <sup>1</sup>I have done my best to make plans to build my God's temple.* I have given gold for the things made of gold. I have given silver for the things made of silver. I have given bronze for the things made of bronze. I have given iron for the things made of iron. I have given wood for the things made of wood. I have also given onyx* stones for the settings,* mosaic tiles,* all kinds of valuable stones in many different colors, and white marble stones. I have given many, many of these things for the building of the Lord's temple. <sup>2</sup>I am making a special gift of gold and silver things for my God's temple. I am doing this because I really want the temple of my God to be built. I am giving all these things to build this holy temple. <sup>3</sup>I have given 110 tons* of pure gold from Ophir. I have given 260 tons* of pure silver. The silver is for covering the walls of the buildings in the temple. <sup>4</sup>I have given gold and silver for all the things made of gold and silver. I have given gold and silver so skilled men can make all different kinds of things for the temple. Now, how many of you people of Israel are ready to give yourselves to the Lord today?"

<sup>5</sup>The family leaders, the leaders of the family groups of Israel, the generals, the captains, and the officials responsible for the king's work, were all ready and gave their valuable things. <sup>7</sup>These are the things they gave

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

Box of the Agreement Also called "The Ark of the Covenant," the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

for God's house*: 190 tons* of gold; 375 tons* of silver; 675 tons* of bronze; and 3,750 tons* of iron. *People that had valuable stones gave them to the Lord's temple.* Jehiel took care of the valuable stones. Jehiel was from the Gershon family. *The people were very happy because their leaders were happy to give so much. The leaders were happy to give freely from good hearts. King David was also very happy.

David's Beautiful Prayer

<sup>10</sup>Then David praised the Lord in front of all of the people who were gathered together. David said:

"Lord God of Israel, our Father, praise you forever and ever!

Everything in heaven and on earth belong to you;

The kingdom belongs to you, O Lord!
You are the Ruler over everything.

<sup>12</sup> Riches and honor come from you.
You rule everything.

You have power and strength.

You have the power to make anyone great or strong!

<sup>13</sup> Now, our God, we thank you,
And we praise your glorious name!

<sup>14</sup> All these things did not come from me and my people—

All these things come from you,
And we have given you things that came from you.

<sup>15</sup> We are like strangers and travelers.
All our ancestors* were also strangers and travelers.

Our time on earth is like a shadow.

There is no hope.

<sup>16</sup> O Lord our God, we have gathered all these things to build your temple.

We will build this temple to honor your name,
but all these things have come from
you.

Everything belongs to you.

<sup>17</sup> I know, also, my God, that you test people's hearts.

And you are happy when people do good things.

I was happy to give all these things from an honest heart.

Now I have seen your people gathered here, happy to give these things to
you.

<sup>18</sup> O Lord, you are the God of our ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Israel.*

Please help your people to always want to serve you.

And let them always turn their hearts to you.

<sup>19</sup> And help my son Solomon be true to you.
Help him always obey your commands, laws, and rules.

Help Solomon to do these things, and help him build the palace* I have planned."

<sup>20</sup>Then David said to all the group of people gathered together, "Now give praise to the Lord your God." So all the people gave praise to the Lord God, the God their ancestors* worshiped. They bowed to the ground to give honor to the Lord and to the king.

Solomon Becomes King

<sup>21</sup>The next day the people made sacrifices* to the Lord. They offered burnt offerings to the Lord. They offered 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams,*

Israel Another name for Jacob. See Genesis 35:19.

palace A large house for the king and his family.

ram(s) A male sheep.

God's house Another name for the temple in Jerusalem, the special place for Jewish worship.

190 tons Literally, "5,000 kikars and 10,000 darics."

1,000 lambs, and they also gave drink offerings. There were many, many sacrifices made for all the people of Israel. <sup>22</sup>That day the people ate and drank—and the Lord was there with them. They were very happy!

And they made David's son Solomon king the second time.* They anointed* Solomon to be king, and they anointed Zadok to be priest. They did this in the place where the Lord was.

David's Death

<sup>26-27</sup>David son of Jesse was king over all Israel for 40 years. David was king in the city of Hebron for seven years. Then David was king in the city of Jerusalem for 33 years. <sup>28</sup>David died when he was old. David had lived a good, long life. David had many riches and honors. And David's son Solomon became the new king after him.

<sup>29</sup>The things that King David did, from beginning to end, are written in the writings of Samuel the seer,* and in the writings of Nathan the prophet, and in the writings of Gad the seer. <sup>30</sup>Those writings tell all about the things David did as king of Israel. They also tell about David's power and all that happened to him. And they tell about what happened to Israel and to all the kingdoms around them.

And they made ... time Solomon was chosen to be king the first time when his half-brother Adonijah tried to make himself king. See I Kings 1:5-39.

anoint(ed) To pour olive oil on a person's head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

seer This is another name for a prophet. See I Samuel 9:9-11.

Solomon Asks for Wisdom

1 Solomon became a very strong king because the Lord his God was with him. The Lord made Solomon very great.

<sup>2</sup>Solomon spoke to all the people of Israel. He spoke to the captains, generals, judges, to every leader in all Israel, and to the leaders of the families. <sup>3</sup>Then Solomon and all the people gathered together with him went to the high place* at the town of Gibeon. God's Meeting Tent* was there. The Lord's servant Moses made that tent when he and the people of Israel were in the desert. <sup>4</sup>David had carried God's Box of the Agreement* from Kiriath-Jearim to Jerusalem. David had made a place to put it in Jerusalem. David had set up a tent for God's Box of the Agreement in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>Bezalel had made a bronze altar. Bezalel was Uri's son. Uri was Hur's son. But the bronze altar was in Gibeon in front of the Holy Tent. So Solomon and the people went to Gibeon to ask the Lord for advice. <sup>6</sup>Solomon went up to the bronze altar in front of the Lord at the Meeting Tent. Solomon offered 1,000 burnt offerings* on the altar.

high place(s) Places for worshipping God or false gods.

These places were often on the hills and mountains.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (Tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

Box of the Agreement The box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert. Also called "The Ark of the Covenant."

burnt offering(s) Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.

<sup>7</sup>That night God came to Solomon. God said, "Solomon, ask me what you want me to give you."

<sup>8</sup>Solomon said to God, "You have been very kind to my father David. You have chosen me to be the new king in my father's place. <sup>9</sup>Now, Lord God, make your promise to my father David come true. You have chosen me to be king of a very large nation. There are so many people they are like the dust of the earth. <sup>10</sup>Now give me wisdom and knowledge. Then I can lead these people in the right way. No one can rule these people without your help!"

<sup>11</sup>God said to Solomon, "Your attitude is good. You have not asked for wealth, or things rich people have, or to be honored. You have not asked for your enemies to be killed. You have not asked for a long life. But you did ask for wisdom and knowledge for yourself. You wanted wisdom and knowledge to lead my people. I chose you to be king over these people. <sup>12</sup>So I will give wisdom and knowledge to you. I will also give you wealth, and things rich people have, and I will honor you. The kings that lived before you have never had as much wealth and honor. And the kings that will live after you will not have as much wealth and honor."

Solomon Builds His Army and Wealth

<sup>14</sup>Solomon gathered horses and chariots.* Solomon had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horses. Solomon put the horses and chariots in the chariot cities.* Solomon also put some horses and chariots in Jerusalem. That is where the king's home was. <sup>15</sup>In Jerusalem, Solomon gathered much silver and gold. He got so much silver and gold that it was just like plain rocks. Solomon gathered much cedar wood. He got so much cedar wood that it was like the sycamore trees in the low country. <sup>16</sup>Solomon brought in horses from Egypt and Kue.* The king's business men bought the horses in Kue. <sup>17</sup>Solomon's business men bought a chariot from Egypt for 600 shekels* of silver, and a horse for 150 shekels of silver. The business men then sold the horses and chariots to all the kings of the Hittite people and to the kings of Aram.

Solomon Makes Plans to Build the Temple

2 Solomon planned to build a temple* to give honor to the Lord's name. Solomon also planned to build a king's house for himself. <sup>2</sup>Solomon chose 70,000 men to carry things. He chose 80,000 men to cut out stones in the mountains. And he chose 3,600 men to supervise the workers.

<sup>3</sup>Then Solomon sent a message to Hiram. Hiram was the king of the city of Tyre. Solomon said, "Help me like you helped David my father. You sent wood to him from cedar trees so he could build a house for himself to live in. <sup>4</sup>I will build a temple* to give honor to the name of the Lord my God. I will give this temple to the Lord so my people can worship him. We will worship the Lord when we do these things: When we burn incense* in front of the Lord, and we put the holy bread* on the table regularly, and we burn sacrifices* every morning and every evening. The Lord will be worshiped on the Sabbath days, on the New Moon* days, and on the other feast days the Lord our God has commanded us to celebrate. This is a rule for the people of Israel to obey forever.

<sup>5</sup>"The temple* I build will be great, because our God is greater than all gods. <sup>6</sup>But no person can really build a house for our God. Heaven—yes, even the highest of heavens, cannot hold God! I cannot build a temple for God. I can only build a place to burn incense* in front of God.

<sup>7</sup>"Now send me a man skillful in working with gold, silver, bronze, and iron. That man must know how to work with purple, red, and blue materials. That man must know how to make carvings with the skilled men with me in Judah and Jerusalem. My father David chose these skilled men. <sup>8</sup>Also send me wood from cedar trees, pine trees, and algum trees from the country of Lebanon. I know your servants are experienced at cutting down trees from Lebanon. My servants will help your servants. <sup>9</sup>Get much wood for me. The temple* I am going to build will be great and wonderful. <sup>10</sup>I have given 125,000 bushels* of wheat for food, 125,000 bushels* of barley, 115,000 gallons* of wine, and 115,000 gallons* of oil to your servants that cut down the trees for wood."

<sup>11</sup>Then Hiram answered Solomon. Hiram sent a message to Solomon. This is what that message said: "Solomon, the Lord loves his people. That is why he chose you to be their king." <sup>12</sup>Hiram also said, "Praise the Lord God of Israel! He made heaven and earth. He gave a holy bread This was the special bread that was put in the Holy Tent. It is also called, "shewbread" or "the bread of the Presence." Normally, only the priests should eat this bread. See Lev. 24:5-9.

New Moon This was the first day of the Hebrew month. There were special meetings on these days to worship God.

wise son to King David. Solomon, you have wisdom and understanding. You are building a temple* for the Lord. You are also building a king's house for yourself. <sup>13</sup>I will send a skilled man to you. He has understanding of many different kinds of art. His name is Hiram-Abi. <sup>14</sup>His mother was from the family group of Dan. And his father was from the city of Tyre. Hiram-Abi has skill in working with gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, and wood. Hiram-Abi also has skill in working with purple, blue, and red materials, and expensive linen.* And Hiram-Abi also is skilled in carvings. He is skilled in following any plan you show him. He will help your skilled men. And he will help David's skilled men. I will obey David, your father. <sup>15</sup>You talked about sending wheat, barley, oil, and wine to me. Send them to my servants. <sup>16</sup>And we will cut wood from the country of Lebanon. We will cut as much wood as you need. We will use flat boats to carry the wood on the sea to the town of Joppa. Then you can carry the wood to Jerusalem."

<sup>17</sup>Then Solomon counted all the strangers living in the country of Israel. This was after the time when David counted the people. David was Solomon's father. They found 153,600 strangers in the country. <sup>18</sup>Solomon chose 70,000 strangers to carry things. Solomon chose 80,000 strangers to be cutters of stone in the mountains. And Solomon chose 3,600 strangers to be the supervisors to keep the people working.

Solomon Builds the Temple

3 Solomon began to build the Lord's temple* at Jerusalem on Mount Moriah. Mount Moriah is the place where the Lord came to David, Solomon's father. Solomon built the temple on the place that David had made ready. This place was at the threshing floor* that had belonged to Ornan. Ornan was a man from the Jebusite people. <sup>2</sup>Solomon began building in the second month of the fourth year he ruled Israel.

<sup>3</sup>This is how Solomon was told to measure God's temple.* The foundation was 90 feet* long and 30 feet* wide. Solomon used the old cubit measure when he measured the temple. <sup>4</sup>The porch in front of the temple was 30 feet* long and 30 feet high.* Solomon covered the inside of the porch with pure gold. <sup>5</sup>Solomon put panels made of cypress wood on the walls of the larger room. Then he put pure gold over the cypress panels. And he put pictures of palm trees and chains on the pure gold. <sup>6</sup>Solomon put valuable stones in the temple for beauty. The gold Solomon used was gold from Parvaim.* <sup>7</sup>Solomon covered the inside of the temple with the gold. Solomon put the gold on the ceiling beams, doorposts, walls, and doors. Solomon carved cherub angels on the walls.

<sup>8</sup>Then Solomon made the Most Holy Place.* The Most Holy Place was 30 feet* long and 30 feet* wide. It was as wide as the temple* was. Solomon put pure gold on the walls of the Most Holy Place. The gold weighed about 23 tons.* <sup>9</sup>The gold nails weighed 1 1/4 pounds.* Solomon covered the upper rooms with gold. <sup>10</sup>Solomon made two cherub angels* to put in the Most Holy Place. The workers covered the cherub angels with gold. <sup>11</sup>Each wing of the cherub angels was 7 1/2 feet* long. The total length of the wings was 30 feet.* One wing of the first cherub angel touched the wall on one side of the room. The other wing touched one wing of

30 feet high Or, "20 cubits." Some of the Hebrew writings say "120 cubits high," or 180 feet. But other writings show that the first writing probably did say "20 cubits," or 30 feet.

Parvaim This was a place where there was much gold. It was probably in the country of Ophir.

Most Holy Place The inside room where the Box of the Lord's Agreement sat. It is also named the "Holy of Holies." It is the spiritual place where God lives and is worshipped.

the second cherub angel. <sup>12</sup>And the other wing of the second cherub angel touched the other wall on the other side of the room. <sup>13</sup>The cherub angels' wings covered a total of 30 feet.* The cherub angels stood looking inside toward the Holy Place.*

Furniture for the Temple

4 Solomon used bronze to make an altar.* That bronze altar was 30 feet* long, 30 feet wide, and 18 feet* tall. <sup>2</sup>Then Solomon used melted bronze to make a large tank.* The large tank was round and it measured 18 feet across from edge to edge. And it measured 7½ feet* tall and 45 feet* all around it. <sup>3</sup>There were carvings of bulls all the way around and under the edge of the large bronze tank* for 18 feet. The bulls were put in two rows on the tank when the tank was shaped. <sup>4</sup>The large bronze tank was on top of twelve large statues of bulls. Three bulls looked toward the north. Three bulls looked toward the west. Three bulls looked toward the south. Three bulls looked toward the east. The large bronze tank was on top of these bulls. All the bulls stood with their rear ends to each other and to the center. <sup>5</sup>The large bronze tank was 3 inches thick.* The edge of the large tank was like the edge of a cup. The edge looked like a lily blossom. It could hold about 17,500 gallons.*

<sup>7</sup>Solomon made ten lampstands of gold. He followed the plans made for these lampstands. He put the lampstands in the temple.* There were five lampstands on the right side and five lampstands on the left side. <sup>8</sup>Solomon made ten tables and put them in the temple.* Five tables were on the right side and five tables were put on the left side in the temple. And Solomon used gold to make 100 basins. <sup>9</sup>Solomon also made the Priests' yard,* the Great yard, and the doors for the yards. He used bronze to cover the doors that opened to the yard. <sup>10</sup>Then he put the large bronze tank* on the right side of the temple on the southeast side.

Solomon on God's temple.* <sup>12</sup>Huram had made the two columns and the large bowls on the top parts of the two columns. Huram also made the two net decorations to cover the two large bowls on the top parts of the two columns. <sup>13</sup>Huram made 400 pomegranates* for the two net decorations. There were two rows of pomegranates for each net. The nets covered the large bowls on the top parts on the two columns. <sup>14</sup>Huram also made the stands and the bowls on the stands. <sup>15</sup>Huram made the one large bronze tank* and twelve bulls under the tank. <sup>16</sup>Huram made the pots, shovels, forks and all the things for King Solomon for the Lord's temple. These things were made of polished bronze. <sup>17</sup>King Solomon first poured these things in clay molds. The molds were made in the Jordan Valley between the towns of Succoth and Zeredah. <sup>18</sup>Solomon made so many of these things that no person tried to weigh the bronze used.

<sup>19</sup>Solomon also made the things for God's temple.* Solomon made the golden altar.* He made the tables where the bread of the Presence was put. <sup>20</sup>Solomon made the lampstands and their lamps of pure gold. The lamps were to burn in the way planned for them in front of the Holy Place* inside. <sup>21</sup>Solomon used pure gold to make the flowers, lamps, and tongs.* <sup>22</sup>Solomon used pure gold to make the trimmers, bowls, pans and the censers.* Solomon used pure gold to make the doors for the temple, the inside doors for the Most Holy Place* and the doors for the main hall.

5 Then all the work Solomon had done for the Lord's temple* was finished. Solomon brought in all the things that his father David had given for the temple. Solomon brought all the things in that were made of silver and gold: and all the furniture. Solomon put all those things in the treasury rooms of God's temple.

The Holy Box Carried Into the Temple

<sup>3</sup>When all the elders of Israel arrived, the Levites picked up the Box of the Agreement.* <sup>4</sup>Then the priests and the Levites carried the Box of the Agreement to Jerusalem. The priests and Levites also brought the Meeting Tent* and all the holy things that were in it to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>King Solomon and all the people of Israel met in front of the Box of the Agreement. King Solomon and all the people of Israel sacrificed* sheep and bulls. There were so many sheep and bulls no person could count them. <sup>6</sup>Then the priests brought the Box of the Lord's Agreement to the place that was made ready for it. That place was the Most Holy Place* inside the temple.* The Box of the Agreement was put under the wings of the cherub angels.* <sup>7</sup>The cherub angels spread their wings over the place where the Box of the Agreement was. The cherub angels stood over the Box of the Agreement and the poles used to carry the Box. <sup>8</sup>The poles were long enough that their ends could be seen from the front of the Most Holy sacrifice(d) To kill a special animal and burn it on an altar as a gift to God.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (Tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

Place. But no person could see the poles from the outside of the temple. The poles are still there even today. <sup>10</sup>There was nothing in the Box of the Agreement except the two tablets.* Moses had put those two tablets in the Box of the Agreement at Mount Horeb. Horeb was the place where the Lord made an Agreement with the people of Israel. That happened after the people of Israel came out of Egypt.

<sup>11</sup>Then all the priests who went into the Holy Place* came out. They had made themselves holy. It was not important at that time which group of priests they were from. They all made themselves holy after coming out of the Holy Place. <sup>12</sup>And all the Levite singers stood at the east side of the altar.* All of Asaph's, Heman's, and Jeduthun's singing groups were there. And their sons and relatives were there also. Those Levite singers were dressed in white linen.* They had cymbals,* lyres,* and harps. There were 120 priests there with those Levite singers. Those 120 priests blew trumpets. <sup>13</sup>Those who blew the trumpets and those who sang were like one person. They made one sound when they praised and thanked the Lord. They made a loud noise with the trumpets, cymbals,* and instruments of music. This is what they sang:

“The Lord is good,
The Lord's kindness continues forever!”

Then the Lord's temple* was filled with a cloud. <sup>14</sup>The priests could not continue to serve because of the cloud. This was because the Lord's glory filled God's temple.

6 Then Solomon said, “The Lord said he would live in the dark cloud. <sup>2</sup>I have built a house for you to live in, O Lord. It is a high house, a place for you to live in forever!”

two tablets They were the two tablets on which God wrote the Ten Commandments.

Holy Place The room in the Holy Tent and in the temple that was used by the priests to do their daily service to God.
altar(s) A stone table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

linen A type of cloth.

cymbals A pair of metal platters that are hit against each other to make a loud sound.

lyre(s) An instrument with several strings, like a harp.

Solomon's Speech

<sup>7</sup>“My father David wanted to build a temple* for the name of the Lord God of Israel. <sup>8</sup>But the Lord said to my father, ‘David, when you wanted to build a temple for my name, you did well. <sup>9</sup>But, you cannot build the temple. But your own son will build the temple for my name.’ <sup>10</sup>Now, the Lord has done what he said he would do. I am the new king in my father's place. David was my father. Now I am Israel's king. That is what the Lord promised. And I have built the temple for the name of the Lord God of Israel. <sup>11</sup>I have put the Box of the Agreement* in the temple. The Box of the Agreement is where the Lord's Agreement is kept. The Lord made this Agreement with the people of Israel.”

Solomon's Prayer

platform Something like a table on which a person stood so all the people could see the person speaking.

placed it in the middle of the outside yard.* Then he stood on the platform and kneeled in front of all the people of Israel who were gathered together. Solomon spread his hands out toward the sky. <sup>14</sup>Solomon said:

"O Lord God of Israel, there is no god like you in heaven or on earth. You keep your agreement of love and kindness. You keep your agreement with your servants if they live right with all their hearts and obey you. <sup>15</sup>You kept your promise to your servant David. David was my father. You made a promise with your mouth. And today you have made that promise come true with your hands. <sup>16</sup>Now, O Lord God of Israel, keep your promise to your servant David. This is what you promised: You said, 'David, you will not fail to have a man from your family sit on Israel's throne in front of me. This will happen only if your sons are careful in what they do. They must obey my law the same as you have obeyed my law.' <sup>17</sup>Now, O Lord God of Israel, let your promise come true. You gave this promise to your servant David.

<sup>18</sup>"But we know that you, O God, will not really live on the earth with people. Heaven and the highest of heavens cannot hold you! And we know that this temple* I built cannot hold you! <sup>19</sup>But pay attention to my prayer and to my beggings for mercy. O Lord my God, listen to me calling out to you! Listen to the prayer that I am praying to you. I am your servant. <sup>20</sup>I pray that your eyes will be open to look at this temple day and night. You said you would put your name in this place. May you hear my prayers when I pray while I look at this temple. <sup>21</sup>Hear my prayers, and the prayers your people Israel pray. Hear our prayers while we pray looking at this temple. Hear from where you live in heaven. And when you hear our prayers, forgive us.

<sup>22</sup>"A person might be accused of doing something wrong against another person. When that happens, the accused person will have to use your name to promise that he is innocent. When he comes to make the promise in front of your altar* in the temple, <sup>23</sup>then hear from heaven. Act, and judge your servants. Punish the bad person and make him suffer the same things he made other people suffer. Prove that the person that has done right is innocent.

<sup>24</sup>"An enemy might defeat your people Israel because your people have sinned against you. And then if the people of Israel come back to you and confess your name and pray and beg to you in this temple,* <sup>25</sup>then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel. Bring them back into the land you gave to them and to their ancestors.*

<sup>26</sup>"The sky might close up so that there is no rain. This will happen if the people of Israel sin against you. And if the people of Israel are sorry and pray as they look at this temple,* and confess your name, and stop doing their sin because you are punishing them, <sup>27</sup>then hear from heaven. Hear and forgive their sins. The people of Israel are your servants. Then teach them the right way that they should live. And send rain on your land. That is the land you gave to your people.

<sup>28</sup>"There might be a famine* in the land, or terrible sicknesses, or disease in the crops, or mildew, or locusts, or grasshoppers. Or if enemies attack the people of Israel in their cities, or if there is any kind of sickness in Israel, <sup>29</sup>and then a prayer or begging is made by any of your people of Israel—each person knowing his own trouble and pain—and if that person spreads his hands and arms out while looking at this temple,* <sup>30</sup>then hear from heaven. Heaven is where you live. Hear and forgive. Give to each person what he should get, because you know what is in each person's heart. Only you know what is in a person's heart. <sup>31</sup>Then the people will fear and obey you as long as they live in the land you gave our ancestors.*

altar(s) A stone table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

famine A time when there is not enough rain for crops to grow. People and animals die without enough food or water.

yard A special area outside the temple.

<sup>32</sup>“There might be a stranger who is not one of your people of Israel, but who comes here from a country far away. And that stranger comes because of your great name and because of your strong hand and your arm reaching out. When this person comes and prays while looking at this temple,* <sup>33</sup>then hear from heaven. Heaven is where you live. And do what the stranger asks you to do. Then all the peoples of the earth will know your name and respect you, the same as your people Israel respects you. And all the people of the earth will know that this temple I built is called by your name.

<sup>36</sup>“People will sin against you—there is not a person that does not sin—and you will become angry with them. You will let an enemy defeat them, and be captured and forced to go to a land far away or near. <sup>37</sup>But then they will change their minds and beg you while they are in the land where they are prisoners. They will say, ‘We have sinned, we have done wrong and we have acted wickedly.’ <sup>38</sup>And then they will come back to you with all their heart and all their soul in the land where they are prisoners. And they will pray as they look toward their land, the land you gave their ancestors,* and toward the city that you chose. And they will pray as they look toward the temple* I built for your name. <sup>39</sup>When this happens, hear from heaven. Heaven is your home. Accept their prayer and their beggings and help them, and forgive your people who have sinned against you. <sup>40</sup>Now, my God, I ask you, open your eyes and your ears. Listen and pay attention to the prayers we are praying in this place.

and come to your resting place,
you and the Box of the Agreement*
that shows your strength.

Let your priests be dressed with salvation, O Lord God, and let your holy people be joyful and happy.

one.

Remember the faithful works of your servant David!”

The Temple Is Given to the Lord

7 When Solomon finished praying, fire came down from the sky and burned up the burnt offering* and the sacrifices.* The Lord’s glory filled the temple.* <sup>2</sup>The priests could not enter the Lord’s temple because the Lord’s glory filled it. <sup>3</sup>All the people of Israel saw the fire come down from heaven. The people of Israel also saw the Lord’s glory on the temple. They bowed their faces down low to the ground on the pavement. They worshiped and thanked the Lord. And they were saying,

And his kindness continues forever.”

<sup>4</sup>Then King Solomon and all the people of Israel offered sacrifices* in front of the Lord. <sup>5</sup>King Solomon offered 22,000 bulls and 120,000 sheep. The king and all the people made the temple* of God holy. It was to be used only for worshiping God. <sup>6</sup>The priests stood ready to do their work. The Levites also stood with the instruments of the Lord’s music. These instruments were made by King David to give thanks to the Lord. The priests and Levites were saying, “The Lord’s love continues forever!” The priests blew their trumpets as

burnt offering(s) Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

they stood across from the Levites. And all the people of Israel were standing.

<sup>7</sup>Solomon made the middle part of the yard holy. That yard is in front of the Lord's temple.* That is the place where Solomon offered burnt offerings* and the fat of the fellowship offerings. Solomon used the middle of the yard because the bronze altar* he made could not hold all the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and fat. There were many of those offerings.

<sup>8</sup>Solomon and all the people of Israel celebrated the feast for seven days. There was a very large group of people with Solomon. Those people came from the entrance of the town of Hamath and all the way to the Brook of Egypt. <sup>9</sup>On the eighth day they had a holy meeting because they had celebrated for seven days. They made the altar* holy and it was to be used only for worshiping the Lord. And they celebrated the feast for seven days. <sup>10</sup>On the 23rd day of the seventh month Solomon sent the people back to their homes. The people were very happy and their hearts were full of joy, because the Lord was so good to David, to Solomon, and to his people Israel.

The Lord Comes to Solomon

<sup>11</sup>Solomon finished the Lord's temple* and the king's house. Solomon had success in finishing all the things he planned in the Lord's temple and in his own house. <sup>12</sup>Then the Lord came to Solomon at night. The Lord said to him, "Solomon, I have heard your prayer, and I have chosen this place for myself to be a house for sacrifices.* <sup>13</sup>When I close the sky so there is no rain, or I command the locusts to destroy the land, or I send sicknesses to my people, <sup>14</sup>and if my people who are called by my name become humble and pray, and look for me, and turn away from their evil ways, then I will hear them from heaven. And I will forgive their sin and I will heal their land. <sup>15</sup>Now, my eyes are open, and my ears will pay attention to the prayers prayed in this place. <sup>16</sup>I have chosen this temple, and I have made it holy so that my name will be here forever. Yes, my eyes and heart will always be here in this temple.

<sup>17</sup>"Now you, Solomon, if you live in front of me the same way your father David lived, and if you obey all I have commanded, and if you obey my laws and rules, <sup>18</sup>then I will make you a strong king and your kingdom will be great. That is the agreement I made with David your father. I told him, 'David, you will always have a man in your family that will be a king in Israel.'

<sup>19</sup>"But if you do not obey my laws and commands that I gave you, and if you worship other gods and serve them, <sup>20</sup>then I will take the people of Israel out from my land that I gave them. And I will leave this temple* that I have made holy for my name. I will make this temple something that all the nations will speak evil about. <sup>21</sup>Every person who passes by this temple that was so highly honored will be surprised. They will say, 'Why has the Lord done this terrible thing to the land and to this temple?' <sup>22</sup>Then people will answer, 'Because the people of Israel refused to obey the Lord, the God their ancestors* obeyed. He is the God that led them out of the country of Egypt. But the people of Israel accepted other gods. They worshiped and served idol gods. That is the reason the Lord made all these terrible things happen to the people of Israel.'

The Cities Solomon Built

8 The time it took Solomon to build the Lord's temple* and his own house was 20 years. <sup>2</sup>Then Solomon built again the towns that Hiram gave him. And Solomon allowed some of the people of Israel to live in those towns. <sup>3</sup>After this Solomon went to Hamath of Zobah and captured it. 'Solomon also built the town of Tadmor in the desert. He built all the towns in Hamath to store things in. <sup>4</sup>Solomon built again the towns of Upper Beth-Horon and Lower Beth-Horon. He made those towns into strong forts. Those towns had strong walls, gates, and bars in the gates. <sup>6</sup>Solomon also built again the town of Baalath and all the other towns where he stored things. He built all the cities where the chariots* were kept and all the cities where the horse riders lived. Solomon built all he wanted in Jerusalem, Lebanon, and in all the country where he was king.

<sup>7,8</sup>There were many strangers left in the country where the people of Israel were living. Those people were the Hittite people, the Amorite people, the Perizzite people, the Hivite people, and the Jebusite people. Solomon forced all those strangers to be slave workers. Those people were not from the people of Israel. Those people were the descendants* of the people that were left in the land and not yet destroyed by the people of Israel. This still continues today. <sup>9</sup>Solomon did not force any of the people of Israel to be slave workers. The people of Israel were Solomon's fighting men. They were the commanders of Solomon's army officers. They were commanders of Solomon's chariots* and commanders of Solomon's chariot drivers. <sup>10</sup>And some of the men of Israel were leaders of Solomon's important officials. There were 250 of those leaders to supervise the people.

the Lord on the Lord's altar.* Solomon built that altar in front of the temple* porch. <sup>13</sup>Solomon offered sacrifices* every day the way Moses commanded. Sacrifices were to be offered on Sabbath days,* on the New Moon* celebrations, and on the three yearly holidays. The three yearly holidays were the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the Festival of Weeks, and the Festival of Shelters. <sup>14</sup>Solomon followed his father David's instructions. Solomon chose the groups of priests for their service. Solomon also chose the Levites for their duties. The Levites were to lead the praise and help the priests from day to day to do the things that needed to be done in the temple service. And Solomon chose the gatekeepers by their groups to serve at each gate. This is the way David, the man of God, instructed. <sup>15</sup>The people of Israel did not change or disobey any of Solomon's instructions to the priests and Levites. They did not change any of the instructions, even in the way they should keep the valuable things.

<sup>16</sup>All Solomon's work was done. It was well planned from the day the Lord's temple* was begun until the day it was finished. So the Lord's temple was finished.

<sup>17</sup>Then Solomon went to the towns of Ezion-Geber and Elath. Those towns were near the Red Sea in the country of Edom. <sup>18</sup>Hiram sent ships to Solomon. Hiram's own men sailed the ships. Hiram's men were skilled at sailing on the sea. Hiram's men went with Solomon's servants to Ophir* and brought back 17 tons of gold* to King Solomon.

altar(s) A stone table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

Sabbath day(s) Saturday. A special day of rest and worship for the Jews.

New Moon This was the first day of the Hebrew month. There were special meetings on these days to worship God.

Ophir A place where there was much gold. Today no person knows where Ophir really was.

17 ... gold Or about 450 talents. In today's money that would be more than $13,000,000.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

Box of the Agreement The box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert. Also called "The Ark of the Covenant."

burnt offering(s) Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.

The Queen of Sheba Visits Solomon

9 The Queen of Sheba heard about Solomon's fame. She came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with hard questions. The Queen of Sheba had a very large group with her. She had camels that carried spices, much gold, and valuable stones. She came to Solomon and talked with him. She had many questions to ask Solomon. <sup>2</sup>Solomon gave answers to all her questions. There was nothing too hard for Solomon to explain or answer. <sup>3</sup>The Queen of Sheba saw Solomon's wisdom, and the house he built. <sup>4</sup>She saw the food on Solomon's table, and his many important officials. She saw the way his servants worked and the clothes they wore. She saw Solomon's wine servers and the clothes they wore. She saw the burnt offerings* Solomon made in the temple* of the Lord. When the Queen of Sheba saw all these things she was amazed! <sup>5</sup>Then she said to King Solomon, "The stories I heard in my country about your great works and your wisdom are true. <sup>6</sup>I didn't believe those stories until I came here and saw with my own eyes. Oh, not even half of your great wisdom has been told me! You are greater than the stories I heard! <sup>7</sup>Your wives* and officers are very fortunate! They can hear your wisdom while they are serving you! <sup>8</sup>Praise be to the Lord your God! He is happy with you and has put you on his throne to be king for the Lord your God. Your God loves Israel, and supports Israel forever. This is why the Lord has made you king of Israel to do what is fair and what is right."

<sup>9</sup>Then the Queen of Sheba gave King Solomon  $4\frac{1}{2}$  tons\* of gold, a great many spices, and valuable stones. No person gave such fine spices to King Solomon as the Queen of Sheba did.

brought in alnum wood and valuable stones. <sup>11</sup>King Solomon used the alnum wood to make steps for the Lord's temple,* and for the king's house. Solomon also used the alnum wood to make lyres* and harps for the singers. No person ever saw such beautiful things like those things made from the alnum wood in the country of Judah.

<sup>12</sup>King Solomon gave to the Queen of Sheba everything she wanted and asked for. He gave her more than she brought to give him. Then the Queen of Sheba and her servants left. They went back to their own country.

Solomon's Great Wealth

<sup>17</sup>King Solomon used ivory to make a large throne. He covered the throne with pure gold. <sup>18</sup>The throne had six steps on it. And it had a footstool* that was made of gold. There were armrests on both sides of the throne's seat. A statue of a lion stood next to each armrest. <sup>19</sup>There were statues of 12 lions that stood by the six steps. One lion on each side of each step. There was no throne like this made in any other kingdom. <sup>20</sup>All King Solomon's drinking cups were made of gold. All the household things in the House of the Forest of Lebanon

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

wives Or, "men." See 1 Kings 10:8.

$4\frac{1}{2}$  tons Or, "120 talents."

Ophir A place where there was much gold. Today no person knows where Ophir really was.

25 tons Or, "666 talents."

traveling merchants A person who earns his living by buying and selling things.

were made of pure gold. Silver was not thought valuable in the time of Solomon. <sup>21</sup>King Solomon had ships that went to Tarshish.* Hiram's men sailed Solomon's ships. Every three years the ships came back from Tarshish bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks to Solomon.

<sup>25</sup>Solomon had 4,000 stalls to keep horses and chariots. He had 12,000 chariot drivers. Solomon kept them in the special cities for the chariots and in Jerusalem with him. <sup>26</sup>Solomon was the king over all the kings from the Euphrates River all the way to the country of the Philistine people, and to the border of Egypt. <sup>27</sup>King Solomon had so much silver in Jerusalem it was like plain rocks. And he had so much cedar wood it was like the sycamore trees in the low country. <sup>28</sup>The people brought horses to Solomon from Egypt and from all the other countries.

Solomon's Death

<sup>29</sup>The other things Solomon did, from the beginning to the end, are written in the writings of Nathan the Prophet, and in the Prophecy of Ahijah and in the visions of Iddo. Ahijah was from Shiloh, and Iddo was a seer.* Iddo wrote about Jeroboam. Jeroboam was Nebat's son. <sup>30</sup>Solomon was king in Jerusalem over all Israel for 40 years. <sup>31</sup>Then Solomon rested with his ancestors.* The people buried him in the City of David his father. Solomon's son Rehoboam became the new king in Solomon's place.

Tarshish A city far away from Israel, probably in Spain. Tarshish was famous for its large ships that sailed the Mediterranean Sea.

seer This is another name for a prophet. See 1 Samuel 9:9-11.

Rehoboam Acts Foolishly

10 Rehoboam went to the town of Shechem because all the people of Israel went there to make him king. <sup>2</sup>Jeroboam was in Egypt because he ran away from King Solomon. Jeroboam was Nebat's son. Jeroboam heard that Rehoboam was going to be the new king. So Jeroboam came back from Egypt. <sup>3</sup>The people of Israel called Jeroboam to come with them. Then Jeroboam and all the people of Israel went to Rehoboam. They said to him, "Rehoboam, your father made life hard for us. It was like carrying a heavy weight. Make that weight lighter, then we will serve you."

<sup>4</sup>Rehoboam said to them, "Come back to me after three days." So the people went away.

<sup>5</sup>Then King Rehoboam talked with the older men who had served his father Solomon in the past. Rehoboam said to them, "What do you advise me to say to those people?"

<sup>6</sup>The older men said to Rehoboam, "If you are kind to those people and please them and say good words to them, then they will serve you forever."

<sup>7</sup>But Rehoboam did not accept the advice the older men gave him. Rehoboam talked with the young men that had grown up with him and were serving him. <sup>8</sup>Rehoboam said to them, "What advice do you give me? How should we answer those people? They asked me to make their work easier. And they want me to make the weight lighter that my father put on them."

<sup>9</sup>Then the young men that grew up with Rehoboam said to him, "This is what you should say to the people who talked with you. The people said to you, 'Your father made life hard for us. It was like carrying a heavy weight. But we want you to make that weight lighter.' But Rehoboam, this is what you should say to those people: Say to them, 'My little finger will be thicker than my father's waist! <sup>11</sup>My father loaded you with a heavy burden. But I will make that burden heavier. My father punished you with whips. But I will punish you with whips that have sharp metal tips.'"

"Come back to me in three days." <sup>13</sup>Then King Rehoboam talked to them in a mean way. King Rehoboam did not accept the advice of the older men. <sup>14</sup>King Rehoboam talked to the people the way the young men advised him. He said, "My father made your burden heavy, but I will make it heavier. My father punished you with whips, but I will punish you with whips that have sharp metal tips." <sup>15</sup>So King Rehoboam did not listen to the people. He did not listen to the people because this change of things came from God. God caused this to happen. This happened so that the Lord could make his word come true that he spoke through Ahijah to Jeroboam. Ahijah was from the Shilonite people, and Jeroboam was Nebat's son.

<sup>16</sup>The people of Israel saw that King Rehoboam did not listen to them. Then they said to the king, "Are we part of David's family? No! Do we get any of Jesse's land? No! So Israel, let's go to our own homes. Let David's son rule his own people!" Then all the people of Israel went to their homes. <sup>17</sup>But there were some of the people of Israel who were living in the towns of Judah. And Rehoboam was king over those people.

<sup>18</sup>Adoniram was in charge of the people who were forced to work. Rehoboam sent him to the people of Israel. But the people of Israel threw rocks at Adoniram and killed him. Then Rehoboam ran and jumped into his chariot* and escaped. He ran away to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>Since that time and up until now Israel has turned against David's family.*

11 When Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he gathered 180,000 of the best soldiers. He gathered these soldiers from the family groups of Judah and Benjamin. He gathered them to fight against Israel so he could bring the kingdom back to Rehoboam. <sup>2</sup>But the message from the Lord came to Shemaiah. Shemaiah was a man of God. The Lord said, <sup>3</sup>"Shemaiah, talk to Rehoboam, Solomon's son, and the king of Judah. And talk to all the people of Israel living in Judah and Benjamin. Tell them: 'This is what the Lord says: 'You must not fight against your brothers! Let every man go back home. I have caused this thing to happen.' So King Rehoboam and his army obeyed the Lord's message and turned back. They did not attack Jeroboam.

Rehoboam Makes Judah Strong

Rehoboam's Family

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

David's family This probably means the family group of Judah. David's family was in the family group of Judah.

Jerimoth was David's son. Abihail was Eliab's daughter, and Eliab was Jesse's son. <sup>19</sup>Mahalath gave Rehoboam these sons: Jeush, Shemariah and Zaham. <sup>20</sup>Then Rehoboam married Maacah. Maacah was Absalom's granddaughter.* And Maacah gave Rehoboam these children: Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith. <sup>21</sup>Rehoboam loved Maacah more than he loved all his other wives and women servants.* Maacah was Absalom's granddaughter.* Rehoboam had 18 wives and 60 woman servants. Rehoboam was the father of 28 sons and 60 daughters.

<sup>22</sup>Rehoboam chose Abijah to be the leader among his own brothers. Rehoboam did this because he planned to make Abijah king. <sup>23</sup>Rehoboam acted wisely and spread all his sons through all the countries of Judah and Benjamin to every strong city. And Rehoboam gave plenty of supplies to his sons. He also looked for wives for his sons.

Shishak King of Egypt Attacks Jerusalem

12 Rehoboam became a strong king. He also made his kingdom strong. Then Rehoboam and the family group of Judah* refused to obey the law of the Lord. <sup>2</sup>Shishak attacked the city of Jerusalem in the fifth year that Rehoboam was king. Shishak was the king of Egypt. This happened because Rehoboam and the people of Judah were not faithful to the Lord. <sup>3</sup>Shishak had 12,000 chariots, 60,000 horse riders, and an army that no person could count. In Shishak's large army there were Libyan soldiers, Sukkite soldiers, and Ethiopian soldiers. <sup>4</sup>Shishak defeated the strong cities of Judah. Then Shishak brought his army to Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah. Those leaders of Judah had gathered together in Jerusalem because they all were afraid of Shishak. Shemaiah said to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah, "This is what the Lord says: 'Rehoboam, you and the people of Judah have left me and refused to obey my law. So now I will leave you to face Shishak without my help.'"

<sup>7</sup>The Lord saw that the king and the leaders of Judah had humbled themselves. Then the message from the Lord came to Shemaiah. The Lord said to Shemaiah, "The king and the leaders humbled themselves. So I will not destroy them, but I will save them soon. I will not use Shishak to pour out my anger on Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup>But the people of Jerusalem will become Shishak's servants. This will happen so that they may learn that serving me is different from serving the kings of other nations."

<sup>9</sup>Shishak attacked Jerusalem and took the treasures that were in the Lord's temple.* Shishak was the king of Egypt. And he also took the treasures that were in the king's house. Shishak took everything and carried those treasures away. He also took the gold shields that Solomon had made. <sup>10</sup>King Rehoboam made bronze shields to take the place of the gold shields. Rehoboam gave the bronze shields to the commanders who were responsible for guarding the entrance to the king's house. <sup>11</sup>When the king entered the Lord's temple, the guards would bring the bronze shields out. Later they would put the bronze shields back into the guard room.

<sup>12</sup>When Rehoboam humbled himself, the Lord turned his anger away from Rehoboam. So the Lord did not fully destroy Rehoboam. There was some good in Judah.

<sup>13</sup>King Rehoboam made himself a strong king in Jerusalem. He was 41 years old when he became king. Rehoboam was king in Jerusalem for 17 years. Jerusalem is the city that the Lord chose from all the family groups of Israel. The Lord chose to put his name there in Jerusalem. Rehoboam's mother was Naamah. Naamah was from the country of

women servants Or, "concubines," slave women who were like wives to a man.

Judah Literally, Israel.

Ammon. <sup>14</sup>Rehoboam did evil things because he didn't decide in his heart to obey the Lord.

<sup>15</sup>The things Rehoboam did when he was king, from the beginning to the end of his rule, are written in the writings of Shemaiah and in the writings of Iddo. Shemaiah was a prophet, and Iddo was a seer.* Those men wrote family histories. And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the time both kings ruled. <sup>16</sup>Rehoboam rested with his ancestors.* Rehoboam was buried in David's city. Then Rehoboam's son Abijah became the new king.

Abijah King of Judah

13 When King Jeroboam was in his 18th year as king of Israel,* Abijah became the new king of Judah. <sup>2</sup>Abijah was king in Jerusalem for three years. Abijah's mother was Maacah. Maacah was Uriel's daughter. Uriel was from the town of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. <sup>3</sup>Abijah's army had 400,000 brave soldiers. Abijah led that army into battle. Jeroboam's army had 800,000 brave soldiers. Jeroboam got ready to have a war with Abijah.

<sup>4</sup>Then Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim in the hill country of Ephraim. Abijah said, "Jeroboam and all Israel, listen to me! <sup>5</sup>You should know that the Lord God of Israel gave David and his sons the right to be king over Israel forever. God gave this right to David with an agreement of salt.* <sup>6</sup>But Jeroboam turned against the Lord! Jeroboam was Nebat's son. Nebat was one of Solomon's officials. Solomon was David's son. <sup>7</sup>Then worthless, bad men became friends with Jeroboam. Jeroboam and those bad men were against Rehoboam, Solomon's son. Rehoboam was young and did not have experience. So Rehoboam could not stop Jeroboam and his bad friends.

<sup>8</sup>"Now you, Jeroboam, and the people of Israel with you are making plans against the Lord's kingdom. The Lord's kingdom belongs to David's sons. There are many of you, and you have the golden calves that Jeroboam made for you to be your gods. <sup>9</sup>You have thrown out the Lord's priests and the Levites. The priests are Aaron's sons. You have chosen your own priests. That is what the people of other countries do. Then any person who comes to make himself holy with a young bull or seven rams can become a priest of idols that are not gods.

<sup>10</sup>"But as for us, the Lord is our God. We people of Judah have not refused to obey God! We have not left him! The priests who serve the Lord are Aaron's sons. And the Levites help the priests serve the Lord. <sup>11</sup>They offer burnt offerings* and burn incense* of spices to the Lord every morning and every evening. They also put the bread in rows on the special table in the temple.* And they put up the lampstand of gold with its lamps to burn every evening. We obey the command of the Lord our God. But Jeroboam, you and the people of Israel with you don't obey the Lord. You have left him. <sup>12</sup>God himself is with us. He is our ruler, and his priests are with us. The priests blow the trumpet to call us to war against you. O men of Israel, don't fight against the Lord God of your ancestors,* because you won't succeed!"

eroboam's army attacking both in front and in back.* The men of Judah shouted out to the Lord and the priests blew the trumpets. <sup>15</sup>Then the men in Abijah's army shouted. When the men of Judah shouted, God defeated Jeroboam's army. All of Jeroboam's army from Israel were defeated by Abijah's army from Judah. <sup>16</sup>The men of Israel ran away from the men of Judah. God let the army from Judah defeat the army from Israel. <sup>17</sup>Abijah's army greatly defeated the army of Israel, and 500,000 of the best men of Israel were killed. <sup>18</sup>So at that time the people of Israel were defeated, and the people of Judah won. The army from Judah won because they depended on the Lord the God of their ancestors.*

<sup>20</sup>Jeroboam never became strong again while Abijah lived. The Lord killed Jeroboam. <sup>21</sup>But Abijah became strong. He married 14 women and was the father of 22 sons and 16 daughters. <sup>22</sup>All the other things that Abijah did are written in the books of the prophet Iddo.

14 Abijah rested with his ancestors.* The people buried him in David's City. Then Abijah's son, Asa, was the new king in Abijah's place. There was peace in the country for ten years in Asa's time.

Asa King of Judah

When the soldiers ... in back The Hebrew reads, "The battle was in front and in the back."

And Asa broke down the Asherah poles.* <sup>4</sup>Asa commanded the people of Judah to follow the Lord God. He is the God their ancestors* followed. And Asa commanded them to obey the Lord's laws and commandments. <sup>5</sup>Asa also took away the high places and the incense* altars from all the towns in Judah. So the kingdom had peace when Asa was king. <sup>6</sup>Asa built strong cities in Judah during the time when there was peace in Judah. Asa had no war in these years because the Lord gave him peace.

<sup>7</sup>Asa said to the people of Judah, "Let's build these towns and make walls around them. Let's make towers, gates, and bars in the gates. Let's do this while we still live in this country. This country is ours because we have followed the Lord our God. He has given us peace all around us." So they built and had success.

<sup>8</sup>Asa had an army of 300,000 men from the family group of Judah and 280,000 men from the family group of Benjamin. The men from Judah carried large shields and spears. The men from Benjamin carried small shields and shot arrows from bows. All those men were strong and brave soldiers.

<sup>9</sup>Then Zerah came out against Asa's army. Zerah was from Ethiopia. Zerah had 1,000,000 men and 300 chariots* in his army. Zerah's army went as far as the town of Mareshah. <sup>10</sup>Asa went out to fight against Zerah. Asa's army got ready for battle in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

<sup>11</sup>Asa called out to the Lord his God and said, "Lord, only you can help weak people against strong people! Help us, O Lord our God! We depend on you. We fight against this large army in your name. O Lord, you are our God! Don't let anyone win against you!"

the Ethiopian army all the way to the town of Gerar. So many Ethiopians were killed that they could not get together as an army to fight again. They were crushed by the Lord and his army. Asa and his army carried many valuable things away from the enemy. <sup>14</sup>Asa and his army defeated all the towns near Gerar. The people living in those towns were afraid of the Lord. Those towns had very many valuable things. Asa's army took those valuable things away from those towns. <sup>15</sup>Asa's army also attacked the camps where the shepherds lived. They took many sheep and camels. Then Asa's army went back to Jerusalem.

Asa's Changes

15 The Spirit of God came on Azariah. Azariah was Obed's son. <sup>2</sup>Azariah went to meet Asa. Azariah said, "Listen to me Asa, and all you people of Judah and Benjamin! The Lord is with you when you are with him. If you look for the Lord, you will find him. But if you leave him, he will leave you. <sup>3</sup>For a long time Israel was without the true God. And they were without a teaching priest, and without the law. <sup>4</sup>But when the people of Israel had trouble, they turned to the Lord God again. He is the God of Israel. They looked for the Lord and they found him. <sup>5</sup>In those times of trouble, no person could travel safely. There was much trouble in all the nations. <sup>6</sup>One nation would destroy another nation and one city would destroy another city. This was happening because God troubled them with all kinds of trouble. <sup>7</sup>But Asa, you and the people of Judah and Benjamin, be strong. Don't be weak, don't give up because you will get a reward for your good work!"

<sup>8</sup>Asa felt encouraged when he heard these words and the message from Obed the prophet. Then he removed the hated idols from all the countries of Judah and Benjamin. And Asa removed those hated idols from the towns he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim. And he repaired the Lord's altar* that was in

<sup>9</sup>Then Asa gathered all the people from Judah and Benjamin. He also gathered the people from the family groups of Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon who had moved from the country of Israel to live in the country of Judah. A great many of those people came to Judah because they saw that the Lord, Asa's God, was with Asa.

<sup>16</sup>King Asa also removed Maacah, his mother, from being queen mother. Asa did this because Maacah had made a terrible Asherah pole.* Asa cut down that Asherah pole and smashed it into small pieces. Then he burned the pieces in the Kidron Valley. <sup>17</sup>The high places* were not removed from Judah, but Asa's heart was faithful to the Lord all of Asa's life.

<sup>18</sup>And Asa put the holy gifts that he and his father had given into the temple* of God. Those things were made of silver and gold. <sup>19</sup>There was no more war until the 35th year of Asa's rule.*

Asa's Last Years

16 In Asa's 36th year as king,* Baasha attacked the country of Judah. Baasha was the king of Israel. He went to the town of Ramah and made it into a fortress.* Baasha used the town of Ramah as a place to stop people from going in or coming out to King Asa of Judah.

<sup>2</sup>Asa took silver and gold out of the storehouses in the Lord's temple.* And he took silver and gold out of the king's house. Then Asa sent messengers to Ben-Hadad. Ben-Hadad was the king of Aram and he was living in the town of Damascus. Asa's message said: <sup>3</sup>"Ben-Hadad let there be an agreement between you and me. Let's make it like the agreement your father and my father had. See, I am sending you silver and gold. Now, break your agreement with Baasha, king of Israel, so he will leave me alone and stop bothering me."

<sup>4</sup>Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa. Ben-Hadad sent the commanders of his armies to attack the towns of Israel. Those commanders attacked the towns of Ijon, Dan, and Abel-Maim. They also attacked all the towns in the country of Naphtali where treasures were stored. <sup>5</sup>Baasha heard about the attacks on the towns of Israel. So he stopped building the town of Ramah into a fortress,* and he left his work. <sup>6</sup>Then King Asa called all the men of Judah together. They went to the town of Ramah and took away the rocks and wood that Baasha used to make the fortress. Asa and the men of Judah used the rocks and wood to make the towns of Geba and Mizpah stronger.

<sup>7</sup>At that time Hanani the seer* came to Asa, king of Judah. Hanani said to him, "Asa, you depended on the king of Aram to help you and not the Lord your God. You should have depended on the Lord. But, because you did not depend on the Lord for help, the king of Aram's army escaped from you. <sup>8</sup>The Ethiopians and the Libyans had a very large and powerful army. They had many chariots* and chariot drivers. But Asa, you depended on the Lord to help you defeat that large powerful army, and the Lord let you defeat them. <sup>9</sup>The eyes of the Lord go around looking in all the earth for people who are faithful to him so he can make those people strong. Asa, you did a foolish thing. So from now on you will have wars."

<sup>10</sup>Asa was angry with Hanani because of what he said. Asa was so mad that he put Hanani in prison. Asa was very mean and rough with some of the people at that same time.

Jehoshaphat King of Judah

17 Jehoshaphat was the new king of Judah in Asa's place. Jehoshaphat was Asa's son. Jehoshaphat made Judah strong so they could fight against Israel. <sup>2</sup>He put groups of soldiers in all the towns of Judah that were made into fortresses.* Jehoshaphat built fortresses* in Judah and in the towns of Ephraim that his father Asa captured.

<sup>3</sup>The Lord was with Jehoshaphat because in Jehoshaphat's young life he did the good things his ancestor* David did. Jehoshaphat did not follow the Baal idols. <sup>4</sup>Jehoshaphat looked for the God his ancestors* followed. He followed God's commands. He did not live the same way the people of Israel lived. <sup>5</sup>The Lord made Jehoshaphat a strong king over Judah. All the people of Judah brought gifts to Jehoshaphat. So Jehoshaphat had much wealth and honor. <sup>6</sup>Jehoshaphat's heart found pleasure in the ways of the Lord. He took away the high places,* and the Asherah poles* out of the country of Judah.

people brought gifts to Jehoshaphat. They also brought silver to Jehoshaphat because they knew he was a very powerful king. Some Arabian people brought flocks to Jehoshaphat. They brought 7,700 rams and 7,700 goats to him.

<sup>12</sup>Jehoshaphat became more and more powerful. He built fortresses* and storage towns in the country of Judah. <sup>13</sup>He kept many supplies in the storage towns. And Jehoshaphat kept trained soldiers in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>Those soldiers were listed in their family groups. This is the list of those soldiers in Jerusalem:

From the family group of Judah, these were the generals: Adnah was the general of 300,000 soldiers. <sup>15</sup>Jehohanan was the general of 280,000 soldiers. <sup>16</sup>Amasiah was the general of 200,000 soldiers. Amasiah was Zicri's son. Amasiah was happy to give himself to serve the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>From the family group of Benjamin these were the generals: Eliada had 200,000 soldiers; who used bows, arrows, and shields. Eliada was a very brave soldier. <sup>18</sup>Jehozabab had 180,000 men ready for war. <sup>19</sup>All those soldiers served King Jehoshaphat. The king also had other men in the fortresses* in all the country of Judah.

Micalah Warns King Ahab

18 Jehoshaphat had much wealth and honor. He made an agreement with King Ahab through marriage.* <sup>2</sup>A few years later, Jehoshaphat visited Ahab in the town of Samaria. Ahab sacrificed* many sheep and cows for Jehoshaphat and the people with him. Ahab encouraged Jehoshaphat to attack the town of Ramoth Gilead. <sup>3</sup>Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to attack Ramoth Gilead?" Ahab was the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat was the king of Judah. Jehoshaphat answered Ahab, "I am like you, and my people are like your people. We will oin you in the battle.”<sup>4</sup> Jehoshaphat also said to Ahab, “But first, let’s look for a message from the Lord.”

<sup>5</sup>So King Ahab gathered the prophets together, 400 men. Ahab said to them, “Should we go to war against the town of Ramoth Gilead, or not?” The prophets answered Ahab, ‘Go, because God will let you defeat Ramoth Gilead.’

<sup>7</sup>Then King Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, “There is still one man here. We can ask the Lord through him. But I hate this man, because he never has a good message from the Lord about me. He always has bad messages for me. That man’s name is Micaiah. He is Imlah’s son.” But Jehoshaphat said, “Ahab, you should not say that!”

<sup>9</sup>Ahab the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah had their kings’ robes on. They were sitting on their thrones at the threshing floor* near the front gate of the city of Samaria. Those 400 prophets were speaking their messages in front of the two kings. <sup>10</sup>Zedekiah was the son of a man named Kenaanah. Zedekiah made some horns from iron. Zedekiah said, “This is what the Lord says: ‘You will use these iron horns to stab the Aramean people until they are destroyed.’”

<sup>11</sup>All the prophets said the same thing. They said, “Go to the town of Ramoth Gilead. You will have success and win. The Lord will let the king defeat the Aramean people.”

<sup>12</sup>The messenger that went to get Micaiah said to him, “Micaiah, listen, all the prophets say the same thing. They are saying the king will have success. So say the same things they are saying. You also say good things.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Micaiah came to King Ahab. The king said to him, “Micaiah, should we go to the town of Ramoth Gilead to fight or not?” Micaiah answered, “Go and attack. God will let you defeat those people.”

<sup>15</sup>King Ahab said to Micaiah, “Many times I made you promise to tell me only the truth in the name of the Lord!”

<sup>16</sup>Then Micaiah said, “I saw all the people of Israel scattered on the mountains. They were like sheep without a shepherd. The Lord said, ‘They have no leader. Let each person go home safely.’”

<sup>17</sup>Ahab, King of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I told you that Micaiah would not have a good message from the Lord about me! He only has bad messages about me!”

<sup>18</sup>Micaiah said, “Hear the message from the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on his throne. All of heaven’s army was standing around him.*

<sup>19</sup>The Lord said, ‘Who will trick Ahab, king of Israel, to attack the town of Ramoth Gilead so he may be killed there?’ Different ones who stood around the Lord said different things.

<sup>20</sup>Then a spirit came and stood before the Lord. That spirit said, ‘I will trick Ahab.’ The Lord asked that spirit, ‘How?’ <sup>21</sup>That spirit answered, ‘I will go out and become a lying spirit in Ahab’s prophets’ mouths.’ And the Lord said, ‘You will succeed in tricking Ahab. So go out and do it.’

<sup>23</sup>Then Zedekiah went over to Micaiah and hit him in the face. Zedekiah’s father’s name was Kenaanah. Zedekiah said, “Micaiah, which way did the spirit from the Lord go when he went from me to speak to you?” <sup>24</sup>Micaiah answered, “Zedekiah, you will find out on the day you go to hide in an inside room!”

<sup>25</sup>Then King Ahab said, “Take Micaiah and send him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king’s son. <sup>26</sup>Say to Amon and Joash, ‘This is what the king says: Put Micaiah in prison. Don't give him anything to eat except bread and water until I come back from the battle.'"

<sup>2</sup>Micaiah answered, "Ahab, if you come back from battle safely, then the Lord has not spoken through me. Hear and remember my words, all you people!"

Ahab Is Killed at Ramoth Gilead

<sup>2</sup>So Ahab king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah attacked the town of Ramoth Gilead. <sup>2</sup>King Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "I will change my appearance before I go into battle. But you wear your own robes." So Ahab, king of Israel changed his appearance, and the two kings went into battle.

19 Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came back safely to his house in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Jehu the seer* went out to meet Jehoshaphat. Jehu's father's name was Hanani. Jehu said to King Jehoshaphat, "Why did you help evil people? Why do you love those people that hate the Lord? That is the reason the Lord is angry with you. <sup>3</sup>But there are some good things in your life. You took the Asherah poles* out of this country, and you decided in your heart to follow God."

Jehoshaphat Chooses Judges

<sup>4</sup>Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem. He went out again to be with the people from the town of Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim. Jehoshaphat brought those people back to the Lord God their ancestors* followed. <sup>5</sup>Jehoshaphat chose judges in Judah. He chose judges to be in each of the fortresses* of Judah. <sup>6</sup>Jehoshaphat said to those judges, "Be careful in what you are doing, because you are not judging for people, but for the Lord. The Lord will be with you when you make a decision. <sup>7</sup>Now each one of you must fear the Lord. Be careful in what you do because the Lord our God is fair. The Lord doesn't treat some people more important than others. And he doesn't accept money to change his judgments."

<sup>8</sup>And in Jerusalem, Jehoshaphat chose some of the Levites, priests, and leaders of Israelite families to be judges. Those people were to use the law of the Lord to settle problems for the people living in Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Jehoshaphat gave them commands. Jehoshaphat said, "You must serve faithfully with all your heart. You must fear the Lord. <sup>10</sup>You will have cases about killing, about a law, command, rule, or some other law. All these cases will come to you from your brothers living in the cities. In all of these cases you must warn the people not to sin against the Lord. If you don't serve faithfully you will cause the Lord's anger to come against you and your brothers. Do this, then you won't be guilty. <sup>11</sup>Amariah is the leading priest. He will be over you in all things about the Lord. And Zedariah will be over you in all things about the king. Zedariah's father's name is

Jehoshaphat Faces War

20 Later the Moabite people, the Ammonite people, and some Meunite* people came to start a war with Jehoshaphat. <sup>2</sup>Some men came and told Jehoshaphat, "There is a large army coming against you from Edom. They are coming from the other side of the sea.* They are already in Hazazon-Tamar! (Hazazon-Tamar is also called En-Gedi.) <sup>3</sup>Jehoshaphat became afraid, and he decided to ask the Lord what to do. He announced a time of fasting* for everyone in Judah. <sup>4</sup>The people of Judah came together to ask for help from the Lord. They came from out of all the towns of Judah to ask for the Lord's help.

"O Lord God of our ancestors,* you are the God in heaven! You rule over all the kingdoms in all the nations! You have power and strength! No person can stand against you! <sup>7</sup>You are our God! You forced the people living in this land to leave. You did this in front of your people Israel. You gave this land to the descendants* of Abraham forever. Abraham was your friend. <sup>8</sup>A Abraham's descendants lived in this land, and built a temple* for your name. <sup>9</sup>They said, "If trouble comes to us—the sword, punishment, sicknesses, or famine, we will stand in front of this temple and in front of you. Your name is on this temple. We will shout to you when we are in trouble. Then you will hear and save us.

<sup>10</sup>"But now, here are men from Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir! You would not let the people of Israel enter their lands when the people of Israel came out of Egypt.* So the people of Israel turned away and didn't destroy those people. <sup>11</sup>But see the kind of reward those people give us for not destroying them. They have come to force us out of your land. You gave this land to us. <sup>12</sup>Our God, punish those people! We have no power against this large army that is coming against us! We don't know what to do! That is why we look to you for help!"*

<sup>13</sup>All the men of Judah stood before the Lord with their babies, wives, and children. <sup>14</sup>Then the Lord's Spirit came on Jahaziel. Jahaziel was Zechariah's son. Zechariah was Benaiah's son. Benaiah was Jeiel's son. And Jeiel was Mattaniah's son. Jahaziel was a Levite and a descendant* of Asaph. In the middle of the meeting, <sup>15</sup>Jahaziel said, "Listen to me King Jehoshaphat, all you people living in Judah and Jerusalem! The Lord says this to you: 'Don't be afraid or worry about this large army, because the battle is not your battle. It is God's battle! <sup>16</sup>Tomorrow, go down there and fight those people. They will come up through the Pass of Ziz. You will find them at the end of the valley on the other side of the Desert of Jeruel. <sup>17</sup>You won't need to fight in this battle. Stand strong in your places. You will see the Lord save you. Judah and Jerusalem, don't be afraid! Don't worry! The Lord is with you, so go out against those people tomorrow.'"

<sup>18</sup>Jehoshaphat bowed down low. His face touched the ground. And all the people of Judah and the people living in Jerusalem fell down in front of the Lord. And they all worshiped the Lord. <sup>19</sup>The Levites from the Kohathite family groups and the Korahite people stood up to praise the Lord God of Israel. Their voices were very loud as they gave praise to the Lord.

<sup>20</sup>Jehoshaphat's army went out into the Desert of Tekoa early in the morning. As they were starting out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Listen to me people of Judah and you people from Jerusalem. Have faith in the Lord your God, and then you will stand strong. Have faith in the Lord's prophets. You will succeed!"

<sup>21</sup>Jehoshaphat listened to advice from the people. Then he chose men to be singers to the Lord. Those singers were chosen to give praise to the Lord because he is holy and wonderful. They marched in front of the army and praised the Lord. These singers said, "Give thanks to the Lord, because his love continues forever!"

<sup>22</sup>As those men began to sing and to praise God, the Lord set an ambush* for the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir. Those were the people that came to attack Judah. Those people were beaten. <sup>23</sup>The Ammonite man and the Moabite men started to fight against the men from Mount Seir. The Ammonite men and the Moabite men killed and destroyed the men from Mount Seir. After they had killed the men from Seir, they killed each other.

<sup>29</sup>All the kingdoms in all the countries feared the Lord because they heard that the Lord fought against Israel's enemies. <sup>30</sup>That is why Jehoshaphat's kingdom had peace. Jehoshaphat's God gave him peace all around him.

The End of Jehoshaphat's Rule

with Ahaziah, that is why the Lord will destroy your works." The ships were wrecked, so Jehoshaphat and Ahaziah were not able to send them to Tarshish.*

21 Then Jehoshaphat died and was buried with his ancestors.* He was buried in David's City. Jehoram was the new king in Jehoshaphat's place. Jehoram was Jehoshaphat's son. <sup>2</sup>Jehoram's brothers were Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariah, Michael, and Shephatiah. Those men were Jehoshaphat's sons. Jehoshaphat was the king of Judah.* <sup>3</sup>Jehoshaphat gave his sons many gifts of silver, gold, and precious things. He also gave them strong fortresses* in Judah. But Jehoshaphat gave the kingdom to Jehoram because Jehoram was his oldest son.

Jehoram King of Judah

<sup>4</sup>Jehoram took over his father's kingdom and made himself strong. Then he used a sword to kill all his brothers. He also killed some of the leaders of Israel. <sup>5</sup>Jehoram was 32 years old when he began to rule. He ruled eight years in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>He lived the same way the kings of Israel lived. He lived the same way Ahab's family lived. This was because Jehoram married Ahab's daughter. And Jehoram did evil in the Lord's sight. <sup>7</sup>But the Lord would not destroy David's family because of the agreement the Lord made with David. The Lord had promised to keep a lamp burning for David and his children forever.*

chariot* commanders. But Jehoram fought his way out at night. <sup>10</sup>Since that time and until now the country of Edom has been rebellious against Judah. The people from the town of Libnah also turned against Jehoram. This happened because Jehoram left the Lord God. He is the God Jehoram's ancestors* followed. <sup>11</sup>Jehoram also built high places* on the hills in Judah. Jehoram caused the people of Jerusalem to stop doing what God wanted. He led the people of Judah away from the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>Jehoram got a message from Elijah the prophet. This is what the message said: "This is what the Lord God says. He is the God your father David followed. The Lord says, 'Jehoram, you have not lived the way your father Jehoshaphat lived. You have not lived the way Asa king of Judah lived. <sup>13</sup>But you have lived the way the kings of Israel lived. You have caused the people of Judah and Jerusalem to stop doing what God wants. That is what Ahab and his family did. They were unfaithful to God. You have killed your brothers. Your brothers were better than you. <sup>14</sup>So now, the Lord will soon punish your people with much punishment. The Lord will punish your children, wives, and all your property. <sup>15</sup>You will have a terrible sickness in your bowels. It will become worse every day. Then your bowels will come out because of your terrible sickness.'" honor Jehoram like they did for his father. <sup>20</sup>Jehoram was 32 years old when he became king. He ruled eight years in Jerusalem. No person was sad when Jehoram died. The people buried Jehoram in David's city, but not in the graves where the kings are buried.

Ahaziah King of Judah

22 The people of Jerusalem chose Ahaziah* to be the new king in Jehoram's place. Ahaziah was Jehoram's youngest son. The people that came with the Arab people to attack Jehoram's camp killed all of Jehoram's older sons. So Ahaziah began to rule in Judah. <sup>2</sup>Ahaziah was 22 years old when he began to rule.* Ahaziah ruled one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah. Athaliah's father's name was Omri. <sup>3</sup>Ahaziah also lived the way Ahab's family lived. He lived that way because his mother encouraged him to do wrong things. <sup>4</sup>Ahaziah did evil things in the Lord's sight. That is what Ahab's family did. Ahab's family gave advice to Ahaziah after Ahaziah's father died. They gave Ahaziah bad advice. That bad advice led to his death. <sup>5</sup>Ahaziah followed the advice Ahab's family gave him. Ahaziah went with King Joram to fight against King Hazael from Aram at the town of Ramoth Gilead. Joram's father's name was Ahab, the king of Israel. But the Arameans wounded Joram in the battle. <sup>6</sup>Joram went back to the town of Jezreel to get well. He was wounded at Ramoth when he fought against Hazael, king of Aram.

Then Ahaziah* went to the town of Jezreel to visit Joram. Ahaziah's father's name was Jehoram, the king of Judah. Joram's father's name was Ahab. Joram was in the town of Jezreel because he was wounded.

<sup>7</sup>God caused Ahaziah's* death when he went to visit Joram. Ahaziah arrived and went out with Joram to meet Jehu. Jehu's father's name was Nimshi. The Lord chose Jehu to destroy Ahab's family. <sup>8</sup>Jehu was punishing Ahab's family. Jehu found the leaders of Judah and Ahaziah's relatives that served Ahaziah. Jehu killed those leaders of Judah and Ahaziah's relatives. <sup>9</sup>Then Jehu looked for Ahaziah. Jehu's men caught him when he tried to hide in the town of Samaria. They brought Ahaziah to Jehu. They killed Ahaziah and buried him. They said, "Ahaziah is the descendant* of Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat followed the Lord with all his heart." Ahaziah's family had no power to hold the kingdom of Judah together.

<sup>10</sup>Athaliah was Ahaziah's* mother. When she saw that her son was dead, she killed all the king's children in Judah. <sup>11</sup>But Jehosheba took Ahaziah's son Joash and hid him. Jehosheba put Joash and his nurse in the inside bedroom. Jehosheba was King Jehoram's daughter. She was also Jehoiada's wife. Jehoiada was a priest. And Jehosheba was Ahaziah's sister. Athaliah did not kill Joash, because Jehosheba hid him. <sup>12</sup>Joash was hidden with the priests in God's temple* for six years. During that time, Athaliah ruled over the land as queen.

23 After six years, Jehoiada showed his strength. He made an agreement with the captains. Those captains were: Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zicri. <sup>2</sup>They went around in Judah and gathered the Levites from all the towns of Judah. They also gathered the leaders of the families of Israel. Then they went to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>All the people meeting together made an agreement with the king in God's temple.*

Jehoiada said to those people, "The king's son will rule. That is what the Lord promised about David's descendants.* <sup>4</sup>Now, this is what you must do: One-third of you priests and Levites who go on duty on the Sabbath will guard the doors. <sup>5</sup>And one-third of you will be at the king's house. And one-third of you will be at the Foundation Gate. But all the other people will stay in the yards of the Lord's temple.* <sup>6</sup>Don't let any person come into the Lord's temple. Only the priest and Levites who serve are permitted to come into the Lord's temple because they are holy. But all the other men must do the job the Lord has given them. <sup>7</sup>The Levites must stay near the king. Every man must have his sword with him. If any person tries to enter the temple, kill that person. You must stay with the king everywhere he goes."

<sup>8</sup>The Levites and all the people of Judah obeyed all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. Jehoiada the priest did not excuse any person from the groups of the priests. So each captain and all his men came in on the Sabbath with those who went out on the Sabbath. <sup>9</sup>Jehoiada the priest gave the spears and the large and small shields that belonged to King David to the officers. Those weapons were kept in God's temple.* <sup>10</sup>Then Jehoiada told the men where to stand. Every man had his weapon in his hand. The men stood all the way from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple. They stood near the altar* and the temple, and near the king. <sup>11</sup>They brought the king's son out and put the crown on him. They gave him a copy of the Law.* Then they made Joash king. Jehoiada and his sons anointed* Joash. They said, "Let the king live a long time!"

<sup>12</sup>Athaliah heard the noise of the people running to the temple* and praising the king. She came into the Lord's temple to the people. <sup>13</sup>She looked and saw the king. The king was standing by the king's column at the front entrance. The officers and the men who blew trumpets were near the king. The people of the land were happy and blowing trumpets. The singers were playing on instruments of music. The singers led the people in singing praises.

Then Athaliah tore her clothes* and said, "Treason! Treason!"*

<sup>14</sup>Jehoiada the priest brought out the army captains. He said to them, "Take Athaliah outside among the army. Use your swords to kill any person that follows her." Then the priest warned the soldiers, "Don't kill Athaliah in the Lord's temple.*" <sup>15</sup>Then those men grabbed Athaliah when she came to the entrance of the Horse Gate at the king's house. Then they killed her there at that place.

<sup>16</sup>Then Jehoiada made an agreement with all the people, and the king. They all agreed that they all would be the Lord's people. <sup>17</sup>All the people went into the temple of the idol Baal and tore it down. They also broke the altars and idols that were in Baal's temple. They killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars of Baal.

<sup>18</sup>Then Jehoiada chose the priests to be responsible for the Lord's temple.* Those priests were Levites, and David had given them the job of being responsible for the Lord's temple. Those priests were to offer the burnt offerings* to the Lord the way the Law of Moses commanded. They offered the sacrifices* with much joy and singing the way David commanded. <sup>19</sup>Jehoiada put guards at the gates of the Lord's temple so that a person who was not clean in anything could not enter the temple.

<sup>20</sup>Jehoiada took the army captains, the leaders, the rulers of the people, and all the people of the land with him. Then Jehoiada took the king out of the Lord's temple,* and they went through the Upper Gate to the king's house. In that place they put the king on the throne. <sup>21</sup>All the people of Judah were very happy and the city Jerusalem had peace because Athaliah was killed with a sword.

Joash Builds Again the Temple

24 Joash was seven years old when he became king. He ruled 40 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah. Zibiah was from the town of Beersheba. <sup>2</sup>Joash did right in front of the Lord as long as Jehoiada the priest was living. <sup>3</sup>Jehoiada chose two wives for Joash. Joash had sons and daughters.

<sup>4</sup>Then later on, Joash decided to build again the Lord's temple.* <sup>5</sup>Joash called the priests and the Levites together. He said to them, "Go out to the towns of Judah and gather the money all the people of Israel pay every year. Use that money to build again your God's temple. Hurry and do this." But the Levites didn't hurry.

<sup>6</sup>So King Joash called Jehoiada the leading priest. The king said, "Jehoiada, why haven't you made the Levites bring in the tax money from Judah and Jerusalem? Moses the Lord's servant and the people of Israel used that tax money for the Holy Tent.*"

<sup>8</sup>King Joash gave a command for a box to be made and put outside the gate at the Lord's temple.* <sup>9</sup>Then the Levites made an announcement in Judah and Jerusalem. They told the people to bring in the tax money for the Lord. That tax money is what Moses the servant of God had required the people of Israel to give while they were in the desert. <sup>10</sup>All the leaders and the people were happy. They brought their money and put it in the box. They continued giving until the box was full. <sup>11</sup>Then the Levites would take the box to the king's officials. They saw that the box was full of money. The king's secretary and the leading priest's officer came and took the money out of the box. Then they took the box back to its place again. They did this often and gathered much money. <sup>12</sup>Then King Joash and Jehoiada gave the money to the people that worked on the Lord's temple. And the people that worked on the Lord's temple hired skilled woodcarvers and carpenters to build again the Lord's temple. They also hired workers that knew how to work with iron and bronze to build again the Lord's temple.

<sup>13</sup>The men that supervised the work were very faithful. The work to build again the Lord's temple* was successful. They built God's temple the way it was before and they made it stronger. <sup>14</sup>When the workers finished, they brought the money that was left to King Joash and Jehoiada. They used that money to make things for the Lord's temple. Those things were used for the service in the temple and for offering burnt offerings.* They also made bowls and other things from gold and silver. The priests offered burnt offerings in the Lord's temple every day while Jehoiada was alive.

<sup>15</sup>Jehoiada became old. He had a very long life, then he died. Jehoiada was 130 years old when he died. <sup>16</sup>The people buried Jehoiada in David's City where the kings are buried. The people buried Jehoiada there because in his life he did much good in Israel for God and for God's temple.*

<sup>17</sup>After Jehoiada died, the leaders of Judah came and bowed to King Joash. The king listened to those leaders. <sup>18</sup>The king and those leaders rejected the temple* of the Lord God. Their ancestors* followed the Lord God. They worshiped the Asherah poles* and other idols. God was angry with the people of Judah and Jerusalem because the king and those leaders were guilty. <sup>19</sup>God sent prophets to the people to bring them back to the Lord. The prophets warned the people. But the people refused to listen.

burnt offering(s) Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.

Asherah poles These poles were symbols of the female idol Asherah. The Canaanite people worshipped this false female god.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
Holy Tent Or, "tabernacle." Also called the "meeting tent."
 The people would go to this tent to meet with God.

<sup>20</sup>God's Spirit came on Zechariah. Zechariah's father was Jehoiada the priest. Zechariah stood in front of the people and said, "This is what God says: 'Why do you people refuse to obey the Lord's commands? You will not be successful. You have left the Lord. So the Lord has also left you!'"

<sup>21</sup>But the people made plans against Zechariah. The king commanded the people to kill Zechariah, so they threw rocks at him until he died. The people did this in the temple* yard. <sup>22</sup>Joash the king didn't remember Jehoiada's kindness to him. Jehoiada was Zechariah's father. But Joash killed Zechariah, Jehoiada's son. Before Zechariah died, he said, "May the Lord see what you are doing and punish you!"

<sup>23</sup>At the end of the year, The Aramean army came against Joash. They attacked Judah and Jerusalem and killed all the leaders of the people. They sent all the valuable things to the king of Damascus. <sup>24</sup>The Aramean army came with a small group of men, but the Lord let them defeat a very large army from Judah. The Lord did this because the people of Judah left the Lord God their ancestors* followed. So Joash was punished. <sup>25</sup>When the Arameans left Joash, he was badly wounded. Joash's own servants made plans against him. They did this because Joash killed Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest. The servants killed Joash on his own bed. After Joash died, the people buried him in David's City. But they didn't bury him in the place where the kings are buried.

<sup>26</sup>These are the servants that made plans against Joash: Zabad and Jehozabad. Zabad's mother's name was Shimeath. Shimeath was from Ammon. And Jehozabad's mother's name was Shimrith. Shimrith was from Moab. <sup>27</sup>The story about Joash's sons, the great prophecies against him, and how he built again God's temple* are written in the writings of the Book of the Kings. Amaziah became the new king after him. Amaziah was Joash's son.

Amaziah King of Judah

25 Amaziah was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled for 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddin. Jehoaddin was from Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Amaziah did the things the Lord wanted him to do. But he didn't do them with all his heart. <sup>3</sup>Amaziah became a strong king. Then he killed the officials that killed his father the king. 'But Amaziah didn't kill those officials' children. Why? He obeyed the law written in the book of Moses. The Lord commanded, "Fathers must not die because of their children's sins. Children must not die because of their father's sins. Every person must die for his own sins."*

<sup>4</sup>Amaziah gathered the people of Judah together. He grouped them by families and he put generals and captains in charge of those groups. Those leaders were in charge of all the soldiers from Judah and Benjamin. All the men that were chosen to be soldiers were 20 years old and older. In all there were 300,000 skilled soldiers ready to fight with spears and shields. <sup>6</sup>Amaziah also hired 100,000 soldiers from Israel. He paid 3<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> tons* of silver to hire those soldiers. <sup>7</sup>But a man of God* came to Amaziah. The man of God said, "King, don't let the army of Israel go with you. The Lord is not with Israel. The Lord is not with the people of Ephraim.* <sup>8</sup>Maybe you will make yourself strong and ready for war, but God can help you win or help you lose. <sup>9</sup>Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what about the money I already paid to the Israelite army?" The man of God answered, "The Lord has plenty. He can give you much more than that!"

<sup>10</sup>So Amaziah sent the Israelite army back home to Ephraim.* Those men were very angry against the king and the people of Judah. They went back home very angry.

<sup>11</sup>Then Amaziah became very brave and led his army to the Salt Valley in the country of man of God This is another name for a prophet.

Ephraim Ephraim was Joseph's youngest son. Ephraim's family group joined Israel. Ephraim was another name for Israel.

Edom. In that place, Amaziah's army killed 10,000 men from Seir.* <sup>12</sup>The army of Judah also captured 10,000 men from Seir. They took those men from Seir to the top of a cliff. Those men were still alive. Then the army of Judah threw down those men from the top of the cliff and their bodies were broken on the rocks below.

<sup>14</sup>Amaziah came home after he defeated the Edomite* people. He brought the idol gods the people of Seir* worshiped. Amaziah started to worship those idol gods. He bowed down in front of those gods, and he burned incense* to them. <sup>15</sup>The Lord was very angry with Amaziah. The Lord sent a prophet to Amaziah. The prophet said, "Amaziah, why have you worshiped the gods those people worship? Those gods could not even save their own people from you!"

<sup>16</sup>When the prophet spoke, Amaziah said to the prophet, "We never made you an adviser to the king! Be quiet! If you don't be quiet, you will be killed." The prophet became quiet, but then said, "God really has decided to destroy you. Why? Because you did those bad things and didn't listen to my advice."

<sup>17</sup>Amaziah king of Judah, talked with his advisers. Then he sent a message to Jehoash. Amaziah said to Jehoash, "Let's meet face to face." Jehoash was Jehoahaz's son. Jehoahaz was Jehu's son. Jehu was the king of Israel.

But a wild animal came and walked over the thorn bush and destroyed it. <sup>19</sup>You say to yourself, 'I have defeated Edom*!' You are proud and you brag. But you should stay at home. There is no need for you to get into trouble. If you fight me, you and Judah will be destroyed."

<sup>20</sup>But Amaziah refused to listen. This came from God. God planned to let Israel defeat Judah, because the people of Judah followed the gods the people of Edom* followed. <sup>21</sup>So Jehoash king of Israel met Amaziah king of Judah face to face at the town of Beth-Shemesh. Beth-Shemesh is in Judah. <sup>22</sup>Israel defeated Judah. Every man of Judah ran away to his home. <sup>23</sup>Jehoash captured Amaziah at Beth-Shemesh and took him to Jerusalem. Amaziah's father's name was Joash. Joash's father's name was Jehoahaz. Jehoash tore down a 600-foot section* of the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate. <sup>24</sup>Then Jehoash took all the gold and silver and all the things in God's temple.* Obed-Edom was responsible for taking care of those things in the temple. Jehoash also took the valuable things from the king's house, and some people as prisoners. Then he went back to Samaria.

Amaziah. Amaziah was Uzziah's father. Uzziah was 16 years old when this happened. <sup>2</sup>Uzziah built again the town of Elath and gave it back to Judah. Uzziah did this after Amaziah died and was buried with his ancestors.*

<sup>3</sup>Uzziah was 16 years old when he became king. He ruled 52 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah. Jecoliah was from Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>Uzziah did the things the Lord wanted him to do. He obeyed God the same as his father Amaziah had done. <sup>5</sup>Uzziah followed God in the time of Zechariah's life. Zechariah taught Uzziah how to respect and obey God. When Uzziah was obeying the Lord, God gave him success.

<sup>9</sup>Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate, and at the place where the wall turned. Uzziah made those towers strong. <sup>10</sup>Uzziah built towers in the desert. He also dug many wells. He had much cattle in the hill country and in the flat lands. Uzziah had farmers in the mountains and in the lands where growth was good. He also had men that took care of fields where grapes grew. He loved farming.

army of 307,500 men that fought with great power. Those soldiers helped the king against the enemy. <sup>14</sup>Uzziah gave the army shields, spears, helmets, armor, bows, and stones for the slings.* <sup>15</sup>In Jerusalem Uzziah made machines that were invented by clever men. Those machines were put on the towers and corner walls. These machines shot arrows and large rocks. Uzziah became famous. People knew his name in far away places. He had much help and became a powerful king.

had punished him. <sup>21</sup>Uzziah the king was a leper.* He could not enter the Lord's temple. Uzziah's son Jotham controlled the king's house and became governor for the people.

<sup>22</sup>The other things that Uzziah did, from beginning to the end, were written by the prophet Isaiah. Isaiah's father was Amoz. <sup>23</sup>Uzziah died and was buried near his ancestors.* Uzziah was buried in the field near the king's burial places. Why? Because the people said, "Uzziah has leprosy.*" And Jotham became the new king in Uzziah's place. Jotham was Uzziah's son.

Jotham King of Judah

27 Jotham was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah. Jerushah was Zadok's daughter. <sup>2</sup>Jotham did the things the Lord wanted him to do. He obeyed God just like his father Uzziah had done. But Jotham did not enter the Lord's temple\* to burn incense\* like his father did. But the people continued doing wrong. <sup>3</sup>Jotham built again the Upper Gate of the Lord's temple. He did much building on the wall at the place named Ophel. <sup>4</sup>Jotham also built towns in the hill country of Judah. Jotham built fortresses\* and towers in the forests. <sup>5</sup>Jotham also fought against the king of the Ammonite people and his army and defeated them. So each year for three years the Ammonites gave Jotham  $3\frac{3}{4}$  tons\* of silver, 62,000 bushels\* of wheat, and 62,000 bushels\* of barley.

the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. <sup>8</sup>Jotham was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Then Jotham died and was buried with his ancestors.* The people buried him in David's City.* Ahaz became the king in Jotham's place. Ahaz was Jotham's son.

Ahaz King of Judah

28 Ahaz was 20 years old when he became king. He ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. Ahaz didn't live right like David his ancestor.* Ahaz didn't do the things the Lord wanted him to do. <sup>2</sup>Ahaz followed the bad example of the kings of Israel. He used molds to make idols to worship the Baal gods. <sup>3</sup>Ahaz burned incense* in the Valley of Ben Hinnom.*<sup>4</sup> He sacrificed* his own sons by burning them in the fire. He did the same terrible sins that the peoples living in that land did. The Lord had forced those people out when the people of Israel entered that land. <sup>5</sup>Ahaz offered sacrifices* and burned incense in the high places,* on the hills, and under every green tree.

<sup>6</sup>Ahaz sinned, so the Lord his God let the king of Aram defeat Ahaz. The king of Aram and his army defeated Ahaz and made many people of Judah prisoners. The king of Aram took those prisoners to the city of Damascus. The Lord also let Pekah the king of Israel defeat Ahaz. Pekah's father's name was Remaliah. Pekah and his army killed 120,000 brave soldiers from Judah in one day. Pekah defeated those men from Judah because they stopped obeying the Lord God their ancestors obeyed. <sup>7</sup>Zicri was a brave soldier from Ephraim.* Zicri killed Maaseiah, King Ahaz's son, Azrikam the officer in charge of the king's house, and Elkanah. Elkanah was second in command to the king.

<sup>8</sup>The Israelite army captured 200,000 of their own relatives living in Judah. They took women, children, and many valuable things from Judah. The Israelites brought those captives and those things to the city of Samaria. <sup>9</sup>But one of the Lord's prophets was there. This prophet was named Oded. Oded met the Israelite army that came back to Samaria. Oded said to the Israelite army, "The Lord God your ancestors* obeyed let you defeat the people of Judah because he was angry at them. You killed and punished the people of Judah in a very mean way. Now God is angry at you. <sup>10</sup>You plan to keep the people of Judah and Jerusalem as slaves. You also have sinned against the Lord your God. <sup>11</sup>Now listen to me. Send back your brothers and sisters that you captured. Do this because the Lord's terrible anger is against you."

<sup>12</sup>Then some of the leaders in Ephraim* saw the Israelite soldiers coming home from war. Those leaders met the Israelite soldiers and warned them. Those leaders were Azariah son of Johohanan, Berekiah son of Meshilemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai. <sup>13</sup>Those leaders said to the Israelite soldiers, "Don't bring the prisoners from Judah here. If you do that, it will make us sin worse against the Lord. That will make our sin and guilt worse and the Lord will be very angry against Israel!" <sup>14</sup>So the soldiers gave the prisoners and valuable things to those leaders and to the people of Israel. <sup>15</sup>The leaders named before (Azariah, Berekiah, Jehizkiah, and Amasa) stood up and helped the prisoners. These four men got the clothes that the Israelite army took and gave them to those people that were naked. Those leaders also gave shoes to those people. They gave the prisoners from Judah something to eat and drink. They rubbed oil on those people.* Then those leaders from Ephraim put the weak prisoners on donkeys and took them back home to their families in Jericho. Jericho was named the city of palm trees. Then those four leaders went back home to Samaria.

<sup>16-17</sup>At that same time, the people from Edom came again and defeated the people of Judah. The Edomites captured people and took them away as prisoners. So King Ahaz asked the king of Assyria to help him. <sup>18</sup>The Philistine people also attacked the towns in the hills and in south Judah. The Philistines captured the towns of Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soco, Timnah, and Gimzo. They also captured the villages near those towns. Then the Philistines lived in those towns. <sup>19</sup>The Lord gave troubles to Judah because King Ahaz of Judah encouraged the people of Judah to sin. He was very unfaithful to the Lord. <sup>20</sup>Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came and gave Ahaz trouble instead of helping him. <sup>21</sup>Ahaz took some valuable things from the Lord's temple* and from the king's house and from the prince's house. Ahaz gave those things to the king of Assyria. But that didn't help Ahaz.

<sup>22</sup>In Ahaz's troubles, he sinned worse and became more unfaithful to the Lord. <sup>23</sup>He offered sacrifices* to the gods the people of Damascus worshiped. The people of Damascus had defeated Ahaz. So he thought to himself, "The gods the people of Aram worship helped them. So if I offer sacrifices to those gods, maybe they will help me also." Ahaz worshiped those gods. In this way he sinned, and he made the people of Israel sin.

<sup>24</sup>Ahaz gathered the things from God's temple* and broke them to pieces. Then he closed the doors of the Lord's temple. He made altars* and put them on every street corner in Jerusalem. <sup>25</sup>In every town in Judah Ahaz made high places* for burning incense* to worship other gods. Ahaz made the Lord God that his ancestors* obeyed very angry.

<sup>26</sup>The other things that Ahaz did, from the beginning to the end, are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>27</sup>Ahaz died and was buried with his ancestors.* The people buried Ahaz in the city of Jerusalem. But they didn't bury Ahaz in the same burial place where the kings of Israel were buried. Hezekiah became the new king in Ahaz's place. Hezekiah was Ahaz's son.

Hezekiah King of Judah

29 Hezekiah became king when he was 25 years old. He ruled 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah. Abijah was Zechariah's daughter. <sup>2</sup>Hezekiah did the things the Lord wanted him to do. He did what was right just like David his ancestor* had done.

<sup>3</sup>Hezekiah fixed the doors of the Lord's temple* and made them strong. Hezekiah opened the temple again. He did this in the first month of the first year after he became king. <sup>4</sup>Hezekiah got the priests and Levites together in one assembly. He had a meeting with them in the open yard on the east side of the temple. Hezekiah said to them, "Listen to me, Levites! Make yourselves ready for holy service. Make the temple of the Lord God ready for holy service. He is the God your ancestors obeyed. Take away the things from the temple that do not belong in there. Those things make the temple not pure. <sup>6</sup>Our ancestors left the Lord and turned their faces away from the Lord's house.* <sup>7</sup>They shut the doors of the porch of the temple and let the fire go out in the lamps. They stopped burning incense* and offerings burnt offerings* in the Holy Place* to the God of Israel. <sup>8</sup>So, the Lord became very angry at the people of Judah and Jerusalem. The Lord punished them. Other peoples became afraid and were shocked when they saw what the Lord did to the people of Judah and Jerusalem. Those other people shook their heads with hate and shame for the people of Judah. You know these things are true. You can see with your own eyes. <sup>9</sup>And that is why our ancestors were killed in battle. Our sons and daughters and wives were made prisoners. <sup>10</sup>So now I, Hezekiah, have decided to make an agreement with the Lord God of Israel. Then he will not be angry at us any more. <sup>11</sup>So don't be lazy and waste any more time. The Lord chose you to serve him. You should serve him and burn incense to him."

<sup>12-14</sup>This is a list of the Levites that were there that started to work: From the Kohathite family there was Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah. From the Merarite family there was Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel. From the Gershonite family there was Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joab. From Elizaphan's descendants* there was Shimri and Jeiel. From Asaph's descendants there was Zechariah and Mattaniah. From Heman's descendants there was Jehiel and Shimei. From Jeduthun's descendants there was Shemaiah and Uzziel. <sup>15</sup>Then these Levites gathered their brothers together and made themselves ready for holy service in the temple.* They obeyed the king's command that came from the Lord. They went into the Lord's temple to clean it. <sup>16</sup>The priests went into the inside part of the Lord's temple to clean it.

high places Places of worship.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

ancestor Literally, "father," meaning a person that people are descended from.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

Lord's house Another name for the temple in Jerusalem.

burnt offering(s) Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.

Holy Place The room in the Holy Tent and in the temple that was used by the priests to do their daily service to God.

They took out all the unclean* things they found in the Lord's temple. They brought the unclean things to the yard of the Lord's temple. Then the Levites took the unclean things out to the Kidron Valley. <sup>17</sup>On the first day of the first month, the Levites began to make themselves ready for holy service. On the eighth day of the month, the Levites came to the porch of the Lord's temple. For eight more days they cleaned the Lord's temple to make it ready for holy use. They finished on the 16th day of the first month.

<sup>18</sup>Then they went to King Hezekiah. They said to him, "King Hezekiah, we cleaned all the Lord's temple* and the altar* for burning offerings and all the things in the temple. We cleaned the table for the rows of bread with all the things used for that table. <sup>19</sup>King Ahab was not faithful and he threw away some things when he was king. But we put all those things back and made them ready for holy use. They are now in front of the Lord's altar."<sup>17</sup>

assembled together. The goats were the sin offering. The priests put their hands on the goats and killed the goats. The priests made a sin offering with the goats' blood on the altar. They did this so God would forgive the sins of the people of Israel. The king said that the burnt offering* and the sin offering should be made for all the people of Israel.

<sup>29</sup>After the sacrifices* were finished, King Hezekiah and all the people with him bowed down and worshiped. <sup>30</sup>King Hezekiah and his officials ordered the Levites to give praise to the Lord. They sang songs that David and Asaph the seer* had written. They praised God and became happy. They all bowed and worshiped God. <sup>31</sup>Hezekiah said, "Now you people of Judah have given yourselves to the Lord. Come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the Lord's temple.*" Then the people brought sacrifices and thank offerings. Any person who wanted to, also brought burnt offerings. <sup>32</sup>This is how many burnt offerings the assembly brought to the temple: 70 bulls, 100 rams, and 200 lambs. All these animals were sacrificed as burnt offerings to the Lord.

unclean Or, "unacceptable." Not pure or not able to be used in worshiping God. See Lev. 11-15 for the Old Testament rules about clean and unclean things.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

altar(s) A stone table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

Holy Place The room in the Holy Tent and in the temple that was used by the priests to do their daily service to God.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

burnt offering(s) Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.

cymbals A pair of metal platters that are hit against each other to make a loud sound.

seer This is another name for a prophet. See 1 Samuel 9-11.

<sup>14</sup>The holy offerings for the Lord were 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep and goats. <sup>15</sup>But there were not enough priests to skin and cut up all the animals for the burnt offerings. So their relatives, the Levites, helped them until the work was finished and until other priests could make themselves ready for holy service. The Levites were more serious about making themselves ready to serve the Lord. They were more serious than the priests. <sup>16</sup>There were many burnt offerings, and the fat of fellowship offerings, and drink offerings. So the service in the Lord's temple began again. <sup>17</sup>Hezekiah and the people were very happy about the things God prepared for his people. And they were happy he did it so quickly!

Hezekiah Celebrates the Passover

30 King Hezekiah sent messages to all the people of Israel and Judah. He wrote letters to the people of Ephraim and Manasseh* also. Hezekiah invited all those people to come to the Lord's temple* in Jerusalem so they all could celebrate the Passover* for the Lord God of Israel. <sup>2</sup>King Hezekiah agreed with all his officials and all the assembly in Jerusalem to have the Passover in the second month. <sup>3</sup>They could not celebrate the Passover Festival at the regular time. Why? Because not enough priests had made themselves ready for holy service. And another reason is the people had not gathered in Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>The agreement satisfied King Hezekiah and all the assembly. <sup>5</sup>So they made an announcement everywhere in Israel, from the town of Beersheba all the way to the town of Dan. They told the people to come to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover for the Lord God of Israel. A large group of the people of Israel had not celebrated the Passover since a long time ago the way the law of Moses said to celebrate it. <sup>6</sup>So the messengers took the king's letters all through Israel and Judah. This is what those letters said:

Children of Israel, turn back to the Lord God that Abraham, Isaac, and Israel (Jacob) obeyed. Then God will come back to you people that are still alive and have escaped from the kings of Assyria. <sup>7</sup>Don't be like your fathers or your brothers. The Lord was their God, but they turned against him. So the Lord made people hate them and speak evil about them. You can see with your own eyes that this is true. <sup>8</sup>Don't be stubborn like your ancestors* were. But obey the Lord with a willing heart. Come to the Most Holy Place.* The Lord has made the Most Holy Place to be holy forever. Serve the Lord your God. Then the Lord's fearful anger will turn away from you. <sup>9</sup>If you come back and obey the Lord, then your relatives and your children will find mercy from the people that captured them. And your relatives and your children will come back to this land. The Lord your God is kind and merciful. He will not turn away from you if you come back to him.

Ephraim and Manasseh Ephraim and Manasseh were Joseph's sons. Both their families later became one family group of Israel. When the kingdom was divided, Ephraim and Manasseh sometimes meant the whole kingdom of Israel, separate from the kingdom of Judah.

Passover Important holy day for Jews. They ate a special meal on this day every year to remember that God freed them from slavery in Egypt in the time of Moses.

to celebrate the Festival of Unleavened Bread* in the second month. It was a very large crowd. "Those people took away the altars in Jerusalem that were for false gods. They also took away all the incense altars that were for false gods. They threw those altars into the Kidron Valley. <sup>15</sup>Then they killed the Passover lamb on the 14th day of the second month. The priests and the Levites felt ashamed. They made themselves ready for holy service. The priests and the Levites brought burnt offerings* into the Lord's temple.* <sup>16</sup>They took their regular places in the temple the way the law of Moses, the man of God,* said. The Levites gave the blood to the priests. Then the priests sprinkled the blood on the altar.* <sup>17</sup>There were many people in the group that had not made themselves ready for holy service, so they were not permitted to kill the Passover lambs. That is why the Levites were responsible for killing the Passover lambs for every person who was not clean. The Levites made each lamb holy for the Lord.

<sup>18-19</sup>Many people from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun had not prepared themselves in the right way for the Passover* Festival. They did not celebrate the Passover the right way, like the law of Moses says. But Hezekiah prayed for those people. So Hezekiah said this prayer, "Lord God, you are good. These people truly wanted to worship you in the right way, but they did not make themselves clean like the law says. Please forgive those people. You are the God that our ancestors* obeyed. Forgive, even if someone did not make himself clean like the rules of the Most Holy Place* say." <sup>20</sup>The Lord listened to King Hezekiah's prayer. The Lord forgave the people. <sup>21</sup>The children of Israel at Jerusalem celebrated the Festival of Unleavened Bread for seven days. They were very happy. The Levites and the priests gave praise to the Lord every day with all their strength. <sup>22</sup>King Hezekiah encouraged all the Levites that understood very well how to do the service of the Lord. The people celebrated the Festival for seven days and offered fellowship offerings. They gave thanks and praise to the Lord God of their ancestors.*

<sup>23</sup>All the people agreed to stay seven more days. They were joyful as they celebrated the Passover* for seven more days. <sup>24</sup>Hezekiah king of Judah gave 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep to the assembly to kill and eat. The leaders gave 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep to the assembly. Many priests prepared themselves for holy service. <sup>25</sup>All the assembly of Judah, the priests, the Levites, all the assembly that came from Israel, and the travelers that came from Israel and moved to Judah—all those people were very happy. <sup>26</sup>So there was much joy in Jerusalem. There was not anything like this celebration since the time of Solomon son of David king of Israel. <sup>27</sup>The priests and the Levites stood up and asked the Lord to bless the people. God heard them. Their prayer came up to the Lord's holy home in heaven.

King Hezekiah Makes Improvements

31 The Passover* celebration was finished. The people of Israel that were in Jerusalem for the Passover went out to the towns of Judah. Then they smashed the stone idols that were in those towns. Those stone idols were used to worship false gods. Those people also cut down the Asherah Poles.* And they broke down the high places* and the altars* all through the countries of Judah and Benjamin. The people did the same things in the area of Ephraim and Manasseh. The people did these things until they destroyed all the things used for worshiping the false gods. Then all the Israelites went back to their towns. Each person went back to his own home.

<sup>2</sup>King Hezekiah again chose the groups of priests and Levites to do their duties. Each man had a special work to do. Hezekiah again chose the priests and the Levites for making the burnt offerings* and the fellowship offerings. Those priests also worshiped and gave thanks and praise in the Lord's house.* <sup>3</sup>Hezekiah used some of his own animals to give for the burnt offerings. These burnt offerings were given in the mornings and evenings, on the Sabbath days,* and during the New Moons,* and other festivals. This was done as it is written in the Lord's law. <sup>4</sup>Hezekiah commanded the people living in Jerusalem to give the part that belonged to the priests and the Levites to them. Then the priests and Levites could give themselves fulltime to the Lord's law. <sup>5</sup>Soon after the king's command went out all through the country, the people of Israel gave freely. They gave the first part of their harvest of grain, grapes, oil, honey, and all the things they grew in their fields. They freely brought one tenth of all their things, and this collection was very large also. <sup>6</sup>The men of Israel and Judah living in the towns of Judah also brought one tenth of their cattle and sheep. They also brought one tenth of the things that were put in a special place that was only for the Lord. All these things they brought to the Lord their God. They put all these things in piles. <sup>7</sup>In the third month the people began to bring their collection of things and they finished bringing the collection in the seventh month. <sup>8</sup>When Hezekiah and the leaders came, they saw the piles of things that were collected. They gave praise to the Lord and to the Lord's people, the people of Israel. <sup>9</sup>Then Hezekiah asked the priests and the Levites about the piles. <sup>10</sup>Azariah the leading priest from Zadok's family said to Hezekiah, "Since the people began to bring the offerings into the Lord's house, we have had plenty to eat. We have plenty left. The Lord has blessed his people. We have all this much left."

<sup>11</sup>Then Hezekiah commanded the priests to make storerooms ready in the Lord's temple.* So this was done. <sup>12</sup>Then the priests brought the offerings, tithes,* and other things that were to be given only to the Lord. All those things collected were put in the storerooms in the temple. Conaniah the Levite was in charge of all those things that were collected. Shimei was second in charge of those things. Shimei was Conaniah's brother. <sup>13</sup>Conaniah and his brother Shimei were supervisors of these men: Jehiel, Azariah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismakiah, Mahath, and Benaiah. Hezekiah the king and Azariah the official in charge of God's temple chose those men. <sup>14</sup>Kore was in charge of the offerings that the people freely gave to God. He was responsible for giving out the collections that were given to the Lord. And he was responsible for giving out the gifts that were made holy for the Lord. Kore was the gatekeeper at the East Gate. His father's name was Imnah the Levite. <sup>15</sup>Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah helped Kore. Those men served faithfully in the towns where the priests were living. They gave the collection of things to their relatives in each group of priests. They gave the same things to the more important people and to the less important. <sup>16</sup>These men also gave the collection of things to the males three years old and older that had their names in the Levite family histories. All these males were to enter the Lord's temple for daily service to do the things they were responsible to do. Each group of Levites had their own responsibility. <sup>17</sup>The priests were given their part of the collection. This was done by families, in the way they were listed in the family histories. The Levites 20 years old and older were given their part of the collection. This was done by their responsibilities and by their groups. <sup>18</sup>The Levites' babies, wives, sons and daughters also got part of the collection. This was done for all the Levites who were listed in the family histories. This was because the Levites were faithful to always keep themselves holy and ready for service. <sup>19</sup>Some of Aaron's descendants,* the priests, had some farm fields near the towns where the Levites were living. And some of Aaron's descendants were also living in the towns. Men were chosen by name in each of those towns to give part of the collection to these descendants of Aaron. Males and all those named in the family histories of the Levites got part of the collection.

<sup>20</sup>So King Hezekiah did those good things in all Judah. He did what was good and right and faithful before the Lord his God. <sup>21</sup>He had success in every work he began—the service of God's temple* and in obeying the law and commands, and in following his God. Hezekiah did all these things with all his heart.

The King of Aram Tries to Trouble Hezekiah

32 After all these things that Hezekiah had faithfully done happened, Sennacherib king of Assyria came to attack the country of Judah. Sennacherib and his army camped outside the fortresses.* He did this so he could make plans to defeat those towns.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

Sennacherib wanted to win those towns for himself. <sup>2</sup>Hezekiah knew that Sennacherib came to Jerusalem to attack it. <sup>3</sup>Then Hezekiah talked to his officials and army officers. They all agreed to stop the waters of the water springs outside the city. Those officials and army officers helped Hezekiah. <sup>4</sup>Many people came together and stopped all the springs and the stream that flowed through the middle of the country. They said, "The king of Assyria will not find much water when he comes here!" <sup>5</sup>Hezekiah made Jerusalem stronger. This is how he did it: He built again all the parts of the wall that were broken down. He built towers on the wall. He also built another wall outside the first wall. He built again the strong places on the east side of the old part of Jerusalem. He made many weapons and shields. <sup>6</sup>Hezekiah chose officers of war to be in charge of the people. He met with these officers at the open place near the city gate. Hezekiah talked to those officers and encouraged them. He said, "Be strong and brave. Don't be afraid or worry about the king of Assyria or the large army with him. There is a greater power with us than the king of Assyria has with him! <sup>8</sup>The king of Assyria only has men. But we have the Lord our God with us! Our God will help us. He will fight our battles!" So Hezekiah king of Judah encouraged the people and made them feel stronger.

places* and altars.* He told you people of Judah and Jerusalem that you must worship and burn incense* on only one altar. <sup>13</sup>Of course, you know what my ancestors* and I have done to all the peoples in other countries. The gods of the other countries could not save their people. Those gods could not stop me from destroying their people. <sup>14</sup>My ancestors destroyed those countries. There is no god that can stop me from destroying his people. So you think your god can save you from me? <sup>15</sup>Do not let Hezekiah fool you or trick you. Don't believe him because no god of any nation or kingdom has ever been able to keep his people safe from me or my ancestors. So don't think your god can stop me from destroying you."

<sup>16</sup>The king of Assyria's servants said worse things against the Lord God and against Hezekiah, God's servant. <sup>17</sup>The king of Assyria also wrote letters that insulted the Lord God of Israel. This is what the king of Assyria said in those letters: "The gods of the other nations could not stop me from destroying their people. In the same way Hezekiah's god won't be able to stop me from destroying his people." <sup>18</sup>Then the king of Assyria's servants shouted loudly to the people of Jerusalem that were on the city wall. Those servants used the Hebrew language when they shouted to the people on the wall. Those servants of the king of Assyria did this to make the people of Jerusalem afraid. They said those things so they could capture the city of Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>Those servants said bad things against the gods the people of the world worshiped. Those gods are only things people made with their hands. In the same way, those servants said the same bad things against the God of Jerusalem.

an angel to the king of Assyria's camp. That angel killed all the soldiers and the leaders and the officers in the Assyrian army. So the king of Assyria went back home to his own country, and his people were ashamed of him. He went into the temple of his god and some of his own sons killed him there with a sword. <sup>22</sup>So the Lord saved Hezekiah and the people in Jerusalem from Sennacherib the king of Assyria and from all other people. The Lord cared for Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup>Many people brought gifts for the Lord to Jerusalem. They brought valuable things to Hezekiah king of Judah. From that time on, all the nations respected Hezekiah.

<sup>24</sup>It was in those days that Hezekiah became very sick and near death. He prayed to the Lord. The Lord spoke to Hezekiah and gave him a sign.* <sup>25</sup>But Hezekiah's heart was proud, so he did not give God thanks for God's kindness. This is why God was angry at Hezekiah and at the people of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup>But Hezekiah and those people living in Jerusalem changed their hearts and lives. They became humble and stopped being proud. So the Lord's anger didn't come on them while Hezekiah was alive.

<sup>31</sup>One time the leaders of Babylon sent messengers to Hezekiah. Those messengers asked about a strange sign that had happened in the nations.* When they came God left Hezekiah alone to test him and to know everything that was in Hezekiah's heart.*

<sup>32</sup>The others things that Hezekiah did when he ruled, and all the good things are written in the vision of the prophet Isaiah in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. Isaiah was Amoz's son. <sup>33</sup>Hezekiah died and was buried with his ancestors.* The people buried Hezekiah on the hill where the graves of David's ancestors are. All the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem gave honor to Hezekiah when he died. Manasseh became the new king in Hezekiah's place. Manasseh was Hezekiah's son.

Manasseh King of Judah

33 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king of Judah. He was king for 55 years in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Manasseh did the things that the Lord said were wrong. He followed the terrible and sinful ways of the other nations. The Lord forced those nations out in front of the people of Israel. <sup>3</sup>Manasseh built again the high places* that Hezekiah his father had broken down. Manasseh built altars for the Baal gods and made Asherah Poles.* He bowed down to the groups of stars and worshiped them. <sup>4</sup>Manasseh built altars for false gods in the Lord's temple.* The Lord said about the temple, "My name will be in Jerusalem forever." <sup>5</sup>Manasseh built altars for all the groups of stars in the two yards of the Lord's temple. <sup>6</sup>Manasseh also burned his own children for a sacrifice* in the Valley of Ben Hinnom.* Manasseh also used magic by doing soothsaying, divination, and sorcery.* He talked with mediums* and fortune-tellers. Manasseh did much evil in the Lord's sight. Manasseh's sins made the Lord angry. <sup>7</sup>He also made a statue of an idol and put it in God's temple. God had said this to David and his son Solomon about the temple: "I will put my name in this house and in Jerusalem forever. I chose Jerusalem from all the family groups of Israel. <sup>8</sup>I will not again take the Israelites off the land that I chose to give to their ancestors.* But they must obey all the things I commanded them. The people of Israel must obey all the laws, rules, and commands I gave Moses to give to them." <sup>9</sup>Manasseh encouraged the people of Judah and the people living in Jerusalem to do wrong. They did worse evil than the nations that the Lord forced out before the Israelites.

Valley of Ben Hinnom The Valley of Ben Hinnom was later called "Gehenna." It was south of Jerusalem. Many babies and young children were sacrificed to false gods in this valley.

soothsaying, divination, sorcery These words describe the different ways of magic and fortunetelling and trying to tell what will happen in the future.

mediums A person who lets a spirit take control of him and makes him tell things that will happen in the future. This person also tries to talk to people who have died.

<sup>14</sup>After that happened, Manasseh built an outer wall for David's City.* The outer wall was on the west side of the Gihon spring in the valley at the entrance of the Fish Gate. Manasseh put this wall around the hill of Ophel. He made the wall very tall. Then he put officers in all the fortresses* in Judah. <sup>15</sup>Manasseh took away the strange idol gods. He took the idol out from the Lord's temple. He took away all the altars he had built on the temple hill, and in Jerusalem. Manasseh threw all those altars out of the city of Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>Then he set up the Lord's altar and offered fellowship offerings and thank offerings on it. Manasseh gave a command for all the people of Judah to serve the Lord God of Israel. <sup>17</sup>The people continued to offer sacrifices* at the high places,* but their sacrifices were only to the Lord their God.

<sup>18</sup>The other things Manasseh did, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers* that spoke to him in the name of the Lord God of Israel, are all written in the Book of the Kings of Israel. <sup>19</sup>Manasseh's prayer and how God listened and felt sorry for him is written in the Book of the seers. Also all of Manasseh's sins and wrongs before he humbled himself, and the places where he built high places* and set up the Asherah Poles* are written in the Book of the seers. <sup>20</sup>So Manasseh died and was buried with his ancestors.* The people buried Manasseh in his own king's house. Amon became the new king in Manasseh's place. Amon was Manasseh's son.

Asherah Poles These poles were used to honor the female god Asherah that the Canaanite people worshiped.

Amon King of Judah

<sup>2</sup>Amon was 22 years old when he became king of Judah. He was king for two years in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Amon did evil things before the Lord. He did not do the things the Lord wanted him to do just like Manasseh his father. Amon offered sacrifices* for all the carved idols and statues that Manasseh his father made. Amon worshiped those idols. <sup>2</sup>Amon did not humble himself in front of the Lord like Manasseh his father humbled himself. But Amon sinned more and more. <sup>2</sup>Amon's servants made plans against him. They killed Amon in his own house. <sup>2</sup>But the people of Judah killed all those servants that planned against King Amon. Then the people chose Josiah to be the new king. Josiah was Amon's son.

Josiah King of Judah

34 Josiah was eight years old when he became king. He was king for 31 years in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Josiah did what was right. He did the things the Lord wanted him to do. He did good things like David his ancestor.* Josiah did not turn from doing right things. <sup>3</sup>When Josiah was in his eighth year as king, he began to follow the God that David his ancestor followed. Josiah was still young when he began to obey God. When Josiah was in his twelfth year as king he began to destroy the high places*, the Asherah Poles,* and idols that were carved and idols that were made from molds. He beat those idols into powder. Then Josiah sprinkled the powder on the graves of the people that had offered sacrifices* to the Baal gods. <sup>3</sup>Josiah even burned the bones of the priests that had served the Baal gods on their own altars. This is how Josiah destroyed idols and idol worship from Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>Josiah did the same for the towns in the countries of Manasseh, Ephraim, Simeon, and all the way to Naphtali. He did the same for the ruins near all those towns.* <sup>7</sup>Josiah broke down the altars and the Asherah Poles. He beat the idols into powder. He cut down all the incense altars used for Baal worship in all the country of Israel. Then Josiah went back to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup>When Josiah was in his 18th year as king of Judah he sent Shaphan, Maaseiah, and Joah to build again and fix the temple* of the Lord his God. Shaphan's father's name was Azaliah. Maaseiah was the city leader, and Joah's father's name was Jehoahaz. Joah was the man that wrote about the things that happened. (He was the recorder.) So Josiah commanded the temple to be fixed so he could make Judah and the temple clean. <sup>9</sup>Those men came to Hilkiah the High Priest. They gave him the money that people gave for God's temple. The Levite doorkeepers had collected this money from the people of Manasseh, Ephraim, and from all the Israelites that were left. They also collected this money from all Judah, Benjamin, and all the people living in Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>Then the Levites paid the men that supervised the work on the Lord's temple. And the supervisors paid the workers that built again and fixed the Lord's temple. <sup>11</sup>They gave the money to carpenters and builders to buy large rocks that were already cut, and to buy wood. The wood was used to build again the buildings and to make beams for the buildings. In the past, the kings of Judah did not take care of the temple buildings. Those buildings had become old and ruined. <sup>12-13</sup>The men worked faithfully. Their supervisors were Jahath and Obadiah. Jahath and Obadiah were Levites, and they were descendants* of Merari. Other supervisors were Zechariah and Meshullam. They were descendants of Kohath. The Levites that were skilled in playing instruments of music also supervised the workers that carried things and all the other workers. Some Levites worked as secretaries, officials, and doorkeepers.

The Book of the Law Found

<sup>14</sup>The Levites brought out the money that was in the Lord's temple.* At that time Hilkiah the priest found the book of the Lord's law that was given through Moses. <sup>15</sup>Hilkiah said to Shaphan the secretary, "I found the Book of the Law in the Lord's house*!" Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan. <sup>16</sup>Shaphan brought the book to King Josiah. Shaphan reported to the king, "Your servants are doing everything you told them to do. <sup>17</sup>They got the money that was in the Lord's temple and are paying the supervisors and the workers." <sup>18</sup>Then Shaphan said to King Josiah, "Hilkiah the priest gave a book to me." Then Shaphan read from the book. He was in front of the king as he was reading. <sup>19</sup>When King Josiah heard the words of the law being read, he tore his clothes.* <sup>20</sup>Then the king gave a command to Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, Shaphan the secretary, and Asaiah the servant. <sup>21</sup>The king said, "Go, ask the Lord for me, and for the people that are left in Israel and in Judah. Ask about the words in the book that was found. The Lord is very angry with us because our ancestors* did not obey the Lord's word. They did not do all the things this book says to do!"

<sup>22</sup>Hilkiah and the king's servants* went to Huldah the prophetess.* Huldah was Shallum's wife. Shallum was Tokhath's son, Tokhath was Hasrah's son. Hasrah took care of the king's clothes. Huldah lived in the newer part of Jerusalem. Hilkiah and the king's servants told

Huldah what had happened. <sup>21</sup>Huldah said to them, "This is what the Lord God of Israel says: Tell King Josiah: <sup>22</sup>This is what the Lord says, 'I will bring trouble to this place and to the people living here! I will bring all the terrible things that are written in the book that was read in front of the king of Judah. <sup>23</sup>I will do this because the people left me and burned incense* to other gods. Those people made me angry because of all the bad things they have done. So I will pour out my anger on this place. Like a hot burning fire, my anger will not be put out!'

<sup>24</sup>"But tell this to King Josiah of Judah. He sent you to ask the Lord: This is what the Lord God of Israel says about the words you heard a little while ago: <sup>25</sup>'Josiah, you repented and you humbled yourself, and tore your clothes.* You cried before me. So, because your heart was tender, <sup>26</sup>I will take you to be with your ancestors.** You will go to your grave in peace. You won't have to see any of the trouble that I will bring on this place and on the people living here.'" Hilkiah and the king's servants brought back this message to King Josiah.

<sup>27</sup>Then King Josiah called for all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem to come and meet with him. <sup>28</sup>The king went up to the Lord's temple.* All the people from Judah, the people living in Jerusalem, the priests, the Levites, and all the people, both important and not important, were with Josiah. Josiah read to them all the words in the Book of the Agreement.* That book was found in the Lord's temple. <sup>29</sup>Then the king stood up in his place. He made an agreement with the Lord. He agreed to follow the Lord,

tore ... clothes In Josiah's time, tearing clothes showed that a person was very upset. Josiah was upset because his people had not obeyed the Lord's laws.

take you to be with your ancestors This means that Josiah would die.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

and to obey the Lord's commands, laws, and rules. Josiah agreed to obey with all his heart and soul. He agreed to obey the words of the Agreement written in this book. <sup>32</sup>Then Josiah made all the people in Jerusalem and Benjamin promise to accept the Agreement. The people of Jerusalem obeyed the Agreement of God, the God their ancestors* obeyed. <sup>33</sup>And Josiah threw out the idols from all the places that belonged to the people of Israel. God hates those idols. Josiah led every person in Israel in serving the Lord their God. While Josiah lived, the people did not stop obeying the Lord God that their ancestors obeyed.

Josiah Celebrates Passover

35 King Josiah celebrated the Passover* to the Lord in Jerusalem. The Passover lamb was killed on the 14th day of the first month. <sup>2</sup>Josiah chose the priests to do their duties. He encouraged the priests while they were serving in the Lord's temple.* <sup>3</sup>Josiah spoke to the Levites who taught the people of Israel and who were made holy for service to the Lord. He said to those Levites: "Put the Holy Box* in the temple that Solomon built. Solomon was David's son. David was king of Israel. Do not carry the Holy Box from place to place on your shoulders again. Now serve the Lord your God. Serve God's people, the people of Israel. <sup>4</sup>Make yourselves ready for service in the temple by your family groups. Do the jobs that King David and his son King Solomon gave you to do. <sup>5</sup>Stand in the Holy Place* with a group of Levites. Do this for each different family group of the people so you can help them. <sup>6</sup>Kill the Passover lambs, make yourselves holy to the Lord. Make the lambs

Passover Important holy day for Jews. They ate a special meal on this day every year to remember that God freed them from slavery in Egypt in the time of Moses.

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement. The box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert. Also called "The Ark of the Covenant."

Holy Place The room in the Holy Tent and in the temple that was used by the priests to do their daily service to God.

ready for your brothers, the people of Israel. Do all the things the Lord commanded us to do. The Lord gave us all those commands through Moses."

<sup>7</sup>Josiah gave the people of Israel 30,000 sheep and goats to kill for the Passover* sacrifices. He also gave 3,000 cattle to the people. All these animals were from King Josiah's own animals. <sup>8</sup>Josiah's officials also freely gave animals and things to the people, to the priests, and Levites to use for the Passover. Hilkiah the high priest, Zechariah, and Jehiel were the officials in charge of the temple. They gave the priests 2,600 lambs and goats and 300 bulls for Passover sacrifices. <sup>9</sup>Also Conaniah with Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah, Jeiel and Jozabad gave 500 sheep and goats and 500 bulls for Passover sacrifices to the Levites. Those men were leaders of the Levites.

<sup>10</sup>When everything was ready for the Passover* service to begin, the priests and Levites went to their places. This is what the king commanded. <sup>11</sup>The Passover lambs were killed. Then the Levites skinned the animals and gave the blood to the priests. The priests sprinkled the blood on the altar.* <sup>12</sup>Then they gave the animals to be used for burnt offerings* to the different family groups. This was done so the burnt offerings could be offered the way the Law of Moses taught. <sup>13</sup>The Levites roasted the Passover sacrifices* over the fire in the way they were commanded. And they boiled the holy offerings in pots, kettles, and pans. Then they quickly gave the meat to the people. <sup>14</sup>After this was finished, the Levites got meat for themselves and for the priests that were descendants* of Aaron. Those priests were kept very busy, working until it got dark. They worked hard burning the burnt offerings and the fat of the sacrifices. <sup>15</sup>The Levite singers from Asaph's family got in the places that King David had chosen for them to stand. They were: Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's prophet. The gatekeepers at each gate did not have to leave their places because their brother Levites made everything ready for them for the Passover.

<sup>16</sup>So everything was done that day for the worship of the Lord as King Josiah commanded. The Passover* was celebrated and the burnt offerings* were offered on the Lord's altar.* <sup>17</sup>The people of Israel that were there celebrated the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread* for seven days. <sup>18</sup>Since the time the prophet Samuel was living, the Passover had not been celebrated like this! None of the kings of Israel had ever celebrated a Passover like this. King Josiah, the priests, the Levites, and the people of Judah and Israel that were there with all the people in Jerusalem celebrated the Passover in a very special way. <sup>19</sup>This Passover was celebrated in the 18th year when Josiah was king.

The Death of Josiah

<sup>20</sup>After Josiah had done all those good things for the temple,* King Neco led an army to fight against the town of Carchemish on the Euphrates River. Neco was the king of Egypt. King Josiah went out to fight against Neco. <sup>21</sup>But Neco sent messengers to Josiah. They said, "King Josiah, this war is not your problem. I didn't come to fight against you. I came to fight my enemies. God told me to hurry. God is on my side, so don't bother me. If you fight against me, God will destroy you!" <sup>22</sup>But Josiah didn't go away. He decided to fight Neco, so he changed his appearance and

burnt offering(s) Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

Festival of Unleavened Bread This is the Passover Festival. Unleavened bread did not have yeast in it to make it rise when it is baked. At the Passover, as the Jews were leaving Egypt, the women did not have time to wait for the bread to rise because they were in a hurry, so it is called the Festival of Unleavened Bread.

went to fight the battle. Josiah refused to listen to what Neco said about God's command. Josiah went to fight on the plain of Megiddo. <sup>2</sup>Then King Josiah was shot by arrows while he was in the battle. He told his servants, "Take me away, I am wounded badly!" <sup>3</sup>So the servants took Josiah out of his chariot* and put him in another chariot he had brought with him to the battle. Then they took Josiah to Jerusalem. King Josiah died in Jerusalem. Josiah was buried in the graves where his ancestors* were buried. All the people of Judah and Jerusalem were very sad because Josiah was dead. <sup>4</sup>Jeremiah wrote some very sad songs to sing for Josiah.* Even to this day all the men and women singers remember and honor Josiah with those sad songs. It became something the people of Israel always do, to sing a sad song for Josiah. Those songs are written in the writings of sad songs. <sup>5,6</sup>All the other things that Josiah did while he was king, from beginning to the end of his rule, are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. That book tells about his love for the Lord and how he obeyed the Lord's law.

Jehoahaz King of Judah

36 The people of Judah chose Jehoahaz to be the new king in Jerusalem. Jehoahaz was Josiah's son. <sup>1</sup>Jehoahaz was 23 years old when he became king of Judah. He was king in Jerusalem for three months. <sup>2</sup>Then King Neco from Egypt made Jehoahaz a prisoner. Neco made the people of Judah pay  $3\frac{3}{4}$  tons\* of silver and 75 pounds\* of gold for a fine. <sup>3</sup>Neco chose Jehoahaz's brother to be the new king of Judah and Jerusalem. Jehoahaz's brother's name was Eliakim. Then Neco gave Eliakim a new name. He named him Jehoiakim. But Neco took Jehoahaz to Egypt.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.
ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
sad songs to sing for Josiah Another word is Laments of Jeremiah. See Jer. 22:10.
 $3\frac{3}{4}$  tons Literally, "100 talents."
 75 pounds Literally, "1 talent."

Jehoiakim King of Judah

<sup>1</sup>Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became the new king of Judah. He was king in Jerusalem for eleven years. Jehoiakim didn't do the things the Lord wanted him to do. He sinned against the Lord his God.

Jehoiachin King of Judah

<sup>1</sup>Jehoiachin was 18 years old when he became king of Judah. He was king in Jerusalem for three months and ten days. He didn't do the things the Lord wanted him to do. Jehoiachin sinned against the Lord. <sup>2</sup>In the spring, King Nebuchadnezzar sent some servants to get Jehoiachin. They brought Jehoiachin and some valuable treasures from the Lord's temple* to Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar chose Zedekiah to be the new king of Judah and Jerusalem. Zedekiah was Jehoiachin's relative.

Zedekiah King of Judah

<sup>1</sup>Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king of Judah. He was king in Jerusalem for eleven years. <sup>2</sup>Zedekiah didn't do the things the Lord wanted him to do. Zedekiah sinned against the Lord. He did not make himself humble and obey the things Jeremiah the prophet said. Jeremiah spoke the message from the Lord.

Jerusalem Is Destroyed

<sup>13</sup>Zedekiah turned against King Nebuchadnezzar. In the past Nebuchadnezzar forced Zedekiah to make a promise to be faithful to Nebuchadnezzar. Zedekiah used God's name and promised to be faithful to Nebuchadnezzar. But Zedekiah was very stubborn and refused to change his life and come back and obey the Lord God of Israel. <sup>14</sup>Also, all the leaders of the priests and the leaders of the people of Judah sinned worse and became more unfaithful to the Lord. They followed the evil example of the other nations. Those leaders ruined the Lord's temple.* The Lord had made the temple holy in Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>The Lord, the God of their ancestors,* sent prophets again and again to warn his people. The Lord did this because he felt sorry for them and for his temple. The Lord didn't want to destroy them or his temple. <sup>16</sup>But God's people made fun of God's prophets. They refused to listen to God's prophets. They hated God's messages. Finally God could not hold his anger any longer. God became angry at his people and there was nothing that could be done to stop it. <sup>17</sup>So God brought the King of Babylon to attack the people of Judah and Jerusalem.* The king of Babylon killed the young men even when they were in the temple. He didn't have mercy on the people of Judah and Jerusalem. The king of Babylon killed young and old people. He killed men and women. He killed sick and healthy people. God permitted Nebuchadnezzar to punish the people of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>Nebuchadnezzar carried all the things in God's temple away to Babylon. He took all the valuable things from the temple, from the king, and from the king's officials. <sup>19</sup>Nebuchadnezzar and his army burned the temple. They broke down Jerusalem's wall and burned all the houses that belonged to the king and his officials. They took or destroyed every valuable thing in Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>Nebuchadnezzar took the people that were still alive back to Babylon and forced them to be slaves. Those people stayed in Babylon as slaves until the Persian kingdom defeated the kingdom of Babylon. <sup>21</sup>And so the things the Lord told the people of Israel through the prophet Jeremiah really happened. The Lord had said through Jeremiah: "This place will be an empty wasteland for 70 years.* This will happen to make up for the Sabbath rests* that the people didn't do."

Cyrus Helps the Prisoners Return

1 During the first year* that Cyrus was king of Persia, the Lord encouraged Cyrus to make an announcement. Cyrus put that announcement in writing and had it read every place in his kingdom. This happened so that the Lord's message that was spoken through Jeremiah* would truly happen. This is the announcement:

The Lord, the God of heaven, gave all the kingdoms of the earth to me. And the Lord chose me to build a temple for him at Jerusalem in the country of Judah. <sup>3</sup>The Lord is the God of Israel, the God that is in Jerusalem. If any of God's people are living among you, then I pray God will bless them. You must let them go to Jerusalem in the country of Judah. You must let them go build the Lord's temple. <sup>4</sup>And so in any place where there might be survivors* of Israel, the men in that place must support those survivors. Give those people silver, gold, cows, and other things. Give them gifts for God's temple in Jerusalem."

up to Jerusalem. They were going to Jerusalem to build the Lord's temple. Also, every person that God had encouraged got ready to go to Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>All their neighbors gave them many gifts. They gave them silver, gold, cows, and other expensive things. Their neighbors freely gave them all those things. <sup>7</sup>Also, King Cyrus brought out the things that belonged in the Lord's temple. Nebuchadnezzar had taken those things away from Jerusalem. Nebuchadnezzar had put those things in his temple where he kept his false gods. <sup>8</sup>Cyrus king of Persia told the man that keeps his money to bring those things out. That man's name was Mithredath. So Mithredath brought those things out to Sheshbazzar,* the leader of Judah.

<sup>9</sup>Those things from the Lord's temple that Mithredath brought out: 30 gold dishes, 1,000 silver dishes, 29 knives and pans, <sup>10</sup>30 gold bowls, 410 silver bowls like the gold bowls, 1,000 other dishes.

<sup>11</sup>All together, there were 5,400 things made from gold and silver. Sheshbazzar* brought all these things with him when the prisoners left Babylon and went back to Jerusalem.

The List of the Prisoners That Returned

2 Now these are the names of the people living in Babylon that were set free. In the past, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took those people as prisoners to Babylon. These people came back to Jerusalem and Judah. Each person went back to his own town. <sup>2</sup>These are the people that returned with Zerubbabel: * Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Baanah. This is the list of names and numbers of men from Israel that came back: <sup>3</sup>The descendants of Parosh: 2,172; <sup>4</sup>the descendants of Shephatiah: 372; <sup>5</sup>the descendants of Arah: 775; <sup>6</sup>the descendants of Pahath-Moab (through the family line of Jeshua and Joab): 2,812; <sup>7</sup>the descendants of Elam: 1,254; <sup>8</sup>the descendants of Zattu: 945; <sup>9</sup>the descendants of Zaccai: 760; <sup>10</sup>the descendants of Bani: 642; <sup>11</sup>the descendants of Bebai: 623; <sup>12</sup>the descendants of Azgad: 1,222; <sup>13</sup>the descendants of Adonikam: 666; <sup>14</sup>the descendants of Bigvai: 2,056; <sup>15</sup>the descendants of Adin: 454; <sup>16</sup>the descendants of Ater (through the family of Hezekiah): 98; <sup>17</sup>the descendants of Bezai: 323; <sup>18</sup>the descendants of Jorah: 112; <sup>19</sup>the descendants of Hashum: 223; <sup>20</sup>the descendants of Gibbar: 95; <sup>21</sup>the men from the town of Bethlehem: 123; <sup>22</sup>from the town of Netophah: 56; <sup>23</sup>from the town of Anathoth: 128; <sup>24</sup>from the town of Azmaveth: 42; <sup>25</sup>from the towns of Kiriath Jearim, Kephirah, and Beeroth 743; <sup>26</sup>from the towns of Ramah and Geba: 621; <sup>27</sup>from the town of Micmash: 122; <sup>28</sup>from the towns of Bethel and Ai: 223; <sup>29</sup>from the town of Nebo: 52; <sup>30</sup>from the town of Magbish: 156; <sup>31</sup>from the other town named Elam: 1,254; <sup>32</sup>from the town of Harim: 320; <sup>33</sup>from the towns of Lod, Hadid, and Ono: 725; <sup>34</sup>from the town of Jericho: 345; <sup>35</sup>from the town of Senaah: 3,630.

<sup>62</sup>These people searched for their family histories but could not find them. They could not prove that their ancestors were priests. So they themselves could not be priests. Those people could not be priests because they were called unclean.* <sup>63</sup>The governor ordered these people not to eat any of the holy food that priests eat. First there had to be a priest to decide what to do by using Urim and Thummim.*

unclean See Lev. 11, 12, 14, 15 for the Old Testament laws of uncleanness.

Urim and Thummim Things like stones that the High Priest wore on his breastplate. They were used to get God's judgment and decisions and His will for the people. See Ex. 28:30.

<sup>44</sup>All together, there were 42,360 people in the group that came back. This is not counting their 7,337 men and women servants. And they also had 200 men and women singers with them. <sup>45</sup>They had 736 horses, 245 mules, 435 camels, and 6,720 donkeys.

<sup>46</sup>That group arrived at the Lord's temple in Jerusalem. Then the family leaders gave their gifts for building the Lord's temple. They would build the new temple in the same place as the temple that was destroyed. <sup>47</sup>Those people gave as much as they were able. These are the things those people gave for building the temple: 1,100 pounds* of gold, 3 tons* of silver, and 100 coats that priests wear.

<sup>48</sup>So the priests, Levites, and some of the other people moved to Jerusalem and the area around it. This group included the temple, singers, gatekeepers, and the temple servants. The other people of Israel settled in their own hometowns.

Rebuilding the Altar

3 So, by the seventh month,* the people of Israel had moved back to their own hometowns. At that time, all the people met together in Jerusalem. They were all united as one people. <sup>2</sup>Then Jeshua son of Jozadak and the priests with him, along with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and the people with him, built the altar of the God of Israel. Those people built the altar of the God of Israel so they could offer sacrifices on it. They built it just like it says in the Law of Moses. Moses was God's special servant.

<sup>3</sup>Those people were afraid of the other people living near them. But that didn't stop them. They built the altar on its old foundation and offered burnt offerings on it to the Lord. They offered those sacrifices in the morning and in the evening. <sup>4</sup>Then they celebrated the Festival of Shelters* just like the Law of Moses, said. They offered the right number of burnt offerings for each day of the festival. <sup>5</sup>After that, they began offering the continual burnt offerings each day—the offerings for the New Moon, and for all the other festivals and holidays that were commanded by the Lord. The people also began giving any other gifts they wanted to give to the Lord. <sup>6</sup>So, on the first day of the seventh month,* these people of Israel again began offering sacrifices to the Lord. This was done even though the temple had not been built again.

Rebuilding the Temple

<sup>7</sup>Then those people that had come back from captivity gave money to the stonemasons* and carpenters. And those people gave food, wine, and olive oil. They used these things to pay the people of Tyre and Sidon to bring cedar logs from Lebanon. Those people wanted to bring the logs in ships to the sea coast town of Joppa like Solomon did when he built the first temple. Cyrus king of Persia gave permission for them to do these things.

<sup>8</sup>So, in the second month of the second year after their arrival* at the temple in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak began the work. Their brothers, the priests, Levites, and every person that came back to Jerusalem from captivity, began working with them. They chose Levites that were 20 years old and older to be the leaders in the building of the Lord's temple. <sup>9</sup>These were the men that supervised the work of building the Lord's temple Jeshua and his sons, Kadmiel and his sons (the descendants of Judah), the sons of Henadad and their brothers, the Levites. <sup>10</sup>The builders finished laying the foundation for the Lord's temple. When the foundation was finished, the priests put on their priests' clothing. Then they got their trumpets. And the sons of Asaph got their cymbals. They all took their places to praise the Lord. This was done the way David, king of Israel, ordered in the past. <sup>11</sup>They sang this song, praising and thanking the Lord for everything he had done:

“He is good;
his love for Israel continues forever!”*

And then all the people shouted out very loudly. Why? Because the foundation for the temple was finished. <sup>12</sup>But many of the older priests, Levites, and family leaders cried. Why? Because those people had seen the first temple—and they remembered how beautiful it was. They cried out loud when they saw the new temple. They cried while many of the other people were happy and shouting. <sup>13</sup>The sound could be heard far away. All those people made so much noise that no person could tell the difference between the shouts of joy and the crying.

Enemies Against the Building Again

4 <sup>1,2</sup>Many people living in the area were against the people of Judah and Benjamin. Those enemies heard that the people that had come from captivity were building a temple for the Lord God of Israel. So those enemies came to Zerubbabel and to the family leaders and said, “Let us help you build. We are the same as you, we ask your God for help. We have offered sacrifices to your God since the time Esarhaddon king of Assyria brought us here.”

<sup>3</sup>But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the other family leaders of Israel answered, “No, you people can’t help us build a temple for our God. Only we can build the temple for the Lord. He is the God of Israel. This is what King Cyrus, the king of Persia, commanded us to do.”

{This made those people angry.} So those people started bothering the Jews. They tried to discourage them and stop them from building the temple. <sup>3</sup>Those enemies hired government officials to work against the people of Judah. Those officials constantly did things to stop the Jews’ plans to build the temple. This continued the whole time that Cyrus was the king of Persia until Darius became the king of Persia.

<sup>4</sup>Those enemies even wrote letters to the king of Persia trying to stop the Jews. They wrote a letter the year that Xerxes* became the king of Persia.

<sup>7</sup>And later, at the time Artaxerxes* became the new king of Persia, some of those men wrote another letter complaining about the Jews. The men that wrote the letter were: Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the other people in their group. They wrote the letter to King Artaxerxes in Aramaic* using the Aramaic way of writing.

<sup>9</sup>From Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary, and the people with them. Those people are: the judges and important officials over the men from Tripolis, Persia, Erech, and Babylon; also the Elamite people from Susa, <sup>10</sup>and the other people that the great and powerful Ashurbanipal moved to the city of Samaria and other places in the country west of the Euphrates River.

King Artaxerxes, we are your servants living in the area west of the Euphrates River. We send you this letter.

<sup>12</sup>King Artaxerxes, we wish to inform you that the Jews you sent away from you have come here. Those Jews are now trying to build that city again.

Xerxes King of Persia about 485-465 B.C.

Artaxerxes King of Persia about 465-424 B.C. He was the son of Xerxes.

Aramaic The official language of the Babylonian empire.

Verse 8 Here the original language changes from Hebrew to Aramaic.

He is good ... forever This probably means they sang the whole song that we know as Psalm 136.

Jerusalem is a bad city. The people in that city have always rebelled against other kings. Now those Jews are fixing the foundations and building the walls.*

<sup>13</sup>Also, King Artaxerxes, you should know that if Jerusalem and its walls are built again, the people of Jerusalem will stop paying their taxes. They will stop sending money to honor you. They also will stop paying duty taxes. And the king will lose all that money.

<sup>15</sup>King Artaxerxes, we suggest that you search the writings of the kings that ruled before you. You will see in those writings that Jerusalem always rebelled against other kings. It has caused much trouble for other kings and nations. Many rebellions have started in this city since ancient times! That is why Jerusalem was destroyed!

To Rehum the commanding officer, Shimshai the secretary and all the people with them living in Samaria and other places west of the Euphrates River.

Greetings.

<sup>18</sup>The letter you sent us has been translated and read to me. <sup>19</sup>I gave an order for the writings of the kings before me to be searched. The writings were read, and we found out that Jerusalem has a long history of rebellion against kings. Jerusalem has been a place where rebellion and revolt has happened often.

<sup>20</sup>Jerusalem has had powerful kings ruling over it and over the whole area west of the Euphrates River. Taxes and money to honor kings, and duty taxes have been paid to those kings.

<sup>21</sup>Now, you must give an order for those men to stop work. That order must be given to keep Jerusalem from being built again until I say so. <sup>22</sup>Be careful not to overlook this business. We should not let the building of Jerusalem continue. If that work continues, I will not get any more money from Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup>So a copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes sent was read to Rehum, Shimshai the secretary, and the people with them. Then those people went very quickly to the Jews in Jerusalem. They forced the Jews to stop building.

<sup>24</sup>So the work stopped on God's temple in Jerusalem. The work did not continue until the second year that Darius was king of Persia.*

Tattenai's Letter to King Darius

5 At that time, the prophets Haggai* and Zechariah son of Iddo* began to prophesy* in the name of God. They encouraged the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>So Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak again started working on the temple in Jerusalem. All of God's prophets were with them and were supporting the work. <sup>3</sup>At that time Tattenai was the governor of the area west of the Euphrates River. Tattenai, Shethar-Bozenai, and the men with them went to Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the others that were building. Tattenai and the people with him asked Zerubbabel and the people with him, "Who gave you permission to build this temple again and fix it like new?" "They also asked Zerubbabel, "What are the names of the men that are working on this building?"

To King Darius: A Friendly Hello.

<sup>8</sup>King Darius, you should know that we went to the province of Judah. We went to the temple of the great God. The people in Judah are building that temple with large stones. They are putting big wooden timbers in the walls. The work is being done with much care and the people of Judah are working very hard. They are building very fast, it will soon be done.

<sup>9</sup>We asked their leaders some questions about the work they are doing. We asked them, "Who gave you permission to build this temple again and fix it like new?" <sup>10</sup>We also asked for their names. We wanted to write down the names of their leaders so you would know who they are.

<sup>11</sup>This is the answer they gave us: "We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth. We are building again the temple that a great king of Israel built and finished many years ago. <sup>12</sup>But our ancestors made the God of heaven angry. So God gave our ancestors to Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar destroyed this temple, and he forced the people to go to Babylon as prisoners. <sup>13</sup>But, in the first year that Cyrus was king of Babylon, King Cyrus gave a special order for God's temple to be built again. <sup>14</sup>And Cyrus brought out from his false god's temple in Babylon the gold and silver things that were taken from God's temple in the past. Nebuchadnezzar took those things from the temple in Jerusalem and brought them to his false god's temple in Babylon. Then King Cyrus gave those gold and silver things to Sheshbazzar (Zerubbabel). Cyrus chose Sheshbazzar to be governor.

<sup>15</sup>"Then Cyrus said to Sheshbazzar (Zerubbabel), 'Take these gold and silver things and put them back in the temple in Jerusalem. Build again God's temple in the same place it was in the past.' <sup>16</sup>So Sheshbazzar (Zerubbabel) came and built the foundations of God's temple in Jerusalem. From that day until now the work has continued. But it is not yet finished."

<sup>17</sup>Now, if the king wants, please search the writings of the kings that ruled Babylon in the past. Search to see if it is true that King Cyrus gave an order to build again God's temple in Jerusalem. And then, sir, please send us a letter to let us know what you have decided to do about this.

The Order of Darius

6 So King Darius gave an order to search the writings of the kings before him. Those writings were kept in Babylon in the same place the money was kept. <sup>2</sup>A scroll* was found in the fortress* of Ecbatana. Ecbatana is in the province of Media. This is what was written on that scroll.*

Official Note:

Cyrus gave an order about the temple of God in Jerusalem. The order said:

Scroll(s) A long roll of leather or papyrus (paper) used for writing books, letters, and legal documents.

Let the temple of God be built again. It will be a place to offer sacrifices. Let its foundations be built. The temple must be 90 feet* high and 90 feet* wide. <sup>1</sup>The wall around it, must have three rows of large stones and one row of big wood timbers. The cost of building the temple must be paid for from the king's treasury. <sup>2</sup>Also, the gold and silver things from God's temple must be put back in their places. Nebuchadnezzar took those things from the temple in Jerusalem and brought them to Babylon. They must be put back in God's temple.

<sup>4</sup>Now then, I, Darius, order you Tattenai, governor of the area west of the Euphrates River, and Shethar-Bozenai, and all the officials living in that province, to stay away from Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>Don't bother the workers. Don't try to stop the work on this temple of God. Let the Jewish governor and the Jewish leaders build it again. Let them build God's temple again in the same place it was in the past.

<sup>8</sup>Now I give this order. You must do these things for the Jewish leaders building God's temple: The cost of the building must be fully paid from the king's treasury. That money will come from the taxes collected from the provinces in the area west of the Euphrates River. Do these things quickly, so the work will not stop. <sup>9</sup>Give those people anything they need. If they need young bulls, rams, or male lambs for sacrifices to the God of Heaven, give those things to them. If the priests of Jerusalem ask for wheat, salt, wine, and oil, then give those things to them every day without fail. <sup>10</sup>Give those things to the Jewish priests so that they may offer sacrifices that please the God of Heaven.

Give those things so that the priests may pray for me and my sons.

<sup>11</sup>Also, I give this order: If any person changes this order, a wood beam must be pulled from that person's house. Then the wooden beam will be pushed through that person's body. And his house will be destroyed until it is only a pile of rocks.

<sup>12</sup>God put his name there in Jerusalem. And I hope that God will defeat any king or other person that tries to change this order. If any person tries to destroy this temple in Jerusalem, I hope God will destroy that person.

I, Darius, have ordered it. This order must be obeyed quickly and completely!

Completion and Dedication of the Temple

<sup>13</sup>So, Tattenai the governor of the area west of the Euphrates River, Shethar-Bozenai, and the men with them obeyed King Darius' order. Those men obeyed the order quickly and completely. <sup>14</sup>So the Jewish elders (leaders) continued to build. And they were successful as Haggai the prophet and Zechariah son of Iddo encouraged them. Those people finished building the temple. This was done to obey the command of the God of Israel. It was also done to obey the orders that Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, the kings of Persia, gave. <sup>15</sup>The temple was finished on the third day of the month Adar.* That was in the sixth year of the rule of King Darius.*

<sup>16</sup>Then the people of Israel celebrated the dedication* of God's temple with much happiness. The priests, the Levites, and all the other people that came back from captivity joined in the celebration.

third day of ... Adar This was in March. Some ancient writers have "23rd of Adar."

sixth year ... King Darius That is, 515 B.C.

dedication To give something for a special use, or to honor it for a special reason.

<sup>17</sup>This is the way they dedicated* God's temple They offered 100 bulls, 200 rams, and 400 male lambs. And they offered twelve male goats for all Israel for a sin offering. That is one goat for each of the twelve family groups of Israel. <sup>18</sup>Then they chose the priests in their groups and the Levites in their groups to serve in God's temple in Jerusalem. They did these things just like it says in the Book of Moses.

The Passover

<sup>19</sup>* On the 14th day of the first month,* those Jews that came back from captivity celebrated the Passover.* <sup>20</sup>The priests and Levites made themselves pure. They all made themselves clean and ready to celebrate the Passover. The Levites killed the Passover lamb for all the Jews that came back from captivity. They did that for their brothers the priests, and for themselves. <sup>21</sup>So all the people of Israel that came back from captivity ate the Passover meal. Other people washed themselves and made themselves pure from the unclean* things of the people living in that country. Those pure people also shared in the Passover meal. Those people did this so they could go to the Lord, the God of Israel, for help. <sup>22</sup>They celebrated the Festival of Unleavened Bread* with much joy for seven days. The Lord made them very happy because he had changed the attitude of the king of Assyria.* So the king of Assyria had helped them do the work on God's temple.

dedicate(d) To give something for a special use, or to honor it for a special reason.

Verse 19 Here, the original language changes from Aramaic back to Hebrew.

14th ... month That is, April or May, 515 B.C.

Passover Important holy day for Jews. They ate a special meal on this day every year to remember that God freed them from slavery in Egypt in the time of Moses.

unclean See Lev. 11, 12, 14, 15 for the Old Testament laws of uncleanness.

Festival of Unleavened Bread Same as Passover Festival, the most important holy day for Jews. On this day they ate a special meal with bread that was made without yeast.

Assyria This probably means Darius, the king of Persia.

Ezra Comes to Jerusalem

7 After these things,* during the rule of Artaxerxes* king of Persia, Ezra came to Jerusalem from Babylon. Ezra was the son of Seraiah. Seraiah was the son of Azariah. Azariah was the son of Hilkiah. <sup>2</sup>Hilkiah was the son of Shallum. Shallum was the son of Zadok. Zadok was the son of Ahitub. <sup>3</sup>Ahitub was the son of Amariah. Amariah was the son of Azariah. Azariah was the son of Meraioth. <sup>4</sup>Meraioth was the son of Zerariah. Zerariah was the son of Uzzi. Uzzi was the son of Bukki. <sup>5</sup>Bukki was the son of Abishua. Abishua was the son of Phinehas. Phinehas was the son of Eleazar. Eleazar was the son of Aaron the high priest.

<sup>6</sup>Ezra came to Jerusalem from Babylon. Ezra was a teacher.* He knew the Law of Moses very well. The Law of Moses was given by the Lord, the God of Israel. King Artaxerxes gave Ezra everything he asked for because the Lord was with Ezra. <sup>7</sup>Many people of Israel came with Ezra. Those were priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, and temple servants. Those people of Israel arrived in Jerusalem during the seventh year of King Artaxerxes. <sup>8</sup>Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year that Artaxerxes was king.* <sup>9</sup>Ezra (and the group with him) left Babylon on the first day of the first month. He arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month. The Lord God was with Ezra. <sup>10</sup>Ezra gave all his time and attention to studying and obeying the Law of the Lord. Ezra wanted to teach the rules and commandments of the Lord to the people of Israel. And he also wanted to help the people follow those laws in Israel.

After these things There is a time period of 58 years between Ezra 6 and Ezra 7. The book of Esther fits in the time between these two chapters.

Artaxerxes King of Persia about 465-424 B.C. He was the son of Xerxes.

teacher Literally, "scribe." This was a person that made copies of books. These men studied those books and became teachers.

fifth month ... king This was about July, 458 B.C.

King Artaxerxes' Letter to Ezra

<sup>11</sup>Ezra was a priest and teacher. He knew much about the commands and laws the Lord gave Israel. This is a copy of the letter King Artaxerxes* gave to Ezra the teacher:

To Ezra the priest, a teacher of the Law of the God of Heaven:

Greetings! <sup>13</sup>I give this order: Any person, priest, or Levite from Israel living in my kingdom that wants to go with Ezra to Jerusalem, may go.

<sup>14</sup>Ezra, I and my seven advisers send you. You must go to Judah and Jerusalem. See how your people are doing in obeying the Law of your God. You have that Law with you.

<sup>15</sup>I and my advisers are giving gold and silver to the God of Israel. God lives in Jerusalem. You must take this gold and silver with you. <sup>16</sup>You must also go through all the provinces of Babylonia. Collect the gifts from your people, from the priests, and from the Levites. Those gifts are for their God's temple in Jerusalem.

the king's treasury to buy anything you need.

<sup>21</sup>Now I, King Artaxerxes, give this order: I order all the men that keep the king's money in the area west of the Euphrates River to give Ezra anything he wants. Ezra is a priest and a teacher of the Law of the God of Heaven. Do this quickly and completely. <sup>22</sup>Give this much to Ezra:  $3\frac{3}{4}$  tons\* of silver, 600 bushels\* of wheat, 600 gallons\* of wine, 600 gallons\* of olive oil, and as much salt as Ezra wants. <sup>23</sup>Anything that the God of Heaven has ordered for Ezra to get, you must give to Ezra quickly and completely. Do those things for the temple of the God of Heaven. We don't want God to be angry against my kingdom or against my sons.

<sup>24</sup>Ezra, you know that it is against the law to make the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, temple servants, and other workers in God's temple pay taxes. Those people don't have to pay taxes, money to honor the king, or any duty taxes. <sup>25</sup>Ezra, I give you the authority to use the wisdom you have from your God and choose civil and religious judges. These men will be judges for all the people living in the area west of the Euphrates River. They will judge all the people that know the laws of your God. And if someone doesn't know those laws, those judges must teach him about those laws. <sup>26</sup>Any person that doesn't obey the law of your God, or the law of the king, must be punished. Depending on the crime, they must be punished with death, or sent away to another country, or their property taken away, or put into prison.

Artaxerxes King of Persia about 465-424 B.C. He was the son of Xerxes.

600 bushels Literally, "100 cors."

600 gallons Literally, "100 baths."

Ezra Praises God

- <sup>27</sup> * Blessed is the Lord, the God of our ancestors. God put the idea into the king's heart to honor the Lord's temple in Jerusalem.
- <sup>28</sup> The Lord showed his true love to me in front of the king, his advisers and the king's important officials.
The Lord God was with me,
so I was brave.
I gathered together the leaders of Israel to go with me to Jerusalem.

List of Family Leaders Returning With Ezra

8 These are the names of the family leaders and the other people that came with me (Ezra) to Jerusalem from Babylon. We came to Jerusalem during the rule of King Artaxerxes. Here is the list of names: <sup>1</sup>From the descendants of Phinehas, was Gershom; from the descendants of Ithamar, was Daniel; from the descendants of David, was Hattush; <sup>2</sup>from the descendants of Shecaniah, were the descendants of Parosh, Zechariah, and 150 other men; <sup>3</sup>from the descendants of Pahath-Moab, were Eliehoenai son of Zerariah, and 200 other men; <sup>4</sup>from the descendants of Zattu, were Shecaniah son of Jahaziel, and 300 other men; <sup>5</sup>from the descendants of Adin, were Ebed son of Jonathan, and 50 other men; <sup>6</sup>from the descendants of Elam, were Jeshaiiah son of Athaliah, and 70 other men; <sup>7</sup>from the descendants of Shephatiah, were Zebadiah son of Michael, and 80 other men; <sup>8</sup>from the descendants of Joab, were Obadiah son of Jehiel, and 218 other men; <sup>9</sup>from the descendants of Bani, were Shelomith son of Josiphiah, and 160 other men; <sup>10</sup>from the descendants of Bebai, were Zechariah son of Bebai, and 28 other men; <sup>11</sup>from the descendants of Azgad, were Johanan son of Hakkatan, and 110 other men; <sup>12</sup>from the last of the descendants of Adonikam were Eliphelet, Jeuel, Shemaiah, and 60 other men; <sup>13</sup>from the descendants of Bigvai, were Uthai, Zaccur, and 70 other men.

The Return to Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup>I, (Ezra) called all those people to meet together at the river that flows toward Ahava. We camped at that place for three days. I learned there were priests in that group, but there were no Levites. <sup>16</sup>So I called these leaders: Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam. And I called Jojarib and Elnathan. (These men were teachers.) <sup>17</sup>I sent those men to Iddo. Iddo is the leader at the town of Casiphia. I told those men what to say to Iddo and his relatives. His relatives are the temple workers in Casiphia. I sent those men to Iddo so that Iddo might send us workers to serve in God's temple. <sup>18</sup>Because God was with us, Iddo's relatives sent these men to us: Sherebiah, a wise man from the descendants of Mahli. Mahli was one of Levi's sons. Levi was one of Israel's sons. And they sent us Sherebiah's sons and brothers. In all there were 18 men from that family. <sup>19</sup>And they also sent to us Hashabiah, and Jeshaiiah from the descendants of Merari, along with their brothers and nephews. In all there were 20 men from that family. <sup>20</sup>They also sent 220 of the temple workers. Their ancestors were the people David and the important officials had chosen to help the Levites. The names of all those men were written on the list.

<sup>21</sup>There near the Ahava River, I (Ezra) announced that we all should fast.* We should fast to make ourselves humble before our God. We wanted to ask God for a safe trip for ourselves, our children, and for all the things we owned. <sup>22</sup>I was embarrassed to ask King Artaxerxes for soldiers and horsemen to protect us as we traveled. There were enemies on the road. The reason I was embarrassed to ask for protection was because of what we had told the king. We had said to King Artaxerxes, "Our God is with every person that trusts him. But God is very angry with every person that turns away from him." <sup>23</sup>So we fasted and prayed to our God about our trip. He answered our prayers.

<sup>24</sup>Then I chose twelve of the priests that were leaders. I chose Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers. <sup>25</sup>I weighed the silver, gold, and the other things that were given for God's temple. I gave those things to the twelve priests I had chosen. King Artaxerxes, his advisers, his important officials, and all the people of Israel in Babylon gave those things for God's temple. <sup>26</sup>I weighed all these things. There were 25 tons* of silver. There were also 3<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> tons* of silver dishes and things. There were 3<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> tons* of gold. <sup>27</sup>And I gave them 20 gold bowls. The bowls weighed about 19 pounds.* And I gave them two beautiful dishes made from polished bronze that were as valuable as gold. <sup>28</sup>Then I said to those twelve priests: "You and these things are holy to the Lord. People gave this silver and gold to the Lord, the God of your ancestors. <sup>29</sup>So guard these things carefully. You are responsible for them until you give them to the temple leaders in Jerusalem. You will give them to the leading Levites and the family leaders of Israel. They will weigh those things and put them in the rooms of the Lord's temple in Jerusalem.

<sup>30</sup>So the priests and Levites accepted the silver, gold, and special things that Ezra had weighed and given to them. They were told to take those things to God's temple in Jerusalem.

<sup>32</sup>Then we arrived in Jerusalem. We rested there for three days. <sup>33</sup>On the fourth day, we went to the temple and weighed the silver, gold, and special things. We gave those things to Meremoth son of Uriah the priest. Eleazar son of Phinehas was with Meremoth. And the Levites, Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui, were with them also. <sup>34</sup>We counted and weighed everything. Then we wrote down the total weight at that time.

<sup>35</sup>Then the Jewish people that came back from captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel. They offered twelve bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, 77 male lambs, and twelve male goats for a sin offering. All this was a burnt offering to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup>Then those people gave the letter from King Artaxerxes to the royal satraps (leaders) and to the governors of the area west of the Euphrates River. Then those leaders gave their support to the people of Israel and to the temple.

Ezra's Prayer About Marriage to Foreign People

9 After we finished all these things, the leaders of the people of Israel came to me. They said, "Ezra, the people of Israel have not kept themselves separate from the other people living around us. And the priests and the Levites have not kept themselves separate. The people of Israel are being influenced by the very bad things done by the Canaanite people, the Hittite people, the Perizzite people, the Jebusite people, the Ammonite people, the Moabite people, the people from Egypt, and the Amorite people. <sup>2</sup>The people of Israel have married the people living around us. The people of Israel are supposed to be special. But now they are mixed with the other people living around them. The leaders and important officials of the people of Israel have set a bad example in this thing." <sup>3</sup>When I heard about this, I tore my robe and my coat to show I was upset. I pulled hair from my head and beard. I sat down, shocked and upset. <sup>4</sup>Then every person that respected God's Law shook with fear. They were afraid because the people of Israel that came back from captivity were not faithful to God. I was shocked and upset. I sat there until the evening sacrifice. And those people gathered around me.

<sup>5</sup>Then, when it was time for the evening sacrifice, I got up. I had made myself look shameful while I was sitting there. My robe and coat were torn, and I fell on my knees with my hands spread out to the Lord my God. <sup>6</sup>Then I prayed this prayer:

3<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> tons Literally, "100 talents."

first month This was about March, 458 B.C.

O my God, I am too ashamed and embarrassed to look at you, my God. I am ashamed because our sins are higher than our heads. Our guilt has reached all the way up to the heavens. <sup>7</sup>Since the days our ancestors lived, until now, we have had much guilt. Because we have sinned, we and our kings and our priests were punished. We have been punished by the sword and captivity under foreign kings. Those kings took away our wealth and made us ashamed. It is the same even today.

<sup>8</sup>But now, finally, you have been kind to us. You have let a few of us escape captivity and come to live in this holy place. Lord, you gave us new life and relief from our slavery. <sup>9</sup>Yes, we were slaves, but you would not let us be slaves forever. You were kind to us. You made the kings of Persia be kind to us. Your temple was ruined. But you gave us new life so we can build your temple again and fix it like new. God, you helped us build a wall to protect Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>Now, God, what can we say to you? We have stopped obeying you again! <sup>11</sup>God, you used your servants, the prophets, and gave those commands to us. You said: "The land you are going to live in and own is a ruined land. It has been ruined by the very bad things the people living there have done. Those people have done very bad things in every place in this land. They have made this land dirty with their sins. <sup>12</sup>So, people of Israel, don't let your children marry their children. Don't join those people! Don't want the things they have! Obey my commands so you will be strong and enjoy the good things of the land. And then you can keep this land and give it to your children."

<sup>13</sup>The bad things that happened to us are our own fault. We have done evil things, and we have much guilt. But you, our God, have punished us much less than we should have been. We have done many terrible sins, and we should have been punished worse. And you have even let some of our people escape captivity. <sup>14</sup>So we know that we must not break your commands. We must not marry those people. Those people do very bad things. God, if we continue to marry those bad people, we know you will destroy us! Then there would be no person from the people of Israel left alive.

<sup>15</sup>Lord, God of Israel, you are good! And you still have let some of us live. Yes, we are guilty! And because of our guilt, not one of us should be allowed to stand in front of you.

The People Confess Their Sin

10 Ezra was praying and confessing. He was crying and bowing down in front of God's temple. While Ezra was doing that, a large group of the people of Israel—men, women, and children—gathered around him. Those people were also crying very hard. <sup>2</sup>Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, one of the descendants of Elam, spoke to Ezra. Shecaniah said, "We have not been faithful to our God. We have married the people living around us. But, even though we have done this, there is still hope for Israel. <sup>3</sup>Now let us make an agreement before our God to send away all those women and their children. We will do that to obey Ezra's advice and the advice of the people that respect the laws of our God. We will obey God's law. <sup>4</sup>Get up Ezra, this is your responsibility, but we will support you. So be brave and do it."

<sup>5</sup>So Ezra got up. He made the leading priests, the Levites, and all the people of Israel promise to do what he said. <sup>6</sup>Then Ezra went away from the front of God's house. Ezra went to the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. While Ezra was there, he didn't eat food, and he didn't drink water. He did that because he was still very sad. He was very sad about the people of Israel that came back to Jerusalem. Then he sent a message to every place in Judah and Jerusalem. The message told all the Jewish people that had come back from captivity to meet together in Jerusalem. Any person that didn't come to Jerusalem in three days would have to give up all his property. The important officials and the elders (leaders) made that decision. And that person could no longer be a member of the group of people where he was living.

So, in three days all the men from the families of Judah and Benjamin gathered in Jerusalem. And on the 20th day of the ninth month,* all the people met together in the temple yard. They were very upset because of the reason for the meeting and because of the heavy rain. Then Ezra the priest stood and said to those people, "You people have not been faithful to God. You have married foreign women. You have made Israel more guilty by doing that. Now, you people must confess to the Lord that you have sinned. The Lord is the God of your ancestors. You must obey the Lord's command. Separate yourselves from the people living around you and from your foreign wives."

Then the whole group that met together answered Ezra. They said with a loud voice: "Ezra, you are right! We must do the things you say. But, there are many people here. And it is the rainy time of year, so we can't stay outside. This problem can't be solved in a day or two because we have sinned in a very bad way. Let our leaders decide for the whole group meeting here. Then let every person in our towns that married a foreign woman come here to Jerusalem at a planned time. Let them come here with the elders (leaders) and judges of their towns. Then God will stop being angry at us."

Only a few men were against this plan. They were Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah. Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite also were against that plan.

So the people of Israel that came back to Jerusalem agreed to accept that plan. Ezra the priest chose men that were family leaders. He chose one man from each family group. Each man was chosen by name. On the first day of the tenth month* those men that were chosen sat down to study each of the cases. And by the first day of the first month,* they finished discussing all the men that had married foreign women.

The List of Men that Married Foreign Women

Among the descendants of the priests, these are the names of those that married foreign women:

From the descendants of Jeshua son of Jozadak, and Jeshua's brothers, these men: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah. All those promised to divorce their wives. And then each one of them offered a ram from the flock for a guilt offering. They did that because of their guilt.

From the descendants of Immer, these men: Hanani and Zebadiah.

From the descendants of Harim, these men: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uzziiah.

From the descendants of Pashhur, these men: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasaah.

Among the Levites, these are the men that married foreign women: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (he is also called Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

Among the singers, this is the man that had married a foreign woman: Eliashib.

Among the gatekeepers, these are the men that had married foreign women: Shallum, Telem, and Uri.

Among the people of Israel, these men married foreign women:

From the descendants of Parosh, these men: Ramiah, Izziah, Malkijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malkijah, and Benaiah.

tenth month This was late December or early January.

first month This was in March or April.

ninth month This was in December.

Nehemiah

Nehemiah's Prayer

1 These are the words of Nehemiah. Nehemiah was the son of Hacaliah: I, Nehemiah, was in the capital city of Susa in the month of Kislew. This was in the 20th year* that Artaxerxes was king. <sup>1</sup>While I was in Susa, one of my brothers named Hanani and some other men came from Judah. I asked them about the Jews living there. These were the Jews that had escaped captivity and still lived in Judah. And I also asked them about the city of Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>Hanani and the men with him said, "Nehemiah, those Jews that escaped captivity and are in the land of Judah are in much trouble. Those people are having many problems and are full of shame. Why? Because the wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire."

<sup>3</sup>When I heard those things about the people of Jerusalem and about the wall, I was very upset. I sat down and cried. I was very sad. I fasted* and prayed to the God of Heaven for several days. <sup>4</sup>Then I prayed this prayer:

Lord, God of Heaven, you are the great and powerful God. You are the God who keeps his agreement of love with people that love you and obey your commands.

<sup>5</sup>Please open your eyes and ears and listen to the prayer your servant is praying before you day and night. I am praying for your servants, the people of Israel. I confess the sins we people of Israel have done against you. I am confessing that I have sinned against you and that the other people in my father's family have sinned against you. <sup>6</sup>We people of Israel have been very bad to you. We have not obeyed the commands, teachings, and laws you gave your servant Moses.

<sup>7</sup>Please remember the teaching you gave your servant Moses. You said to him, "If you people of Israel are not faithful, I will force you to be scattered among the other nations. <sup>8</sup>But if you people of Israel come back to me and obey my commands, then this is what I will do: Even if your people that have been forced to leave their homes and go to the ends of the earth, I will gather them from there. And I will bring them back to the place I have chosen to put my name."

<sup>9</sup>The people of Israel are your servants and your people. You used your great power and rescued those people.

<sup>10</sup>So Lord, please listen to my prayer. I am your servant. And please listen to the prayers of your servants that want to show respect for your name. Lord, you

fast(ed) To live without food for a special time of prayer and worship to God.

know I am the king's wine servant.* So please help me today. Help me as I ask the king for help. Give me success and help me to be pleasing to the king.

King Artaxerxes Sends Nehemiah to Jerusalem

2 In the month of Nisan in the 20th year of King Artaxerxes,* some wine was brought to the king. I took the wine and gave it to the king. I had never been sad when I was with the king, but now I was sad. <sup>2</sup>So the king asked me, "Are you sick? Why do you look sad? I think your heart is full of sadness."

Then I was very much afraid. <sup>3</sup>But even though I was afraid, I said to the king, "May the king live forever! I am sad because the city where my ancestors* are buried lies in ruins. And the gates of that city have been destroyed by fire."

"Then the king said to me, "What do you want me to do?"

Before I answered, I prayed to the God of Heaven. <sup>4</sup>Then I answered the king, "If it would please the king, and if I have been good to you, please send me to Jerusalem, the city in Judah where my ancestors* are buried. I want to go there and build that city again."

"The queen was sitting next to the king. The king and queen asked me, "How long will your trip take? When will you get back here?"

The king was happy to send me, so I gave him a certain time. <sup>7</sup>I also said to the king, "If it would please the king to do something else for me, let me ask. Please give me some letters to show the governors of the area west of the Euphrates River. I need these letters so those governors will give me permission to pass safely through their lands on my way to Judah. <sup>8</sup>I also need lumber for the heavy wooden beams for the gates, the walls, the walls around the temple,* and my house. So I need a letter from you to Asaph. Asaph is in charge of your forests."

The king gave me the letters and everything I asked for. The king did that because God was kind to me.

<sup>9</sup>So I went to the governors of the area west of the Euphrates River. I gave those governors the letters from the king. The king had also sent army officers and soldiers on horses with me. <sup>10</sup>Sanballat and Tobiah were two men that heard about what I was doing. They were very upset and angry that someone had come to help the people of Israel. Sanballat was from Horon and Tobiah is an Ammonite official.

Nehemiah Inspects the Walls of Jerusalem

<sup>11,12</sup>I went to Jerusalem and stayed there three days. Then at night I started out with a few men. I had not said anything to anyone about what God had put into my heart to do for Jerusalem. There were no horses with me except the horse I was riding. <sup>13</sup>While it was dark I went out through the Valley Gate. I rode toward the Dragon Well and the Gate of the Ash Piles. I was inspecting the walls of Jerusalem that had been broken down. And the gates in the wall that had been burned with fire. <sup>14</sup>Then I rode on toward the Fountain Gate and the King's Pool. But as I got close, I could see there was not enough room for my horse to get through. <sup>15</sup>So I went up the valley in the dark, inspecting the wall. Finally, I turned back and went back in through the Valley Gate. <sup>16</sup>The officials and important people of Israel didn't know where I had gone. They didn't know what I was doing. I had not yet said anything to the Jews, the priests, the king's family, the officials, or any of the other people that would be doing the work.

<sup>17</sup>Then I said to all those people, "You can see the trouble we have here: Jerusalem is a pile of ruins, and its gates have been burned with fire. Come, let's build the wall of Jerusalem again. Then we won't be ashamed any more."

wine servant A very important job. This official was always close to the king and tasted the king's wine to make sure no one was trying to poison the king.

Nisan ... Artaxerxes This was March-April, 443 B.C.
ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

<sup>1</sup>I also told those people that God had been kind to me. I told them the things the king had said to me. Then those people answered, "Let's start to work, now!" So we began this good work. <sup>2</sup>But Sanballat from Horon, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard that we were building again. They made fun of us in a very ugly way. They said, "What are you doing? Are you turning against the king?"

<sup>3</sup>But this is what I said to those men: "The God of Heaven will help us succeed. We are God's servants and we will build this city again. And you can't help us in this work. None of your family lived here in Jerusalem. You don't own any of this land. You have no right to be in this place!"

Builders of the Wall

3 The name of the high priest was Eliashib. Eliashib and his brothers the priests went to work and built the Sheep Gate. They prayed and made that gate holy to the Lord. They set its doors in place in the wall. Those priests worked on the wall of Jerusalem as far as the Tower of the Hundred and the Tower of Hananel. They prayed and made their work holy to the Lord.

Meshullam son of Berekiah fixed the next section of the wall. (Berekiah was the son of Meshezabel.)

Zadok son of Baana fixed the next section of the wall.

<sup>6</sup>Joiada and Meshullam fixed the Old Gate. Joiada is the son of Paseah and Meshullam is the son of Besodeiah. They set the beams in place. They put the doors on the hinges. Then they put the locks and bolts on the doors.

<sup>13</sup>The Valley Gate was fixed by a man named Hanun and the people that live in the town of Zanoah. Those people built the Valley Gate. They put the doors on their hinges. Then they put the locks and bolts on the doors. They also fixed 500 yards* of the wall. They worked on the wall all the way to the Gate of Ash Piles.

<sup>14</sup>Malkijah son of Recab fixed the Gate of Ash Piles. Malkijah was the governor of the district of Beth Hakkerem. He fixed that gate. He put the doors on the hinges. Then he put the locks and bolts on the doors.

<sup>15</sup>Shallun son of Col-Hozeh fixed the Fountain Gate. Shallun was the governor of the district of Mizpah. He fixed that gate and put a roof over it. He put the doors on the hinges. Then he put the locks and bolts on the doors.

goldsmith A person that makes things from gold.
500 yards Literally, "1,000 cubits."

Shallun also fixed the wall of the Pool of Siloam that is next to the King's Garden. He fixed the wall all the way to the steps that go down from the City of David.*

<sup>16</sup>Nehemiah son of Azbuk fixed the next section. This Nehemiah was the governor of half the district of Beth Zur. He made repairs up to a place that is across from the tombs of David. And he worked as far as the man-made pool and the House of Heroes.

<sup>17</sup>The men from the family group of Levi fixed the next section. Those men from Levi worked under Rehum son of Bani. Hashabiah fixed the next section. Hashabiah was governor of half the district of Keilah. He made repairs for his own district.

<sup>18</sup>Their brothers fixed the next section. They worked under Binnui son of Henadad. Binnui was the governor of the other half of the district of Keilah.

Meshullam son of Berekiah fixed the section in front of his house. <sup>31</sup>Malkijah fixed the next section of wall all the way to the houses of the temple servants and the businessmen. That is across from the Inspection Gate. Malkijah fixed the section all the way to the room over the corner of the wall. Malkijah was a goldsmith.* <sup>32</sup>The goldsmiths and the businessmen fixed the section of wall between the room over the corner to the Sheep Gate.

Sanballat and Tobiah

4 Sanballat heard that we were building the wall of Jerusalem. He became very angry and upset. He started making fun of the Jews. <sup>2</sup>Sanballat talked with his friends and the army at Samaria. He said, "What are these weak Jews doing? Do they think we will leave them alone? Do they think they will offer sacrifices?*" Maybe they think they can finish building in only one day. They can't bring stones back to life from these piles of trash and dirt. These are just piles of ashes and dirt!"

<sup>3</sup>Tobiah the Ammonite was with Sanballat. Tobiah said, "What do these Jews think they are building? If even a small fox climbed up on it, he would break down their wall of stones!"

City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.
that area Or possibly, "the Jordan Valley."

<sup>4</sup>Nehemiah prayed to God. He said, "Our God, listen to our prayer. Those men hate us. Sanballat and Tobiah are insulting us. Make those bad things happen to them. Make them ashamed, like people taken away as prisoners. <sup>5</sup>Don't take away their guilt or forgive the sins they have done in your sight. They have insulted and discouraged the builders."

<sup>6</sup>We built the wall of Jerusalem. We built the wall all the way around the city. But it was only half as tall as it should be. We did this much because the people worked with all their heart.

<sup>7</sup>But Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the men from Ashdod were very angry. They heard that the people continued working on the walls of Jerusalem. They heard the people were fixing the holes in the wall. <sup>8</sup>So all those men got together and made plans against Jerusalem. They planned to stir up trouble against Jerusalem. They planned to come and fight against the city. <sup>9</sup>But we prayed to our God. And we put guards on the walls to watch day and night so we could be ready to meet those men.

<sup>10</sup>And so at that time, the people of Judah said, "The workers are becoming tired. There is too much dirt and trash in the way. We can't continue to build the wall. <sup>11</sup>And our enemies are saying, 'Before the Jews know it or see us, we will be right there among them. We will kill them and that will stop the work.'"

<sup>12</sup>Then the Jews living among our enemies came and said this to us ten times, 'Our enemies are all around us. They are everywhere we turn.'"

<sup>13</sup>So I put some of the people behind the lowest places along the wall. And I put them by the holes in the wall. I put families together, with their swords, spears, and bows. <sup>14</sup>I looked the whole situation over. Then I stood up and spoke to the important families, the officials, and the rest of the people. I said, "Don't be afraid of our enemies. Remember our Master. The Lord is great and powerful! You must fight for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters! You must fight for your wives and your homes!"

<sup>15</sup>Then our enemies heard that we knew about their plans. They knew that God ruined their plans. So we all went back to work on the wall. Each person went back to his own place and did his part. <sup>16</sup>From that day on, half of my men worked on the wall. The other half of my men were on guard, ready with spears, shields, bows, and armor. The army officers stood behind all the people of Judah that were building the wall. <sup>17</sup>The builders and their helpers had their tools in one hand and a weapon in the other hand. <sup>18</sup>Each of the builders wore his sword at his side as he worked. The man that blew the trumpet to warn the people stayed next to me. <sup>19</sup>Then I spoke to the leading families, the officials, and the rest of the people. I said, "This is a very big job and we are spread out along the wall. We are far from one another. <sup>20</sup>So, if you hear the trumpet, run to that place. We will all meet together there, and God will fight for us!"

<sup>21</sup>So we continued to work on the wall of Jerusalem, and half the men held spears. We worked from the first light of the morning till the stars came out at night.

<sup>22</sup>At that time I also said this to the people: "Every builder and his helper must stay inside Jerusalem at night. Then they can be guards at night and workers during the day." <sup>23</sup>So none of us took off our clothes—not me, not my brothers, not my men, and not the guards. Each of us had our weapon ready at all times, even when we went to get water.

Nehemiah Helps the Poor People

5 Many of the poor people began to complain against their Jewish brothers. <sup>2</sup>Some of them were saying, "We have many children. We must get some grain if we are going to eat and stay alive!"

<sup>3</sup>Other people were saying, "This is a time of famine.* We are having to mortgage* our fields, vineyards, and homes to get grain.

mortgage A way to borrow money. People use things, land, or houses as a promise to pay their loan. If they fail to pay the loan, then the lender can take their property.

‘And still other people were saying, “We have to pay the king’s tax on our fields and vineyards. But we can’t afford to pay, so we are having to borrow money to pay the tax. <sup>3</sup>Look at those rich people! We are as good as they are. Our sons are as good as their sons. But we will have to sell our sons and daughters as slaves. Some of us have already had to sell our daughters as slaves! There is nothing we can do! We already lost our fields and vineyards! Other people own them now!”

<sup>6</sup>When I heard their complaints, I became very angry. <sup>7</sup>I calmed myself down and then I went to the rich families and the officials. I told them, “You are forcing your own people to pay interest on the money you loan them! You must stop doing that! Then I called for all the people to meet together. <sup>8</sup>And I said to those people, “Our Jewish brothers were sold as slaves to people in other countries. We did our best to buy them back and make them free. And now, you are selling them like slaves again!”

Those rich people and officials kept quiet. They could not find anything to say. <sup>9</sup>So I continued speaking. I said, “What you people are doing is not right! You know that you should fear and respect God. You should not do the shameful things other people do! <sup>10</sup>My men, my brothers, and I are also lending money and grain to the people. But let’s stop forcing them to pay interest on those loans! <sup>11</sup>You must give their fields, vineyards, olive fields, and houses back to them, right now! And you must give back the interest you charged them! You charged them one per cent for the money, grain, new wine, and oil that you loaned them. You must give that back to them!”

<sup>12</sup>Then the rich people and the officials said, “We will give it back. And we won’t demand anything more from them. Nehemiah, we will do as you say.”

Then I called the priests. I made the rich people and the officials promise to God that they would do what they said. <sup>13</sup>Then I shook out the folds of my clothes. I said, “God will do the same thing to every person that doesn’t keep his promise. God will shake them out of their houses and they will lose everything they worked for! That person will lose everything!”

I finished saying these things and all those people agreed. They all said, “Amen!” And they praised the Lord. And so the people did as they had promised.

<sup>14</sup>And also, during the whole time that I was appointed to be governor in the land of Judah, neither I nor my brothers ate the food that was allowed for the governor. I never forced the people to pay those taxes to buy my food. I was governor from the 20th year until the 32nd year that Artaxerxes was king. <sup>15</sup>I was governor of Judah for twelve years. <sup>16</sup>But the governors that ruled before me made life hard for the people. Those governors forced every person to pay 1 pound* of silver. They also made those people give them food and wine. The leaders under those governors also ruled over the people and made life even harder. But I respected and feared God, so I didn’t do things like that. <sup>17</sup>I worked hard at building the wall of Jerusalem. All my men gathered there to work on the wall. We didn’t take any land from anyone!

<sup>18</sup>Also, I regularly fed 150 Jews that were always welcome at my table. And I fed the people that came to us from the nations around us. <sup>19</sup>Every day I fixed this much food for the people that ate at my table: one cow, six good sheep, and different kinds of birds. And every ten days all kinds of wine were brought to my table. Yet, I never demanded the food that was allowed for the governor. I never forced the people to pay those taxes to pay for my food. I knew that the work the people were doing was very hard. <sup>20</sup>God, remember all the good I have done for these people.

More Problems

6 Then Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and our other enemies heard that I had built the wall. We fixed all the holes in the wall. But we had not yet put the doors in the gates. <sup>2</sup>So Sanballat and Geshem sent me this message: “Come Nehemiah, let’s meet together. We can meet in the town of Kephirim on the plain of Ono." But they were planning to hurt me.

<sup>3</sup>So I sent messengers to them with this answer: "I am doing important work, so I can't come down. I don't want the work to stop just so I can come down and meet with you."

<sup>4</sup>Sanballat and Geshem sent the same message to me four times. And I sent back the same answer to them each time. <sup>5</sup>Then, the fifth time, Sanballat sent his helper to me with the same message. And he had a letter in his hand that was not sealed. <sup>6</sup>This is what that letter said: "There is a rumor going around. People are talking about it everywhere. And, by the way, Geshem says it is true. People are saying that you and the Jews are planning to turn against the king. That is why you are building the wall of Jerusalem. People are also saying that you will be the new king of the Jews.

<sup>7</sup>"And the rumor is that you have chosen prophets to announce this about you in Jerusalem: "There is a king in Judah!"

Now I warn you, Nehemiah, King Artaxerxes will hear about this. So come, let's meet and talk about this together."

<sup>8</sup>So I sent this answer back to Sanballat: "Nothing that you are saying is happening. You are just making all that up in your own head."

<sup>9</sup>Our enemies were only trying to make us afraid. They are thinking to themselves, "The Jews will be afraid, and will become too weak to keep on working. Then the wall won't be finished."

But I prayed, "God, make me strong."

<sup>10</sup>One day I went to the house of a man named Shemaiah son of Delaiah. Delaiah was the son of Mehetabel. Shemaiah had to stay in his house. Shemaiah said, "Nehemiah, let's meet in God's temple.*

Let's go inside the temple and close the doors.

Let's do that because men are coming to kill you.

Tonight they are coming to kill you."

<sup>11</sup>But I said to Shemaiah, "Should a man like me run away? You know that a man like me should not run into the temple to save his life. I won't go!"

<sup>12</sup>I knew that God had not sent Shemaiah. I knew that he had preached against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had paid him to do that. <sup>13</sup>Shemaiah had been hired to bother me and make me afraid. They wanted me to sin by being afraid and running to the temple to hide. Then my enemies would have a reason to embarrass me and give me a bad name.

<sup>14</sup>God, please remember Tobiah and Sanballat. Remember the bad things they have done. Also remember the woman prophet Noadiah and the other prophets that have been trying to make me afraid.

The Wall Is Finished

<sup>15</sup>So the wall of Jerusalem was finished on the 25th day of the month of Elul.* It had taken 52 days to finish building the wall. <sup>16</sup>Then all our enemies heard that we had completed the wall. And all the nations around us saw that it was finished. So they lost their courage. Why? Because they understood that this work had been done with the help of our God.

<sup>17</sup>Also, in those days after the wall had been completed, the rich people of Judah were sending many letters to Tobiah. And Tobiah was answering their letters. <sup>18</sup>They sent those letters because many people in Judah had promised to be loyal to him. The reason for this is because Tobiah was son-in-law to Shecaniah son of Arah. And Tobiah's son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam. Meshullam is the son of Berekiah. <sup>19</sup>And in the past, those people had made a special promise to Tobiah. So those people kept telling me how good Tobiah was. And they kept telling Tobiah about the things I was doing. Tobiah kept sending me letters to make me afraid.

7 So, we finished building the wall. Then we put the doors in the gates. Then we chose the men that would guard the gates. And we chose the men to sing in the temple* and help the priests. <sup>2</sup>Next, I put my brother Hanani in charge of Jerusalem. I chose another man named Hananiah to be the commander of the fort. I picked Hanani because he was a very honest man and he feared God more than most men do. <sup>3</sup>Then I said to Hanani and Hananiah, "Each day you must wait until the sun has been up for several hours before you open the gates of Jerusalem. And you must shut and lock the gates before the sun goes down. Also choose people that live in Jerusalem as guards. Put some of those people at special places to guard the city. And put the other people near their own houses."

The List of Captives That Returned

<sup>4</sup>Now the city was large and there was plenty of room. But there were few people in it and the houses had not yet been built again. <sup>5</sup>So my God put it in my heart to have all the people meet together. I called together all the important people, the officials, and the common people. I did this so I could make a list of all the families. I found the family lists of the people that had been the first to return from captivity. This is what I found written there: <sup>6</sup>These are the people of the province that came back from captivity. (Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had taken these people as prisoners. These people returned to Jerusalem and Judah. Each person went to his own town. <sup>7</sup>These people returned with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah):

Temah,

- The descendants of Sotai, Sophereth, Perida,
<sup>59</sup> the descendants of Shephatiah, Hattil, Pokereth-Hazzebaim and Amon.
<sup>60</sup> The temple servants and the descendants of the servants of Solomon: 392.

<sup>61</sup>This is a list of people that came up to Jerusalem from the towns of Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon, and Immer. But these people could not prove that their families really came from the people of Israel:

- <sup>62</sup> The descendants of Delaiah, Tobiah and Nekoda: 642.

<sup>63</sup>And this is a list of those that are priests. They could not prove that their families really came from the people of Israel:

The descendants of Hobaiah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai (he was a man who had married a daughter of Barzillai the Gileadite, so he was named that name).

<sup>64</sup>Those men looked for their family histories, but they could not find them. So they were not included in this list of priests. They were unclean* and could not be priests. <sup>65</sup>So the governor gave an order that those men could not eat any of the most holy food. They could not eat any of this food until the high priest used the Urim and Thummim* to ask God for advice.

<sup>66-67</sup>The number of people in that whole group was 42,360. And they also had 7,337 men and women servants. They also had 245 men and women singers. <sup>68-69</sup>They had 736 horses, 245 mules, 435 camels, and 6,720 donkeys.

<sup>70</sup>Some of the family leaders gave money to support the work. The governor gave 19 pounds* of gold to the treasury. He also gave 50 bowls and 530 pieces of clothing for the priests. <sup>71</sup>The family leaders gave 375 pounds* of gold to the treasury to support the work. And they also gave 1 1/3 tons* of silver. <sup>72</sup>And all together the other people gave 375 pounds* of gold, 1 1/3 tons* of silver, and 67 pieces of clothing for the priests.

<sup>73</sup>So, the priests, the people from the family group of Levi, the gatekeepers, the singers, and the temple servants settled down in their own towns. And all the other people of Israel settled down in their own towns. And by the seventh month* of the year all the people of Israel had settled down in their own towns.

unclean Or, "unacceptable." Not pure or not able to be used in worshiping God. See Lev. 11-15 for the Old Testament rules about clean and unclean things.

Urim and Thummim Used by the priest to learn God's answer to questions. They were something like lots—stones, sticks, or bones that were thrown like dice to make decisions.

19 pounds Literally, "1,000 drachmas."

375 pounds Literally, "20,000 drachmas."

1 1/3 tons Literally, "2,200 minas."

seventh month That is, September-October.

Ezra Reads the Law

8 And so all the people of Israel met together in the seventh month* of the year. They were together and in agreement just as if they were one man. They all met together in the open place in front of the Water Gate. All those people asked Ezra the teacher to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses. That is the Law that the Lord had given to the people of Israel. <sup>2</sup>So Ezra the priest brought the Law before those people that had met together. This was on the first day of the month.* It was the seventh month of the year. At that meeting were men and women, and anyone old enough to listen and understand. <sup>3</sup>Ezra read in a loud voice from the Book of the Law from early morning until noon. Ezra was facing the open place that was in front of the Water Gate. He read to all the men and women, and to everyone old enough to listen and understand. All the people listened carefully and paid attention to the Book of the Law.

<sup>5</sup>So Ezra opened the book. All the people could see Ezra because he was standing above them on the high stage. And as Ezra opened the Book of the Law, all the people stood up. <sup>6</sup>Ezra praised the Lord, the great God. And all the people held up their hands and said, "Amen! Amen!" Then all the people bowed down and put their faces low to the ground and they worshiped the Lord.

<sup>7</sup>These men from the family group of Levi taught the people about the Law as they were all standing there. Those Levites were: Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiah. <sup>8</sup>Those Levites read the Book of the Law of God. They made it easy to understand, and explained what it meant. They did this so the people could understand what was being read.

<sup>9</sup>Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and teacher, and the men from the Levites that were teaching the people spoke. They said, "Today is a special day* to the Lord your God. Don't be sad and cry." They said that because all the people had begun to cry as they were listening to the messages of God in the Law.

<sup>10</sup>Nehemiah said, "Go and enjoy the good food and sweet drinks. And give some food and drinks to those people that didn't prepare any food. Today is a special day to the Lord. Don't be sad! Why? Because the joy of the Lord will make you strong."

<sup>12</sup>Then all the people went to eat the special meal. They shared their food and drinks. They were very happy and celebrated that special day. They finally understood the lessons from the Lord that the teachers had been trying to teach them.

<sup>13</sup>Then on the second day of the month,* the leaders of all the families went to meet with Ezra, the priests, and the Levites. They all gathered around Ezra the teacher to study the words of the Law.

<sup>14-15</sup>They studied and found this commanded in the Law: In the seventh month* of the year, the people of Israel were supposed to go to Jerusalem, to celebrate a special holiday. They were supposed to live in temporary shelters. The Lord had used Moses to give that command to the people. And the people were supposed to make this announcement. They were supposed to go through all of their towns and Jerusalem and say these things: "Go out into the hill country and get branches from different kinds of olive trees. Get branches from myrtle trees, palm trees, and shade trees. Use those branches to make temporary shelters. Do what the Law says.”

“So the people went out and got those tree branches. Then they built temporary shelters for themselves. They built shelters on their own roofs and in their own yards. And they built shelters in the temple* yard, in the open place near the Water Gate, and near Ephraim Gate. “The whole group of the people of Israel that had come back from captivity built shelters. They lived in the shelters they had built. Since the days of Joshua son of Nun up until that day, the people of Israel had not celebrated the Festival of Shelters like this. Everyone was very happy!

“Ezra read to them from the Book of the Law every day of the festival. Ezra read the Law to them from the first day of the festival to the last day. The people of Israel celebrated the festival for seven days. Then on the eighth day the people met together for a special meeting, like the Law says.

The People of Israel Confess Their Sins

9 Then on the 24th day of that same month, the people of Israel gathered together for a day of fasting.* They wore clothes of sadness and put ashes on their heads, to show they were sad and upset. “Those people that were true Israelites separated themselves from foreigners. The Israelites stood in the temple, and confessed their sins and the sins of their ancestors.* “They stood there for about three hours, and the people read the Book of the Law of the Lord their God. Then for three more hours they confessed their sins and bowed down to worship the Lord their God.

“Then these Levites stood on the stairs: Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Kenani. They called out to the Lord their God with loud voices. “Then these Levites spoke again: Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah. They said: “Stand up and praise the Lord your God!”

God has always lived!

And God will live forever!

People should praise your glorious name!

May your name be lifted above all blessing and praise!

6 You are God!

Lord, only you are God!

You made the sky!

You made the highest heavens,
and everything in them!

You made the earth,
and everything on it!

You made the seas,
and everything in them!

You give life to everything!

And all the heavenly angels bow down and worship you!

7 You are the Lord God.

You chose Abram.

You led him from Ur in Babylonia.

You changed his name to Abraham.

8 You saw he was true and loyal to you.

And you made an agreement with him.

You promised to give him the land of Canaan.

That land belonged to the Hittites and Amorites.

It belonged to the Perizzites, Jebusites, and Girgashites.

But you promised to give that land to Abraham’s descendants.

And you kept your promise!

Why? Because you are good!

9 Lord, you saw our ancestors suffering in Egypt.

And you heard them call for help
by the Red Sea.

10 You showed the miracles to Pharaoh.

You did amazing things to his officials and his people.

fast(ing) To live without food for a special time of prayer and worship to God.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

- You knew the Egyptians thought they were better than our ancestors.
 But you proved how great you are!
 And they remember that even today!
- 11 You split the Red Sea in front of them.
 And they walked through on dry land!
 The Egyptian soldiers were chasing them.
 But you threw that enemy into the sea.
 And they sank like a rock into the sea.
- 12 You used the tall cloud to lead them by day.
 And at night you used the column of fire.
 That is the way you lit their path,
 and showed them where to go.
- 13 Then you came down to Mount Sinai.
 You spoke to them from heaven.
 You gave them good laws.
 You gave them true teachings.
 You gave them laws and commands that were very good!
- 14 You told them about your special day of rest—the Sabbath.
 You used your servant Moses,
 and gave them commands, laws, and teachings.
- 15 They were hungry,
 so you gave them food from heaven.
 They were thirsty,
 so you gave them water from a rock.
 And you told them,
 ‘Come, take this land.’
 You used your power,
 and took the land for them!
- 16 But those people,
 our ancestors,
 became proud.
 They became stubborn.
 They refused to obey your commands.
- 17 They refused to listen.
 They forgot the amazing things you did with them!
 They became stubborn.
 They followed Miriam,
 and became slaves again!
 But you are a forgiving God!
- You are kind and full of mercy.
 You are patient and full of love.
 So you didn’t leave them!
- 18 Even though they made golden calves,
 and said,
 ‘These calves are the gods that led us out of Egypt!’
- 19 You are very kind!
 So you didn’t leave them in the desert.
 You didn’t take the tall cloud away from them by day.
 You continued to lead them.
 You didn’t take the column of fire away from them at night.
 You continued to light their path and show them where to go.
- 20 You gave them your good Spirit to make them wise.
 You continued to give them manna for food.
 You continued to give them water for their thirst.
- 21 You took care of them for 40 years!
 They had everything they needed in the desert.
 Their clothes didn’t wear out.
 And their feet didn’t swell and hurt.
- 22 Lord, you gave them kingdoms and nations.
 And you gave them faraway places where few people live.
 They got Sihon’s land.
 Sihon was king of Heshbon.
 They got Og’s land.
 Og was king of Bashan.
- 23 You made their descendants
 as many as the stars in the sky.
 You brought them to the land
 you promised to give their ancestors.
 They went in and took that land.
- 24 Those children took the land.
 They defeated the Canaanites living there.
 You let them defeat those people!
 You let them do whatever they wanted to those nations, people, and kings!

- <sup>25</sup> They defeated powerful cities.
 They took the fertile land.
 They got houses filled with good things.
 They got wells that were already dug.
 They got vineyards, olive trees, and plenty of fruit trees!
 They ate until they were full.
 They became fat.
 They enjoyed all the wonderful things you gave them.
- <sup>26</sup> And then they turned against you!
 They threw away your teachings!
 They killed your prophets.
 Those prophets warned the people.
 They tried to get the people to come back to you.
 But our ancestors did terrible things to
 you!
- <sup>27</sup> So you let their enemies have them.
 The enemy caused them much trouble.
 When trouble came,
 our ancestors called to you for help.
 And in heaven, you heard them.
 You are very kind.
 So you sent people to save them.
 And those people rescued them from their enemies.
- <sup>28</sup> Then, as soon as our ancestors were rested,
 they went back to doing those terrible
 things.
 So you let the enemy defeat them and punish them.
 They called to you for help,
 and in heaven you heard them
 and helped them.
 You are so kind!
 That happened so many times!
- <sup>29</sup> You warned them.
 You told them to come back.
 But they were too proud.
 They refused to listen to your
 commands.
 If a person obeys your laws,
 then they will truly live!
 But our ancestors broke your laws.
- They were stubborn.
 They turned their backs on you.
 They refused to listen.
- <sup>30</sup> You were very patient with our ancestors.
 You let them mistreat you for many years.
 You warned them with your Spirit.
 You sent the prophets to warn them.
 But our ancestors didn't listen.
 So you gave them away to people in other countries.
- <sup>31</sup> But you are so kind!
 You didn't destroy them completely.
 You didn't leave them.
 You are such a kind and merciful God!
- <sup>32</sup> And you are our God!
 You are the great God.
 You are the awesome and powerful soldier!
 You are loyal!
 You keep your agreement!
 We have had many troubles.
 And our troubles are important to you!
 Bad things have happened to our kings and leaders.
 Bad things have happened to our priests and prophets
 and to all our people.
 Those terrible things have happened since the king of Assyria until today!
- <sup>33</sup> But God, you are fair about everything that happens to us.
 You did what is right.
 We were wrong!
- <sup>34</sup> Our kings, leaders, priests, and ancestors did not follow your teachings.
 They didn't listen to your commands.
 They ignored your warnings.
- <sup>35</sup> And even when our ancestors were living in their kingdom,
 they didn't serve you.
 They didn't stop doing evil things.
 They were enjoying all the good things you had given them.
 They were enjoying the land that was rich and they had plenty of room,

but they didn't stop their evil ways.

- <sup>36</sup> And now, as you can see,
we are slaves.
We are slaves in the land you gave our ancestors.
You gave this land to them
so they could enjoy its fruit and all the other good things that grow here.
- <sup>37</sup> The harvest is big in this land.
But we sinned,
so the harvest goes to the kings you have put over us.
Those kings rule over us and our cattle.
They do anything they want.
We are in much trouble.
- <sup>38</sup> So, as we think about all of these things, we are making an agreement that can't be changed.
We are putting this agreement in writing.
Our leaders, Levites, and priests are putting their names on this agreement.

<sup>28-29</sup>So, all these people now make this special promise to God. And they all ask for bad things to happen if they don't keep their promise. All these people promise to follow the Law of God. That Law of God was given to us through Moses his servant of God. These people promise to carefully obey all the commands, rules, and teachings of the Lord our God. Now, these are the people that are making this promise: The rest of the people—the priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, temple servants, and all the people of Israel that separated themselves from the people living around them. They have separated themselves to obey God's law. And also all their wives and all their sons and daughters that are able to listen and understand. All these people joined their brothers and the important people to accept for themselves the promise to obey God's Law. And they accepted the curse that asks for bad things to happen to them if they don't obey God's Law.

<sup>30</sup>"We promise not to let our daughters marry the people living around us. And we promise not to let our sons marry their daughters.

<sup>31</sup>"We promise not to work on the Sabbath day. If the people living around us bring grain or other things to sell on the Sabbath, we won't buy those things on that special day or on any other holiday. Every seventh year,* we won't plant or work the land. And every seventh year, we will cancel every debt that other people owe to us.

<sup>32</sup>"We will accept the responsibility for obeying the commands to take care of God's temple.* We will give 1/8 ounce* each year to support the temple service to honor our God.

<sup>31</sup>This money will pay for the special bread that the priests put on the table in the temple. It will pay for the daily grain offerings and burnt offerings. It will pay for the offerings on the Sabbaths, New Moon* festivals, and other special meetings. It will pay for the holy offerings and for the sin offerings that make the people of Israel pure.* It will pay for any work needed on the temple of our God.

<sup>34</sup>“We—the priests, the Levites, and the people—have thrown lots.* Why? To decide when each of our families is to bring a gift of wood to the temple of our God at certain times each year. The wood is to burn on the altar of the Lord our God. We must do that just as it is written in the Law.

<sup>35</sup>“We also accept the responsibility of bringing the firstfruits from our crops and from every fruit tree. We will bring that fruit to the Lord’s temple* each year.

<sup>36</sup>“Just as it is also written in the Law, this is what we will do: We will bring our firstborn sons, and the firstborn cows, sheep, and goats. We will bring those firstborn to the temple of our God. We will bring them to the priests that are serving there.

<sup>37</sup>“And we will also bring to the storage rooms of the Lord’s temple,* to the priests, these things: The first of our ground meal, the first of our grain offerings, the firstfruit from all our trees, and first part from our new wine and oil. And we will bring a tenth of our crops to the Levites. Why? Because the Levites collect these things in all the towns where we work.

<sup>38</sup>A priest from the family of Aaron must be with the Levites when they receive those crops. And then the Levites must bring those crops to the temple of our God. Then they will put them in the storerooms of the temple treasury. <sup>39</sup>The people of Israel and the Levites must bring their gifts to the storerooms. They are to bring their gifts of grain, new wine, and oil. All the things for the temple are kept in those storerooms. And that is where the priests that are on duty stay. And also the singers and gatekeepers stay there.

“We all promise that we will take care of the temple of our God!”

New People Move into Jerusalem

11 Now the leaders of the people of Israel moved into the city of Jerusalem. The other people of Israel had to decide who else would move into the city. So they threw lots,* and one out of every ten people had to live in Jerusalem, the holy city. The other nine people could live in their own home towns. <sup>2</sup>Some people volunteered to live in Jerusalem. The other people thanked and blessed them for volunteering.

These are the descendants of Judah that moved into Jerusalem: Athaiah son of Uzziah (Uzziah was the son of Zechariah, who was the son of Amariah, who was the son of Shephatiah, who was the son of Mahalalel, who was a descendant of Perez) <sup>5</sup>and Maaseiah son of Baruch, (Baruch was the son of Col-Hozeh, who was the son of Hazaiah, who was the son of Adaiah, who was the son of Joiarib, who was the son of Zechariah, who was a descendant of Shelah). <sup>6</sup>The number of Perez’s descendants living in Jerusalem was 468. All of them were brave men.

<sup>7</sup>These are the descendants of Benjamin that moved into Jerusalem: Sallu son of Meshullam (Meshullam was the son of Joed, who was the son of Pedaiiah, who was the son of Kolaiah, who was the son of Maaseiah, who was the son of Ithiel, who was the son of Jeshaiah), <sup>8</sup>and

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
1/8 ounce Literally, “1/3 shekel.”
New Moon This was the first day of the Hebrew month.
 There were special meetings on these days to worship God.

those that followed Jeshaiah were Gabbai and Sallai. All together there were 928 men. <sup>9</sup>Joel son of Zicri was in charge of them. And Judah son of Hassenuah was in charge of the Second District of the city of Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>These are the priests that moved into Jerusalem: Jedaiah son of Joiarib, Jakin, <sup>11</sup>and Seraiah son of Hilkiyah (Hilkiyah was the son of Meshullam, who was the son of Zadok, who was the son of Meraioth, who was the son of Ahitub, who was the supervisor in the temple of God), <sup>12</sup>822 men of their brothers that did the work for the temple, and Adayah son of Jeroham (Jeroham was the son of Pelaliah, who was the son of Amzi, who was the son of Zechariah, who was the son of Pashhur, who was the son of Malkijah), <sup>13</sup>242 men that were Malkijah's brothers (These men were leaders of their families), Amashsai son of Azarel (Azarel was the son of Ahzai, who was the son of Meshillemoth, who was the son of Immer), <sup>14</sup>and 128 of Immer's brothers. (These men were brave soldiers. The officer over them was Zabdiel son of Haggadolim.)

<sup>15</sup>These are the Levites that moved into Jerusalem: Shemaiah son of Hasshub (Hasshub was the son of Azrikam, who was the son of Hashabiah, who was the son of Bunni), <sup>16</sup>Shabbethai and Jozabad (These two men were leaders of the Levites. They were in charge of the outside work of God's temple), <sup>17</sup>Mattaniah (Mattaniah was the son of Mica, who was the son of Zabdi, who was the son of Asaph, who was the choir director. Asaph led the people in singing songs of praise and prayer), Bakbukiah (Bakbukiah was the second in charge over his brothers), and Abda son of Shammua, (Shammua was the son of Galal, who was the son of Jeduthun). <sup>18</sup>So, there were 284 Levites that moved into Jerusalem, the holy city.

<sup>20</sup>The other people of Israel, and the other priests and Levites, lived in all the towns of Judah. Each person lived on the land that his ancestors had owned. <sup>21</sup>The temple servants lived on the hill of Ophel. Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of those temple servants.

<sup>22</sup>The officer over the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi. Uzzi was the son of Bani (Bani was the son of Hashabiah, who was the son of Mattaniah, who was the son of Mica). Uzzi was a descendant of Asaph. Asaph's descendants were the singers that were responsible for the service in God's temple. <sup>23</sup>The singers obeyed orders from the king. Those orders from the king told the singers what to do from day to day. <sup>24</sup>The man that told the people what the king wanted done was named Pethahiah. (Pethahiah was the son of Meshezabel, who was one of the descendants of Zerach. Zerach was Judah's son.)

Priests and Levites

Hilkiah, and Jedaiah. These men were the leaders of the priests and their relatives. They were leaders in the days of Jeshua.

<sup>8</sup>The Levites were: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and also Mattaniah. These men, with Mattaniah's relatives, were in charge of the songs of praise to God. <sup>9</sup>Bakbukiah and Unni were the relatives of those Levites. These two men stood across from them in the services. <sup>10</sup>Jeshua was the father of Joiakim. Joiakim was the father of Eliashib. Eliashib was the father of Joiada. <sup>11</sup>Joiada was the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan was the father of Jaddua.

<sup>12</sup>In the days of Joiakim, these men were the leaders of the families of priests:

The leader of Seraiah's family was Meraiah.

The leader of Jeremiah's family was Hananiah.

The leader of Shecaniah's family was Joseph.

The leader of Ginnethon's family was Meshullam.

The leader of Shemaiah's family was Jehonathan.

<sup>22</sup>The names of the leaders of the families of the Levites and the priests in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua were written down during the rule of Darius the Persian king. <sup>23</sup>The family leaders among the descendants* of the family of Levi and up to the time of Johanan son of Eliashib were written in the Book of the Chronicles. <sup>24</sup>And these were the leaders of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, and their brothers. Their brothers stood across from them to sing praise and honor to God. One group answered the other group. That is what was commanded by David the man of God.

<sup>25</sup>The gatekeepers that guarded the storerooms next to the gates were: Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub. <sup>26</sup>Those gatekeepers served in the days of Joiakim. Joiakim was the son of Jeshua, who was the son of Jozadak. And those gatekeepers also served in the days of Nehemiah the governor and in the days of Ezra the priest and teacher.

Dedication of the Wall of Jerusalem

<sup>27</sup>The people dedicated the wall of Jerusalem. They brought all the Levites to Jerusalem. The Levites came from the towns they lived in. They came to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem. The Levites came to sing songs of praise and thanks to God. They played their cymbals,* harps, and lyres.*

<sup>28-29</sup>And all the singers also came to Jerusalem. Those singers came from the towns all around Jerusalem. They came from the town of Netophah, from Beth Gilgal, Geba, and

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

cymbals A pair of metal platters that are hit against each other to make a loud sound.

lyre(s) An instrument with several strings, like a harp.

Azmaveth. The singers had built small towns for themselves in the area around Jerusalem.

<sup>30</sup>So, the priests and Levites made themselves pure in a ceremony. Then they also made the people, the gates, and the wall of Jerusalem pure in a ceremony.

<sup>31</sup>I told the leaders of Judah to go up and stand on top of the wall. I also chose two large singing groups to give thanks to God. One group was to start going up on top of the wall on the right side, toward the Ash Pile Gate. <sup>32</sup>Hoshaiah and half of the leaders of Judah followed those singers. <sup>33</sup>Also following them were Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam, <sup>34</sup>Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, and Jeremiah. <sup>35</sup>And some of the priests with trumpets also followed them up to the wall. Also Zechariah followed them. (Zechariah was the son of Jonathan, who was the son of Shemaiah, who was the son of Mattaniah, who was the son of Micaiah, who was the son of Zaccur, who was the son of Asaph.) <sup>36</sup>There were also Asaph's brothers, who were Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani. They had the musical instruments that David, man of God, had made. Ezra the teacher led the group of people that were there to dedicate the wall. <sup>37</sup>They went to the Fountain Gate. They walked up the stairs all the way to the City of David.* They were on top of the city wall. They walked over the house of David and went toward the Water Gate.

<sup>38</sup>The second group of singers started out in the other direction, to the left. I followed them as they went up to the top of the wall. Half of the people also followed them. They went past the Tower of the Ovens to the Broad Wall. <sup>39</sup>Then they went over these gates: the Gate of Ephraim, the Old Gate, and the Fish Gate. And they went over the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred. They went as far as the Sheep Gate. They stopped at the Guard Gate. <sup>40</sup>Then the two singing groups went to their places in God's temple.* And I stood in my place. And half the officials stood in their places in the temple. <sup>41</sup>Then these priests stood in their places: Eliakim, Maaseiah, Mijamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah. Those priests had their trumpets with them. <sup>42</sup>Then these priests stood in their places in the temple: Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam, and Ezer.

Then two singing groups began singing with Jezrahiah leading them. <sup>43</sup>So, on that special day, the priests offered many sacrifices.* Everyone was very happy. God had made everyone happy. Even the women and children were excited and happy. People far away could hear the happy sounds coming from Jerusalem.

<sup>44</sup>Men were chosen to be in charge of the storerooms on that day. People brought their firstfruits and a tenth of their crops. So the men in charge put those things in the storerooms. The Jewish people were very happy about the priests and Levites on duty. So they brought many things to be put in the storerooms. <sup>45</sup>The priests and Levites did their work for their God. They did the ceremonies that made people pure. And the singers and gatekeepers did their part. They did everything that David and Solomon had commanded. <sup>46</sup>(Long ago, in the days of David, Asaph had been the director. And he had many songs of praise and thanks to God.)

<sup>47</sup>So in the days of Zerubbabel and of Nehemiah, all the people of Israel gave every day to support the singers and gatekeepers. The people also set aside the money for the other Levites. And the Levites set aside the money for the descendants of Aaron (the priests).

Nehemiah's Last Commands

13 On that day, the Book of Moses was read out loud so all the people could hear. They found this law written in the Book of Moses: No Ammonite person and no Moabite person would be permitted to join in the meetings with God. <sup>2</sup>That law was written because those people didn't give the people of Israel food and water. And those people had paid Balaam to say a curse* against the people of Israel. But our God changed that curse and made it a blessing for us. <sup>1</sup>So when the people of Israel heard that law, they obeyed it. They separated themselves from the people that were descendants* of foreigners.

<sup>2</sup>But, before that happened, Eliashib had given a room in the temple* to Tobiah. Eliashib was the priest in charge of the storerooms in God's temple. And Eliashib was a close friend of Tobiah. That room had been used for storing the grain offerings, incense, and the temple dishes and things. They also kept the tenth of grain, new wine, and oil for the Levites, singers, and gatekeepers in that room. And they also kept the gifts for the priests in that room. But Eliashib gave that room to Tobiah.

<sup>3</sup>I was not in Jerusalem while all of this was happening. I had gone back to the king of Babylon. I went back to Babylon in the 32nd year that Artaxerxes was king of Babylon.* Later, I asked the king for permission to go back to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>So I came back to Jerusalem. In Jerusalem I heard about the sad thing that Eliashib had done. Eliashib had given Tobiah a room in the temple* of our God! <sup>5</sup>I was very angry about what Eliashib had done. So I threw all of Tobiah's things out of the room. <sup>6</sup>I gave commands for those rooms to be made pure and clean. Then I put the temple dishes and things, the grain offerings, and the incense back into those rooms.

<sup>7</sup>I also heard that the people had not given the Levites their share. So the Levites and singers had gone back to work in their own fields. <sup>8</sup>So I told the officials that they were wrong. I asked them, "Why didn't you take care of God's temple*?" Then I called all Levites together. I told them to go back to their places and duties in the temple. <sup>9</sup>Then, everyone in Judah brought their tenth of grain, new wine, and oil to the temple. Those things were put into the storerooms.

<sup>10</sup>I put these men in charge of the storerooms: Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the teacher, and a Levite named Pedaiah. And I made Hanan son of Zaccur, son of Mattaniah, their helper. I knew I could trust these men. They were responsible from giving the supplies to their relatives.

<sup>11</sup>God, please remember me for these things I have done. And don't forget all I have faithfully done for the temple of my God and for its services.

<sup>12</sup>In those days in Judah, I saw people working on the Sabbath* day. I saw people pressing grapes to make wine. I saw people bringing in grain and loading it on donkeys. I saw people carrying grapes, figs, and all kinds of things in the city. They were bringing all these things into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. So I warned them about this. I told them they must not sell food on the Sabbath day.

<sup>13</sup>There were some men from the city of Tyre living in Jerusalem. Those men were bringing fish and all kinds of things into Jerusalem and selling them on the Sabbath* day. And the Jews were buying those things. <sup>14</sup>I told the important people of Judah that they were wrong. I said to those important people, "You are doing a very bad thing. You are ruining the Sabbath. You are making the Sabbath day like it was any other day. <sup>15</sup>You know that your ancestors* did the same things. That is why our God brought all the troubles and disaster to us and to this city. Now you people are making it so more of these bad things will happen to Israel. Why? Because you are ruining the Sabbath day and making it like it is not an important day."

<sup>16</sup>So, this is what I did: Every Friday evening, just before dark, I commanded the gatekeepers to shut and lock the gates to Jerusalem. They were not to be opened until the Sabbath* day was over. I put some of my own men at the gates. Those men were commanded to make sure that no load was brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day.

<sup>20</sup>One or two times businessmen and merchants* had to stay the night outside Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>But I warned those businessmen and merchants. I said to them, "Don't stay the night in front of the wall. If you do that again, I will arrest you." So from that time on they didn't come on the Sabbath* day to sell their things.

<sup>22</sup>Then I commanded the Levites to make themselves pure. After they did that, they were to go and guard the gates. This was done to make sure the Sabbath* day was kept a holy day.

God, please remember me for doing these things. Be kind to me and show me your great love!

<sup>23</sup>In those days I also noticed that some Jewish men had married women from the countries of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab. <sup>24</sup>And half of the children from those marriages didn't know how to speak the Jewish language. Those children spoke the language of Ashdod, Ammon, or Moab. <sup>25</sup>So I told those men that they were wrong. I said bad things to them. I hit some of those men, and I pulled out their hair. I forced them to make a promise in God's name. I said to them, "You are not to let your daughters marry the sons of those foreign people. And you are not to let the daughters of those foreign people marry your sons. You are not to marry the daughters of those people. <sup>26</sup>You know that marriages like this caused Solomon to sin. In all the many nations, there was not a king as great as Solomon. God loved Solomon. And God made Solomon king over the whole nation of Israel. But even Solomon was made to sin because of foreign women. <sup>27</sup>And now, we hear that you also are doing this terrible sin. You are not being true to God. You are marrying foreign women."

<sup>28</sup>One of the sons of Joiada was son-in-law to Sanballat from Horon. Joiada was the son of Eliashib the high priest. So I forced that son of Joiada to run away from me. <sup>29</sup>My God, remember them because they have ruined the priesthood. They have made the priesthood like it was not important. They have not obeyed the agreement you made with the priests and Levites.

<sup>30</sup>So I made the priests and Levites pure and clean from everything foreign. And I gave each man his own duties and responsibilities. <sup>31</sup>I also made plans for gifts of wood and firstfruits to be brought at certain times.

My God, remember me for doing these good things.

Queen Vashti Disobeys the King

<sup>2</sup>In the third year of Xerxes' rule, he gave a party for his officers and leaders. The army leaders and important leaders from all of Persia and Media were there. <sup>3</sup>The party continued for 180 days. All during that time, King Xerxes was showing the great wealth of his kingdom. And he was showing everyone the majestic beauty and wealth of his palace.* <sup>4</sup>And when those 180 days were over, King Xerxes gave another party that continued for seven days. That party was held in the inside garden of the palace. All the people that were in the capital city of Susa were invited, from the most important to the least important person. <sup>5</sup>That inside garden had white and blue linen* hangings around the room. Those hangings were held in place with cords of white linen and purple material on silver rings and marble pillars. There were couches made of gold and silver. Those couches were setting on mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl, and other expensive stones. <sup>6</sup>Wine was served in golden cups. And every cup was different! And there was plenty of the king's wine, because the king was very generous. <sup>7</sup>The king had given a command to his servants. He told them that each guest must be given as much wine as he wanted. And the wine server obeyed the king.

<sup>9-11</sup>On the seventh day of the party, King Xerxes was in high spirits from drinking the wine. He gave a command to the seven eunuchs* that served him. Those eunuchs were: Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas. He commanded those seven eunuchs to bring Queen Vashti to him wearing her royal crown. She was to come so she could show her beauty to the leaders and important people. She was very beautiful.

<sup>12</sup>But when those servants told Queen Vashti about the king's command, she refused to come. Then the king became very angry. <sup>13-14</sup>It was the custom for the king to ask the advice of the experts about the law and punishments. So King Xerxes spoke with the wise men that understood the laws. Those wise men were very close to the king. Their names were: Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan. They were the seven most important officials of Persia and Media. They had special privileges to see the king. They were the highest officials in the kingdom. <sup>15</sup>The king asked those men, "What does the law say must be done to Queen Vashti? She has not obeyed the command of King Xerxes that the eunuchs have taken to her."

palace A large house for the king and his family.

linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.

<sup>16</sup>Then Memucan answered the king with the other officials listening, "Queen Vashti has done wrong. She has done wrong against the king and also against all the leaders and people of all the provinces of King Xerxes. <sup>17</sup>I say that, because all the other women will hear about what Queen Vashti did. And then other women will stop obeying their husbands. They will say to their husbands, 'King Xerxes commanded Queen Vashti to be brought to him, but she refused to come.'

<sup>18</sup>"Today the wives of the Persian and Median leaders have heard what the queen did. And those women will be influenced by the thing she did. Those women will do the same thing to the king's important leaders. And there will be plenty of disrespect and anger.

<sup>21</sup>The king and his important officials were happy with this advice. So King Xerxes did as Memucan suggested. <sup>22</sup>King Xerxes sent letters to all parts of the kingdom. He sent those letters to each province, written in its own language. He sent those letters to each nation in its own language. Those letters announced in every person's language that every man was to be ruler over his own family.

Esther Made Queen

2 Later, King Xerxes stopped being angry. Then he remembered Vashti and what she had done. He remembered his commands about her. <sup>2</sup>Then the king's personal servants had a suggestion. They said, "Search for beautiful young virgins* for the king. <sup>3</sup>Let the king choose leaders in every province of his kingdom. Then let those leaders bring every beautiful young virgin to the capital city of Susa. Those girls will be put with the group of the king's women. And they will be under the care of Hegai, the king's eunuch, that is in charge of the women. Then give beauty treatments to all of them. <sup>4</sup>Then let the girl that is pleasing to the king become the new queen in the Vashti's place." The king liked this suggestion, so he accepted it.

<sup>5</sup>Now there was a Jew from the family group of Benjamin named Mordecai. Mordecai was the son of Jair, and Jair was the son of Kish. Mordecai was in the capital city, Susa. <sup>6</sup>Mordecai had been carried into captivity from Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. He was with the group that was taken into captivity with Jehoiachin, king of Judah. <sup>7</sup>Mordecai had a girl cousin named Hadassah. She didn't have a father or a mother, so Mordecai took care of her. Mordecai had adopted her as his own daughter when her father and mother died. Hadassah was also called Esther. Esther had a very pretty face and a good figure.

<sup>8</sup>When the king's command had been heard, many girls were brought to the capital city of Susa. Those girls were put under the care of Hegai. Esther was one of these women. Esther was taken to the king's palace* and put into Hegai's care. Hegai was in charge of the king's women. <sup>9</sup>Hegai liked Esther. She became his favorite. So Hegai quickly gave Esther beauty treatments and special food. Hegai chose seven women servants from the king's palace and gave them to Esther. Then Hegai moved Esther and her seven girl servants into the best place where the king's women lived. <sup>10</sup>Esther didn't tell anyone that she was a Jew. She didn't tell anyone about her family background, because Mordecai had told her not to. <sup>11</sup>Every day Mordecai walked back and forth near the area where the king's women lived. He did that

virgin(s) A pure woman that has not had sexual relations with anyone.

because he wanted to find out how Esther was, and what was happening to her.

<sup>12</sup>Before a girl could take her turn to go in before King Xerxes, this is what she had to do: She had to complete twelve months of beauty treatments. That was six months with oil of myrrh and six months with perfumes and different kinds of make-up. <sup>13</sup>And this is the way a girl would go to the king: They gave her anything she wanted from the house of the king's women. <sup>14</sup>In the evening, the girl would go to the king's palace.* And in the morning, she would return to another area where the king's women lived. Then she would be placed under the care of a man named Shaashgaz. Shaashgaz was the king's eunuch* in charge of the concubines.* The girl would not go back to the king again unless he was pleased with her. Then he would call her by name to come back to him.

<sup>15</sup>When the time came for Esther to go to the king, she didn't ask for anything. She only wanted Hegai, the king's eunuch* that was in charge of the king's women, to suggest what she should take. (Esther is the girl Mordecai had adopted, the daughter of his uncle Abihail). Everyone that looked at Esther liked her. <sup>16</sup>So Esther was taken to King Xerxes in the palace.* This happened in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his rule.

<sup>17</sup>The king loved Esther more than any of the other girls. And she became his favorite. He approved of her more than any of the other girls. So King Xerxes put a crown on Esther's head and made her the new queen in Vashti's place. <sup>18</sup>And the king gave a big party for Esther. It was for all his important people and leaders. He announced a holiday in all the provinces. And he sent out gifts to people, because he was a generous king.

Mordecai Learns About An Evil Plan

<sup>19</sup>Mordecai was sitting next to the king's gate at the time the girls were gathered together the second time. <sup>20</sup>Esther had still kept it a secret that she was a Jew. She had not told anyone about her family background. That is what Mordecai had told her to do. She still obeyed Mordecai just as she had done when he was taking care of her.

<sup>21</sup>During the time Mordecai was sitting next to the king's gate, this happened: Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's officers that guarded the doorway, became angry at the king. They began to make plans to kill King Xerxes. <sup>22</sup>But Mordecai learned about those plans and told Queen Esther. Then Queen Esther told the king. She also told the king that Mordecai was the one that had learned about that evil plan. <sup>23</sup>Then the report was checked out. It was learned that Mordecai's report was true. The two guards that had planned to kill the king were hanged on a post. All these things were written down in a book of the king's histories in front of the king.

Haman's Plan to Destroy the Jews

3 After these things happened, King Xerxes honored Haman. Haman was the son of a man named Hammedatha, the Agagite. The king promoted Haman and gave him a place of honor more important than any of the other leaders. <sup>2</sup>All of the king's leaders at the king's gate would bow down and give honor to Haman. That is what the king commanded those men to do. But Mordecai refused to bow down or give honor to Haman. <sup>3</sup>Then the king's leaders at the gate asked Mordecai, "Why don't you obey the king's command to bow down to Haman?"

<sup>4</sup>Day after day, those king's leaders spoke to Mordecai. But he refused to obey the command to bow down to Haman. So those leaders told Haman about it. They wanted to see what Haman would do about Mordecai. Mordecai had told those leaders that he was a Jew. <sup>5</sup>When Haman saw that Mordecai refused to bow down to him or give him honor, he was very angry.

eunuch A man whose testicles have been removed. Rulers often gave such men important positions.

concubines Women that were like wives to a man.

“Haman had learned that Mordecai was a Jew. But he was not satisfied with killing only Mordecai. Haman also wanted to find a way to destroy all of Mordecai’s people, the Jews, in all of Xerxes’ kingdom.

<sup>7</sup>In the twelfth year of King Xerxes’ rule, in the first month, the month of Nisan, Haman threw lots* to choose a special day and month. And the twelfth month, the month of Adar was chosen. (At that time, the lot was called “pur.”) <sup>8</sup>Then Haman came to King Xerxes. He said, “King Xerxes, there is a certain group of people scattered among the people in all the provinces of your kingdom. Those people keep themselves separate from other people. Their customs are different from those of all other people. And those people don’t obey the king’s laws. It is not best for the king to allow those people to continue to live in your kingdom.

<sup>9</sup>“If it pleases the king, I have a suggestion: Give a command to destroy those people. And I will put 10,000 silver coins into the king’s treasury. That money could be used to pay the men that do these things.”

<sup>12</sup>Then on the 13th day of the first month the king’s secretaries were called. They wrote out all of Haman’s commands in the language of each province. And they wrote them in the language of each group of people. They wrote to the king’s satraps (leaders), the governors of the different provinces, and the leaders of the different groups of people. They wrote with the authority of King Xerxes himself, and sealed the commands with the king’s own ring.

<sup>13</sup>Messengers carried the letters to all the king’s provinces. The letters were the king’s command to ruin, kill, and completely destroy all the Jews. That meant young people and old people, women, and little children, too. The command was to kill all the Jews on a single day. That day was to be the 13th day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar. And the command was to take all of the things that belonged to the Jews.

<sup>14</sup>A copy of the letters with that command was to be given as a law. It was to be a law in every province and announced to the people of every nation living in the kingdom. Then all those people would be ready for that day. <sup>15</sup>At the king’s command the messengers hurried off. The command was given in the capital city of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was confused.

Mordecai Persuades Esther to Help

4 Mordecai heard about all that had been done. When he heard about the king’s commands against the Jews, he tore his clothes. Then he put on clothes of sadness and put ashes on his head. Then he went out into the city crying loudly. <sup>2</sup>But Mordecai went only as far as the king’s gate. No one was allowed to enter that gate dressed in clothes of sadness. <sup>3</sup>In every province where the king’s command had come, there was much crying and sadness among the Jews. They were fasting* and crying loudly. Many Jews were lying on the ground dressed in clothes of sadness with ashes on their heads.

<sup>4</sup>Esther’s women servants and eunuchs* came to her and told her about Mordecai. That made Queen Esther very sad and upset. She sent clothes for Mordecai to put on instead of the clothes of sadness. But he would not accept those clothes. <sup>5</sup>Then Esther called Hathach. Hathach was one of the king’s eunuchs that had been chosen to serve her. Esther commanded him to find out what was bothering Mordecai, and why. <sup>6</sup>So Hathach went out to where Mordecai was in the open place of the city in front of the king’s gate. <sup>7</sup>Then Mordecai told Hathach everything that had happened to him.

fast(ing) To live without food for a special time of prayer and worship to God.

And he told Hathach about the exact amount of money Haman had promised to put into the king's treasury for killing of Jews. <sup>8</sup>Mordecai also gave Hathach a copy of the king's command to kill the Jews. That command had been sent out all over the city of Susa. He wanted Hathach to show it to Esther and tell her everything. And he told him to encourage Esther to go to the king and beg him for mercy for Mordecai and her people.

<sup>12-13</sup>Then Esther's message was given to Mordecai. When Mordecai got her message, he sent his answer back: "Esther, don't think that just because you live in the king's house you will be the only Jew to escape. <sup>14</sup>If you keep quiet now, help and freedom for the Jews will come from another place. But you and your father's family will all die. And who knows, maybe you have been chosen to be the queen for such a time as this?"

<sup>15-16</sup>Then Esther sent this answer to Mordecai: "Mordecai, go and get all the Jews in Susa together, and fast* for me. Don't eat or drink for three days and nights. I will fast like you, and my girl servants will fast, too. After we fast, I will go to the king. I know it is against the law to go to the king if he didn't call me, but I will do it anyway. If I die, I die."

Esther Speaks to the King

5 On the third day, Esther put on her special robes. Then she stood in the inside area of the king's palace.* That area was in front of the king's hall. The king was sitting on his throne* in the hall. He was sitting facing the place where people enter the throne room. <sup>2</sup>Then the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court. When he saw her, he was very pleased. He held out to her the gold scepter* that was in his hand. So Esther went in to the room and went near the king. Then she touched the end of the king's gold scepter.

<sup>3</sup>Then the king asked, "What is bothering you Queen Esther? What do you want to ask me? I will give you anything you ask for, even half my kingdom."

<sup>4</sup>Esther said, "I have prepared a party for you and Haman. Will you and Haman please come to the party today?"

So the king and Haman went to the party Esther had prepared for them. <sup>6</sup>While they were drinking wine, the king asked Esther again, "Now Esther, what do you want to ask for? Ask for anything, I will give it to you. So, what is it you want? I will give you anything you want, up to half my kingdom."

<sup>7</sup>Esther answered, "This is what I want to ask for: <sup>8</sup>If the king approves of me, and if it pleases the king to give me what I ask for, let the king and Haman come tomorrow. I will prepare another party for the king and Haman tomorrow. Then I will tell what I really want."

Haman's Anger at Mordecai

<sup>9</sup>Haman left the king's house that day very happy and in a good mood. But when he saw Mordecai at the king's gate, he became very angry at Mordecai. Haman was very mad at Mordecai because Mordecai didn't show any respect when Haman walked by. Mordecai was not afraid of Haman, and that made Haman mad. <sup>10</sup>But, Haman controlled his anger and went home. Then Haman called his friends and his wife, Zeresh, together. <sup>11</sup>Haman started bragging about how rich he was. He was bragging to his friends about his many sons, and about all the ways the king had honored him. And he was bragging about how the king had promoted him higher than all the other leaders. <sup>12</sup>“And that’s not all,” Haman added. “I’m the only person Queen Esther invited to be with the king at the party she gave. And the Queen has also invited me to be with the king again tomorrow. <sup>13</sup>But all those things don’t really make me happy. I’m not really happy as long as I see that Jew Mordecai sitting at the king’s gate.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Haman’s wife Zeresh and all his friends had a suggestion. They said, “Tell someone to build a post to hang him on! Make it 75 feet* tall! Then in the morning, ask the king to hang Mordecai on it. Then just go to the party with the king and you can be happy.”

Haman liked that suggestion, so he ordered someone to build the hanging post.

Mordecai is Honored

6 That same night, the king could not sleep. So he told a servant to bring the history book and read it to him. (The Book of History of the Kings lists everything that happens during a king’s rule.) <sup>2</sup>The servant read the book to the king. He read about the evil plan to kill King Xerxes. That was when Mordecai had learned about Bigthana and Teresh. Those two men were the king’s officers that guarded the doorway. They had planned to kill the king, but Mordecai learned about the plan and told someone about it.

The servants answered the king, “Nothing has been done for Mordecai.”

<sup>4</sup>Haman had just entered the outer area of the king’s palace.* He had come to ask the king to hang Mordecai on the hanging post Haman had commanded to be built. (The king heard him.) The king said, “Who just came into the courtyard?” <sup>5</sup>The king’s servants said, “Haman is standing in the courtyard.”

So the king said, “Bring him in.”

<sup>6</sup>When Haman came in, the king asked him a question. He said, “Haman, what should be done for a man the king wants to honor?”

Haman thought to himself, “Who is there that the king would want to honor more than me? The king is talking about honoring me, I’m sure.” <sup>7</sup>So Haman answered the king, “Do this for the man the king loves to honor: <sup>8</sup>Have the servants bring a special robe the king himself has worn. And also bring a horse the king himself has ridden. Have the servants put the king’s special mark on that horse’s head. <sup>9</sup>Then put one of the king’s most important leaders in charge of the robe and the horse. And let that leader put the robe on the man the king wants to honor. And then let him lead him on the horse through the city streets. As he leads him, let him announce, ‘This is done for the man the king wants to honor!’”

<sup>11</sup>So Haman got the robe and the horse. Then he put the robe on Mordecai and led him on horseback through the city streets. Haman announced ahead of Mordecai, “This is done for the man the king wants to honor!”

<sup>12</sup>After that, Mordecai went back to the king’s gate. But Haman hurried home. He covered his head because he was embarrassed and ashamed. <sup>13</sup>Then Haman told his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him. Haman’s wife and the men that gave him advice said, “If Mordecai is a Jew, then you can’t win. You have already started to fall. Surely you will be ruined!”

<sup>14</sup>While those people were still talking to Haman, the king’s eunuchs* came to Haman’s

house. They made Haman hurry to the party that Esther had prepared.

Haman Is Hanged

7 So the king and Haman went to eat with Queen Esther. <sup>2</sup>Then as they were drinking wine on the second day of the party, the king again asked Esther a question, "Queen Esther, what is it you want to ask for? Ask anything and it will be given to you. What do you want? I will give you anything, even half my kingdom."

<sup>3</sup>Then Queen Esther answered, "King, if you like me and it pleases you, please let me live! And I ask you to let my people live, too! That is what I ask for. 'Why? Because I and my people have been sold to be ruined, killed, and completely destroyed. If we had just been sold as slaves, I would have kept quiet, because that would not be enough of a problem to bother the king.'"

Then Haman was filled with terror before the king and queen. <sup>7</sup>The king was very angry. He got up, left his wine, and went out into the garden. But Haman stayed inside to beg Queen Esther to save his life. Haman begged for his life because he knew that the king had already decided to kill him. <sup>8</sup>Just as the king was coming back in from the garden to the party room, he saw Haman falling on the couch where Esther was lying. The king said with anger in his voice, "Will you attack the queen even while I am in the house?"

As soon as the king had said that, servants came in and killed Haman.* <sup>9</sup>One of the eunuchs* that served the king was named Harbona. Harbona said, "A hanging post 75 feet* tall has been built near Haman's house.

Haman had it made so he could hang Mordecai on it. Mordecai is the man that helped you when he told about the evil plans to kill you."

The king said, "Hang Haman on that post!"

<sup>10</sup>So they hanged Haman on the hanging post he had built for Mordecai. Then the king stopped being angry.

The King's Order To Help the Jews

8 That same day King Xerxes gave Queen Esther all the things that belonged to Haman, the enemy of the Jews. Esther told the king that Mordecai was her cousin. Then Mordecai came to see the king. <sup>2</sup>The king had gotten his ring back from Haman. The king took that ring off his finger and gave it to Mordecai. Then Esther put Mordecai in charge of all of the things that belonged to Haman.

<sup>3</sup>Then Esther spoke to the king again. She fell at the king's feet and began crying. She begged the king to cancel the evil plan of Haman the Agagite. Haman had thought up that plan to hurt the Jews.

<sup>4</sup>Then the king held out the gold scepter* to Esther. Esther got up and stood in front of the king. <sup>5</sup>Then Esther said, "King, if you like me and if it pleases you, please do this for me. Please do this if you think it is a good idea. If the king is happy with me, please write a command that would stop the command that Haman sent out. Haman the Agagite thought of a plan to destroy the Jews in all the king's provinces, and he sent out commands for that to happen. <sup>6</sup>I am begging the king because I could not bear to see those terrible things happen to my people. I could not bear to see my family killed."

the authority of the king and sealed with the king's ring can be cancelled."

<sup>9</sup>Very quickly the king's secretaries were called. This was done on the 23rd day of the third month, the month of Sivan. Those secretaries wrote out all of Mordecai's commands to the Jews, and to the satraps (leaders), the governors, and officials of the 127 provinces. Those provinces reached from India to Ethiopia. Those commands were written in the language of each province. And they were translated into the language of each group of people. And those commands were written to the Jews in their own language and their own alphabet. <sup>10</sup>Mordecai wrote commands by the authority of King Xerxes. Then he sealed the letters with the king's ring. And he sent those letters by messengers on horses. Those messengers rode fast horses which were raised especially for the king.

The Jews in every city have the right to gather together to protect themselves. They have the right to ruin, kill, and completely destroy any army from any group of people that might attack them and their women and children. And the Jews have the right to take and destroy the property of their enemies.

clothes were blue and white, and he had on a large gold crown. He also had a purple robe made of the best linen.* There was a special celebration in Susa. The people were very happy. <sup>16</sup>It was an especially happy day for the Jews. It was a day of joy, happiness, and great honor. <sup>17</sup>Wherever the king's command went in every province and every city, there was joy and gladness among the Jews. The Jews were having parties and celebrating. And many of the common people from other groups became Jews. They did that because they were very afraid of the Jews.

Victory for the Jews

9 On the 13th day of the twelfth month (Adar), the people were supposed to obey the king's command. That was the day the enemies of the Jews hoped to defeat them. But now, things had changed. Now, the Jews were stronger than their enemies that hated them. <sup>2</sup>The Jews met together in their cities in all the provinces of King Xerxes. They met together so they would be strong enough to attack the people that wanted to destroy them. So no one was strong enough to stand against them. Those people were afraid of the Jews. <sup>3</sup>And all the officials of the provinces, the satraps (leaders), the governors, and the king's administrators helped the Jews. All those leaders helped the Jews because they were afraid of Mordecai.

<sup>4</sup>Mordecai had become a very important man in the king's palace.* Everyone in the provinces knew his name and knew how important he was. And Mordecai became more and more powerful.

<sup>5</sup>The Jews defeated all their enemies. They used swords to kill and destroy their enemies. And the Jews did what they wanted to with those people that hated them. <sup>6</sup>The Jews killed and destroyed 500 men in the capital city of Susa. <sup>7</sup>The Jews also killed these men: Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, <sup>8</sup>Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, <sup>9</sup>Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha. <sup>10</sup>These men were the ten sons of

linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.

Haman. Haman son of Hammedatha was the enemy of the Jews. The Jews killed all those men, but they didn't take the things that had belonged to them.

<sup>11</sup>The king heard about the 500 men that were killed in the capital city of Susa. <sup>12</sup>So the king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed 500 men in Susa. And they also have killed Haman's ten sons in Susa. Now, what do you want done in the other provinces of the king? Tell me, and I will have it done. Ask, and I will do it.

<sup>13</sup>Esther said, "If the king would be pleased to do so, give the Jews permission to do this: Let the Jews carry out the king's command again tomorrow in Susa. And let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the hanging post."

<sup>14</sup>So the king gave the command that the law be continued another day in Susa. He also commanded that they hang Haman's ten sons.

<sup>15</sup>The Jews in Susa came together on the 14th day of the month of Adar. Then they killed 300 men in Susa, but they didn't take the things that belonged to those 300 men.

<sup>16</sup>At that same time, the other Jews that lived in the king's provinces also met together. They met together so they would be strong enough to protect themselves. And so they got rid of their enemies. The Jews killed 75,000 of their enemies. But the Jews didn't take any of the things that belonged to those enemies they killed. <sup>17</sup>This happened on the 13th day of the month Adar. And on the 14th day the Jews rested. The Jews made that day a happy holiday.

The Festival of Purim

<sup>18</sup>The Jews in Susa had met together on the 13th and 14th days of the month of Adar. And then on the 15th day they rested. They made the 15th day a happy holiday. <sup>19</sup>So, the Jews that live in the country and small villages celebrate Purim on the 14th day. They keep the 14th day of the month of Adar as a happy holiday. And it is also a day for giving presents to each other.

<sup>20</sup>Mordecai wrote everything down that had happened. And then he sent letters to all the Jews in all of King Xerxes' provinces. He sent letters far and near. <sup>21</sup>Mordecai did that to tell the Jews to celebrate Purim every year on the 14th and 15th days of the month of Adar. <sup>22</sup>The Jews were to celebrate those days because on those days Jews got rid of their enemies. And they were also to celebrate that month as the month when their sadness was turned into joy. And it was a month when their crying was changed into a day of celebration. Mordecai wrote letters to all the Jews. He told them to celebrate those days as a holiday. And it was to be a time of giving good food to each other and of giving presents to the poor.

<sup>23</sup>So the Jews agreed to do what Mordecai had written to them. And they agreed to continue the celebration they had begun.

<sup>24</sup>Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, was the enemy of all the Jews. He had made an evil plan against the Jews to destroy them. And Haman had thrown the lot* to choose a day to ruin and to destroy the Jews. At that time the lot was called a "pur," so the holiday is called "Purim." <sup>25</sup>But Esther went to talk to the king. So he sent out new commands. He sent out those commands to stop the evil plans that Haman had made against the Jews. He made those bad things happen to Haman and his family. And those commands said that Haman and his sons should be hanged on the hanging post.

<sup>26-27</sup>So, these days were called Purim. That name Purim comes from the word pur, (the lot*). And so the Jews had decided to start the custom of celebrating these two days every year. They did this to help them remember what they had seen happen to them. The Jews and all the people that join them are to celebrate these two days every year in just the right way and time that Mordecai had commanded them in the letter. <sup>28</sup>These two days should be remembered and celebrated in every generation by every family. And they must be celebrated in every province and in every city. And these days of Purim should never stop being celebrated by the Jews. The descendants* of those Jews should always remember to celebrate these two days of Purim.

<sup>29</sup>So Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew wrote to confirm this second letter about Purim. Esther is the daughter of Abihail. They wrote with full authority of the king to prove this letter was true. <sup>30</sup>So Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews in the 127 provinces of King Xerxes' kingdom. Mordecai wrote a message of peace and truth. <sup>31</sup>Mordecai wrote to start the holiday of Purim. These days are to be celebrated at their chosen times. Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had sent out the command for the Jews. Mordecai and Esther had established this two-day holiday for themselves and their descendants.* They established these days so that the Jews can fast* and cry. <sup>32</sup>Esther's letter established these rules about Purim. These rules about Purim were written down in the history books.

The Greatness of Mordecai

10 King Xerxes made people pay taxes. All the people in the kingdom, even the faraway cities on the sea coast, had to pay taxes. <sup>2</sup>And all the great things that Xerxes did are written in the Book of History of the Kings of Media and Persia. And also written in those history books are all the things that Mordecai did. The king made Mordecai a great man. <sup>3</sup>Mordecai the Jew was second in importance to King Xerxes. Mordecai was the most important man among the Jews. And his fellow Jews respected him very much. They respected Mordecai because he worked for the good of his people. And Mordecai spoke up for the good of all the Jews.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

fast To live without food for a special time of prayer and worship to God.

Job

Job the Good Man

1 A man lived in the country of Uz. His name was Job. Job was a good and faithful man. Job worshiped God. Job stayed away from evil things. <sup>2</sup>Job had seven sons and three daughters. <sup>3</sup>Job owned 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 1,000 bulls,* and 500 female donkeys. He had many servants. Job was the richest man in the east.

<sup>6</sup>Then the day came for the angels* to meet with the Lord. And Satan came with those angels. <sup>7</sup>The Lord said to Satan, "Where have you been?"

Satan answered the Lord, "I have been wandering around on the earth."

<sup>8</sup>Then the Lord said to Satan, "Have you seen my servant Job? No one on earth is like him. Job is really a good man. He worships God. He stays away from evil things."

<sup>9</sup>Satan answered, "Sure! But Job has a good reason for worshiping God! <sup>10</sup>You always protect him, his family, and everything he has. You have made him successful in everything he does. Yes, you have blessed him. He is so wealthy that his herds and flocks are all over the country. <sup>11</sup>But if you destroy everything he has, I promise you he will speak against you to your face."

<sup>12</sup>The Lord said to Satan, "All right. Do anything you want to the things Job has. But don't hurt his body."

Then Satan went away from the Lord.

Job Loses Everything

<sup>13</sup>One day, Job's sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine at the oldest brother's house. <sup>14</sup>Then a messenger came to Job and said, "The bulls were plowing and the donkeys were eating grass near by. <sup>15</sup>But the Sabean people* attacked us and took your animals! The Sabeans killed the servants except me. I escaped to tell you!"

<sup>16</sup>While that messenger was still speaking, another messenger came to Job. The second messenger said, "Lightning struck from the sky and burned up your sheep and servants. I am the only one that escaped to tell you!"

<sup>17</sup>While that messenger was still speaking, another messenger came. This third messenger said, "The Chaldean people sent three groups that attacked us and took the camels! And they killed the servants. I am the only one that escaped to tell you!"

<sup>18</sup>While the third messenger was still speaking, another messenger came. The fourth messenger said, "Your sons and daughters were

1,000 bulls Literally "500 yoke of cows." Two bulls were harnessed together and used to plow in the fields.

angels Literally, "sons of God."

Sabean people A group of people from the desert area. They attacked people and took their things.

eating and drinking wine at the oldest brother's house. <sup>19</sup>Then a very strong wind suddenly blew in from the desert and blew the house down. The house fell on your sons and daughters, and they are dead. I am the only one that escaped to tell you!"

<sup>20</sup>When Job heard this, he tore his clothes and shaved his head to show he was sad and upset. Then Job fell on the ground and worshiped God. <sup>21</sup>He said:

"I was naked when I was born into this world,
and I had nothing.
When I die and leave this world,
I will be naked,
and I will have nothing.
The Lord gives,
and the Lord takes away.
Praise the name of the Lord!"

The Devil Bothers Job Again

2 On another day, the angels* came to meet with the Lord. Satan was with them. Satan came to meet with the Lord. <sup>2</sup>The Lord said to Satan, "Where have you been?"

<sup>3</sup>Then the Lord said to Satan, "Have you been watching my servant Job? No one on earth is like him. He is really a good man. He worships God. He stays away from evil things. He still is faithful, even though you asked me to let you destroy everything he has for no reason."

<sup>4</sup>Satan answered, "Skin for skin!* A person will give everything he has to stay alive. <sup>5</sup>If you use your power to hurt his body, then he will curse* you to your face!"

<sup>6</sup>So the Lord said to Satan, "All right, Job is in your power. But you are not permitted to kill him."

angels Literally, "sons of God."

Skin for skin This means that a person will do anything he can do to avoid pain.

curse(d) To ask for bad things to happen to someone.

<sup>10</sup>Job answered his wife, "You talk like a foolish woman! When God gives good things, we accept it. So we should also accept trouble and not complain." In all this trouble, Job did not sin. He did not speak against God.

Job's Three Friends Come to See Him

<sup>11</sup>Three of Job's friends were Eliphaz from Teman, Bildad from Shuah, and Zophar from Naamah. These three friends heard about all the bad things that happened to Job. These three friends left their homes and met together. They agreed to go and show sympathy to Job and to comfort him. <sup>12</sup>But when the three friends saw Job from far away, they were not sure it was Job because he looked so different. They began to cry loudly. They tore their clothes and threw dirt in the air and on their heads to show they were sad and upset. <sup>13</sup>Then the three friends sat on the ground with Job for seven days and seven nights. No one said a word to Job, because they saw Job was suffering so much.

Job Curses the Day He Was Born

3 Then Job opened his mouth and cursed* the day he was born. <sup>23</sup>He said:

"That day when I was born,
let it be gone.
Let that night be gone
when it was said,
'A boy is born!'
let it be gone.

<sup>4</sup> Let that day be darkness.

May God not care about that day.

Don't let light shine on that day.

<sup>5</sup> Let that day be as dark as death.

Let a cloud hide that day.

Let the black clouds scare away the light,

- of the day I was born.
- 6 And let deep darkness catch that night.
Don't let that night be counted as one of the days of the year.
Don't put that night in any of the months.
- 7 Let that night be empty of happiness.
Let no happy shout be heard on that night.
- 8 Let the men of magic that say curses,
curse the day I was born.
Those are the men that know how to make Leviathan* angry.
- 9 Let that day's morning star be dark.
Let that night wait for the light of the morning,
but let that light never come.
Don't let that night see the first rays of sunlight.
- 10 Why? Because that night didn't shut the doors
of my mother's womb on me.
That night didn't hide trouble from my eyes.
- 11 "Why didn't I die when I was born?
Why didn't I die while coming from my mother?
- 12 Why did my mother hold me on her knees?
Why did my mother's breasts feed me?
- 13 If I died when I was born,
I would be in peace now.
I wish I were asleep and at rest
- 14 with the kings and wise men that lived on earth.
Those kings and wise men built places for themselves
that are now destroyed and gone.
- 15 I wish I were buried with those rulers.
They had gold and filled their houses with silver!
- 16 "Why wasn't I a child that died at birth and was buried in the ground?"

- I wish I were like a baby that never saw the light of day.
- 17 Bad people stop making trouble
when they are in the grave.
And people who are tired find rest in the grave.
- 18 Even prisoners are comfortable in the grave.
They don't hear the voice of the slave boss.
- 19 All kinds of people are in the grave—the important people and the people that are not important.
And the slave is freed from his master.
- 20 "Why let the person that is very sad and suffering go on living?
Why is life given to the person whose soul is bitter?
- 21 That person wants to die,
but death does not come.
That sad person searches for death more than for hidden treasure.
- 22 Those people are very happy
when they find the grave.
- 23 God keeps their future secret,
and builds a wall around them.
- 24 I don't eat.
But I make sad sounds.
My complaints pour out like water.
- 25 I was afraid that something terrible might happen to me.
It has happened to me!
- 26 I have no peace,
no rest.
I have no rest,
only trouble!"

Eliphaz Speaks

4 <sup>1,2</sup>Then Eliphaz answered: "If a person tries to speak to you, will it upset you? I have to speak!

- <sup>3</sup> "Job, you have taught many people.
You have given strength to weak hands.
- <sup>4</sup> Your words comforted people that stumbled.

Leviathan Some people think this is a crocodile. Other people think this is a giant sea monster. People thought magicians were able to make him cause eclipses of the sun.

You made weak knees strong with encouragement.
 5 But now trouble comes to you, and you are discouraged. Trouble hits you, and you are upset! "You are faithful to God, So you should trust in your faithfulness. You are innocent, so let that be your hope.
 7 "Job, think about this now: No innocent person has ever been destroyed. Good people are never destroyed.
 8 I have noticed people that start evil and trouble. They will get the same things.
 9 God's breath kills those people. God's anger destroys them.
 10 The bad people roar and growl like lions. But God makes the bad people be quiet, and God breaks their teeth.
 11 The bad people are like lions that have nothing to eat. They die, and their children are scattered and gone.
 12 "A message was brought to me in secret. My ears caught a whisper of it.
 13 Like a bad dream in the night, it bothered my sleep.
 14 I was afraid, and shook. All my bones shook! <sup>15</sup>A ghost passed by my face. The hair on my body stood up!
 16 The spirit stood still, but I could not see what it was. A shape stood before my eyes, and there was silence. Then I heard a very quiet voice:
 17 'A person can't be more right than God. Man can't be more pure than his Maker.
 18 God can't trust even his heavenly servants. God finds things wrong even with his angels.

19 So God finds more things wrong with people; people live in houses of clay.* The foundations of these houses of clay are in the dirt. They are crushed to death more easily than a moth!
 20 Between dawn and sunset, these people die, and they are not even noticed. They die and are gone forever.
 21 The ropes of their tent are pulled up, and these people die without wisdom.'
 5 "Job, call out if you want, but no one will answer you! You can't turn to any of the angels!
 2 A foolish person's anger will kill him. The jealousy of a simple-minded person will kill him.
 3 I have seen a foolish person that thinks he is strong and safe. But then suddenly, his home is cursed.*
 4 That foolish person's children were not safe. No one is there in court to defend them.
 5 Hungry people eat up that foolish person's crops. Those hungry people will even take the grain growing among the thorns. And thirsty people will be jealous for his wealth.
 6 Bad times don't come up from the dirt. Trouble does not grow from the ground.
 7 But man is born to have trouble, as sure as sparks fly upward from the fire.
 8 "But Job, if I were you, I would turn to God and tell him about my problem.
 9 People can't understand the wonderful things God does. There is no end to the miracles God does.

houses of clay This means the human body.
curse(d) To ask for bad things to happen to someone.

- 10 God sends rain on the earth.
He sends water to the fields.
- 11 God raises up the humble person,
and he makes a sad person very happy.
- 12 God stops the plans of clever, evil people,
so they have no success.
- 13 God catches wise people in their own smart plans.
So the plans of the clever person are not successful.
- 14 When it is daytime, those clever people stumble around in darkness.
- 15 God saves poor people from death.
He saves the poor people from the power of the clever people.
- 16 So poor people have hope, and he destroys bad people that are not fair.
- 17 "The person that God corrects is happy!
So don't complain when God,
All-Powerful punishes you.
- 18 God puts bandages on the wounds he makes.
He injures, but his hands also heal.
- 19 He will save you from six troubles;
yes, in seven troubles you won't be hurt!
- 20 God will save you from death
when there is famine.
And God will protect you from death in war.
- 21 God will save you when people speak evil about you with their sharp tongues.
You won't need to be afraid when destruction comes!
- 22 You will laugh at destruction and famine.
You won't need to be afraid of wild animals!
- 23 Why? Because the fields you plow won't have rocks,
and the wild animals will never attack
you.
- 24 You will live in peace because your tent is safe.
You will count your property and find nothing missing.

- 25 You will have many children.
They will be many like the blades of grass on the earth.
- 26 You will be like the wheat that grows ripe until harvest time.
Yes, you will live to a ripe old age.
- 27 "We have studied these things Job,
and we know they are true.
So Job, listen, and know them for yourself."

Job Answers Eliphaz

- 6<sup>1,2</sup> Then Job answered:
"If my suffering could be weighed, and all my trouble put on the weighing scales,
3 you would understand that my sadness would be heavier than the sands of the seas!
That is why my words seem foolish.
4 God, All-Powerful's arrows are in me.
My spirit drinks in these arrows' poison!
God's terrible things are put together
against me.
5 A wild donkey does not complain if it has grass to eat.
A cow does not complain if it has food.
6 Food that has no taste,
is eaten with salt.
And the white of an egg does not have a taste.
7 I refuse to touch it;
that kind of food makes me sick!
8 "I wish I could have what I ask for;
I wish God would give me what I hope
for.
9 I hope that God would be willing to crush
me, and go ahead and kill me! <sup>10</sup>If he would kill me,
I would be comforted about one thing.
I would be happy in my continued pain about one thing:
I did not refuse to obey the commands of the Holy One.

- 11 "My strength is gone, so
I have no hope to go on living.
I don't know what will happen to me in
the end,
so I have no reason to be patient.
12 I am not strong like a rock.
My body is not made from bronze.
13 I don't have power to help myself now.
Why? Because success has been taken away from me.
- 14 "A person's friends should be kind to him if he has troubles.
A person should be loyal to his friend, even if that friend turned away from [God, All-Powerful.
- 15 But you, my brothers, are not faithful.
I can't depend on you.
You are like streams that flow sometimes and don't flow sometimes.
You are like streams that overflow when they are choked with ice and melting snow.
16 But those streams stop flowing in the dry
time.
When it is hot weather, the water is gone and the streams are gone.
17 Groups of traders turn away from their roads.
They go into wasteland, and die there.
18 The groups of traders from Tema look for water.
Travelers from Sheba look hopefully.
19 These traders worry, because they had been sure before.
But this time when they arrive there, they are disappointed.
20 Now you are like those streams. You don't help.
You see my troubles and are afraid.
21 I never said, 'Give me something.
Give me money from your wealth.'
I never said, <sup>22</sup>'Save me from the enemy's power.
Save me from cruel people.'
- 24 "So now, teach me,
and I will be quiet.

- Show me what I have done wrong.
25 Honest words are powerful.
But your arguments prove nothing.
26 You criticize the things I say.
I am without hope. You treat my words like they are nothing.
27 Yes, you would even gamble to win the
things
that belong to children without fathers.
You would trade away your friend.
- 28 "But now, please study my face.
I would not lie to you
29 So now, change your mind.
Don't be unfair. Yes, think again.
I have done nothing wrong.
30 I am not lying.
There is no evil in my words.
I know right from wrong."

- 7 Job said, "Man has a hard struggle
on earth.
His life is like the life of a hired worker.
2 Man is like a slave that wants the cool shade after hard work on a hot day.
Man is like a hired worker that is waiting for payday. <sup>3</sup>So month after month have been given to me.
Those months are empty and full of frustration.
Night after night of suffering have been given to me.
4 When I lie down, I think,
'How much longer until it's time to get up?'
The night drags on.
I toss and turn until the sun comes up.
5 My body is clothed with worms and dirt.
My skin is broken and full of running sores.
6 "My days go by faster than a weaver's shuttle.*
My life ends without hope.
7 "God, remember that my life is only a breath.

weaver's shuttle The tool a person that makes cloth uses to pass the thread between the other threads.

My eyes will never see anything good again.

- <sup>1</sup> You see me now,
but you won't see me again.
You will look for me, but I will be gone. <sup>1</sup>A cloud disappears and is gone.

In the same way, the person that dies and is buried in the grave won't come back.

- <sup>10</sup> He will never come back to his house again.
His place won't know him any more.
- <sup>11</sup> "So I won't be quiet!
I will speak out!
My spirit is suffering!
I will complain because my soul is bitter.
- <sup>12</sup> O God, why do you guard me?
Am I the sea or a sea monster?
- <sup>13</sup> When it seems that my bed will give me comfort,
and my couch will give me rest and relief,
- <sup>14</sup> God, you scare me with dreams and make me afraid with visions.*
- <sup>15</sup> So I prefer to be choked to death than to live.
- <sup>16</sup> I hate my life;
I give up. I don't want to live forever.
Let me alone! My life means nothing!
- <sup>17</sup> "God, why is man so important to you?
Why should you honor him?
Why should you give man so much attention?
- <sup>18</sup> Why do you visit man every morning and test him every moment?
- <sup>19</sup> God, you never look away from me.
You don't let me alone even for a second.
- <sup>20</sup> If I have sinned, what have I done to you, Watcher of people?
God, why did you use me for target practice?
Did I become a problem for you? <sup>2</sup> Why don't you excuse my wrongs and forgive my sins?

Soon I will die and be in my grave.
Then you will search for me,
but I will be gone."

Bildad Speaks to Job

8 Then Bildad from the country of Shuah answered,

- <sup>2</sup> "How long will you talk like that?
Your words blow like a strong wind.
- <sup>3</sup> God is always fair.
God, All-Powerful God never changes the things that are right.
- <sup>4</sup> If your children sinned against God,
then he has punished them.
They paid for their sins.
- <sup>5</sup> But now Job, look to God and pray to God, All-Powerful.
- <sup>6</sup> If you are pure and good,
then he will come and help you,
and he will give your family and things
back to you.
- <sup>7</sup> Everything you lost will seem like nothing. Why?
Because your future will be very successful.
- <sup>8</sup> "Ask people that lived long ago,
and find out what their ancestors* learned.
- <sup>9</sup> Why? Because it seems like we were born only yesterday.
We know nothing.
Our days on earth are very short, like a shadow.
- <sup>10</sup> The people that lived long ago will teach you.
They will give you a message of wisdom
from their understanding.
- <sup>11</sup> Bildad said, "Can papyrus* grow tall in a dry land?
Can reeds grow without water?"

vision(s) Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
papyrus A plant used to make a kind of paper to write on. Its bark is also used to make coverings for boats and ships.

- 12 No. If the water dries up,
they will dry up quickly.
They will be too small to cut and use.
- 13 Any person that forgets God is like those reeds.
The person that forgets God,
won't have hope.
- 14 That person's trust is very weak.
That person trusts a spider's web.
- 15 That person leans on the spider's web,
but the web breaks.
He holds on to the spider's web,
but it won't support him.
- 16 He is like a plant that has plenty of water and plenty of sunshine.
The plant's branches spread all through the garden. 17 It wraps its roots around a pile of rocks and looks for a place to grow in the rocks.
- 18 But when the plant is torn from its place,
no one will know it was there.
That garden will say, 'I never saw you before.'
- 19 So, that is all the happiness the plant has.
And then other plants grow from that dirt.
- 20 "But God won't leave an innocent person.
He won't help bad people.
- 21 God will still fill your mouth with laughter
and your lips with happy shouts.
- 22 But God will shame your enemies.
And he will destroy the homes of those that hate you."

Job Answers Bildad

- 9 Then Job answered:
24 "Yes, I know what you say is true.
But how can man be right with God?
3 A person can't argue with God!
God can ask 1,000 questions and no person can answer even one!
- 4 God's wisdom is deep and his power is great.
No person can fight God and not be hurt.

- 5 God moves mountains and they don't know it.
He turns mountains over when he is angry.
- 6 God sends earthquakes to shake the earth.
God makes the earth's foundations shake.
- 7 God can speak to the sun,
and make it not rise.
He can lock up the stars, so they don't shine.
- 8 God alone made the skies.
He walks on the ocean waves.
- 9 He is the One that made the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades.*
He made the planets that cross the southern sky.*
- 10 God does wonderful things that people can't understand.
There is no end to God's great miracles.
- 11 When God goes past me,
I can't see him.
When God goes by, I can't understand his greatness.
- 12 If God takes away, no one can stop him.
No one can say to him, 'What are you doing?'
- 13 God won't hold his anger back.
Even the sea monster's helpers* are afraid of God."
- 14 Job also said, "So I can't argue with God.
I don't know the words to say to argue with him.
- 15 I, Job, am innocent,
but I can't give him an answer.
All I can do is beg my Judge (God) for mercy.

Bear ... Pleiades These are names of well-known constellations (groups of stars) in the night sky.

planets ... sky Literally, "Rooms of the South," or "Rooms of Teman." This might be the planets or it might be some star groups, possibly the twelve constellations of the Zodiac. In places north of the equator, these seem to move across the southern sky.

sea monster's helpers Literally, "Rahab's helpers." Rahab is the story name for a sea monster. People thought Rahab was a symbol for anything evil.

- 16 Even if I called him, and he answered,
I don't think God would listen to me.
- 17 God will just send storms to crush me.
He will just give me more wounds for no reason.
- 18 God won't let me catch my breath again.
He will give me more trouble.
- 19 I can't defeat God.
God is powerful!
I can't make God go to court and be fair to me.
Who will force God to come to court?
- 20 I, Job, am innocent, but the things I say make me seem guilty.
So if I am innocent,
my mouth announces me guilty.
- 21 "I am innocent,
but I don't care about myself.
I hate my own life.
- 22 Life is just the same thing,
it does not matter.
So I think, 'God destroys the innocent people,
and the evil people.'
- 23 When something terrible happens and an innocent person dies suddenly,
God laughs at his suffering.
- 24 When land is given to evil people,
God will make the judges blind.
If God didn't do this,
then who did?
- 25 "My days go faster than a runner.
My days fly away and there is no happiness in them.
- 26 My days go by quickly like the papyrus* boats.
My days are swift like eagles that fly down on the animals they catch.
- 27 If I say, 'I won't complain.
I will forget my pain, and change my face and smile,'<sup>28</sup> I am still afraid of all my suffering.
Why?

- Because I know that God still says I am guilty!
- 29 I am already judged guilty.
So why should I keep trying? I say,
'Forget it!'
- 30 Even if I did wash myself with snow and make my hands clean with soap,
- 31 God would push me into a slime pit.*
Then even my clothes would hate me.
- 32 "God is not a man like me.
That is why I can't answer him.
We can't meet each other in court.
- 33 I wish there were someone to stand between us.*
I wish there were someone to judge both of us in a fair way.
- 34 I wish there were someone to take God's punishing stick away.
Then God would not scare me any more.
- 35 Then I could say what I want to say without being afraid of God.
But now I can't do that."

- 10 Job said,
"I hate my own life.
So I will complain freely.
My soul is very bitter,
so now I will speak.
- 2 I will say to God:
'Don't blame me!
Tell me, what have I done wrong?
What do you have against me?
- 3 God, are you happy that you are mean to me?
It seems that you don't care about what you made.
Are you happy with the plans that bad people make?
- 4 God, do you have human eyes?
Do you see things like people do?
- 5 The days of your life are not short like ours.
Your years are not short like the years of a man.

papyrus A plant used to make a kind of paper to write on. Its bark is also used to make coverings for boats and ships.

slime pit The grave, a place where bodies rot.
someone ... between us Literally a "mediator" or an "umpire." Someone to listen to both people and then help them come to an agreement.

- 6 You look for my wrong and search for my sin.
- 7 But you know I am innocent, but no one can save me from your
power!
- 8“God, your hands made me and shaped my body.
But now you are destroying me!
- 9 Remember God, that you made me like clay.
But now why are you changing me to dirt
again?
- 10 You pour me out like milk.
You spin me and change me like someone making cheese.
- 11 You put me together with bones and muscles.
And then you clothed me with skin and flesh.
- 12 You gave me life and were very kind to
me.
You cared for me and watched over my spirit.
- 13“But this is what you hid in your heart, and I know this is what you secretly planned in your heart.
Yes, I know this is what was in your mind:
- 14 If I sinned, you would be watching me, so you could punish me for doing
wrong.
- 15 When I sin, I am guilty and it will be very bad for me.
But even if I am innocent, I can't lift up my head.
Why?
Because I am full of shame and pain.
- 16 If I have any success and feel proud you will hunt me like a person hunts a lion.
You will again show your power against
me.
- 17 You will always have someone to witness
against me.
Your anger will become worse against
me.

You will bring new armies against me.

- 18“So, God, why did you let me be born?
I wish I could have died before anyone saw me.
- 19 I wish I never was a person.
I wish I had been carried from my mother's womb straight to the grave.
- 20 My life is almost finished.
So leave me alone!
Let me enjoy the little time I have left before I go to the place where no one comes back—to the place of darkness and death.
- 21 Let me enjoy the little time I have left,
before I go to the place that no one can see—that is a place of darkness, shadows, and confusion.
That is, a place where even the light is darkness.”

Zophar Speaks to Job

11 Then Zophar from the country of Naamah answered Job:

- 2 “This flood of words should be answered!
Does all this talking make Job right?
No!
- 3 Job, do you think we don't have an answer for you?
Do you think no one will warn you when you laugh at God?
- 4 Job, you say to God, ‘My beliefs are right,
and you can see I am pure.’
- 5 Job, I wish that God would answer you and tell you that you are wrong.
- 6 Then God could tell you the secrets about wisdom.
And he would tell you that truly,
every story has two sides.
That is true wisdom!
Job, know this: God is punishing you less than he really should punish you.
- 7 “Job, can you understand God's secret truths?

You know you can't understand the limits and boundaries that show God's greatness and power.

- 8 Those limits are higher than the sky!
So, Job, you can't understand!
Those limits are deeper than the depths of the grave.
But you can't understand that!
- 9 Those limits measure longer than the earth and wider than the sea.
- 10 "If God arrests you,
and brings you to court,
no person can stop him.
- 11 Truly, God knows who is worthless.
When God sees evil, he remembers it.
- 12 But a stupid person will never become wise,
same as a wild donkey can't give birth to a man.
- 13 "But Job, you should make your heart
ready to serve only God, and you should lift up your hands to
him.
- 14 You should put away the sin
that is in your home.
Don't let evil live in your tent.
- 15 Then surely you can look up to God without shame.
You will stand strong and not be afraid.
- 16 Job, then you can forget your trouble.
You will remember your troubles like they were waters that have passed on by.
- 17 Your life will be brighter than the sunshine at noon.
Life's darkest hours will shine like the morning sun.
- 18 Job, you will be safe, because there is hope.
God will care for you and give you rest.
- 19 You will lie down to rest, and no one will bother you or hurt you.
And many people will ask you to help
them.
- 20 But the bad people will look for help,

but there will be no hope.
They will not be able to escape their troubles.
Their only hope is that they will die."

Job Answers Zophar

- 12 Then Job answered Zophar:
"Without doubt, you think you are
the only wise people.
You think when you die,
wisdom will be gone with you.
- 3 But my mind is as good as yours.
I am not lower than you.
Other people know this is true.
- 4 Job said, "My friends laugh at me now.
Yes, I prayed to God,
and he answered me.
But I am still laughed at,
even though I am good and innocent.
- 5 People that don't have trouble make fun of people that have trouble.
Those people hit a man that is falling down.
- 6 Robbers' tents are not bothered.
Those that make God angry live in peace.
Their only god is their own strength.
- 7 "But ask the animals,
they will teach you.
Or ask the birds of the air,
they will tell you.
- 8 Or speak to the earth,
it will teach you.
Or let the fish in the sea tell you their wisdom.
- 9 Everyone knows the Lord made those things.
- 10 Every animal that lives,
and every person that breathes,
is under God's power.
- 11 But just like the tongue enjoys tasting
food,
the ears enjoy hearing words.
- 12 Old people have wisdom, too.
Long life brings understanding."

<sup>13</sup> Job also said, "Wisdom and power belong to God.

Good advice and understanding are his.

<sup>14</sup> If God tears down anything, people can't build it again.

If God puts a person in prison, people can't free the person.

<sup>15</sup> If God holds back the rain, the earth will dry up.

If God lets the rain loose, it will flood the earth.

<sup>16</sup> God is strong and always wins.

Both the person that fools and the person that is fooled belong to God!

Then God puts a belt on those kings.

He makes strong and powerful men humble.

He takes away the strength of the rulers.*

<sup>22</sup> God shows secret truths from the deep darkness.

He sends light into places that are dark as death.

<sup>23</sup> God makes nations become big and powerful, and then he destroys them.

He makes nations grow large, then he scatters their people.

<sup>24</sup> God makes earth's leaders foolish and without understanding.

He sends them to wander through a desert that has no road.

<sup>25</sup> Those leaders reach out in darkness. They don't have any light.

God makes them walk like people who are drunk.

13 Job said, "My eyes have seen all this before.

I have already heard everything you say. I understand it all.

<sup>2</sup> I know as much as you do. I am not less than you.

<sup>3</sup> But I don't want to argue with you. I want to speak to God, All-Powerful.

I want to argue with God about my troubles.

<sup>4</sup> But you three men try to cover up your ignorance with lies.

You are like worthless doctors that can't heal anyone.

<sup>5</sup> I wish you would be completely silent. That would be the wisest thing you could do.

<sup>7</sup> Will you speak lies for God? Do you really believe your lies are what God wants you to say?

<sup>8</sup> Are you trying to defend God against me? Are you going to defend God in court?

<sup>9</sup> If God checked you very closely, would he find anything good?

Do you really think you can fool God the same as you fool people?

<sup>10</sup> God would surely scold you if you secretly chose a person's side in court.

Your arguments are as weak as clay.

<sup>13</sup> "Be quiet and let me talk! Then let what must happen to me, happen.

<sup>14</sup> I put myself in danger, and take my life in my own hands.

<sup>15</sup> Even if God kills me, I will hope in him.

takes away ... rulers Literally, "unties the belt of the strong."

I will defend my ways to his face.
 16 But, maybe God will save me because I am bold in front of him.
 No bad person would dare
 meet God face to face.
 17 Listen carefully to what I say.
 Let your ears hear me explain.
 18 I am ready now to defend myself.
 I know I will be shown to be right. 19 No person can prove I am wrong.
 If any person could do that,
 I will be quiet and die.
 20 "God, just give me two things,
 and then I won't hide from you:
 21 Stop punishing me,
 and stop scaring me with your terrors.
 22 Then call to me and I will answer you.
 Or let me speak, and you answer me.
 23 How many sins have I done?
 What have I done wrong?
 Show me my sins and my wrongs.
 24 God, why do you avoid me,
 and treat me like your enemy?
 25 Will you scare me?
 I (Job) am only a leaf that the wind blows.
 You are attacking a little piece of dry straw!
 26 "God," you say bitter things against me.
 You make me suffer from the sins
 I did when I was young.
 27 You put chains on my feet.
 You keep close watch on every step I take.
 You limit my footsteps.
 28 "So I waste away like a rotten thing, like a piece of clothing eaten by moths."

14 Job said, "We all are born to have
 a life that is short and full of trouble.
 2 Man's life is like a flower.
 He grows quickly, and then dies away.
 Man's life is like a shadow that is there a short time, and does not stay.
 3 God, will you watch a man?

Will you bring him in front of you to judge him?
 4 Who can get something clean from something that is dirty?
 No one!
 5 Man's life is limited.
 God, you decided the number of man's months.
 You put limits that man can't change.
 6 So God, look away from man.
 Leave him alone.
 Let him enjoy his hard life until his time is finished.
 7 "But, there is hope for a tree.
 If it is cut down, it can grow again.
 It will keep sending out new branches.
 8 Its roots might grow old in the ground and its stump die in the dirt,
 9 but with water it will give new growths.
 It will grow branches like a plant.
 10 But man dies,
 and his body is buried.
 When man dies, he is gone.
 11 Just as water disappears from the sea,
 and a river becomes low and dries up, 12 in the same way,
 when a person dies,
 he lies down and does not get up again.
 People that die won't wake up or stop sleeping
 until the skies disappear.
 13 "I (Job) wish you would hide me in my
 grave.
 I wish you would hide me there,
 until your anger is gone.
 Then you can pick a time to remember
 me.
 14 If a person dies, will he live again?
 I will wait,
 and I will struggle hard until I am free.
 15 God, you will call me and I (Job) will answer you.
 You made me, and you will want me.
 16 Then you will watch every step I take.
 But you won't remember the sins I have done.

- <sup>17</sup> I wish my sins were put away,
as if they were tied up in a bag.
Then you will cover up my sin.
- <sup>18</sup> “Just like a mountain falls and collapses, and a rock is moved from its place, <sup>19</sup> and water washes over stones and wears them out,
and water washes away the dirt on the
ground,
in the same way, God,
you destroy a person’s hope.
- <sup>20</sup> You defeat man once and you are finished.
Then man is gone.
You change his face to the look of death,
and send him away forever.
- <sup>21</sup> If his sons are honored,
he never knows it.
If his sons do wrong,
he never sees it.
- <sup>22</sup> That man only feels the pain in his own body,
and he cries loudly only for himself.”

Eliphaz Answers Job

15 Then Eliphaz from the town of Teman answered Job:

- <sup>1</sup> “Job, if you were really wise, you would not answer with empty words.
Do you think a wise man would answer like the hot east wind?
- <sup>3</sup> Do you think a wise man would argue with worthless words and with speeches that mean nothing?
- <sup>4</sup> Job, if you had your way, no person would respect God and pray to him.
- <sup>5</sup> The things you say clearly show your sin.
Job, you are trying to hide your sin
by using clever words.
- <sup>6</sup> I don’t need to prove to you that you are wrong. Why?
The things you say with your own mouth

- show that you are wrong.
Your own lips speak against you.
- <sup>7</sup> “Job, do you think you were the first person ever to be born?
Were you born before the hills were made?
- <sup>8</sup> Did you listen to God’s secret plans?
Do you think you are the only wise person?
- <sup>9</sup> Job, we know more than you know.
We understand things that you don’t understand.
- <sup>10</sup> The gray-haired men and the old people agree with us.
Yes, even people older than your father are on our side.
- <sup>11</sup> God tries to comfort you,
but that is not enough for you.
We have spoken God’s message to you in a gentle way.
- <sup>12</sup> Job, why have you truly wanted to turn away?
Why do you open your eyes wide in anger against us?
- <sup>13</sup> You are against God
when you say these angry words.
- <sup>14</sup> “A man can’t really be pure.
Man is born from a woman and lives on the earth;
he can’t be right with God.
- <sup>15</sup> God does not even trust his angels.* Even the heavens where the angels live are not pure.
- <sup>16</sup> Man is even worse.
Man is dirty and ruined.
He drinks up evil like water.
- <sup>17</sup> “Listen to me Job,
and I will explain it to you.
I will tell you what I know.
- <sup>18</sup> I will tell you the things wise men have told me.
The wise men’s ancestors* told them
these things.

angels Literally, “holy ones.”

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Those wise men didn't hide any secrets
from me.

- 19 The country was given only to their ancestors. No stranger was in their country to bother them.
- 20 The evil person will suffer hurt all his life.
The cruel person will suffer through all the years saved up for him.
- 21 Terrible sounds will be in his ears.
And the enemy will attack him
when he thinks he is safe.
- 22 The evil person is very frustrated, and there is no hope for him to escape the darkness.
There is a sword somewhere that is waiting to kill him.
- 23 He wanders here and there, but his body will be food for the vultures.
He knows that his death*
is very near.
- 24 Worry and suffering make him afraid.
These things attack him like a king ready to destroy him.
- 25 Why? Because the evil person shakes his fist at God.
The evil person refuses to obey God.
The evil person tries to be strong against God, All-Powerful.
- 26 That man is very stubborn.
The evil person tries to attack God with a thick, strong shield.
- 27 "The evil person's face is covered with fat.
His waist is fat with flesh.
But he will live in towns that are ruined.
The evil person will live in houses that no person lives in,
Houses that, are weak and ruined.
- 29 The evil person won't be rich for long.
His wealth won't last.
His crops won't grow large.
- 30 The evil person won't escape the darkness.

- He will be like a tree
that has its branches burned with fire.
God's breath will carry the evil person
away.
- 31 The evil person should not fool himself
when he trust worthless things.
Why? He will get nothing.
- 32 Before his life is over,
the evil person will be old and dried up.
He will be like a dried branch,
never to be green again.
- 33 The evil person will be like a vine that loses its grapes that are not yet ripe.
That person will be like an olive tree that loses its flowers.
- 34 Why? Because people without God will be empty.
People that love money will have their homes destroyed with fire.
- 35 They plan trouble and do evil things.
They plan ways to fool people."

- 16 Then Job answered:
24"I have already heard these things before.
You three give me trouble, not comfort.
- 3 Your long talking never ends!
Why do you continue arguing?
- 4 I also could say the same things you say,
if you had my troubles.
I could say wise things against you and shake my head at you.
- 5 But I could encourage you and give you hope with the things I say.
- 6 "But nothing I say
can make my pain go away.
But if I don't speak,
I have no comfort.
- 7 Truly, God, you took away my strength.
You destroyed my whole family.
- 8 You tied me up,
and everyone can see.
My body is sick, I look terrible,

- and people think that means I am guilty.
- 9 God attacks me,
he is angry at me and tears my body apart.
God grinds his teeth against me.
My enemy's eyes look at me with hate.
- 10 People laugh at me.
They all agree to crowd around me
and slap my face.
- 11 God has given me to evil people.
- 12 Everything was fine with me,
but then God crushed me!
Yes, he took me by the neck and broke me into pieces!
God is using me for target practice.
- 13 God's archers* are all around me.
He shoots arrows in my kidneys.
He shows no mercy.
He spills my gall* on the ground.
- 14 Again and again God attacks me.
He runs at me like a soldier in battle.
- 15 "I (Job) am very sad,
so I wear clothes made from sackcloth.*
I sit here in the dust and ashes, and I feel defeated.
- 16 My face is red from crying.
Deep shadows are like rings around my eyes.
- 17 I have never done any cruel crime.
I pray from my heart.
- 18 "Earth, don't hide the wrong things done to me.
Don't let my begging for fairness be stopped.
- 19 Even now, maybe there is someone in heaven
that is on my side.
There is someone on high that supports and defends me.

archers Soldiers that use bows and arrows in war.

gall When the gall bladder is torn open, gall or bile comes out. The gall bladder is a pouch on the liver where bile or gall is stored. Spilling gall means having to endure something bitter and painful.

sackcloth The rough cloth that shows a person is sad or upset.

- 20 My friends are against me.
But my eyes pour out tears to God.
- 21 I want a person to beg with God for me,
like a man begs for his friend.
- 22 "Only a few years will pass until I go where I won't come back (death).

- 17 "My spirit is broken;
I am ready to give up.
My life is almost gone,
the grave is waiting for me.
- 2 People stand around me
and laugh at me.
I watch them as they tease and insult me.
- 3 "God, show me (Job) that you really support me.
No other person will support me.
- 4 You have closed my friends' minds and they don't understand me.
Please don't let them win.
- 5 You know what people say,
'A man helps his friends and neglects his own children.'*
And now my friends have turned against
me.
- 6 "God has made my name (Job) a bad word to everyone.
People spit in my face.
- 7 My eyes have become almost blind
because I am very sad and in great pain.
My whole body has become very thin,
like a shadow.
- 8 Good people are upset about this.
Innocent people are upset against people that don't care about God.
- 9 But good people will continue to believe that they are right.
Those that are innocent will become stronger.
- 10 "But come on, all of you, try again to show me that it is all my fault.

- None of you are wise.
 11 My life is passing away.
 My plans are destroyed.
 My hope is gone.
 12 But my friends think night is day.
 When it is dark they say,
 'Light is near!'
 13 If the only home I hope for
 is the grave,
 if I make my bed in darkness,
 14 if I say to evil, 'You are my father,' and to the worm, 'My mother,' or 'My sister,'
 15 then I have no hope.
 No person can see any hope for me.
 16 My three friends will go down to death's gates when we go down together into the dirt."

Bildad Answers Job

18 Then Bildad, from the country of Shuah, answered:

- 2 "Job, when will you stop all this talking?
 You should be quiet and listen.
 Then we can talk.
 3 Why do you think we are stupid like cows?
 4 Job, you are only hurting yourself with your anger.
 Should people leave the earth just for
 you?
 Do you think God will move mountains
 just to satisfy you?
 5 "Yes, the evil person's light will go out.
 His fire will stop burning.
 6 The light in his house will become dark.
 The lamp next to him will go out.
 7 That person's steps won't be strong and fast again.
 But he will walk slowly and be weak.
 His own evil plans will make him fall.
 8 His own feet will throw him into a trapping net.
 He will walk into a trap and be stuck.

- 9 A trap will catch his heel.
 A trap will hold him tight.
 10 A rope will be hidden in the ground for
 him.
 A trap is waiting in his path.
 11 Terror is waiting for him all around.
 Fears will follow every step he takes.
 12 Bad troubles are hungry for him.
 Ruin and disaster are ready for him
 when he falls.
 13 Terrible sickness will eat away parts of his skin.
 It will rot his arms and legs.
 14 The evil person will be taken away from the safety of his house, and he will be marched off to meet
 the king of terrors.
 15 He will have nothing left in his house.
 Why? Burning sulfur will be scattered all through his home.
 16 His roots below will dry up,
 and his branches above will die.
 17 People on earth won't remember him.
 No person remembers him anymore.
 18 People will push him away from light.
 He will be pushed into darkness.
 They will chase him out of the world.
 19 He will have no children or descendants* from his people.
 There will be no people still living in his home.
 20 People living in the west will be shocked when they hear what happened to the evil person.
 People living in the east will be numb with terror.
 21 It is true, this is what will happen to the evil person's home.
 This is what will happen to the person that does not care about God!"

Job Answers

19 Then Job answered:
 21 "How long will you hurt me

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

and break me with words?
 3 You have insulted me ten times now.
 You show no shame when you attack me!
 4 Even if I have sinned,
 it is my problem.
 It does not hurt you.
 5 You just want to make yourselves look better than me.
 You say that my troubles are my own fault.
 6 But it is God that has done wrong to me.
 He has pulled his trapping net around me.
 7 "I shout, 'Wrong has been done to me!'
 I get no answer.
 Even if I call loudly for help,
 no person hears my cry for fairness.
 8 God has blocked my way
 so I can't go through.
 He has hidden my path in darkness.
 9 God has taken away my wealth.
 He has taken away the crown from my head.
 10 God breaks me down from side to side until I am dead.
 He takes away my hope
 like a tree is taken out with its roots.
 11 God's anger burns against me.
 He calls me his enemy. <sup>12</sup>God sends his army to attack me.
 They build attack towers around me.
 They camp around my tent.
 13 "God has made my brothers hate me.
 I am a stranger to all my friends.
 14 My relatives have left me.
 My friends have forgotten me.
 15 Visitors in my home and my girl servants
 look at me like I am a stranger and a foreigner.
 16 I call for my servant,
 but he does not answer.
 Even if I beg for help,
 my servant will not answer.
 17 My wife hates the smell of my breath.
 My own brothers hate me.
 18 Even little children make fun of me.

When I come near them,
 they talk against me.
 19 All my close friends hate me.
 Even the people I love have turned
 against me.
 20 I am so thin,
 my skin hangs loose on my bones.
 I have little life left in me.
 21 "Pity me, my friends, pity me!
 Why? God's hand touched me and he gave me trouble.
 22 Why do you persecute me like God does?
 Why are you never satisfied with hurting
 me?
 23 "I (Job) wish someone would remember what I say,
 and write it in a book.
 I wish the things I say were written on a scroll.
 24 I wish the things I say were carved with an iron tool on lead or scratched on a rock
 so they would last forever.
 25 I know there is someone to defend me.
 I know in the end he will stand up for me.
 26 After my skin has been destroyed,
 after I leave this body,
 I know I will still see God.
 27 I will see God
 with my own eyes.
 It will be God Himself, and no one else!
 My heart becomes weak in me!
 28 "Maybe you will say,
 'We will bother Job.
 We will find a reason to blame him!'
 29 But you yourselves should be afraid of the sword!
 Why?
 God's anger against sin will bring punishment.
 God will use the sword to punish you.
 Then you will know that there is judgment."

Zophar Answers

20 Then Zophar, from the country of Naamah, answered:

- <sup>2</sup> “Job, you have troubled thoughts.
So I must answer you.
I must hurry to tell you what I am thinking.
- <sup>3</sup> Your answers to what we have said insults us!
But I am wise, I know how to answer you.
- <sup>4</sup> “You know that since long ago,
from the time Adam was first put on the earth,
- <sup>5</sup> that an evil person’s joy doesn’t last long.
The person that doesn’t care about God has joy only for a short time.
- <sup>6</sup> Maybe the evil person’s pride will reach up to the sky,
and his head will touch the clouds.
- <sup>7</sup> But he will be gone forever,
like his own body waste.
People who know him will say,
‘Where is he?’
- <sup>8</sup> He will fly away like a dream quickly flies away.
No person will see him again, he will be gone.
He will be chased away like a vision* at night.
- <sup>9</sup> The people that saw him,
won’t see him again.
His family will never look at him again.
- <sup>10</sup> The evil person’s children will give back what he took from the poor.
The evil person’s own hands must give back his wealth.
- <sup>11</sup> When he was young his body was strong,
but soon it will become dirt.
- <sup>12</sup> “Evil will taste sweet

- in the bad person’s mouth.
He will hide it under his tongue.
- <sup>13</sup> The bad person will hold on to this evil.
He will hate to let it go.
So he will keep it in his mouth.
- <sup>14</sup> But his food will become poison
in his stomach.
It will become like bitter poison inside him,
like a snake’s poison.
- <sup>15</sup> The evil man has swallowed riches.
But he will vomit them out.
Yes, God will make the evil person’s stomach vomit them out.
- <sup>16</sup> The evil person will suck the poison from snakes.
The snake’s fangs will kill him.
- <sup>17</sup> Then the evil person won’t enjoy seeing the rivers that flow with honey and cream.
- <sup>18</sup> The evil person will be forced to give back his profits.
He won’t be permitted to enjoy the things he worked for.
- <sup>19</sup> Why? The evil person didn’t treat poor people right.
He didn’t care about them, and he took their things.
He took houses someone else built.
- <sup>20</sup> “The evil person is never satisfied.
His wealth can’t save him.
- <sup>21</sup> When he eats,
there is nothing left.
His success won’t continue.
- <sup>22</sup> While the evil person has plenty,
he will become pressed down with
trouble.
His problems will come down on him!
- <sup>23</sup> When the evil person has eaten all he wants,
God will throw his burning anger against that person.
God will rain punishment down on the evil person.
- <sup>24</sup> Maybe the evil person will run away from an iron sword.

vision Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.

- But a bronze arrow will shoot him down.
 25 The bronze arrow will go all the way through his body, and stick out from his back.
 The arrow's shining point will pierce his liver,
 and he will be shocked with terror.
 26 All his treasures will be destroyed.
 A fire that was not started by any person will destroy him.
 The fire will destroy what is left in his house.
 27 Heaven will prove that the evil person is guilty.
 The earth will witness against him.
 28 Everything in his house will be carried away in the flood of God's anger.
 29 That is what God plans to do to evil
 people.
 That is what God plans to give them."

Job Answers

- 21 Then Job answered:
 21 "Listen to what I say.
 Let your listening be the comfort you give me.
 3 Be patient while I speak.
 Then after I have finished speaking,
 you may make fun of me.
 4 "I am not complaining against people.
 There is a good reason
 why I am not patient.
 5 Look at me and be shocked.
 Put your hand over your mouth,
 and stare at me in shock!
 6 When I think about what happened to me
 I feel afraid, and my body shakes!
 7 Why do evil people live long lives?
 Why do they grow old and become successful?
 8 Evil people see their children grow with
 them.
 Evil people live to see their grandchildren.
 9 Their homes are safe

- and they are not afraid.
 God does not use his rod to punish evil people.
 10 Their bulls never fail to mate.
 Their cows have baby calves and the baby calves never die
 when they are born.
 11 Evil people send their children out to play like lambs.
 Their children dance around.
 12 They sing and dance to the sound of harps and flutes.
 13 Evil people enjoy success
 during their lives.
 Then they die and go to their grave without suffering.
 14 But evil people say to God,
 'Leave us alone!
 We don't care what you want us to do!
 15 And the evil people say,
 'Who is God, All-Powerful?
 We don't need to serve him!
 It won't help to pray to him!'
 16 "Evil people think their success comes from themselves,
 but I can't accept their ideas.
 17 But, does it happen often that the evil people's light is blown out?
 How often does trouble come to the evil people?
 Does God become angry at them and punish them?
 18 Does God blow the evil people away,
 like the wind blows straw,
 and the strong winds blow
 the grain husks?
 19 But you say, 'God punishes a child for his father's sins.'
 No! Let God punish the evil person himself.
 Then that evil person will know he is being punished for his own sins!
 20 Let the sinner see his own punishment.
 He will feel the anger of God,
 All-Powerful.
 21 When the evil person's months of life are finished, and he is dead, he won't care about the family he leaves behind.

- <sup>22</sup> "No person can teach knowledge to God.
God judges even people in high places.
<sup>23</sup> One person dies after a full and successful life.
He lived a life completely safe and comfortable.
<sup>24</sup> His body was well fed and his bones were still fresh with marrow.*
<sup>25</sup> But another person dies
after a hard life, with a bitter soul.
He never enjoyed anything good.
<sup>26</sup> These two people lie together in the dirt.
The worms will cover them both.
<sup>27</sup> "But, I know what you are thinking, and I know you have plans to do wrong
to me.
<sup>28</sup> You say this about me:
'Where is this great man's house now?
Where is the house the evil person lived in?'
<sup>29</sup> But you never asked people that travel.
You have not accepted their stories <sup>30</sup> that the evil person is always saved in the day God punishes in his anger.
<sup>31</sup> There is no person to criticize the evil person
to his face about what he did.
No person punishes him for the evil he did.
<sup>32</sup> When the evil person is carried to the grave,
a guard stands near his grave.
<sup>33</sup> The soil in the valley will be sweet for that evil person.
Thousands will join in his funeral march.
<sup>34</sup> "So you can't comfort me with your empty words.
Your answers are still lies!"

Eliphaz Answers

22 Then Eliphaz, from the city of Teman
answered:

- <sup>2</sup> "No person can help God.
Even a very wise person can't be useful to God.
<sup>3</sup> Even if you did what was right,
that would not give pleasure to God,
All-Powerful.
If you were always good,
God would not gain anything.
<sup>4</sup> Job, why does God punish and blame
you?
It is not because you are faithful.
<sup>5</sup> No, it is because you have sinned much.
Job, your sins never stop!
<sup>6</sup> Job, you forced your brothers to pay you back the money they owe
you.
You did that for no reason.
You took clothes from people and left them with nothing to wear.
<sup>7</sup> You didn't give water to tired people.
You didn't give food to hungry people.
<sup>8</sup> Job, you didn't help those people, even though you were a powerful and wealthy man.
You owned much land, and you were an honored man.
<sup>9</sup> But you sent widows*
away
without giving them anything.
Job, you robbed and treated badly orphan
children.
<sup>10</sup> That is why traps are all around you,
and sudden trouble makes you afraid.
<sup>11</sup> That is why it is so dark you can't see,
and why a flood of water covers you.
<sup>12</sup> "God lives in the highest part of heaven.
He looks down on the highest stars.
You can see how high the stars are.
<sup>13</sup> But Job, you say,

marrow The fat cells and blood cells that fill a bone.

widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

- 'God knows nothing!
How can God judge us through the dark clouds?
- 14 Clouds cover him,
so that he can't see us while he walks in the highest part of heaven.'
- 15 Job, you are walking on the old path that evil people walk on.
- 16 Evil people were taken away
before it was their time to die.
They were washed away by a flood.
- 17 Those are the people that say to God,
'Leave us alone!
'God, All-Powerful can't do anything to
us!'
- 18 But God made those people successful and wealthy.
I can't accept the way evil people think.
- 19 "Good people are happy when they see evil people ruined.
Innocent people laugh at evil people, and
say,
- 20 "Truly our enemies are destroyed!
Fire burns up their wealth!"
- 21 "Now, Job, give yourself to God.
Then you will have peace with him.
If you do this, you will be blessed and successful.
- 22 Accept his teaching.
Save his words in your heart.
- 23 Job, if you come back to God, All-Powerful,
you will be restored.
You must take evil far away from your house.
- 24 You must throw your gold in the dirt, and throw your gold from Ophir to the rocks in the rivers.
- 25 Then God, All-Powerful will be your gold and silver for you.
- 26 Then you will be very happy and find delight in God, All-Powerful.
You will trust in God.
- 27 When you pray to him, he will hear you.
You will do what you promised him you would do.

- 28 You will succeed in everything you do,
and light will shine on your path.
- 29 God makes proud people ashamed.
But God will save humble people.
- 30 God will save even the person that is not innocent.
He will be saved through the cleanness of your hands."

Job Answers

- 23 Then Job answered:
"I still complain bitterly today.
God is punishing me hard,
so I continue complaining.
- 3 I wish I knew where to find God.
I wish I knew how to go to God!
- 4 I would explain to God my story.
My mouth would be full of arguments to show I am innocent.
- 5 I want to know how God would answer my arguments.
Then I would understand God's answers.
- 6 Would God be against me with great
power?
No, he would listen to me!
- 7 There, in front of God,
a good person could explain his story to
God.
Then I would be saved forever from my Judge!
- 8 "But if I go to the east,
God is not there.
If I go to the west,
I still don't see God.
- 9 When God is working in the north,
I don't see him.
When God turns to the south,
I still don't see him.
- 10 But God knows every step I take.
When he has finished testing me,
He will see that there is nothing dirty in
me.
He will see that I am like pure gold.
- 11 I have always walked in the way God wants.
I have never turned away from following God's way.

<sup>12</sup> I always do the things God commands.
I love the words from God's mouth
more than I love my food.

<sup>13</sup> "But God never changes.
No person can stand against him.
God does anything he wants.

<sup>14</sup> God will do what he planned against me.
He has many other plans for me.

<sup>15</sup> That is why I am afraid
as I live in front of God.
When I think of all these things,
I am afraid of God.

<sup>16</sup> God makes my heart weak,
and I lose my courage.
(God, All-Powerful makes me afraid.

<sup>17</sup> But the darkness does not make me be quiet.
Thick darkness covers my face.

24 "Why won't (God, All-Powerful decide on a time for judging?
Why do people that obey God have to wait

for that time of judging for nothing?
<sup>2</sup> People move the property markers to get more of their neighbor's land.
People steal flocks and lead them to other grasslands.

<sup>3</sup> They steal the donkey that belongs to children without parents.
They take the widow's* cow away from her until she pays what she owes them.

<sup>4</sup> They force the people to wander from place to place without a home.
All the poor people are forced to hide from these evil people.

<sup>5</sup> The poor people are like wild donkeys that search in the desert for food.
The desert gives food for poor people and their children.

<sup>6</sup> The poor people have to gather hay and straw in fields they don't own anymore.

They pick up fruit from evil people's grape fields.

<sup>7</sup> Poor people must spend the night without clothes.

They have nothing to cover themselves in the cold.

<sup>8</sup> They are wet from rain in the mountains.
They must stay very close to large rocks because they have nothing to protect them from the weather.

<sup>9</sup> Evil people take a child that has no father from the mother.

They take the poor person's child.
Evil people make the child a slave to pay for what the poor person owes.

<sup>10</sup> The poor people have no clothes.
So they are naked while they work.
They carry the sheaves*
for the evil people.

But the poor people still go hungry.

<sup>11</sup> The poor people press out the olive oil.
They walk over the winepress.* But they are still thirsty.

<sup>12</sup> The sad sounds the dying people make,
are heard in the city.
The hurt people cry out for help.
But God does not listen.

<sup>13</sup> "There are people that rebel against the light.
They don't want to know what God wants them to do.

They don't walk in God's way.

<sup>14</sup> The murderer gets up early in the morning,
and kills the poor and needy people.
And at night he becomes a thief.

<sup>15</sup> The person that does adultery,* waits for the night to come.
He thinks, 'No person will see me.'
So he covers his face.

<sup>16</sup> Evil people break into houses at night when it is dark.

sheaves Stacks of grain.

winepress A place for squeezing the juice from grapes.
Sometimes this was only a shallow hole in a large rock in the ground.

adultery Breaking the marriage promise by sexual sin.

widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

But in the day, they hide in their own houses.

They avoid the light.

<sup>17</sup> Darkness is like morning for those evil people.

They are friends with the terrors of darkness.

<sup>18</sup> "But the evil people are taken away like foam on the flood water.

The land they own is cursed,* so they don't go to work in the grape fields to gather the grapes.

<sup>19</sup> Hot and dry weather takes away the snow.

In the same way, the evil people will be taken away to the grave.

<sup>20</sup> Even his own mother will forget the evil person when he is dead.

Worms eat the evil person's body. He will not be remembered any more. Evil people are destroyed like a fallen tree.

<sup>21</sup> Evil people do wrong things to the woman that can't have children. They hurt the woman that has no children.

They do not show kindness to the widow.*

The strong people become powerful, but they can't be sure of their own lives.

<sup>23</sup> Maybe God will let the powerful people be safe for a short time.

But God is always watching them.

<sup>24</sup> For a short time the bad people are successful.

Then they are gone.

They are gathered up like all other people.

They die like heads of grain that are cut down.

<sup>25</sup> "If these things are not true, who can prove that I have lied? Who can show my words are nothing?"

Bildad Answers Job

25 Then Bildad, from the country of Shuah, answered:

<sup>2</sup> "God is the ruler. Every person must fear and respect God. God keeps his heavenly kingdom in peace.

A person born from woman can't really be pure.

<sup>5</sup> Even the moon is not bright to God's eyes.

The stars are not pure to God's eyes.

Job Answers Bildad

26 Then Job answered: <sup>24</sup>"Bildad, Zophar, and Eliphaz, you really can help people that are weak! Oh yes, you have made weak arms strong again!

<sup>3</sup> Yes, you have given wonderful advice to the person with no wisdom!

And you have shown much wisdom!*

maggot An insect that looks like a small worm and becomes a fly. It is usually found in dead bodies and decaying things.

Bildad ... wisdom Job doesn't really mean what he is saying in verses 2 and 3. He saying these things in a way that the person listening knows he doesn't mean it. This is called sarcasm.

curse(d) To ask for bad things to happen to someone or something.

widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

Whose spirit inspired you?

- 5 “The spirits of the people that have died shake in the waters under the earth.
6 The place of death
is open to God’s eyes.
Death is not covered up to God.
7 God stretches the northern sky over empty space.
God hangs the earth on nothing.
8 God fills the clouds with water.
But God does not let the clouds break with the heavy weight of the water.
9 God covers the full moon.
God spreads his clouds over the moon and hides it.
10 God makes the horizon* on the ocean as a boundary line between light and darkness.
11 The foundations that hold up the skies shake with fear
when God threatens them.
12 God’s power makes the sea quiet.
God’s wisdom destroyed the sea
monster’s helpers.*
13 God’s breath makes the skies clear.
God’s hand destroyed the snake that tried to get away.*<sup>14</sup>These are only a small part of God’s powerful works.
We only hear a small whisper from God.
But no person can truly understand how great and powerful God is.”

27 Then Job continued speaking:

- 21 “Truly, God lives.
And just as truly as God lives,
He has truly been unfair with me.
Yes, God, All-Powerful has made my life bitter.
3 But as long as life is in me and God’s breath of life is in my nose,

- 4 then my lips will not speak evil things.
And my tongue will never tell a lie.
5 I will never admit that you men are right.
I will continue saying I am innocent until the day I die.
6 I will hold tightly
to the right things I did.
I will never stop doing right things.
My conscience will never bother me as long as I live.
7 “Let my enemies be like evil people, and be punished like evil people are punished.
8 There is no hope for the person that does not care about God
when that person dies.
That person has no hope when God takes his life away.
9 When that evil person has troubles,
and cries to God,
God won’t listen.
10 That person should have wanted
the happiness God gives.
That person should have prayed to God
all the time.
11 “I will teach you about God’s power.
I will not hide God, All-Powerful’s
plans.
12 You have seen God’s power with your own eyes.
So why do you say such useless things?
13 “This is what God has planned for evil
people.
This is what the cruel person will get from God, All-Powerful: “Maybe the evil person will have many children.
But his children will be killed in war.
The evil person’s children will never have enough to eat.
15 If the evil person’s children still live after he dies,
terrible sicknesses will kill them.
His sons’ widows*”

horizon The horizon is the line far away where the sky meets the earth.

sea monster’s helpers Literally, “Rahab’s helpers.” Rahab is the story name for a sea monster. People thought Rahab was a symbol for anything evil.

snake that tried to get away Or, “the escaping monster.” See Isaiah 27:1.

widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

won't be sad for them.

- 16 Maybe the evil person will pile up much silver like it was dirt. Maybe he will have many clothes like piles of clay.
- 17 A good person will wear the clothes the evil person kept getting. Innocent people will share the evil person's silver.
- 18 The house that the evil person builds does not last a long time. It is like a spider's web or a watchman's tent.
- 19 The evil person is rich when he lies down. But after that he won't be rich any more. When he opens his eyes, all his riches are gone.
- 20 Fears will grab him like a sudden flood. A storm will take him away in the night.
- 21 The east wind will carry him away. Then he will be gone. The storm will sweep him out of his home.
- 22 The evil person will try to run away from the storm's power. But the storm will hit him without mercy.
- 23 Men will clap their hands as the evil person runs away. They will whistle against the evil person as he runs from his home.

28 "There are mines where people get silver.

- There are places where people melt gold and make it pure.
- 2 Men dig iron from the ground. Copper is melted from the rocks.
- 3 Workers bring light into* the caves. They search deep into the caves. They look for rocks in the deep darkness.
- 4 Workers cut deep holes far from where people live. No other person has ever touched these holes.

- The worker is far from other people while he hangs from ropes deep in the pits.
- 5 Food comes from the top of the ground. But under the ground, it is changed, like fire changes things.
- 6 Sapphires* are found under the ground in the rocks. And the dirt under the ground has gold in it.
- 7 Birds that catch animals for food don't know about the paths under the ground. No falcon* sees this path.
- 8 Fierce animals have not walked on this path. Lions have not traveled over this path.
- 9 Workers dig the hardest rocks. Those workers dig away at the mountains and make them bare.
- 10 Workers cut tunnels through the rocks. They see all the rock's treasures.
- 11 The workers make dams to keep the waters from overflowing. They bring hidden things out to the light.
- 12 "But where can a person find wisdom? Where can we go to learn how to understand?"
- 13 People don't understand that wisdom is very valuable. People living on the earth don't have wisdom.
- 14 The deep ocean says, 'Wisdom is not in me.' The sea says, 'Wisdom is not with me.'
- 15 The most expensive gold will not buy wisdom. Wisdom's cost can't be counted in silver.
- 16 Gold from the country of Ophir, or valuable onyx,* or sapphires*

falcon A kind of bird, like a hawk.

onyx A semi-precious stone with many layers of blue or gray.

sapphires A very rare and expensive stone.

bring light into Literally, "put an end to the darkness."

- can't buy wisdom.
- 17 Wisdom is worth more than gold and crystal.
Expensive jewels made with gold can't buy wisdom.
- 18 Wisdom is worth more than coral* and jasper.*
Wisdom costs more than rubies.
- 19 The topaz* from the country of Ethiopia is not as good as wisdom.
You can't buy wisdom with pure gold.
- 20 "Then where can we go to find wisdom?
Where can we go to learn how to understand?"
- 21 Wisdom is hidden from every person on the earth.
Even the birds high in the sky can't see wisdom.
- 22 Death and destruction* say, 'We have heard only rumors about wisdom.'
- 23 "But only God knows the way to wisdom.
God knows where wisdom lives.
- 24 God knows wisdom because God sees all the way to the last parts of the earth.
God sees everything under the skies.
- 25 When God gave the wind its power,
and decided how big to make the oceans,
- 26 and when God decided where he would send the rain,
and where the thunderstorms would travel,
- 27 that was when God saw wisdom and tested it to see how much wisdom was worth.
Then God approved of wisdom.
- 28 And God said to people,
'To fear and respect the Lord—

that is wisdom.
Turning away from evil things—
that is understanding.'"

Job Continues His Talk

- 29 Job continued talking. Job said:
"I wish my life was like it was in months past,
when God watched me and cared for me.
- 3 I wish for the time when God's light was shining on my head to give me light when I walked through the darkness.
- 4 I wish for the days when my life was very successful, and God was my close friend.
Those were the days when God blessed my home.
- 5 I wish for the time when God,
All-Powerful was still with me,
and my children were near me.
- 6 That was when my life was very good.
It seemed like my path was full of cream, and the rocks poured out rivers of olive oil for me.
- 7 "Those were the days when I went to the city gate and sat with the elders of the city in the open place.
- 8 All the people respected me there.
When the young men saw me, they stepped out of my way.
And the old men got up and stood to show they respected me.
- 9 When the leaders of the people saw me they stopped speaking.
- 10 Even the most important leaders lowered their voices
when I came near them.
Yes, it seemed like their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.
- 11 Any person that heard me talking said good things about me.
Any person that saw me, gave praise to me.
- 12 Why? Because when the poor person

coral A mineral found in the ocean. It is often pink or red.

jasper A semi-precious stone that is often dark green.

topaz A semi-precious stone that is usually yellow.

Death and destruction Literally, "Abaddon." The Hebrew word for "death and destruction," or "destroyer," or "place of destruction."

- cried out for help, I helped.
 And I helped the child that had no parents and no one to care for him.
- <sup>13</sup> The person that was dying blessed me.
 I helped widows* that were in need.
- <sup>14</sup> Right Living was my clothing.
 Fairness was like my robe and my turban.*
- <sup>15</sup> I helped blind people with my eyes, and I helped crippled people with my feet.
- <sup>16</sup> I was like a father for poor people.
 I took the side of strangers that were in
 trouble.
- <sup>17</sup> I destroyed evil people's power.
 I saved the innocent people from the evil
 people.
- <sup>18</sup> "I always thought, 'I will live a very long
 life,
 then I will die in my own home.
- <sup>19</sup> I was like a tree that had roots that always reached water,
 and branches that were always wet with dew.
- <sup>20</sup> My glory will always be new in me.
 I will always be strong,
 like I had a new bow in my hand.'
- <sup>21</sup> "In the past, people listened to me.
 They were quiet while they waited for my advice.
- <sup>22</sup> After I had finished speaking,
 the people listening to me didn't have anything else to say.
 My words fell gently into their ears.
- <sup>23</sup> People waited for me to speak,
 like they waited for rain.
 They drank in my words,
 like my words were rain in the spring.
- <sup>24</sup> I smiled at people that were discouraged.
 My happy face made depressed people feel better.
- <sup>25</sup> I took charge and made decisions for the

- people.
 I became the leader.
 I lived like a commander among his army groups.
 I was like a person that gives comfort to people who are very sad.

- 30 "But now there are men that are younger than I am that make fun of me.
 Those young men have fathers that are worthless.
 I would not even let their fathers help the dogs guard the sheep.
- <sup>2</sup> The fathers of those young men have no strength to help me.
 They are old and tired.
- <sup>3</sup> Those men are the same as dead, because they have nothing and are hungry.
 They even try to eat the dry and empty
 land.
- <sup>4</sup> Those men pull up salt plants in the desert.
 They eat the roots from the broom tree.
- <sup>5</sup> Those men are forced away from other
 people.
 People shout at those men like they shout at thieves.
- <sup>6</sup> Those old men are forced to live in the dry river beds
 with the rocks, and in holes in the ground.
- <sup>7</sup> They howl in the bushes.
 They gather together under the thorny bushes.
- <sup>8</sup> They are a group of worthless people with no names.
 They have been forced to leave their country!
- <sup>9</sup> "Now those men's sons sing songs about me to make fun of me.
 My name has become a bad word to
 them.
- <sup>10</sup> Those young men hate me,
 they stand away from me,
 they think they are better than me.
 They even spit in my face!

widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

turban A head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.

- 11 God has taken the string from my bow and made me weak.
Those young men don't stop themselves but turn against me with all their anger.
- 12 On my right side, those young men attack
me.
They make me fall.*
They build ramps against me to attack and destroy me.
- 13 Those young men guard my road to escape.
They succeed in destroying me.
They don't need anyone to help them destroy me.
- 14 They attack me like they go through a hole in the wall.
They charge in and come crashing down
on me.
- 15 Fears catch me.
Those young men chase away my honor like the wind blows things away.
My safety disappears like a cloud.
- 16 "Now my life is almost gone,
and I will soon die.
Days of suffering have grabbed me.
All my bones ache at night.
Pain never stops chewing on me.
- 18 God grabs the collar of my coat with much power.
He twists my clothes out of shape.
- 19 God throws me into the mud,
and I become like dirt and ashes.
- 20 "God, I cry out to you for help,
but you don't answer.
I stand up and pray,
but you don't pay attention to me.
- 21 God, you are mean to me.
You use your power to hurt me.
- 22 God, you let the strong wind blow me
away.
You throw me around in the storm.
- 23 I know you are carrying me away to my death.
Death is what is planned for every person.

- 24 "But, surely no one will hurt a person that is already ruined, and cries out for help.
- 25 God, you know that I have cried for people in trouble.
You know that my heart was very sad for poor people.
- 26 But when I looked for good things bad things came instead.
When I looked for light, darkness came.
- 27 I am torn up inside.
It never stops.
Times of suffering are ahead of me.
- 28 I am always very sad, but I get no
comfort.
I stand up in the assembly and yell for
help.
- 29 I have become the brother to the wild dogs.
I have friends that are the ostriches.
- 30 My skin has become very dark.
My body is hot with fever.
- 31 My harp is tuned to play sad songs.
My flute makes sounds like sad crying.

- 31 "I made an agreement with my eyes
not to look with lust at a girl.
- 2 What does God, All-Powerful do to
people?
How does God pay people back from his high heavenly home?
- 3 God sends trouble and ruin to wicked
people,
and disaster to people that do wrong.
- 4 God knows everything I do,
and he sees every step I take.
- 5 "If I have lived a life of lies,
or if I have run to lie and fool people,
then let God use fair scales to weigh me.
Then God will know I am innocent.
- 7 If I have walked off the the right path, if my eyes have led my heart away to evil,
or if my hands are dirty with sin, 8 then let other people eat the crops I planted,

- and let my crops be pulled up.
- <sup>9</sup> "If I have been lustful for women, or if I have waited by my neighbor's door
to do the sin of adultery with his wife, <sup>10</sup> then let my wife cook another man's food,
and let other men sleep with her.
<sup>11</sup> Why? Because sexual sin is shameful.
It is a sin that must be punished.
<sup>12</sup> Sexual sin is like a fire that burns and destroys.
Sexual sin would destroy everything I
have.
- <sup>13</sup> "If I have refused to be fair to my male and female slaves
when they had a complaint against me, <sup>14</sup> what will I do when I must face God?
What will I answer God when he calls me to explain what I did?
<sup>15</sup> God made me in my mother's body.
God also made my slaves.
God shaped us both inside our mothers.
- <sup>16</sup> "I have never refused to help poor people.
I have never let widows* live without
help.
- <sup>17</sup> I have never been selfish with my food.
I have never let children with no parents be hungry.
- <sup>18</sup> All my life,
I have been like a father to children that had no father.
All my life I have cared for the widow.
- <sup>19</sup> When I found someone suffering because they didn't have clothes, or a poor man with no coat,
<sup>20</sup> I always gave them clothes.
I used the wool from my own sheep to make them warm.
Then they would bless me with all their heart.
- <sup>21</sup> If I ever tried to cheat a child with no
parents,
knowing I would win in court, <sup>22</sup> if I have done that, then let my arm fall off from my shoulder!
Let my arm be broken off from its socket!
<sup>23</sup> But I didn't do any of those bad things.
Why?
Because I was afraid of God's punishment.
- <sup>24</sup> "I have never trusted in my riches.
I never said to pure gold,
'You are my hope.'
<sup>25</sup> I have never been full of pride because I was wealthy, or rejoiced with the many riches I earned.
- <sup>26</sup> I have never worshiped the bright sun,
or the beautiful moon.
- <sup>27</sup> I was never fooled into offering the sun and moon reverent worship.
- <sup>28</sup> If I have ever done any of those things, that would be sins I should be punished
for.
Because I would be unfaithful to God,
All-Powerful
by doing those bad things.
- <sup>29</sup> "I have never been happy
when my enemies were destroyed.
I have never laughed when my enemies had trouble.
- <sup>30</sup> I have never let my mouth sin
by cursing*
my enemies, and wishing for them to die.
- <sup>31</sup> All the people in my house know that I have always given food to strangers.
- <sup>32</sup> I always invited strangers into my home so they would not have to sleep in the streets at night.
- <sup>33</sup> Other people try to hide their sins.
But I have not hidden my guilt.
Why? <sup>34</sup>Because I have never been afraid
of what people say.

widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

cursing Asking for bad things to happen to someone.

I have never kept quiet, and refused to go outside because I am not afraid of people's hate
for me.

- <sup>35</sup> "Oh, I wish I had someone to hear me!
I give my defense now.
Let the Lord, All-Powerful answer me.
Let the One who blames me write down the things he blames me of doing.
- <sup>36</sup> For sure, I would wear the writing on my shoulder.
I would put it on like a crown.
- <sup>37</sup> I would explain to God everything I have
done.
I would come near God with my head held high
as if I were a ruler.
- <sup>38</sup> "If I had stolen the land I farm,
and had taken it from its owners,
so that the land is wet with its own
tears,
- <sup>39</sup> and if I had stolen the things the land grows without paying the farmers,
- <sup>40</sup> yes, if I did any of these bad things, then let thorns come up instead of wheat,
and weeds grow in the fields instead of barley*!"
- Job's words are finished.

Elihu Adds to the Argument

32 Then Job's three friends gave up trying to answer Job. They gave up because Job was so sure that he himself was truly innocent. <sup>2</sup>A man named Elihu was there also.
Elihu was the son of Barakel. Barakel was a descendant* of a man named Buz. Elihu was from the family of Ram. Elihu became very angry with Job. Why? Because Job was saying that he himself was right. And Job was blaming God. <sup>3</sup>Elihu was also angry with Job's three friends. Why? Because Job's three friends could not answer Job's questions and prove to Job that he was wrong. So then, it seemed like God was wrong. <sup>4</sup>Elihu was the youngest person there, so he waited until everyone was finished talking. Then he felt like he could begin to talk. <sup>5</sup>When Elihu saw that Job's three friends had nothing more to say, he became angry.

<sup>6</sup>So Elihu began to talk. He said:

- "I am young.
You men are old.
That is why I was afraid to tell you what I think.
- <sup>7</sup> I thought to myself,
'Older people should speak first.
People that have lived many years should share their wisdom.'
- <sup>8</sup> But it is God's Spirit
in a person,
the Lord, All-Powerful's breath,
that gives a person wisdom.
- <sup>9</sup> Old men are not the only wise people,
and aged people are not the only ones that understand with is right.
- <sup>10</sup> "So that is why I, Elihu, say,
Listen to me!
I also, will tell you men what I think.
- <sup>11</sup> While you men were talking,
I waited patiently.
I listened to the answers you gave to Job.
- <sup>12</sup> I paid attention to you while you tried to answer Job with smart words.
But you three men have not proved to Job that he is wrong.
Not one of you has answered Job's arguments.
- <sup>13</sup> You three men can't say that you have found wisdom.
God must answer Job's arguments,
not people.
- <sup>14</sup> But Job was not speaking against me.
So I won't use the arguments
you three men have used.
- <sup>15</sup> "Job, your three friends

barley A kind of grain.

descendant(s) A person's children and all of their future families.

- are embarrassed.
 They don't have anything more to say.
 They don't have any more answers.
- 16 These three men are quiet, they stand there
 and have no answer.
 So do I still have to wait? 17 No! I will give my answer also.
 I will tell you what I think also.
- 18 Why? Because I have much to say.
 The Spirit that is in me
 forces me to speak.
- 19 Inside me I am like wine that is soon to bubble out.
 I am like a new wineskin that will soon break open.
- 20 So I must speak.
 Then I will feel better.
 I must open my lips and answer Job's complaints.
- 21 I won't join sides with any person in this argument.
 I won't flatter any person.
- 22 I don't know how to flatter
 a person.
 If I did know how to flatter someone,
 God would punish me very quickly.

33 "But now, Job, listen to my message.

- Pay attention to the things I say.
 2 I will soon begin to talk.
 I am almost ready to speak.
- 3 My heart is honest,
 so I will speak honest words.
 I will speak the truth about the things I know.
- 4 God's Spirit made me.
 My life comes from (God) All-Powerful.
- 5 Job, listen, and answer me,
 if you think you can.
 Get your answers ready,
 so you can argue with me.
- 6 You and I are the same in front of God.
 God used clay to make both of us.
- 7 Job, don't be afraid of me.
 I won't be hard on you.

- 8 "But Job, this is what I heard you say:
 9 You said:
 'I, Job, am innocent!
 I didn't sin, or do anything wrong.
 I am not guilty!
 10 And even though I did nothing wrong, God has found something wrong with
 me.
 God thinks I, Job, am his enemy.
 11 So, God puts chains on my feet.
 God watches everything I do.'
- 12 "But Job, I must tell you that you are wrong
 about this.
 Why? Because God knows more than any person.
- 13 Job, why do you complain, and argue with God?
 Why do you complain that God does not explain to you about everything he does?
- 14 But God does explain about what he does.
 God speaks in different ways.
 But people don't understand.
- 15-16 Maybe God speaks into peoples' ears
 in a dream,
 or in a vision* at night,
 when they are in a deep sleep.
 Then they become very afraid
 when they hear God's warnings.
- 17 God warns people to stop them
 from doing wrong things,
 and to stop them from becoming proud.
- 18 God warns people to save them from going to the place of death.*
 God does that to save a person from being destroyed.
- 19 "Or, a person might hear God's voice
 when that person is in bed and suffering from God's punishment.
 God is warning that person with pain.
 That person is in so much pain

vision Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.

place of death Literally, "the Pit." This is where bad people go when they die.

- all his bones hurt.
- <sup>20</sup> Then that person can't eat.
That person has so much pain that he hates even the best food.
- <sup>21</sup> His body wastes away until he becomes very skinny,
and all his bones stick out.
- <sup>22</sup> That person is near the place of death.*
And his life is close to death.
- <sup>23</sup> "But maybe there will be an angel to help that person.
Truly, God has thousands of angels.
Then that angel will tell that person
the right thing to do.
- <sup>24</sup> And that angel will be kind to that person.
That angel will say,
'Save this person from the place of
death!
I have found a way to pay for him.'
- <sup>25</sup> Then that person's body will become young and strong again.
That person will be the same as when he was young.
- <sup>26</sup> That person will pray to God, and God will answer that person's prayer.
Then that person will see God
as he worships God,
and that person will be very happy.
Why? Because God will give that person a normal life again.
- <sup>27</sup> "Then that person will confess to people.
He will say, 'I sinned.
I changed good into bad.
But God didn't punish me
as bad as he should.
- <sup>28</sup> God saved my soul from going down to the place of death.
I will live longer,
and I will enjoy life again.'
- <sup>29</sup> "God does all these things to a person again and again.
- <sup>30</sup> Why? To warn that person, and save that person's soul from

the place of death.*
Then that person can enjoy his life.

- <sup>31</sup> "Job, pay attention to me.
Listen to me.
Be quiet and let me talk.
- <sup>32</sup> Job, if you have anything to say,
then let me hear it.
Go ahead and talk,
because I want you to prove to me that you are innocent.
- <sup>33</sup> But Job, if you have nothing to say,
then listen to me.
Be quiet, and I will teach you how to be wise."

- 34 Then Elihu continued talking: <sup>1</sup> "Listen to the things I say,
you wise men.
Pay attention to me,
you smart men.
- <sup>2</sup> The ear tests the things it hears.
And in the same way the tongue tastes the food it touches.
- <sup>3</sup> So, let us test this situation and decide for ourselves what is right.
Together we will learn what is good.
- <sup>4</sup> "Job says, 'I, Job, am innocent.
But God is not fair to me.
- <sup>5</sup> I am right, but people think I am wrong,
and they think I am a liar.
Even though I am innocent,
my wound can't be healed.'
- <sup>6</sup> There is no person the same as Job.
Job does not care if you insult him.
- <sup>7</sup> Job is friends with bad people.
Job likes to be with evil people.
- <sup>8</sup> Why? Because Job says,
'If a person tries to obey God,
it won't do that person any good.'
- <sup>9</sup> "So listen to me, you men that can understand.
God would never do what is evil.

place of death Literally, "the Pit." This is where bad people go when they die.

[God, All-Powerful would never do
 wrong.
 11 God will pay a person back for the things that person has done.
 God gives people what they should get.
 12 It is true, God won't do wrong.
 [God, All-Powerful will always be fair.
 13 No person chose God to be in charge over the earth.
 No one gave God responsibility for the whole world.
 14 If God decided to take his spirit and his breath of life away from people,
 15 then all the people on the earth would die.
 Then people would become dust again.
 16 "If men are wise,
 then you will listen to what I say.
 17 A person that hates to be fair can't be a ruler.
 Job, do you think you can judge guilty
 the strong and good One [God,]?
 18 God is the One who says to kings,
 'You are worthless!'
 God says to leaders,
 'You are evil!'
 19 God does not love leaders more than other people.
 And God does not love rich people more than poor people.
 Why? Because God made every person.
 20 A person might die very quickly in the night.
 God makes people sick,
 and they pass away.
 Powerful people die
 and no human can help.
 21 "God watches what people do.
 God knows every step a person takes.
 22 There is no dark place,
 and no place dark enough
 where an evil person can hide from
 God.
 23 God does not need to pick a time to test people some more.

God does not need to bring people
 in front of him to be judged.
 24 God does not need to ask questions:
 But God will destroy powerful people,
 then put others in their place.
 25 So God knows what people do.
 That is why God will defeat evil people
 in the night and destroy them.
 26 God will punish the bad people because of the evil things they did.
 And God will let everyone see the bad peoples'
 punishment.
 27 Why? Because the bad people stopped obeying God.
 And those bad people didn't care about doing what God wants.
 28 Those bad people hurt the poor people, and made them cry to God for help.
 And God hears the poor people cry for
 help.
 29 But if God decided to not help
 the poor people,
 no person could judge God guilty.
 If God hides his face from people,
 there would be no person to help them.
 But God rules over individuals and
 nations.
 30 Then the person that is against God and cheats people,
 can't be a ruler.
 31 "Maybe a person will say to God,
 'I am guilty.
 I won't sin any more.
 32 God, teach me about the things
 I don't know.
 If I have done wrong, I won't do it again.'
 33 But Job, should God reward you the way you want to be rewarded
 when you refuse to change?
 Job, it is your decision, not mine.
 Tell me what you think.
 34 "Any man that is wise and understands will agree with me.
 Any wise man that hears me will say,
 35 'Job talks like an ignorant person.

The things Job says don't make sense!

- <sup>36</sup> I wish Job would be given even more troubles to test him!
Why? Because Job answers us the way an evil person would answer.
- <sup>37</sup> Job added rebellion to all his sin.
Job insults us and makes fun of God
in front of us!"

35 Elihu continued talking. He said:

- <sup>21</sup> "Job, it is not fair for you to say,
'I, Job, am more right than God.'
<sup>3</sup> And Job, you ask God,
'God, how does my sin hurt you?
What good thing do I get if I don't sin?'"
- <sup>4</sup> "Job, I (Elihu) want to answer you and your friends here with you.
- <sup>5</sup> Job, look up to the sky.
Look up and see that the clouds are higher than you.
- <sup>6</sup> Job, if you sin,
it does not hurt God.
If you have many sins,
that does nothing to God.
- <sup>7</sup> Job, if you are good,
that does not help God.
God gets nothing from you.
- <sup>8</sup> Job, your sins only hurt
you, yourself.
And the good things you do,
only help other people.
- <sup>9</sup> "When people are being treated in a bad and unfair way,
they cry out for help.
They beg for the powerful people to help them.
- <sup>10</sup> But they don't ask God for help.
God made them.
God gives people hope when they are depressed.
- <sup>11</sup> They don't ask God for help.
God makes people wise.
God does not make animals and birds
wise.
- <sup>12</sup> But bad people are proud,
so if they cry out to God for help,

God does not answer them.

- <sup>13</sup> It is true, God won't listen to their worthless begging.
God, All-Powerful won't pay attention to them.
- <sup>14</sup> Job, in the same way,
God won't listen to you when you say that you don't see him.
God knows about your troubles, you must be patient and wait for God to
help.
- <sup>15</sup> Job, you think that God does not punish bad people, and that God does not pay attention to sin.
- <sup>16</sup> "So Job continues his worthless talking.
It is easy to see that Job does not know what he is talking about."

36 Elihu continued talking. He said:

- <sup>21</sup> "Job, be patient with me a little longer.
I will show you that there is more to be said for God's side.
- <sup>3</sup> My knowledge is great.
God made me.
I will use what I know to show you that God is fair.
- <sup>4</sup> Job, you can be sure that everything I say is true.
I am very wise,
and I am with you.
- <sup>5</sup> "God is powerful.
But he does not hate people.
God is mighty, and he has his plans.
- <sup>6</sup> God won't let evil people live.
And God always treats poor people fairly.
- <sup>7</sup> God takes care of people that do what is right.
He lets good people be rulers.
God gives good people honor forever.
- <sup>8</sup> But if people are being punished and in chains,
if people are suffering and have troubles, <sup>9</sup> then God will tell them what they did wrong.

- God will tell them that they sinned and that they have been proud.
- 10 God will force those people to listen to his warning.
He will command them to stop sinning.
- 11 If those people listen to God,
and obey him,
God will let them have success and a happy life.
- 12 But if those people refuse to obey God,
they will join the world of the dead.
They will be ignorant when they die.
- 13 "People that don't care about God are always bitter.
Even when God punishes them they refuse to pray to God for help.
- 14 Those people will die
when they are still young.
They will die in shame
with the male prostitutes.*
- 15 But God will save suffering people from their troubles.
God uses troubles
to make people wake up
and listen to him.
- 16 "Job, God wants to help you by being kind to you and bringing you away from your troubles.
God wants to give you a safe place,
and put plenty of food on your table.
- 17 But now, Job, you are being punished with the kind of punishment that evil people get.
God's judgment and justice have caught you.
- 18 Job, don't let riches lead you to do wrong.
Don't be fooled with the offer of much money.
- 19 You know that all your money can't help you now.
It won't help to cry out for help.
- 20 Don't wish for night time to come, so you can take people away from their homes.
- 21 Job, be careful not to do wrong.
Your troubles were sent to you so you would not choose evil.
- 22 "God has much power.
God is the greatest teacher of all.
- 23 No person can tell God what to do.
No person can say to God,
'God, you have done wrong.'
- 24 Don't forget to praise God's work.
People have praised God's work with songs.
- 25 Every person has seen God's work.
People have looked at God's work from far away.
- 26 It is true, God is great.
We can't understand his greatness.
No person can count
the number of God's years.
- 27 "God takes up water from the earth and turns it into rain.
- 28 God makes the clouds
pour out their water,
and much rain falls on people.
- 29 No person can understand how God spreads the clouds out.
No person can understand how thunder roars through the sky where God lives.
- 30 See how God scatters his lightning through all the sky, covering the deep sea.
- 31 God uses these clouds to control the nations and to give plenty of food.
- 32 God grabs the lightning with his hands.
God commands the lightning to hit where he wants.
- 33 The thunder tells that a storm is coming.
Even the cattle know the storm is coming.

"Job, when I think about these male prostitutes Men that used their bodies for sexual sin.

- things,
my heart beats very fast.
- <sup>2</sup> Listen everyone!
God's voice sounds the same as thunder.
Listen to the thundering sound that comes from God's mouth.
- <sup>3</sup> God sends his lightning to flash across the whole sky.
It flashed all over the earth.
- <sup>4</sup> Then after the lightning flashes,
God's roaring voice can be heard.
God thunders with his wonderful voice!
While the lightning flashes,
God's voice thunders.
- <sup>5</sup> God's thundering voice is wonderful!
He does great things
that we can't understand.
- <sup>6</sup> God says to the snow,
'Fall on the earth.'
And God says to the rain,
'Pour down on the earth.'
- <sup>7</sup> God does that so all people God has made will know what he can do.
God stops every person from working.
- <sup>8</sup> The animals run into their dens and stay there.
- <sup>9</sup> The storm comes out from the south.*
The cold comes from the north.*
- <sup>10</sup> God's breath makes ice, and freezes the oceans.
- <sup>11</sup> God fills the clouds with water.
He scatters his lightning through the clouds.
- <sup>12</sup> God orders the clouds to blow all around the earth.
The clouds do anything God commands.
- <sup>13</sup> God brings the clouds to punish people or to bring water to show his love.
- <sup>14</sup> "Job, stop for a minute and listen.
Stop and think about the wonderful things God does.

- <sup>15</sup> Job, do you know how God controls the clouds?
Do you know how God makes his lightning flash?
- <sup>16</sup> Do you know how the clouds
hang in the sky?
God's knowledge is perfect.
And clouds are God's wonderful works.
- <sup>17</sup> No, Job, you don't know these things.
All you know is that you sweat, and your clothes are sticky
when the land is quiet under the hot south wind.
- <sup>18</sup> Job, can you help God spread out the sky,
and make it hard like a polished mirror?
- <sup>19</sup> "Job, tell us what we should say
to God!
We can't think of anything to say,
because our minds are empty.
- <sup>20</sup> I won't tell God I want to talk to him.
That would be the same as asking to be destroyed.
- <sup>21</sup> Now, no person can look at the bright sun.
It is very bright and shiny in the sky
after the wind has blown the clouds
away.
- <sup>22</sup> God's golden glory shines from the north.
God comes in wonderful glory.
- <sup>23</sup> God, All-Powerful is truly great.
We can't go near God.
God always treats people in a right and fair way.
- <sup>24</sup> So that is why people respect God.
But God doesn't respect proud people that think they are wise."

God Speaks to Job

38 Then the Lord answered Job from the storm. God said:

- <sup>2</sup> "Who is this person that does not accept my wisdom,
and questions me with worthless and ignorant words?"

south Literally, "storehouse."
north Literally, "scattering winds."

- 3 Job be strong like a man, and get ready to answer the questions
I will ask you.
- 4 “Job, where were you
when I made the earth?
If you are so smart, then answer me.
- 5 Job, who decided how big the world would be?
It seems like you know!
Who measured the world
with a measuring line?
- 6 What are the earth’s supports put on?
Who laid out the earth’s most important stone for it’s foundation?
- 7 When that happened,
the morning stars sang together and the angels*
shouted and were very happy!
- 8 “Job, who closed the gates to stop the sea
when it flowed from deep in the earth?
- 9 At that time I covered the sea with clouds,
and wrapped the sea in darkness.
- 10 I set the limits for the sea and put it behind locked gates.
- 11 I said to the sea,
‘You can come up here, but no farther.
Here is where your proud waves will stop.’
- 12 “Job, did you ever in your life order the morning to start, and the day to begin?
- 13 Job, did you ever tell the morning light to grab the earth, and make the morning light force the evil people to leave their hiding places?
- 14 The morning light makes the hills and the valleys easy to see.
When the daylight comes to the earth,
the shapes of those places stand out

- like the folds of a coat.
Those places take shape like soft clay that is pressed with a stamp.
- 15 Evil people don’t like the daylight.
When it shines bright, it stops them from doing their bad things.
- 16 “Job, have you ever gone to the deepest parts of the sea where the sea begins?
Have you ever walked on the ocean bottom?
- 17 Job, has any person ever shown you the gates that stand in front of the dark place of death?
- 18 Job, do you really understand how large the earth is?
Tell me, if you know all this.
- 19 “Job, which way is it to go where the light comes from?
Where does darkness come from?
- 20 Job, can you take light and dark to the places they come from?
Do you know which way to go to where they live?
- 21 Job, I am sure you know these things because you are very old,
and you were there when the earth was made!*
- 22 “Job, have you ever gone into the storerooms where I keep the snow and the hail?
- 23 I save the snow and the hail to use for times of trouble, and for days of war and battle.
- 24 Job, have you ever gone to the place where the sun comes up?
Have you ever gone to the place where the east winds come from to blow all over the earth?
- 25 Job, who dug a road in the sky for the heavy rain?

angels Literally, “sons of God.”

Job ... made God doesn’t really mean this. This kind of talking is called sarcasm. It is saying something that is not true in a way that everyone knows it is not true.

- Who made a path for the thunderstorm?
 26 Job, who was it that did these things so there would be water where no person lives,
 27 and water to satisfy the empty land
 and make it green with much grass?
 28 Job, does the rain have a father?
 Where do the drops of dew come from?
 29 Job, who is the mother of the ice?
 Who gives birth to the frost from the sky 30 when the waters freeze as hard as rock,
 and the top of the oceans are frozen?
 31 "Job, can you tie up the Pleiades?*"
 Can you unfasten the belt of Orion?*" 32 Job, can you bring out the constellations*
 at the right times?
 Or can you lead out the Bear*
 with its cubs?
 33 Job, do you know the laws that rule the sky?
 Can you begin their rule over the earth?
 34 "Job, can you shout orders to the clouds so that they will cover you with heavy rain?
 35 Job, do you send the lightning where you want it?
 And does the lightning come to you and
 say,
 'Job, here we are, what do you want?' 36 Who puts wisdom in a person's mind?
 Who gives understanding to the mind?
 37 Job, who is wise enough to count the clouds
 and tip them over to pour out their rain?
 38 That rain makes the dust become hard and the lumps of dirt stick together.
 39 "Job, do you find food for

- the female lion?
 Can you feed hungry young lions?
 40 They lie down in their dens or sit, covered by their hiding places.
 41 Job, who feeds the ravens
 when their babies yell out to God, and wander around because they have no
 food?

- 39 "Job, do you know when the mountain goats are born?
 Do you watch when the mother deer has her baby?
 2 Job, do you know how many months
 the mother mountain goat and the mother deer carry their babies?
 Do you know when it is the right time
 for them to be born?
 3 They lie down and their babies are born.
 Then their birth pains are finished.
 4 The mother mountain goat's babies and the mother deer's babies grow strong in the fields.
 Then they leave their homes,
 and don't come back.
 5 "Job, who let the wild donkeys go free?
 Who untied their ropes and let them
 loose?
 6 It was I (the Lord) that gave the desert to the wild donkey for a home.
 I gave the salt lands to them
 for a place to live.
 7 The wild donkey doesn't go close to the noisy towns.
 And no person tames them to force them to work and pull wagons.
 8 The wild donkeys live in the mountains.
 That is where they eat grass.
 That is where they look for anything green
 to eat.
 9 "Job, will the wild bull agree to serve you?
 Will he stay in your barn at night?

Pleiades A famous constellation, or group of seven stars in the night sky.

Orion A famous constellation, or group of stars in the night sky whose shape looks like a hunter or powerful soldier.

constellations Star groups in the night sky.

Bear A famous constellation in the night sky whose shape looks like a bear. It is also called the Big Dipper.

- 10 Job, can you make a wild bull plow your field with only a rope?
Will he plow the valleys for you?
- 11 Job, can you depend on the wild bull to use his strength to serve you?
Do you expect him to do your hardest work?
- 12 Can you trust him
to gather your grain and bring it to your threshing* place?
- 13 “The ostrich flaps his wings
because he is happy.
But the ostrich’s wings are not the same as the stork’s wings.
- 14 The ostrich lays her eggs on the ground and they become warm in the sand.
- 15 But the ostrich forgets that someone might walk on her eggs and break them,
or that some wild animal might break them.
- 16 The ostrich is mean to her babies.
She treats her babies the same as if they were not hers.
If her babies die,
she doesn’t care
that all her work was for nothing.
- 17 Why? Because I, God, didn’t give wisdom
to the ostrich.
The ostrich is foolish,
and I made her that way.
- 18 But when the ostrich gets up to run,
she laughs at the horse and its rider,
because she can run faster than a horse.
- 19 “Job, did you give strength to the horse,
or put the mane*
on his neck?
- 20 Job, do you make the horse jump
the way a locust jumps?
The horse snorts*

- loudly, and scares people.
- 21 The horse is happy that he is so strong,
and he scratches the ground
with his foot.
The horse runs fast going to the battle.
- 22 The horse laughs at fear.
He is not afraid!
He won’t run away from a battle.
- 23 The quiver*
shakes on the horse’s side.
The spear and weapons his rider carries shine in the sun.
- 24 The horse is very excited!
He runs fast over the ground.*
When the horse hears the trumpet blow he can’t stand still.
- 25 When the trumpet sounds,
the horse says, ‘Aha!’
He smells the battle from far away.
He hears the commanders shouting orders and all the other sounds of the battle.
- 26 “Job, did you teach the hawk how to fly as he spreads his wings and flies to the south?
- 27 Job, do you command the eagle to fly and build his nest high in the mountains?
- 28 The eagle lives on a cliff.
The cliff is the eagle’s fortress.*
- 29 The eagle watches for his food from his fortress.
He can see food that is far away.
- 30 The baby eagles eat blood.
They gather around the dead bodies.”

40 The Lord said to Job: 21 “Job, you argued with God, All-Powerful.
You judged me of doing wrong,
now answer me!”

3 Then Job answered God. Job said:

threshing Beating or walking on grain to remove the hulls from the grain.

mane The hair on a horse’s neck.

snorts The sound a horse makes.

quiver A container in which arrows are kept.

runs ... ground Literally, “swallows up the ground.”

fortress A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

- 4 "I am not important.
What can I say to you?
I can't answer you!
I will put my hand over my mouth.
5 I spoke once,
but I won't answer again.
I spoke twice,
but I won't say anything more."

6 Then the Lord spoke to Job again from the storm. The Lord said:

- 7 "Job, stand up like a man!
I will ask you some questions,
and you will answer me.
8 "Job, do you think I am not fair?
Do you blame me for doing wrong, so you can make it seem like you are right?
9 Job, are your arms as strong as my arms?
Can you make your voice thunder loudly like my voice?
10 If you can do that,
then give honor and glory to yourself.
And put glory and brightness on like clothes.
11 Job, if you are like me, then look down at the people that are proud.
Job, pour your anger out on those proud
people.
Make those proud people humble.
12 Yes, Job! Look at those proud people and make them humble.
Crush evil people where they stand.
13 Bury all the proud people in the dirt.
Wrap their bodies up
and put them in their graves.
14 Job, if you can do all these things,
then I will confess to you that you are able to save yourself.
15 "Job, look at the behemoth.*

I (God) made the behemoth and I made you (Job).

- The behemoth eats grass like a cow.
16 The behemoth has much strength in his body.
The muscles in his stomach are very powerful.
17 The behemoth's tail stands strong like a cedar tree.
His leg muscles are very strong.
18 The behemoth's bones are strong like bronze.
His legs are like iron bars.
19 The behemoth is the most amazing animal that I (God) made.
But I can defeat him.
20 The grass that the behemoth eats grow on the hills where the wild animals play.
21 The behemoth lies under the lotus plants.*
The behemoth hides in the reeds
in the swamp.
22 The lotus plants hide the behemoth in their shade.
He lives under the willow trees that grow near the river.
23 If the river floods,
the behemoth will not run away.
He is not afraid
if the Jordan River splashes on his face.
24 No person can blind the behemoth's eyes and catch him in a trap.

- 41 "Job, can you catch the leviathan*
with a fishhook?
Can you tie his tongue down with a rope?
2 Job, can you put a rope through the leviathan's nose,
or put a hook through his jaw?
3 Job, will the leviathan beg you to let him go free?
Will he speak to you with gentle words?

behemoth Some people think the behemoth is a hippopotamus or an elephant.

lotus plants A kind of tree. Its leaves give much shade.
leviathan Some people think this is a crocodile. Other people think it is a giant sea monster.

- 4 Job, will the leviathan make an agreement with you and promise to serve you forever?
- 5 Job, will you play with the leviathan like you would play with a bird?
Will you put a rope on him
so your servant girls can play with him?
- 6 Job, will fishermen try to buy the leviathan from you?
Will they cut him in pieces
so they can sell him to the merchants?*
- 7 Job, can you throw many harpoons into the leviathan's skin, or throw many fishing spears into his
head?
- 8 Job, if you put a hand on the leviathan, you will never forget your hard battle with him!
And you will never fight it again!
- 9 If you think you might defeat
the leviathan,
forget it! There is no hope!
Just looking at him scares you!
There is no person brave enough to make the leviathan angry.
So then, Job, who is able to stand against
me?
- 11 I (God) owe no person anything.
Everything under all heaven belongs to
me.
- 12 Job, I will tell you about the leviathan's legs,
his strength and graceful shape.
- 13 No person can take off the leviathan's
skin.
No person can come close to him with a bridle.
- 14 No person can force the leviathan to open his jaws.
The teeth inside his jaws make people afraid.
- 15 The leviathan's back has rows of shields tightly sealed together.
- 16 The shields are so close to each other

- that no air can pass between them.
- 17 The shields are joined to each other.
They hold together so tightly that they can't be pulled apart.
- 18 When the leviathan sneezes,
it is like light flashing out.
His eyes are like the light of dawn.
- 19 Burning torches come out from his mouth.
Sparks of fire shoot out.
- 20 Smoke pours from the leviathan's nose like burning weeds under a boiling pot.
- 21 The leviathan's breath makes coals burn,
and flames shoot from his mouth.
- 22 The leviathan's neck
is very powerful,
and people are afraid
and run away from him.
- 23 There is no weakness in the leviathan's
skin. It is hard like iron.
- 24 The leviathan's heart is like a rock,
he has no fear.
It is hard like a lower millstone.*
- 25 When the leviathan gets up, strong people are afraid.
They run away
when the leviathan swings his tail.
- 26 The sword, spear, the dart hit the leviathan, but only bounce off.
Those weapons don't hurt him at all!
- 27 To the leviathan,
iron is easy to break like straw, and bronze is easy to break
like rotten wood.
- 28 Arrows don't make the leviathan run away.
Rocks thrown at him
are like dry straw.
- 29 When a wood club hits the leviathan,
it feels like a piece of straw to him.
He laughs when men throw spears at him.
- 30 The skin under the leviathan's body is like hard, sharp broken pieces

merchant(s) A person who earns his living by buying and selling things.

lower millstone A lower millstone was a flat rock where grain was put. Another stone was put on top of the flat rock. Then the grain was ground into flour between the stones.

of pottery.

When he walks, he leaves holes in the mud like a threshing* hammer.

He makes it bubble like a pot of boiling oil.

<sup>32</sup> When the leviathan swims, he leaves a path behind himself.

He stirs up the water, and leaves white foam behind him.

Job Answers the Lord

42 Then Job answered the Lord. Job said: <sup>24</sup>“Lord, I know you can do everything.

You make plans, and none of your plans can ever be changed or stopped.

<sup>3</sup> Lord, you asked this question: ‘Who is this man that asks ignorant questions about my advice?’

I (Job) talked about things that I didn’t understand. I talked about amazing things that were too wonderful for me to know about.

<sup>4</sup> “‘Lord, you said to me, ‘Listen Job, and I will speak. I will ask you questions, and you will answer me.’”

<sup>5</sup> Lord, in the past, I heard about you, but now I have seen you with my own eyes.

<sup>6</sup> So now, I am ashamed of myself. Lord, I am sorry. As I sit in the dust and ashes, I promise to change my heart and my life.”

The Lord Gives Job’s Wealth Back

<sup>7</sup>After the Lord finished talking to Job, he spoke to Eliphaz. Eliphaz was from the city of Teman. The Lord said to Eliphaz, “I am angry at you and your two friends. Why? Because you didn’t say right things about me. But Job said right things about me. Job is my servant. <sup>8</sup>So now Eliphaz, get seven bulls and seven rams. Take them to my servant Job and sacrifice them for a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you. Then for sure, I will answer his prayer. Then I won’t punish you like you should be punished. You should be punished because you were very foolish. You didn’t say right things about me. But Job, my servant, said right things about me.”

<sup>9</sup>So Eliphaz from the city of Teman, and Bildad from the country of Shuah, and Zophar from the country of Naamah obeyed the Lord. Then the Lord answered Job’s prayer.

<sup>10</sup>So Job finished praying for his friends. Then the Lord gave Job success again. God gave Job twice as much as he had before. <sup>11</sup>All Job’s brothers and sisters came to Job’s house. And everyone that knew Job before came to his house. They all ate a big meal with Job. They comforted Job because the Lord has brought much trouble to him. Each person gave a piece of silver and a gold ring to Job.

<sup>12</sup>The Lord blessed the last part of Job’s life more than the first part of his life. Job owned 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 2,000 cows, and 1,000 female donkeys. <sup>13</sup>Job also had seven sons and three daughters. <sup>14</sup>Job named the first daughter Jemimah. Job named the second daughter Keziah. And Job named the third daughter Keren-Happuch. <sup>15</sup>Job’s daughters were the most beautiful women in all the country. Job gave his daughters part of his property. Their brothers also got their share of Job’s property.

<sup>16</sup>So, Job lived for 140 more years. He lived to see his children, his grandchildren, his great-grandchildren, and his great-great-grandchildren. <sup>17</sup>When Job died, he was a very old man. Job had a very good and long life.

threshing Beating or walking on grain to remove the hulls from the grain.

BOOK 1

Psalm 1

- <sup>1</sup> A person will be truly happy
if he doesn't follow the advice of bad
people,
and if he doesn't live like sinners, and if he doesn't feel at home with people that don't obey God.*
- <sup>2</sup> That good person loves the Lord's teachings.
He thinks about those teachings day and night.
- <sup>3</sup> So that person becomes strong like a tree planted by streams of water.
He is like a tree that makes fruit at the right time.
He is like a tree with leaves that don't die.
Everything he does is successful.
- <sup>4</sup> But bad people are not like that.
Bad people are like chaff*
that the wind blows away.
- <sup>5</sup> If good people gather together to decide a court case,
then bad people will be proved guilty.

A person ... God Or, "Blessed is the person that doesn't follow the advice of bad people, or turn on to Sinners Road, or stay at Scoffers' House."

chaff The seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers saved the seeds but let the wind blow the useless chaff away.

Those sinners will not be judged
innocent.*

- <sup>6</sup> Why? Because the Lord protects good
people,
and he destroys bad people.

Psalm 2

- <sup>1</sup> Why have the non-Jewish people become so angry?
Why are those nations making foolish
plans?
- <sup>2</sup> The kings and leaders of those nations join together to be against the Lord and the king he chose.
- <sup>3</sup> Those leaders said,
"Let us rebel against God and the king
he chose.
"Let us break free from them!"
- <sup>4</sup> But my Master,
the King in heaven,
laughs at those people.
- <sup>5</sup> God is angry and he tells those people,
"I chose this man to be king!
And he will rule on Mount Zion.
Zion is my special mountain."
And that makes those other leaders afraid.
- <sup>7</sup> Now I will tell you about the Lord's

If good ... innocent Or, "Bad people will not rise in the place of judgment nor the sinners in the meeting of good people." It is not clear if this verse means that bad people will not become judges, or that bad people will be judged guilty.

agreement.

The Lord said to me,
"Today I become your father!*

And you are my son.

8 If you ask me,
I will give the nations to you.
All the people on earth will be yours!

9 You will have the power to, destroy those nations
like an iron rod can shatter a clay pot.**

10 So, you kings be wise.
All you rulers, learn this lesson.

11 Obey the Lord with much fear.

12 And show that you are loyal to God's son.*

If you don't do this,
then he will become angry and destroy
you.

People that trust the Lord are happy.
But other people should be careful.,
He is almost ready to show his anger.

And he will answer me from his holy mountain!

SELAH*

5 I can lie down and rest, and I will wake up.
How do I know this?]

Because the Lord covers me and protects me!

6 There might be tens of thousands of soldiers around me.
But I am not afraid of those enemies!

7 Lord, get up!*

My God, come rescue me!

You are very strong!]

If you hit my bad enemies on the cheek,
you will break all their teeth.

8 The Lord can rescue his people.
Lord, please do good things for your people.

SELAH*

Psalm 3

This is David's song from the time he ran away from his son Absalom.

1 Lord, I have many, many enemies.
Many people have turned against me.

2 Many people are talking about me.
Those people say,
"God, won't rescue him!"

SELAH*

3 But Lord, you are my shield.
You are my Glory.
Lord, you make me important!*

4 I will pray to the Lord.

I become your father Literally, "I fathered you." This probably shows that God was adopting the king as his son.

You ... pot Or, "You will shepherd them with an iron rod. You will shatter them like a clay pot."

show ... son Literally, "Kiss the son!"

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

You ... important Literally, "You are my Glory, the One who lifts my head."

Psalm 4

To the director.* With stringed instruments. A song of David.*

1 My good God, when I pray to you,
answer me!
Hear my prayer and be kind to me!
Any time I have troubles, make me free!

2 People, how long will you say bad things about me?

You people keep looking for new lies to tell about me.,
You people love telling those lies.

SELAH*

3 You know that the Lord listens to his good people.
When I pray to the Lord, he listens to
me.

Lord get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle with them. This showed that God was with them. See Numbers 10:35-36.

director Or, "performer."

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song, or that this song was dedicated to him.

4 If something is bothering you, then be angry*
but don't sin.
Think about those things when you go to bed,
and then relax.*

SELAH*

5 Give good sacrifices* to God.
And trust the Lord!

6 Many people say,
"Who will show us God's, goodness?
Lord, let us see your shining face!"

7 Lord, you have made me very happy!
I am happier now than at harvest time—when we celebrate because we have much grain and wine.

8 I go to bed and sleep in peace.
Why? Because, Lord, you lay me down to sleep in safety.

Psalm 5

To the director.* For the flutes.* A song of David.*

1 Lord, hear my words.
Understand what I am trying to say to
you.
2 My King and my God, listen to my prayer.
3 Lord, every morning I give my gifts to
you.
I look to you for help,
And you hear my prayers.

be angry This Hebrew word can mean "be angry," "be upset," or "be excited."

relax Or, "be calm" or "be silent."

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

director Or, "performer."

For the flutes This might be a name of a tune rather than a type of instrument.

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song, or that this song was dedicated to him.

4 Lord, you are not like the false gods.
You don't like evil.
You don't want bad people coming to visit you at your temple.*

5 Fools* can't come to you.
You send away people that always do bad things.

6 You destroy people that tell lies.
The Lord hates people that make secret plans to hurt other people.

7 Lord, I come to your temple,*
I know that you are very kind.
I fear and respect you, Lord,
as I bow toward your holy temple.

8 Lord, people are looking for my weaknesses.
So show me your right way of living.
Show me clearly how you want me to live.

9 Those people don't tell the truth.
They are liars that twist the truth.
Their mouths are like empty* graves.
Those people say nice things to other
people,
but they are only trying to trap them.

10 Punish them, God!
Let them be caught in their own traps.
Those people have turned against you,
so punish them for their many crimes.

11 But let all the people that trust God be happy.
Let those people be happy forever.
God, protect and give strength to the people that love your name.

12 Lord, if you do good things to good
people,
then you are like a large shield protecting them.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

Fools Usually this means people that don't believe and obey God. This shows they are very foolish.

empty Literally, "open."

Psalm 6

To the director,* with stringed instruments, by the Sheminith.* A song of David.*

- 1 Lord, don't be angry and correct me.
Don't be angry and punish* me.
- 2 Lord, be kind to me!
I am sick and weak.
Heal me!
My bones are shaking.
- 3 My whole body is shaking.
Lord, how long <sub>1</sub>until you heal me<sub>2</sub>?*
- 4 Lord, make me strong again!
You are very kind, so save me.
- 5 Dead people in their graves don't remember you.
People in the place of death don't praise you.
<sub>1</sub>So heal me!<sub>2</sub>
- 6 Lord, all night I prayed to you.
My bed is wet from my tears.
Tears are dripping from my bed.
And I am weak from crying to you.
- 7 My enemies have given me many troubles.
This made me very sad with grief.
And now my eyes are weak and tired from crying.
- 8 Go away you bad people!
Why? Because the Lord heard me crying.
- 9 The Lord heard my prayer.
And the Lord accepted and answered my prayer.
- 10 All my enemies will be upset and disappointed.

by the Sheminith This might be a special instrument, a special way of tuning an instrument, or this might be one of the two major groups that play instruments in the temple orchestra; the group that played harps.

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song or that this song was dedicated to him.

punish Literally, "teach" or "correct."

Lord ... me Literally, "As for you, Lord, how long?"

They will all be ashamed,
so they all will turn and leave.

Psalm 7

A song* of David that he sang to the Lord. This song is about <sub>1</sub>Saul, the son of <sub>2</sub>Kish* from the family group of Benjamin.

- 1 Lord my God, I trust you.
Save me from the people that are chasing me.
Rescue me!
- 2 If you don't help me,
then I will be like an animal caught by a lion.
I will be carried away—
no person will be able to save me!
- 3 Lord my God, I am not guilty of doing wrong.
I did nothing wrong!
- 4 I did not do bad things to my friend.*
And I did not help my friend's enemies.
- 5 But an enemy is chasing me.
He wants to kill me.
That enemy wants to trample my life into the ground,
and push my soul into the dirt.
SELAH*
- 6 Lord, get up* and show your anger!
My enemy is angry, so stand and fight against him.
Get up and demand fairness!
- 7 Lord, judge the people.
Gather the nations around you,
and judge the people.
- 8 Lord, judge me.
Prove that I am right.

song Literally, "Shiggayon." This probably means a song full of emotion.

Kish Or, "Cush."

friend Or, "ally;" a person or country that has agreed to help another person or country.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

Lord, get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle with them. This showed that God was with them. See Num. 10:35-36.

- Prove that I am innocent.
 9 Punish the bad people,
 and help the good people.
 God, you are good.
 And you can look deep into peoples' hearts.
- 10 God helps people with honest hearts.
 So God will protect me.
- 11 God is a good judge.
 And God will show his anger at any
 time.
- 12 If God makes a decision,
 he does not change his mind.
- 13 And God has the power to punish
 people.*
- 14 Some people are always planning to do
 evil things.
 Those people make secret plans and tell lies.
- 15 They try to trap and hurt other people.
 But they will be hurt in their own traps.
- 16 They will receive the punishment they should get.
 They were cruel to other people.
 But they will get what they deserve.
- 17 I praise the Lord because he is good.
 I praise the name of the Lord
 Most-High.

Psalm 8

To the director,*<sub>accompanied</sub> by the Githith.*
 A song of David.*

- 1 Lord my Master,
 your name is the most wonderful name
 in all the earth.
 Your name brings you praise everywhere in heaven.

If God ... punish people Literally, "He will not turn back. He will sharpen his sword. He will draw and aim his bow. He has prepared the weapon of death. He has made his flaming arrows."

director Or, "performer."

by the Githith Or, "on the Githith." This might be a type of instrument, or it might mean a performer in the temple orchestra, possibly Obed-edom from Gath.

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song, or that this song was dedicated to him.

- 2 From the mouths of children and little babies
 come songs of praise to you.
 You do this to silence your enemies.
- 3 Lord, I look at the heavens you made with your hands.
 I see the moon and stars you created,
 and I wonder:—
- 4 Why are people so important to you?
 Why do you even remember them?
 Why are human beings* so important to
 you?
 Why do you even notice them?
- 5 But people are important to you!—
 You made them almost like gods.
 And you crowned people with glory and honor.
- 6 You put people in charge of everything you made.
- 7 People rule over the sheep, the cattle,
 and all the wild animals.
- 8 They* rule over the birds in the sky,
 and the fish that swim in the ocean.
- 9 Lord, our Master,
 your name is the most wonderful name
 in all the earth!

Psalm 9

To the director.* Alamoth to Ben.* A song of David.*

- 1 I praise the Lord with all my heart.
 Lord, I will tell about all the wonderful things you did.
- 2 You make me so very happy.

people ... human beings Literally, "Man ... Son of Man" or "Enosh ... son of Adam." This is a Hebrew way of saying people—descendants of Adam and Enosh. In the New Testament, this was used as a title for a particular person, Jesus.

They Literally, "him ... he." In Hebrew this is talking about "man" and "son of man" and can be understood as one person or as all people.

Alamoth to Ben This might be the name of a tune, "On the Death of the Son." Or it might mean it is one of the two main orchestral groups in the temple. Ben might be Benaiah, one of the musicians. See 1 Chron. 15-16.

- God Most-High, I sing praises to your name.
- <sup>3</sup> My enemies turned to run from you.
But they fell and were destroyed.
- <sup>4</sup> You are the good judge.
You sat on your throne as judge.*
Lord, you listened to my case.
And you made the decision about me.
- <sup>5</sup> You spoke harshly to those non-Jewish people.*
Lord, you destroyed those bad people.
You erased their names from the list of living people, forever and ever.
- <sup>6</sup> The enemy is finished!
Lord, you destroyed their cities!
Now, only ruined buildings are left.
Nothing is left to make us remember those bad people.
- <sup>7</sup> But the Lord rules forever.
The Lord made his kingdom strong.
He did this to bring fairness to the world.
- <sup>8</sup> The Lord judges all the people on earth fairly.
The Lord judges all the nations the same.
- <sup>9</sup> Many people are trapped and hurting because they have many troubles.
Those people are crushed by the weight of their problems.
Lord, be a safe place for them to run to.
- <sup>10</sup> People that know your name should trust you.
Lord, if people come to you,
you will not leave them without help.
- <sup>11</sup> You people living on Zion, sing praises to the Lord.*
Tell other nations about the great things the Lord did.
- <sup>12</sup> The Lord remembered the people that went to him for help.*
Those poor people cried for help.
And the Lord didn't forget them.
- <sup>13</sup> [I said this prayer to God:]
"Lord, be kind to me.
See the way that my enemies are hurting me.
Save me from the 'gates of death.'"
- <sup>14</sup> Then, at the gates of Jerusalem, I can sing praises to you, Lord.
I will be very happy because you saved me."
- <sup>15</sup> Those non-Jewish people dug holes to trap other people.
But those non-Jewish people fell into their own traps.
Those people hid nets to trap other people.
But their own feet were caught in those nets.
- <sup>16</sup> People learned that the Lord brings fairness.
Those bad people were trapped by what the Lord did.
Think about that!
HIGGAYON*
SELAH*
- <sup>17</sup> People that forget God are bad.
Those people will go to the place of death.
- <sup>18</sup> Sometimes it seems that God forgets about people with troubles.
It is like those poor people have no hope.
But God does not forget about those poor people forever.

throne as judge A chair that showed a person was a king or leader of the people.

non-Jewish people Or "to those people", that is, the enemy.

You ... Lord Or, "Sing praises to the Lord that sits as King in Zion."

went ... help Literally, "sought blood." If someone killed a person, then the dead man's family could go to court to have the killer punished. Here, this means that God is the Judge who listens to people that have been hurt by other people.

HIGGAYON Or, "Meditation." This may mean a time to think quietly during the song.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

<sup>19</sup> Lord, get up* and judge the nations.
Don't let people think they are powerful.

<sup>20</sup> Teach people a lesson.
Let them know that they are only human (people).

SELAH*

Psalm 10

<sup>1</sup> Lord, why do you stay so far away?
People with troubles can't see you.
<sup>2</sup> Proud and wicked people make their evil
plans.

And they hurt poor people.
<sup>3</sup> Evil people brag about the things they want.
And those greedy*
people curse* God.

In this way, the evil people show that they hate the Lord.

<sup>4</sup> Those bad people are too proud to follow
God.
They make all their evil plans.
And they act like there is no God.

<sup>5</sup> Those bad people are always doing crooked things.
They don't even notice your laws and wise teachings.*
Lord, all of your enemies ignore your teachings.

<sup>6</sup> Those people think bad things will never happen to them.
They say,
"We will have fun and never be punished."

<sup>7</sup> Those people are always cursing.

They are always saying bad things about other people.
They are always planning evil things to do.

<sup>8</sup> Those people hide in secret places and wait to catch people.

They hide, looking for people to hurt.
They kill innocent people.

<sup>9</sup> Those bad people are like lions trying to catch the animals they will eat.
They attack poor people.

The poor people are caught in the traps the evil people make.

<sup>10</sup> Again and again, those bad people hurt those poor, hurting people.

<sup>11</sup> So those poor people begin thinking these
things:

"God has forgotten us!
God has turned away from us forever!
God does not see what is happening to
us!"

<sup>12</sup> Lord, get up and do something!
God, punish the bad people!
Don't forget the poor people!

<sup>13</sup> Why do bad people turn against God?
Because they think God will not punish
them.

<sup>14</sup> Lord, surely you see the cruel and evil things that bad people do.
Look at those things,
and do something!

People with many troubles come to you
for help.

Lord, you are the One that helps children without parents.
So help them!

<sup>16</sup> Remove those people from your land!

<sup>17</sup> Lord, you have heard the things the poor people want.

Do the things they ask!
Hear their prayers!

<sup>18</sup> Lord, protect the children without parents.

Don't let the sad people suffer more

Lord get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle with them. This showed that God was with them. See Numbers 10:35-36.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

greedy People that want to take more and more wealth from other people.

curse To ask for bad things to happen to someone.

They ... teachings Literally, "Your justice is far above him."

troubles.
 Make the bad people too afraid to stay here.

Psalms 11

To the director.* To David.*

- 1 I trust the Lord.
 So why did you tell me to run and hide?
 You told me,
 "Fly like a bird to your mountain!"
- 2 Like a hunter, the bad people, pull back on the bowstring.
 They aim their arrows.
 And from the dark,
 the bad people are ready to shoot straight into the hearts of good, honest people.
- 3 What would happen if they destroyed all that is good?*
 What would good people do then?
- 4 The Lord is in his holy palace.*
 The Lord sits on his throne* in heaven.
 And the Lord sees everything that happens.
 The Lord's eyes look closely at people to see if they are good or bad.
- 5 The Lord tests people to see if they are good or bad.
 Bad people love to hurt other people.
 And the Lord hates* those cruel people.
- 6 The Lord will make hot coals and burning sulphur fall like rain on those bad people.
 The only thing those bad people will

- get is a hot, burning wind.*
 7 But the good Lord loves* good people.
 Good people will be with the Lord and they will see his face.

Psalms 12

To the director,* by the Sheminith.* A song of David.*

- 1 Save me, Lord!
 The good people are all gone.
 There are no true believers left among all the people on earth.*
- 2 People tell lies to their neighbors.
 Each and every person flatters* his neighbors with lies.
- 3 The Lord should cut off those lips that tell lies.
 The Lord should cut out those tongues that tell their big stories.
- 4 Those people think these things:
 "Our lies will help us to become important people.
 With our tongues, no one will be our master."
- 5 But the Lord says:
 "Bad people have stolen things from poor people.
 Those helpless people sighed (breathed hard) to show their sadness.
 But now I will stand and defend those tired people."
- 6 The Lord's words are true and pure.*

hot burning wind This is like the hot fire a worker uses to melt silver. The silver separates from all the worthless things in it. These things are thrown away and only the pure silver is left.

loves Or "accepts."

by the Sheminith This might be a special instrument, a special way of tuning an instrument, or this might be one of the two major groups that play instruments in the temple orchestra; the group that played harps.

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song, or that this song was dedicated to him.

all ... earth Literally, "the sons of man."

flatters To say good things about people when you don't really mean it.

true and pure Literally, "clean" or "pure." Here this means that we can believe God. We know that his words are not dirty with lies like we know 24k gold is pure gold without any other thing in it.

director Or, "performer."

To David This might mean, "David's (song)," or "Dedicated, to David."

What ... good Literally, "What if the foundations were really destroyed?"

palace A large house built for a king. Here this means God's temple.

throne The chair a king or queen sits on.

hates Or "rejects," or "refuses to accept."

Those words are pure like silver melted in a hot fire.*

Those words are pure like silver that was melted and poured seven times.

- <sup>7</sup> Lord, take care of helpless people.
Protect them now and forever!
- <sup>8</sup> Those bad people walk around like they are important.
But they are like some jewelry that people own.
It looks expensive.
But it is really very cheap.*

Psalm 13

To the director.* A song of David.*

- <sup>1</sup> How long will you forget me, Lord?
Will you forget me forever?
How long will you refuse to accept me?*
- <sup>2</sup> How long must I wonder if you have forgotten me?
How long must I feel this sadness in my heart?
How long will my enemy win over me?
- <sup>3</sup> Lord, my God, look at me!
Answer my question!
Let me know the answer
or I will die!
- <sup>4</sup> Then my enemy might say "I beat him!"
My enemy would be happy that I am finished.
- <sup>5</sup> Lord, I trusted in your love to help me.
You saved me and made me happy!
I sing a happy song to the Lord because he has done good things for me.

fire Literally, "furnace." This can also be "like silver that has been made really pure."

Those ... cheap Literally, "Bad people strut around like expensive cheap things belonging to sons of man."

director Or, "performer."

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song, or that this song was dedicated to him.

refuse to accept me Literally, "hide your face from me."

Psalm 14

To the director.* To David.*

- <sup>1</sup> A foolish person* says in his heart,
"There is no God."
Foolish people do terrible and rotten
things.
Not even one of them does good things.
- <sup>2</sup> The Lord looked down from heaven at
people.
The Lord tried to find a wise man.
(A wise man turns to God for help.)
- <sup>3</sup> But every person had turned away from
God.
Together, all people had become bad.
Not even one person did good things.
- <sup>4</sup> Bad people have destroyed my people.
And those bad people don't know God.
Bad people have plenty of food to eat.*
And those people don't worship the Lord.
- <sup>5</sup> Those bad people didn't want to listen to advice from a poor man.
Why? Because that poor man depended on God.
But those bad people became very scared.
Why? Because God is with his good
people.
- <sup>7</sup> Who on Zion* saves Israel?
It is the Lord who saves Israel!
The Lord's people were taken away and forced to be prisoners.
But the Lord will bring his people back.
At that time, Jacob (Israel) will be very, very happy.

To David This might mean "David's song" or "Dedicated to David."

foolish person Here this means a person that does not follow God and his teachings.

destroyed ... eat In Hebrew the word "destroyed" is like the word "eat." This word play shows that the bad people hurt God's followers, and those bad people still received good things. This confused the writer.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Psalm 15

A song of David.*

- 1 Lord, who can live in your Holy Tent?*
- Who can live on your holy mountain?*
- 2 Only a person that lives a pure life,
and does good things,
and speaks truth from the heart (can live on your mountain).
- 3 That kind of person does not say bad things about other people.
That person does not do bad things to his neighbors.
That person does not tell shameful things about his own family.
- 4 That person does not respect the people that hate God.
But that person shows honor to all the people that serve the Lord.
If that person makes a promise,
then he does what he promised to do.*
- 5 If that person lends money to someone,
then he does not charge interest.
And that person will not take money to do bad things to innocent people.
- If a person lives like that good man, then that person will always be near
God.*

Psalm 16

A miktam of David.*

- 1 Protect me, God,
because I depend on you.

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song, or that this song was dedicated to him.

Holy Tent The special tent where the people of Israel worshiped God. Here this probably means the temple in Jerusalem.

holy mountain Zion, one of the mountains Jerusalem is built on.

If that ... do Or, "That person promised not to do bad things. And he does not do bad things."

that person ... near God Literally, "that person will never be moved."

A miktam of David The exact meaning of "miktam" is not clear, but it might mean "a well-arranged song." This song was either written by David or dedicated to him.

- 1 I said to the Lord,
"Lord, you are my Master.
Every good thing I have comes from
you."*
- 3 The Lord does wonderful things for his followers on earth.
The Lord shows he truly loves those
people.
- 4 But people that run to worship other gods will have much pain.
I will not share in their gifts of blood to those idols.
I will not even speak those idols'
names.
- 5 No, I will share only in the Lord.
My share, my cup, comes only from the Lord.
Lord, you support me.
You give me my share.
- 6 My share* is very wonderful.
My inheritance* is very beautiful.
- 7 I praise the Lord because he taught me well.
At night, instructions came from deep inside me.
- 8 I keep the Lord before me always.
And I will never leave his right side.
- 9 So, my heart and soul will be very happy.
Even my body will live in safety.
- 10 Why? Because, Lord, you will not leave my soul in the place of death.
You will not let your holy one rot in the grave.*
- 11 You will teach me the right way to live.
Just being with you, Lord, will bring complete happiness.
Being at your right side will bring happiness forever.

I said ... you Or, "I said to the Lord my Master, 'You are my goodness. There is none but you.'"

share Or, "section of land."

inheritance This means the land that each Jewish family received from God.

rot ... grave Literally, "see decay" or "see the place where dead bodies decay."

Psalm 17

A prayer of David.*

- 1 Lord, hear my prayer for fairness.
Listen to my prayer song.
Hear my honest prayer.
- 2 Lord, the right decision about me will come from you.
You can see the truth.
- 3 You have looked deep into my heart to test it.
You were with me all night.
You questioned me and found nothing
wrong.
I didn't plan any bad thing.
- 4 I have tried as hard as humanly possible to obey your commands.
- 5 I have followed your paths.
My feet have not moved from your way
of living.
- 6 Every time I called to you, God,
you answered me.
So listen to me now.
- 7 God, you help people that trust you—those people stand by your right side.
So listen to this prayer from one of your followers.
- 8 Protect me like the pupil of your eye.*
Hide me in the shadow under your wings.
- 9 Lord, save me from the bad people that are trying to ruin me.
Protect me from the people that are around me trying to hurt me.
- 10 Those bad people have become too proud (to listen to God).
And they brag about themselves.
- 11 Those people chased me.
Now they are all around me.
And they are ready to attack.*
- 12 Those bad people are like lions waiting to kill and eat another animal.

A prayer of David Or possibly, "A prayer dedicated to David."

pupil ... eye The lens of the eyeball. Our eyes are very important to us, so we try very hard to protect them.

And ... attack Literally, "They set their eyes to lie on the ground."

They hide like lions, ready to attack.

- 13 Lord, get up* and go to the enemy.
Make them surrender.
Use your sword and save me from the bad
people.
- 14 Lord, use your power and remove the bad people from the land of living
people.
- Lord, many people come to you for protection.
Let those people have plenty of food.
Let their children become full.
Let those people have much wealth to give to their children.
- 15 I prayed for, fairness.
So I will see your face, Lord.
And seeing you, Lord,*
I will be fully satisfied.

Psalm 18

To the director.* The song of the Lord's servant,
David. David sang this song at the time the Lord saved him from Saul and his other enemies.

- 1 The Lord is my strength.
He said,
"I will show mercy to you."
- 2 The Lord is my Rock,* my Fortress,*
my Place of Safety.
My God is the Rock.
I run for safety.
- 3 I will call to the Lord.
(The Lord is worthy to be praised.)
And I will be saved from my enemies.
- 4 My enemies have put many traps in front
of me.

Lord get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle with them. This showed that God was with them. See Numbers 10:35,36.

you Lord Literally, "your likeness."

director Or, "performer."

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

Fortress A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

Deadly traps are ahead of me.
 The ropes of death are being wrapped around me.
 Those ropes of destruction*
 are making me afraid.
 The ropes of the place of death are all around me.

6 Trapped, I call to the Lord for help.
 I call to my God.
 God is in his holy palace,* and hears me.
 He hears my call for help.

7 [The Lord is coming to help me.]
 The earth begins to shake.
 The mountains begin trembling.

8 Smoke comes from God's nose.
 Burning flames come from God's mouth,
 Sparks fly from him.

9 The Lord tears open the sky and comes down.
 There is a dark cloud under his feet.

10 He rides on the flying Cherub angels.
 He soars high on the wind.

11 The Lord is hidden in the great dark cloud that surrounds him.
 He is hidden in the thick thunder cloud.

12 Then, God's shining brightness breaks through the clouds.
 And there is hail and flashes of lightning.

13 The Lord's voice thundered loudly in the sky.
 God Most-High let his voice be heard.
 And there was hail and flashes of lightning.

14 The Lord shot his arrows* and the enemy scattered.
 His many bolts of lightning defeated
 them.

15 Lord, you spoke strongly, and you made the powerful wind blow from your mouth.*

 [The water was pushed back,] and we could see the bottom of the sea.
 We could see the earth's foundations.

16 The Lord reached down from above and saved me.
 He pulled me from my troubles.*

17 My enemies were stronger than me.
 Those people hated me, and they were more powerful than me.
 So God saved me.

18 Those people attacked me at my time of
 trouble.
 But the Lord supported me.

19 The Lord loves me,
 so he rescued me.
 He took me to a safe place.

20 I was innocent,
 so the Lord rescued me.
 I did nothing wrong,
 so he took me back to a safe place.

21 I have followed the Lord.
 I have not done bad things to my God.

22 I remember all the Lord's laws and
 commands.

23 I keep myself pure and innocent before
 him.

24 I am innocent,
 so the Lord rescues me.

25 Lord, you are faithful to faithful people.
 And you are good to good people.

26 Lord, you are good and pure to people that are good and pure.
 But, you can trick mean and tricky
 people.

27 Lord, you help humble people.
 But you make proud people become not important.

28 Lord, you light my lamp.
 My God, you make my darkness become light.

29 With your help, Lord, I can run with the troops.*

destruction Literally, "the place people don't return from,"
 or "the grave."

palace A large house built for a king. Here this means God's temple.

arrows That is, "lightning."

mouth Or "nostrils."

my troubles Literally, "the great waters."

troops Soldiers in the army.

With your help, I can climb over the enemy's walls.
 30 God's ways are pure and good.
 The Lord's words are true.
 He protects people that trust him.
 31 The Lord is the only real God.
 There is no Rock*
 except our God.
 32 God gives me strength.
 He makes my life pure.
 33 God makes my feet fast like a deer.*
 He makes me steady and keeps me from falling on high rocky places.
 34 The Lord teaches me how to fight in battle.
 He gives strength to my arms so I can pull the string of a bronze bow.
 35 Lord, protect me with your shield.
 Support me with your right arm.
 Give me your great power.
 36 God, you make my legs and ankles strong so I can march fast to the battle.
 37 Then I can chase my enemies and catch
 them.
 I will let none of them escape.
 38 I will defeat my enemies.
 None of them will be left standing.
 All of my enemies will fall at my feet.
 39 God, give me strength in battle.
 Make all of my enemies fall in front of
 me.
 40 Lord, help me defeat my enemies.*
 Make me stronger than the people that hate me.
 41 My enemies will call for help, but no person will come to help them.
 Even if they call to the Lord,
 he will not answer them.
 42 I will grind my enemies into dust.
 They will be like dust the wind blows
 away.
 I will crush them into dust.

43 Save me from the people that fight
 against me.
 Make me the leader of those nations.
 Make me the master of people I don't even know.
 44 Then those people will listen and obey my commands.
 People from other nations will be afraid
 of me.
 45 Those foreign people will bow down because they are afraid of me.
 They will come from their hiding places shaking from fear.
 46 The Lord is alive!
 I praise my Rock.*
 My God saves me.
 So lift him high with praise!
 47 God gave me victory against my enemies.
 God helped me defeat those people.
 48 Lord, you rescued me from my enemies.
 You saved me from cruel men.
 You made me important.
 49 So I will praise the Lord to all people.
 I will sing songs about your name.
 50 The Lord gave great victories to the king that he chose!
 He was very kind to his chosen* king!

Psalm 19

To the director.* A song of David.*

1 The heavens tell about God's glory.
 And the skies show the good things
 God's hands have made.
 2 Each new day tells more of the story.
 And each night reveals more and more about God's power.
 3 You can't really hear any speech or words.
 They don't make any sound we can hear.

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

deer Literally, "hind."

help ... enemies Literally, "put my hands on the necks of my enemies."

chosen Or "anointed." A special oil was poured on the heads of kings, prophets, and priests to show they were chosen by God.

director Or, "performer."

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song, or that this song was dedicated to him.

- 4 But their “voice” goes all through the world.
Their “words” go to the ends of the earth.
- The sky is like a home for the sun.
- 5 The sun comes out like a happy bridegroom from his bedroom.
The sun begins its path across the sky like an athlete eager to run his race.
- 6 The sun starts at one end of the sky, and it runs all the way to the other end.
Nothing can hide from its heat.
The Lord’s teachings are like that.
- 7 The Lord’s teachings are perfect.
They give strength to God’s people.
The Lord’s Agreement* can be trusted.
It gives wisdom to people that are not wise.
- 8 The Lord’s laws are right.
They make people happy.
The Lord’s commands are good.
They show people the right way to live.
- 9 Worshiping the Lord is like a light that will shine bright forever.
The Lord’s judgments are good and fair.
They are completely right.
- 10 We should want the Lord’s teachings more than the best gold.
They are sweeter than the best honey that comes straight from the honeycomb.
- 11 The Lord’s teachings make your servant very bright.
People that follow your laws will get good gifts.
- 12 No person can see all his own mistakes.
So don’t let me do secret sins.
- 13 Lord, stop me from doing sins that I want to do.
Don’t let those sins rule me.
If you help me,
then I can be pure and free from my sins.

- 14 I hope my words and thoughts please you.
Lord, you are my Rock.*
You are the One who saves me.

Psalms 20

To the director.* A song of David.*

- 1 May the Lord answer your call for help when you have troubles.
May the God of Jacob make your name important.
- 2 May God send you help from his Holy Place.
May he support you from Zion.*
- 3 May God remember all the gifts you offered.
May he accept all your sacrifices.*
- SELAH*
- 4 May God give you the things that you really want.
May he make all your plans happen.
- 5 May we be very happy when God helps you.
May we praise God’s name.
May the Lord give you all that you ask for!
- 6 Now I know the Lord helps the king he chose.
God was in his holy heaven,
and he answered his chosen king.
God used his mighty power to save that king.
- 7 Some people trust their chariots.*

Rock Sometimes this means a large rock where people hide from the heat of the sun, and sometimes it means a fort where people run for safety from their enemies.

director Or, “performer.”

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song, or that this song was dedicated to him.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

Agreement This probably means the Law of Moses, the commands and agreement God made with the people of Israel.

- And other people trust their soldiers.
But we remember the Lord our God.
- 8 Those other people were defeated—they died in battle.
But we won!
We stand as winners!
- 9 Why? Because the Lord saved his chosen king!
God's chosen king called for help.
And God answered!

Psalm 21

To the director.* A song of David.*

- 1 Lord, your strength makes the king
happy.
He is so very happy when you save him.
- 2 You gave the king the things he wanted.
The king asked for some things.
And, Lord, you gave the king the things he asked for.

SELAH*

- 3 Lord, you truly gave many blessings to the king.
You put the gold crown on his head.
- 4 He asked you for life.
And you gave it to him!
God, you gave the king life forever
and ever.
- 5 The king has great glory because you saved him.
You gave him honor and praise.
- 6 God, you truly gave the king blessings
forever.
When the king sees your face,
he is very happy.
- 7 The king truly trusts the Lord.
God Most-High will not disappoint him.
- 8 God, you will show all your enemies that you are strong.
Your power will defeat the people that hate you.

- 9 A fire in a hot oven can burn up many
things.
Lord, when you are with the king,
he becomes hot like that oven.
His anger burns like a hot fire,
and he destroys his enemies.
- 10 The families of God's enemies will be destroyed.
They will be gone from the earth.
- 11 Why? Because those people made bad plans against you, Lord.
They planned to do bad things but they didn't succeed.
- 12 But you, Lord, made those people your slaves.
You tied them together with ropes.
You put ropes around their necks.
You made them fall on their faces like
slaves.
- 13 Praise the Lord
and praise his power.
Let's sing and play songs about the Lord's greatness!

Psalm 22

To the director.* <sup>c</sup>To the tune, "The Hind of Dawn"* A song of David.*

- 1 My God, my God!
Why did you leave me?
You are too far away to save me!
You are too far away to hear my cries
for help!
- 2 My God, I called to you during the day.
But you did not answer me.
And I continued calling you in the
night.
- 3 God, you are the Holy One.
You sit as King.
The praises of Israel are your throne.*
- 4 Our ancestors* trusted you.

director Or, "performer."

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song, or that this song was dedicated to him.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

The ... Dawn This is probably the name of the tune for this song. But it might refer to a type of instrument.

throne The chair a king or queen sits on.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Yes, they trusted you, God,
and you saved them.

5 Our ancestors* called to you for help,
God,
and they escaped.
They trusted you,
and they were not disappointed!

6 So, am I a worm and not a man?
Should people be ashamed of me?
Do the people hate me?*

7 Everyone that looks at me makes fun of
me.
They shake their heads and stick out their tongues at me.

8 They tell me:
"You should ask the Lord to help you.
Maybe he will save you.
If he likes you so much,
then surely he will rescue you!"

9 God, the truth is, that you really are the One I depend on.
You have taken care of me
since the day I was born.
You assured and comforted me while I was still at my mother's breasts.

10 You have been my God
since the day I was born.
I was put in your care
as soon as I came out of my mother's body.

11 So, God, don't leave me!
Trouble is near.
And there is no person to help me.

12 People are all around me.
They are like powerful bulls all around
me.

13 They are like lions tearing at an animal and roaring.
Their mouths are wide open.

14 My strength is gone,

like water poured out on the ground.
My bones have separated.
My courage is gone!*

15 My mouth* is like a dry piece of broken pottery.
My tongue is sticking to the top of my mouth.
You have put me in the "dust of death."
16 The "dogs" are all around me.
That pack*
of evil people has trapped me.
Like a lion, they have pierced, my hands and my feet.**

17 I can see my bones!
The people are staring at me!
They keep looking at me!*

18 Those people are dividing my clothes among themselves.
They are throwing lots* for my robe.

19 Lord, don't leave me!
You are my strength!
Hurry and help me!

20 Lord, save my life from the sword.
Save my precious life from those dogs.

21 Rescue me from the lion's mouth.
Protect me from the bulls' horns.*

22 Lord, I will tell my brothers about you.
I will praise you in the great assembly (of your people).

23 Praise the Lord,
all you people that worship him.
Descendants* of Israel,

My courage is gone! Literally, "My heart is melted in me like wax."
mouth Or, "strength."
pack A group of dogs. Dogs travel in packs when they want to attack and kill an animal for food.
Like a lion ... feet The ancient Greek translation has, "They pierced my hands and my feet." In Hebrew the word for "like a lion" is like the word meaning, "they pierced."
They keep looking at me! This phrase often means "to look at someone with plans to hurt him."
lot(s) Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.
Protect me ... horns Or, "You hurt me more than the bulls' horns." Or "You have answered me from the bulls' horns." This might mean that this person learned God's answer when he looked at the people around him.
Descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
Do the people hate me? Or, "Am I one of the people you hate?"

show honor to the Lord.
 Fear and respect the Lord
 all you people of Israel.

- <sup>24</sup> Why? Because the Lord helps poor people that have troubles.
 The Lord is not ashamed of those poor
 people.
 The Lord doesn't hate them.
 If people call to the Lord for help,
 he will not hide from them.
- <sup>25</sup> Lord, my praise in the great assembly comes from you.
 In front of all these worshipers,
 I will do the things I promised to do.
- <sup>26</sup> Poor people will eat and be satisfied.
 You people that come looking for God,
 praise him!
 May your hearts be happy* forever!
- <sup>27</sup> May all the people in faraway countries, turn back to the Lord.
 Remember him!
- <sup>28</sup> May all the people in all the foreign countries
 worship the Lord.
 Why? Because the Lord is the King.
 He rules all nations.
- <sup>29</sup> All the powerful people on earth will worship the Lord.
 In the past, those powerful people destroyed other people,
 But they will bow down before him.
 Every person that dies will bow down to
 the Lord.
 Every dead person will bow down to
 him.
- <sup>30</sup> The people that will live in the future will serve the Lord.
 They will be his forever.
- <sup>31</sup> People that are not yet born will come and tell about God's goodness.
 Those people will tell about the good things God truly did.*

be happy Literally, "live."

Verses 30-31 These verses are hard to understand in the Hebrew.

Psalm 23

A song of David.*

- <sup>1</sup> The Lord is my shepherd.
 I will always have everything I need.*
- <sup>2</sup> He lets me lie down in green pastures.
 He leads me by calm pools of water.
- <sup>3</sup> He gives new strength to my soul
 for the good of his name.
 He leads me on paths of goodness,*
 to show he is truly good.
- <sup>4</sup> Even when I walk through death's dark valley,
 I will not be afraid,*
 because you are with me, Lord.
 Your rod and staff*
 comfort me.
- <sup>5</sup> Lord, you prepared my table in front of my enemies.
 You poured oil on my head.*
 My cup is full and spilling over.
- <sup>6</sup> Goodness and mercy will be with me the rest of my life.
 And I will sit in the Lord's temple for a long, long time.*

Psalm 24

A song of David.*

- <sup>1</sup> The earth and everything on it belong to
 the Lord.
 The world and all its people belong to
 him.
- <sup>2</sup> The Lord built the earth on the water.
 He built it over the rivers.

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song, or that this song was dedicated to him.

I will ... need Literally, "I will lack nothing."

paths of goodness This means both "good paths" and "paths where there is goodness."

Even ... afraid Or, "Even if I walk through a very dark valley, I will not be afraid of anything bad happening."

rod and staff The walking sticks a shepherd uses to guide and protect his sheep.

poured ... head This can mean that God gave much wealth to this person, or that God chose him to be someone special, like a king, a priest, or a prophet.

sit ... time Or "I will go again and again to the Lord's temple for a long, long time."

- 3 Who can go up the Lord's mountain?
Who can stand in the Lord's holy temple,?
- 4 Who can worship there?
People that have not done evil things,
People that have pure (minds).
People that have not used my name* to make lies sound like the truth,
And people that have not lied and made false promises.
Only those people can worship there.
- 5 Good people ask the Lord to do good things for other people.
Those good people ask for goodness from God their Savior.
- 6 Those good people try to follow God.
They go to the God of Jacob for help.
SELAH!*
- 7 Gates, lift your heads!
Open, ancient doors!
And the glorious King will come in.
- 8 Who is this glorious King?
The Lord is that King.
He is the powerful soldier.
The Lord is that King.
He is the War Hero.
- 9 Gates, lift your heads!
Open, ancient doors!
And the glorious King will come in.
- 10 Who is that glorious King?
The Lord All-powerful is that King.
He is that glorious King!
- 11 And I will not be disappointed.
My enemies will not laugh at me.
- 3 No person that trusts you will be disappointed.
But traitors* will be disappointed.
They will get nothing.
- 4 Lord, help me learn your ways.
Teach me your ways.
- 5 Guide me and teach me your truths.
You are my God, my Savior.
I trust you every day.
- 6 Remember to be kind to me, Lord.
Show me the tender love you always had.
- 7 Don't remember the sins and bad things I did when I was young.
For your good name, Lord,
remember me in love.
- 8 The Lord is truly good.
He teaches sinners the right way to live.
- 9 He teaches humble people his ways.
He leads them with fairness.
- 10 All the Lord's ways are kind and true for the people that follow his Agreement and promises.*
- 11 Lord, I have done many, many wrong things.
But, to show your goodness,
you forgave me for everything I did.
- 12 If a person chooses to follow the Lord,
then God will show that person the best way to live.
- 13 That person will enjoy good things.
And that person's children will keep the land God promised to give him.
- 14 The Lord tells his secrets to his followers.
He teaches his Agreement* to his followers.

Psalm 25

To David.*

- 1 Lord, I give myself to you.*
2 My God, I trust you,

Lord's mountain Zion, the mountain the temple was built on.

my name Literally, "my soul."

SELAH! This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

To David This might mean, "David's song," or "Dedicated, to David."

I give myself to you Literally, "I lift my soul to you."

traitors People that turn against their country, friends, or family and do bad things to them.

Agreement and promises This probably is the Law of Moses, the Agreement that God made with the people of Israel.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

- 15 My eyes are always looking to the Lord
for help.
He always frees me from my troubles.*
- 16 Lord, I am hurt and lonely.
Turn to me and show me mercy.
- 17 Free me from my troubles.
Help me solve my problems.
- 18 Lord, look at my trials and troubles.
Forgive me for all the sins I have done.
- 19 Look at all the enemies I have.
My enemies hate me and want to hurt
me.
- 20 God, protect me and save me.
I trust you, so don't disappoint me.
- 21 God, you are truly good.
I trust you, so protect me.
- 22 God, save the people of Israel from all their enemies.

Psalm 26

To David.*

- 1 Lord, judge me.
Prove that I have lived a pure life.
I never stopped trusting the Lord.
- 2 Lord, try me and test me.
Look closely into my heart and mind.
- 3 I always see your tender love.
I live by your truths.
- 4 I am not one of those worthless people.
- 5 I hate those evil gangs.
I don't join those gangs of crooks.
- 6 Lord, I wash my hands.*
I come to your altar.*
- 7 Lord, I sing songs of praise to you.
I sing about the wonderful things you have done.
- 8 Lord, I love your temple.*

He always ... troubles Literally, "He removes my feet from the net."

To David This might mean, "David's 'song,'" or "Dedicated" to David."

I wash my hands People washed their hands as a way to prepare themselves to worship God. This showed they were pure.

altar(s) A stone table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

- I love your glorious tent*
- 9 Lord, don't group me with those sinners.
Don't kill me when you kill those murderers.
- 10 Those people might cheat.
Those people might take money to do
bad things.
- 11 But I am innocent.
So, God, be kind to me and save me.
- 12 I have continued living right.
Lord, I praise you when your followers meet together.

Psalm 27

To David.*

- 1 Lord, you are my Light and my Savior.
I should not be afraid of anyone!
The Lord is my life's place of safety.
So I will not be afraid of any person.
- 2 Evil people might attack me.
They might try to destroy my body.
My enemies might try to attack and
destroy me.
- 3 But even if an army is all around me,
I will not be afraid.
Even if people attack me in a war,
I will not be afraid.
Why? Because I trust the Lord.
- 4 There is only one thing I want to ask the Lord to give me.
This is what I ask:
Let me sit in the Lord's temple all my
life.
Let me visit his palace.*
Let me see the Lord's beauty.
- 5 The Lord will protect me when I am in danger.
He will hide me in his tent.*
He will take me up to his place of safety.
- 6 My enemies have surrounded me.

tent The temple in Jerusalem, or the Holy Tent where the people worshiped God before the temple was built.

palace A large house built for a king. Here this means God's temple.

But now the Lord will help me defeat them!

Then I will offer sacrifices* in his tent.*

I will give the sacrifices with shouts of joy.

I will sing and play songs to honor the Lord.

<sup>7</sup> Lord, hear my voice.

Answer me.

Be kind to me.

<sup>8</sup> Lord, I want to talk with you.

I want to speak to you from my heart.

Lord, I come before you to speak with you.

<sup>9</sup> Lord, don't turn away from me!

Don't be angry and turn away from your servant.

Help me!

Don't push me away!

Don't leave me!

My God, you are my Savior.

<sup>10</sup> My mother and my father left me.

But the Lord took me and made me his.

So teach me your ways.

Teach me to do the right things.

<sup>12</sup> My enemies have attacked me.

They have told lies about me.

They have told lies to hurt me.

Be strong and brave,

and wait for the Lord's help!

Psalm 28

I am calling to you for help.

Don't close your ears to my prayers.

If you don't answer my calls for help, then I will be just like dead people in the grave.

Hear me when I call to you.

Show mercy to me.

<sup>3</sup> Lord, don't think that I am like the bad people.

Don't include me with the evil people that do bad things.

Those people greet their neighbors with the word "Shalom."*

But in their hearts (minds), they are thinking evil things against their neighbors.

<sup>4</sup> Lord, those people do bad things to other people.

So make bad things happen to them.

Punish those bad people the way they should be punished.

<sup>5</sup> Bad people don't understand the good things the Lord does.

They don't see the good things God does.

No, they don't understand.

They only destroy the good that God does.

He heard my prayer for mercy.

<sup>7</sup> The Lord is my strength.

He is my shield.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

tent The temple in Jerusalem, or the Holy Tent where the people worshiped God before the temple was built.

before I die Literally, "in the land of the living."

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song or that this song was dedicated to him.

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

Most Holy Place The most important part of the temple or the Holy Tent. In this room was the Box of the Agreement and the Cherub angels. These were like a throne where God sat as king of Israel.

Shalom This word means "peace." It is like a prayer asking God to give peace to the people you meet.

- I trusted him.
 And he helped me.
 I am very happy!
 And I sing songs of praise to him.
- 8 The Lord is powerful.
 And he gives power and victory to his chosen one.*
- 9 God, save your people.
 Bless the people that belong to you!
 Lead them and show honor to them*
 forever!

Psalm 29

A song of David.*

- 1 Sons of God,*
 praise the Lord!
 Praise his glory and power.
- 2 Praise the Lord and show honor to his name!
 Worship him in your special clothes.*
- 3 The Lord raises his voice at the sea.
 The voice of the glorious God sounds like thunder over the great ocean.
- 4 The Lord's voice shows his power.
 His voice shows his glory.
- 5 The Lord's voice breaks great cedar trees into little pieces.
 The Lord breaks the great cedar trees of Lebanon.
- 6 The Lord causes the mountains of,
 Lebanon to shake.
 They look like a young calf dancing.
 Sirion* shakes.
 It looks like a young goat jumping.
- 7 The Lord's voice strikes with flashes of lightning.

- 8 The Lord's voice causes the desert to shake.
 Kadesh desert* shakes at the Lord's voice.
- 9 The Lord's voice makes the deer* afraid.
 He destroys the forests.
 In his palace* the people sing about his glory.
- 10 The Lord controlled the flood.
 And the Lord will always be the king in control.
- 11 May the Lord protect his people.
 May the Lord bless his people with peace.

Psalm 30

One of David's songs. This song was for the dedication of the temple.*

- 1 Lord, you lifted me up out of my troubles.
 You did not let my enemies defeat me and I laugh at me.
 So I will show honor to you.
- 2 Lord, my God, I prayed to you.
 And you healed me.
- 3 You lifted me out of the grave.
 You let me live.
 I did not have to stay with the dead people lying in the pit.*
- 4 God's followers, sing praises to the Lord!
 Praise his holy name!*
- 5 God was angry, so the decision was
 "death."
 But he showed his love, and gave me
 "life."
 At night, I lay crying.
 The next morning, I was happy and singing!

chosen one Or, "Anointed one." This might be any person that God has chosen in some special way, but it usually refers to his special king.

show honor to them Or, "forgive them." Literally, "lift them up."

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song or that this song was dedicated to him.

Sons of God Or, "sons of gods." This might mean the priests, or it might mean God's angels.

special clothes The special clothes that people wore when they went to the temple to worship God.

Sirion Or, "Mount Hermon."

Kadesh desert A desert in Syria. This might also mean
 "the holy desert."

deer Or, "oak trees."

palace A large house built for a king. Here this means God's temple.

One ... temple Or, "A psalm. The song for the dedication of the house. Dedicated to David."

pit Or, "world of the dead people."

name Literally, "memory," "memorial."

- 6 Now I can say this,
and I know for sure it is true:
"I will never be defeated!"
- 7 Lord, you were kind to me.
You let me stand on your holy mountain* again.
For a time, you turned away from me.
And I was very scared.
- 8 God, I turned and prayed to you.
I asked you to show mercy to me.
- 9 I said,
"God, what good is it if I die and go down into the grave?
Dead people just lie in the dirt!
They don't praise you!
They don't tell about your goodness that continues forever.
- 10 Lord, hear my prayer and be kind to me!
Lord, help me!"
- 11 I prayed and you helped me!
You changed my crying into dancing.
You took away my clothes of sadness.
And you wrapped me in happiness.
- 12 Lord, I will praise you forever.
I will do this so there will never be silence.
There will always be someone to praise you.

Psalm 31

To the director.* A song of David.*

- 1 Lord, I depend on you.
Don't disappoint me.
Be kind to me and save me.
- 2 God, listen to me.
Come quickly and save me.
Be my Rock.*
Be my place of safety.
Be my fortress.*

- Protect me!
- 3 God, you are my Rock.*
So, for the good of your name, lead me and guide me.
- 4 My enemies have put a trap in front of
me.
Save me from their trap.
You are my place of safety.
- 5 Lord, you are the God we can trust.
I put my life* in your hands.
Save me!
- 6 I hate people that worship false gods.
I trust only in the Lord.
- 7 God, your kindness makes me very
happy.
You have seen my troubles.
You know about the troubles I have.
- 8 You will not let my enemies take me.
You will free me from their traps.
- 9 Lord, I have many troubles.
So be kind to me.
I am so upset that my eyes are hurting.
My throat and stomach are aching.
- 10 My life is ending in sadness.
My years are passing away in sighing.*
My troubles are taking away my strength.
My strength is leaving me.*
- 11 My enemies hate me.
And all my neighbors hate me, too.
All my relatives see me in the street and
are afraid.
They avoid me.
- 12 I am like some lost tool.
The people have completely forgotten
me.
- 13 I hear the terrible things people say about me.
Those people turned against me.
They plan to kill me.
- 14 Lord, I trust you.
You are my God.
- 15 My life is in your hands.

holy mountain Mount Zion, where the temple was.

director Or, "performer."

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song or that this song was dedicated to him.

Rock A name for God. It shows that he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

fortress A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

life Literally, "spirit."

sighing Breathing hard from sadness.

My strength is leaving me. Literally, "My bones are wasting away."

Save me from my enemies.

Save me from the people that are chasing me.*

- 16 God, please welcome your servant with kindness.
Save me!
- 17 Lord, I prayed to you.
So I will not be disappointed.
Bad people will be disappointed.
They will go to the grave in silence.
- 18 Those bad people brag and tells lies about good people.
Those bad people are very proud.
But their lying lips will be silent.
- 19 God, you have hidden away many wonderful things for your followers.
You do good things in front of everyone for the people that trust you.
- 20 Bad people join together to hurt good people.
Those bad people try to start fights.
But you hide those good people and protect them.
You protect good people in your shelter.
- 21 Bless the Lord!
He has shown his wonderful love for me in this city.
He showed me his love in this safe place.
- 22 I was afraid, and I said,
"I am not in a place where God can see me."
But I prayed to you, God,
and you heard my loud prayers for help.
- 23 God's followers, you should love the Lord!
The Lord protects people that are loyal to him.
But the Lord punishes people that brag.
God gives them the punishment they should get.
- 24 All you people that wait for the Lord's help,
be strong and brave!

chasing me Or, "persecuting me," "hurting me."

Psalms 32

One of David's poems.*

- 1 Blessed (happy) is the person whose sins have been forgiven.
Blessed (happy) is the person whose sins have been erased.
- 2 Blessed (happy) is the person that the Lord does not say is guilty.
Blessed (happy) is the person that does not try to hide secret sins.
- 3 God, I prayed to you again and again,
but I did not talk about my secret sins.
Every time I prayed, I only became weaker.
- 4 God, you made life harder and harder on me day and night.
I became like a dry, dry land in the hot summer.
- SELAH*
- 5 But then I decided to confess all of my sins to the Lord.
So Lord, I told you about my sins.
I did not hide any of my guilt.
And you forgave me for my sins!
- SELAH*
- 6 For this reason, God, all your followers should pray to you.
Your followers should pray even when troubles come like a great flood.
- 7 God, you are a hiding place for me.
You protect me from my troubles.
You surround me and protect me.
So I sing songs about the way you saved me.
- SELAH*
- 8 The Lord says,
"I will teach you and guide you the way you should go.
I will protect you and be your guide.
- 9 So don't be stupid like a horse

One ... poems Or, "A maskil of David." We are not sure of the exact meaning of the word "maskil." It might mean "a poem of meditation," "a poem of instruction," or "a skillfully-written poem."

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

or a donkey.

Those animals must be led with bits and reins.*"

Those animals will not come near* you unless you use bits and reins.

- 10 Many pains will come to bad people.
But love will surround people that trust the Lord.
- 11 Good people, rejoice and be very happy in the Lord.
All you people with pure hearts, rejoice!

Psalm 33

- 1 Rejoice in the Lord, good people!
Good honest people, praise him!
- 2 Play the lyre* and praise the Lord!
Play to the Lord on the ten-stringed harp.
- 3 Sing a new song*
to him!
Play the happy tune beautifully!
- 4 God's word is true!
You can depend on everything he does!
- 5 God loves goodness and fairness.
The Lord has filled the earth with his love.
- 6 The Lord spoke the command and the world was made.
The breath from God's mouth created everything on earth.
- 7 God gathered the water in the sea into one place.
He made the ocean stay in its place.
- 8 Every person on earth should fear and respect the Lord.
All the people living on this world should fear him.

bits and reins A "bit" is a metal bar that fits in the mouth of an animal and helps the rider control it. "Reins" are the ropes tied to the bit and held by the rider.

come near In Hebrew, these words also mean "to come and worship at the altar." This shows God is also talking about the people coming to worship him.

lyre(s) An instrument with several strings, like a harp.

new song Whenever God did some new and wonderful thing for his people, they would write a new song about it. So this shows God has done some new thing for his people.

- 9 Why? Because God only has to give a command, and that thing happens!
And if he gives the command for something to stop,
then that thing will stop!*
- 10 The Lord can make all the people's advice worthless.
He can ruin all their plans.
- 11 But the Lord's advice is good forever.
His plans are good for generation after generation.
- 12 Blessed (happy) are the people whose God is the Lord.
God chose them to be his own people.
- 13 The Lord looked down from heaven.
He saw all the people.
- 14 From his high throne* he looked down at all the people living on earth.
- 15 God created every person's mind.
And he understands what every person is thinking.
- 16 A king is not saved by his own great power.
A strong soldier is not saved by his own great strength.
- 17 Horses don't really bring victory in war.
Their strength can't really help you escape!
- 18 The Lord watches and cares for the people that follow him.
His great love protects the people that worship him.
- 19 God is the One that saves those people from death.
He gives those people strength when they are hungry.
- 20 So we will wait for the Lord.
He is our help and shield.
- 21 God makes me happy.
I truly trust his holy name.
- 22 Lord, we truly worship you!
So show your great love for us.

And if he gives ... stop Or, "He gives the command, and it stands!" The word "stand" can mean "stand forever" or "come to a standstill," "stop."

throne The chair a king or queen sits on.

Psalm 34

David's <sub>1</sub>song<sub>2</sub> from the time David acted crazy so Abimelech would send him away. In this way, David left him.

- 1 * I will always bless the Lord.
His praise is always on my lips.
- 2 Humble people, listen and be happy.
My soul brags about the Lord.
- 3 Tell about the Lord's greatness with me.
Let's honor his name.
- 4 I went to God for help.
And he listened.
He saved me from all the things I fear.
- 5 Look to God for help.
You will be accepted.
Don't be ashamed.*
- 6 This poor man called to the Lord for help.
And the Lord heard me.
He saved me from all my troubles.
- 7 The Lord's angel camps around the people that follow him.
The Lord's angel protects those people and gives them strength.
- 8 Taste and learn how good the Lord is.
The soldier that depends on the Lord will be truly blessed (happy).
- 9 The Lord's holy people should worship
him.
There is no other place of safety for the Lord's followers.
- 10 "Powerful" people will become weak and hungry.
But the people that go to God for help,
will have every good thing.
- 11 Children, listen to me, and I will teach you how to serve the Lord.
- 12 If a person loves life,
and if a person wants to live a good,
long life,
13 then that person must not say bad
things.
That person must not tell lies.

Psalm 34 In Hebrew, each verse in this Psalm begins with the next letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

You ... ashamed Literally, "Look at him and shine. Don't let your face be pale."

- 14 Stop doing bad things.
Do good things.
Work for peace.
Run after peace until you catch it.
- 15 The Lord protects good people.
He hears their prayers.
- 16 But the Lord is against people that do bad
things.
He wants other people to forget those bad people completely!
- 17 Pray, and the Lord will hear you.
He will save you from all your troubles.
- 18 The Lord is close to people that are not proud.
He will save people that have crushed spirits.
- 19 Good people might have many problems.
But the Lord will save those good
people
from every one of their problems.
- 20 The Lord will protect all their bones.
Not one bone will be broken.
- 21 But troubles will kill evil people.
Bad people hate good people, but those bad people will be
destroyed.
- 22 Lord, save the soul of each of your servants.
Don't let the people that depend on you
be destroyed.

Psalm 35

To David.*

- 1 Lord, fight my battles.*
Fight my wars!
- 2 Lord, pick up the shield and buckler.*
Get up, and help me.
- 3 Take a spear and javelin* and fight against the people that are chasing me.

To David This might mean "David's <sub>1</sub>song<sub>2</sub>" or "Dedicated<sub>1</sub> to David."

battles The Hebrew word probably refers to legal battles in the courts.

buckler A shield that was large enough to protect the whole body.

javelin A weapon like a spear.

- Lord, tell my soul,
 "I will save you."
- 4 Some people are trying to kill me.
 Make those people be disappointed and ashamed.
 Make them turn and run away.
 Those people are planning to hurt me.
 Embarrass them.
- 5 Make those people be like chaff* blown by the wind.*
 Let them be chased by the Lord's angel.
- 6 Lord, let their road be dark and slippery.
 Let the Lord's angel chase them.
- 7 I did nothing wrong,
 but those people tried to trap me and kill
 me.
 I did nothing wrong,
 but they tried to trap me.
- 8 So, Lord, let those people fall into their own traps.
 Let them stumble into their own nets.
 Let some unknown danger catch them.
- 9 Then I will rejoice in the Lord.
 I will be happy when he saves me.
- 10 With my whole self I will say,
 "Lord, there is no one like you.
 Lord, you save a poor person from people that are stronger.
 You take things from strong people,
 and you give those things to the poor, helpless person."
- 11 A group of witnesses*
 are planning to hurt me.
 Those people will ask me questions.
 And I don't know what they are talking about.
- 12 I have done only good things.
 But those people will do only bad things
 to me.
 Lord, give me the good things, that I should get.

- 13 When those people were sick,
 I was sad for them.
 I showed my sadness by not eating
 food.
 Is this what I get for praying for those
 people?
- 14 I wore clothes of sadness for those
 people.
 I treated those people like my friends,
 or even like brothers.
 I was sad like a man crying because his mother had died.
 I wore black clothes to show my sadness for those people.
 I walked with my head bowed in sadness.
- 15 But when I made a mistake,*
 those people laughed at me.
 Those people were not really friends.
 They gathered around and attacked me.
 (I did not even know those people.)
- 16 They used bad language and made fun of
 me.
 Those people showed they were angry
 at me by grinding their teeth.
- 17 My Master, how long will you watch
 these bad things happen?
 Those people are trying to destroy me.
 Lord, save my life.
 Save my dear life from those bad
 people.
 They are like lions.
- 18 Lord, I will praise you in the great assembly.
 I will praise you when I am with the powerful people.
- 19 My lying enemies will not continue laughing.
 Surely my enemies will be punished for their secret plans.*
- 20 My enemies are not really making plans
 for peace.
 They are secretly making plans to do
 bad things

chaff The seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers saved the seeds but let the wind blow the useless chaff away.

wind This may be a word play because the Hebrew word also means "Spirit."

witnesses People that tell about things they have seen or heard. Here, these people were probably telling lies.

made a mistake Literally, "stumbled."

Surely ... plans Literally, "Will my haters freely wink their eyes?"

- against the peaceful people in this country.
- <sup>21</sup> My enemies are saying bad things about me.
 They tell lies and say,
 "Aha! We know what you are doing!"
- <sup>22</sup> Lord, surely you see what is really happening.
 So don't keep quiet.
 Don't leave me.
- <sup>23</sup> Lord, wake up!
 Get up!
 My God and my Lord, fight for me,
 and bring me justice.
- <sup>24</sup> Lord my God, judge me with your fairness.
 Don't let those people laugh at me.
 Don't let those people say,
 "Aha! We got what we wanted!"
 Lord, don't let them say,
 "We destroyed him!"
- <sup>26</sup> Make all my enemies be disappointed and embarrassed together.
 Those people were happy when bad things happened to me!
 Those people thought they were better than me!
 So let those people be filled with shame.
- <sup>27</sup> People that love goodness,
 you should be happy!
 Always say these things:
 "The Lord will make his servant great.
 And his servant is the person that loves peace."
- Psalm 36
- To the director.* To the servant of the Lord. To David.
- <sup>1</sup> A bad person does a very bad thing when he says to himself,
 "I will not fear and respect God."
- <sup>2</sup> That person lies to himself.
 That person does not see his own faults.
 So he does not ask for forgiveness.
- <sup>3</sup> His words are only worthless lies.
 He does not become wise or learn to do good.
- <sup>4</sup> At night, he plans worthless things.
 He gets up, and does nothing good.
 He does not refuse to do any bad thing.
- <sup>5</sup> Lord, your loving kindness is higher than the skies.
 Your loyalty is higher than the clouds.
- <sup>6</sup> Lord, your goodness is higher than the "mountains of the gods."*
 Your fairness is deeper than the deepest ocean.
 Lord, you protect man and animals.
- <sup>7</sup> Nothing is more precious than your loving kindness.
 People and angels*
 come to you for protection.
- <sup>8</sup> They get new strength from the good things in your house, Lord.
 You let them drink from your wonderful river.
- <sup>9</sup> Lord, the fountain of life flows from you!
 Your light lets us see light.
- <sup>10</sup> Lord, continue to love those people that truly know you.
 Let your goodness be for those people that are true to you.*
- <sup>11</sup> Lord, don't let me be trapped by proud people.
 Don't let me be caught by evil people.
- <sup>12</sup> Put this on their grave markers:;
 "Here fell the wicked people.
 They were crushed.
 They will never stand up again."

mountains ... gods Or, "highest mountains."
angels Or, "gods," or "powerful people."
true to you Or, "honest hearted."

Psalm 37

To David.*

- 1 Don't* get upset at evil people.
Don't be jealous of people that do bad things.
- 2 Grass and green plants soon become brown and die.
And evil people are just like that.
- 3 If you trust the Lord and do good things, you will live and enjoy the many things the land gives.
- 4 Enjoy serving the Lord,
and he will give you what you want.
- 5 Depend on the Lord.
Trust him.
And he will do what must be done.
- 6 Let your goodness and fairness shine like the sun at noon.
- 7 Trust the Lord,
and wait for his help.
Don't be upset when bad people succeed.
Don't be upset when bad people make evil plans and their plans are successful.
- 8 Don't be angry!
Don't get mad!
Don't be so upset that you want to do evil also!
- 9 Why? Because evil people will be destroyed.
But people that call to the Lord for help will get the earth.
- 10 In a short time there will be no more evil people.
You can look for those people,
but they will all be gone!
- 11 Humble people will get the earth.
And they will enjoy peace.
- 12 Evil people plan bad things against good people.
Those evil people show they are angry
by grinding their teeth at good people.
- 13 But our Master laughs at those evil people.
He sees the things that will happen to them.
- 14 Bad people get their swords and aim their bows.
They want to kill poor, helpless people.
They want to kill good, honest people.
- 15 But their bows will break.
And their swords will go into their own hearts.
- 16 A few good people are better than a large crowd of evil people.
- 17 Why? Because the evil people will be destroyed.
But the Lord cares for good people.
- 18 The Lord protects pure people all of their life.
Their reward will continue forever.
- 19 When trouble comes,
good people will not be destroyed.
When times of hunger come,
good people will have plenty to eat.
- 20 But evil people are the Lord's enemies, and those evil people will be destroyed.
Their valleys will become dry and burn.
They will be completely destroyed.
- 21 An evil man quickly borrows money,
and he never pays it back.
But a good man gladly gives to other people.
- 22 If a good person blesses people,
then those people will receive the land God promised.
But if he asks for bad things to happen to people,
then those people will be destroyed.
- 23 The Lord helps a soldier walk carefully.
The Lord keeps the soldier from falling.
- 24 If the soldier runs and attacks his enemy,
then the Lord holds the soldier's hand,
and keeps him from falling.
- 25 I have been young, and now I am old.
And I have never seen God leave good people without help.
I have never seen good people's children begging for food.

To David This might mean, "David's song," or "Dedicated to David."

Don't The first word in each verse of this song starts with the next letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

- 26 A good man always gives freely to other people.
And a good man's children are a blessing.
- 27 If you turn away from doing bad things, and if you do good things, then you will live forever.
- 28 The Lord loves fairness.
He will not leave his followers without help.
The Lord will always protect his followers,
but he will destroy wicked people.
- 29 Good people will receive the land (God promised).
They will live on it forever.
- 30 A good person gives good advice.
His decisions are fair to every person.
- 31 The Lord's teaching are in the good person's heart (mind).
He does not quit living the right way.
- 32 But bad people look for ways to hurt good people.
And bad people try to kill good people.
- 33 The Lord will not let bad people hurt good people.
He will not let good people be judged guilty.
- 34 Wait for the Lord's help.
Follow the Lord.
Wicked people will be destroyed.
But the Lord will make you important,
and you will receive the land (God promised).
- 35 I have seen powerful wicked people.
Their power grew like a tree.
- 36 But then they were gone.
I looked for them,
but I could not find them.
- 37 Be good and honest,
because that brings peace.
- 38 But people that break the law will all be destroyed.
- 39 The Lord saves good people.
When good people have troubles,
the Lord is their strength.
- 40 The Lord helps good people

and saves them.
Good people come to the Lord for help,
and the Lord saves them from bad people.

Psalms 38

A song of David* for the day of remembrance.*

- 1 Lord, don't be angry when you criticize me.
Don't be angry when you discipline me.
- 2 Lord, you have hurt me.
Your arrows went deep into me.
- 3 You punished me, and my whole body is sore.
I sinned, and you punished me.
So all my bones hurt.
- 4 I am guilty of doing bad things.
And that guilt is like a heavy weight on my shoulders.
- 5 I was foolish.
And now I have sores that stink and are infected.
- 6 I am bent and bowed.
I am depressed all day long.
- 7 I have a fever,
and my whole body hurts.
- 8 I am completely weak.
I am in pain,
so I moan and groan.
- 9 Lord, you heard my groaning.
My sighs are not hidden from you.
- 10 I have a fever.
My strength is gone,
and my sight is almost gone.
- 11 Because of my sickness,
my friends and neighbors will not come to see me,
and my family will not come near me.
- 12 My enemies say bad things about me.
They are spreading lies and rumors.*

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song, or that this song was dedicated to him.

for the day of remembrance The ancient Greek translation has "for the Sabbath."

rumors News that people are not sure is true. People don't know who started telling this news, and they don't know if it is true, but they still tell other people about it. Sometimes people start rumors to cause trouble.

They talk about me all the time.
 13 But I am like a deaf person that cannot hear.
 I am like a mute person
 that cannot speak—
 14 I am like a person that cannot hear the things people are saying about
 him.
 I cannot argue and prove that my enemies are wrong.
 15 So, Lord, you must defend me.
 My God and Master, tell my enemies
 the truth.
 16 If I say anything,
 then my enemies will laugh at me.
 They will see I am sick, and they will say that I am being punished for doing wrong.
 17 I know I am guilty of doing wrong things.
 I cannot forget my pain.
 18 Lord, I told you about the bad things I
 did.
 I am sad about my sins.
 19 My enemies are alive and healthy.
 And they have told many, many lies.
 20 My enemies do bad things to me,
 and I did only good things to them.
 I tried to do only good things,
 but those people turned against me.
 21 Lord, don't leave me!
 My God, stay close to me!
 22 Quickly come and help me!
 My God, save me!

Psalms 39

To the director.* To Jeduthun.* A song of David.*

1 I said,
 "I will be careful about the things I say.
 I will not let my tongue cause me to sin.
 2 I will keep my mouth closed*"

To the director Or, "performer."

To Jeduthun Or, "To the director, Jeduthun." This is probably one of the temple musicians. See 1 Chron. 9:16; 16:38-41.

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song or that this song was dedicated to him.

keep my mouth closed Literally, "I will guard my mouth with a muzzle."

when I am near wicked people."
 I refused to speak.
 I did not say anything.
 But I was really upset.
 3 I was very angry.
 And the more I thought about it,
 the more angry I became.
 So I said something.
 4 Lord, tell me, what is going to happen
 to me?
 Tell me, how long will I live?
 Let me know how short my life really is.
 5 Lord, you gave me only a short life.*
 My life is nothing to you.
 Every person's life is only like a cloud.
 No person lives forever!*

SELAH.*

6 The life we live is only a false image.
 All our troubles are for no reason.
 We continue collecting things, but we don't know who will get those things.
 7 So Master, what hope do I have?
 You are my hope!
 8 Lord, you will save me from the bad things I have done.
 You will not let me be treated like a foolish person.
 9 I will not open my mouth.
 I will not say anything.
 Lord, you did what should be done.
 10 God, quit punishing me.
 You have punished me enough.
 11 Lord, you punish people for doing wrong.
 That is how you teach people the right way to live.

Our bodies become old and wear out,
 like cloth that a moth eats.
 Our lives are like a small cloud that quickly disappears.].

short life Literally, "my life is only a handbreadth."

No person lives forever Literally, "No one stands" or "No one survives."

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

SELAH.*

- 12 Lord, hear my prayer!
Listen to the words I cry to you!
Look at my tears!
I am only a traveler passing through this life with you.
Like all my ancestors,*
I live here for only a short time.*
- 13 Lord, don't look at me!
Let me be happy before I die.
In a short time I will be gone!

Psalm 40

To the director.* A song of David.*

- 1 I called to the Lord,
and he heard me.
He heard my cries.
- 2 The Lord lifted me out from the pit of destruction.*
He lifted me from that muddy place.*
He picked me up and put me on a rock.
He made my feet steady.
- 3 The Lord put a new song* in my mouth, a song of praise to my God.
Many people will see the things that happened to me,
and they will worship God.
They will trust the Lord.
- 4 If a person trusts the Lord,

that person will be truly happy.
If a person does not turn to idols and false gods for help,
that person will be truly happy.

5 Lord, our God, you have done many wonderful things!
You have wonderful plans for us!
No person is like you, Lord!
I will tell again and again about the things
you have done.
There are too many things to count.

6 Lord, you made me understand this:.*
You did not really want sacrifices* and gifts of grain.
You did not really want burnt offerings and sin offerings.

- 7 So I said,
"Look, I am coming."
This was written about me in the book.
- 8 My God, I want to do what you want.
I have studied your teachings.
- 9 I will tell the good news about goodness to the great assembly.
Lord, you know that I will not keep my mouth shut.
- 10 Lord, I will tell about the good things you did—
I will not keep those good things a secret in my heart.
Lord, I will tell how you are true and loyal to people.
I will tell how you save people.
I will not hide your kindness and loyalty from the people in the assembly.
- 11 So Lord, don't hide your mercy from me!
Let your kindness and loyalty protect
me.
- 12 Evil people have gathered around me.
They are too many to count!
My sins have caught me,
and I can't escape them.
I have more sins than hair on my head.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

I live here ... time Literally, "I am a settler, like all my fathers."

director Or, "performer."

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song or that this song was dedicated to him.

pit of destruction Another name for "Sheol," the place of death.

muddy place In many ancient stories, Sheol, the place of death, is a dark place with mud all around. This is because dead people are usually buried in holes in the ground.

new song Whenever God did some new and wonderful thing for his people, they would write a new song about it. So this shows God has done some new thing for his people.

Lord ... this Literally, "You have dug my ears." The ancient Greek translation has "You created a body for me."

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

I have lost my courage.
 13 Run to me, Lord!
 Save me!
 Quickly, come save me!
 14 Those evil people are trying to kill me.
 Lord, make those people ashamed and disappointed.
 Those people want to hurt me.
 Let them run away in shame!
 15 Those bad people make fun of me.
 Let them be too embarrassed to speak!
 16 But let the people that look for you be happy.
 Always let those people say,
 "Praise the Lord!"
 Those people love being saved by you.
 17 Master, I am only a poor, helpless man.
 Help me.
 Save me.
 My God, come quickly!

Psalm 41

To the director.* A song of David.*

1 A person that helps poor people will get many blessings.
 When trouble comes,
 the Lord will save that person.
 2 The Lord will protect that person and save his life.
 That person will have many blessings
 on earth.
 God will not let that person's enemies destroy him.
 3 When that person is sick and in bed,
 the Lord will give him strength.
 That person may be sick in bed,
 but the Lord will make him well!
 4 I said,
 "Lord, be kind to me.
 I sinned against you,
 but forgive me and make me well."*

5 My enemies say bad things about me.
 They are saying,
 "When will he die and be forgotten?"
 6 Some people come and visit me, but they don't say what they are really thinking.
 Those people just come to get some news
 about me,
 and then they go and spread their rumors.*
 7 My enemies say bad things about me in secret.
 They are planning bad things against
 me.
 8 They say,
 "He did something wrong,
 so he should be sick.
 I hope he never gets well."
 9 My best friend ate with me.
 I trusted him.
 But now even my best friend has turned against me.
 10 So Lord, please be kind to me.
 Let me get up, and I will pay them back.
 11 Lord, if you don't let my enemies do bad things to me,
 then I will know that you have accepted
 me.
 12 If I become healthy, and if you let me stand close to you
 forever,
 then I will know that you support me.
 13 Bless the Lord, God of Israel!
 He always was
 and he always will be.
 Amen and
 Amen!

director Or, "performer."

A song of David This might mean that David wrote this song, or that this song was dedicated to him.

forgive ... well This Hebrew word means both, "heal" and "forgive."

rumors News that people are not sure is true. People don't know who started telling this news, and they don't know if it is true, but they still tell other people about it. Sometimes people start rumors to cause trouble.

BOOK 2

Psalm 42

To the director.* A maskil* from the Korah family.

- 1 A thirsty deer wants to drink water from cool streams.
In the same way, God, my soul is thirsty for you.
- 2 My soul is thirsty for the Living God.*
When can I come to meet with him?
- 3 My tears have been my food and water day and night!
The whole time, my enemy said,
"Where is your God?"
- 4 So let me remember all these things.
Let me pour out my soul.
I remember, walking and leading the crowd to God's temple.
I remember, singing happy songs of praise with many people celebrating the holiday.
- 5 Why am I so sad?
Why am I so upset?
I should wait for God's help.
I will get the chance to praise him yet.
He will save me!
- 6 My God, I remember you in the Jordan Valley, and on the Hermon mountains,
and on the mountain of Mizar.
But still I am very sad.
- 7 Troubles have come to me again and again,
like waves coming in from the sea.
I hear the sounds of the crashing ocean waves.
Lord, your waves are crashing all around me.

director Or, "performer."

maskil We are not sure of the exact meaning of the word "maskil." It might mean "a poem of meditation," "a poem of instruction," or "a skillfully-written poem."

Living God This is a word play. The Hebrew words for fresh water is "living water."

Your waves have covered me!

- 8 If the Lord would show his true love every day,
then at night I could sing his songs.
I could pray to my Living God.
- 9 I speak to God, my Rock.*
I say, "Lord, why did you forget me?
Why did you not show me how to escape my enemies?"
- 10 My enemies tried to kill me.
They show they hate me when they say,
"Where is your God?"
- 11 Why am I so sad?
Why am I so upset?
I should wait for God's help.
I will get the chance to praise him yet.
He will save me!

Psalm 43

- 1 God listen to my case against the people that don't follow you.
Argue my case for me,
and decide who is right.
Those people tell lies.
Those people are crooked.
God, save me from those people.
- 2 God, you are my place of safety!
Why did you leave me?
Why did you not show me how to escape my enemies?
- 3 God, let your light and truth shine on me.
Your light and truth will guide me.
Lead me to your holy mountain.
Lead me to your home.
- 4 I will come to God's altar.
I will come to God;
he makes me happy.
God, my God, I will praise you with a harp.
- 5 Why am I so sad?
Why am I so upset?
I should wait for God's help.

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

I will get the chance to praise God yet.
He will save me!

Psalm 44

To the director.* A maskil* from the Korah family.

- 1 God, we have heard about you.
Our fathers told us about the things you did in their days.
They told us about the things you did long ago.
- 2 God, with your great power you took this land from other people,
and you gave it to us.
You crushed those foreign people.
You forced them to leave this land.
- 3 It was not our father's swords that took the land.
It was not their strong arms that made them winners.
It was because you were with our fathers.
God, your great power saved our fathers.
Why? Because you loved them!
- 4 My God, you are my king.
Your commands led Jacob's people to victory.
- 5 My God, with your help,
we pushed back our enemies.
With your name,
we walked on our enemies.
- 6 I don't trust my bow and arrows,
My sword can't save me.
- 7 God, you saved us from Egypt.
You made our enemies ashamed.
- 8 We will praise God every day!
We will praise your name forever!
- SELAH*
- 9 But, God, you left us.
You embarrassed us.

- You did not come with us into battle.
- 10 You let our enemies push us back.
Our enemies took our wealth.
- 11 You gave us away like sheep to be eaten as food.
You scattered us among the nations.
- 12 God, you sold your people for nothing.
You did not even argue over the price.
- 13 You made us a joke to our neighbors.
Our neighbors laugh at us
and make fun of us.
- 14 We are one of the funny stories people tell.
Even people without a nation of their own
laugh at us and shake their heads.
- 15 I am covered with shame.
All day long I see my shame.
- 16 My enemy embarrassed me.
My enemy is trying to get even by making fun of me.
- 17 God, we have not forgotten you.
Yet you do all those things to us.
We did not lie when we signed our Agreement* with you!
- 18 God, we have not turned away from you.
We have not stopped following you.
- 19 But, God, you crushed us in this place where jackals* live.
You covered us in this place that is as dark as death.
- 20 Did we forget the name of our God?
Did we pray to foreign gods?
No!,<sup>21</sup> Surely, God knows these things.
He knows even our deepest secrets.
- 22 God, we are being killed for you every day!
We are like sheep that are being led away to be killed.
- 23 Get up, my Master!
Why are you sleeping?

director Or, "performer."

maskil We are not sure of the exact meaning of the word "maskil." It might mean "a poem of meditation;" "a poem of instruction," or "a skillfully-written poem."

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

jackal(s) A wild animal, like a dog. Jackals live only where no people are.

- Get up! Don't leave us forever!
 24 God, why are you hiding from us?
 Have you forgotten our pain and troubles?
 25 We have been pushed down into the dirt.
 We are lying with our belly in the dust.*
 26 God, get up and help us!
 For goodness' sake, save us!

Psalm 45

- To the director.* To the tune of "Shoshanim."*
 A maskil* of the Korah family. A love song.
- 1 Beautiful words fill my mind while I write these things for the king.
 Words come from my tongue like words come from a skilled writer's pen.
 2 You are more handsome than anyone!
 You are a very good speaker.
 So God will bless you forever!
 3 Put your sword on.
 Put on your glorious uniform.
 4 You look wonderful!
 Go and win the fight for goodness and fairness.
 Use your powerful right arm to do amazing things.
 5 Your arrows are ready.
 You will defeat many people.
 You will be the king over your
 enemies.
 6 God,* your throne continues forever!
 Goodness is your royal scepter.*
 7 You love goodness and you hate evil.
 So God, your God, chose you to be king over your friends.*

- 8 Your clothes smell like the sweet spices
 myrrh, aloes, and cassia.
 From palaces covered with ivory,
 comes music to make you happy.
 9 Kings' daughters are among your honored women.
 Your bride* stands at your right side, wearing a crown made of gold from Ophir.
 10 Listen to me, daughter.
 Forget your people and your father's family.
 11 The king loves your beauty.
 He will be your new husband.*
 You will honor him.
 12 People from the city of Tyre will bring gifts to you.
 Wealthy people will want to meet with
 you.
 13 The princess is like a beautiful jewel in an expensive and beautiful gold setting.
 14 She wears her beautiful clothes,
 and she is brought to the king.
 Her bridesmaids behind her are also brought before the king.
 15 They come filled with happiness.
 Filled with happiness they enter the king's palace.
 16 King, your sons will rule after you.
 You will make them rulers throughout
 the land.
 17 I will make your name famous forever.
 People will praise you forever and ever!

We are lying ... in the dust This shows the people were being treated like slaves that must bow down to their masters.

director Or, "performer."

To the ... Shoshanim Or, "On the Shoshanim."

maskil We are not sure of the exact meaning of the word "maskil." It might mean "a poem of meditation," "a poem of instruction," or "a skillfully-written poem."

God This might be a song to God, as king. Or here the writer might be using the word "God" as a title for the king.

scepter A special stick. Kings and leaders carried scepters to show they were rulers.

chose ... friends Literally, "poured the sweet oil on you over your friends." This was the special oil stored in the temple and used to anoint kings, priests, and prophets.

Psalm 46

To the director.* To the sons of Korah. By the Alamothe.* A song.

- 1 God is our storehouse of strength.
 In him, we can always find help in times of trouble.

bride Or, "queen."

husband Or, "master."

Alamothe This is probably a musical word. It may mean "like a flute" or "high-pitched."

- <sup>1</sup> So we are not afraid when the earth quakes
and the mountains fall into the sea.
- <sup>1</sup> We are not afraid when the seas become rough and dark,
and the earth and mountains shake.
- SELAH*
- <sup>4</sup> There is a river, and its streams bring happiness to God's
city,
to the holy city of God Most High.
- <sup>3</sup> God is in that city,
so it will never be destroyed.
God will help before sunrise.
- <sup>6</sup> The nations will shake with fear,
those kingdoms will fall
when the Lord shouts,
and the earth crumbles.
- <sup>7</sup> The Lord All-Powerful is with us.
The God of Jacob is our place of safety.
- SELAH*
- <sup>8</sup> Look, see the powerful things the Lord
does.
Those things make the Lord famous on earth.
- <sup>9</sup> The Lord can stop wars anywhere on earth.
He can break the soldiers' bows and shatter their spears.
He can burn the chariots with fire.
- <sup>10</sup> God says,
"Be calm and learn that I am God!
I will be praised among the nations, glorified on earth!"
- <sup>11</sup> The Lord All-Powerful is with us.
The God of Jacob is our place of safety.
- SELAH*

Psalm 47

To the director.* To the sons of Korah. A song.

- <sup>1</sup> Clap your hands, all you people.
Shout with joy to God!
- <sup>2</sup> The Lord Most High is awesome.
He is the Great King over all the earth.
- <sup>3</sup> The Lord commanded, and we defeated
and conquered the nations.
- <sup>4</sup> God chose our land for us.
He chose the wonderful land for Jacob.
Jacob is the one he loved.
- <sup>5</sup> The Lord God got up at the sound of the trumpet and war horn.
- <sup>6</sup> Sing praises to God.
Sing praises.
Sing praises to our King.
Sing praises.
- <sup>7</sup> God is the king of the whole world.
Sing songs of praise.
- <sup>8</sup> God sits on his holy throne.
God rules all the nations.
- <sup>9</sup> The leaders of the nations meet together with God's people,
God's people are Abraham's
descendants.*
All those people belong to God.
God is the Shield and Protector of all
nations.
He is the most wonderful God!

Psalm 48

A song. A song of the sons of Korah.

- <sup>1</sup> The Lord is great.
He is worthy of praise in the city of our God,
his holy city.
- <sup>2</sup> God's holy city is a beautiful city,
the happiest city on earth.
Mount Zion is the highest, holiest
mountain,

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

director Or, "performer."

descendants A person's children and all their future families.

- it is the city of the Great King.
 3 Here in the palaces in that city,
 God is called the Fortress.
 4 One time, some kings met together
 They planned to attack this city.
 They all marched forward together.
 5 Those kings looked,
 they were amazed,
 they panicked,
 and they all ran away!
 6 Fear grabbed those kings.
 They were like a woman with labor pains.
 7 A strong east wind wrecked their cargo ships.
 8 Yes, we have heard the story about those kings,
 but we also saw it happen.
 We saw it in the city of the Lord
 All-Powerful,
 in the city of our God.
 God will make that city strong forever!
 SELAH*
- 9 God, in your temple we think carefully about your loving kindness.
 10 God, you are famous.
 People praise you everywhere on earth.
 Every person knows how good you
 are.
 11 Mount Zion is happy.
 God, the towns of Judah rejoice because you make good decisions.
 12 Walk around Zion.
 Look at the city.
 Count the towers.
 13 See the tall walls.
 Admire Zion's palaces.
 Then you can tell the next generation about it.
 14 God really will be our God forever and ever!
 He will lead us forever
 and he will never die!

Psalm 49

To the director. * A song of the sons of Korah.

- 1 Listen to this all you nations.
 Listen to this all you people living on
 earth.
 2 Every person, poor and rich alike, should listen.
 3 I will tell you some very wise and intelligent things.
 4 I listened to the stories,
 and now, with my harp,
 I will sing those stories to you.
 5 There is no reason for me to be afraid of danger,
 no reason for me to fear the traps of people trying to trap me.
 6 People that trust their own strength and wealth are fools.
 7 No human friend will save you.
 You can't pay God to make him change
 what will happen.
 8 No person will ever get enough money to buy his own life.
 9 No person will ever get enough money to buy the right to live forever, and save his own body from rotting in his grave.
 10 Look, wise people die the same as fools and stupid people,
 and all their wealth goes to another person.
 11 The grave will be everyone's new home
 forever and ever,
 And it does not matter how much land
 they own.
 12 Wealthy people are no different than foolish people,
 All people die, just like animals.
 13 And the really foolish thing about people is that they let their appetites decide what they should do.
 SELAH*
- 14 All people are just like sheep.
 The grave will be their pen.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

director Or, "performer."

- Death will be their shepherd.
 Their bodies will decay and rot away in the grave.
- 15 But God will pay the price and save my
 life.
 He will save me from the power of the grave!
- SELAH*
- 16 Don't be afraid of people
 just because they are rich.
 Don't be afraid of people
 just because they have big, beautiful houses.
- 17 Those people will not take anything with them when they die.
 They will not take any of those beautiful things with them.
- 18 People should praise God while they live.
 People should praise God while he does good things for them.
- 19 The time will come for those people to go to their ancestors.* And they will never again see the light of day.
- 20 Wealthy people are no different than
 foolish people.
 All people die, just like animals.

Psalm 50

One of Asaph's songs.

- 1 The Lord, the God of gods has spoken.
 He calls all people on earth,
 from the rising to the setting sun.
- 2 God is beautiful shining from Zion!
- 3 Our God is coming,
 and he will not keep quiet.
 Fire burns in front of him.
 There is a great storm around him.
- 4 Our God calls to the sky above and to the earth
 to judge his people.

- 5 "My followers, gather around me.
 Come my worshipers,
 we made an agreement with each other."
- 6 God is the judge,
 and the skies tell about his goodness.
 SELAH*
- 7 God says,
 "My people, listen to me!
 People of Israel, I will show my evidence against you.
 I am God, your God.
- 8 I am not complaining about your sacrifices.
 You people of Israel bring me your burnt offerings all the time.
 You give them to me every day.
- 9 I have not come to get bulls from your house.
 I have not come to get goats from your stalls.
- 10 I don't need those animals.
 I already own all the animals in the forest.
 I already own all the animals on thousands of mountains.
- 11 I know every bird on the highest
 mountain.
 Every moving thing in the hills are mine.
- 12 I am not hungry!
 If I were hungry,
 I would not have to ask you for food.
 I own the world and everything in it.
- 13 I don't eat meat from bulls.
 I don't drink blood from goats."
- 14 The sacrifice God really wants is your praise.
 Your promises to serve him are the fellowship offerings that God
 Most High really wants.
- 15 "People of Israel, pray to me when you have troubles!
 I will help you.
 And then you can honor me."
- 16 God says to wicked people,
 "You people talk about my laws.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

You talk about my Agreement.
 17 So why do you hate it when I correct you?
 Why do you ignore the things I say?
 18 You see a thief,
 and you run to join him.
 You jump into bed with people doing the sin of adultery.
 19 You people say bad things and tell lies.
 20 You constantly say bad things about other people, even your own brother.
 21 You do these bad things,
 and you think I should be quiet.
 You don't say anything about all these bad things,
 and you think I should be quiet too.
 Well, I will not!
 I will make it plain and criticize you to your face!
 22 You people have forgotten God.
 So you better understand before I tear you apart!
 If that happens,
 no person can save you!
 23 If a person lets his thanks and praise be his sacrifices, then he will really be honoring me.
 If a person changes his life,
 then I will show him God's power to save."

Psalm 51

To the director. * One of David's songs. This song is about the time that Nathan the prophet went to David after David's sin with Bathsheba.

1 God, be merciful to me,
 because of your great loving kindness,
 because of your great mercy,
 erase all my sins.
 2 God, scrub away my guilt.
 Wash away my sins,
 Make me clean again!
 3 I know I sinned.
 I always see those sins.

4 I did the things you say are wrong.
 God, you are the One I sinned against.
 I confess these things so people will know
 I am wrong,
 and you are right
 and your decisions are fair.
 5 I was born in sin,
 and in sin my mother conceived me.
 6 God, you want us to be loyal and secure,
 so teach me the secrets of true wisdom.
 7 Use the hyssop plant and do the ceremony to make me pure.
 Wash me until I am whiter than snow!
 8 Make me happy!
 Tell me how to be happy again.
 Let the bones you crushed be happy again!
 9 Don't look at my sins!
 Erase them all!
 10 God, create a pure heart in me!
 Make my spirit strong again!
 11 Don't push me away!
 And don't take your Holy Spirit away from me!
 12 Bring me the joy that comes from being saved by you!
 Keep my spirit steady and ready to obey you.
 13 I will teach sinners your way of living, and they will come back to you.
 14 God, don't let me be guilty of murder.
 My God, you are my Savior.
 Let me sing about how good you are!
 15 My Master, let me open my mouth and sing your praises!
 16 You don't want sacrifices.
 I don't need to give sacrifices that you don't even want!
 17 God, my sacrifice to you is my broken spirit.
 God, you will not turn away a crushed and broken heart.
 18 God, be good and kind to Zion.*

- Build the walls of Jerusalem.
 19 Then you will enjoy the good sacrifices and whole burnt offerings.
 And people will again offer bulls on your altar.

Psalm 52

To the director.* One of David's maskils.* At the time Doeg the Edomite went to Saul and told him, "David is in Ahimelech's house."

- 1 Big man, why do you brag about the bad things you do?
 You are a disgrace to God.
 All day you plan to do crooked things.
 2 Your tongue is as dangerous as a sharp razor.
 Why? Because your tongue is speaking lies!
 3 You love evil more than goodness.
 You love lying more than telling the truth.
 SELAH*
 4 You and your lying tongue love to hurt
 people.
 5 So God will ruin you forever!
 He will grab you and pull you from your home.*
 He will kill you, and you will have no
 descendants.*
 6 Good people will see this,
 and they will learn to fear and respect
 God.
 They will laugh at you and say,
 7 "Look what happened to the man that did not depend on God.
 That man trusted his wealth and lies to help him."

director Or, "performer."

maskils We are not sure of the exact meaning of the word
 "maskil." It might mean "a poem of meditation," "a poem of instruction," or "a skillfully-written poem."

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

home This means the body. This is a poetic way of saying God will kill this person.

descendants A person's children and all their future
 families.

- 8 But in God's temple,
 I am like a green olive tree.
 I trust God's love forever and ever.
 9 God, I praise you forever for the things
 you have done.
 With your other followers,
 I will trust your good name.

Psalm 53

To the director.* On the mahalath.* One of David's maskils.*

- 1 Only a foolish person* thinks there is no
 God.
 People like that are corrupt, evil,
 malicious,
 and they don't do anything good.
 2 There really is a God in heaven looking at
 us.
 God is looking to see if there are any wise people;
 And the wise people are looking for
 God!
 3 But every person has turned away from
 God.
 Every person is bad.
 No person does anything good.
 No, not one person!
 4 God says,
 "Surely those evil people know the truth!
 But they don't pray to me.
 Those evil people are as ready to destroy my people
 as they are to eat their food."
 5 But those evil people will be scared, like they have never been scared before!
 Those evil people are Israel's enemies.
 God has rejected those evil people.
 So God's people will defeat them,
 and God will scatter those evil peoples'
 bones.

malalath This is probably a musical word. It might be the name of a tune, or it might mean to dance and shout.

foolish person Here this means a person that does not follow God and his teachings.

- <sup>6</sup> People of Israel, who will give the victory to Zion?
„Yes, God will help them win.„ God will bring his people back from exile.*
Jacob will rejoice.
Israel will be very happy.

Psalm 54

To the director.* With instruments. One of David's maskils.* At the time the Ziphites went to Saul and told him, "We think David is hiding among our people."

- <sup>1</sup> God, use your authority and save me.
Use your power to set me free.
<sup>2</sup> God, listen to my prayer.
Listen to the things I say.
<sup>3</sup> Strangers have turned against me.
Powerful men are trying to kill me.
God, those men don't even think about you.
SELAH.*
<sup>4</sup> Look, my God will help me.
My Master will support me.
<sup>5</sup> My God will punish the people that turned against me.
God will be true to me,
and he will destroy those people.
<sup>6</sup> God, I will give freewill offerings to you.
Lord, I will praise your good name.
<sup>7</sup> But I ask you to save me from all my troubles.
Let me see my enemies defeated.

Psalm 55

To the director.* With instruments. One of David's maskils.*

- <sup>1</sup> God, hear my prayer.
Please don't turn away from me.
<sup>2</sup> God, please listen to me and answer me.
Let me tell you my complaints.
<sup>3</sup> My enemy said bad things to me.
That wicked man yelled at me.
My enemies were angry and attacked me.
They brought troubles crashing down on top of me.
<sup>4</sup> My heart is pounding inside me.
I am scared to death.
<sup>5</sup> I am scared and shaking.
I am terrified.
<sup>6</sup> Oh, I wish I had wings like a dove.
I would fly away and find a place to rest.
<sup>7</sup> I would go far, far away into the desert.
SELAH*
<sup>8</sup> I will run away.
I will escape.
I will run away from this storm of
trouble.
<sup>9</sup> My Master, stop their lies.
I see too much violence and fighting in this city.
<sup>10</sup> Troubles are all around me, day and night, in every part of town.
There are terrible things happening in this town.
<sup>11</sup> There is too much crime in the streets.
People are lying and cheating everywhere.
<sup>12</sup> If it were an enemy insulting me,
I could bear it.
If it were my enemies attacking me,
I could hide.
<sup>13</sup> But it is you, my companion,
my colleague, my friend.
„You are giving me troubles.„
<sup>14</sup> We shared our secrets together.

exile Being forced to leave one's home country.

director Or, "performer."

Maskil(s) We are not sure of the exact meaning of the word
"maskil." It might mean "a poem of meditation," "a poem of instruction," or "a skillfully-written poem."

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the
music should be louder here.

We worshiped together in God's temple.*

- 15 I hope my enemies die before their time.
I hope they are buried alive!
Why? Because they plan such terrible things in their homes.
- 16 I will call to God for help.
And the Lord will answer me.
- 17 Evening, morning, and noon I will tell God my complaints.
And he will listen to me!
- 18 I have many enemies.
But God will save me
and bring me back safely
from every battle.
- 19 God will hear me.
The Eternal King will help me.
- SELAH*
- 20 My enemies will not change their lives.
They don't fear and respect God.
- 21 My enemies attack their own friends.
They don't do the things they agree to do.
- 22 My enemies are really smooth talkers;
they talk about peace,
but they are really planning wars.
Their words are as slick as oil,
but those words cut like a knife.
- 23 Give your worries to the Lord,
and he will care for you.
The Lord will never let good people be defeated.
- 24 God, send those murderers and liars to their grave, before their life is half finished!
As for me, I will trust in you.

Psalms 56

To the director.* To the tune "The Dove in the Distant Oak." One of David's miktams.* At the time the Philistines captured him in Gath.

- 1 God, be merciful to me because people have attacked me.
They have been chasing me and fighting me day and night.
- 2 My enemies have attacked me all day.
There are too many fighters to count.
- 3 When I am afraid,
I trust you.
- 4 I trust God,
so I am not afraid.
People can't hurt me!
I praise God for his promise to me.
- 5 My enemies are always twisting my words.
And they are always making plans against me.
- 6 They hide together and watch my every move, hoping for some way to kill me.
- 7 God, don't let them escape.
Punish them for the bad things they do.
- 8 You know I am very upset.
You know how much I have cried.
Surely you have kept an account of all my tears.
- 9 So, defeat my enemies when I call to you for help.
I know you can do it;
you are God!
- 10 I praise God for his promise.
I praise the Lord for his promise to me.
- 11 I trust God,
so I am not afraid.
People can't hurt me!
- 12 God, I made special promises to you.
And I will do what I promised.
I will give you my thank offering.
- 13 Why? Because you saved me from death.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

director Or, "performer."

miktam(s) The exact meaning of "miktam" is not clear, but it might mean "a well-arranged song."

You kept me from being defeated.
So I will worship God in the light that only living people can see.

Psalm 57

To the director.* "Don't Destroy." One of David's miktams.* At the time he escaped from Saul in the cave.

- 1 God, be merciful to me.
Be kind because my soul trusts you.
I have come to you for protection,
while the trouble passes.
- 2 I pray to God Most High for help.
And God takes care of me completely!
- 3 From heaven he helps me and saves me.
He defeats the people that bother me.
SELAH*
God shows his true love to me.
- 4 My life is in danger.
My enemies are all around me and they are like man-eating lions,
with teeth as sharp as spears and arrows,
and tongues as sharp as a sword.
- 5 God is more exalted than the heavens.
His glory covers the earth.
- 6 My enemies set a trap for me.
They are trying to trap me.
They have dug a deep pit for me to fall into.
SELAH*
- 7 But God will keep me safe.
He will keep me brave.
I will sing praises to him.
- 8 Wake up, my soul!
Harps and lyres,* begin your music!
Let's wake the Dawn.
- 9 My Master, I praise you to everyone.
I sing songs of praise about you to every nation.

director Or, "performer."

miktam(s) The exact meaning of "miktam" is not clear, but it might mean "a well-arranged song."

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

lyre(s) An instrument with several strings, like a harp.

- 10 Your true love is higher than the highest clouds in the sky!
- 11 God is more exalted than the heavens.
His glory covers the earth.

Psalm 58

To the director.* "Don't Destroy." One of David's miktams.*

- 1 You judges are not being fair in your decisions.
You are not judging people fairly.
- 2 No, you only think of evil things you can
do.
You do violent crimes in this country.
- 3 Those evil men started doing wrong as soon as they were born.
They have been liars from birth.
- 4 They are as dangerous as snakes.
And, like cobras that can't hear, those evil people refuse to listen to the truth.
- 5 Cobras can't hear the music or songs of snake charmers.
And those evil people are like that.
- 6 Lord, those people are like lions.
So Lord, break their teeth.
- 7 May those people disappear like water draining away.
May they be crushed like weeds on a path.
- 8 May they be like snails melting away as they move.
May they be like a baby that was born dead
and never saw the light of day.
- 9 May they be destroyed quickly, like thorns that burn too fast to heat the pot on the fire.
- 10 A good man will be happy when he sees people punished for the bad things they did to him.
He will wash his feet in the blood of those wicked men.
- 11 When that happens, people will say,
"Good people really are rewarded.
There really is a God that judges the world!"

Psalm 59

To the director.* "Don't Destroy." One of David's miktams.* From the time that Saul sent people to watch David's house to try to kill him.

- 1 God, save me from my enemies.
Help me be the winner against the people that have come to fight me.
- 2 Save me from those people that do bad things.
Save me from those murderers.
- 3 Look, strong men are waiting for me.
They are waiting to kill me.
And it is not because I sinned or committed some crime.
- 4 They are chasing me,
and I did nothing wrong.
Lord, come and see for yourself!
- 5 You are the Lord God All-Powerful, the God of Israel!
Get up and punish those people.
Don't show any mercy to those evil traitors.

SELAH*

- 6 Those evil men come into town in the evening,
and they are like dogs growling,
and roaming through town.
- 7 Listen to their threats and insults.
They say such cruel things,
and they don't care who hears them.
- 8 Lord, laugh at them.
Make fun of all those people.
- 9 God you are my strength, I am waiting for you.
God, you are my place of safety high in the mountains.
- 10 God loves me, and he will help me win.
He will help me defeat my enemies.
- 11 Don't just kill them, God,
or my people might forget.
My Master and Protector, scatter them and defeat them with your strength.

- 12 Those evil people curse and tell lies.
Punish them for the things they said.
Let their pride trap them.
  - 13 Destroy them in your anger.
Destroy them completely!
Then people will know that God rules
Jacob's people and the whole world!
- SELAH*
- 14 Then if those evil men come into town in the evening,
like dogs growling, and roaming
through town,
  - 15 then they will go looking for something
to eat,
and they will find no food and no place to sleep.
  - 16 And I will sing songs of praise to you.
In the mornings, I will rejoice in your love.
Why? Because you are my place of
safety,
high in the mountains.
And I can run to you when troubles come.
  - 17 I will sing my songs of praise to you.
Why? Because you are my place of safety
high in the mountains.
You are the God who loves me!

Psalm 60

To the director.* To the tune "Lily of the Agreement." A miktam* of David's. For teaching. When David fought Aram Naharaim* and Aram Zobah,* and when Joab came back and defeated 12,000 Edomite soldiers at Salt Valley.

- 1 God, you left us.
You defeated us.
You were angry at us.
Please come back to us.

director Or, "performer."

miktam(s) The exact meaning of "miktam" is not clear, but it might mean "a well-arranged song."

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

Aram Naharaim Or, "the Arameans of Northwest Mesopotamia."

Aram Zobah Or, "the Arameans of central Syria."

- <sup>1</sup> You caused the earth to shake and split open.
Our world is falling apart;
please fix it.
- <sup>3</sup> You have given your people many troubles.
We are staggering and falling like drunk people.
- <sup>4</sup> You have warned the people that worship you.
Now they can escape the enemy.
- SELAH*
- <sup>5</sup> Use your great power and save us!
Answer my prayer and save the people you love!
- <sup>6</sup> God speaks from his temple.
"I will win and be happy about the victory.
And I will share this land with my people.
I will divide Shechem and Succoth Valley.
Gilead and Manasseh will be mine.
Ephraim will be my helmet.
Judah will be my royal scepter.* <sup>8</sup>I will make Moab like a bowl for washing my feet.
Edom will be like a slave that carries my sandals.
I will defeat the Philistine people."
- <sup>9</sup> Who will bring me to the strong, protected city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
- <sup>10</sup> God, only you can help me do these things.
But you left us!
God will not go with us and our armies!
- <sup>11</sup> God, help us out of this tight spot.
People can't help us!
- <sup>12</sup> But we can win with God's help!
God can defeat our enemies!

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

scepter A special stick. Kings and leaders carried scepters to show they were rulers.

Psalm 61

To the director.* With stringed instruments. One of David's songs.

- <sup>1</sup> God, hear my prayer song.
Listen to my prayer.
- <sup>2</sup> Wherever I am, however weak,
I will call to you for help!
Carry me to the place of safety far above.
- <sup>3</sup> You are my place of safety!
You are the strong tower protecting me from my enemies.
- <sup>4</sup> I will live in your Tent* forever.
I will hide where you can protect me.
- SELAH*
- <sup>5</sup> God, you heard what I promised to give you.
But everything your worshipers have comes from you.
- <sup>6</sup> Give the king a long life.
Let him live forever!
- <sup>7</sup> Let him live with God forever!
Protect him with your true love.
- <sup>8</sup> And I will praise your name forever.
Every day, I will do the things I promised.

Psalm 62

To the director.* To Jeduthun. One of David's songs.

- <sup>1</sup> I wait patiently for God to save me.
- <sup>2</sup> God is my fortress.*
God saves me.
God is my place of safety high on the mountain.
Not even great armies can defeat me.
- <sup>3</sup> How long will you attack me?
I am like a leaning wall,
a fence ready to fall.
- <sup>4</sup> Those people are planning to destroy me.
They tell lies about me.

director Or, "performer."

Tent The temple in Jerusalem, or the Holy Teot where the people worshiped God before the temple was built.

fortress A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

In public, they say good things about me, but they secretly curse me.

SELAH*

<sup>5</sup> I wait patiently for God to save me.

God is my only hope.

God saves me.

God is my place of safety high on the mountain.

<sup>7</sup> My glory and victory comes from God.

He is my strong fortress.

God is my place of safety.

<sup>8</sup> People, trust God all the time!

Tell God about all your problems.

God is our place of safety.

<sup>9</sup> People can't really help.

You can't trust them to really help.

Compared to God,
they are like nothing,
like a gentle puff of air!

<sup>10</sup> Don't trust the power to take things by force.

Don't think you will gain anything by stealing.

And if you become rich,
don't trust your riches to help you.

<sup>11</sup> God says there is one thing you can really depend on:

Strength comes from God!

<sup>12</sup> My Master, your love is real.

You reward or punish a person for the things he does.

Psalm 63

One of David's songs. From the time he was in the desert of Judah.

And I want you so much.

My soul and my body thirst for you,
like a dry, weary land with no water.

I have seen your strength and glory.

<sup>3</sup> Your love is better than life.

My lips praise you.

<sup>4</sup> Yes, I will praise you in my life.

In your name, I will lift my arms and pray to you.

<sup>5</sup> I will be satisfied
as though I had eaten the best foods.

And my mouth will praise you.

<sup>6</sup> I will remember you while lying on my bed.

I will remember you in the middle of the night.

<sup>7</sup> You really have helped me!

I am happy that you protected me!

<sup>8</sup> My soul clings to you.

And you hold my hand.

<sup>9</sup> Some people are trying to kill me.
But they will be destroyed.

They will go down to their graves.

<sup>10</sup> They will be killed with swords.

Wild dogs will eat their dead bodies.

All the people that promised to obey him will praise him.

Why? Because he defeated all those liars.

Psalm 64

To the director.* One of David's songs.

<sup>1</sup> God, listen to me.

I am afraid of my enemies.

I am afraid for my life.

<sup>2</sup> Protect me from the secret plans of my enemies.

Hide me from those wicked people.

<sup>3</sup> They have told many bad lies about me.

Their tongues have been like sharp swords,

their bitter words like arrows.

<sup>4</sup> They hide, and then shoot their arrows at a simple, honest man.

And before he knows it, he is wounded.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

fortress A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

director Or, "performer."

They tell lies and set their traps.
And they are sure no person will catch them.

- 6 People can be very tricky.
It is very hard to understand what people are thinking.
- 7 But God can shoot his "arrows" too!
And before they know it, the evil people are wounded.
- 8 Evil people plan to do bad things to other people.
But God can ruin their plans,
and make those bad things happen to themselves.
- Then everyone that sees them will shake their heads in amazement.
- 9 People will see the things that God has done.
They will tell other people about those things.
Then everyone will learn more about God.
They will learn to fear and respect him.
- 10 Good people should be happy in the Lord.
They should trust him.
Praise the Lord, all of you good people.

Psalm 65

To the director.* One of David's songs of praise.

- 1 God on Zion,* I praise you.
I give you the things I promised.
- 2 We tell about the things you have done.
And you hear our prayers.
You hear the prayers of every person that comes to you.
- 3 When our sins become too heavy for us to bear,
you take away those sins.
- 4 God, you chose your people.
You chose us to come to your temple and worship you.
And we are very happy!

We have all the wonderful things in your temple,
your holy palace.

- 5 God, you save us.
Good people pray to you,
and you answer their prayers.
You do amazing things for them.
People all around the world trust you.
- 6 God used his great power and made the mountains.
- 7 God made the rough seas calm.
And God made all the many people in the world.
- 8 Every person on earth fears the powerful things God does.
God, in every place that you cause the sun to rise and set,
people praise you.
- 9 You take care of the land.
You water it and you make it grow things.
God, you fill the streams with water and make the crops grow.
This is how you do it:
- 10 You cause rain to fall on the plowed fields.
You soak the fields with water.
You make the ground soft with rain,
and then you make the young plants grow.
- 11 You start the new year with a good harvest.*
And you load the wagons with many crops.
- 12 The desert and hills are covered with grass.
- 13 The pastures are covered with sheep.
The valleys are filled with grain.
Everyone is singing and shouting with happiness.

director Or, "performer."

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

start ... harvest In ancient Israel there were apparently two calendars. The calendar for religious holidays began in the spring, at barley harvest. The other calendar started in the fall, when they gathered other crops.

Psalm 66

To the director.* A song of praise.

- 1 Everything on earth,
shout with joy to God!
  - 2 Praise his glorious name!
Honor him with songs of praise!
  - 3 Tell God how wonderful his works are!
God, your power is very great!
Your enemies bow down.
They are afraid of you!
  - 4 May the whole world worship you.
May everyone sing praises to your name.
- SELAH*
- 5 Look at the amazing things God has
done!
Those things amaze us.
  - 6 God made the sea become dry land.*
And his happy people walked across the river.*
  - 7 God rules the world with his great power.
God watches people everywhere.
No person can rebel against him.
- SELAH*
- 8 People, praise our God.
Sing loud songs of praise to him.
  - 9 God gave us life.
And God protects us.
  - 10 God tested us.
God tested us like people test silver with fire.
  - 11 God, you let us be trapped.
You put heavy burdens on us.
  - 12 You let our enemies walk on us.
You dragged us through fire and water.
But you brought us to a safe place.
  - 3:14 So I will bring sacrifices* to your temple.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

sea ... land This was with Moses at the Red Sea. See Ex.14.

walked ... river This was with Joshua at the Jordan River. See Joshua 3:14-17.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

When I was in trouble,
I asked you for help.

And I made many promises to you.
Now, I am giving you the things I promised.

- 15 I am giving you sin offerings.
I am giving you incense* with the rams.
I am giving you bulls and goats.
- SELAH*
- 16 All of you people worshiping God, come and I will tell you what God did
for me.
  - 17 I prayed to him.
I praised him.
  - 18 My heart was pure,
so my Master listened to me.
  - 19 God listened to me.
God heard my prayer.
  - 20 Praise God!
God did not turn away from me—
he listened to my prayer.
God showed his love to me!

Psalm 67

To the director.* With instruments. A song of praise.

- 1 God, show mercy to me and bless me.
Please accept us!
- SELAH*
- 2 Let every person on earth learn about you, (God).
Let every nation learn how you save
people.
  - 3 May people praise you, God!
May all people praise you.
  - 4 May all nations rejoice and be happy!
Why? Because you judge people fairly.
And you rule over every nation.
  - 5 May people praise you, God!
May all people praise you.
  - 6 God, our God, bless us.
Let our land give us a great harvest.
  - 7 May God bless us.
And may everyone on earth fear and respect God.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

Psalm 68

To the director.* One of David's songs of praise.

- 1 God, get up and scatter your enemies.
May all of his enemies run from him.
- 2 May your enemies be scattered,
like smoke blown away by the wind.
May your enemies be destroyed,
like wax melting in a fire.
- 3 But good people are happy.
Good people have a happy time together with God.
Good people enjoy themselves and are very happy!
- 4 Sing to God.
Sing praises to his name.
Prepare the way for God.
He rides his chariot* over the desert.
His name is Yah.*
Praise his name!
- 5 In his holy temple,
God is like a father to orphans.*
God takes care of widows.*
- 6 God gives lonely people a home.
God takes his people out of prison.
They are very happy.
But people that turn against God,
will stay in their hot prison.
- 7 God, you led your people out of Egypt,
You marched across the desert.
SELAH*
- 8 And the ground shook.
God, the God of Israel came to Mount Sinai,
and the sky melted.
- 9 God, you sent the rain, and you made the weak, old land strong
again.

director Or, "performer."

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

Yah This is a Hebrew name for God.

orphan(s) Children whose parents have died.

widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

- 10 Your animals came back to that land.
God, you gave many good things to the poor people there.
- 11 God gave the command.
And many people went to tell the good news:
- 12 "The armies of powerful kings are running away!
The women at home will divide the things the soldiers bring from war.
The people that stayed at home will share in the wealth.
- 13 They will get the dove wings covered
with silver.
They will get the wings sparkling with gold."
- 14 On Mount Zalmon, God scattered the enemy kings.
They were like falling snow.
- 15 Mount Bashan is a great mountain.
Mount Bashan has many peaks.
- 16 Mount Bashan, why do you look down on Mount Zion?
God loves that mountain (Zion).
The Lord chose to live there forever.
- 17 The Lord comes to Holy Mount Zion, And behind him are millions of his chariots.*
- 18 Go up to heights!
Lead the parade of captives!
Receive the gifts that people are giving you!
Even people that fought against you,
are bringing gifts to the temple of the Lord God.
- 19 Praise the Lord!
Every day he helps us with the loads we must carry.
God saves us!
SELAH*
- 20 He is our God.
He is the God that saves us.
The Lord our God saves us from death.
- 21 God will show that he defeated his enemies.
God will punish the people that fought

- against him.*
 22 My Master said,
 "I will bring the enemy back from Bashan,
 I will bring the enemy from the sea,
 23 so you can walk in their blood, so your dogs can lick up their blood."
 24 People see God leading the victory parade.
 People see my Holy God, my King, leading the victory parade.
 25 Singers come marching in front.
 Musicians come marching behind.
 And in the middle, the young girls are playing tambourines.
 26 Praise God in the great assembly!
 Praise the Lord, people of Israel!
 27 There is little Benjamin, leading them.
 And there is the great family of Judah.
 And there are the leaders of Zebulun and Naphtali.
 28 God, show us your power!
 God, show us the power you used for us
 in the past.
 29 Kings will bring their wealth to you,
 to your palace in Jerusalem.
 30 Use your stick to make those animals do what you want.
 Make the "bulls" and "cows" in those nations obey you.
 You defeated those nations in war.
 Now make them bring silver to you.
 31 Make them bring wealth from Egypt.
 God, make the Ethiopians bring their wealth to you.

 Listen to his powerful voice!
 34 God is more powerful than any of your gods.
 The God of Israel makes his people
 strong.
 35 God is wonderful in his temple.
 The God of Israel gives his people strength and power.
 Praise God!

Psalm 69

To the director.* To the tune "The Lilies." One of David's songs.

- 1 God, save me from all my troubles!
 The water has risen to my mouth.
 2 There is nothing to stand on.
 I am sinking down, down into the mud.
 I am in deep water.
 And the waves are crashing around
 me.
 I am about to drown.
 3 I am getting weak from calling for help.
 My throat is hurting.
 I have waited and looked for help from you
 until my eyes are hurting.
 4 I have more enemies than the hair on
 my head.
 They hate me for no reason.
 They try hard to destroy me.
 My enemies tell lies about me.
 They lied and said I stole things.
 And then they forced me to pay for things I did not steal.
 5 God, you know I did nothing wrong.
 I can't hide my sins from you.
 6 My Master, Lord All-Powerful, don't let your followers be ashamed of me.
 God of Israel, don't let your worshipers be embarrassed because of me.
 7 My face is covered with shame.
 I carry this shame for you.
 8 My brothers treat me like a stranger.

director Or, "performer."

- My mother's sons treat me like a foreigner.
- 9 My strong feelings* for your temple are destroying me.
I get the insults from people that make fun of you.
- 10 I cry and fast,*
and they make fun of me for it.
- 11 I wear rough cloth to show my sadness, and people tell jokes about me.
- 12 They talk about me in public places.
And the beer drinkers make up songs
about me.
- 13 As for me, this is my prayer to you Lord:
I want you to accept me!
God, I want you to answer me with
love.
I know I can trust you to save.
- 14 Pull me from the mud.
Don't let me sink down into the mud.
Save me from the people that hate me.
Save me from this deep water.
- 15 Don't let the waves drown me.
Don't let the deep hole swallow me.
Don't let the grave close its mouth
on me.
- 16 Lord, your love is good.
Answer me with all your love.
With all your kindness, turn to help me! 17 Don't turn away from your servant.
I am in trouble!
Hurry, help me!
- 18 Come save my soul.
Rescue me from my enemies.
- 19 You know my shame.
You know my enemies embarrassed me.
You saw them do those things to me.
- 20 The shame has crushed me!
I am about to die from shame.
I waited for sympathy,
but none could be found.
I waited for some person to comfort me,
but no person came.
- 21 They gave me poison, not food.
They gave me vinegar, not wine.
- 22 May the food and drink on their tables poison them.
- 23 May they become blind and their backs
bent over.
- 24 May they feel all your anger at them.
- 25 May their families and homes be completely destroyed.
- 26 Punish them, and they will run away.
Then they will have pains and wounds to talk about.
- 27 Punish them for the bad things they did.
Don't show them how good you can be.
- 28 Erase their names from the Book of Life.
Don't write their names in the book with the names of the good people.
- 29 I am sad and hurting.
God, lift me up.
Save me!
- 30 I will praise God's name in song.
I will praise him with a song of thanks.
- 31 This will make God happy!
This will be better than killing a bull and offering the whole animal as a sacrifice.
- 32 Poor people, you have come to worship
God.
Poor people, you will be happy to know
these things.
- 33 The Lord listens to poor, helpless people.
The Lord still likes people in prison.
- 34 Heaven and earth,
sea and everything in it,
praise the Lord!
- 35 The Lord will save Zion*!
The Lord will build the cities of Judah
again.
The people that own the land will live there again!

strong feelings The Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.

fast To live without food for a special time of prayer and worship to God.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

- <sup>36</sup> The descendants* of his servants will get that land.
And the people that love his name will live there.

Psalm 70

To the director.* One of David's songs. To help people remember.

- <sup>1</sup> God, save me!
God, hurry and help me!
- <sup>2</sup> People are trying to kill me.
Disappoint them!
Humiliate them!
People want to do bad things to me.
I hope they fall and feel the shame.
- <sup>3</sup> People made fun of me.
I hope they are defeated and feel the shame.
- <sup>4</sup> I hope that all the people who worship you are very, very happy.
I hope that the people who love being saved by you will always be able to praise you.
- <sup>5</sup> I am a poor, helpless man.
God, hurry! Come and save me!
God, you are the only one who can rescue me.
Don't be too late!

Psalm 71

- <sup>1</sup> Lord, I trust you,
so I will never be disappointed.
- <sup>2</sup> In your goodness, you will save me.
You will rescue me.
Listen to me.
Save me.
- <sup>3</sup> Be my fortress,* the home I can run to for safety.
Give the command to save me.

- Because you are my Rock,*
my place of safety.
- <sup>4</sup> My God, save me from wicked people.
Save me from cruel, evil people.
- <sup>5</sup> My Master, you are my hope.
I have trusted you since I was a young boy.
- <sup>6</sup> I have depended on you from before I was born.
I have trusted you from the day I was born.
I have always prayed to you.
- <sup>7</sup> I have been an example to other people.
Why? Because you are my source of strength.
- <sup>8</sup> I am always singing about the wonderful things you do.
- <sup>9</sup> So don't throw me away just because I am old.
Don't leave me as I lose my strength.
- <sup>10</sup> My enemies really have made plans against me.
Those people really have met together,
and they planned to kill me.
- <sup>11</sup> My enemies say,
"God has left him.
Go get him,
No person will help him."
- <sup>12</sup> God, don't leave me!
God, hurry! Come save me!
- <sup>13</sup> Defeat my enemies!
Destroy them completely!
They are trying to hurt me.
I hope they feel the shame and disgrace.
- <sup>14</sup> Then I will always trust you.
And I will praise you more and more.
- <sup>15</sup> I will tell people how good you are.
I will tell people about the times you saved me.
There have been too many times to count.
- <sup>16</sup> I will tell about your greatness, Lord my Master.
I will talk about only you and your

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

director Or, "performer."

fortress A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

goodness.
 17 God, you have taught me since I was a young boy.
 And to this day I have continued telling others about the wonderful things you do!
 18 Now I am old and my hair is gray.
 But I know that you won't leave me, God.
 I will tell each new generation about your power and greatness.
 19 God, your goodness reaches far above the skies.
 God, there is no god like you.
 You have done wonderful things.
 20 You let me see many troubles and bad times.
 But you saved me from every one of them and kept me alive.
 No matter how deep I sank,
 you lifted me out of my troubles.
 21 Help me do greater things than before.
 Continue to comfort me.
 22 And I will praise you with the harp.
 My God, I will sing that you can be trusted.
 With my lyre,* I will play songs for the Holy One of Israel.
 23 You saved my soul.
 My soul will be happy.
 And I will sing songs of praise with my lips.
 24 My tongue will sing about your goodness all the time.
 And the people that want to kill me,
 will be defeated and disgraced.

Psalm 72

To Solomon.*

1 God, help the king make wise decisions like you.
 And help the king's son learn about your goodness.

lyre(s) An instrument with several strings, like a harp.

To Solomon This might mean this song was written by Solomon or dedicated to him or that it is from some special collection of songs.

2 Help the king judge your people fairly.
 Help him do what is right for your poor people.
 3 Let there be peace and justice throughout the land.
 4 Let the king be fair to the poor people.
 Let him help the helpless.
 Let him punish the people that hurt them.
 5 I hope people fear and respect the king as long as the sun shines and as long as there is a moon in the sky.
 I hope people fear and respect him forever.
 6 Help the king be like rain falling on the fields.
 Help him be like showers falling on the land.
 7 Let goodness blossom while he is king.
 Let peace continue as long as the moon.
 8 Let his kingdom grow from sea to sea, from the River*
 to the faraway places on earth.*
 9 Let the people living in the desert bow down to him.
 And let all his enemies bow before him with their faces in the dirt.
 10 May the kings of Tarshish* and the faraway lands bring gifts to him.
 May the kings of Sheba and Seba bring their payment* to him.
 11 May all kings bow down to our king.
 May all nations serve him.
 12 Our king helps the helpless.
 Our king helps poor, helpless people.
 13 Poor, helpless people depend on him.
 The king keeps them alive.
 14 The king saves them from cruel people that try to hurt them.

River Probably the Euphrates River.

faraway ... earth This usually means the countries around the Mediterranean Sea.

Tarshish A city far away from Israel, probably in Spain. Tarshish was famous for its large ships that sailed the Mediterranean Sea.

payment Or, "tribute," the money and gifts a country paid to the country that defeated it.

- The lives of those poor people are very important to the king.
- <sup>15</sup> Long live the king!
And let him receive gold from Sheba.
Always pray for the king.
Bless him every day.
- <sup>16</sup> May the fields grow plenty of grain.
May the hills be covered with crops.
May the fields be as fertile as those in Lebanon.
And may the cities be filled with people like fields covered with grass.
- <sup>17</sup> May the king be famous forever.
May people remember his name as long as the sun shines.
May all the people be blessed because of him.
And may they all bless him.
- <sup>18</sup> Praise the Lord God, the God of Israel!
God is the only One to do such amazing things.
- <sup>19</sup> Praise his glorious name forever!
Let his glory fill the whole world!
Amen,* and Amen!
- <sup>20</sup> This ends the prayers of David, son of Jesse.

BOOK 3

Psalm 73

Asaph's song of praise.

- <sup>1</sup> God is truly good to Israel.
God is good to people that have pure hearts.
- <sup>2</sup> I almost slipped and began to sin.
- <sup>3</sup> I saw that wicked people were successful
I became jealous of those proud people.
- <sup>4</sup> Those people are healthy.
They don't have to struggle to survive.*
- <sup>5</sup> Those proud people don't suffer like we do.

- They don't have troubles like other people.
- <sup>6</sup> So they are very proud and hateful people.
This is as clear to see as the jewels and beautiful clothes they wear.
- <sup>7</sup> If those people like something they see, they go and take it.
They do the things they want to do.
- <sup>8</sup> They say cruel and evil things about other people.
They are proud and stubborn and plan ways to take advantage of other people.
- <sup>9</sup> Those proud people think they are gods!
They think they are the rulers of earth.
- <sup>10</sup> So even God's people turn to those evil people, and believe the things they say.*
- <sup>11</sup> Those evil people say,
"God does not know the things we are doing!
God Most-High does not know!"
- <sup>12</sup> Those proud people are wicked, but they are rich.
And they are always becoming richer.
- <sup>13</sup> So why should I continue to make my heart pure?
Why should I always make my hands clean?
- <sup>14</sup> God, I suffer all day long.
And you punish me every morning.
- <sup>15</sup> I wanted to say these things to other people.
But, God, I knew I would be turning against your people.
- <sup>16</sup> I tried to understand these things in my mind.
But it was all too hard for me to understand
- <sup>17</sup> until I went to your temple.*
I went to God's temple, and then I understood.

Amen A Hebrew word meaning "truly," "indeed." It is used to show that a person agrees with what has been said.

They ... survive Literally, "They have no bonds to their death."

So even ... say This verse is hard to understand in the Hebrew.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

<sup>18</sup> God, you really have put those people in a dangerous situation.

It is so easy for them to fall and be destroyed.

<sup>19</sup> Trouble can come suddenly, and then those proud people are ruined. Terrible things can happen to them, and then they are finished.

<sup>20</sup> Lord, those people will be like a dream that we forget when we wake up. You will make those people disappear like the monsters in our dreams.

<sup>11-22</sup> I was very stupid. I thought about the rich and wicked people, and I became upset.

God, I was angry at you, and upset. And I acted like a stupid, ignorant animal.

<sup>23</sup> I have everything I need!, I am with you always.

God, you hold my hand.

<sup>24</sup> God, you lead me and give me good advice.

And later, you will take me to be with you in Glory.

<sup>25</sup> God, I have you in heaven. And when I am with you, what on earth can I want?

<sup>26</sup> Maybe my mind* and my body will be destroyed, but I have the Rock* I love.

I have God forever!

<sup>27</sup> God, people that leave you will be lost. You will destroy the people that are not faithful to you.

<sup>28</sup> But I am close to God. God is good to me.

My Master cares for me.

The Lord is my place of safety.

God, I will tell about all the things you have done.

Psalm 74

A maskil* of Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup> God, did you leave us forever? Are you still angry at your people?
- <sup>2</sup> Remember the people you bought long ago. You saved us. We belong to you. You lived on Mount Zion.*
- <sup>3</sup> God, come and walk through these very old ruins. Come back to the Holy Place that the enemy destroyed.
- <sup>4</sup> The enemy shouted their war cries in the temple. They put their flags in the temple to show they won the war.
- <sup>5</sup> The enemy soldiers were like people cutting weeds with a hoe.
- <sup>6</sup> These enemy soldiers used their axes and hatchets, and cut the carved, wooden panels in your temple, God.
- <sup>7</sup> God, those soldiers burned your Holy Place. They pulled your temple down to the ground. And the temple was built to honor your name!
- <sup>8</sup> The enemy decided to crush us completely. They burned every holy place* in the country.
- <sup>9</sup> We could not see any of our own signs.* There are no more prophets. No person knows what to do.
- <sup>10</sup> God, how much longer will the enemy make fun of us?

maskil We are not sure of the exact meaning of the word "maskil." It might mean "a poem of meditation," "a poem of instruction," or "a skillfully-written poem."

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

holy place Or, "El meeting place." This means every place where people went to meet with God.

signs These were probably signal fires that people burned as a way of passing messages from one town to the next. In war, this was a way people showed other towns that the enemy had not yet destroyed their own town.

mind Literally, "heart."

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

Will you let the enemy insult your name forever?

11 God, why did you punish us so hard?
You used your great power and completely destroyed us!

12 God, you have been our King for a long time.
You helped us win many battles in this country.

13 God, you used your great power, to split open the Red Sea.
14 You defeated the great sea monsters!
You smashed the heads of Leviathan,* and left his body for the animals to eat.

15 You made the springs and underground water break open and flood the world.
And you made the rivers become dry.

16 God, you control the day, and you control the night.
You made the moon and the sun.

17 You set all the limits for everything on earth.
And you created summer and winter.

18 God, remember these things.
And remember that the enemy has insulted you!
Those foolish people hate your name!

19 God, don't let those "wild animals" take your "dove"!
Don't forget your poor people forever.

20 Remember the Agreement* we made with each other.
There is violence in every dark place in this land.

21 God, your people were treated badly.
Don't let them be hurt any more.
Your poor, helpless people praise you.

great ... Leviathan These were creatures from ancient stories. People believed that these creatures kept the world from being a safe, orderly place. When it says that God destroyed these creatures, it means God showed he really controlled every part of the world, even the animals in the deepest ocean.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

22 God, get up and fight!
Remember, those foolish people always insulted you!

23 Don't forget the bad things your enemies said about you every day!
Don't forget the way they roar as they fight against you all the time.

Psalm 75

To the director.* "Don't Destroy," one of Asaph's songs of praise.

1 We praise you, God!
We praise your name.
We tell about the amazing things you do.

2 God says,
"I choose the time for judgment.
I will judge fairly.

3 The earth and everything on it may be shaking and ready to fall,
but I make it steady."

SELAH*

45 "Some people are very proud.
They think they are powerful and important.
But I tell those people,
'Don't brag!
'Don't be so proud!'"

6 No man on earth can make himself really important.

7 God is the judge.
And God decides which person will be important.
God raises one person to an important position,
and he brings another person down to a low position.

8 "God is ready to punish evil people.,
The Lord has a cup filled with wine mixed with spices.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

He pours this wine (punishment), and wicked people drink it to the last drop.

- <sup>9</sup> I will always tell people about these
things.
I will sing praise to the God of Israel.
<sup>10</sup> I will take power away from wicked
people,
and I will give power to good people.

Psalm 76

To the director.* With instruments. One of Asaph's songs of praise.

- <sup>1</sup> People in Judah know God.
Israel knows that God's name is truly
great.
<sup>2</sup> God's temple is in Salem.*
God's house is on Mount Zion.
<sup>3</sup> In that place, God shattered the bows and arrows, shields, swords, and other weapons of war.
SELAH*
<sup>4</sup> God, you are glorious as you return from the hills
where you defeated your enemies.
<sup>5</sup> Those soldiers thought they were strong.
But now they lie dead in the fields.
Their bodies are stripped of all they owned.
None of those strong soldiers could defend themselves.
<sup>6</sup> The God of Jacob yelled at those soldiers, and that army with chariots and horses fell dead.
<sup>7</sup> God, you are awesome!
No person can stand against you when you are angry.
<sup>8</sup> The Lord stood as judge and announced his decision.
God saved the humble people of the

land.
From heaven he gave the decision.
And the whole earth became silent and afraid.

- <sup>10</sup> God, people praise you when you punish evil people.
You show your anger,
and the survivors* become stronger.
<sup>11</sup> People will make promises to God.
And they will give the Lord the things they promised.
People from every place will bring gifts to the God they fear.
<sup>12</sup> God defeats great leaders.
All the kings on earth fear him.

Psalm 77

To the director.* To Jeduthun. One of Asaph's songs.

- <sup>1</sup> I call loudly to God for help.
I pray to you, God.
Listen to me.
<sup>2</sup> My Master, I come to you when I have
trouble.
I reached out for you all night long.
My soul refused to be comforted.
<sup>3</sup> I think about God, and I try to talk to him and tell him how I feel.
But I can't.
<sup>4</sup> You would not let me sleep.
I tried to say something,
but I was too upset.
<sup>5</sup> I kept thinking about the past.
I kept thinking about things that happened long ago.
<sup>6</sup> At night, I try to think about my songs.
I talk with myself and try to understand.
<sup>7</sup> I wonder, "Has our Master left us
forever?
Will he ever want us again?
Will he ever speak to us again?"

director Or, "performer."

Salem Another name for Jerusalem. This name means,
"Peace."

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause or that the music should be louder here.

survivor(s) People that escaped some disaster. Here this means the Jewish people that survived the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy armies.

<sup>9</sup> Has God forgotten what mercy is?
Has his compassion been changed to anger?"

SELAH*

<sup>10</sup> Then I thought,
"The thing that really bothers me is this:
'Has God Most-High lost his
power?'"

<sup>11</sup> Remember the powerful things
the Lord did.
God, I remember the amazing things you did long ago.

<sup>12</sup> I thought about all the things you have done.

I thought about those things.

<sup>13</sup> God, your ways are holy.
God, no one is great like you are.

<sup>14</sup> You are the God that did amazing things.
You showed people your great power.

<sup>15</sup> You used your power and saved your
people.

You saved Jacob and Joseph's descendants.*

SELAH*

<sup>16</sup> God, the water saw you,
and became afraid.

The deep water shook because of fear.

<sup>17</sup> The thick clouds dropped their water.
Loud thunder could be heard in the high clouds.

Then your lightning arrows flashed through those clouds.

<sup>18</sup> There were loud claps of thunder.
Lightning lit up the world.

The earth shook and trembled.

<sup>19</sup> God, you walk through the deep waters,
you crossed the deep sea,
but you left no footprints.

<sup>20</sup> In the same way, you used Moses and Aaron
to lead your people like sheep.

Psalm 78

One of Asaph's maskils.*

- <sup>1</sup> My people, listen to my teachings.
Listen to the things I say.
<sup>2</sup> I will tell you this story.
I will tell you this old story.
<sup>3</sup> We heard the story, and we know it well.
Our fathers told this story.
<sup>4</sup> And we will not forget the story.
Our people will be telling the story to the last generation.
We will all praise the Lord,
and tell about the amazing things he did.
<sup>5</sup> The Lord made an Agreement with Jacob.*
God gave the Law to Israel.
And God gave commands to our ancestors.*
He told our ancestors to teach the Law to their descendants.*
<sup>6</sup> This is the way the people will know about the Law,
even to the last generation.
New generations will be born,
they will grow to become adults, and they will tell the story to their children.
<sup>7</sup> So all those people will trust God.
They will not forget the powerful things
God did.
They will carefully guard and obey
God's commands.
<sup>8</sup> If the people teach their children God's
commands,
then the children will not be like their
ancestors.
Their ancestors turned against God.
They refused to obey him.
Those people were stubborn.
They were not loyal to God's Spirit.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause here or that the music should be louder here.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

maskil(s) We are not sure of the exact meaning of the word "maskil." It might mean "a poem of meditation," "a poem of instruction," or "a skillfully-written poem."

Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22-28.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

- <sup>9</sup> The men from the Ephraim family group had their weapons, but they ran away from the battle.
- <sup>10</sup> They did not keep their Agreement with the Lord.
They refused to obey God's teachings.
- <sup>11</sup> Those people from Ephraim forgot the great things God did.
They forgot the amazing things he showed them.
- <sup>12</sup> In Egypt, at Zoan, God showed their fathers his great power.
- <sup>13</sup> God split the Red Sea and led the people across.
The water stood like a solid wall on both sides of them.
- <sup>14</sup> Every day God led those people with the tall cloud.
And every night God led them with the light from the tall column of fire.
- <sup>15</sup> God split the rock in the desert.
He gave those people water from deep in the ground.
- <sup>16</sup> God brought the water streaming from the rock.
It was like a river!
- <sup>17</sup> But the people continued to sin against God.
They turned against God Most-High even in the desert.
- <sup>18</sup> Then those people decided to test God.
They asked God for food, just to satisfy their appetites.
- <sup>19</sup> They talked against God.
They said, "Can God give us food in the desert?"
- <sup>20</sup> God hit the rock and a flood of water came out.
Surely he can give us some bread and meat!"
- <sup>21</sup> The Lord heard what those people said.
God was very angry at Jacob.*
God was very angry at Israel.
- <sup>22</sup> Why? Because the people did not trust him.

- They did not believe God could save them.
- <sup>23-24</sup> But then God opened the clouds above, and caused manna* to rain down on them for food.
It was like doors in the sky opened, and grain poured from a storehouse in the sky.
- <sup>25</sup> People ate the food of angels.
God sent plenty of food to satisfy those people.
- <sup>26-27</sup> Then God made a strong wind blow from the east, and quail* fell onto them like rain.
God's great power made the wind blow from Teman, and the blue sky became dark because there were so many birds.
- <sup>28</sup> The birds fell right in the middle of camp, all around those people's tents.
- <sup>29</sup> They had plenty to eat, but they let their appetites make them sin.
- <sup>30</sup> They did not control their appetites, so they ate the quail before draining the blood from these birds.
- <sup>31</sup> God became very angry at those people, and he killed many of them.
God caused many of the healthy young people to die.
- <sup>32</sup> But the people still sinned again!
They did not depend on the amazing things God could do.
- <sup>33</sup> So God ended their worthless lives with some disaster.
- <sup>34</sup> Whenever God killed some of them, the others would turn back to him.
They would come running back to God.
- <sup>35</sup> Those people would remember that God was their Rock.*
They would remember that God Most-High saved them.

manna The special food God sent to the people of Israel while they wandered through the desert for 40 years.

quail A kind of bird.

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

36 They said they loved him,<sup>1</sup> but those people were not serious.
They lied.

37 Their hearts were not really with God.
They were not faithful to the Agreement.*

38 But God was merciful.
He forgave them for their sins.
And he did not destroy them.
Many times God controlled his anger.
God did not let himself become too
angry.

39 God remembered they were only people.
People are like a wind that blows,
and then it is gone.

40 Oh, those people caused God so many troubles in the desert!
They made him so sad!

41 Again and again those people tested
God's patience.
They really brought much pain to the Holy One of Israel.

42 Those people forgot about God's power.
They forgot about the many times God saved them from the enemy.

43 They forgot the miracles in Egypt.
They forgot the miracles in the fields of Zoan.

44 God turned the rivers to blood!
The Egyptians could not drink the
water.

45 God sent swarms of flies that bit the people of Egypt.
God sent the frogs that ruined the Egyptians' lives.

46 God gave their crops to the grasshoppers, and their other plants to the locusts.

47 God used hail to destroy the Egyptian peoples' vines.
And he used sleet to destroy their trees.

48 God killed their animals with hail,
and their cattle with lightning.

49 God showed the Egyptian people his fierce anger.

He sent his destroying angels to be against them.

50 God found a way to show his anger.
He did not let any of those people live.
He let all the animals die with a deadly disease.

51 God killed all the firstborn* sons in Egypt.
He killed every firstborn son in the family group of Ham.*

52 Then God led Israel like a shepherd.
He led his people like sheep into the
desert.

53 He guided his people safely.
God's people had nothing to be afraid
of.
God drowned their enemies in the Red Sea.

54 God led his people to his holy land, to the mountain he took with his own
power.

55 God forced the other nations to leave that
land.
And God gave his people their share of
the land.
So the family groups of Israel lived in their own houses.

56 But the people of Israel still tested God
Most-High
and made him very sad.
Those people did not obey God's
commands.

57 The people of Israel turned away from
God.
They turned against him the same as their fathers did.
They were as bad as a twisted bow.*

58 The people of Israel built high places* and made God angry.
They built statues of gods and made God very jealous.

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

Ham The Egyptians were Ham's descendants. See Gen. 10:6-10.

twisted bow It is very hard to shoot arrows accurately with a bow that is twisted wrong.

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

59 God heard this and became very angry.
 And God rejected Israel completely!
 60 God abandoned the Holy Tent at Shiloh.*
 This was the tent where God lived among the people.
 61 Then God let other nations force his people to become prisoners.
 Enemies took God's "beautiful jewel."
 62 God showed his anger against his people,
 Israel.
 He let them be killed in war.
 63 The young men were burned to death, and the girls they were supposed to marry sang no wedding songs.
 64 The priests were killed,
 but the widows did not cry for them.
 65 Finally, our Master got up like a man waking from his sleep,
 like a soldier after drinking too much wine.
 66 And God forced his enemy back and defeated them.
 God defeated his enemies and disgraced them forever.
 67 But God rejected Joseph's family.
 God did not choose Ephraim's family.
 68 No, God chose Judah's family group.
 And God chose Zion, the mountain he loves.
 69 And God built his holy temple high on that mountain.
 Just like the earth, God built his holy temple to last forever.
 70 Then God chose David to be his special servant.
 David was guarding the sheep pens,
 But God took him away from that job.
 71 God took David away from caring for sheep,
 and God gave David the job of caring for his people, the people of Jacob,* the people of Israel, God's property.

72 And David led the people of Israel with a pure heart.
 He led them very wisely.

Psalms 79

One of Asaph's songs of praise.

1 God, some people have come to fight
 your people.
 Those people ruined your holy temple.
 They left Jerusalem in ruins.
 2 The enemy left the bodies of your servants for the wild birds to eat.
 They left the bodies of your followers for wild animals to eat.
 3 God, the enemy killed your people until the blood flowed like water.
 No person is left to bury the dead bodies.
 4 Our neighboring countries insulted us.
 All the people around us laugh at us and make fun of us.
 5 God, will you be angry at us forever?
 Will your strong feelings* continue to burn like a fire?
 6 God, turn your anger against the nations that don't know you.
 Turn your anger against nations that don't worship your name.
 7 Why? Because those nations destroyed
 Jacob.*
 They destroyed Jacob's country.
 8 God, please don't punish us for the sins of our ancestors.*
 Hurry, show us your mercy!
 We need you so much!
 9 Our God and Savior, help us!
 Help us so you will give glory to your own name.
 Save us.
 Erase our sins for the good of your name.
 10 Don't let other nations say to us,

Holy Tent at Shiloh See 1 Sam. 4:10-11; Jer. 7:17.
Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22-28.

strong feelings The Hebrew word can mean any strong feeling such as zeal, jealousy, or love.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents,
 grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

“Where is your God?
 Can’t he help you?”
 God, punish those people
 so we can see it.
 Punish them for killing your servants.
 11 Please listen to the prisoners’ groan!
 God, use your great power and save these people that were chosen to die.
 12 God, punish the people around us seven times for the things they did to us.
 Punish those people for the times they insulted you.
 13 We are your people.
 We are the sheep in your flock.
 We will praise you forever.
 Forever and ever, we will praise you,
 God.

Psalm 80

To the director.* To the tune “Lilies of the Agreement.” One of Asaph’s songs of praise.

1 Shepherd of Israel, listen to me.
 You lead Joseph’s sheep (people).
 You sit as king on the Cherub angels.*
 Let us see you.
 2 Shepherd of Israel, show your greatness to Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh.
 Come and save us.
 3 God, accept us again.
 Accept us.
 Save us.
 4 Lord God All-Powerful,
 will you be angry at us forever?
 When will you listen to our prayers.
 5 You have given tears as food to your
 people.
 You have given your people bowls filled with their tears.
 That was their water to drink.
 6 You let us become something for our neighbors to fight about.
 Our enemies laugh at us.

7 God All-Powerful, accept us again.
 Accept us.
 Save us.
 8 In the past, you treated us like a very important plant,
 You brought your “vine” out from
 Egypt.
 You forced other people to leave this
 land,
 and you planted your “vine.”
 9 You made the ground ready to grow the “vine.”
 You helped its roots to grow strong.
 And soon, the “vine” spread throughout the land.
 10 It shaded the mountains.
 Its leaves shaded even the giant cedar trees.
 11 Its vines spread to the Mediterranean Sea.
 Its shoots spread to the Euphrates River.
 12 God, why did you pull down the walls that protect your “vine”?
 Now every person that passes by picks its grapes.
 13 Wild pigs come and walk on your “vine.”
 Wild animals come and eat the leaves.
 14 God All-Powerful, come back.
 Look down from heaven at your “vine.”
 Protect it.
 15 God, look at the “vine” you planted with your own hands.
 Look at the young plant*
 you raised.
 16 Your “vine” was burned in the fire like dry dung.
 You were angry at it,
 and you destroyed it.
 17 God, reach out to the son that stood by your right side.
 Reach out to the son you raised.
 18 He will not leave you again.
 Let him live,
 and he will worship your name.
 19 Lord God All-Powerful, come back to us.

director Or, “performer.”

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

young plant Literally, “son.”

Accept us.
Save us.

Psalm 81

To the director.* On the Gittith.* One of Asaph's songs.

- 1 Be happy and sing to God our strength.
Shout with happiness to the God of Israel.
- 2 Begin the music.
Play the tambourines.
Play the pleasing sounds from the harps and lyres.*
- 3 Blow the ram's horn
at the time of the new moon,* Blow the ram's horn
at the time of the full moon.
That is when our holiday begins.
- 4 That is a law for the people of Israel.
God gave that command to Jacob.*
- 5 God made this Agreement with Joseph* at the time God took him away from Egypt.
In Egypt we heard the language we did not understand.
- 6 God says,
"I took the load from your shoulder.
I let you drop the worker's basket.
- 7 You people called for help when you were in trouble,
and I made you free.
I was hidden in the storm clouds,
and I answered you.
I tested you by the water at Meribah.**

Gittith This might be a type of instrument, or it might mean a performer in the temple orchestra, possibly Obed-edom from Gath.

lyre(s) An instrument with several strings, like a harp.
new moon This was the first day of the Hebrew month.

There were special meetings on these days to worship God.

Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22-28.

Joseph Here this means Joseph's family, the people of Israel.
Meribah See Ex. 17:1-7.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause or that the music should be louder here.

- 8 "My people, listen to me,
and I will give you my Agreement.*
Israel, you must please listen to me!
- 9 Don't worship any of the false gods the foreign people worship.
- 10 I, the Lord, am your God.
I am the God that brought you out from Egypt.
Israel, open your mouth, and I will feed
you.
- 11 But my people did not listen to me.
Israel did not obey me.
- 12 So I let them do the things they wanted to do.
Israel did anything they wanted to do.
- 13 If my people will really listen to me, and if Israel will live the way I want them to live,
- 14 then I would defeat Israel's enemies.
I would punish the people that give Israel troubles.
- 15 The Lord's enemies shake because they
are afraid.
They would be punished forever.
- 16 And God would give the best wheat to his
people.
The Rock* would give honey to his people until they were satisfied.

Psalm 82

One of Asaph's songs of praise.

- 1 God stands in the assembly of the gods.*
God is the judge.
- 2 God says,
"How long will you people judge things
unfairly?
How long will you let wicked people go free without punishment?"

Agreement Literally, "testimony." This was the proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

assembly ... gods Other nations thought their false gods met together to decide what to do with the people on earth. But here, this probably means the time when the leaders of Israel met together. Many times leaders and kings were called "gods."

SELAH*

- 3 “Defend the orphans* and the poor people.
Protect the rights of poor people that are not treated fairly.
- 4 Help the poor and helpless people.
Save those people from evil people.
- 5 “The people of Israel don’t know what is happening.
They don’t understand!
They don’t know what they are doing,
and their world is falling down around them!”
- 6 I said to you leaders, “You are gods.
You are sons of God Most-High.
- 7 But you will die the same as all people must die.
You will die the same as all the other leaders.”
- 8 Get up, God! You be the judge!
God, you be the leader over all nations!

Psalms 83

One of Asaph’s songs of praise.

- 1 God, don’t keep quiet!
Don’t close your ears!
Please say something, God.
- 2 God, your enemies make plans against you.
Your enemies will soon attack.
- 3 They make secret plans against your people.
Your enemies are discussing plans against the people you love.
- 4 The enemies are saying,
“Come, let us destroy those people completely.
Then no person will ever remember the name ‘Israel’ again.”
- 5 God, all those people joined together to fight against you

- and against the Agreement* you made with us.
- 6<sup>7</sup> Those enemies joined together to fight us: Edom, the Ishmaelite people, Moab and Hagar’s descendants,* Byblos, Ammon, the Amalekite people, the Philistine people, and the people living in Tyre.
All those people joined together to fight us.
- 8 And the Assyrian army joined Lot’s descendants,* and they all became really strong.

SELAH*

- 9 God, defeat the enemy like you defeated Midian, like you defeated Sisera and Jabin near the Kishon River.
- 10 You defeated them at En-Dor.
And their bodies rotted on the ground.
- 11 God, defeat the enemy’s leaders.
Do to them the things you did to Oreb and Zeeb.
Do to them the things you did to Zebah and Zalmunna.
- 12 God, those people wanted to force us to leave your land!
- 13 Make those people become like a tumbleweed* blown by the wind.
Scatter those people like the wind scatters straw.
- 14 Destroy the enemy like a fire destroys a forest,
like a wild fire that burns the hills.
- 15 God, chase those people away, like dust being blown<sub>1</sub> by a storm.
Shake them<sub>2</sub> and blow them away<sub>3</sub> like a tornado.
- 16 God, make those people learn that they are really weak,

orphan(s) Children whose parents are dead. Often these children have no one to care for them.

Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

tumbleweed A large weed with short roots. When a strong wind blows, the dry weed is pulled loose and blown away.

then they will want to worship your name!

- 17 God, make those people afraid and ashamed forever.
Disgrace them and destroy them.
- 18 Then those people will know you are God.
They will know your name is Yahweh.
They will know that you, God Most-High,
are the God of the whole world!

Psalm 84

To the director.* On the Gittith.* One of the songs of praise from the sons of Korah.

- 1 Lord All-Powerful, your temple* is truly lovely.
- 2 Lord, I am tired of waiting.
I want to be there in your temple.
Every part of me wants to be with the Living God.
- 3 Lord All-Powerful, my King, my God, even sparrows and swallows have homes.
Those birds make their nests near your altar.
And there they have their babies.
- 4 People living at your temple are very happy.
They always praise you.
- SELAH*
- 5 People that let you be their source of strength are very happy.
They let you lead them.*
- 6 Those happy people travel through Baca Valley, that God makes like a spring,

director Or, "performer."

Gittith This might be a type of instrument, or it might mean a performer in the temple orchestra, possibly Obed-edom from Gath.

temple Or, "dwellings."

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause or that the music should be louder here.

They ... them Literally, "They have a highway in their hearts." This might mean the people traveling to Jerusalem for the holiday.

- the fall rains forming pools of water.*
- 7 The people travel from town to town,
on their way to Zion,
where they will meet with God.
- 8 Lord God All-Powerful, listen to my prayer.
God of Jacob,* listen to me.
- SELAH*
- 9 God, protect our protector.*
Be kind to your chosen king.*
- 10 God, I would rather stay one day in your temple than a thousand days in another place.
I would rather stand near the gate of my God's house than live where wicked people live.
- 11 The Lord is our protector and glorious king.*
God blesses us with kindness and glory.
The Lord gives every good thing to people that follow and obey him.
- 12 Lord All-Powerful, people that trust you are truly happy!

Psalm 85

To the director.* A song of praise from the sons of Korah.

- 1 Lord, be kind to your country.
Jacob's people are prisoners in a foreign country.
Bring the prisoners back to their country.
- 2 Lord, forgive your people!
Erase their sins!
- SELAH*
- 3 Lord, stop being angry.
Don't be mad.
- 4 Our God and Savior, stop being angry at us,

the ... water Or "The Teacher gives blessings." This might be a different way to say that God is our teacher and that he gives us many blessings.

Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22-28.

protector Literally, "shield." This probably means the king.

This might also be "God, our Shield, look!"

chosen king Literally, "anointed person."

protector ... king Literally, "sun and shield."

- and accept us again.
- <sup>3</sup> Will you be angry at us forever?
- <sup>6</sup> Please, make us live again!
Make your people happy.
- <sup>7</sup> Lord, show us that you love us.
Save us.
- <sup>8</sup> I hear what God says.
The Lord says there will be peace for his people.
His followers will have peace,
if they don't go back to their foolish
way of living.
- <sup>9</sup> God will soon save his followers.
We will soon live with honor in our country.
- <sup>10</sup> God's true love will meet his followers.
Goodness and peace will greet them with a kiss.
- <sup>11</sup> People on earth will be loyal to God,
And God in heaven will be good to
them.*
- <sup>12</sup> The Lord will give us many good things.
And the ground will grow many good crops.
- <sup>13</sup> Goodness will go in front of God,
and prepare the way for him.

Psalm 86

David's prayer.

- <sup>1</sup> I am a poor, helpless man.
Lord, please listen to me and answer my prayer.
- <sup>2</sup> Lord, I am your follower, please protect me!
I am your servant.
You are my God.
I trust you.
So save me.
- <sup>3</sup> My Master, be kind to me.
I have been praying to you all day.
- <sup>4</sup> Master, I put my life in your hands.
Make me happy, I am your servant.
- <sup>5</sup> Master, you are good and merciful.
You truly love your people that call to you for help.

- <sup>6</sup> Lord, hear my prayer.
Listen to my prayer for mercy.
- <sup>7</sup> Lord, I am praying to you in my time of
trouble.
I know you will answer me!
- <sup>8</sup> There is none like you, God.
No person can do the things you have
done.
- <sup>9</sup> Master, you made every person.
I hope all those people come and worship you.
I hope they all honor your name.
- <sup>10</sup> God, you are great!
You do amazing things!
You, and you only, are God!
- <sup>11</sup> Lord, teach me your ways,
and I will live and obey your truths.
Help me make worshiping your name
the most important thing in my life.
- <sup>12</sup> God my Master, I praise you with all my whole heart.
I will honor your name forever!
- <sup>13</sup> God, you have such great love for me.
You save me from the place of death below.
- <sup>14</sup> Proud men are attacking me, God.
A gang of cruel men are trying to kill
me.
And those men don't respect you.
- <sup>15</sup> And you, Master, are a kind and merciful
God.
You are patient, loyal, and full of love.
- <sup>16</sup> God, show that you hear me and be kind
to me.
Give strength to me,
I am your slave.
Save me,
I am your servant.
- <sup>17</sup> God, do something to prove that you will
help me.
Then my enemies will be disappointed.
Why? Because Lord, that will show that you have been kind to me and helped me.

People ... them Literally, "Loyalty will sprout from the ground. And goodness will look down from the sky."

Psalm 87

A song of praise from the sons of Korah.

- 1 God built his temple on the holy hills of Jerusalem.
  - 2 The Lord loves Zion's gates more than any other place in Israel.
  - 3 City of God, people say wonderful things about you.
- SELAH*
- 4 God's people now live in many places in the world.
But God is their king and he knows about each person.
Some of God's people live in Egypt* and Babylon.
But God keeps a list about all his people.
And the list shows that some of his people were born in Philistia, Tyre, and even Ethiopia.
  - 5 God knows each and every person born on Zion.
God Most-High built that city.
  - 6 God keeps a list about all his people.
God knows where each person was born.
- SELAH*
- 7 God's people go to Jerusalem to celebrate special holidays.
God's people sing and dance and are very happy.
They say,
"All good things come from Jerusalem."

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause or that the music should be louder here.

Egypt Literally, "Rahab." This name means the "Dragon." It became a popular name for Egypt.

Psalm 88

A song of praise from the sons of Korah. To the director.* About a painful sickness. A maskil* from Heman the Ezrahite.

- 1 Lord God, you are my Savior.
I have been praying to you day and night.
  - 2 Please pay attention to my prayers.
Listen to my prayers for mercy.
  - 3 I am fed up with all my troubles!
I am ready to die.
  - 4 I am like a person that is about to be buried.
I have no strength.
  - 5 I was left alone to die.
I am like a dead body lying in the grave.
Those dead people have been taken from you,
and people forget all about them.
  - 6 Lord, you put me in the tomb underground.
You put me in that dark place.
  - 7 You were angry at me,
and you punished me.
- SELAH*
- 8 My friends have left me.
They all avoid me like a person no person wants to touch.
I am locked in the house and I can't go out.
  - 9 My eyes hurt from crying about, all my suffering.
Lord, I pray to you constantly!
I lift my arms in prayer to you.
  - 10 Lord, do you do miracles for dead people? No!
Do ghosts rise up and praise you? No!
- SELAH*
- 11 Dead people in their graves can't talk about your love.
Dead people in the world of the dead can't talk about your loyalty.
  - 12 Dead people lying in darkness

director Or, "performer."

maskil We are not sure of the exact meaning of the word "maskil." It might mean "a poem of meditation," "a poem of instruction," or "a skillfully-written poem."

can't see the amazing things you do.
 Dead people in the World of the Forgotten
 can't talk about your goodness.

- <sup>13</sup> Lord, I am asking you to help me!
 Early each morning I pray to you.
<sup>14</sup> Lord, why have you abandoned me?
 Why do you refuse to listen to me?
<sup>15</sup> Since I was young, I was weak and sick.
 I have suffered your anger, I am helpless.
<sup>16</sup> Lord, you were angry at me,
 and the punishment is killing me.
<sup>17</sup> The aches and pains are always with me.
 I feel like I am drowning in my aches and pains.
<sup>18</sup> And Lord, you forced all my friends and loved ones to leave me.
 Only darkness has stayed with me.

Psalm 89

A maskil* from Ethan the Ezrahite.

- <sup>1</sup> I will sing forever about the Lord's love.
 I will sing about his loyalty forever and ever!
<sup>2</sup> Lord, I truly believe your love lasts
 forever.
 Your loyalty continues like the skies!
<sup>3</sup> God said,
 "I made an agreement with my chosen
 king.
 I made a promise to my servant,
 David:
<sup>4</sup> David, I will make your family continue
 forever.
 I will make your kingdom continue forever and ever."
 SELAH*
<sup>5</sup> The heavens praise the amazing things you do, Lord.

- The assembly of holy ones sing about your loyalty.
<sup>6</sup> No person in heaven can oppose the Lord.
 None of the "gods" can compare to the
 Lord.
<sup>7</sup> When the holy ones meet together,
 it is the Lord they all fear and respect.
 The Lord is more awesome than any of
 them.
<sup>8</sup> Lord God All-Powerful, none is as powerful as you.
 We can trust you completely.
<sup>9</sup> You proudly rule the sea.
 You can make its angry waves become calm.
<sup>10</sup> God, you defeated Rahab.*
 By your great power, you defeated your enemy.
<sup>11</sup> Everything in heaven and earth belong to you, God.
 You made the world and everything in
 it.
<sup>12</sup> You created everything north and south.
 Mount Tabor and Mount Hermon sing praises to your name.
<sup>13</sup> God, you have the power!
 Your power is great!
 The victory is yours!
<sup>14</sup> Your kingdom is built on truth and justice.
 Love and faithfulness are servants
 before your throne.
<sup>15</sup> God, your loyal followers are truly happy.
 They live in the light of your kindness.
<sup>16</sup> Your name always makes them happy.
 They praise your goodness.
<sup>17</sup> You are their amazing strength.
 Their power comes from you.
<sup>18</sup> Lord, you are our Protector.
 The Holy One of Israel is our King.
<sup>19</sup> So, you spoke to your true followers in a vision.
 You said,
 "I helped a famous soldier.

maskil We are not sure of the exact meaning of the word "maskil." It might mean "a poem of meditation," "a poem of instruction," or "a skillfully-written poem."

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause or that the music should be louder here.

Rahab A sea monster. Some ancient stories say the sea monster was an enemy of God.

I chose a young man from among the people,
 And I made that young man important.

<sup>20</sup> I found my servant David.
 And I anointed* him with my special oil.

<sup>21</sup> I supported David with my right arm.
 And with my power, I made him strong.

<sup>22</sup> The enemy could not defeat the chosen king.
 Wicked people could not defeat him.

<sup>23</sup> I finished his enemies.
 I defeated the people that hated the chosen king.

<sup>24</sup> I will always love and support my chosen king.
 I will always make him strong.

 He will control the rivers.

<sup>26</sup> He will say to me,
 'You are my father.
 You are my God, my Rock,* my Savior.'

<sup>27</sup> And I will make him my firstborn* son.
 He will be the great king on earth.

<sup>28</sup> My love will protect the chosen king forever.
 My agreement with him will never end.

<sup>29</sup> His family will continue forever.
 His kingdom will continue as long as the heavens.

<sup>30</sup> If his descendants* quit following my law, and if they quit obeying my commands,
 then I will punish them.

<sup>31</sup> If the chosen king's descendants* break my laws and ignore my commands, <sup>32</sup> then I will punish them very hard.

anoint(ed) To pour olive oil on things or people to show that they were chosen by God for a special work or purpose.

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

I will always be loyal to them.

<sup>34</sup> I will not break my agreement with David.
 I will not change our agreement.

<sup>35</sup> By my holiness, I made a special promise to David.
 And I would not lie to David!

<sup>36</sup> David's family will continue forever.
 His kingdom will continue as long as the sun.

<sup>37</sup> It will continue forever, like the moon.
 The skies are the proof that the agreement is true,
 and that proof can be trusted."

SELAH***

<sup>38</sup> But God, you became angry at your chosen king,* and you left him all alone.

 You threw the king's crown into the dirt.

<sup>40</sup> You pulled down the walls of the king's city.
 You destroyed all his fortresses.

<sup>41</sup> The king's neighbors laugh at him.
 And people passing by steal things from him.

<sup>42</sup> You made all the king's enemies happy.
 You let his enemies win the war.

<sup>43</sup> God, you helped them defend themselves.
 You did not help your king win the battle.

<sup>45</sup> You cut his life short.
 You shamed him.

<sup>46</sup> Lord, will you hide from us forever?
 Will your anger burn like a fire forever?

<sup>47</sup> Remember how short my life is:
 You created us to live a short life, and then die.

chosen king Literally, "anointed person."

No person will escape the grave.

SELAH*

- 49 God, where is the love you showed in the past?
You promised David that you would be loyal to his family.
- 50 Master, please remember how people insulted your servants.
I had to listen to all those insults from your enemies, Lord.
Those people insulted your chosen king!
- 51 Bless the Lord forever!
Amen and amen!*

BOOK 4

Psalm 90

The prayer of Moses, the man of God.*

- 1 Master, you have been our home forever and ever.
- 2 Before there were mountains, or land, or the world, you were God.
God, you were always God, and you will always be God!
- 3 You bring people into this world.
And you change them into dust again.
- 4 To you, a thousand years is only like yesterday—like last night.
- 5 You sweep us away.
Our life is like a dream, and in the morning, we are gone.
We are like grass.
- 6 In the morning the grass grows, and in the evening it is dry and dying.
- 7 God, we are destroyed when you become angry.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause or that the music should be louder here.

Amen and amen A Hebrew word meaning “truly,” “indeed.” It is used to show that a person agrees with what has been said.

man of God Another name for a prophet.

- Your anger scares us!
- 8 You know about all our sins.
God, you see every one of our secret sins.
- 9 Your anger can end our life.
Our lives fade away like a whisper.
- 10 We live, maybe 70 years.
And if we are strong, maybe 80 years.
Our lives are filled with hard work and pain.
Then suddenly, our lives are finished!
And we fly away.
- 11 No person really knows the full power of your anger, God.
- 12 Teach us how short our lives really are, so we can become wise.
- 13 Lord, always come back to us.
Be kind to your servants.
- 14 Fill us with your love every morning.
Let us be happy and enjoy our lives.
- 15 You gave us much sadness and troubles in our lives.
Now make us happy.
- 16 Let your servants see the wonderful things you can do for them.
- 17 Our God and Master, be kind to us.
Give us success in everything we do.

Psalm 91

- 1 You can go to God Most-High to hide.
You can go to the God All-Powerful for protection.
- 2 I say to the Lord,
“You are my place of safety, my fortress.
My God, I trust you.”
- 3 God will save you from all hidden dangers.
God will save you from all dangerous diseases.
- 4 You can go to God for protection, and he will protect you like a bird that spreads its wings over its babies.
God will be like a shield and a wall protecting you.
- 5 You will have nothing to fear at night, and you will not be afraid of enemy arrows during the day.

6 You will not be afraid of diseases that come in the dark,
or terrible sicknesses that come at noon.

7 You will defeat 1,000 enemies.
Your own right hand will defeat 10,000 enemy soldiers.
And your enemies will not even touch
you!

8 Just look, and you will see that those wicked people are punished!

9 Why? Because you trust the Lord.
You made God Most-High your safe place.

10 Nothing bad will happen to you.
There will be no diseases in your home.

11 Why? Because God's angels will watch over you.
They will protect you anywhere you go.

12 God's angels will lift you up with their hands,
so that you will not hit your foot on a rock.

13 You will have power to walk on lions and poisonous snakes.

14 The Lord says,
"If a person trusts me, I will save him.
I will protect my followers that worship
my name.

15 My followers will call to me for help,
and I will answer them.
I will be with them when they have
trouble.
I will rescue them and honor them.

16 I will give my followers a long life.
And I will save them."

Psalm 92

A song of praise for the Sabbath.*

1 It is good to praise the Lord.
It is good to praise your name, God
Most-High.

2 It is good to sing about your love in the morning,

and about your faithfulness at night.

3 God, it is good to play for you,
on ten-stringed instruments and harps.
It is good to play music for you on the lyre.*

4 Lord, you make us truly happy with the
things you did.
We gladly sing about the things you did.

5 Lord, you did great things.
Your thoughts are too hard for us to understand.

6 Compared to you, people are like stupid
animals.
We are like fools that can't understand anything.

7 Wicked people live and die like weeds.
And all the worthless things they do will be destroyed forever.

8 But Lord, you will be honored forever.

9 Lord, all your enemies will be destroyed.
All those people that do bad things will
be destroyed.

10 But you will make me strong.
I will be like a strong ram with its strong horns.

11 You chose me for my special work, you poured your refreshing oil over me.

12 I see my enemies around me.
They are like huge bulls ready to attack
me.
I hear what they are saying about me.

13 But a good man is like a growing palm tree.
A good man will be like a great cedar tree of Lebanon.

14 Good people are strong like trees planted in the Lord's temple.
They will grow strong in the temple yard of our God.

15 They will continue growing fruit even when they are old.
They will be like healthy green trees.

16 I say the Lord is good.
My Rock* never changes.

lyre(s) An instrument with several strings, like a harp.

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

Sabbath Saturday, a special day of rest and worship for the Jews.

Psalm 93

- 1 The Lord is King.
He is clothed in majesty and strength.
So the world will not be destroyed.
- 2 God, you and your kingdom have continued forever.
- 3 Lord, the sound of the rivers is very loud.
The crashing waves are very loud.
- 4 The crashing waves of the sea are loud and powerful.
But the Lord above is even more
powerful.
- 5 Lord, your laws will continue forever.
Your holy temple will stand for a long time.

Psalm 94

- 1 Lord, you are a God that punishes people.
You are a God that comes and brings punishment to people.
- 2 You are the judge of the whole earth.
Give proud people the punishment they
should get.
- 3 Lord, how long will wicked people have their fun?
How much longer, Lord?
- 4 How much longer will those criminals brag about the bad things they did?
- 5 Lord, those people hurt your people.
They made your people suffer.
- 6 Those bad people kill widows and visitors living in our country.
They murder children that have no
parents.
- 7 And they say the Lord does not see them doing those bad things!
They say the God of Israel does not understand the things that are happening.
- 8 You bad people are foolish. When will you learn your lesson?
You evil people are so stupid!
You must try to understand.
- 9 God made our ears,
so surely he has ears too, and can hear the things that are happening!

- God made our eyes,
so surely he has eyes too, and can see
the things that are happening!
- 10 God will discipline those people.
God will teach people the things they should do.
- 11 God knows the things people are thinking.
And God knows people are only like a puff of wind.
- 12 The man that the Lord disciplines will be
very happy.
God will teach that person the right way
of living.
- 13 God, you will help that person stay calm
when trouble comes.
You will help him stay calm until the evil people are put in their grave.
- 14 The Lord will not leave his people.
He will not leave his people without
help.
- 15 Justice will return, bringing fairness.
And then the people will be good,
honest people.
- 16 No person helped me fight against the
evil people.
No person stood with me to fight against the people that do bad things.
- 17 And if the Lord had not helped me,
I would have been silenced!
- 18 I know I was ready to fall,
but the Lord supported his follower.
- 19 I was very worried and upset.
But Lord, you comforted me and made me happy!
- 20 God, you don't help crooked judges.
Those bad judges use the law to make life hard for the people.
- 21 Those judges attack good people.
They say that innocent people are guilty and kill them.
- 22 But the Lord is my safe place high on the mountain.
God my Rock* is my safe place!

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

- <sup>23</sup> God will punish those evil judges for the bad things they did.
 God will destroy them because they sinned.
 The Lord our God will destroy those evil judges.

Psalm 95

- <sup>1</sup> Come, let us praise the Lord!
 Let us shout praises to the Rock* that saves us.
- <sup>2</sup> Let us sing songs of thanks to the Lord.
 Let us sing happy songs of praise to him.
- <sup>3</sup> Why? Because the Lord is a great God!
 He is the Great King ruling over all the other "gods."
- <sup>4</sup> The deepest caves and the highest mountains belong to the Lord.
- <sup>5</sup> The ocean is his—he created it.
 God made the dry land with his own hands.
- <sup>6</sup> Come, let us bow down and worship him!
 Let us praise the God that made us!
- <sup>7</sup> He is our God,
 and we are his people.
 We are his sheep today—if we listen to his voice.
- <sup>8</sup> God says,
 "Don't be stubborn,
 like you were at Meribah,*
 like you were at Massah* in the desert.
- <sup>9</sup> Your ancestors* tested me.
 They tested me,
 but then they saw what I could do!
- <sup>10</sup> I was patient with those people for 40 years.
 And I know that they are not faithful.
 Those people refused to follow my teachings.

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

Meribah, Massah See Ex. 17:1-7.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

- <sup>11</sup> So I was angry, and I promised they would not enter my land of rest.

Psalm 96

- <sup>1</sup> Sing a new song about the new things the Lord has done!
 Let the whole world sing to the Lord.
- <sup>2</sup> Sing to the Lord!
 Bless his name!
 Tell the good news!
 Tell about him saving us every day!
- <sup>3</sup> Tell other people that God is truly wonderful.
 Tell people everywhere about the amazing things God does.
- <sup>4</sup> The Lord is great and worthy of praise.
 He is more awesome than any of the "gods."
- <sup>5</sup> All of the "gods" in other nations are only statues.
 But the Lord made the heavens.
- <sup>6</sup> There is a beautiful glory shining in front of him.
 There is strength and beauty in God's holy temple.
- <sup>7</sup> Families and nations,
 sing songs of praise and glory to the Lord.
- <sup>8</sup> Praise the Lord's name.
 Get your offerings,
 and go to the temple.
- <sup>9</sup> Worship the Lord in his beautiful temple.
 Worship the Lord, every person on earth.
- <sup>10</sup> Announce to the nations that the Lord is King!
 So the world will not be destroyed.
 The Lord will rule the people fairly.
- <sup>11</sup> Be happy, heavens!
 Rejoice, earth!
 Sea and everything in it,
 shout with joy!
- <sup>12</sup> Fields and everything growing on them,
 be happy!
 Trees in the forest, sing and be happy!
- <sup>13</sup> Be happy because the Lord is coming.

The Lord is coming to rule* the world.
He will rule the world with justice and fairness.

Psalm 97

- 1 The Lord rules, and the earth is happy.
All the faraway lands are happy.
- 2 Thick dark clouds surround the Lord.
Goodness and justice make his kingdom
strong.
- 3 A fire goes in front of the Lord and destroys his enemies.
- 4 His lightning flashes in the sky.
The people see it and are afraid.
- 5 The mountains melt in front of the Lord like wax.
They melt in front of the Master of the earth.
- 6 Skies, tell about his goodness!
Let every person see God's glory!
- 7 People worship their idols.
They brag about their "gods."
But those people will be embarrassed.
Their "gods" will bow down and
worship the Lord.
- 8 Zion,* listen and be happy!
Cities of Judah, be happy!
Why? Because the Lord makes wise
decisions.
- 9 Lord Most-High, you really are the ruler of the earth.
You are much better than the other
"gods."
- 10 People that love the Lord hate evil.
So God saves his followers.
God saves his followers from evil
people.
- 11 Light and happiness shine on good
people.
- 12 Good people, be happy in the Lord!
Honor his holy name!

rule Or "judge."

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Psalm 98

A song of praise.

- 1 Sing a new song to the Lord because he has done new and amazing
things!
- 2 His holy right arm has again brought him victory.
- 3 The Lord showed the nations his power to save.
The Lord showed them his goodness.
- 4 His followers remembered God's loyalty to the people of Israel.
The people in faraway lands saw our God's power to save.
- 5 Every person on earth, shout with joy to
the Lord.
Quickly, start singing songs of praise!
- 6 Harps, praise the Lord.
Music from the harps, praise him.
- 7 Blow the pipes and horns,
and shout for joy to the Lord our King!
- 8 Let the sea, and the earth, and everything in them sing loudly.
- 9 Rivers, clap your hands!
All together now, mountains sing out!
- 10 Sing before the Lord because he is coming to rule* the world.
He will rule the world fairly.
He will rule the people with goodness.

Psalm 99

- 1 The Lord is King.
So let the nations shake with fear.
God sits as King above the Cherub
angels.*
So let the world shake with fear.
- 2 The Lord in Zion* is great!
He is the great leader over all people.
- 3 Let all the people praise your name.
God's name is awesome.
God is holy.
- 4 The Powerful King loves justice.
God, you made goodness.
You brought goodness and fairness to Jacob (Israel).

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

- 5 Praise the Lord our God,
and worship his holy footstool.*
- 6 Moses and Aaron were some of God's priests.
And Samuel was one of God's worshippers.
They prayed to God,
and God answered them.
- 7 God spoke from the tall cloud.
They obeyed his commands.
And God gave them the Law.
- 8 Lord our God, you answered their prayers.
You showed them that you are a forgiving God,
and that you punish people for the bad things they do.
- 9 Praise the Lord our God.
Bow down toward his holy mountain and worship him.
The Lord our God is truly holy!

Psalm 100

A song of thanks.

- 1 Earth, sing to the Lord!
- 2 Be happy while you serve the Lord!
Come before the Lord with happy
songs!
- 3 Know that the Lord is God.
He made us,
and we are his people,
we are his sheep.
- 4 Come into the Lord's city with songs of thanks.
Come into his temple with songs of
praise.
Honor him and bless his name.
- 5 The Lord is good!
His love is forever.
His loyalty continues forever and ever!

Psalm 101

A psalm of David's.

- 1 I will sing about love and fairness.
Lord, I will sing to you.
- 2 I will carefully live a pure life.
I will live a pure life in my house.
Lord, when will you come to me?
- 3 I will not have any idols*
in front of me.
I hate people turning against you like
that.
I will not do that!
- 4 I will be honest.
I will not do evil things.
- 5 If any person secretly says bad things about his neighbor,
I will stop that person.
I will not allow people to be proud and think they are better than other people.
- 6 I will look in all the country for people that can be trusted.
And I will let only those people work
for me.
Only people that live pure lives can be my servants.
- 7 I will not let liars live in my house.
I will not let liars stay near me.
- 8 I will always destroy bad people living in this country.
I will force the evil people to leave the Lord's city.

Psalm 102

A prayer of a person that is suffering. This is for when he feels weak and wants to tell his complaints to the Lord.

- 1 Lord, hear my prayer.
Listen to my cry for help.
- 2 Lord, don't turn away from me when I
have troubles.
Listen to me.
When I cry for help, quickly answer me.
- 3 My life is passing away the same as smoke passes away.

footstool This probably means the temple.

idols Or "terrible."

- My life is like a fire slowly burning out.
 4 My strength is gone—I am like dry, dying grass.
 „Because of my troubles,„ I am not hungry.
 5 Because of my sadness, I am losing weight.*
 6 I am lonely like an owl living in the desert.
 I am alone like an owl living in old ruined buildings.
 7 I can't sleep.
 I am like a lonely bird on a roof.
 8 My enemies always insult me.
 And the people that make fun of me use my name when they curse me.
 9 My great sadness is my only food.
 My tears fall into my drinks.
 10 Why? Because you are angry at me, Lord.
 You lifted me up,
 And then you threw me away.
 11 My life is almost finished,
 the same as long shadows at the end of the day.
 I am like dry and dying grass.
 12 But Lord, you will live forever!
 Your name will continue forever and ever!
 13 You will rise and comfort Zion.*
 The time is coming when you will be kind to Zion.
 14 Your servants love her (Jerusalem's) stones.
 They like that city.
 15 People will worship the Lord's name.
 All the kings on earth will honor you, God.
 16 Why? Because the Lord will build Zion again.
 People will again see her (Jerusalem's) glory.
 17 God will answer the prayers of the people he left alive.
- God will listen to their prayers.
 18 Write these things for a future generation to read.
 And in the future, those people will praise the Lord.
 19 The Lord will look down from his Holy Place above.
 The Lord will look down at the earth from heaven.
 20 And he will hear the prisoner's prayers.
 He will free the people that were condemned to die.
 21 Then people in Zion will tell about the Lord.
 They will praise the Lord's name in Jerusalem.
 22 This will happen when the Lord brings his people together again.
 This will happen when kings serve the Lord.
 23 My strength failed me.
 My life is cut short.
 24 So I said,
 “Don't let me die while I am still young.
 God, you will live forever and ever!”
 25 Long ago, you made the world.
 You made the sky with your own hands!
 26 The world and sky will end,
 but you will live forever!
 They will wear out like clothes.
 And, like clothes, you will change them.
 They will all be changed.
 27 But you God, never change.
 You will live forever!
 28 We are your servants „today,„
 And „in the future,„ our descendants* will live here.
 And their descendants will worship you here.

I am losing weight Literally, “my bones stick to my skin.”

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

Psalm 103

To David.

- 1 My soul, praise the Lord!
Every part of me, praise his holy name!
- 2 My soul, praise the Lord!
And don't forget that he is truly kind.
- 3 God forgives us for all the sins we do.
He heals all our sicknesses.
- 4 God saves our life from the grave.
And he gives us love and compassion.
- 5 God gives us plenty of good things.
He makes us young again, like a young eagle.
- 6 The Lord is fair.
God brings justice to people that have been hurt by other people.
- 7 God taught his laws to Moses.
God showed the powerful things he does for Israel.
- 8 The Lord is compassionate and merciful.
God is patient and full of love.
- 9 The Lord does not always criticize.
The Lord does not stay angry at us
forever.
- 10 We sinned against God.
But God did not give us the punishment
we should get.
- 11 The sky is high above the earth.
And that is how great God's love is for his followers.
- 12 The east is far away from the west.
And that is how far God has taken our sins away from us.
- 13 A father is kind to his children.
In the same way, the Lord is kind to his followers.
- 14 God knows all about us.
God knows we are made from dust.
- 15 God knows our lives are short.
He knows our lives are like grass.
- 16 God knows we are like a little wildflower.
The flower grows quickly.
And then the hot wind blows, and the flower dies.
And soon, you can't even see where the flower was growing.

- 17 But the Lord's love is forever.
God loves his followers forever and
ever.
And God is good to his children's
children.
- 18 God is good to people that obey his Agreement.*
God is good to people that obey his
commands.
- 19 God's throne is in heaven.
And he rules over everything.
- 20 Angels, praise the Lord!
You angels are the powerful soldiers that obey God's commands.
You listen to God and obey his
commands.
- 21 Praise the Lord, all his armies.*
You are his servants.
You do the things that God wants.
- 22 The Lord made everything in every place.
God rules everything in every place.
And all those things should praise the
Lord!
My soul, praise the Lord!

Psalm 104

- 1 My soul, praise the Lord!
Lord, my God, you are very great!
You are clothed with glory and honor.
- 2 You wear light like a person wears a robe.
You spread the skies like a curtain.
- 3 God, you built your home above them.*
You use the thick clouds like a chariot, and ride across the sky on the wings of the wind.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

armies This word can mean, "armies," "angels," or the "stars and planets." This word is part of the name translated, "Lord All-Powerful." It shows God is in control of all the powers in the universe.

above them Literally, "on the water above." This is like the picture of the world in Genesis 1. There, the sky was like a bowl turned upside down on the earth. And there was water below the bowl and water above it.

- 4 God, you made your angels like the wind,* and your servants* like fire.
- 5 God, you built the earth on its foundations,
so it will never be destroyed.
- 6 You covered the earth with water like a blanket.
The water covered the mountains.
- 7 But you gave the command,
and the water rushed away.
God, you shouted at the water,
and the water rushed away.
- 8 The waters flowed down from the mountains,
and into the valleys,
and then to the places you made for them.
- 9 You set the limits for the seas.
And the water will never again rise to cover the earth.
- 10 God, you cause water to flow from springs and into the streams.
The water runs down through the mountain streams.
- 11 The streams give water to all the wild animals.
Even the wild donkeys come to drink there.
- 12 Wild birds come to live by the water pools.
And they sing from the branches of nearby trees.
- 13 God sends rain down onto the mountains.
The things God made give the earth everything it needs.
- 14 God, you make grass grow to feed the animals.
You give us the plants we work to grow.
Those plants are the food we get from the earth.
- 15 God, you give us the wine that makes us happy.
You give us the oil to make our skin soft.*
You give us food to make us strong.
- 16 The Lord's trees are the great cedars of Lebanon.
Those great trees have plenty of water to make them grow.
- 17 Birds make their nests in those trees.
Large storks live in the fir trees.
- 18 The high mountains are home for the wild goats.
And the large rocks are hiding places for badgers.
- 19 God, you gave us the moon to use like a calendar,
so we could know when the holidays are.
And the sun always knows where to set.
- 20 You made the darkness,
and at night,
the wild animals come out and roam around.
- 21 Lions roar while they attack,
it seems like they are asking God for the food he gives them.
- 22 And when the sun rises,
the animals go back to their homes and rest.
- 23 Then people go out to do their work.
They work until evening.
- 24 Lord, you did many wonderful things.
The earth is full of your things.
You show your wisdom in everything you do.
- 25 Look at the ocean.
It is so big!
Many different things live in the ocean.
Some of those things are large and some are small.
Those things that live in the ocean are too many to count.

God ... wind Or "You made your messengers spirits."
angels ... servants This probably is talking about the two kinds of angels, the Cherub angels and the Seraph angels. The name Seraph is like a Hebrew word meaning, "fire."

to make ... soft Literally, "make our face shine." This can also mean, "make us happy."

26 Ships travel over the ocean.
And Leviathan,*
the sea creature you made,
plays there in the sea.

27 Lord, all of these things depend on you,
God.
You give them food at the right time.

28 God, you give all the living things the food they eat.
You open your hands, filled with good
food,
and they eat until they are full.

29 And when you turn away from them,
they become frightened.
Their spirits leave them and they grow weak and die.
And their bodies become dust again.

30 So give them part of your Spirit, Lord, and they will be healthy again!
Make the land like new again!

31 May the Lord's glory continue forever!
May the Lord enjoy the things he made.

32 The Lord can just look at the earth, and it will shake,
and smoke will rise from the mountains.

33 All my life I will sing to the Lord.
I will sing praises to the Lord while I
live.

34 I hope the things I said will make him
happy.
I am happy with the Lord.

35 May sin disappear from the earth.
May wicked people be gone forever.

My soul, praise the Lord!
Praise the Lord!

Psalm 105

1 Thank the Lord.
Worship his name.
Tell the nations about the wonderful things he does.

Leviathan This might mean any large sea animal, like a whale. But it probably means "the sea monster," the "dragon," "Rahab." This creature represents the great power of the ocean, the power that God controls.

2 Sing to the Lord.
Sing praises to him.
Tell about all the amazing things he
does.

3 Be proud of the Lord's holy name.
Be happy, all you people that worship
the Lord.

4 Go to the Lord for strength.
Always go to him for help.

5 Remember the amazing things the Lord
does.
Remember his miracles and wise
decisions.

6 You are descendants* of God's servant
Abraham.
You are descendants of Jacob, the man
God chose.

7 The Lord is our God.
The Lord rules the whole world.*

8 Remember God's Agreement* forever.
Remember his commands for 1,000 generations!

9 God made an Agreement with Abraham.
God made a promise to Isaac.

10 God gave the Law to Jacob (Israel).
God made his eternal Agreement with Israel.

11 God said,
"I will give you the land of Canaan.
That land will belong to you."

12 God made that promise when Abraham's family was small.
And they were only travelers living in Canaan.

13 They traveled from nation to nation,
from one kingdom to another.

14 But God did not let other people hurt that family.
God warned kings not to hurt them.

15 God said,

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

The ... world Literally, "His commands are in the whole earth."

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

- “Don’t hurt my chosen people.
Don’t do anything bad to my prophets.*”
- 16 God made a famine* happen in that country.
People did not have enough food to eat.
- 17 But God sent a man named Joseph to go ahead of them.
Joseph was sold like a slave.
- 18 They tied a rope around Joseph’s feet.
They put an iron ring around his neck.
- 19 Joseph was a slave until the things he said really happened.
The Lord’s message proved that Joseph was right.
- 20 So the king of Egypt gave the command to let Joseph go free.
The leader of many people let him out of jail.
- 21 He put Joseph in charge of his house.
Joseph took care of everything in the kingdom.
- 22 Joseph gave instructions to the other leaders.
Joseph taught the older men.
- 23 Then Israel came to Egypt.
Jacob lived in Ham’s country.*
- 24 Jacob’s family became very large.
They became more powerful than the Egyptians.
- 25 So the Egyptian people began hating Jacob’s family.
The Egyptians began making plans against their slaves.
- 26 So God sent his servant, Moses, and Aaron, God’s chosen priest.
- 27 God used Moses and Aaron to do many miracles in Ham’s country.
- 28 God sent the very dark darkness, but the Egyptians did not listen to him.
- 29 So God changed the water into blood, and all their fish died.
- 30 Then the Egyptians’ country was filled with frogs.
The frogs were even in the king’s bedroom.
- 31 God gave the command, and the flies and gnats came.
They were everywhere!
- 32 God made the rain become hail.
Fire and lightning hit everywhere in the Egyptians’ country.
- 33 God destroyed the Egyptians’ grape vines and fig trees.
God destroyed every tree in their country.
- 34 God gave the command, and the locusts and grasshoppers came.
There were too many to count!
- 35 The locusts and grasshoppers ate all the plants in the country.
They ate all the crops on the ground.
- 36 And then God killed every firstborn* in the Egyptian’s country.
God killed their oldest sons.
- 37 Then God took his people out of Egypt.
They brought gold and silver with them.
None of God’s people stumbled and fell.
- 38 Egypt was happy to see God’s people go, because they were afraid of God’s people.
- 39 God spread his cloud out like a blanket.
God used his column of fire to give his people light at night.
- 40 The people asked for food, and God brought them quail.
God gave them plenty of bread from heaven.
- 41 God split the rock, and water came bubbling out.
A river began flowing in the desert!
- 42 God remembered his holy promise.
God remembered the promise he made to his servant Abraham.

prophets A person called by God to be a special servant. God used dreams and visions to show them things to teach the people.

famine A time when there is not enough rain for crops to grow. People and animals die without enough food or water.

Ham’s country Or, “Egypt.” The Bible teaches that the Egyptians were descendants of Ham. See Gen. 10:6-20.

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

- <sup>43</sup> God brought his people out from Egypt.
The people came out rejoicing and singing their happy songs!
- <sup>44</sup> Then God gave his people the country where other people were living.
God's people received the things other people worked for.
- <sup>45</sup> God did this so his people could obey his laws.
God did this so they could carefully obey his teachings.

Praise the Lord!

Psalm 106

- <sup>1</sup> Praise the Lord!
Thank the Lord because he is good!
God's love is forever!
- <sup>2</sup> No person can describe how great the Lord really is.
No person can praise God enough.
- <sup>3</sup> The people that obey God's commands are happy.
Those people do good things all the
time.
- <sup>4</sup> Lord, remember me when you are kind to
your people.
Remember to save me, too!
- <sup>5</sup> Lord, let me share in the good things you do for your people.
Let me be happy with your people.
Let me be proud of you with your
people.
- <sup>6</sup> We sinned just like our ancestors* sinned.
We were wrong, we did bad things!
- <sup>7</sup> Our ancestors in Egypt learned nothing from the miracles you did, Lord.
There by the Red Sea,
our ancestors turned against you.
- <sup>8</sup> But God saved our ancestors* for his own name's sake.
God saved them to show his great
power.
- <sup>9</sup> God gave the command,
and the Red Sea became dry.
God led our ancestors through the deep
sea,
on land as dry as the desert.
- <sup>10</sup> God saved our ancestors from their
enemies!
God rescued them from their enemies.
- <sup>11</sup> And then God covered their enemies with the sea.
Not one of their enemies escaped!
- <sup>12</sup> Then our ancestors* believed God.
They sang praises to him.
- <sup>13</sup> But our ancestors quickly forgot about the things God did.
They did not listen to God's advice.
- <sup>14</sup> Our ancestors became hungry in the desert.
And they tested God in the wilderness.
- <sup>15</sup> But God gave our ancestors the things they asked for.
But God also gave them a terrible disease.
- <sup>16</sup> The people became jealous of Moses.
They became jealous of Aaron,
the Lord's holy priest.
- <sup>17</sup> So God punished those jealous people.
The ground opened up and swallowed Dathan.
Then the ground closed up and covered Abiram's group.
- <sup>18</sup> Then a fire burned that mob of people.
The fire burned those wicked people.
- <sup>19</sup> Those people made a golden calf at Mount Horeb.
They worshiped a statue!
- <sup>20</sup> Those people traded their glorious God,
for a statue of a grass-eating bull!
- <sup>21</sup> Our ancestors* forgot about the God that saved them.
They forgot about the God that did the miracles in Egypt.
- <sup>22</sup> God did amazing things in Ham's
country.*

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Ham's country Or "Egypt." The Bible teaches that the Egyptians were descendants of Ham. See Gen. 10:6-20.

- God did awesome things near the Red Sea!
- 23 God wanted to destroy those people.
But God's chosen servant Moses stopped him.
God was very angry,
but Moses blocked the way so God would not destroy those people.
- 24 Then, those people refused to go into the wonderful land of Canaan.
The people did not believe that God would help them defeat the people living in that land.
- 25 Our ancestors* refused to obey God.
- 26 So God swore that they would die in the desert.
- 27 God promised that he would let other people defeat their descendants.*
God promised he would scatter our ancestors among nations.
- 28 Then at Baal Peor, God's people joined in worshipping Baal.
God's people ate meat that was sacrificed to a dead statue.
- 29 God became very angry at his people, and God made them become very sick.
- 30 But Phinehas prayed to God, and God stopped the sickness.
- 31 God knew Phinehas did a very good thing.
And God will remember this forever and ever.
- 32 At Meribah, the people became angry.
And they made Moses do something bad.
- 33 Those people made Moses very upset, so Moses said things without stopping to think.
- 34 The Lord told the people to destroy the other nations living in Canaan.
- But the people of Israel did not obey God.
- 35 The people of Israel mixed with the other people, and they did the same things those other people were doing.
- 36 Those other people became a trap to God's people.
God's people began worshipping the gods those other people worshipped.
- 37 God's people even killed their own children,
and offered the children to those devils.
- 38 God's people killed innocent people.
They killed their own children and offered them to those false gods.
- 39 So God's people became dirty with the sins of those other people.
God's people were unfaithful to their God and did the things those other people did.
- 40 God became angry at his people.
God was fed up with them!
- 41 God gave his people to other nations.
God let their enemies rule over them.
- 42 The enemies of God's people controlled them and made life hard for them.
- 43 God saved his people many times.
But they turned against God and did the things they wanted to do.
God's people did many, many bad things.
- 44 But whenever God's people were in trouble, they always called to God for help.
And God listened to their prayers every time.
- 45 God always remembered his Agreement.*
God always comforted them with his great love.
- 46 Those other people took God's people as prisoners.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

But God made those people be kind to his people.

- 47 The Lord our God saved us!
God brought us back from those other nations
so we could praise his holy name, and so we could sing praises to him.

- 48 Bless the Lord God of Israel.
God has always lived, and he will live forever.

And all the people said,
"Amen!
Praise the Lord!"

BOOK 5

Psalm 107

- 1 Thank the Lord, because he is good!
His love is forever!
- 2 Every person the Lord saved should say those words.
Every person the Lord saved from their enemies should praise him.
- 3 The Lord gathered his people together from many different countries.
He brought them from east and west, north and south.*
- 4 Some of the people wandered in the dry desert.
Those people were looking for a city where they could live,
but they could not find a city.
- 5 Those people were hungry and thirsty and growing weak.
- 6 Then they called to the Lord for help.
And the Lord saved those people from all their troubles.
- 7 God led those people straight to the city where they would live.
- 8 Thank God for his love.
Thank God for the amazing things he does for people.

- 9 God satisfies the thirsty soul.
God fills the hungry soul with good things.
- 10 Some of God's people were prisoners, locked behind bars in dark, dark prisons.
- 11 Why? Because those people fought against the things God said.
They refused to listen to advice from God Most-High.
- 12 God made life hard for those people because of the things they did.
They stumbled and fell,
and there was no person to help them.
- 13 Those people were in trouble, so they called to the Lord for help.
And the Lord saved them from their troubles.
- 14 God took them out of their dark prisons.
And God broke the ropes they were tied with.
- 15 Thank the Lord for his love.
Thank him for the amazing things he does for people.
- 16 God helps us defeat our enemies.
God can break down their bronze gates.
God can shatter the iron bars on their gates.
- 17 Some people let their sins and guilt change them into foolish people.
- 18 Those people refused to eat, and they almost died.
- 19 They were in trouble, so they called to the Lord for help.
And the Lord saved them from their troubles.
- 20 God gave the command and healed the people.
So those people were saved from the grave.
- 21 Thank the Lord for his love.
Thank the Lord for the amazing things he does for people.
- 22 Offer sacrifices to the Lord to thank him for all he did.
Gladly tell about the things the Lord has done.

south This is probably the correct reading, although now the Hebrew has "the Mediterranean Sea," which is west of Israel.

23 Some people sailed across the sea in boats to do their jobs.

24 Those people saw the things the Lord can
do.
They saw the amazing things the Lord did at sea.

25 God gave the command, and a strong wind began blowing.
The waves became bigger and bigger.

26 The waves were as high as the sky.
The storm was so dangerous the men became afraid.

27 Those men were stumbling and falling like drunk men.
Their skill as sailors was useless.

28 They were in trouble,
so they called to the Lord for help.
And the Lord saved them from their troubles.

29 God stopped the storm.
And the waves calmed down.

30 The sailors were happy that the sea was calm.
And God led them safely to the place
they wanted to go.

31 Thank the Lord for his love.
Thank the Lord for the amazing things
he does for people.

32 Praise God in the great assembly.
Praise him when the older leaders meet together.

33 God changed rivers into a desert.
God stopped springs from flowing.

34 God changed the land that was like new into worthless salty land.
Why? Because of the things the bad people living there did.

35 God changed the desert into a land with lakes.
God caused springs of water to flow from dry ground.

36 God led hungry people to that good land.
And those people built a city to live in.

37 Those people planted seeds in their fields.
They planted grapes in the field.
And they had a good harvest.

38 God blessed those people, and their families grew.
They had many, many animals.

39 Because of disaster and troubles, their families were small and weak.

40 God shamed and embarrassed their leaders.
God let them wander through the desert
where there are no paths.

41 But then God rescued those poor people from their misery.
And now their families are large,
like flocks of sheep.

42 Good people see this,
and they are happy.
But wicked people see this,
and they don't know what to say.

43 If a person is wise,
he will remember these things.
If a person is wise,
he will understand what God's love really is.

Psalm 108

One of David's songs of praise.

1 God, I am ready.
I am ready to sing and play songs of
praise.

2 Harps and lyres,* let's wake up the sun!*

3 Lord, we will praise you among the
nations.
And we will praise you among other
people.

4 Lord, your love is higher than the skies.
Your true love is higher than the highest clouds.

5 God, rise above the heavens!
Let all the world see your glory.

6 God, do this to save your friends.
Answer my prayer and use your great power to save.

7 The Lord spoke from his temple and said,

lyre(s) An instrument with several strings, like a harp.
let's wake up the sun! This song was probably written to be sung at the temple when they offered the morning sacrifices.

- "I will win the war!
 I will give Shechem to my people.
 I will give the Valley of Shelters.
 8 Gilead and Manasseh will be mine.
 Ephraim will be my helmet.
 Judah will be my scepter.*
 9 Moab will be the bowl for washing my feet.
 Edom will be the slave that carries my sandals.
 I will shout in victory after beating the Philistines."
 10 Who will lead me into the enemy fortress?
 Who will help me defeat Edom?
 11 God, is it true that you left us and will not go with our army?
 12 God, please help us defeat our enemy!
 People can't help us!
 13 Only God can make us strong.
 And only God can defeat our enemies.

Psalm 109

To the director.* One of David's songs of praise.

- 1 God, don't close your ears to my prayer!
 2 Wicked people are telling lies about me.
 Those liars are saying things that are not true.
 3 People are saying hateful things about me.
 People are attacking me for no reason.
 4 I loved them,
 but they hate me.
 So now, I am praying to you, God.
 5 I did good things to those people.
 but they are doing bad things to me.
 I loved them,
 but they hated me.
 6 Punish my enemy for the bad things he did.
 Find a person to prove he is wrong.
 7 Let the judge decide my enemy did wrong and he is guilty.
 Let everything my enemy says only make things worse for him.
 8 Let my enemy die soon.
 Let another person have my enemy's job.
 9 Make my enemy's children orphans, and his wife a widow.
 10 Let them lose their home and become beggars.
 11 Let the people my enemy owes money to take everything he owns.
 Let strangers take everything he worked for.
 12 I hope no person is kind to my enemy.
 And I hope no person shows mercy to his children.
 13 Destroy my enemy completely.
 Let the next generation remove his name from everything.
 14 I hope the Lord remembers the sins of my enemy's father and mother forever.
 15 I hope the Lord remembers those sins forever, and I hope the Lord will force people to forget my enemy completely.
 16 Why? Because that evil man never did anything good.
 He never loved anyone
 He made life hard for poor, helpless people.
 17 That evil man loved to ask for bad things to happen to people, so let those bad things happen to him.
 That evil man never asked for good things to happen to people, so don't let good things happen to him.
 18 Let curses be his clothes.
 Let curses be the water that evil man drinks.
 Let curses be the oil on his body.
 19 Let curses be the clothes they wrap around that evil man.

scepter A special stick. Kings and leaders carried scepters to show they were rulers.

director Or, "performer."

- And let curses be the belt around his waist.
- <sup>20</sup> I hope the Lord does all those things to my enemy.
I hope the Lord does those things to all the people that are trying to kill me.
- <sup>21</sup> Lord, you are my Master.
So treat me in a way that brings honor to your name.
You have such great love,
so save me.
- <sup>22</sup> I am only a poor, helpless man.
I am truly sad, my heart is broken.
- <sup>23</sup> I feel like my life is over,
like long shadows at the end of a day.
I feel like a bug that some person brushed away.
- <sup>24</sup> My knees are weak because I am hungry.
I am losing weight and becoming thin.
- <sup>25</sup> Bad people insult me.
They look at me and shake their heads.
- <sup>26</sup> Lord my God, help me!
Show your true love and save me!
- <sup>27</sup> Then those people will know that you helped me.
They will know that it was your power that helped me.
- <sup>28</sup> Those bad people curse me, but you can bless me, Lord.
They attacked me, so defeat them.
Then I, your servant, will be happy.
- <sup>29</sup> Embarrass my enemies!
Let them wear their shame like a coat.
- <sup>30</sup> I thank the Lord.
I praise him in front of many people.
- <sup>31</sup> Why? Because the Lord stands by helpless people.
God saves them from other people that try to condemn them to death.
- <sup>2</sup> The Lord will help your kingdom grow.
Your kingdom will start at Zion,* and it will grow until, you rule your enemies in their own countries!
- <sup>3</sup> Your people join you on the day you become king.
You have had a holy beauty since birth.
Now, that blessing from your childhood, is dawning into your new life as king.*
- <sup>4</sup> The Lord made a promise.
And the Lord will not change his mind.
You are a priest forever,
but not from Aaron's family group,
Yours is a different priesthood,
It is like you are a priest, from Melchizedek's group.
- <sup>5</sup> My Master, you showed your anger that day.
You used your great power,
and you defeated the other kings.
- <sup>6</sup> God judged the nations.
God defeated the enemies in that great land.
The ground was covered with their dead bodies!
- <sup>7</sup> The king drinks from the stream on the way.*
He will truly lift his head and be very powerful!*

Psalm 110

One of David's songs of praise.

- <sup>1</sup> The Lord said to my Master,
"Sit here by my right side until I put your enemies under your feet like a footstool."

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.

Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

You ... king Verse 3 is very hard to understand in Hebrew.

Literally, "Holy splendor was yours from the womb. Your dew of youth has become a dawning for you."

stream ... way This might be the Gihon spring at Jerusalem, where the king might have stopped as he walked into Jerusalem to be anointed king.

lift ... powerful Literally, "he will lift his head." This might mean, "He will raise his head after drinking the water." But it can also mean, "God will make him very powerful or important." Here the poet might mean both things.

Psalm 111

- 1 * Praise the Lord!
I thank the Lord with all my heart in the assembly where good people
meet together.
- 2 The Lord does wonderful things.
People want every good thing that comes from God.
- 3 God does truly glorious and wonderful
things.
His goodness continues forever.
- 4 God does amazing things so we will remember that the Lord is kind and merciful.
- 5 God gives food to his followers.
God remembers his Agreement*
forever.
- 6 The powerful things God did, shows his people that he was giving their land to them.
- 7 Everything God does is good and fair.
All his commands can all be trusted.
- 8 God's commands will continue forever.
God's reasons for giving those commands were honest and pure.
- 9 God saves his people.
God made his Agreement to continue
forever.
God's name is amazing and holy.
- 10 Wisdom begins with fear and respect for
God.
People that respect God are very wise.
Praises will be sung to God forever.

Psalm 112

- 1 * Praise the Lord!
A person that fears and respects the Lord will be very happy.
That person loves God's commands.
- 2 That person's descendants* will be great
on earth.
Descendants from good people will be truly blessed.
- 3 That person's family will be very rich.
And his goodness will continue forever.
- 4 To good people, God is like a light shining in the dark.
God is good and kind and merciful.
- 5 It is good for a person to be kind and generous.
It is good for a person to be fair in his business.
- 6 That person will never fall.
A good person will be remembered
forever.
- 7 A good person will not need to be afraid of disasters.
That person is confident and trusts the Lord.
- 8 That person is confident.
He will not be afraid.
He will defeat his enemies.
- 9 That person freely gives things to poor
people.
The good things he does will continue
forever.
- 10 Wicked people will see this and become
angry.
They will grind their teeth in anger, and then disappear.
Wicked people will not get what they want most.

Psalm 111 In Hebrew, each part of the verse in this psalm begins with the next letter in the Hebrew alphabet.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

Psalm 112 In Hebrew, each part of the verse in this psalm begins with the next letter in the Hebrew alphabet.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

Psalm 113

- 1 Praise the Lord!
Servants of the Lord, praise him!
Praise the Lord's name.
- 2 I want the Lord's name to be blessed.
now and forever more.
- 3 I want the Lord's name to be praised from the rising sun in the east to the place where the sun goes down.
- 4 The Lord is higher than all nations.
His glory rises to the skies.
- 5 No person is like the Lord our God.
God sits high in heaven.
- 6 For God to see the skies and the earth, he must look down.
- 7 God lifts poor people out of the dirt.
God takes beggars from the garbage dump.
- 8 And God makes those people important.
God makes those people important
leaders.
- 9 A woman might not have children.
But God will give children to her and make her happy.
Praise the Lord!

Psalm 114

- 1 Israel left Egypt.
Jacob (Israel) left that foreign country.
- 2 At that time, Judah became God's special
people.
Israel became his kingdom.
- 3 The Red Sea saw this and ran away.
The Jordan River turned and ran.
- 4 The mountains danced like rams.*
The hills danced like lambs.
- 5 Red Sea, why did you run away?
Jordan River, why did you turn and run
away?
- 6 Mountains, why did you dance like rams?
And hills, why did you dance like lambs?

- 7 The earth shook in front of the Master,
the Lord God of Jacob.
- 8 God is the One that caused water to flow from a rock.
God made a spring of water flow from that hard rock.

Psalm 115

- 1 Lord, we should not receive any honor.
The honor belongs to you.
The honor is yours because of your love and loyalty.
- 2 Why should the nations wonder where our God is?
- 3 God is in heaven, and he does anything
he wants.
- 4 Those nation's "gods" are only statues made from gold and silver.
They are only statues that some person
made.
- 5 Those statues have mouths, but they can't talk.
They have eyes, but they can't see.
- 6 They have ears, but they can't hear.
They have noses, but they can't smell.
- 7 They have hands, but they can't feel anything.
They have legs, but they can't walk.
And no sounds come from their throats.
- 8 The people that own and trust those statues
will become just like them!
- 9 But Israel trusts the Lord.
And the Lord helps and protects Israel!
- 10 Aaron's family trusts the Lord.
And the Lord helps and protects Aaron's family!
- 11 The Lord's followers trust the Lord.
And the Lord helps and protects his followers!
- 12 The Lord remembers us.
The Lord will bless us.
The Lord will bless Israel.

The Lord will bless Aaron's family.
 13 The Lord will bless his followers, great and small.
 14 I hope the Lord will make your families become large.
 And I hope he will make your children's families large.
 15 The Lord blesses you!
 The Lord made heaven and earth.
 16 Heaven belongs to the Lord.
 But he gave the earth to people.
 17 Dead people don't praise the Lord.
 People down in the grave don't praise
 the Lord.
 18 But we bless the Lord!
 And we will bless him from now and
 forever!
 Praise the Lord!

Psalm 116

1 I love it when the the Lord hears my prayers.
 2 I love it when he listens to me when I call
 for help.
 3 I almost died!
 Death's ropes were wrapped around me.
 The grave was closing in around me.
 I was scared and worried.
 4 Then I called on the Lord's name. I said:
 "Lord, save me!"
 5 The Lord is good and merciful.
 God is kind.
 6 The Lord takes care of helpless people.
 I was without help, and the Lord saved
 me.
 7 My soul, relax!
 The Lord is caring for you.
 8 God, you saved my soul from death.
 You stopped my tears.
 You kept me from falling.
 9 I will continue to serve the Lord in the land of the living.
 10 I continued believing even when I said,
 "I am ruined!"
 11 I continued believing even when I was afraid and said,

"All men are liars!"

12 What can I give to the Lord?
 The Lord gave me everything I have!
 13 I will give him a drink offering for saving
 me.
 And I will call on the Lord's name.
 14 I will give the Lord the things I promised.
 I will go in front of all his people now.
 15 The death of one of the Lord's followers is very important to the Lord.
 Lord, I am one of your servants!
 16 I am your servant.
 I am a child of one of your servant
 women.
 Lord, you were my first teacher!
 17 I will give you a thank offering.
 I will call on the Lord's name.
 18 I will give the Lord the things I promised.
 I will go in front of all his people now.
 19 I will go to the temple in Jerusalem.
 Praise the Lord!

Psalm 117

1 Praise the Lord, all you nations.
 Praise the Lord all you people.
 2 God loves us very much!
 And God will be loyal to us forever!
 Praise the Lord!

Psalm 118

1 Honor the Lord because he is God.
 His true love continues forever!
 2 Israel, say it.
 "His true love continues forever!"
 3 Priests, say it.
 "His true love continues forever!"
 4 You people worshiping the Lord, say it.
 "His true love continues forever!"
 5 I was in trouble so I called to the Lord for help.
 The Lord answered me and made me
 free.
 6 The Lord is with me so I will not be afraid.
 People can't do anything to hurt me.

7 The Lord is my helper.
I will see my enemies defeated.

8 It is better to trust the Lord than to trust people.

9 It is better to trust the Lord than to trust your leaders.

10 Many enemies surrounded me.
I defeated my enemies with the Lord's power.

11 Enemies surrounded me again and again.
I defeated them with the Lord's power.

12 Enemies surrounded me like a swarm of bees.
But, they were finished like a fast burning bush.
I defeated them with the Lord's power.

13 My enemy attacked me and almost destroyed me.
But the Lord helped me.

14 The Lord is my strength and victory song!
The Lord saves me!

15 You can hear the victory celebration in good people's houses.
The Lord showed his great power again.

16 The Lord's arms are raised in victory.
The Lord showed his great power again.

17 I will live!
I will not die.
And I will tell about the things the Lord has done.

18 The Lord punished me,
but he did not let me die.

19 Good gates, open for me, and I will come in and worship the Lord.

20 Those are the Lord's gates.
Only good people can go through those gates.

21 Lord, I thank you for answering my prayer.
I thank you for saving me.

22 The same stone that the builders did not want became the cornerstone.

23 The Lord made this happen.
and we think it is wonderful!

24 Today is the day the Lord has made.
Let us rejoice and be happy today!

25 [The people said,]
"Praise the Lord!
The Lord saved us!"*

26 Welcome the man coming in the name of the Lord."

[The priests answered,]
"We welcome you to the Lord's house!"

27 The Lord is God.
And he accepts us.
Tie up the lamb for the sacrifice.
And carry the lamb up to the horns of the altar."*

28 Lord, you are my God and I thank you.
I praise you!

29 Praise the Lord because he is good.
His true love is forever.

Psalms 119

Aleph***

1 People living pure lives are happy.
Those people follow the Lord's teachings.

2 People that obey the Lord's Agreement* are happy.
They obey the Lord with all their heart.

3 Those people don't do bad things.
They obey the Lord.

4 Lord, you gave us your commands.
And you told us to obey those commands completely.

Praise ... us Literally, "Lord, please save us. Lord, please make us successful." This was a shout of victory to honor the king that was coming back from winning a war.

horns of the altar The corners of the altar looked like horns.

Aleph First letter of the Hebrew alphabet. Each section of this song begins with the next letter of the alphabet.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

- 5 If I always obey your laws, Lord, 6 Then I will never be ashamed when I study your commands.
 7 Then I could truly honor you as I study your fairness and goodness.
 8 Lord, I will obey your commands.
 So please don't leave me!

Beth

- 9 How can a young person live a pure life?
 By following your instructions.
 10 I try to serve God with all my heart.
 God, help me obey your commands.
 11 I study your teachings very carefully.
 Why? So I will not sin against you.
 12 Bless you Lord.
 Teach me your laws.
 13 I will talk about all your wise decisions.
 14 I enjoy studying your Agreement* more than anything.
 15 I discuss your rules.
 I follow your way of living.
 16 I enjoy your laws.
 I will not forget your words.

Gimel

- 17 Give your servant the ability,
 and I will obey your commands.
 18 Lord, open my eyes, and I will look into your teachings.
 I will read about the wonderful things
 you did.
 19 I am a stranger in this land.
 Lord, don't hide your teachings from
 me.
 20 I want to study your decisions all the
 time.
 21 Lord, you criticize proud people.
 Bad things will happen to those proud
 people.
 They refuse to obey your commands.
 22 Don't let me be ashamed and embarrassed.

- I have obeyed your Agreement.*
 23 Even the leaders said bad things about
 me.
 But I am your servant, Lord, and I study
 your laws.
 24 Your Agreement is my best friend.
 It gives me good advice.

Daleth

- 25 I will soon die.
 Lord, give the command and let me
 live.
 26 I told you about my life.
 And you answered me.
 Now, teach me your laws.
 27 Lord, help me understand your laws.
 Let me study the wonderful things you
 have done.
 28 I am sad and tired.
 Give the command and make me strong
 again.
 29 Lord, don't let me live a lie.
 Guide me with your teachings.
 30 Lord, I chose to be loyal to you.
 I carefully study your wise decisions.
 31 I stick with your Agreement* Lord.
 Don't disappoint me.
 32 I will gladly obey your commands.
 Lord, your commands make me very happy.

He

- 33 Lord, teach me your laws,
 and I will follow them.
 34 Help me understand,
 and I will obey your teachings.
 I will obey them completely.
 35 Lord, lead me along the path of your
 commands.
 I truly love your commands.
 36 Help me think about your Agreement* instead of thinking about how to get rich.
 37 Lord, don't let me try hard to get worthless things.
 Help me live your way.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

- 38 Lord, I am your servant, so do the things you promised.
You promised those things to people that worship you.
- 39 Lord, take away the shame I fear.
Your wise decisions are good.
- 40 Look, I love your commands.
Be good to me and let me live.

Waw

- 41 Lord, show me your true love.
Save me like you promised.
- 42 Then I will have an answer for people that insult me.
I really trust the things you say, Lord.
- 43 Don't take your dependable teachings
from me.
Lord, I depend on your wise decisions.
- 44 Lord, I will follow your teachings forever
and ever.
- 45 So I will live safely.
Why? Because I try hard to obey your
laws.
- 46 I will discuss the Lord's Agreement* with
kings,
and they will not embarrass me.
- 47 I enjoy studying your commands, Lord.
I love those commands.
- 48 Lord, I praise your commands.
I love them.
And I will study them.

Zain

- 49 Lord, remember your promise to me.
That promise gives me hope.
- 50 I was suffering, and you comforted me.
Your words let me live again.
- 51 People that think they are better than me
insulted me constantly.
But I did not stop following your teachings, Lord.
- 52 I always remember your wise decisions.
Lord, your wise decisions comfort me.

- 53 I become very angry when I see the wicked people
that quit following your teachings.
- 54 To me, your laws are like songs at my home.*
- 55 Lord, I remember your name at night.
And I remember your teachings.
- 56 This happens because I carefully obey your commands.

Heth

- 57 Lord, I decided my duty is to obey your
commands.
- 58 Lord, I depend on you completely.
Be kind to me like you promised.
- 59 I thought very carefully, and I returned to following your Agreement.*
- 60 I hurried back to obey your commands without delay.
- 61 A group of bad people said bad things
about me.
But I did not forget your teachings,
Lord.
- 62 In the middle of the night,
I get up to thank you for your good
decisions.
- 63 I am a friend to every person that worships you.
I am a friend to every person that obeys
your commands.
- 64 Lord, your true love fills the earth.
Teach me your laws.

Teth

- 65 Lord, you did good things for me, your servant.
You did exactly the things you promised to do.
- 66 Lord, give me the knowledge to make wise decisions.
I trust your commands.
- 67 Before I suffered, I did many wrong
things.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

at my home Or "at the temple."

But now, I carefully obey your
commands.

<sup>68</sup> God, you are good, and you do good
things.

Teach me your laws.

<sup>69</sup> Some people that think they are better than me tell bad lies about me.

But I continue obeying your commands with all my heart, Lord.

<sup>70</sup> Those people are very stupid.

And I enjoy studying your teachings.

<sup>71</sup> Suffering was good for me.

I learned your laws.

<sup>72</sup> Lord, your teachings are good for me.

Your teachings are better than a 1,000 pieces of silver and gold.

Yod

<sup>73</sup> Lord, you made me and you support me
with your hands.

Help me learn and understand your
commands.

<sup>74</sup> Lord, your followers respect me.

And they are happy because I trust the things you say.

<sup>75</sup> Lord, I know that your decisions are fair.

And it was right for you to punish me.

<sup>76</sup> Now, comfort me with your true love.

Comfort me like you promised.

<sup>77</sup> Lord, comfort me and let me live.

I truly enjoy your teachings.

<sup>78</sup> Disappoint those people that think they are better than me,

because they lied about me.

And Lord, I will study your commands.

<sup>79</sup> Let your followers come back to me.

Let the people that know your Agreement* come back to me.

<sup>80</sup> Lord, let me obey your commands perfectly

So I will not be ashamed.

Kaph

<sup>81</sup> I am about to die waiting for you to save
me.

But I trust the things you say, Lord.

<sup>82</sup> I keep looking for the things you promised,

but my eyes are getting tired.

Lord, when will you comfort me?

<sup>83</sup> Even when I am like a dried wineskin on the trash pile,

I will not forget your laws.

<sup>84</sup> How long will I live?

Lord, when will you punish the people that persecute me?

<sup>85</sup> Some proud people stabbed me with their lies.

And that is against your teachings.

<sup>86</sup> People can trust all of your commands,
Lord.

Liars persecute me. Help me!

<sup>87</sup> Those liars have almost destroyed me.

And I have not stopped following your
commands.

<sup>88</sup> Lord, show me your true love
and let me live.

And I will do the things you say.

Lamedh

<sup>89</sup> Lord, your word continues forever.

Your word continues forever in heaven.

<sup>90</sup> You are loyal forever and ever.

Lord, you made the earth, and it still stands.

<sup>91</sup> Because of your command, all things still continue.

Lord, all things obey your commands like servants.

<sup>92</sup> If your teachings were not like friends to
me,

then my suffering would have destroyed
me.

<sup>93</sup> Lord, I will never forget your commands, because they let me live.

<sup>94</sup> Lord, I am yours. Save me!

Why? Because I try hard to obey your
commands.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

95 Wicked people tried to destroy me.
 But your Agreement* made me wise.
 96 Everything has its limits, except your law.

Mem

97 Oh, I love your teachings, Lord.
 I talk about them all of the time.
 98 Lord, your commands make me wiser than my enemies.
 Your law is with me always.
 99 I am wiser than all my teachers because I study your Agreement.*
 100 I understand more than the older leaders because I keep your commands.
 101 You keep me off of the wrong path every step of the way
 so I can do what you tell me, Lord.
 102 Lord, you are my teacher
 so I will not stop obeying your laws.
 103 Your words are sweeter than honey in my mouth.
 104 Your teachings make me wise,
 so I hate false teachings.

Nun

105 Lord, your words are like a lamp lighting my path.
 106 Your laws are good.
 I promise to obey them.
 And I will keep my promise.
 107 Lord, I suffered for a long time.
 Please give the command, and let me live again!
 108 Lord, accept my praise.
 And teach me your laws.
 109 My life is always in danger.
 But I have not forgotten your teachings,
 Lord.
 110 Wicked people try to trap me.
 But I have not disobeyed your
 commands.
 111 Lord, I will follow your Agreement*

forever.

It makes me very happy.

112 I will always try very hard to obey all your laws.

Samekh

113 Lord, I hate people that are not completely loyal to you.
 And I love your teachings.
 114 Hide me and protect me.
 Lord, I trust everything you say.
 115 Lord, don't let bad people come near me.
 And I will obey my God's commands.
 116 Lord, support me like you promised, and
 I will live.
 I trust you, don't disappoint me.
 117 Help me, Lord, and I will be saved.
 I will study your commands forever.
 118 Lord, you turn away every person that breaks your laws.
 Why? Because those people lied when they agreed to follow you.
 119 Lord, you treat wicked people on earth like trash.
 So I will love your Agreement* forever.
 120 Lord, I am afraid of you.
 I fear and respect your laws.

Ain

121 I have done the things that are right and good.
 Lord, don't give me to the people that want to hurt me.
 122 Promise me that you will help me.
 I am your servant, Lord, don't let those proud people hurt me.
 123 Lord, you made a good promise to save
 me.
 But my eyes are tired of looking for you to save me.
 124 Show your true love to me.
 I am your servant.
 Teach me your laws.
 125 I am your servant.
 Help me learn and understand your
 Agreement.*

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement
 between God and Israel.

126 Lord, it is time for you to do something.
The people have broken your law.
127 Lord, I love your commands more than purest gold.
128 I carefully obey all of your commands.*
I hate false teachings.

Pe

129 Lord, your Agreement* is wonderful.
That is why I follow it.
130 When people begin understanding your word,
it is like a light showing them the right
way of living.
Your word makes even simple people
wise.

131 Lord, I really want to study your
commands.
I am like a person breathing hard and waiting impatiently.
132 God, look at me and be kind to me.
Do the things that are right for the people that love your name.
133 Lord, guide me like you promised.
Don't let anything bad happen to me.
134 Lord, save me from the people that hurt
me.
And I will obey your commands.
135 Lord, accept your servant,
and teach me your laws.
136 I have cried a river of tears because people don't obey your teachings.

Tsadhe

137 Lord, you are good.
And your laws are fair.
138 The laws you gave us in the Agreement* are good.
We can really trust your laws, Lord.
139 The strong feelings I have will soon destroy me.

I carefully ... commands The Hebrew is not clear here.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

I am so upset because my enemies forgot your commands.
140 We have proof that we can trust your word, Lord.
And I love it.
141 I am a young person,
and people don't respect me.
But I don't forget your commands.
142 Lord, your goodness is forever.
And your teachings can be trusted.
143 I had troubles and hard times.
But your commands were like friends to
me.
144 Your Agreement is good forever.
Help me understand your Agreement*
so I can live.

Qoph

145 I call to you with all my heart, Lord.
Answer me!
I obey your commands.
146 Lord, I call to you.
Save me!
And I will obey your Agreement.*
147 I got up early in the morning to pray to you, Lord.
I trust the things you say.
148 I stayed up late at night to study your word.
149 With all your love, listen to me.
Lord, do the things you say are right,
and let me live.
150 People are making evil plans against me.
Those people don't follow your teachings, Lord.
151 Lord, you are close to me.
And all your commands can be trusted.
152 Long ago I learned from your Agreement*
that your teachings will continue forever.

Resh

153 Lord, see my suffering and rescue me.
I have not forgotten your teachings.
154 Lord, fight my fight for me and save me.

Let me live, like you promised.
 155 Wicked people will not win.
 Why? Because they don't follow your laws.
 156 Lord, you are very kind.
 Do the things you say are right, and let me live.
 157 I have many enemies trying to hurt me.
 But I have not stopped following your Agreement.*
 158 I see those traitors.*
 They don't obey your word, Lord.
 And I hate that.
 159 Look, I try hard to obey your commands.
 Lord, with all your love, let me live.
 160 From the very beginning,
 all your words could be trusted, Lord.
 And your good law will last forever.

Shin

161 Powerful leaders attacked me for no reason.
 But I fear and respect only your law.
 162 Lord, your word makes me as happy as a person that just found a great treasure.
 163 I hate lies! I despise them!
 I love your teachings, Lord.
 164 Seven times a day I praise you for your good laws.
 165 People that love your teachings will find true peace.
 Nothing can make those people fall.
 166 Lord, I am waiting for you to save me.
 I obeyed your commands.
 167 I followed your Agreement.*
 Lord, I love your laws very much.
 168 I have obeyed your Agreement and your commands.
 Lord, you know everything I have done.

Taw

169 Lord, listen to my happy song.
 Make me wise like you promised.
 170 Lord, listen to my prayer.
 Save me, like you promised.
 171 I burst into songs of praise,
 because you taught me your laws.
 172 Help me respond to your words and let me sing my song.
 Lord, all your laws are good.
 173 Reach out and help me,
 because I chose to follow your commands.
 174 Lord, I want you to save me.
 But your teachings make me happy.
 175 Let me live and praise you, Lord.
 Let your laws help me.
 176 I wandered away like a lost sheep.
 Come looking for me, Lord.
 I am your servant,
 and I have not forgotten your commands.

Psalms 120

A song of ascents.

1 I was in trouble.
 I called to the Lord for help.
 And he saved me!
 2 Lord, save me from the people that lied about me.
 3 Liars, do you know how God will punish you?
 4 God will use a soldier's sharp arrow and hot coals to punish you.
 5 Living near you liars is like living in Meshech.
 It is like living in tents in Kedar.*
 6 I have lived too long with people that hate peace.
 7 I want peace.
 I said that,
 so those people want war.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

traitors People that turn against their country, friends, or family and do bad things to them.

Meshech ... Kedar People from these places were famous fighters.

Psalms 121

A song of ascents.

- 1 I look up to the hills.
But where will my help really come from?
- 2 My help will come from the Lord,
the Creator of heaven and earth.
- 3 God will not let you fall.
Your Protector will not fall asleep.
- 4 Israel's Protector does not become sleepy.
God never sleeps.
- 5 The Lord is your Protector.
The Lord protects you with his great power.
- 6 The sun can't hurt you during the day.
And the moon can't hurt you at night.
- 7 The Lord will protect you from every danger.
The Lord will protect your soul.
- 8 The Lord will help as you come and go.*
The Lord will help you now and forever!

Psalms 122

A song of ascents from David.

- 1 I was very happy when people said,
"Let us go to the Lord's temple.*"
- 2 Here we are standing at the gates of Jerusalem.
- 3 This is New Jerusalem!
The city has been built again as one united city.
- 4 The family groups that belong to God go there.
The people of Israel go there to praise the Lord's name.
- 5 That is the place the kings set their thrones to judge the people.
The kings from David's family put their thrones in that place.
- 6 Pray for peace in Jerusalem.
"I hope the people that love you will find peace there."

- I hope there will be peace inside your walls.
I hope there will be safety in your great buildings."
- 7 For the good of my neighbors and other Israelites,
I pray there will be peace here.
  - 8 For the good of the temple of the Lord our God,
I pray that good things will happen to this city.

Psalms 123

A song of ascents

- 1 God, I look up and pray to you.
You sit as king in heaven.
- 2 Slaves depend on their masters for the things they need.
Slave women depend on their women masters.
- 3 In the same way, we depend on the Lord our God.
And we wait for God to show mercy to us.
- 4 Lord, be merciful to us.
Be merciful because we have been insulted too long.
- 5 Proud people have insulted us long enough.
Those people think they are better than other people.

Psalms 124

A song of ascents from David.

- 1 What would have happened to us if the Lord had not been on our side in the past?
Tell me the answer, Israel.
- 2 What would have happened to us if the Lord had not been on our side in the past?
What would have happened when people attacked us?
- 3 Then our enemies would have swallowed us alive whenever they became angry at us.

come and go This probably refers to going to war.
temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

- 4 Then our enemies' armies would have been like a flood washing over us, like a river drowning us.
 5 Then those proud people would have been like water
 rising up to our mouth and drowning us.
 6 Praise the Lord!
 The Lord did not let our enemies catch us and kill us.
 7 We are like a bird that was trapped in a net,
 and then escaped.
 The net broke, and we escaped!
 8 Our help came from the Lord.
 The Lord made heaven and earth!

Psalm 125

A song of ascents.

- 1 People that trust in the Lord will be like Mount Zion.
 They will never be shaken.
 They will continue forever.
 2 Mountains are all around Jerusalem.
 In the same way, the Lord is around his
 people.
 The Lord will protect his people
 forever and ever.
 3 Evil people will not rule good people
 forever.
 If evil people did that,
 then even good people might start doing
 bad things.
 4 Lord, be good to good people.
 Be good to people that have pure hearts.
 5 Lord, you punish evil people.
 Punish those people that stopped following you.
 Let there be peace in Israel!

Psalm 126

A song of ascents.

- 1 When the Lord brought us back from exile,*
 it was like a dream!
 2 We were laughing.
 And we would suddenly start singing happy songs!
 3 People in other nations talked about that.
 Those people said,
 "The Lord did a wonderful thing for the people of Israel."
 4 Lord, we were prisoners.
 Now, make us like streams of water that make the desert bloom.
 5 We cried when we planted the seeds.
 But we will sing happy songs at harvest
 time!
 6 We cried when we carried the seed out to the field.
 So let us be happy as we bring the harvest in!

Psalm 127

A song of ascents from Solomon.

- 1 If it is not the Lord that builds a house,
 the builder is wasting his time.
 If it is not the Lord that watches over a
 city,
 the guards are wasting their time.
 2 If the only reason you get up early and work late,
 is to pay for the food you eat,
 you are wasting your time!
 God cares for his loved ones,
 even while they are sleeping.
 3 Children are a gift* from the Lord.
 They are a reward coming from a mother's body.

exile Being forced to leave one's home country.

gift Literally, "inheritance." Usually, this means the land that God gave to each family in Israel. This land was a gift that never really left the family. A person might sell the land, but at the time of Jubilee, the land was given back to the family.

- <sup>4</sup> A young man's sons are like the arrows in a soldier's arrow bag.
- <sup>5</sup> A man that fills his arrow bag with sons will be very happy.
- <sup>6</sup> That man will never be defeated.
His sons will defend him against his enemies in public places.*

Psalm 128

A song of ascents.

- <sup>1</sup> All of the Lord's followers are happy.
Those people live the way God wants.
- <sup>2</sup> You will enjoy the things you work for.
No person will take those things from you.
You will be happy,
and good things will happen to you.
- <sup>3</sup> At home, your wife will be like a fruitful grape vine.
Around the table, your children will be like olive trees you planted.
- <sup>4</sup> The Lord will truly bless his followers this way.
- <sup>5</sup> I hope the Lord bless you from Zion.*
I hope you enjoy the blessings in Jerusalem all of your life.
- <sup>6</sup> And I hope you live to see your grandchildren.
- Let there be peace in Israel!

Psalm 129

A song of ascents.

- <sup>1</sup> "I have had many enemies all my life."
Israel, tell us about those enemies.
- <sup>2</sup> "I have had many enemies all my life.
But they never won.
- <sup>3</sup> They beat me until I had deep cuts in my back.

public places Literally, "the gate." This might mean that a person's sons will defend him whenever his enemies try to take him to court.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

- I had long and deep wounds.
- <sup>4</sup> But the good Lord cut the ropes and set me free from those evil people.
- <sup>5</sup> The people that hated Zion* were defeated.
They stopped fighting and ran away.
- <sup>6</sup> Those people were like grass on top of a house.
That grass dies before it has time to grow.
- <sup>7</sup> A worker can't even get a handful of that grass.
And there is not enough for a pile of grain.
- <sup>8</sup> People walking by those evil people will not say,
"May the Lord bless you."
People will not greet them and say,
'We bless you in the name of the Lord.'

Psalm 130

A song of ascents.

- <sup>1</sup> Lord, I am in deep trouble,
so I am calling to you for help.
- <sup>2</sup> My Master, listen to me.
Listen to my call for help.
- <sup>3</sup> Lord, if you really punished people for all of their sins, no person would be left.
- <sup>4</sup> Lord, forgive your people.
Then there will be people to worship you.
- <sup>5</sup> I am waiting for the Lord to help me.
My soul waits for him.
I trust what the Lord says.
- <sup>6</sup> I am waiting for my Master.
I am like guards waiting and waiting for the morning to come.
- <sup>7</sup> Israel, trust the Lord.
True love is found only with the Lord.
The Lord saves us again and again.
And the Lord will forgive Israel for all their sins.

Psalms 131

A song of ascents.

- 1 Lord, I am not proud.
I don't try to act important.
I don't try to do great things.
I don't worry about things that are too hard for me.
- 2 I am calm.
My soul is quiet.
- 3 My soul is calm and quiet like a satisfied baby in his mother's arms.
- 4 Israel, trust the Lord.
Trust him now, and trust him forever!

Psalms 132

A song of ascents.

- 1 Lord, remember the way David suffered.
2 But David made a special promise to the Lord.
David made a special promise to the Mighty God of Israel.
- 3 David said,
"I will not go into my house,
I will not lie down on my bed,
4 I will not sleep,
I will not let my eyes rest,
5 I will not do any of those things until I find a house for the Lord!
I will find a home for the Mighty God of Israel!"
- 6 We heard about it in Ephrathah.*
We found the Box of the Agreement* at Kiriath Jearim.*
- 7 Let us go to the Holy Tent.
Let us worship at the stool where God rests his feet.*

Ephrathah Bethlehem, the town where David was born.Box of the Agreement Or, "ark of the Covenant." The box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.Kiriath Jearim Literally, "fields of the forest." The Hebrew word meaning "forest" is like the name of this city.stool ... feet This can mean the Box of the Agreement, the Holy Tent, or the temple. It is like God is a king sitting on his throne and resting his feet on the place where people worship him.

- 8 Lord, get up from your resting place.
Get up Lord, you and your powerful Box.
- 9 Lord, your priests are dressed in goodness.
Your followers are very happy.
- 10 For the good of your servant David, don't reject your chosen king.
- 11 The Lord made a promise to David.
The Lord promised to be loyal to David.
The Lord promised that the kings would come from David's family.
- 12 The Lord said,
"David, if your children obey my Agreement* and the laws I teach them, then someone from your family will always be the king."
- 13 The Lord chose Zion* to be the place for his temple.
- 14 The Lord said,
"This will be my place forever and ever.
I choose this to be the place where I will be.
- 15 I will bless this city with plenty of food.
Even poor people here will have plenty to eat.
- 16 I will clothe the priests with salvation.
And my followers will be very happy here.
- 17 In this place, I will make David strong.
I will provide a lamp for my chosen king.
- 18 I will cover David's enemies in shame.
But I will make David's kingdom grow."

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Psalm 133

One of David's songs of ascents.

- 1 It is truly good and pleasant when God's people live together in peace.
- 2 It is like the sweet smelling oil poured over the priest's head.
It is like the oil running down into Aaron's beard.
It is like the oil running down onto Aaron's special clothes.
- 3 It is like the foggy mist from Mount Hermon,
falling on Mount Zion.
- 4 It was at Zion that the Lord gave his blessing.
The Lord gave the blessing of eternal life.

Psalm 134

A song of ascents.

- 1 Praise the Lord, all of his servants!
You servants served in the temple all
night.
- 2 Servants, lift your arms and bless the Lord.
- 3 And may the Lord bless you from Zion.*
The Lord made heaven and earth.

Psalm 135

- 1 Praise the Lord!
Servants of the Lord, praise the Lord's
name!
- 2 You people standing in the Lord's temple, praise his name!
You people standing in the temple courtyard, praise his name!
- 3 Praise the Lord, because he is good.
Praise his name, because it is good to praise him.
- 4 The Lord chose Jacob.*

Israel belongs to God.

- 5 I know the Lord is great!
Our Master is greater than all the other
gods!
- 6 The Lord does anything he wants,
in heaven and earth,
in the seas or in the deep oceans.
- 7 God makes the clouds all over the earth.
God makes the lightning and rain.
And God makes the wind.*
- 8 God destroyed all the firstborn men and animals in Egypt.
- 9 God did many wonders and miracles in Egypt.
God made those things happen to Pharaoh and his officials.
- 10 God defeated many nations.
God killed powerful kings.
- 11 God defeated Sihon, king of the Amorites.
God defeated Og, king of Bashan.
God defeated all the nations in Canaan.
- 12 And God gave their land to Israel.
God gave that land to his people.
- 13 Lord, you will be famous forever!
Lord, people will remember you forever
and ever.
- 14 The Lord punished the nations.
But the Lord was kind to his servants.
- 15 'The other peoples' gods were only gold and silver statues.
Their gods were only statues that people
made.
- 16 The statues had mouths, but they could not speak.
The statues had eyes, but they could not see.
- 17 The statues had ears, but they could not hear.
The statues had noses, but they could not smell.
- 18 And the people that made the statues will become just like those statues!
Why? Because those people believed their statues could help them.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.

Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22-28.

makes the wind Literally, "brings the wind out of the storehouses."

- 19 Family of Israel, bless the Lord!
 Aaron's family, bless the Lord!
 20 Levi's family, bless the Lord!
 You people worshipping the Lord, bless
 the Lord!
 21 The Lord is blessed from Zion, from Jerusalem his home.
 Praise the Lord!

Psalm 136

- 1 Praise the Lord because he is good.
 His true love continues forever.
 2 Praise the God of gods!
 His true love continues forever.
 3 Praise the Lord of lords!
 His true love continues forever.
 4 Praise God, the only One that does wonderful miracles!
 His true love continues forever.
 5 Praise God, the One that used wisdom to make the skies!
 His true love continues forever.
 6 God put the dry land on the sea.
 His true love continues forever.
 7 God made the great lights.
 His true love continues forever.
 8 God made the sun to rule the day.
 His true love continues forever.
 9 God made the moon and stars to rule the
 night.
 His true love continues forever.
 10 God killed the firstborn men and animals in Egypt.
 His true love continues forever.
 11 God took Israel out of Egypt.
 His true love continues forever.
 12 God showed his great power and strength.
 His true love continues forever.
 13 God split the Red Sea into two parts.
 His true love continues forever.
 14 God led Israel through the sea.
 His true love continues forever.
 15 God drowned Pharaoh and his army in the Red Sea.
 His true love continues forever.
 16 God led his people through the desert.

- His true love continues forever.
 17 God defeated powerful kings.
 His true love continues forever.
 18 God defeated strong kings.
 His true love continues forever.
 19 God defeated Sihon king of the Amorites.
 His true love continues forever.
 20 God defeated Og king of Bashan.
 His true love continues forever.
 21 God gave their land to Israel.
 His true love continues forever.
 22 God gave that land for a gift to Israel.
 His true love continues forever.
 23 God remembered us when we were defeated.
 His true love continues forever.
 24 God saved us from our enemies.
 His true love continues forever.
 25 God gives food to every person.
 His true love continues forever.
 26 Praise the God of heaven!
 His true love continues forever.

Psalm 137

- 1 By the rivers in Babylon, we sat and cried as we remembered
 Zion.*
 2 We hung up our harps on the willow trees nearby.*
 3 In Babylon, the people that captured us told us to sing.
 They told us to sing happy songs.
 They told us to sing songs about
 Zion.*
 4 But we can't sing the Lord's songs in a foreign country!
 5 Jerusalem, if I ever forget you,
 then I hope I never play a song again.
 6 Jerusalem, if I ever forget you,
 then I hope I never will be able to sing
 again.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
 Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

harps ... nearby These instruments were used to praise God in the temple in Jerusalem. Since the temple was destroyed, these people had no reason to play the songs.

- I promise, I will never forget you.
 7 I promise, Jerusalem will always be my greatest joy!
 8 Babylon, you will be destroyed!
 Bless the man that will give you the punishment you should get.
 Bless the man that will hurt you like you hurt us.
 9 Bless the man that grabs your babies and smashes them against a rock.

Psalm 138

A song of David's.

- 1 God, I praise you with all my heart.
 I will sing your songs before all the gods.
 2 God, I bow down toward your holy temple.
 I praise your name, your true love, and
 your loyalty.
 And you used your name,
 to make the greatest promise to me.
 3 God, I called to you for help.
 And you answered me!
 You gave me strength.
 4 Lord, I want all the kings on earth to praise you.
 They heard the things you said.
 5 And I want all those kings to sing about
 the Lord.
 The Lord's glory is great.
 6 God is great.
 But God cares for humble people.
 God knows the things proud people do.
 but he is not close to them.
 7 God, if I am in trouble, keep me alive.
 If my enemies are angry at me,
 save me from them.
 8 Lord, give me the things you promised.
 Lord, your true love continues forever.
 Lord, you made us,
 so don't leave us!

Psalm 139

To the director.* One of David's songs of
 praise.

- 1 Lord, you tested me.
 You know all about me.
 2 You know when I sit down and when I get up.
 You know my thoughts from far away.
 3 Lord, you know where I am going and when I am lying down.
 You know everything I do.
 4 Lord, you know what I want to say,
 even before the words leave my mouth.
 5 Lord, you are all around me—in front and in back of me.
 You gently put your hand on me.
 6 I am amazed at the things you know.
 It is too hard for me to understand.
 7 Your Spirit is in every place I go.
 Lord, I can't escape you.
 8 Lord, if I go up to heaven, you are there.
 If I go down to the place of death, you are there.
 9 Lord, if I go east to the place that the sun rises, you are there.
 If I go west to the sea, you are there.
 10 Even there you reach out with your right hand,
 and lead me by the hand.
 11 Lord, I might try to hide from you and
 say,
 "The day has changed to night.
 Surely the darkness will hide me."
 12 But even darkness is not dark to you,
 Lord,
 The night is as bright as day to you.
 13 Lord, you made my whole body.*
 You knew all about me when I was still in my mother's body.
 14 Lord, I thank you for all the amazing
 things you did.
 The things you do are amazing, and I really know it.

director Or, "performer."

whole body Literally, "kidneys." The ancient Israelites also thought the emotions were centered in the kidneys. So this probably also means God knew how this person felt, even before he was born.

15 You know all about me.
 You watched my bones grow
 while my body took shape, hidden in my mother's womb.*

16 Lord, you saw my body growing in my mother's womb.
 All these things are written in your book.
 You watched me every day.
 You did not miss one day.

17 God, it is very hard to understand your thoughts.
 You know so much!

18 If I could count all the things you know, they would be more than all the pieces of sand on earth.
 But even if I could count them,
 I would still be with you.

19 God, kill the wicked people.
 Take those murderers away from me.

20 Those bad people say bad things about
 you.
 They say bad things about your name.*

21 Lord, I hate the people that hate you.
 I hate the people that turn against you.

22 I hate them completely!
 Your enemies are also my enemies.

23 Lord, look at me and know my heart.
 Test me and know my thoughts.

24 Look and see that I don't have any evil
 thoughts.
 And guide me on your path that continues forever.

Psalm 140

To the director.* One of David's songs of
 praise.

1 Lord, save me from evil people.
 Protect me from cruel people.

2 Those people plan to do evil things.
 Those people always start fights.

3 Their tongues are like poisonous snakes.
 It is like snake poison is under their tongue.

SELAH*

4 Lord, save me from wicked people.
 Protect me from cruel people.
 Those people chase me and try to hurt
 me.

5 Those proud people set a trap for me.
 They have spread a net to catch me.
 They have set a trap in my path.

SELAH*

6 Lord, you are my God.
 Lord, listen to my prayer.

7 Lord, you are my strong Master.
 You are my Savior.
 You are like a helmet protecting my head in war.

8 Lord, don't let those wicked people have the things they want.
 Don't let their plans succeed.

SELAH*

9 Lord, don't let my enemies win.
 Those people are planning bad things.
 But make those bad things happen to
 them.

10 Pour burning coals on their heads.
 Throw my enemies into the fire.
 Throw them into the pit they will never climb out of.

11 Lord, don't let those liars live.
 Make bad things happen to those bad
 people.

12 I know that the Lord will judge poor people fairly.
 God will help helpless people.

13 Good people will praise your name, Lord.
 Good people will worship you.

mother's womb Literally, "deepest parts of the earth."

This is a way of saying a place we know nothing about.

They ... name The Hebrew is hard to understand here.

director Or, "performer."

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably mean that the singers should pause or that the music should be louder here.

Psalm 141

One of David's songs of praise.

- 1 Lord, I call to you for help.
Listen to me while I pray to you.
Hurry and help me!
- 2 Let my prayer be like a gift of burning incense to you, Lord.
Let my prayer be like an evening sacrifice to you.
- 3 Lord, help me control the things I say.
Help me watch the things I say.
- 4 Don't let me say bad things.
Stop me from joining bad people and doing wrong.
Don't let me share the things those bad people enjoy doing.
- 5 A good person can correct me.
Your followers can criticize.
(That would be good for me.)
But I will not accept praise from bad
people.
Why? Because I am always praying against the bad things those bad people do.
- 6 Their rulers will be thrown down from a high cliff.
And then people will know that I spoke
the truth.
- 7 People dig and plow the ground.
And the dirt is spread around.
In the same way, the bones of those bad
people,
will be spread around in their grave.
- 8 Lord my Master, I look to you for help.
I trust you.
Please don't let me die.
- 9 Don't let me fall into the bad peoples' traps.
Don't let me be trapped by those bad
people.
- 10 Let those bad people be caught in their
own traps,
while I escape unharmed.

Psalm 142

One of David's maskils.* This is a prayer from the time he was in the cave.

- 1 I will call to the Lord for help.
I will pray to the Lord.
- 2 I will tell the Lord about my problems.
I will tell the Lord about my troubles.
- 3 My enemies have set a trap for me.
I am ready to give up.
But the Lord knows what is happening
to me.
- 4 I look around,
and I don't see any of my friends.
I have no place to run.
No person is trying to save me.
- 5 So I cry to the Lord for help.
Lord, you are my place of safety.
Lord, you can let me continue to live.
- 6 Lord, listen to my prayer.
I need you very much.
Save me from the people that chase me.
Those people are too strong for me.
- 7 Help me escape this trap.*
Then I will praise your name, Lord.
I promise, good people will meet together and praise you
if you save me.

Psalm 143

One of David's songs of praise.

- 1 Lord, hear my prayer.
Listen to my prayer.
And then answer my prayer.
Show me that you are truly good and loyal.
- 2 Don't judge me, your servant.
Never, in all my life, could I ever be judged innocent.
- 3 But my enemies are chasing me.
They have crushed my life into the dirt.
They are trying to push me into that dark, eternal grave.

trap Literally, "frame around my soul."

- 4 I am ready to give up.
I am losing my courage.
- 5 But I remember the things that happened long ago.
I am talking about the many wonderful things you did, Lord.
- 6 Lord, I lift my arms and pray to you.
I am waiting for your help,
like a dry land waiting for rain.
- SELAH*
- 7 Hurry, answer me Lord!
I have lost my courage.
Don't turn away from me.
Don't let me die and be like dead people lying in the grave.
- 8 Lord, show me your true love this morning.
I trust you.
Show me the things I should do.
I put my life in your hands!
- 9 Lord, I come to you for protection.
Save me from my enemies.
- 10 Show me what you want me to do.
You are my God.
- 11 Lord, let me live,
so people will praise your name.
Show me that you are truly good,
and save me from my enemies.
- 12 Lord, show me your love, and defeat the enemies that are trying to kill me.
Why? Because I am your servant.

Psalm 144

To David.

- 1 The Lord is my Rock.*
Bless the Lord.
The Lord trains me for war.
The Lord trains me for battle.
- 2 The Lord loves me and protects me.
The Lord is my safe place high

- on the mountain.
The Lord rescues me.
The Lord is my shield.
I trust him.
The Lord helps me rule my people.
- 3 Lord, why are people important to you?
Why do you even notice us?
- 4 A person's life is like a puff of air.
A person's life is like a passing shadow.
- 5 Lord, tear open the skies and come down.
Touch the mountains and smoke will rise from them.
- 6 Lord, send the lightning and make my enemies run away.
Shoot your "arrows" and make them run
away.
- 7 Lord, reach down from heaven and save me!
Don't let me drown in this sea of
enemies.
Save me from these foreigners.
- 8 These enemies are liars.
They say things that are not true.
- 9 Lord, save me,
so I can sing a new song about the wonderful things you do.
I will praise you with the ten-stringed harp.
- 10 The Lord helps kings win their wars.
The Lord saved his servant David from his enemy's swords.
- 11 Save me from these foreigners.
These enemies are liars.
They say things that are not true.
- 12 I hope our young sons will be like big,
strong trees.
And I hope our daughters will be like the beautiful decorations in the palace.
- 13 I hope our barns will be filled with all kinds of crops.
I hope the sheep in our fields will have thousands and thousands of baby
lambs.
- 14 I hope our cattle will have many babies.
I hope no enemies will come to attack us.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause or that the music should be louder here.

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

I hope we will never go to war.
And I hope there will be no cries of danger in our streets.

- <sup>15</sup> When those things happen, people are
very happy.
People whose God is the Lord are very happy.

Psalm 145

One of David's prayers.

- <sup>1</sup> I praise you my God and King.
I bless your name forever and ever.
<sup>2</sup> I praise you every day.
I praise your name forever and ever.
<sup>3</sup> The Lord is great.
People praise him very much.
We can't count all the great things he
does.
<sup>4</sup> Lord, people will praise the things you do forever and ever.
And people will tell other people about
the great things you do.
<sup>5</sup> People will tell about your wonderful majesty and glory.
I will tell about your miracles.
<sup>6</sup> Lord, people will tell about the amazing things you do.
I will tell about the great things you do.
<sup>7</sup> People will tell about the good things you
do.
People will sing about your goodness,
Lord.
<sup>8</sup> The Lord is kind and merciful.
The Lord is patient and full of love.
<sup>9</sup> The Lord is good to every person.
God shows his mercy in everything he
does.
<sup>10</sup> Lord, the things you do bring praise to
you.
Your followers bless you.
<sup>11</sup> Those people tell about your glorious kingdom.
They tell how great you are.
<sup>12</sup> So other people learn about the great things you do, Lord.
Those people learn about your majestic and glorious kingdom.

- <sup>13</sup> Lord, your kingdom will continue
forever.
You will rule forever.
<sup>14</sup> The Lord lifts up people that have fallen.
The Lord helps people that are in
trouble.
<sup>15</sup> Lord, all living things look to you for their food.
And you give them their food at the night time.
<sup>16</sup> Lord, you open your hands, and you give all living things everything they need.
<sup>17</sup> Everything the Lord does is good.
The Lord shows his true love in everything he does.
<sup>18</sup> The Lord is close to all the people that worship him.
The Lord is close to every person that truly worships him.
<sup>19</sup> The Lord does the things his followers want him to do.
The Lord listens to his followers.
And the Lord answers their prayers
and saves them.
<sup>20</sup> The Lord protects every person that loves
him.
And the Lord destroys bad people.
<sup>21</sup> I will praise the Lord!
I want every person to praise his holy name forever and ever!

Psalm 146

- <sup>1</sup> Praise the Lord!
My soul, praise the Lord!
<sup>2</sup> I will praise the Lord all my life.
I will sing praises to him all my life.
<sup>3</sup> Don't depend on your leaders for help.
Don't trust people, because people can't save you.
<sup>4</sup> People die and are buried.
And then, all of their plans to help you are gone.
<sup>5</sup> People that ask God for help are very happy.
Those people depend on the Lord their

- God.
 6 The Lord made heaven and earth.
 The Lord made the sea and everything in it.
 The Lord will protect them forever.
 7 The Lord does right things for people that have been hurt.
 God gives food to hungry people.
 The Lord frees people locked in prison.
 8 The Lord helps blind people see again.
 The Lord helps people that are in
 trouble.
 The Lord loves good people.
 9 The Lord protects strangers living in our country.
 The Lord cares for widows and orphans.*
 But the Lord ruins bad peoples' plans.
 10 I hope the Lord rules forever!
 I hope your God on Zion* rules forever!
 Praise the Lord!

Psalm 147

- 1 Praise the Lord because he is good.
 Sing praises to our God.
 It is good and pleasant to praise him.
 2 The Lord built Jerusalem.
 God brought back the Israelite people that were taken as prisoners.
 3 God heals their broken hearts and bandages their wounds.
 4 God counts the stars and knows the name of each and every star.
 5 Our Master is very great.
 He is very powerful.
 There is no limit to the things he knows.
 6 The Lord supports humble people.
 But he embarrasses bad people.
 7 Thank the Lord.
 Praise our God with harps.

- 8 God fills the sky with clouds.
 God makes rain for the earth.
 God causes grass to grow on the mountains.
 9 God gives food to the animals.
 God feeds the young birds.
 10 War horses and powerful soldiers don't please him.
 11 The Lord is happy with people that worship him.
 The Lord is pleased with people that trust in his true love.
 12 Jerusalem, praise the Lord!
 Zion, praise your God!
 13 Jerusalem, God makes the bars on your gates strong.
 And God blesses the people in your
 city.
 14 God brought peace to your country.
 So enemies did not take your grain in war.
 You have plenty of grain for food.
 15 God gives a command to the earth, and it quickly obeys.
 16 God makes the snow fall until the ground is white like wool.
 God makes sleet blow through the air like dust.
 17 God makes hail like rocks fall from the sky.
 No person can stay out in the cold.
 18 Then, God gives another command, and the warm air blows again.
 The ice melts,
 and water begins to flow.
 19 God gave his commands to Jacob
 (Israel).
 God gave his laws and rules to Israel.
 20 God did not do this for any other nation.
 God did not teach his laws to other
 people.
 Praise the Lord!

Psalm 148

- 1 Praise the Lord!
 Angels above, praise the Lord from strangers ... orphans These were people that had no one else to help them.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

- heaven!
<sup>2</sup> Praise the Lord, all you angels!
 Praise him, all his army*!
<sup>3</sup> Sun and moon, praise the Lord!
 Stars and lights in the sky, praise him!
<sup>4</sup> Praise the Lord in the highest heaven!
 Waters above the sky, praise him!
<sup>5</sup> Praise the Lord's name.
 Why? Because God gave the command, and we were all created!
<sup>6</sup> God made all these things to continue
 forever.
 God made the laws that will never end.
<sup>7</sup> Everything on earth, praise the Lord!
 Great sea animals in the oceans, praise
 the Lord!
<sup>8</sup> God made the fire and hail,
 the snow and smoke,
 and all the stormy winds.
<sup>9</sup> God made the mountains and hills,
 the fruit trees and cedar trees.
<sup>10</sup> God made all the wild animals and cattle,
 the reptiles and birds.
<sup>11</sup> God made the kings and nations on earth.
 God made the leaders and judges.
<sup>12</sup> God made the young men and women.
 God made the old and young people.
<sup>13</sup> Praise the Lord's name!
 Honor his name forever!
 Everything in heaven and earth, praise
 him!
<sup>14</sup> God will make his people strong.
 People will praise God's followers.
 People will praise Israel, the people God fights for.
 Praise the Lord!

Psalm 149

- <sup>1</sup> Praise the Lord.
 Sing a new song about the new things the Lord has done!
 Sing his praise in the meeting of his followers.
<sup>2</sup> God made Israel.

- Let Israel enjoy themselves with the Lord.
 Let the people on Zion* rejoice with their King.
<sup>3</sup> Let those people praise God by dancing and playing their tambourines and harps.
<sup>4</sup> The Lord is happy with his people.
 God did a wonderful thing for his humble people.
 He saved them!
<sup>5</sup> God's followers, rejoice in your victory!
 Even after going to bed, be happy.
<sup>6</sup> Let the people shout praise to God.
 Let the people take their swords in their hands,
<sup>7</sup> and go punish their enemies.
 Let them go punish the other people.
<sup>8</sup> God's people will put chains on those kings and important people.
<sup>9</sup> God's people will punish their enemies like God commanded.
 God is wonderful to his followers.
 Praise the Lord!

Psalm 150

- <sup>1</sup> Praise the Lord!
 Praise God in his temple!
 Praise his power in heaven!
<sup>2</sup> Praise God for the great things he does!
 Praise him for all his greatness!
<sup>3</sup> Praise God with trumpets and horns!
 Praise him with harps and lyres*!
<sup>4</sup> Praise God with tambourines and dancing!
 Praise him with stringed instruments and flutes!
<sup>5</sup> Praise God with loud cymbals!
 Praise him with crashing cymbals!
<sup>6</sup> Every living thing, praise the Lord!
 Praise the Lord!

Proverbs

Introduction

1 These words are the wise teachings of Solomon, the son of David. Solomon was the king of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>These words are written so that people can be wise and know the right things to do. These words will help people to have true understanding. <sup>3</sup>These words will teach people the best way to live. People will learn the right way to be honest, fair, and good. <sup>4</sup>These wise words can teach people that need to learn wisdom. Young people can learn from these words.

<sup>5</sup>Even wise people should be careful to follow the teachings in these words. Then those people will learn more and become wiser. And people that are skilled at knowing right and wrong will be able to gain more understanding. <sup>6</sup>Then people will be able to understand the meanings of wise stories and sayings. People will be able to understand the things wise men say.

<sup>7</sup>A person must respect and obey the Lord. Then that person will begin to have true knowledge. But people that love sin hate wisdom and right teaching.

Solomon's Advice to His Son

<sup>8</sup>My son,* you should obey your father's teaching. And you must also follow your mother's teaching. <sup>9</sup>The words of your father and mother will be like a crown of flowers making your head more beautiful. Those teachings will be like a beautiful necklace around your neck.

Warning Against Joining with Bad People

<sup>10</sup>My son, people that love sin will tempt you. You must not follow them. <sup>11</sup>Those sinners may say, "Come with us! We will hide and wait for someone to kill. <sup>12</sup>We will attack some innocent person. We will kill that person. We will send that person to the place of death. We will destroy that person and send him to the grave. <sup>13</sup>We will steal all kinds of things worth lots of money. We will fill our houses with these things. <sup>14</sup>So come with us and help us do these things. We will all share in the things we get!"

<sup>15</sup>My son, don't follow those people that love sin. Don't even take the first step toward the way they live. <sup>16</sup>Those bad people are always ready to do evil. They always want to kill people.

<sup>17</sup>It is useless to spread a net to catch a bird while the bird is watching you. So watch those bad people. And be careful! Those bad people are setting a trap to kill other people. <sup>18</sup>But really, they will trap only themselves. They will be destroyed by their own trap! <sup>19</sup>Greedy people are always destroyed by the things they take from other people.

My son The book of Proverbs was probably written to a teenage boy that was becoming a young man. This book teaches the boy how to become a responsible young man that loves and respects God.

The Good Woman—Wisdom

<sup>20</sup>Listen! Wisdom* is trying to teach people. She (Wisdom) is shouting in the streets and in the market place. <sup>21</sup>She (Wisdom) is calling out on the busy street corners. She (Wisdom) is near the city gates trying to get people to listen to her. Wisdom says:

<sup>22</sup>“You are foolish people. How long will you continue doing foolish things? How long will you make fun of wisdom? How long will you continue to hate knowledge? <sup>23</sup>You should have listened to my advice and teaching. I would have told you everything I knew. I would have given you all my knowledge.

<sup>24</sup>“But you refused to listen to me. I tried to help. I offered my hand—but you refused to accept my help. <sup>25</sup>You turned away and ignored all my advice. You refused to accept my words. <sup>26</sup>So, I will laugh at your trouble. I will enjoy seeing trouble come to you! <sup>27</sup>Great trouble will come to you like a bad storm. Problems will hit you like a strong wind. Your troubles and sadness will be a very great burden on you.

<sup>28</sup>“When all these things happen, you will ask for my help. But I will not help you. You will look for me, but you will not find me. <sup>29</sup>I will not help because you never wanted my knowledge. You refused to fear and respect the Lord. <sup>30</sup>You people refused to listen to my words of advice. You would not listen to me when I showed you the right way. <sup>31</sup>So you people will do things your own way. And you will destroy yourselves by living your own evil ways.

<sup>32</sup>“Foolish people die because they refuse to follow wisdom. They are happy to continue in their foolish ways, and this will destroy them. <sup>33</sup>But the person that obeys me will live safely. That person will be comfortable. He will not have to be afraid of evil.

Wisdom Solomon uses the picture of Wisdom and Foolishness being two women. Both women are trying to get the attention of the young man Solomon is writing to. Wisdom is like a good woman calling the young man to be wise and obey God. Foolishness is like a bad woman calling the young man to be foolish and do many kinds of sin.

Listen to Wisdom

2 My son, accept these things I say. Remember my commands. <sup>2</sup>Listen to wisdom, and try your best to understand. <sup>3</sup>Cry out for wisdom, and shout for understanding. <sup>4</sup>Look for wisdom like silver. Look for it like hidden treasure. <sup>5</sup>If you do these things, then you will learn to respect the Lord. You will truly learn about God.

<sup>9</sup>So the Lord will give his wisdom. Then you will understand the things that are good, and fair, and right. <sup>10</sup>Wisdom will come into your heart, and your soul will be happy with knowledge.

<sup>11</sup>Wisdom will protect you, and understanding will guard you. <sup>12</sup>Wisdom and understanding will stop you from living the wrong way that evil people live. Those people are evil even in the things they say. <sup>13</sup>They have given up goodness and now live in darkness (sin). <sup>14</sup>They are happy in doing wrong and enjoy the bad ways of evil. <sup>15</sup>Those people can't be trusted—they lie and cheat. But your wisdom and understanding will keep you away from all these things.

<sup>16-17</sup>Some woman from another country might use nice words and try to persuade you to sin with her. That woman married when she was young. But she left her husband. She is not keeping her marriage promise. But wisdom will help you to say “No” to her. <sup>18</sup>If you are weak and enter her house, you walk the first step toward destruction. If you continue to follow her, she will lead you to your grave. <sup>19</sup>She is like a grave. If a man goes to this woman, he will never come back. That person's life will never be the same again!

<sup>20</sup>So you should follow the example of good people. Live the way good people live. <sup>21</sup>People that live right will have the land for their own. People that do good will get to stay on their land. <sup>22</sup>But evil people will lose their land. Those bad people will be taken away from the land.

Living Right Will Add to Your Life

3 My son, don't forget my teaching. Remember the things I tell you to do. <sup>2</sup>These things I teach you will give you a longer and happier life.

<sup>3</sup>Never stop loving. Always be loyal and faithful. Make these things a part of yourself. Tie them around your neck. Write them on your heart. <sup>4</sup>Then God and people will be happy with you.

Trust the Lord

<sup>5</sup>Trust the Lord completely! Don't depend on your own knowledge. <sup>6</sup>Trust in the Lord in all things you do. Then he will help you. <sup>7</sup>Don't depend on your own wisdom. But respect the Lord and stay away from evil.

<sup>8</sup>If you do this, then it will be like good health to your body. Your strength will be like new.

Give to the Lord

<sup>9</sup>Honor the Lord with your wealth. Give him the best you have. <sup>10</sup>Then you will have all you need. Your barns will be full of grain and your barrels will be flowing over with wine.

Accept the Lord's Punishment

<sup>11</sup>My son, sometimes the Lord will show you that you are doing wrong. But don't be angry about this punishment. Try to learn from it. <sup>12</sup>Why? Because the Lord corrects the people he loves. Yes, God is like a father that punishes, the son he loves.

The Blessings of Wisdom

<sup>13</sup>The person that finds wisdom will be very happy. That person will be blessed when he begins to understand. <sup>14</sup>The profit that comes from wisdom is better than silver. The profit from wisdom is better than fine gold! <sup>15</sup>Wisdom is worth much more than jewels. Nothing you can want is as valuable as wisdom!

<sup>16</sup>Wisdom gives you long life, riches, and honor. <sup>17</sup>People with wisdom live in peace and happiness. <sup>18</sup>Wisdom is like the Tree of Life.* It gives full life to people that accept it. People that keep wisdom will be truly happy!

<sup>21</sup>My son, always keep your wisdom and understanding. Don't lose these things. <sup>22</sup>Wisdom and understanding will give you life and make it more beautiful. <sup>23</sup>Then you will live safely and you will not fall. <sup>24</sup>When you lie down, you will not be afraid. When you rest, your sleep will be peaceful. <sup>25,26</sup>Don't be afraid of things that might happen to you. Why? Because the Lord is with you. He will keep you safe. And those bad things will happen to bad people.

The Wisdom of Living Right

<sup>27</sup>Always give things back to the person that owns them if you can. <sup>28</sup>If your neighbor asks you to give back the things he owns, give those things to him now! Don't tell him to come back tomorrow.

<sup>29</sup>Don't plan evil against your neighbor, because he is living in peace with you.

<sup>30</sup>Don't take another person to court if he has not done anything wrong to you.

<sup>31</sup>Some people are easily angered and quickly do evil. Don't live the way they live. <sup>32</sup>Why? Because the Lord hates people that are evil. But the Lord God supports people that live right.

<sup>33</sup>The Lord is against the families of evil people. But he blesses the homes of people that live right.

<sup>34</sup>If a person is proud and thinks he is better than other people, the Lord will punish him and make fun of him. But the Lord helps humble people.

<sup>35</sup>Wise people follow God. The Lord will honor wise people. Foolish people don't

Tree of Life The tree whose fruit gives people the power to live forever. See Gen. 3:22 and Rev. 22:1-2.

follow God. Foolish people will be made ashamed.

The Importance of Wisdom and Understanding

4 Sons, listen to your father's teachings. Pay attention so you will understand! <sup>2</sup>Why? Because the things I teach you are important and good. So don't ever forget my teachings.

<sup>3</sup>I was my daddy's little boy. I was my mother's only son. <sup>4</sup>My father taught me. He said to me, "Remember the things I say. Obey my commands and you will live. <sup>5</sup>Get wisdom and understanding! Don't forget my words. Always follow my teachings. <sup>6</sup>Don't turn away from wisdom. Then wisdom will protect you. Love wisdom, and wisdom will keep you safe."

<sup>7</sup>Wisdom begins when you decide to get wisdom. So use everything you own to get wisdom! Then you will become wise. <sup>8</sup>Love wisdom, and wisdom will make you great. Make wisdom most important, and wisdom will bring you honor. <sup>9</sup>She (Wisdom) is the greatest thing that can happen to you.

<sup>10</sup>Son, listen to me. Do the things I say, and you will live long. <sup>11</sup>I am teaching you about wisdom. I am leading you along the straight path. <sup>12</sup>Follow this path, and your feet won't be caught in any trap. You can run and not stumble. You will be safe in the things you try to do. <sup>13</sup>Always remember these lessons. Don't forget these lessons. They are your life!

<sup>18</sup>Good people are like the early morning light. The sun rises and the day becomes brighter and happier. <sup>19</sup>But bad people are like a dark night. They are lost in the darkness and they fall over things they can't see.

<sup>20</sup>My son, pay attention to the things I say. Listen closely to my words. <sup>21</sup>Don't let my words leave you. Remember the things I say.

<sup>22</sup>My teaching will give life to people that listen. My words are like good health to the body.

<sup>23</sup>The most important thing is for you to be careful in the things you think. Your thoughts control your life.

The Wisdom of Staying Away from Another Man's Wife

5 My son, listen to my wise teaching. Pay attention to my words of understanding. <sup>2</sup>Then you will know the right way to live. Your words will show that you are wise.

<sup>3</sup>The lips of another man's wife might be sweet like honey. Her kisses might be smoother than oil. <sup>4</sup>But in the end, she will bring only bitterness and pain. The pain will be as bitter as poison and as sharp as a sword! <sup>5</sup>Her feet go down to death. She will lead you to straight to the grave! <sup>6</sup>Don't follow her! She has lost the right way and does not know it. Be careful! Follow the way to life!

Adultery Can Ruin You

<sup>7</sup>Now my sons, listen to me. Don't forget the words I say. <sup>8</sup>Stay away from the woman that does the sin of adultery.* Don't even go near the door of her house. <sup>9</sup>If you do, then you will lose the respect people had for you. Other people will gain the honor you lose. In the end, you will lose your life. Evil men will take it from you. <sup>10</sup>People you don't know will take all your wealth. Other people will get the things you worked for. <sup>11</sup>At the end of your life, you will groan. Your body and everything you have will be finished. <sup>12-13</sup>Then you will say, "Why didn't I listen to my parents? Why didn't I

adultery Breaking the marriage promise by sexual sin.

listen to my teachers? I refused to be disciplined. I refused to be corrected. <sup>14</sup>Now, in the end, I see that my life has been wasted. And all people see my shame.”

Enjoy Your Own Wife

<sup>15-16</sup>Drink only the water that flows from your own well. And don't let your water flow out into the streets. Give yourself only to your own wife. She is the only one you should give special love to. And don't become the father of children outside your own home. <sup>17</sup>Your children should belong only to you. You should not have to share them with people out of your own home. <sup>18</sup>So, be happy with your own wife. Enjoy the woman you married while you were young. <sup>19</sup>She is like a beautiful deer, a lovely fawn. Let her love satisfy you completely. Her love captured you. <sup>20</sup>Don't let another man's wife capture you in that same way. You don't need the love of another man's wife!

<sup>21</sup>The Lord clearly sees everything that every person does. The Lord looks closely at everything people do. <sup>22</sup>An evil person sins will only trap him. His sins will be like ropes holding him. <sup>23</sup>This person will die because he refused to be disciplined. He will be trapped by his own desires.

The Dangers of Helping a Person Get a Loan

6 My son, don't be responsible for another man's debt. Have you promised to pay another person's debt if that person can't pay? Have you made yourself responsible for another person's debt? <sup>2</sup>Then you have been caught! Your own words trapped you! <sup>3</sup>You are under that person's power. So go to him and free yourself. Beg that person to free you from his debt. <sup>4</sup>Don't even wait to rest or sleep. <sup>5</sup>Escape from that trap like a deer running from a hunter. Free yourself like a bird flying out of a trap.

The Dangers of Being Lazy

<sup>7</sup>The ant has no ruler, no boss, no leader. <sup>8</sup>But during summer, the ant gathers all its food. The ant saves its food. And in the winter, it has plenty of food.

<sup>9</sup>Lazy person, how long will you lie there? When will you get up from your rest? <sup>10</sup>The lazy person says, “I need a short nap. I will lie here for a short rest. <sup>11</sup>But he sleeps and sleeps. And he becomes poorer and poorer. Soon he will have nothing! It will be like a robber has come and stolen everything.

The Evil Person

<sup>12</sup>An evil and worthless person tells lies and says bad things. <sup>13</sup>He winks his eye and make signs to fool people. <sup>14</sup>That person is evil. All the time he is planning evil. He makes trouble everywhere. <sup>15</sup>But he will be punished. Trouble will come to him suddenly. He will be quickly destroyed, and nothing will be able help him!

Seven Things That the Lord Hates

<sup>16</sup>The Lord hates these seven things:

- <sup>17</sup> A person that thinks he is better than other people,
- a person that tells lies,
- a person that kills innocent people,
- <sup>18</sup> a person that thinks of bad things to do,
- a person that wants to do evil,
- <sup>19</sup> a person that tells one lie after another,
- and a person that makes arguments and causes fights among people.

<sup>20</sup>My son, remember your father's commands. And don't forget your mother's teachings. <sup>21</sup>Remember their words always. Make their teachings a part of your life. <sup>22</sup>Their teachings will lead you wherever you go. They will watch over you while you sleep. And when you wake up, they will talk to you and guide you.

you from the smooth talk of the wife that left her husband. <sup>25</sup>That woman might be beautiful. But don't let that beauty burn inside you and tempt you. Don't let her eyes capture you. <sup>26</sup>A prostitute* might cost a loaf of bread. But the wife of another man will cost you your life!

<sup>27</sup>If a man spills fire on himself, his clothes will also be burned. <sup>28</sup>If a man steps on a hot coal, his feet will be burned! <sup>29</sup>It is the same with any person that sleeps with another man's wife. That person will suffer.

<sup>30-31</sup>A man might be hungry and steal food to eat. If that man is caught, he must pay seven times more than he stole. It might cost him everything he owns! But other people understand—they don't lose all their respect for him.

<sup>32</sup>But a man that does the sin of adultery is foolish. He is destroying himself—he himself causes his own destruction! <sup>33</sup>People will lose all their respect for him. And he will never lose that shame. <sup>34</sup>The woman's husband will become jealous. That husband will be very angry. He will do anything he can to punish the other man. <sup>35</sup>No payment—no amount of money—will be enough to stop his anger!

Wisdom Will Keep You from Adultery

7 My son, remember my words. Don't forget the commands I give you. <sup>2</sup>Obey my commands and you will have life. Make my teaching the most important thing in your life. <sup>3</sup>Keep my commands and teachings with you always. Tie them around your fingers. Write them on your heart. <sup>4</sup>Treat wisdom like a sister. Treat understanding like a part of your family. <sup>5</sup>Then they will protect you from other woman. They will protect from the nice words that can lead you into sin.

<sup>6</sup>One day I looked out my window, <sup>7</sup>and I saw many foolish young men. And I saw one young man that was very foolish. <sup>8</sup>He walked down the street near a bad woman's house. The young man walked close to this woman's house. <sup>9</sup>It was near dark, as the sun was setting. The night was beginning. <sup>10</sup>The woman came out of the house to meet him. She was dressed like a prostitute.* She was planning to sin with him. <sup>11</sup>She didn't care about sin. She didn't care about right or wrong. She never stayed at home. <sup>12</sup>But she walked the streets. She went everywhere looking for trouble. <sup>13</sup>She grabbed the young man and kissed him. Without being ashamed she said, <sup>14</sup>"I had a fellowship meal today. I gave all that I promised to give. And I still have plenty of food left. <sup>15</sup>So I came out to invite you to join me. I looked and looked for you. And now I found you! <sup>16</sup>I put clean sheets on my bed. They are very beautiful sheets from Egypt. <sup>17</sup>I put perfume on my bed. I used myrrh,* aloes* and cinnamon. <sup>18</sup>Come, we can make love until morning. We can enjoy ourselves all night. <sup>19</sup>My husband is gone. He is away on a business trip. <sup>20</sup>He took enough money with him for a long trip. He will not come home for two weeks."

<sup>21</sup>The woman used those words to tempt the young man. Her smooth words tricked him. <sup>22</sup>And the young man followed her to the trap. He was like a bull being led to the slaughter. He was like a deer walking into a trap, <sup>23</sup>with a hunter ready to put an arrow through its heart. The boy was like a bird flying into a net. He didn't know the danger he was in.

<sup>24</sup>Now sons, listen to me. Pay attention to the words I say. <sup>25</sup>Don't let an evil woman take you. Don't follow her ways. <sup>26</sup>She has caused many men to fall. She has destroyed many men. <sup>27</sup>Her house is the place of death. Her path leads straight to death!

Wisdom, the Good Woman

8 Listen! Wisdom is also calling to you.

Understanding is crying for you to listen.

myrrh A kind of perfume made from the sap of certain plants.

aloes Perfume made from a special kind of tree.

- 3 They are at the place where the gates open into the city.
They are calling out from the open doors.
- 4 Wisdom says,
“Men, I call out to you.
I call out to all people.
- 5 If you are foolish, learn to be wise.
Foolish men, learn to understand.
- 6 Listen! The things I teach are important.
I tell you things that are right.
- 7 My words are true.
I hate evil lies.
- 8 The things I say are right.
There is nothing false or wrong in my words.
- 9 All these sayings are clear to the person that has understanding.
The person with knowledge understands these things.
- 10 Accept my discipline.
It is worth more than silver.
That knowledge is worth more than the best gold.
- 11 Wisdom is worth more than pearls.
Wisdom is worth more than anything a person can want.”

What Wisdom Does

- 12 “I am Wisdom.
I live with good judgment.
You can find me with Knowledge and Good Planning.
- 13 If a person respects the Lord,
then that person will hate evil.
I (Wisdom) hate pride and people that think they are better than other people.
I hate evil ways, and a lying mouth.
- 14 But I (Wisdom) give people the ability to make good decisions and have good judgment.
I give understanding and power!
- 15 Kings use me (Wisdom) to rule.
Rulers use me to make fair laws.
- 16 Every good ruler on earth uses me (Wisdom) to rule the people under them.

- 17 I (Wisdom) love people that love me.
And if people try hard to find me,
they will find me.
- 18 “I (Wisdom) also have riches and honor to give.
I give true wealth and success.
- 19 The things I give are better than fine gold.
And my gifts are better than pure silver.
- 20 I (Wisdom) lead people in the right way.
I lead them along the paths of right judgment.
- 21 I give wealth to people that love me.
Yes, I will fill their houses with treasures.
- 22 “I (Wisdom) was the first thing made,
long ago in the beginning.
- 23 I (Wisdom) was made in the beginning.
I was made before the world began.
- 24 I (Wisdom) was born before the oceans;
I was made before there was water.
- 25 I (Wisdom) was born before the mountains.
Before the hills came, I was born.
- 26 I (Wisdom) was born before the Lord made the earth.
I was born before the fields.
I was born before God made the first dust of the world.
- 27 “At the time the Lord made the skies,
I (Wisdom) was there.
The Lord drew the circle around the land,
and I (Wisdom) was there at the time he set the limits for the ocean.
- 28 I was born before the Lord put the clouds in the sky.
And I was there when the Lord put water in the ocean.
- 29 I was there when the Lord set the limits for water in the seas.
The water can’t rise higher than the Lord allows.
I was there when the Lord made the foundations of the earth.
- 30 I was beside him like a skilled worker.

<sup>10</sup>“The Lord was happy every day because of me.

I made him laugh and be happy all the time.

<sup>31</sup> The Lord was excited about the world he made.

He was happy about the people he made there.

<sup>32</sup> “Now, children, listen to me!

You can be happy too,
if you follow my ways!

<sup>33</sup> Listen to my teachings and become wise.
Don’t refuse to listen.

<sup>34</sup> The person that listens to me will be happy.

He watches every day at my doors.
He waits at my doorway.

<sup>35</sup> Any person that finds me finds life.
He will get good things from the Lord!

<sup>36</sup> But the person that does not find me hurts himself.

All people that hate me love death!”

Wisdom and Stupidity

9 Wisdom built her house. She put the seven columns* in it. <sup>2</sup>She (Wisdom) cooked meat and made wine. She put food on her table. <sup>3</sup>And then she sent her servants to town to invite people to come up to the hill in the city and eat with her. She said, “Come, you people that need to learn.” She also invited foolish people. She said, “Come, eat the food of my wisdom. And drink the wine that I have made. <sup>6</sup>Leave your old, foolish ways, and you will have life. Follow the way of understanding.”

<sup>7</sup>If you try to show a proud man that he is wrong, then he will only criticize you. That man only makes fun of God’s wisdom. If you tell an evil man that he is wrong, then he will make fun of you. <sup>9</sup>So, if a man thinks that he is better than other people, don’t tell him that he is wrong. He will hate you for it. But if you try to help a wise man then he will respect you. <sup>9</sup>If you teach a wise man, then he will become wiser. If you teach a good man, then he will learn more.

<sup>10</sup>Respect for the Lord is the first step toward getting wisdom. Getting knowledge of the Lord is the first step toward getting understanding. <sup>11</sup>If you are wise, then your life will be longer. <sup>12</sup>If you become wise, then you have become wise for your own good. But if you become proud and make fun of other people, then only you are to blame for your trouble.

<sup>13</sup>A foolish person is like a loud, evil woman. She does not have knowledge. <sup>14</sup>She sits at the door of her house. She sits on her chair on the hill in the city. <sup>15</sup>And when people walk by, she calls out to them. Those people are not interested in her, but she says, <sup>16</sup>“Come you people that need to learn.” She also invited foolish people. <sup>17</sup>But she (Foolishness) says, “If you steal water, it tastes better than your own. If you steal bread, it tastes better than the bread you cook yourself.”

<sup>18</sup>And those poor foolish people didn’t know that her house was filled only with ghosts. She (Foolishness) had invited them into the deepest parts of the place of death!

Solomon’s Proverbs

10 These are the proverbs (wise sayings) of Solomon:

A wise son makes his father happy. But a foolish son makes his mother very sad.

<sup>2</sup>If a person gets money by doing bad things, then that money is worthless. But doing good can save you from death.

<sup>3</sup>The Lord cares for good people. He gives them the food they need. But the Lord takes away the things that evil people want.

<sup>4</sup>A lazy person will be poor. But a person that works hard will be rich.

<sup>5</sup>A smart man gathers the crops at the right time. But if a person sleeps during the time of harvest and does not gather the crops, then he will be shamed.

<sup>6</sup>People ask God to bless a good person. Evil people might say those good things, but seven columns In ancient Israel, many houses had four main rooms with seven columns to support the roof. This shows Wisdom had a good solid house.

their words only hide the bad things they are planning.*

<sup>8</sup>A wise person obeys when someone tells him to do something. But a fool argues and brings trouble to himself.

<sup>9</sup>A good, honest person is safe. But a crooked person that cheats will be caught.

<sup>17</sup>A person that learns from his punishment can help other people live too. But a person that refuses to learn only leads people the wrong way.

<sup>18</sup>A person that hides his hate might be telling a lie. But only a fool tries to find gossip he can spread.

<sup>22</sup>A blessing from the Lord will bring you true wealth. And that wealth won't bring troubles with it.

<sup>26</sup>Never let a lazy man do something for you. He will irritate you—like vinegar in your mouth or smoke in your eyes.

<sup>27</sup>If you respect the Lord, then you will live long. But evil people will lose years from their life.

<sup>28</sup>The things good people hope for bring happiness. The things bad people hope for bring ruin.

<sup>30</sup>Good people will always be safe. But evil people will be forced to leave the land.

<sup>31</sup>Good people say wise things. But people will stop listening to a person that says things that bring trouble.

11 Some people use scales that don't weigh things properly. They use those scales to cheat people. The Lord hates those false scales. But accurate scales please the Lord.

<sup>1</sup>People that are proud and boast will become unimportant. But people that are humble will also become wise.

<sup>2</sup>Good, honest people are guided by honesty. But evil people destroy themselves when they cheat other people.

<sup>3</sup>On the day God judges people, money is worth nothing. But goodness will save people from death.

<sup>4</sup>If a good person is honest, then his life will be easy. But an evil person is destroyed by the bad things he does.

<sup>5</sup>Goodness saves the honest person. But evil people are trapped by the bad things they want to do.

Evil ... planning Or, "But violence will cover the mouth of evil people."

A person ... peace This is from the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew repeats the second half of verse 8.

But ... him In Hebrew, this is like the second half of verse 6.

<sup>7</sup>After an evil man dies, there is no hope for him. Everything he hoped for is gone—all of it is worth nothing.

<sup>8</sup>A good person will escape trouble, and that trouble will happen to some evil person.

<sup>9</sup>An evil person can hurt other people by the things he says. But good people are protected by their wisdom.

<sup>10</sup>When good people are successful, all the city is happy. When evil people are destroyed, people shout with joy.

<sup>11</sup>A city becomes great when the honest people living there give it their blessing. But the things an evil person says can destroy a city.

<sup>12</sup>A foolish person criticizes other people. But a wise man is careful about the things he says.

<sup>13</sup>Any person that tells secrets about other people can't be trusted. But a person that can be trusted does not spread gossip.

<sup>14</sup>If a nation has weak leaders, then it will fall. But many good advisers will make that nation safe.

<sup>15</sup>If you promise to pay another person's debt, then you will be sorry. You will be safe if you refuse to make those deals.

<sup>18</sup>An evil man cheats people and takes their money. But a person that is fair and does right will get the real reward.

<sup>19</sup>Truly, goodness brings life. But evil people chase after evil and find death.

<sup>20</sup>The Lord hates people that love to do evil. But the Lord is happy with people that try to do right.

<sup>21</sup>It is true that evil people will surely be punished. And good people will be made free.

<sup>22</sup>If a woman is beautiful but she is foolish, it is the same as a beautiful gold ring in a pig's nose.

<sup>24</sup>If a person gives freely, then he will gain even more. But if a person refuses to give, then he will become poor.

<sup>25</sup>A person that gives freely will profit. If you help others, then you will gain more for yourself.

<sup>27</sup>People respect a person that tries to do good. But the person that does evil, will get only trouble.

<sup>28</sup>The person that trusts in his riches will fall like a dead leaf. But the good person will grow like a new green leaf.

<sup>29</sup>If a person causes trouble for his family, then he will gain nothing. And in the end, the foolish person will be forced to serve the wise person.

<sup>30</sup>The things a good man does are like the Tree of Life.* But evil people* take life away from people. .

<sup>31</sup>If good people are rewarded on earth, then surely evil people will also get what they deserve.

12 If a person wants to be wise, then he is not angry if someone tells him when he does wrong. The person that hates to be told that he is wrong is stupid.

<sup>5</sup>Good people are fair and honest in the things they plan to do. But don't trust the things an evil person tells you.

<sup>6</sup>Evil people use their words to hurt other people. But the words of a good person can save people from danger.

Tree of Life See Gen. 2:9; 3:22-24; Rev. 22:1-2.
evil people The Hebrew has "a wise man."

<sup>9</sup>It is better to be a person that is not important but works hard than to be a person that pretends to be important but has no food.

<sup>11</sup>The farmer that works with his land will have enough food. But the person that wastes time on worthless ideas is foolish.

<sup>12</sup>Evil people always want to find wrong things to do. But good people have strength that goes deep like roots.

<sup>13</sup>An evil person says foolish things and is trapped by his words. But a good person escapes from that kind of trouble.

<sup>14</sup>A person is rewarded because of the good things that he says. In the same way, the work he does gives him profit.

<sup>15</sup>A foolish person always thinks his own way is best. But a wise person listens to the things other people tell him.

<sup>17</sup>If a person tells the truth, then he is honest in the things he says. But if a person lies, then that leads to trouble.

<sup>18</sup>If a person speaks words without thinking, then those words can hurt like a sword. But a wise person is careful with the things he says. His words can heal those hurts.

<sup>19</sup>If a person tells a lie, then those words are wasted quickly. But the truth will live forever.

<sup>22</sup>The Lord hates people that tell lies. But the Lord is happy with people that tell the truth.

<sup>24</sup>People that work hard will be put in charge of other workers. But a lazy person will have to work like a slave.

<sup>26</sup>A good man is very careful about the friends he chooses. But evil people always choose the wrong friends.

<sup>27</sup>A lazy person won't go after the things he wants. But riches come to the person that works hard.

<sup>28</sup>If you live right, then you will have true life. That is the way to live forever.

13 A wise son listens carefully when his father tells him what to do. But a proud person does not listen. He never believes he is wrong.

<sup>2</sup>Good people are rewarded for the good things they say. But evil people always want to do wrong.

<sup>3</sup>The person that is careful about the things he says will save his life. But the person that speaks without thinking will be destroyed.

<sup>4</sup>The lazy person wants things, but he can never get them. But people that work hard will get the things they want.

<sup>6</sup>Goodness protects a good, honest person. But evil defeats the person that loves to sin.

<sup>7</sup>Some people act like they are rich, but they have nothing. Other people act like they are poor, but they are really rich.

<sup>8</sup>A rich person might have to pay a ransom to save his life. But poor people never receive threats like that.

<sup>9</sup>A good person is like a light that shines brightly. But an evil person is like a light that becomes dark.

<sup>10</sup>People that think they are better than other people only cause trouble. But people that will listen to the things other people tell them are wise.

<sup>11</sup>If a person cheats to get money, then that money will soon be gone. But the person that earns his money will make it grow more and more.

<sup>12</sup>If there is no hope, then the heart is sad. If the thing you wish for happens, then you are filled with joy.

<sup>13</sup>If a person refuses to listen when other people try to help him, then he will bring trouble to himself. But the person that respects the things other people tell him, will be rewarded.

<sup>14</sup>The teachings of a wise person give life. Those words will help you in times of trouble.

<sup>15</sup>People respect a person that is smart. But if a person can't be trusted, then that person will have trouble.

<sup>16</sup>A wise person always thinks before he does something. But a foolish person shows he is stupid by the things he does.

<sup>17</sup>If a messenger cannot be trusted, then there will be trouble around him. But if a person can be trusted, then there will be peace.

<sup>18</sup>If a person refuses to learn from his mistakes, then he will be poor and ashamed. But if a person listens when he is criticized or punished, then he will profit.

<sup>19</sup>If a person wants something and then gets it, he will be very happy. But stupid people only want evil, and they refuse to change.

<sup>20</sup>Be friends with people that are wise, and you will become wise. But if you choose fools to be your friends, then you will have trouble.

<sup>23</sup>A poor man might have good land that can produce plenty of food. But he makes bad decisions and stays hungry.

<sup>24</sup>If a person truly loves his children, then he will correct them when they are wrong. If you love your son, then you will be careful to teach him the right way.

<sup>25</sup>Good people will have what they really need. But evil people will always be without the most important thing.

14 The wise woman uses her wisdom to make her home what it should be. But the foolish woman destroys her home by the foolish things she does.

The person that lives right respects the Lord. But the person that is not honest hates the Lord.

<sup>3</sup>A foolish person's words cause him trouble. But the words of a wise person protect

him.

<sup>4</sup>If there are no cows to do the work, then the barn will be empty. The people can use the strength of a cow to have a great harvest.

<sup>5</sup>A truthful person does not lie—he is a good witness. But a person that can't be trusted never tells the truth—he is a bad witness.

<sup>6</sup>A proud person that thinks he is better than other people might want to be wise. But that proud person will never become wise. But knowledge comes easy to a person that is truly wise.

<sup>7</sup>Don't become friends with a foolish person. There is nothing that a foolish person can teach you.

<sup>8</sup>Smart people are wise because they think carefully about the things they do. But foolish people are fools because they think they can live by cheating.

<sup>9</sup>A foolish person laughs at the idea of paying for the bad things he did. But good people try very hard to get forgiveness.

<sup>10</sup>If a person is sad, he is the only one that can feel that sadness. In the same way, if a person is happy, he is the only one that can feel that joy.

<sup>11</sup>The house of the evil person will be destroyed. But the home of a good person will live forever.

<sup>12</sup>There is a way that people think is right. But that way leads only to death.

<sup>13</sup>A person might be sad, even if he is laughing. And after the laughter, the sadness will still be there.

<sup>14</sup>Evil people will be fully paid (punished) for the wrong things they do. And good people will be fully rewarded for the good things they do.

<sup>15</sup>A foolish person will believe anything he hears. But a wise man thinks carefully about everything.

<sup>16</sup>A wise man respects the Lord and stays away from evil. But a foolish man does things without thinking—he is not careful.

<sup>18</sup>Foolish people are punished for their foolishness. But wise people are rewarded with knowledge.

<sup>19</sup>In the end, good people will win over evil people. Evil people will be forced to serve good people.

<sup>20</sup>A poor person has no friends, not even his neighbor. But rich people have many friends.

<sup>21</sup>It is wrong to think you are better than other people. If you want to be happy, be kind to poor people.

<sup>22</sup>Any person that plans to do evil is doing wrong. But the person that tries to do good will have friends that love and trust him.

<sup>23</sup>If you work hard, then you will have the things you need. But if you do nothing but talk, then you will be poor.

<sup>27</sup>Respect for the Lord gives true life. It saves a person from death's trap.

<sup>28</sup>If a king rules over many people, then he is great. But if there are no people, then the king is worth nothing.

<sup>29</sup>A patient person is very smart. A person that is easily angered shows that he is a fool.

<sup>30</sup>If a person has peace in his mind, then his body will be healthy. But jealousy causes sickness in his body.

<sup>31</sup>The person that causes trouble for poor people shows that he does not respect God—God made both people. But if a person is kind to poor people, then he shows honor to God.

<sup>35</sup>A king is happy when he has wise leaders. But a king is angry with leaders that are foolish.

15 A peaceful answer causes anger to disappear. But a rough answer causes anger to grow.

<sup>4</sup>Kind words are like a Tree of Life.* But lying words will crush a man's spirit.

<sup>6</sup>Good people are rich in many things. But the things that an evil person has only cause him trouble.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord hates the offerings that evil people give. But the Lord is happy to hear a good person's prayers.

<sup>10</sup>If a person begins to live wrong, then he will be punished. And the person that hates to be corrected will be destroyed.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord knows everything, even what happens in the place of death. So surely the Lord will know what happens in the hearts and minds of people.

<sup>12</sup>The foolish person hates to be told when he is wrong. And that person refuses to ask wise people for advice.

<sup>13</sup>If a person is happy, then his face will show joy. But if a person is sad in his heart, then his spirit will show that sadness.

<sup>14</sup>A person that is wise tries to gain more knowledge. But a foolish person only wants more foolishness.

<sup>16</sup>It is better to be poor and respect the Lord than to be rich and have many troubles.

<sup>17</sup>It is better to eat a little in a place where there is love, than to eat a lot where there is hate.

<sup>18</sup>People that are easily angered cause trouble. But a patient person causes peace.

<sup>19</sup>A lazy person will have trouble everywhere. But life will be easy for honest people.

<sup>22</sup>If a person does not get enough advice, then his plans will fail. But a person can succeed if he listens to the things wise people tell him.

<sup>24</sup>The things a wise person does leads to success. And those things stop him from going down to the place of death.

<sup>25</sup>The Lord will destroy everything a proud person has. But the Lord protects the things that a widow has.

<sup>27</sup>If a person cheats to get things, then he will bring trouble to his family. But if a person is honest, then he will have no trouble.

<sup>28</sup>Good people think before they answer. But evil people speak before they think, and that causes them trouble.

<sup>29</sup>The Lord is far away from evil people. But he always hears the prayers of good people.

<sup>30</sup>A person that smiles makes other people happy. And good news makes people feel better.

<sup>31</sup>If a person listens carefully when someone tells him that he has done wrong, then he is very wise.

<sup>32</sup>If a person refuses to learn, then he is only hurting himself. But the person that listens when someone tells him he is wrong, will understand more and more.

<sup>33</sup>The person that respects the Lord is learning to be wise. A person must be humble before he can truly respect the Lord.

16 People make their plans. But it is the Lord who makes those things happen.

<sup>4</sup>The Lord has a plan for everything. And in the Lord's plan, evil people will be destroyed.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord hates every person that thinks that he is better than other people. The Lord will surely punish all those proud people.

<sup>6</sup>True love and loyalty will make you pure.* Respect the Lord, and you will stay far away from evil.

<sup>7</sup>If a person is living a good life, pleasing to the Lord, then even that person's enemies will be at peace with him.

<sup>8</sup>It is better to gain only a little the right way than to gain much through cheating.

<sup>9</sup>A person can make plans about the things that he wants to do. But it is the Lord who decides what will happen.

<sup>12</sup>Kings hate people that do evil. Goodness will make his kingdom stronger.

<sup>14</sup>When a king is angry, he can kill someone. And a wise person will try to keep the king happy.

<sup>15</sup>When the king is happy, life will be better for everyone. If the king is pleased with you, then it will be like spring rain falling from a cloud.

<sup>17</sup>Good people live their lives trying to stay away from evil. The person that is careful with his life, is guarding his soul.

<sup>18</sup>If a person is proud, then he is in danger of destruction. If a person thinks he is better than other people, then he is in danger of defeat.

<sup>19</sup>It is better to be humble and live with poor people than to share wealth with people that think they are better than other people.

<sup>20</sup>The person that listens when people try to teach him will profit. And the person that trusts in the Lord will be blessed.

<sup>21</sup>People will know if a person is wise. And a person that carefully chooses his words can be very persuasive.

<sup>22</sup>Wisdom brings true life to people that have it. But fools only learn to be more foolish.

<sup>23</sup>A wise man always thinks before he speaks. And the words he says are good and worth hearing.

<sup>24</sup>Kind words are like honey. They are easy to accept and good for your health.

<sup>25</sup>There is a way that seems right to people. But that way leads only to death.

<sup>29</sup>A person that becomes angry easily will cause trouble for his friends. He will lead them in a way that is not good.

<sup>30</sup>The person that winks his eye and smiles is planning something wrong and evil.

<sup>32</sup>It is better to be patient than to be a strong soldier. It is better to control your anger than to take control over a whole city.

<sup>33</sup>People throw lots* to make decisions. But the decisions always come from God.

17 It is better to have only a dry piece of bread to eat in peace than to have a whole house full of food with everyone arguing.

<sup>2</sup>A smart servant will gain control over a master's lazy son. That wise servant will gain everything the master has.

<sup>3</sup>Gold and silver are put into fire to make them pure. But the Lord is the One who makes peoples' hearts pure.

<sup>4</sup>An evil person listens to the evil things other people say. People that tell lies also listen to lies.

<sup>5</sup>Some people make fun of poor people. They laugh at people that have problems. This shows that those bad people don't respect God who made them. These bad people will be punished.

<sup>8</sup>Some people think a bribe is like a lucky charm—wherever they go, it seems to work.

<sup>9</sup>If you forgive a person that does wrong to you, then you can be friends. But if you continue to remember the wrong that he did, then it will hurt your friendship.

<sup>10</sup>A smart person learns from the things he does wrong. But a fool learns nothing, even after a hundred lessons.

<sup>11</sup>An evil person only wants to do wrong. In the end, God will send a messenger to punish him.

<sup>12</sup>It is very dangerous to meet a mother bear that is angry because her cubs are stolen. But that is better than to meet a fool that is busy doing his foolishness.

<sup>13</sup>Don't do bad things to people that do good things to you. If you do, then you will have trouble for the rest of your life.

<sup>14</sup>If you start an argument, it is like breaking a hole in a dam. So stop the argument before it becomes bigger and bigger.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord hates these two things—punishing someone that has done nothing wrong, and forgiving someone that is guilty.

<sup>16</sup>If a foolish person has money, it is wasted. Why? Because that foolish person does not use lot(s) Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions.

the money to become wise.

<sup>17</sup>A friend loves at all times. A true brother always supports you, even in times of trouble.

<sup>18</sup>Only a fool will promise to be responsible for another person's debts.

<sup>20</sup>An evil person will not profit. The person that tells lies will have trouble.

<sup>21</sup>The father with a foolish son will be very sorry. There is no happiness for the father of a fool.

<sup>25</sup>A foolish son brings sorrow to his father. And a foolish son brings sadness to the mother that gave birth to him.

<sup>26</sup>It is wrong to punish a person that has done nothing wrong. It is wrong to punish leaders when they are honest.

<sup>28</sup>Even a fool seems wise if he keeps quiet. People think he is wise if he does not say anything.

18 A person that does not like other people is selfish in the things he does. That person disagrees with everyone.

<sup>2</sup>Where there is sin, there will be shame. Where there is shame, there is no honor.

<sup>3</sup>The things a person says can be wise. Those words can be like a deep ocean or a flowing stream.

<sup>4</sup>If a person is guilty, then don't help him. If he has done nothing wrong, then be fair to him.

<sup>5</sup>A foolish person causes himself trouble with the things he says. His words can start fights.

<sup>7</sup>People always want to hear gossip. That gossip is like good food going down into the stomach.

<sup>8</sup>A lazy person is as bad as a person that destroys.

<sup>9</sup>There is much strength in the name of the Lord. It is like a strong tower. Good people run to that tower and are safe.

<sup>10</sup>Rich people think that their wealth will protect them. They think that it is like a strong fort.

<sup>11</sup>An humble person will be respected. But a proud person will fall.

<sup>12</sup>If a person answers before he listens closely, then he will be embarrassed and show that he is foolish.

<sup>13</sup>A person's mind can keep him alive during sickness. But if a person thinks he has lost, then all hope is gone.

<sup>14</sup>The wise person always wants to learn more. That person listens closely for more wisdom.

<sup>15</sup>If you want to meet an important person, give him a gift. Then you can easily get to meet him.

<sup>16</sup>The first person to speak always seems right until someone comes and questions him.

<sup>17</sup>If two powerful people are arguing, throwing lots* may be the best way to decide the argument.

<sup>18</sup>If you help your friend, then he will protect you like a strong city wall. But if you do something against him, then he will be against you.

<sup>20</sup>The things a person says are powerful. They can mean life or death. If people like the things you say, then they will accept you.

<sup>21</sup>If you find a wife, then you have found a good thing. The Lord is happy with you.

lot(s) Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions.

<sup>2</sup>A poor person must be very nice in the things he says. But a rich person can say anything he wants.

<sup>2</sup>If a person has too many friends, then it could destroy him. But a good friend is better than a brother.

19 It is better to be poor and honest than to be a fool that tells lies and cheats.

<sup>2</sup>Being excited about something is not enough. You must also know what you are doing. You should not rush into something or you will do it wrong.

<sup>3</sup>A person's foolishness will ruin his life. But he will blame the Lord.

<sup>4</sup>If a person is rich, then his wealth will bring him many friends. But if a person is poor, all his friends will leave him.

<sup>5</sup>A person that tells a lie against another person will be punished. The person that tells lies will not be safe.

<sup>6</sup>Many people want to be friends with the ruler. And everyone wants to be the friend of a person that gives gifts.

<sup>7</sup>If a person is poor, then even his family is against him. And all of his friends turn away from him. That poor person can beg them for help. But they will not go near him.

<sup>8</sup>The person that tries to learn shows that he loves himself. The person that loves wisdom will profit.

<sup>9</sup>A person that tells lies will be punished. And the person that continues to tell lies will be destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>A foolish person should not be rich. That is like a slave that rules over princes.

<sup>11</sup>If a person is wise, that wisdom gives him patience. And it is wonderful when he forgives people that do wrong to him.

<sup>12</sup>When a king is angry, it is like the roar of a lion. But if he is happy with you, it is like the soft rain.

<sup>13</sup>A foolish son can ruin his father. And a wife that likes to argue is like trouble that will not go away.

<sup>15</sup>A lazy person gets plenty of sleep. But he will also be hungry.

<sup>17</sup>The person that is kind to poor people is helping the Lord. The Lord will reward that person for the things he does.

<sup>18</sup>Teach your son and punish him when he is wrong. That is the only hope. If you refuse to do this, then you are helping him destroy himself.

<sup>19</sup>If a person becomes angry easily, then he must pay the price. If you help him out of trouble, then he will do the same things again.

<sup>22</sup>It is shameful for a person to be selfish. It is better to be poor than to be a liar.

<sup>23</sup>Respect for the Lord leads to true life. Then a person will have peace and be safe from trouble.

<sup>24</sup>A lazy person will not even do the things he needs to do to feed himself. He is too lazy to lift his food from his plate to his mouth!

<sup>25</sup>If a person thinks he is better than other people, then he should be punished. Then the foolish people will learn a lesson. A wise person learns when he is criticized.

<sup>26</sup>If a person steals from his father and forces his mother to leave, then he is a very bad person. That person brings shame and dishonor to himself.

<sup>27</sup>If you refuse to learn, then you will soon forget the things you already know.

<sup>28</sup>If a witness is not honest, then the judgment will not be fair. The things evil people say bring more evil.

<sup>29</sup>The person that thinks that he is better than other people will be punished. The foolish person will get the punishment that is saved for him.

20 Wine makes you brave and beer causes fights. The person that drinks too much is foolish.

<sup>2</sup>The anger of a king is like the roar of a lion. If you make the king angry, then you will lose your life.

<sup>3</sup>Any fool can start an argument. So, a person that stays away from arguments should be respected.

<sup>4</sup>A lazy person is too lazy to plant seeds. So, at the time of harvest he looks for food and finds nothing.

<sup>5</sup>You can't see a person's thoughts. They are like deep water. But a wise person can understand what someone is thinking.

<sup>6</sup>Many people say that they are loyal and full of love. But it is very hard to find someone that really is.

<sup>9</sup>Can any person really say that he has always done his best? Can any person really say that he has no sin? [No!]

<sup>10</sup>The Lord hates people that cheat other people using weights and measures that are not fair.

<sup>11</sup>Even a child shows that he is good or bad by the things he does. You can watch that child and know if he is honest and good.

<sup>12</sup>We have eyes to see with and ears to hear with—and the Lord made them for us!

<sup>13</sup>If you love to sleep, then you will become poor. But use your time working and you will have plenty to eat.

<sup>14</sup>The person that buys something from you always says, "It's no good! It costs too much!" Then that person goes away and tells other people that he made a good deal.

<sup>17</sup>If you get something by cheating, it may seem like a good thing. But in the end it will be worth nothing.

<sup>18</sup>Get good advice before you make plans. If you are starting a war, find good people to guide you.

<sup>19</sup>A person that tells gossip about other people can't be trusted. So don't be friends with a person that talks too much.

<sup>20</sup>If a person speaks against his father or mother, then that person is like a light that becomes dark.

<sup>21</sup>If your wealth was very easy to get, it will not be worth much to you.

<sup>22</sup>If someone does something against you, don't try to punish him yourself. Wait for the Lord! In the end, he will make you the winner.

<sup>23</sup>The Lord hates people that cheat other people using scales and weights that are not fair.

<sup>24</sup>If the Lord decides what happens to every person, then how can any person understand what happens in his life?

<sup>25</sup>Think carefully before you promise to give something to God. Later you might wish that you had not made that promise.

<sup>26</sup>A wise king will decide which people are evil. And that king will punish those people.

<sup>28</sup>If a king is fair and honest, then he will keep his power. If people love him, then he will continue to rule.

<sup>29</sup>We admire a young man for his strength. But we respect an old man for his gray hair—it shows he lived a full life.

<sup>30</sup>If we are punished, we will stop doing wrong. Pain can change a person.

21 [Farmers dig small ditches to water their fields. They change where the water goes by closing different ditches.] The Lord controls a king's mind just like that. The Lord can lead the king wherever he wants him to go.

<sup>3</sup>People show that they are evil by their eyes and heart-eyes that look at other people like they are worthless, and a heart that believes they are better than other people—are sinful.

<sup>4</sup>Careful plans can lead to profit. But if you are not careful, and you do things too quickly, then you will become poor.

<sup>6</sup>If you cheat to become rich, then your wealth will soon be gone. And your riches will lead you to death.

<sup>7</sup>The bad things that evil people do will destroy them. Those people refuse to do what is right.

<sup>8</sup>Bad people always try to cheat other people. But good people are honest and fair.

<sup>9</sup>It is better to live on the roof than to live in a house with a wife that wants to argue.

<sup>10</sup>Evil people always want to do more evil. And those people show no mercy to people around them.

<sup>11</sup>If a person thinks he is better than other people, but he is punished, then everyone learns a lesson. A wise person always learns from things that happen. That person gains more and more knowledge.

<sup>12</sup>God, the Good One, knows the people that are evil. He will punish them.

<sup>13</sup>If a person refuses to help poor people, then there will be no help for him when he needs it.

<sup>14</sup>If a person is angry with you, give him a gift in secret. A gift that is given in secret can stop great anger.

<sup>16</sup>If a person leaves the way of wisdom, then he is going toward destruction.

<sup>17</sup>If having fun is the most important thing to a person, then that person will become poor. If that person loves wine and food, then he will never be rich.

<sup>18</sup>Evil people have to pay for all the bad things they do to good people. People that are not honest have to pay for the things they do to honest people.

<sup>19</sup>It is better to live in the desert than to live with a wife that has a short temper and loves to argue.

<sup>20</sup>A wise person saves the things he needs. But a foolish person uses everything as fast as he gets it.

<sup>21</sup>The person that always tries to show love and kindness will have a good life, wealth, and honor.

<sup>23</sup>If a person is careful about the things he says, then he saves himself from trouble.

<sup>24</sup>A proud person that thinks himself better than other people is called a mocker. He shows that he is evil by the things he does.

<sup>25,26</sup>A lazy person destroys himself when he wants more and more. He destroys himself because he refuses to work for those things. But a good person can give because he has plenty.

<sup>27</sup>The Lord is not happy when evil people offer him sacrifices, especially when those evil people are trying to get something from him.

<sup>28</sup>A person that tells lies will be destroyed. Any person that listens to those lies will be destroyed with him.

<sup>29</sup>A good person always knows that he is right. But an evil person has to pretend.

<sup>30</sup>There is no person that is wise enough to make a plan that can succeed if the Lord is against it.

<sup>31</sup>People can prepare everything for a battle, even the horses, but they can't win unless the Lord gives them the victory.

22 It is better to be respected than to be rich. A good name is more important than silver or gold.

<sup>1</sup>Rich people and poor people are the same. The Lord made them all.

<sup>3</sup>Respect the Lord and be humble. Then you will have wealth, honor, and true life.

<sup>4</sup>Evil people are trapped by many troubles. But the person that cares for his soul stays away from trouble.

<sup>5</sup>Teach a child the right way to live while he is young. Then when he grows older, he will continue living that way.

<sup>6</sup>Poor people are slaves to rich people. The person that borrows is a servant to the person that lends.

<sup>7</sup>A person that spreads trouble will harvest trouble. And in the end, that person will be destroyed because of the trouble he gave other people.

<sup>9</sup>A person that gives freely will be blessed. He will be blessed because he shares his food with poor people.

<sup>10</sup>If a person thinks he is better than other people, force him to leave. When that person leaves, trouble will leave with him. Then arguments and bragging will end.

<sup>11</sup>The king will be your friend if you love a pure heart and kind words.

<sup>12</sup>The Lord watches over and protects people that know him. But he destroys people that turn against him.

<sup>13</sup>The lazy person says, "I can't go to work, now. There is a lion outside. It might kill me."

<sup>14</sup>The sin of adultery is like a trap. The Lord will become very angry at the person that falls into that trap.

<sup>15</sup>Children do foolish things. But if you punish them, they will learn not to do those things.

<sup>16</sup>These two things will make you poor—hurting poor people to make yourself rich, and giving gifts to rich people.

Thirty Wise Sayings

<sup>17</sup>Listen to the things that I say. I will teach you the things wise men have said. Learn from these teachings. <sup>18</sup>It will be good for you if you remember these things. It will help you if you can say these words. <sup>19</sup>I will teach you these things now. I want you to trust the Lord. <sup>20</sup>I have written 30 sayings for you. These are words of advice and wisdom. <sup>21</sup>These words will teach you true and important things. Then you can give good answers to the one that sent you.

<sup>22</sup>It is easy to steal from poor people. But don't do it. And don't take advantage of those poor people in court. <sup>23</sup>The Lord is on their side. He supports them and he will take things away from any person that takes from them.

<sup>24</sup>Don't be friends with a person that becomes angry easily. Don't go near a person that becomes mad fast. <sup>25</sup>If you do, you may learn to be like him. Then you will have the same troubles he has.

<sup>26</sup>Don't promise to be responsible for another person's debts. <sup>27</sup>If you can't pay his debt, then you will lose everything you have. Why should you lose the bed you sleep on?

<sup>29</sup>If a person is skilled in his work, then he is good enough to serve kings. He will not have to work for people that are not important.

23 When you sit and eat with an important man, remember who you are with. <sup>2</sup>Never eat too much even if you are very hungry. <sup>3</sup>And don't eat too much of the fine food he serves. It might be a trick.

<sup>4</sup>Don't ruin your health trying to become rich. If you are wise, you will be patient. <sup>5</sup>Money is gone very quickly. It is like the money grew wings and flew away like a bird.

<sup>6</sup>Don't eat with a selfish person. And stay away from the special foods he likes. <sup>7</sup>He is the kind of man that is always thinking about the cost. He might say to you, "Eat and drink." But that is not really what he wants. <sup>8</sup>And if you eat his food, then you will become sick. And you will be embarrassed.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

<sup>9</sup>Don't try to teach a fool. He will make fun of your wise words.

– 10 –

<sup>10</sup>Never move an old property line. And never take land that belongs to orphans.* <sup>11</sup>The Lord will be against you. The Lord is powerful and he defends those orphans.

– 11 –

<sup>12</sup>Listen to your teacher and learn all you can.

– 12 –

<sup>13</sup>Always punish a child if it needs it. It will not hurt him to spank him. <sup>14</sup>If you spank him, you may save his life.

– 13 –

<sup>15</sup>My son, if you become wise, then I will be very happy. <sup>16</sup>I will be happy in my heart if I hear you say things that are right.

– 14 –

<sup>17</sup>Don't be jealous of evil people. But always try as hard as you can to respect the Lord. <sup>18</sup>There is always hope. And that hope will never be gone.

– 15 –

– 16 –

<sup>22</sup>Listen to the things your father tells you. Without your father, you would never have been born. And respect your mother, even when she is old. <sup>23</sup>Truth, wisdom, learning, and understanding, are worth paying money for. And they are worth far too much to even sell. <sup>24</sup>The father of a good person is very happy. If a person has a wise child, then that child brings joy. <sup>25</sup>So let your father and mother be happy with you. Let your mother have joy.

– 17 –

<sup>26</sup>My son, listen closely to what I am saying. Let my life be your example. <sup>27</sup>Prostitutes and bad women are a trap. They are like a deep well that you can't get out of. <sup>28</sup>A bad woman waits for you like a thief. And she causes many men to become sinners.

– 18 –

<sup>29-30</sup>It will be very bad for people that drink too much wine and strong drinks. Those people have many fights and arguments. Their eyes are red and they stumble and hurt themselves. They could have avoided all those troubles! <sup>31</sup>So be careful with wine. It is pretty and red. It shines in the cup. When you drink it, it feels good. <sup>32</sup>But in the end it bites like a snake.

<sup>33</sup>Wine will cause you to see strange things. Your mind will be confused. <sup>34</sup>When you lie down, you will think you are on a rough sea. You feel like you are lying on a ship. <sup>35</sup>You will say, "They hit me but I never felt it. They beat me but I don't remember it. Now I can't wake up. I need another drink."

– 19 –

24 Don't be jealous of evil people. Don't waste your time with them. <sup>2</sup>In their hearts they plan to do evil. All they talk about is making trouble.

– 20 –

orphan(s) Children whose parents are dead. Often these children have no one to care for them.

– 21 –

<sup>5</sup>Wisdom makes a man more powerful. Knowledge gives a man strength. <sup>6</sup>You must make careful plans before you start a war. If you want to win, you must have many good advisers.

– 22 –

– 23 –

<sup>8</sup>If you are always planning trouble, then people will know that you are a person that makes trouble. And they will not listen to you. <sup>9</sup>The things that a foolish person plans to do are sin. People hate a person that thinks he is better than other people.

– 24 –

– 25 –

<sup>11</sup>If people are planning to kill a person, then you must try to save him. <sup>12</sup>You can't say, "It's none of my business." The Lord knows everything. And he knows why you do things. The Lord watches you. He knows. And the Lord will reward you for the things you do.

– 26 –

<sup>13</sup>My son, eat honey. It is good. Honey from the honeycomb* is sweet. <sup>14</sup>In the same way, wisdom is good for your soul. If you have wisdom, then you will have hope. And your hope will never end.

– 27 –

<sup>15</sup>Don't be like a thief that wants to steal from a good person, or take away his home. <sup>16</sup>If a good man falls seven times, he will always stand again. But evil people will always be defeated by trouble.

– 28 –

<sup>17</sup>Don't be happy when your enemy has troubles. Don't be happy when he falls. <sup>18</sup>If you do, the Lord will see this. And the Lord will not be happy with you. Then the Lord might help your enemy.

– 29 –

– 30 –

<sup>21</sup>Son, respect the Lord and the king. And don't join with the people that are against them. <sup>22</sup>Why? Because men like that can quickly be destroyed. You don't know how much trouble God and the king can make for their enemies.

More Wise Sayings

A judge must be fair. He must not support a person simply because he knows him.

<sup>24</sup>If a judge tells a guilty person that he can go free, then people will be against him. And nations will say bad things against him.

<sup>25</sup>But if a judge punishes a guilty person, then all the people will be happy with him.

<sup>26</sup>An honest answer is something that makes all people happy—it is like a kiss on the lips.

<sup>27</sup>Don't build your house before you plant your fields. Make sure that you are prepared to grow food before you build a place to live.

<sup>28</sup>Don't speak against someone without a good reason. And don't tell lies.

<sup>29</sup>Don't say, "He hurt me, so I will do the same to him. I will punish him for the things he did to me."

<sup>30</sup>I walked past a field that belonged to a lazy man. I walked by a field of grapes that belonged to a person that was not wise.

<sup>31</sup>Weeds were growing everywhere in those honeycomb The wax nest that bees use for storing honey.

fields. Worthless plants were growing on the ground. And the wall around the fields was broken and falling down. <sup>21</sup>I looked at this and I thought about it. Then I learned a lesson from these things: <sup>22</sup>a little sleep, a little rest, folding your arms, and taking a nap. <sup>23</sup>These things will make you poor very quickly. You will have nothing. It will be like a thief that suddenly comes and takes everything away.

More Wise Sayings from Solomon

25 These are some more wise sayings of Solomon. These words were copied by servants of Hezekiah, king of Judah:

<sup>1</sup>God has the right to hide things that he does not want us to know about. But a king is honored for the things he says.

<sup>3</sup>The sky is high above and the ground is far below us. It is the same with the minds of kings. We can't understand them.

<sup>4</sup>If you take the worthless things from silver and make it pure, then a worker can make beautiful things.

<sup>5</sup>In the same way, if you take evil advisers away from a king, then goodness will make his kingdom strong.

<sup>6</sup>Don't brag about yourself before a king. Don't say that you are a famous person.

<sup>7</sup>It is much better for the king to invite you himself. But if you invite yourself, then you might be embarrassed in front of other people.

<sup>8</sup>Don't be too quick to tell a judge about something you saw. If another person says that you are wrong, then you will be embarrassed.

<sup>9</sup>If you and another person can't agree, then decide among yourselves what to do. And don't tell about another person's secret. <sup>10</sup>If you do, then you will be ashamed. And you will never lose that bad name.

<sup>12</sup>If a wise person gives you a warning, it is worth more than gold rings or jewelry made from the finest gold.

<sup>13</sup>A messenger that can be trusted is worth much to the people that send him. He is like cool water during the hot days of harvest.

<sup>14</sup>People that promise to give gifts, but never give them, are like clouds and wind that bring no rain.

<sup>15</sup>Patient talk can make any person change his thinking, even a ruler. Gentle talk is very powerful.

<sup>16</sup>Honey is good. But don't eat too much. If you do, then you will be sick. <sup>17</sup>In the same way, don't go into your neighbor's home too often. If you do, then he will begin to hate you.

<sup>18</sup>A person that does not tell the truth is dangerous. He is like a club, or a sword, or a sharp arrow. <sup>19</sup>Never depend on a liar during times of trouble. That person is like a hurting tooth or a crippled foot. He hurts you when you need him most.

<sup>20</sup>Singing happy songs to a sad person is like taking away his clothes when he is cold. It is like mixing soda and vinegar.

<sup>21</sup>If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat. If your enemy is thirsty, give him water to drink. <sup>22</sup>If you do this, then you will make him ashamed. It is like putting burning coals on his head. And the Lord will reward you because you were good to your enemy.

<sup>23</sup>The wind that blows from the north brings rain. And in the same way, gossip brings anger.

<sup>24</sup>It is better to live on the roof than to share a house with a wife that wants to argue.

<sup>26</sup>If a good person becomes weak and follows an evil person, it is the same as good water that has become dirty.

<sup>28</sup>If a person can't control himself, then he is like a city with walls that are broken down.

Wise Sayings About Fools

26 Showing honor to a fool is a waste. It is like snow in summer or rain during harvest time.

<sup>2</sup>Don't worry if a person asks for bad things to happen to you. If you did nothing wrong, nothing bad will happen. That person's words are like birds that fly past you and never stop.

<sup>3</sup>You have to whip a horse. You have to put a bridle on a mule. And you have to beat a fool.

<sup>4</sup>Here is a difficult situation: If a fool asks a stupid question, then don't give him a stupid answer or you, too, will look like a fool; <sup>5</sup>But if a fool asks a stupid question, then you should give him a stupid answer or he will think he is very smart.

<sup>6</sup>Never let a fool carry your message. If you do, it will be like cutting off your own feet. You are asking for trouble.

<sup>9</sup>When a fool tries to say something wise, it is the same as a drunk person trying to pick a thorn out of his hand.

<sup>11</sup>A dog eats food. Then he gets sick and vomits. Then the dog eats that food again. It is the same with a foolish person. He does the same foolish things again and again.

<sup>12</sup>If a person thinks that he is wise but he is not, he is worse than a fool.

Wise Sayings About Lazy People

<sup>13</sup>A lazy person says, "I can't leave my house. There is a lion in the street."

<sup>16</sup>A lazy person thinks he is very wise. He thinks he is smarter than seven men that can give good reasons for their ideas.

<sup>17</sup>It is dangerous to become part of an argument between two people. It is the same as walking along the street and grabbing a dog by the ears.

<sup>18-19</sup>A man that tricks another person and then says that he was only joking, is like a crazy person that shoots flaming arrows into the air and accidentally kills someone.

<sup>20</sup>If a fire has no wood, then the fire will become cold. In the same way, an argument without gossip is finished.

<sup>25</sup>The things he says might seem good. But don't trust him. His heart is full of evil ideas.

<sup>26</sup>He hides his evil plans with nice words. But he is mean. And in the end all people will see the evil things that he does.

<sup>27</sup>If a person tries to trap another person, then he will trap himself. If a person tries to roll a stone over another person, he will be crushed himself.

<sup>28</sup>The person that tells lies hates the people he hurts. And if a person says things he does not mean, he is only hurting himself.

27 Never brag about what will happen in the future. You don't know what will happen tomorrow.

<sup>6</sup>A friend might hurt you sometimes, but he does not want to do this. An enemy is different. Even when an enemy is kind to you, he wants to hurt you.

<sup>7</sup>If you are not hungry, then you will not eat even honey. But if you are hungry, you will eat anything—even if it tastes bad.

<sup>10</sup>Don't forget your friends and your father's friends. And if you have trouble, don't go far away to your brother's house for help. It is better to ask a neighbor that is near you than to go far away to your brother.

<sup>11</sup>My son, be wise. This will make me happy. Then I will be able to answer any person that criticizes me.

<sup>12</sup>Wise people see trouble coming and get out of its way. But a fool goes straight to the trouble and suffers because of it.

<sup>13</sup>You will lose your shirt if you make yourself responsible for another man's debts.

<sup>14</sup>Don't wake up your neighbor early in the morning with a shout of, "Good morning! He will treat it like a curse, not a blessing.

<sup>15</sup>A wife that always wants to argue is like water that never stops dripping on a rainy day.

<sup>16</sup>Trying to stop that woman is like trying to stop the wind. It is like trying to grab oil with your hand.

<sup>17</sup>People use pieces of iron to sharpen iron knives. In the same way, people learn from other people, making each other sharp.

<sup>18</sup>A person that cares for fig trees will be able to eat their fruit. In the same way, a person that cares for his master will be rewarded. His master will care for him.

<sup>19</sup>When a person looks into the water he can see his own face. In the same way, a man's heart shows what the man is really like.

<sup>20</sup>The things that people want are like the place of death and destruction. There is always room for more.

<sup>21</sup>People use fire to make gold and silver pure. In the same way, a man is tested by the praise people give him.

<sup>22</sup>You can grind a fool to powder, and still you will not force the foolishness out of him.

<sup>23</sup>Watch your sheep and cattle carefully. Be sure you care for them the best you can.

<sup>26</sup>So, be satisfied with what you have. You can make clothes from the wool of your lambs. And you can buy land with the money you get from selling your goats. <sup>27</sup>And your other goats give you plenty of milk. So there will be enough food for you and your family, and for your servant girls also.

28 Evil people are afraid of everything. But a good person is as brave as a lion.

<sup>1</sup>If a country has many sins, it has many leaders trying to rule the country. But a nation that is strong will have one good and wise leader that will rule for a long time.

<sup>3</sup>If you refuse to obey the law, then you are for the evil people. But if you obey the law, then you are against them.

<sup>4</sup>Evil people don't understand fairness. But people that love the Lord understand it.

<sup>5</sup>It is better to be poor but honest than to be rich and evil.

<sup>6</sup>A person that obeys the law is smart. But the person that becomes friends with worthless people brings shame to his father.

<sup>7</sup>If you get rich by cheating poor people, then you will lose your wealth. It will go to another person that is kind to them.

<sup>8</sup>If a person refuses to listen to God's teachings, then God will refuse to hear his prayers.

<sup>9</sup>A bad person might make plans to hurt a good person. But the bad person will fall into his own trap. And good things will happen to the good person.

<sup>10</sup>Rich people always think they are wise. But a poor person that is wise can see the truth.

<sup>11</sup>When good people become leaders, everyone is happy. But when an evil person is elected, all people go and hide.

<sup>12</sup>A person will never be successful if he tries to hide his sins. But if a person confesses his sins and tells people that he was wrong, then God and everyone else will show mercy to him.

<sup>13</sup>If a person always respects the Lord, then that person will be blessed. But if a person is stubborn and refuses to respect the Lord, then he will have trouble.

<sup>15</sup>When an evil person rules over weak people, he is like an angry lion or a bear that is ready to fight.

<sup>16</sup>If a ruler is not wise, he will hurt the people under him. But the ruler that is honest and hates cheating will rule for a long time.

<sup>17</sup>If a person is guilty of killing another person, then that person will never have peace. Don't support that person.

<sup>18</sup>If a person is living right, then he will be safe. But if a person is evil, then he will lose his power.

<sup>19</sup>A person that works hard will have plenty to eat. But a person that wastes his time with dreams will always be poor.

<sup>20</sup>God will bless a person that follows him. But a person that is only trying to get rich will be punished.

<sup>21</sup>A judge must be fair. He must not support a person simply because he knows him. But some judges will change their decisions for only the smallest payment.

<sup>22</sup>A selfish person only wants to get rich. That person does not realize that he is very close to being poor.

<sup>23</sup>If you help someone by telling him he is doing wrong, then later he will be happy with you. That is much better than always saying only nice things to people.

<sup>24</sup>Some people steal from their father and mother. They say, "It's not wrong." But that person is as bad as a man that comes in and smashes everything in the house.

<sup>25</sup>A selfish person causes trouble. But the person that trusts in the Lord will be rewarded.

<sup>26</sup>If a person trusts in himself, then he is a fool. But if a person is wise, then he will escape disaster.

<sup>27</sup>If a person gives to poor people, then he will have everything he needs. But if a person refuses to help poor people, then he will have much trouble.

<sup>28</sup>If an evil person is elected to rule, then all the people hide. But when that evil person is defeated, then good people rule again.

29 If a person is stubborn and becomes more angry every time people tell him that he is doing wrong, then that person will be destroyed. There is no hope.

<sup>2</sup>When the ruler is a good person, then all the people are happy. But when an evil person rules, then all the people complain.

<sup>3</sup>If a person loves wisdom, then his father is very happy. But if a person wastes his money on prostitutes,* then he will lose his wealth.

<sup>4</sup>If a king is fair, then the nation will be strong. But if a king is selfish and people must pay him to do things for them, then the nation will be weak.

<sup>5</sup>If a person tries to get what he wants by saying nice things to people, then he is only setting a trap for himself.

<sup>6</sup>Evil people are defeated by their own sin. But a good person can sing and be happy.

<sup>8</sup>People that think they are better than other people can cause much trouble. They can put whole cities into confusion. But people that are wise make peace.

<sup>9</sup>If a wise person tries to settle a problem with a fool, then the fool will argue and say stupid things. And the two people will never agree.

<sup>11</sup>A foolish person becomes angry easily. But a wise person is patient and controls himself.

<sup>12</sup>If a ruler listens to lies, then all his officials will be evil.

<sup>13</sup>In one way a poor person and the person that steals from the poor are the same: The Lord made them both.

<sup>14</sup>If a king is fair to poor people he will rule for a long time.

<sup>15</sup>Spankings and teachings are good for children. If parents let a child do whatever he wants, then he will bring shame to his mother.

prostitute(s) A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.

Those ... people Or "But a good, honest person saves his life."

<sup>16</sup>If evil people are ruling the nation, then sin will be everywhere. But good people will win in the end.

<sup>17</sup>Punish your son when he is wrong, then you will always be proud of him. He will never make you ashamed.

<sup>18</sup>If a nation is not guided by God, then that nation will not have peace. But the nation that obeys God's law will be happy.

<sup>19</sup>A servant won't learn a lesson if you only talk to him. That servant may understand your words but he won't obey.

<sup>20</sup>If a person speaks without thinking, there is no hope for him. There is more hope for a fool than for the person that speaks without thinking.

<sup>21</sup>If you always give your servant everything he wants, then in the end he will not be a good servant.

<sup>22</sup>An angry person causes trouble. And the person that becomes angry easily is guilty of many sins.

<sup>23</sup>If a person thinks he is better than other people, then that will destroy him. But if a person is humble, then other people will respect him.

<sup>24</sup>Two thieves that work together are enemies. One thief will threaten the other one, so if he is forced to tell the truth in court, he will be too afraid to speak.

<sup>25</sup>Fear is like a trap. But if you trust in the Lord, you will be safe.

<sup>26</sup>Many people want to be the friends of a ruler. But the Lord is the One that judges people fairly.

<sup>27</sup>Good people hate those people that are not honest. And evil people hate people that are honest.

Wise Sayings of Agur Son of Jakeh

30 These are the wise sayings of Agur son of Jakeh:

The man is talking to Ithiel and to Ucal:*

<sup>1</sup>I am the worst person on earth. I am not able to understand like I should. <sup>2</sup>I have not learned to be wise. And I know nothing about God.

<sup>3</sup>No person has ever learned about the things from heaven. No person has ever caught the wind in his hand. No person has ever held water in a piece of cloth. No person can ever really know the limits of the earth. If any person can do these things, who is he? Where is his family?

<sup>4</sup>Every word that God says is perfect. God is a safe place for people that go to him. <sup>5</sup>So, don't try to change the things God says. If you do, he will punish you and prove that you tell lies.

<sup>6</sup>Lord, I ask you to do two things for me before I die. <sup>7</sup>Help me to not tell lies. And don't make me too rich or too poor—only give me the things I need each day. <sup>8</sup>If I have more than I need, then I will think I don't need you. But if I am poor then I might steal. Then I will bring shame to the name of God.

<sup>9</sup>Never say bad things against a servant to his master. If you do, the master will not believe you. He will think you are guilty.

<sup>14</sup>Some people want to take everything they can get. All they say is, "Give me, give me, give me." There are three things that are never satisfied—really four things that never have enough: <sup>15</sup>The place of death, a woman with no children, dry ground that needs rain, and a hot fire that can't be stopped.

<sup>16</sup>Any person that makes fun of his father or refuses to obey his mother will be punished. It will be as bad for him as if his eyes were eaten by vultures and wild birds.

<sup>17</sup>There are three things that are hard for me to understand—really four things that I don't

The ... Ucal Or "This man says, 'I am too weak. I am too weak, but I will succeed!'" understand: <sup>19</sup>An eagle flying in the sky, a snake moving on a rock, a ship moving across the ocean, and a man in love with a woman.

<sup>20</sup>A woman that is not faithful to her husband acts like she has done nothing wrong. She eats, takes a bath, and says she has done nothing wrong.

<sup>21</sup>There are three things that make trouble on the earth—really four that the earth can't bear:

<sup>22</sup>A servant that becomes a king, a foolish person that has everything he needs, <sup>23</sup>a woman that is full of hate but still finds a husband, and a servant girl that becomes ruler over the woman she serves.

<sup>32</sup>If you are foolish and think that you are better than other people and you plan evil, you should stop and think about what you are doing.

<sup>33</sup>If a person churns* milk, he makes butter. If a person hits another person's nose, then blood will come. In the same way, if you make people angry you will cause trouble.

Wise Sayings of King Lemuel

31 These are the wise sayings of King Lemuel. His mother taught him these things.

<sup>1</sup>You are my son. The son that I love. You are the son that I prayed to have. <sup>2</sup>Don't waste your strength on women. It is women that destroy kings. Don't waste yourself on them.

<sup>4</sup>Lemuel, it is not wise for kings to drink wine. It is not wise for rulers to want beer. <sup>5</sup>They may drink too much and forget what the law says. Then they will take away all the rights of poor people. <sup>6</sup>Give beer to the poor people. Give wine to those people that are in trouble. <sup>7</sup>Then they will drink and forget that they are poor. They will drink and forget all their troubles.

<sup>8</sup>If a person can't help himself, then you should help him. You should help all people that are in trouble. <sup>9</sup>Stand for the things you know are right. And judge all people fairly. Protect the rights of poor people and people that need you.

The Perfect Wife

But she is worth much more than jewels.

<sup>11</sup> Her husband can trust her.

He will never be poor.

She never causes him trouble.

She brings food home from everywhere.

<sup>15</sup> She wakes very early in the morning.

She cooks food for her family and food for the servant girls.

She uses money she has saved to plant a vineyard.

She is strong and able to do all her work.

<sup>18</sup> When she trades the things she has made, she always earns a profit.

And she works until late at night.

churn(s) To stir cream for a long time until it becomes butter.

Verses 10-31 In Hebrew, each verse of this poem starts with the next letter of the alphabet, so this poem shows all the good qualities of a woman, from "A" to "Z."

- <sup>20</sup> She always gives to poor people and helps people that need it.
- <sup>21</sup> When it is cold, she is not worried about her family.
She has given them all good, warm clothes.
- <sup>22</sup> She makes sheets and spreads for the beds.
And she wears clothes made of fine linen.
- <sup>23</sup> People respect her husband.
He is one of the leaders of the land.
- <sup>24</sup> She is a very good businesswoman.
She makes clothes and belts,
and sells these things to businessmen.
- <sup>25</sup> She is strong and people respect her.
- <sup>26</sup> When she talks, she is wise.
- She is full of wise teaching.
- <sup>27</sup> She is never lazy.
But she takes care of the things in her house.
- <sup>28</sup> And her children grow up and show her honor.
And her husband says many good things about her.
- <sup>29</sup> Her husband says, “Many women become good wives.
But you are the best.”
- <sup>30</sup> Grace and beauty can fool you.
But a woman that respects the Lord should be praised.
- <sup>31</sup> She should get the reward she deserves.
All people should honor her in public for the things she has done.

Ecclesiastes

1 These are the words from the Teacher. The Teacher was a son of David and king of Jerusalem.

Things Never Change

<sup>4</sup>People live and people die. But the earth continues forever. <sup>5</sup>The sun rises and the sun goes down. And then the sun hurries to rise again in the same place.

<sup>6</sup>The wind blows to the south, and the wind blows to the north. The wind blows around and around. Then the wind turns and blows back to the place it began.

<sup>7</sup>All rivers flow again and again to the same place. They all flow to the sea, but the sea doesn't become full.

<sup>8</sup>Words can't fully explain things.* But people continue speaking.* Words come again and again to our ears. But our ears don't become full. And our eyes don't become full of the things we see.

senseless ... waste The Hebrew word means "vapor or breath" or "something that is useless, meaningless, empty, wrong, or a waste of time."

in this life Literally, "under the sun."

Words ... things Literally, "All words (things) are weak."

But ... speaking The Hebrew could also be translated, "Man can't speak."

Nothing Is New

<sup>9</sup>All things continue the way they have been since the beginning. The same things will be done that have always been done. There is nothing new in this life.*

<sup>10</sup>A person might say, "Look, this is new!" But that thing has always been here. It was here before we were!

<sup>11</sup>People don't remember the things that happened long ago. In the future, people will not remember what is happening now. And later, other people will not remember what those people before them did.

Does Wisdom Bring Happiness?

<sup>12</sup>I, the Teacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>I decided to study and to use my wisdom to learn about all the things that are done in this life. I learned that it is a very hard thing that God gave us to do. <sup>14</sup>I looked at all the things done on earth, and I saw that it is all a waste of time. It is like trying to catch the wind.* <sup>15</sup>You can't change these things. If something is crooked, you can't say it is straight. And if something is missing, you can't say it is there.

<sup>16</sup>I said to myself, "I am very wise. I am wiser than all the kings that ruled Jerusalem before me. I know what wisdom and knowledge really are!"

<sup>17</sup>I decided to learn how wisdom and knowledge are better than thinking foolish things. But I learned that trying to become wise is like trying to catch the wind.* <sup>18</sup>With much wisdom comes frustration. The person that gains more wisdom also gains more sorrow.

Does "Having Fun" Bring Happiness?

2 I said to myself, "I should have fun—I should enjoy everything the most I can." But I learned that this is also useless. <sup>2</sup>It is foolish to laugh all the time. Having fun doesn't do any good.

<sup>3</sup>So I decided to fill my body with wine while I filled my mind with wisdom. I tried this foolishness because I wanted to find a way to be happy. I wanted to see what was good for people to do during their few days of life.

Does Hard Work Bring Happiness?

<sup>4</sup>Then I began doing great things. I built houses, and I planted fields of grapes for myself. <sup>5</sup>I planted gardens, and I made parks. I planted all kinds of fruit trees. <sup>6</sup>I made pools of water for myself. And I used these pools to water my growing trees. <sup>7</sup>I bought men slaves and women slaves. And there were slaves born in my house. I owned many great things. I had herds of cattle and flocks of sheep. I owned more things than any other person in Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup>I also gathered silver and gold for myself. I took treasures from kings and their nations. I had men and women singing for me. I had everything anyone could want.

<sup>9</sup>I became very rich and famous. I was greater than any person that lived in Jerusalem before me. And my wisdom was always there to help me. <sup>10</sup>Anything my eyes saw and wanted, I got for myself. My mind was pleased with all the things I did. And this happiness was the reward for all my hard work.

<sup>11</sup>But then I looked at all the things I had done. I thought about all the hard work I did. I decided it was all a waste of time! It was like trying to catch the wind.* There is nothing to gain from all the things we do in this life.

Maybe Wisdom Is the Answer

<sup>12</sup>No person can do more than a king can do. Some king has already done anything you might want to do.* <sup>13</sup>And I learned that even the things a king does are a waste of time., So I again began to think about being wise, being foolish, and doing crazy things. <sup>14</sup>I saw that wisdom is better than foolishness in the same way that light is better than darkness. <sup>15</sup>It is like this: A wise man uses his mind like eyes to see where he is going. But a fool is like someone walking in the dark.

But I also saw that the foolish man and the wise man both end the same way. (They both die.) <sup>16</sup>I thought to myself, "The same thing that happens to a foolish person will also happen to me. So why have I tried so hard to become wise?" I said to myself, "Being wise is also useless." <sup>17</sup>The wise man and the foolish person will both die! And people will not remember either the wise man or the foolish person forever. In the future, people will forget everything they did. So both the wise man and the foolish person are really the same.

Is There Real Happiness in Life?

<sup>18</sup>This made me hate life. It made me very sad to think that everything in this life* is useless, like trying to catch the wind.*

<sup>19</sup>I began to hate all the hard work I had done. I had worked hard, but I saw that the people that live after me will get the things that I worked for. I will not be able to take those things with me. <sup>20</sup>Some other person will control everything I worked and studied for. And I don't know if that person will be wise or foolish. This is also senseless.

<sup>21</sup>So, I became sad about all the work I had done. <sup>22</sup>A person can work hard using all his wisdom and knowledge and skill. But that person will die and other people will get the

trying to catch the wind Or, "It is very troubling to the spirit." The word for "troubling" can also mean "craving" and the word for "spirit" can also mean "wind."

No person ... want to do The Hebrew is not clear here.

in this life Literally, "under the sun."

things he worked for. Those people did not do the work, but they will get everything. That makes me very sad. That is also not fair and is senseless.

<sup>22</sup>What does a person really have after all his work and struggling in this life? * <sup>23</sup>All his life he has pain, frustrations, and hard work. Even at night, a person's mind does not rest. This is also senseless.

<sup>24-25</sup>Is there any person that tried to enjoy life more than I have? No! And this is what I learned: The best thing a person can do is eat, drink, and enjoy the work he must do. I also saw that this comes from God. * <sup>26</sup>If a person does good and pleases God, then God will give that person wisdom, knowledge, and joy. But a person that sins will get only the work of gathering and carrying things. God takes from the bad person and gives to the good person. But all this work is useless. It is like trying to catch the wind. *

There Is a Time...

3 There is a right time for everything. And everything on earth will happen at the right time.

- <sup>2</sup> There is a time to be born, and a time to die.
There is a time to plant,
and a time to pull up plants.
- <sup>3</sup> There is a time to kill,
and a time to heal.
There is a time to destroy,
and a time to build.
- <sup>4</sup> There is a time to cry,
and a time to laugh.
There is a time to be sad,
and a time to dance from joy.
- <sup>5</sup> There is a time to throw weapons down, and a time to pick them up. * There is a time to greet someone with a hug,

and a time not to greet them.

- <sup>6</sup> There is a time to look for something,
and a time to stop looking.
There is a time to keep things, and there is a time to throw things
away.
- <sup>7</sup> There is a time to tear cloth, and there is a time to sew it.
There is a time to be silent,
and a time to speak.
- <sup>8</sup> There is a time to love,
and a time to hate.
There is a time for war,
and there is a time for peace.

God Controls His World

<sup>9</sup>Does a person really gain anything from his hard work? [No!]. <sup>10</sup>I saw all the hard work God gave us to do. <sup>11</sup>God gave us the ability to think about his world. * But we can never completely understand everything God does. And yet, God does everything at just the right time.

<sup>14</sup>I learned that anything God does will continue forever. People can't add anything to the work of God. And people can't take anything away from the work of God. God did this so people would respect him. <sup>15</sup>Things that happened in the past have happened, and we can't change them. And things that will happen in the future will happen, and we can't change them. But God wants to help people that have been treated badly. *

<sup>16</sup>I also saw these things in this life. * I saw that the courts should be filled with goodness and fairness—but there is evil there now. <sup>17</sup>So I

Is there ... God Or, "The best a person can do is eat, drink, and enjoy his work. I also saw this comes from God. <sup>22</sup>No one can eat or enjoy life without God."

trying to catch the wind Or, "It is very troubling to the spirit." The word for "troubling" can also mean "craving" and the word for "spirit" can also mean "wind."

There ... up Literally, "There is a time to throw stones away, and a time to gather stones."

the ... world Or, "a desire to know the future."

Verse 15 Or, "What happens now also happened in the past. The things that happen in the future have also happened before. God makes things happen again and again."

said to myself, "God has planned a time for everything. And God has planned a time to judge everything people do. God will judge the good people and the bad people."

Are People Just Like Animals?

<sup>1</sup>I thought about the things people do to each other. And I said to myself, "God wants people to see that they are like animals. <sup>2</sup>Is a man better than an animal? [No!] Why? Because everything is useless. The same thing happens to animals and to people—they die. People and animals have the same "breath."* Is a dead animal different from a dead person? <sup>3</sup>The bodies of people and animals end the same way. They came from the earth, and in the end they will go back to the earth. <sup>4</sup>Who knows what happens to the spirit of a man? Who knows if a man's spirit goes up to God while an animal's spirit goes down into the ground?"

<sup>5</sup>So I saw that the best thing a person can do is to enjoy what he does. That is all he has. [Also a person should not worry about the future.] Why? Because no one can help that person see what will happen in the future.

Is It Better to Be Dead?

4 Again I saw that many people are treated badly. I saw their tears. And I saw that there was no one to comfort those sad people. I saw cruel people had all the power. And I saw that there was no one to comfort the people they hurt. <sup>2</sup>I decided that things are better for people that have died than for people that are still alive. <sup>3</sup>And things are even better [for people that die at birth! Why? Because, they never saw the evil that is done in this world.*

Why Work So Hard?

"Then I thought, "Why do people work so hard?" I saw people try to succeed and be better than other people. Why? Because people are jealous. They don't want other people to have more than they have. This is senseless. It is like trying to catch the wind.*

<sup>5</sup>Some people say, "It is foolish to fold your hands and do nothing. If you don't work, you will starve to death." <sup>6</sup>Maybe that is true. But I say it is better to be satisfied with the few things you have than to always be struggling to get more.

<sup>7</sup>Again I saw something else that didn't make sense: <sup>8</sup>A person might not have any family. He might not have a son or even a brother. But that person will continue to work very, very hard. That person is never satisfied with what he has. And he works so hard that he never stops and asks himself, "Why am I working so hard? Why don't I let myself enjoy my life?" This is also a very bad and senseless thing.

Friends and Family Give Strength

<sup>9</sup>Two people are better than one. When two people work together, they get more from the work they do.

<sup>10</sup>If one person falls, then the other person can help him. But it is very bad for the person that is alone when he falls—there is no one there to help him.

<sup>11</sup>If two people sleep together, they will be warm. But a person sleeping alone will not be warm.

<sup>12</sup>An enemy might be able to defeat one person, but that enemy can't defeat two people. [And three people are even stronger. They are like, a rope that has three parts wrapped together—it is very hard to break.

People, Politics, and Popularity

<sup>13</sup>A young leader that is poor but wise is better than a king that is old but foolish. That old king does not listen to warnings. <sup>14</sup>Maybe that young ruler was born a poor man in the kingdom. And maybe he came from prison to rule the country. <sup>15</sup>But I have watched people in this life, [and I know this:] People will follow breath Or, "spirit."

in this world Literally, "under the sun."

trying to catch the wind Or, "It is very troubling to the spirit." The word for "troubling" can also mean "craving" and the word for "spirit" can also mean "wind."

that young man. He will become the new king. <sup>16</sup>Many, many people will follow this young man. But later, those same people will not like him. This is also senseless. It is like trying to catch the wind.*

Be Careful About Making Promises

5 Be very careful when you go to worship God. It is better to listen <sub>to God</sub>, than to give sacrifices* like foolish people. Foolish people often do bad things, and they don't even know it. <sup>2</sup>Be careful when you make promises to God. Be careful about the things you say to God. Don't let your feelings cause you to speak too soon. God is in heaven, and you are on the earth. So you need to say only a few things to God. This saying is true:

- <sup>3</sup> Bad dreams come from too much worrying, and too many words come from foolish people.

<sup>4</sup>If you make a promise to God, then keep your promise. Don't be slow to do the thing you promised. God is not happy with foolish people. Give God what you promised to give him. <sup>5</sup>It is better to promise nothing than to promise something and not be able to do it. <sup>6</sup>So don't let your words cause you to sin. Don't say to the priest,* "I didn't mean what I said!" If you do this, then God might become angry with your words and destroy everything you have worked for. <sup>7</sup>You should not let your useless dreams and bragging bring you trouble. You should respect God.

For Every Ruler There Is a Ruler

<sup>8</sup>In some country you might see poor people that are forced to work very hard. You might see that this is not fair to the poor people. It is

sacrifices A gift to God. Sometimes it was a special kind of animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

priest Or, "angel," "messenger." This might be an angel, or it might be a priest or a prophet who speaks for God.

against the rights of the poor people. But don't be surprised! The ruler that forces those people to work has another ruler that forces him. And there is still another ruler that forces both of these rulers. <sup>9</sup>Even the king is a slave—his country owns him.*

Wealth Can't Buy Happiness

<sup>10</sup>The person that loves money will never be satisfied with the money he has. The person that loves wealth will not be satisfied when he gets more and more. This is also senseless.

<sup>11</sup>The more wealth a person has, the more "friends" he has to help spend it. So that rich person really gains nothing. He can only look at his wealth.

<sup>12</sup>A man that works hard all day comes home and sleeps in peace. It is not important if he has little or much to eat. But a rich person worries about his wealth and is not able to sleep.

<sup>13</sup>There is a very sad thing that I have seen happen in this life. A person saves his money for the future.* <sup>14</sup>And then something bad happens and he loses everything. So that person has nothing to give to his son.

We Come with Nothing. We Leave with Nothing

<sup>15</sup>A person comes into the world from his mother's body with nothing. And when that person dies, he leaves the same way—with nothing. He works hard to get things. But he can take nothing with him when he dies. <sup>16</sup>That is very sad. He will leave the world the same way he came. So, what does a person gain from his "trying to catch the wind"? <sup>17</sup>He only gets days that are filled with sadness and sorrow. In the end, he is frustrated, sick, and angry!

The ruler ... owns him Or, "One ruler is cheated by a higher ruler. And they are cheated by an even higher ruler.

<sup>9</sup>Even the king gets his share of the profit. The wealth of the country is divided among them."

for the future Or, "to his harm."

Enjoy Your Life's Work

<sup>1</sup>I have seen that this is the best a person can do: A person should eat, drink, and enjoy the work he does during his short life on earth. God has given him these few days, and that is all he has.

<sup>19</sup>If God gives a person wealth, property, and the power to enjoy those things, then that person should enjoy them. That person should accept the things he has and enjoy his work—that is a gift from God. <sup>20</sup>A person does not have many years to live. So he must remember these things all his life. God will keep him busy with the work that person loves to do.*

Wealth Does Not Bring Happiness

6 I have seen another thing in this life that is not fair. It is very hard to understand: <sup>2</sup>God gives a person great wealth, riches, and honor. That person has everything he needs and everything he could ever want. But then God does not let that person enjoy those things. Some stranger comes and takes everything. This is a very bad and senseless thing.

<sup>3</sup>A person might live a long time. And that person might have 100 children. But if that person is not satisfied with those good things, and if no one remembers him after his death, then I say that a baby that dies at birth is better off than that man. <sup>4</sup>It is really senseless when a baby is born dead. That baby is quickly buried in a dark grave, without even a name. <sup>5</sup>That baby never saw the sun. That baby never knew anything. But that baby finds more rest than the man that never enjoyed the things God gave him. <sup>6</sup>That man might live 2,000 years. But if he does not enjoy life, then the baby that was born dead has found the easiest way to the same end.*

accept life as it is. <sup>9</sup>It is better to be happy with the things you have than to always want more and more. Always wanting more and more is useless. It is like trying to catch the wind.*

<sup>10-11</sup>A man is only what he was created to be—a man. And it is useless to argue about it. A man can't argue with God about this. Why? Because God is more powerful than man. And a long argument will not change that fact.

<sup>12</sup>Who knows what is best for a person during his short life on earth? His life passes like a shadow. No one can tell him what will happen later.

A Collection of Wise Teachings

7 It is better to have a good name (respect) than good perfume.

The day a person dies is even better than the day he is born.

Why? Because all people must die, and every living person should accept this.

<sup>3</sup> Sorrow is even better than laughter.

Why? Because when our face is sad, our heart becomes good.

The thorns burn fast, but the pot does not get hot.

<sup>7</sup> Even a wise man will forget his wisdom if someone pays him enough money. That money destroys his

God ... do Or, "God will do whatever he wants to do that person."

then ... end Or, "Isn't it true that all go to the same place?"

It is better ... catch the wind Or, "Having what you can see is better than chasing after the things you want. This is also like trying to catch the wind."

understanding.

- <sup>8</sup> It is better to finish something than to start it.
It is better to be gentle and patient than to be proud and impatient.
- <sup>9</sup> Don't become angry quickly.
Why? Because being angry is foolish.
- <sup>10</sup> Don't say,
"Life was better in the 'good old days.'
What happened?"
Wisdom does not lead us to ask that question.

<sup>13</sup>Look at the things God has made. You can't change a thing, even if you think it is wrong! <sup>14</sup>When life is good, enjoy it. But when life is hard, remember that God gives us good times and hard times. And no one knows what will happen in the future.

People Can't Be Truly Good

<sup>15</sup>In my short life, I have seen everything. I have seen good men die young. And I have seen evil men living long lives. <sup>16-17</sup>So why kill yourself? Don't be too good or too bad. And don't be too wise or too foolish. Why should you die before your time?

<sup>18</sup>Try to be a little of this and a little of that.* Even God's followers will do some good things and some bad things. <sup>19-20</sup>Surely there is not a good man on earth that always does good and never sins.

Wisdom gives a person strength. One wise man is stronger than ten [foolish] leaders in a city.

<sup>21</sup>Don't listen to all the things people say. You might hear your own servant saying bad things about you. <sup>22</sup>And you know that many times you too have said bad things about other people.

<sup>23</sup>I used my wisdom and thought about all these things. I wanted to be truly wise. But it was impossible. <sup>24</sup>I can't understand why things are like they are. It is too hard for anyone to understand. <sup>25</sup>I studied and I tried very hard to find true wisdom. I tried to find a reason for everything. [What did I learn?] I learned that it is foolish to be evil, and it is crazy to act like a foolish person.

<sup>26</sup>I also found that [some women are dangerous like traps]. Their hearts are like nets, and their arms are like chains. It is worse than death to be caught by those women. A person that follows God will run away from those women. But a sinner will be caught by them.

<sup>27-28</sup>The Teacher says, "I added all these things together to see what answer I could find. I am still looking for answers. But I did find this: I found one [good] man in a thousand. But I did not find even one [good] woman.

<sup>29</sup>"There is one other thing I have learned: God made people good. But people found many ways to be bad."

Wisdom and Power

8 No one can understand and explain things the way a wise man can. His wisdom makes him happy. It changes a sad face into a happy one.

<sup>2</sup>I say you should always obey the king's command. Do this because you made a promise to God. <sup>3</sup>Don't be afraid to give suggestions to the king. And don't support something that is wrong. But remember, the king gives the commands that please him. <sup>4</sup>The king has the authority to give commands. And no one can tell him what to do. <sup>5</sup>A person will be safe if he obeys the king's command. But a wise man knows the right time to do this, and he also knows when to do the right thing.

<sup>6</sup>There is a right time and a right way for a person to do everything. [And each person must take a chance and decide what he should do.] He must do this even when he has many troubles <sup>7</sup>and he isn't sure what will happen.

wise people Literally, "People that see the sun." This means wise people can see and plan what they should do.

Try ... that Literally, "Hold onto this, but don't let go of that."

Why? Because no one can tell him what will happen in the future.

<sup>8</sup>No person has the power to keep his spirit from leaving. No person has the power to stop his death. During war, a soldier does not have the freedom to go any place he wants to go. In the same way, if a person does evil, that evil won't allow him to be free.

<sup>9</sup>I saw all those things. I thought very hard about the things that happen in this world. And I saw that people always struggle for the power to rule other people. And this is bad for them.

<sup>10</sup>I also saw great and beautiful funerals for evil people. While the people were going home after the funeral services, they said good things about the evil people that had died. This happened even in the same towns where the evil people had done many, many bad things. That is senseless.

Justice, Rewards, and Punishment

<sup>11</sup>Sometimes people are not immediately punished for the bad things they do. Their punishment is slow to come. And that makes other people want to do bad things too.

<sup>12</sup>A sinner might do a hundred evil things. And he might have a long life. But I know that it is still better to obey and respect God. <sup>13</sup>Evil people don't respect God, so those people won't really get good things. Those evil people won't live long lives. Their lives won't be like the shadows that become longer and longer as the sun goes down.

<sup>14</sup>There is something else that happens on earth that does not seem fair. Bad things should happen to bad people and good things should happen to good people. But sometimes bad things happen to good people and good things happen to bad people. That is not fair. <sup>15</sup>So I decided it was more important to enjoy life. Why? Because the best thing people can do in this life* is to eat, drink, and enjoy life. At least that will help people enjoy the hard work God gave them to do during their life on earth.

We Can't Understand All God Does

<sup>16</sup>I carefully studied the things people do in this life. I saw how busy people are. They work day and night, and they almost never sleep. <sup>17</sup>I also saw the many things that God does. And I saw that people can't understand all the work that God does on earth. A person might try and try to understand, but he can't. Even if a wise man says he understands the work God does, it is not true. No person can understand all those things.

Is Death Fair?

9 I thought about all these things very carefully. I saw that God controls what happens to the good and wise people and the things they do. People don't know if they will be loved or hated. And people don't know what will happen in the future.

<sup>2</sup>But, there is one thing that happens to everyone—we all die! Death comes to good people and bad people. Death comes to people that are pure and to people that are not pure. Death comes to people that give sacrifices* and to people that do not give sacrifices. A good man will die just like a sinner. A person that makes special promises to God will die just like a person that is afraid to make those promises.

<sup>3</sup>Of all the things that happen in this life, the worst thing is that all people end the same way. But it is also very bad that people always think evil and foolish thoughts. And those thoughts lead to death. <sup>4</sup>There is hope for any person that is still alive—it does not matter who he is. But this saying is true:

A living dog is better than a dead lion.

<sup>5</sup>Living people know that they will die. But dead people don't know anything. Dead people have no more reward. People will soon forget them. <sup>6</sup>After a person is dead, his love, hate, and jealousy are all gone. And dead people will never again share in the things that happen on earth.

Enjoy Life While You Can

<sup>7</sup>So go and eat your food now and enjoy it. Drink your wine and be happy. It is all right with God if you do these things. <sup>8</sup>Wear nice clothes and make yourself look good. <sup>9</sup>Enjoy life with the wife you love. Enjoy every day of your short life. God has given you this short life on earth—and it is all you have. So, enjoy the work you have to do in this life. <sup>10</sup>Everytime you find work to do, do it the best you can. In the grave there is no work. There is no thinking, no knowledge, and there is no wisdom. And we are all going to that place of death.

Good Luck? Bad Luck? What Can We Do?

<sup>11</sup>I also saw other things in this life* that were not fair: The fastest runner does not always win the race; the strongest army does not always win the battle; the wisest man does not always get the food he earns; the smartest man does not always get the wealth; and an educated person does not always get the praise he deserves. When the time comes, bad things happen to everyone!

<sup>12</sup>A person never knows what will happen to him next. He is like a fish caught in a net—the fish does not know what will happen. He is like a bird caught in a trap—the bird does not know what will happen. In the same way, a person is trapped by the bad things that suddenly happen to him.

The Power of Wisdom

<sup>13</sup>I also saw a person doing a wise thing in this life. And it seemed very important to me. <sup>14</sup>There was a small town with a few people in it. A great king fought against that town and put his armies all around it. <sup>15</sup>But there was a wise man in that town. That wise man was poor, but he used his wisdom to save his town. After everything was finished, the people forgot about that poor man. <sup>16</sup>But I still say that wisdom is better than strength. Those people forgot about the poor man's wisdom, and the people stopped listening to what he said. But I still believe that wisdom is better.

<sup>18</sup> Wisdom is better than swords and spears used in war. But one foolish person* can destroy much good.

10 A few dead flies will make even the best perfume smell bad. In the same way, a little foolishness can ruin much wisdom and honor.

<sup>4</sup>Don't quit your job just because the boss is angry at you. If you remain calm and helpful, you can correct even great mistakes.*

<sup>5</sup>Here is something else that I have seen in this life. And it is not fair. It is the kind of mistake that rulers make: <sup>6</sup>Foolish people are given important positions, while rich people get jobs that are not important. <sup>7</sup>I have seen people that should be servants riding on horses, while people that should be rulers were walking beside them like slaves.

Every Job Has Its Dangers

<sup>8</sup>A person that digs a hole might fall into it. A person that knocks down a wall might be bitten by a snake. <sup>9</sup>A person that moves large stones might be hurt by them. And a person that cuts trees is in danger—the trees might fall on him.

A few ... ruler Or, "Words of a wise man quietly heard are better than the shouts of a ruler among foolish people."
foolish person Literally, "sinner."

If you ... great mistakes Literally, "A healer can put to rest great sins." The word "healer" means a person that is forgiving and that tries to help other people.

<sup>10</sup>But wisdom will make any job easier. It is very hard to cut with a dull knife. But if a person sharpens the knife, then the job is easier. Wisdom is like that.

<sup>11</sup>A person might know how to control snakes. But that skill is useless if a snake bites someone when he is not around. Wisdom is like that.

But a foolish person's words bring destruction.

<sup>13</sup>A foolish person begins by saying foolish things. In the end, he is saying crazy things. <sup>14</sup>A foolish person is always talking about what he will do. But no one knows what will happen in the future. No one can tell what will happen later.

<sup>15</sup> A foolish person isn't smart enough to find his way home, so he must work hard all his life.

The Value of Work

<sup>16</sup>It is very bad for a country if the king is like a child. And it is very bad for a country if its rulers use all their time eating. <sup>17</sup>But it is very good for a country if the king comes from a good family.* And it is very good for a country if the rulers control their eating and drinking. Those rulers eat and drink to become strong, not to become drunk.

<sup>18</sup> If a person is too lazy to work, his house will begin to leak,
and the roof will begin to fall.

Gossip

<sup>20</sup>Don't say bad things about the king. Don't even think bad things about him. And don't say bad things about rich people, even if you are alone in your home. Why? Because a little bird might fly and tell them everything you said.

Boldly Face the Future

11 Do good things every place you go.* After a while, the good things you do will come back to you.

<sup>2</sup>Invest what you have in several different things.* You don't know what bad things might happen on earth.

<sup>3</sup>There are some things you can be sure of. If clouds are full of rain, then they will pour water on the earth. If a tree falls—to the south or to the north—then it will stay where it falls.

<sup>4</sup>But there are some things that you can't be sure of. You must take a chance. If a person waits for perfect weather, then he will never plant his seeds. And if a person is afraid that every cloud will bring rain, then he will never harvest his crops.

<sup>5</sup>You don't know where the wind blows. And you don't know how a baby grows in its mother's body. In the same way, you don't know what God will do—and he makes everything happen.

<sup>6</sup>So begin planting early in the morning, and don't stop working until evening. Why? Because you don't know which things will make you rich. Maybe everything you do will be successful.

<sup>7</sup>It is good to be alive! It is nice to see the light from the sun. <sup>8</sup>You should enjoy every day of your life, no matter how long you live! But remember that you will die. And you will be dead much longer than you were alive! And after you are dead, you can't do anything!

comes from a good family Literally, "is a son of freedmen." This is a person that was never a slave and whose parents were not slaves.

Do good ... you go Literally, "Throw your bread on the water."

Invest ... things Literally, "Give a part to seven, or even eight."

Serve God While You Are Young

<sup>9</sup>So young people, enjoy yourselves while you are young. Be happy! Do whatever your heart leads you to do. Do whatever you want. But remember that God will judge you for everything you do.

<sup>10</sup>Don't let your anger control you. And don't let your body lead you to sin.* People do foolish things in the dawn of life while they are young.

12 Remember your Creator while you are young. If you forget God while you are young, then when you are old you will not want to remember those days.

The Problems of Old Age

<sup>3</sup>When you become old, the light from the sun, moon, and stars will seem dark to you. Your life will be full of troubles, like clouds in the sky that rain and never go away.

<sup>3</sup>At that time, your powerful arms will lose their strength. Your strong legs will become weak and bent. Your teeth will fall out, so you will not be able to chew your food. Your eyes will not see clearly.

<sup>4</sup>You will become hard of hearing. You will not be able to hear the noise in the market place. Even a grindstone* will seem very quiet. You will hardly be able to hear people singing. But you will not be able to sleep well, so, even the sound of a bird singing will wake you early in the morning.

<sup>3</sup>You will be afraid of high places. You will be afraid of tripping over every small thing in your path.

Your hair will become white like the flowers on an almond tree. You will drag yourself like a grasshopper when you walk. You will be too old to be the father or mother of a baby.

Then you will go to your new home (the grave) forever. And the streets will be filled with people going to your funeral.

Don't ... sin Or, "Don't worry about things. Protect yourself from troubles."

grindstone A large stone used to grind grain to make flour or to crush seeds to make oil.

Death

<sup>6</sup>Your life is important. Your life is valuable, like gold or silver. But soon it will be like a broken thread or a broken bowl. Your life will be useless, like a broken bucket by a well. Your life will be useless, like a stone lid that breaks and falls into the well that it was supposed to cover.

<sup>7</sup>Your body came from the earth. And when you die, it will become part of the earth again. But your spirit came from God. And after your body dies, your spirit will go to God again.

CONCLUSION

<sup>9</sup>The Teacher was very wise. He used his wisdom to teach the people. The Teacher very carefully studied and arranged* many wise teachings. <sup>10</sup>The Teacher tried very hard to find the right words. And he wrote the teachings that are true and dependable.

<sup>11</sup>Words from wise men are like sharp sticks people use to make their animals go the right way. Those teachings are like strong pegs that won't break. You can trust those teachings to show you the right way to live. Those wise teachings all come from the same Shepherd (God). <sup>12</sup>So son, study those teachings, but be careful about other books. People are always writing books, and too much study will make you very tired.

<sup>13-14</sup>Now, what should we learn from all the things that are written in this book?* The most important thing a person can do is to respect God and obey his commands. Why? Because God knows about all the things people do—even the secret things. He knows about all the good things and all the bad things. He will judge everything people do.

arranged This Hebrew word means, "to make straight, arrange, correct, edit."

but your name*
is better than expensive perfume.
That is why the young women love
you.
- <sup>4</sup> Take me with you and we will run away.
My king, take me into your room.

The Women of Jerusalem

We will rejoice and be happy in you.
We know your love is better than wine.
With good reason the young women
love you.

The Woman to the Women of Jerusalem

- <sup>5</sup> I am dark and beautiful, daughters of Jerusalem;
I am dark like the tents of Teman and Salma.*
- <sup>6</sup> Don't look at how dark I am;
at how dark the sun has made me.
My brothers were angry with me—

they made me take care of the fields where the grapes grow—
so I have not taken care of myself.

Shulamith Speaks to Solomon

- <sup>7</sup> Tell me, O you that I love—where do you feed your sheep,<sup>1</sup>?
Where do you make them lie down at noon?
I should not be like a girl that puts on a veil*
for your friends' sheep!

The Daughters of Jerusalem Speak to Shulamith

- <sup>8</sup> Surely you know, you are the most beautiful of women.
Go, follow where the sheep walk, and feed your young goats near the shepherds' tents.

Solomon Speaks to Shulamith at Dinner

- <sup>9</sup> My darling, you are more beautiful than a mare*
among Pharaoh's chariots.
- <sup>10</sup> Your cheeks are beautiful with decorations,<sup>2</sup> your neck is beautiful with beads.
- <sup>11</sup> We will make for you gold decorations with silver studs.

name In Hebrew this word is like the word "perfume."

Salma An Arabian tribe. The Hebrew text here has "Solomon."

a girl ... veil This probably means a prostitute, a woman that sells her body for sex.

mare A female horse.

Shulamith Speaks

- <sup>12</sup> The smell of my perfume spreads out to the king on his couch.
- <sup>13</sup> My darling is like a bag of myrrh;*
he will lie all night between my breasts.
- <sup>14</sup> To me, my darling is a bunch of cypress*
flowers in the grape fields of En-gedi.

Solomon Speaks

- <sup>15</sup> My darling, you are beautiful!
Oh you are beautiful!
Your eyes are as gentle as doves.

Shulamith Answers Solomon

- <sup>16</sup> You are so handsome, my beloved;
yes, and so pleasant!
Our bed is so enjoyable!
- <sup>17</sup> The beams holding up our house are cedar wood;
the beams holding up our ceiling are fir
wood.

Shulamith Speaks

2 I am a rose in Sharon;*
I am a lily*
in the valleys.

Solomon Speaks

- <sup>2</sup> My darling, among the other young women,
you are like a lily among thorns!

Shulamith Speaks

- <sup>3</sup> My darling among the other young men, you are like an apple tree among the trees in the woods!
I enjoy sitting in my darling's shadow;
his fruit is sweet to my taste.

myrrh A kind of perfume made from the liquid of plants.
cypress A kind of flower that grows on a thorny bush. These flowers are white and smell sweet like perfume.
rose in Sharon The exact nature of this flower is unknown. It is often translated, "crocus."
lily A type of flower.

SONG OF SOLOMON 1:12-2:14

- <sup>4</sup> My darling brought me to the wine house;
His intent toward me is love.
- <sup>5</sup> Feed me with raisins;
refresh me with apples,
because I am sick for love.
- <sup>6</sup> My darling's left hand is under my head, and his right hands hugs me!

Shulamith Speaks to the Daughters of Jerusalem

- <sup>7</sup> Daughters of Jerusalem, I tell you
love is strong,
love is very powerful!*
So don't wake love,
don't arouse love,
until you are ready for it!*

Shulamith Tells About Solomon's Visit in Lebanon

- <sup>8</sup> My darling's voice comes jumping over the mountains, skipping over the hills.
- <sup>9</sup> My darling is like a gazelle or a young deer.
Look, he stands on the other side of our wall;
he stares out through the windows,
looking through the lattice.*
- <sup>10</sup> My darling spoke and said to me,
"Get up, my darling, my beautiful one,
and let's go away!"
- <sup>11</sup> See, the winter is past,
the rain is finished and gone.
- <sup>12</sup> The blossoms appear on the ground;
the time has come for the birds to sing,
the voice of the dove is heard in our
land.
- <sup>13</sup> Young figs grow on the fig trees;
and a sweet smell comes from the blossoms on the vines.
Get up, my darling, my beautiful one,
and let's go away!
- <sup>14</sup> My dove, that hides in the deep places of the cliff,

love ... powerful Or, "by the gazelles and by the does."
until you are ready for it Or, "Until it desires."
lattice Wooden bars over a window.

and in the secret „places„ of the steep
mountains,
show me your face.
Let me hear your voice,
because your voice is sweet,
and your face is beautiful!”

Shulamith Speaks

- <sup>15</sup> Catch the foxes for us—the little foxes that ruin the fields of grapes!
Our fields of grapes are „now„
blossoming.
- <sup>16</sup> My darling is mine,
and I am his!
My darling feeds among the lilies, <sup>17</sup> until the day breathes its last breath and the shadows run away.
Turn, my darling,
be like a gazelle or a young hart*
on the mountains of Bether!*

Shulamith's Dream

- 3 Every night on my bed, I look for the man I love—
I looked for him, but I could not find
him!
- <sup>2</sup> I will get up now,
I will go around the city.
In the streets and squares,
I will look for the man I love.
I looked for him, but I could not find
him!
- <sup>3</sup> The watchmen that patrol the city found
me;
„I asked them, “Have you seen the man
I love?”
- <sup>4</sup> I went only a little „way„ from the watchmen,
Then I found the man I love!
I held him, I would not let him go until I had brought him to my mother's
house,

into the room of the woman that conceived me.

Shulamith Speaks to the Daughters of Jerusalem

- <sup>5</sup> I tell you, daughters of Jerusalem,
love is strong,
love is very powerful!*
So don't wake love,
don't arouse love,
until you are ready for it!*

Solomon Comes to Get His Bride

- <sup>6</sup> Who are those people coming out of the desert?
The „dust rises behind them„ like clouds of smoke,
like the smoke from burning myrrh* and frankincense,*
like the powders of the trader.
- <sup>7</sup> Look, Solomon's couch!*
Sixty soldiers are around this traveling couch,
soldiers of Israel!
- <sup>8</sup> These soldiers all carry swords—
they are skilled in war;
every man wears his sword at his side ready for the terrible „dangers„ of the night!
- <sup>9</sup> King Solomon has made a traveling couch for himself.
„It is„ made from „cedar„ wood from Lebanon;
- <sup>10</sup> he made the traveling couch's poles*
from silver,
and its support from gold.
He covered the bottom of the traveling couch with purple cloth—the daughters of Jerusalem wove the inside of this seat with love.

love ... powerful Or, “by the gazelles and by the does.”
until you are ready for it Or, “until it desires.”
myrrh A kind of perfume made from the liquid of plants.
frankincense An expensive perfume from Arabia.
couch Something like a bed carried by slaves. Solomon lay on this couch.
poles The long poles on which the slaves carried the traveling couch.

gazelle ... hart Two kinds of deer.
mountains of Bether Or perhaps, “on the rugged mountains.”

- <sup>11</sup> Daughters of Zion,* go out,
see King Solomon
with the crown his mother put on him
the day he was married
when his heart was happy!

Solomon Speaks to Shulamith on Their Wedding Night

- 4 You are beautiful, my darling!
You are beautiful!
Your eyes under your veil are like gentle doves.
Your hair is long and flowing.
It is like the little goats dancing down the sides of Mount Gilead.
- <sup>2</sup> Your teeth are white like ewes* just coming from their bath.
They all give birth to twins;
none of them loses her babies.
- <sup>3</sup> Your lips are like a red silk thread.
Your mouth is beautiful.
Your temples* under your veil are like two slices of pomegranate.*
- <sup>4</sup> Your neck is long and thin like David's tower.
The tower was built for the special weapons.*
A thousand small shields hang on its walls.
Each shield belongs to a strong soldier.
- <sup>5</sup> Your two breasts are like two young twin fawns,* like twins of a gazelle,* eating among the lilies.
- <sup>6</sup> I will go to that mountain of myrrh* and to that hill of frankincense*

Zion One of the hills on which Jerusalem was built. Often Zion is used to mean Jerusalem itself.

ewes Female goats.

temples The sides of the head.

pomegranate A red fruit with many tiny seeds inside it. Each seed is covered with a soft, lacy part of the fruit.

special weapons The meaning of this Hebrew word is unknown.

fawns Baby deer.

gazelle An animal like a deer or antelope.

myrrh A kind of perfume made from the liquid of plants.

frankincense An expensive perfume from Arabia.

- until the day breathes its last breath,
and the shadows have all run away.
- <sup>7</sup> My love, you are beautiful all over.
You have no blemishes* anywhere!
- <sup>8</sup> Come with me, my bride, from Lebanon, come with me from Lebanon—come from the top of Amana,* from the top of Senir* and Hermon,
from the lion's caves,
from the mountain of the leopards!
- <sup>9</sup> My sister, my bride,
my heart would have been satisfied to see just one of your eyes,
just one of the jewels from your necklace.
- <sup>10</sup> Your love is so beautiful, my sister, my bride!
Your love is better than wine;
the smell of your perfume is better than any kind of spice!
- <sup>11</sup> My bride, your lips drip honey—honey and milk are under your tongue.
Your clothes smell as sweet as perfume.*
- <sup>12</sup> My sister, my bride, is like a garden locked up—
a spring shut up,
a fountain closed.
- <sup>13</sup> Your limbs are like a garden filled with pomegranates* and other pleasant fruit;
filled with with cypress,* <sup>14</sup>nard,* saffron,* calamus,* and cinnamon;*

blemishes Ugly marks.

Amana The name of a mountain in Lebanon.

Senir The Amorite word for "Snow Mountain." This means Mount Hermon.

perfume Or, "incense."

cypress A kind of tree.

nard A very expensive oil from the root from the nard plant. It was used as a perfume.

saffron A kind of flower yellow in color. Perfume was made from it.

calamus A kind of reed plant used for perfume.

cinnamon A kind of plant that usually grows in the East Indies.

filled with trees of frankincense,* myrrh,* and aloes;*
with all the best spices.

- <sup>15</sup> You are like a garden fountain, a well of fresh water flowing down from the mountains of Lebanon.

Shulamith Speaks

- <sup>16</sup> Awake, north wind!
Come, you south wind!
Blow on my garden,
let its sweet smells flow out.
Let my darling enter my garden,
and let him eat its pleasant fruit.

Solomon Speaks

- 5 My sister, my bride,
I have entered my garden.
I have gathered my myrrh* with my spice.
I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey,
I have drunk my wine and my milk.

The Chorus Speaks

Eat, friends,
Drink, yes, get drunk lovers.

Shulamith Speaks

- <sup>2</sup> I sleep, but my heart wakes.
I hear my sweetheart knocking at the
door.
“Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my perfect one!
My head is covered with dew,
And my hair is wet from the dampness of the night.”
- <sup>3</sup> “I have taken off my coat;
I don’t want to put it back, on.
I have washed my feet,

- I don’t want to make them dirty again.”
- <sup>4</sup> My sweetheart put his hand through the opening,
and I feel sorry for him.
- <sup>5</sup> I get up to open for my sweetheart:
Myrrh* dripping from my hands, sweet-smelling myrrh* from my fingers,
on the handles of the lock.
- <sup>6</sup> I opened for my sweetheart,
But my sweetheart had left—he was gone!
My life went out when he spoke.
I looked for him, but I could not find him;
I called for him, but he didn’t answer
me.
- <sup>7</sup> The watchmen that patrol the city found
me,
they hit me, they hurt me;
the guards on the wall took my veil*
from me.
- <sup>8</sup> I tell you, daughters of Jerusalem,
if you find my sweetheart,
tell him I want his love.*

The Daughters of Jerusalem Answer Shulamith

- <sup>9</sup> Is your sweetheart better than other,
sweethearts?
You are most beautiful among women.
Is your sweetheart better than other,
sweethearts?
Is that why you tell us this?

Shulamith Answers the Daughters of Jerusalem

- <sup>10</sup> My sweetheart is tanned and shining.
He is the best of 10,000 men.
- <sup>11</sup> His hair is beautiful,
his hair is black like a raven, his eyes are like doves by the streams of waters,
his eyes are like doves bathing in milk,

frankincense An expensive perfume from Arabia.
myrrh A kind of perfume made from the liquid of plants.
aloes Perfume made from a special kind of tree.

veil A piece of cloth used to cover a person’s face.
I want his love Literally, “I am lovesick.”

like doves, sitting by a pool of
water.*

- <sup>13</sup> His cheeks are like a bed of spices, like flowers whose smell spreads out.
His lips are like lilies;* his lips drop liquid myrrh.*
- <sup>14</sup> His hands are like gold rods, filled with jewels;*
His body is like smooth ivory with sapphires* put in it.
- <sup>15</sup> His legs are like marble pillars, on bases*
of fine gold.
He stands tall like a cedar of Lebanon,
like the best cedar trees.
- <sup>16</sup> Yes, daughters of Jerusalem,
my sweetheart is the most desirable.
His mouth is the sweetest of all.
That is my sweetheart,
that is my friend.

The Daughters of Jerusalem Speak to Shulamith

- 6 Where has your sweetheart gone?
You are most beautiful among women.
Which way did your sweetheart turn?
Tell us, so that we can look for him with you.

Shulamith Answers the Daughters of Jerusalem

- <sup>2</sup> My sweetheart has gone down into his garden,
To the beds of spices,
To feed his sheep, in the gardens,
And to gather lilies.
- <sup>3</sup> I belong to my sweetheart, and my sweetheart belongs to me.

He feeds among the lilies.

Solomon Speaks to Shulamith

- <sup>4</sup> My love, you are beautiful like Tirzah.*
You are pretty like Jerusalem, you are as wonderful as an army with flags.
- <sup>5</sup> Turn your eyes from me;
your eyes excite me.
Your hair is long and flowing like a flock of goats that come dancing down the slopes of Mount Gilead.
- <sup>6</sup> Your teeth are white like ewes* just coming from their bath.
They all give birth to twins.
None of them loses her babies.
- <sup>7</sup> Your temples* under your veil* are like slices of pomegranate.*
- <sup>8</sup> There are 60 queens and 40 women
servants,*
and young women you can't count.
- <sup>9</sup> But my dove, my perfect one, is the only
one.
She is the favorite of her mother that gave birth to her.
The young women saw her and praised
her;
yes, the queens and the women
servants,*
and they praised her.

The Young Women Praise Shulamith

- <sup>10</sup> Who is that young woman?
She shines out like the dawn,
she is as pretty as the moon,
she is as clear as the sun,
And she is as wonderful as an army with flags.

Tirzah One of the capitals of the northern state of Israel.

ewes Female goats.

temples The sides of the head.

Shulamith Speaks

- 11 I went down into the orchard of nut trees to see the blossoms of the valley, to see if the grapes had grown,
to see if the pomegranates*
budded.
- 12 Before I realized it,*
I had put myself into the chariots* of my kingly people.*

The Daughters of Jerusalem Call to Shulamith

- 13 Come back, come back, Shulamith!*
Come back, come back,
so we may look at you.

Shulamith Answers the Daughters of Jerusalem

Why do you stare at Shulamith,
As at the dance of the two camps?*

Solomon Praises Shulamith's Beauty

- 7 Prince's daughter!
Your feet are truly beautiful in those sandals,* your round thighs are like jewels, made by an artist.
- 2 Your navel is like a round cup;*
let it be filled with wine.
Your stomach is like a pile of wheat with lilies around it like a fence.
- 3 Your breasts are like twin fawns* of a young gazelle.*
- 4 Your neck is like an ivory tower.

pomegranate A red fruit containing many tiny seeds covered with a soft, juicy part of the fruit.

Before ... it The meaning of this verse is uncertain.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

my kingly people Or, "Ammiinadib."

Shulamith Or, "Shulamite." The word may be the female form of the name "Solomon."

two camps Or, "Mahanaim."

sandals Open shoes tied to the feet with leather strings.

a round cup Or, "full moon."

fawns Baby deer.

gazelle An animal like a deer or antelope.

Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon near the gate of Bath-Rabbim.

Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus.

- 5 Your head is like Carmel,
and the hair of your head is like silk.

Your long, beautiful, hair pleases even a king.

- 6 You are really a pleasure!
O love, delightful young woman!

- 7 You are tall like a palm tree.
Your breasts are like clusters of the palm tree's fruit.

- 8 I said, "I will climb up the palm tree,
I will take hold of its branches."

Let your breasts be like clusters of the vine.

Let the smell of your breath*
be like apples,

and your mouth* be like the best
wine.

This wine goes down sweetly for my love.

It flows gently past the lips of people that fall asleep.

Shulamith Invites Solomon to Go Out For a Springtime Walk

- 10 I belong to my darling, and he desires me!

- 11 Come, my darling,
let's go out into the field,
let's stay in the villages.

- 12 Let's get up early and go to the fields of grapes.

Let's see if the buds are coming up on the vines,

let's see if the blossoms have already opened,

and if the pomegranate* flowers are blossoming out.

There I will give you my love.

- 13 The mandrakes*

breath Literally, "nose."

mouth Literally, "the roof of your mouth."

mandrakes People thought these plants had the power to make people fall in love.

give their sweet smell, and at our gates, there are, all kinds of pleasant fruits,
new and old—
I have saved them for you, my darling.

Shulamith Says Solomon Is Like Her Brother

8 I wish you were like my baby brother nursing at my mother's breasts!
If I found you outside,
I would kiss you;
no person would blame me!
2 I would lead you,
and bring you to my mother's house,
to the room of my mother that taught
me.
I would give you spiced wine from my pomegranate* juice to drink.

Solomon Makes Love to Shulamith

3 His left hand is under my head, and his right hand hugs me.
4 I tell you, daughters of Jerusalem, don't bother love,
don't wake love,
until you are ready for it!*

The Daughters of Jerusalem Speak

5 Who is this young woman, coming out of the desert,
leaning on her sweetheart?

Solomon Speaks to Shulamith

I woke you under the apple tree;
it was there where your mother
conceived you;
it was there you were born.
6 Put me like a seal on your heart,
like a seal on your arm,

SONG OF SOLOMON 8:1-12

because love is as strong as death.
Passion is as strong as the grave.*
Its flames are like very strong flames!*

7 Many waters cannot put out love;
floods cannot drown love.
If a man gives everything from his house for love,
no one would blame him.

Shulamith's Brothers Speak

8 We have a little sister, and her breasts are not yet grown.
What should we do for our sister on the day she is engaged?*

9 If she were a wall,
we would put her on silver supports.
If she were a door,
we would cover her with expensive cedar boards.

Shulamith Answers Her Brothers

10 I am a wall,
and my breasts are like towers.
So I was to him,
as one that finds peace.
11 Solomon had a field of grapes at Baal-Hamon;
he gave the field of grapes to keepers;
every person had to bring 1,000 pieces of silver
for the fruit.
12 But my own field of grapes is before me, Solomon, the 1,000 shekels*
are for you to keep.
And 200 shekels are for the people that care for the fruit from the fields.

pomegranate A red fruit with many tiny seeds inside it.
Each seed is covered with a soft, tasty part of the fruit.
until you are ready for it Or, "until it desires."

the grave Or, "Sheol," the place where dead people go.
like very strong flames Or, "the flame of the Lord."
We are not sure what this line means.
engaged Literally, "spoken for."
shekels A kind of money used by the Israelites.

Solomon

- <sup>13</sup> You that live in the gardens, friends are listening for your voice;
let me also hear it.

Shulamith

- <sup>14</sup> Hurry, my darling,
be like a gazelle* or a young hart*
on the mountains of spice!

gazelle An animal like a deer or antelope.

hart An animal like a deer.

Isaiah

1 This is the vision* of Isaiah son of Amoz. God showed Isaiah things that would happen to Judah and Jerusalem. Isaiah saw these things during the time Uzziah,* Jotham,* Ahaz,* and Hezekiah* were kings of Judah.

God's Case Against His People

<sup>2</sup>Heaven and Earth, listen to the Lord! The Lord says,

“I raised my children.

I helped my children grow.

But my children turned against me.

<sup>3</sup> A cow knows its master.

And a donkey knows the place where its owner feeds it.

But the people of Israel don't know me.

My people don't understand.”

<sup>4</sup>The nation of Israel is full of guilt. This guilt is like a heavy weight the people have to carry. Those people are like bad children from evil families. They have left the Lord. Those people hate the Holy One (God) of Israel. They are like strangers to God.

<sup>5</sup>God says, “Why should I continue to punish you people? I punished you, but you did not change. You continue to rebel against me. Now every head and every heart is sick. <sup>6</sup>From the bottom of your feet to the top of your head, every part of your body has wounds, hurts, and open sores. You have not cared for your sores. Your wounds are not cleaned and covered.

God Wants True Service

<sup>10</sup>You leaders of Sodom, listen to the Lord's message! You people of Gomorrah, listen to God's teachings! <sup>11</sup>God says, “Why do you continue giving me all these sacrifices? I have had enough of your sacrifices of goats and fat from bulls, sheep, and goats.

<sup>12</sup>“When you people come to meet with me, you trample (walk on) everything in my yard. Who told you to do this?

<sup>13</sup>“Don't continue bringing worthless sacrifices to me. I hate the incense* you give vision Like a dream. God gave messages to his special people by letting them see and hear things in visions.

Jotham A king of Judah. He ruled about 740-735 B.C.

Ahaz A king of Judah. He ruled about 735-727 B.C.

Hezekiah A king of Judah. He ruled about 727-687 B.C.

Sodom, Gomorrah Two cities that God destroyed because the people were so evil.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

me. I can't bear your feasts for the New Moon,* the Sabbath,* and your holidays. I hate the evil you do during your holy meetings. <sup>14</sup>With my whole self I hate your monthly meetings and councils. These meetings have become like heavy weights to me. And I am tired of carrying those weights.

<sup>15</sup>"You people will raise your arms to pray to me—but I will refuse to look at you. You people will say more and more prayers—but I will refuse to listen to you. Why? Because your hands are covered with blood.

<sup>16</sup>"Wash yourselves. Make yourselves clean. Stop doing the bad things you do. I don't want to see those bad things. Stop doing wrong!

<sup>18</sup>The Lord says, "Come, we will discuss these things. Your sins are red like scarlet,* but they can be washed away and you will be, white like snow. Your sins are bright red, but you can become white like wool.

<sup>19</sup>"If you listen to the things I say, then you will have the good things from this land. <sup>20</sup>But if you refuse to listen, you are against me. And your enemies will destroy you."

The Lord himself said those things.

Jerusalem Is Not Loyal to God

<sup>21</sup>God says, "Look at Jerusalem. She was a city that trusted and followed me. What caused her to become like a prostitute?* She does not follow me now. Jerusalem should be filled with fairness. People living in Jerusalem should live the way God wants. But now, murderers live there.

has been mixed with water—it is now weak. <sup>23</sup>Your rulers are rebels and friends of thieves. All of your rulers demand bribes—they accept money for doing wrong things. All of your rulers take pay for cheating people. Your rulers don't try to help the children that have no parents. And your rulers don't listen to the needs of the women whose husbands are dead."

<sup>24</sup>Because of all these things, the Master, the Lord All-Powerful, the Mighty One of Israel, says, "I will punish you, my enemies. You will not cause me any more trouble. <sup>25</sup>People use lye* to clean silver. (In the same way, I will clean all your wrongs away. I will take all the worthless things out from you. <sup>26</sup>I will bring back the kind of judges you had in the beginning. Your counselors will be like the counselors you had long ago. Then you will be called 'The Good and Faithful City.'"

<sup>27</sup>God is good and does the things that are right. So he will rescue Zion* and the people that come back to him. <sup>28</sup>But all criminals and sinners will be destroyed. (They are the people that don't follow the Lord.)

<sup>29</sup>(In the future, people will be ashamed of the oak trees* and special gardens* you choose to worship. <sup>30</sup>This will happen because you people will be like oak trees with leaves that are dying. You people will be like a garden dying without water. <sup>31</sup>Powerful people will be like small dry pieces of wood. And the things those people do will be like sparks that start a fire,—the powerful people and the things they do will begin to burn. And no person will be able to stop that fire.

2 Isaiah son of Amoz saw this message about Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>The Lord's temple* is on a mountain. In the last days, that mountain will be made the lye A chemical used like soap.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.

Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

oak trees People worshiped these trees to show honor to false gods.

special gardens People worshiped false gods in these gardens.

temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

New Moon The first day of the Jewish month. This was a special day of worship.

Sabbath Saturday. A special day of rest and worship for the Jews.

prostitute A woman that sells her body for sex. Sometimes this also means a person that stops following God.

highest of all mountains. That mountain will be raised higher than the hills. People from all nations will go there. <sup>3</sup>Many people will go there. They will say, "We should go up to the Lord's mountain. We should go to the temple of the God of Jacob. Then God will teach us his way of living. And we will follow him."

The teachings from God—the Lord's message—will begin in Jerusalem on the mountain of Zion* and go out to all the world. <sup>4</sup>Then God will be a judge for the people of all nations. God will end the arguments for many people. Those people will stop using their weapons for fighting. They will make plows from their swords. And they will use their spears as tools for cutting plants. People will stop fighting against other people. People will never again train for war.

<sup>5</sup>Family of Jacob, you should follow the Lord. <sup>6</sup>I say this to you, because you have left your people. Your people have become filled with the wrong ideas of the people in the east. Your people try to tell the future like the Philistines.* Your people have completely accepted those strange ideas. <sup>7</sup>Your land has been filled with silver and gold from other places. There are many, many treasures there. Your land has been filled with horses. There are many, many chariots* there. <sup>8</sup>Your land is full of statues that people worship. The people made those idols* and the people worship them. <sup>9</sup>People have become worse and worse. People have become very low. God, surely you will not forgive them, will you?*

God's Enemies Will Be Afraid

<sup>10</sup>Go hide in the dirt and behind the rocks! You should be afraid of the Lord and you should hide from his great power!

<sup>11</sup>Proud people will stop being proud. Those proud people will bow down to the ground with shame. At that time, only the Lord will still stand high.

<sup>12</sup>The Lord has a special day planned. On that day, the Lord will punish the proud and boastful people. Then those proud people will be made not important. <sup>13</sup>Those proud people are like, tall cedar trees from Lebanon.* They are like, great oak trees from Bashan.* <sup>14</sup>But God will punish those people. <sup>14</sup>Those proud people are like, tall mountains and high hills. <sup>15</sup>Those proud people are like, tall towers and high, very strong walls. <sup>15</sup>But God will punish those people. <sup>16</sup>Those proud people are like great ships from Tarshish.* (These ships are full of important things.) <sup>16</sup>But God will punish those proud people.

<sup>17</sup>At that time, people will stop being proud. The people that are now proud will bow low to the ground. And at that time, only the Lord will stand high. <sup>18</sup>All the idols (false gods) will be gone. <sup>19</sup>People will hide behind rocks and in cracks in the ground. People will be afraid of the Lord and his great power. This will happen when the Lord stands to make the earth shake.

<sup>20</sup>At that time, people will throw away their gold and silver idols. (The people made those statues so the people could worship them.) The people will throw those statues into holes in the ground where bats and moles* live. <sup>21</sup>Then the people will hide in cracks in the rocks. They will do this because they will be afraid of the Lord and his great power. This will happen when the Lord stands to make the earth shake.

Israel Should Trust God

<sup>22</sup>You should stop trusting other people to save you. They are only people—and people die. <sup>22</sup>So, you should not think they are strong like God.

3 Understand these things I am telling you. The Master, the Lord All-Powerful, will

Philistines People living on the coast of Palestine. They were one of Israel's enemies.

chariots Small wagons used for war.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshipped.

God ... you Literally, "Surely you will not raise them up."

Lebanon A country north of Israel. It was famous for its great cedar and pine trees.

Bashan An area northeast of Israel.

take away all the things Judah and Jerusalem depend on. God will take away all the food and all the water. <sup>2</sup>God will take away all the heroes and great soldiers. God will take away all the judges,* the prophets,* the people that do magic, and the elders.* <sup>3</sup>God will take away the military leaders and the government leaders. God will take away the skilled counselors and the wise men that do magic and try to tell the future.

<sup>4</sup>God says, “I will cause young boys to be your leaders. <sup>5</sup>Every person will be against every other person. Young people will not respect older people. Common people will not respect the important people.”

<sup>6</sup>At that time, a person will grab one of his brothers from his own family. That person will tell the brother, “You have a coat,* so you will be our leader. You will be the leader over all these ruins.”

<sup>7</sup>But that brother will stand and say, “I can’t help you. I don’t have enough food or clothes in my house. You will not make me your leader.”

<sup>8</sup>This will happen because Jerusalem has stumbled and has done wrong, Judah has fallen and has stopped following God, The things they say and do are against the Lord. The Lord’s glorious eyes clearly see all these things.

<sup>9</sup>The people’s faces show that they are guilty of doing wrong. And they are proud of their sin. They are like the people of the city Sodom*—they don’t care who sees their sin. It will be very bad for them. They have brought much trouble to themselves.

<sup>10</sup>Tell the good people that good things will happen to them. They will receive a reward for the good things they do. <sup>11</sup>But it will be very bad for the evil people. Much trouble will come to them. They will be punished for all the wrong things they have done. <sup>12</sup>Children will defeat my people. Women will rule over my people. My people, your guides lead you in the wrong way. They turn you away from the right way.

God’s Decision About His People

<sup>13</sup>The Lord will stand to judge the people. <sup>14</sup>The Lord will give his judgment against the elders* and leaders for the things they have done.

The Lord says, “You people have burned the field of grapes (Judah). You took things from poor people, and those things are still in your houses. <sup>15</sup>What gives you the right to hurt my people? What gives you the right to push the faces of the poor people into the dirt?” My Master, the Lord All-Powerful said these things.

<sup>17</sup>My Master will make sores on the heads of those women in Zion.* The Lord will make the women lose all their hair. <sup>18</sup>At that time, the Lord will take away all the things they are proud of: the beautiful ankle bracelets, the necklaces that look like the sun and the moon, <sup>19</sup>the earrings, bracelets, and veils (face coverings), <sup>20</sup>the scarves, the ankle chains, the sashes worn around their waists, the bottles of perfume, and the things they wear on their necklaces, <sup>21</sup>the signet rings,* and the nose-rings, <sup>22</sup>the fine robes, capes, shawls, and purses, <sup>23</sup>the mirrors, linen dresses, turbans, and long shawls.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

signet rings Rings with special shapes that could be used like a rubber stamp. When pressed into wet clay, they left a mark. This mark was like a signature.

judges In Israel, judges were people that judged, led, and protected the people.

prophets A true prophet was a person called by God to be a special servant. God used dreams and visions to show them things to teach the people.

elders Older men that were city leaders; they helped make decisions for the people.

coat Literally, “robe.” This showed a person was a leader of the people.

Sodom A city that God destroyed because its people were so evil.

<sup>24</sup>Those women now have, sweet smelling perfume, but at that time, their perfume will become, moldy and rotten. Now they wear, belts. But at that time, they will have only, ropes to wear. Now they have their hair fixed fancy ways. But at that time, their heads will be shaved—they will have no hair.* Now they have, party dresses. But at that time, they will have, only clothes to show sadness. They have beauty marks on their faces now. But at that time, they will have another mark. It will be a mark burned into their skin.

<sup>25</sup>At that time, your men will be killed with swords. Your heroes will die in war. <sup>26</sup>There will be crying and sadness in the meeting places near the city gates. Jerusalem will sit there empty like a woman that has lost everything to thieves and robbers. She will sit on the ground, and cry.

4 At that time, seven women will grab one man. The women will say, “We will make our own bread to eat. And we will make our own clothes to wear. We will do all these things for ourselves if you will only, marry us. Let us have your name. Please, take away our shame.”

<sup>2</sup>At that time, the Lord’s plant (Judah) will be very beautiful and great. The people still living in Israel will be very proud of the things the land grows. <sup>3</sup>At that time, all the people that are still living in Zion* and Jerusalem will be called holy (special) people. This will happen to all the people that have their names on a special list; the list of people that will be allowed to continue living.

<sup>4</sup>The Lord will wash away the blood* from the women of Zion.* The Lord will wash all the blood out of Jerusalem. God will use the spirit of justice, and judge fairly. And he will use the spirit of burning, and make everything pure (good).

they ... hair This shows that those people will become slaves.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

wash away the blood This is like a special ceremony for washing the blood after a menstrual period. After this a man and wife could be together and show their love for each other.

<sup>5</sup>At that time, God will prove that he is with his people. During the day, God will make a cloud of smoke. And during the night, God will make a bright flaming fire.* These proofs will be in the sky over every building and over every meeting of the people on the mountain of Zion.* There will be a covering over every person* for protection. <sup>6</sup>This covering will be a place of safety. The covering will protect the people from the heat of the sun. The covering will be a safe place to hide from all kinds of floods and rain.

Israel, God’s Special Garden

5 Now, I will sing a song for my friend (God). This song is about the love my friend has for his field of grapes (Israel).

My friend had a vineyard*
in a very rich field.

<sup>2</sup> My friend dug and cleared the field.
He planted the best grapevines there.
And he built a tower in the middle of
the field.

My friend hoped for good grapes to grow
there.

But there were only bad grapes.

<sup>3</sup>So God said,:

“You people living in Jerusalem,* and you, man of Judah,* think about me and my vineyard.*

<sup>4</sup> What more could I do to help my field of grapes?

I did everything I could.

I hoped for good grapes to grow.

But there were only bad grapes.

Why did that happen?

<sup>5</sup>Now, I will tell you what I will do to my field of grapes:

cloud ... fire These were signs that God used to show he was with his people.

person Literally, “glory,” but this also means “soul,” “person” (see Psalm 16:9).

vineyard A garden for growing grapes.

You ... Jerusalem Or, “You leaders in Jerusalem.”

man of Judah This probably means the king of Judah.

I will pull up the thorn bushes, protecting
the field,
and I will burn them.

I will break down the stone wall,
and the stones will be walked on.

- <sup>6</sup> I will make my vineyard* an empty field.
No person will care for the plants.
No person will work in the field.
Weeds and thorns will grow there.
I will command the clouds not to rain on the field.”

<sup>7</sup>The field of grapes that belongs to the Lord All-Powerful is the nation of Israel. The grapevine—the plant the Lord loves—is the man of Judah.*

The Lord hoped for justice, but there was only killing.
The Lord hoped for fairness,
but there were only cries
from people being treated badly.

<sup>8</sup>You people live very close together. You build houses until there is no place for anything else. But the Lord will punish you, and you will be made to live alone. You will be the only people in the whole land!* <sup>9</sup>The Lord All-Powerful said this to me, and I heard him, “There are many houses now. But I promise that all the houses will be destroyed. There are nice, big houses now. But those houses will be empty. <sup>10</sup>At that time, a ten-acre field of grapes will make only a little wine.* And many sacks of seed will grow only a little grain.*

<sup>11</sup>You people rise early in the morning and go looking for beer to drink. You stay awake late at night, becoming drunk with wine. <sup>12</sup>You party with your wine, harps,* drums, flutes, and other musical instruments. And you don’t see the things the Lord has done. The Lord’s hands have made many, many things—but you don’t notice those things. So, it will be very bad for you people.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord says, “My people will be captured and taken away. Why? Because they don’t really know me. Some of the people living in Israel are important now. They are happy with their easy lives. But all those great people will become very thirsty and very hungry. <sup>14</sup>Then they will die and, Sheol,* the place of death, will get more and more people. That place of death will open her mouth with no limit. And all those people will go down into Sheol.”

<sup>15</sup>Those people will be humbled. Those great people will bow their heads and look at the ground. <sup>16</sup>The Lord All-Powerful will judge fairly, and people will know he is great. The Holy God will do the things that are right, and the people will respect him. <sup>17</sup>God will make the people of Israel leave their country; the land will be empty. Sheep will go any place they want. Lambs will walk on the land that rich people once owned.

<sup>18</sup>Look at those people! They pull their guilt and sins behind them like people pull wagons with ropes.* <sup>19</sup>Those people say, “We wish God would hurry and do the things he plans to do. Then we would know what will happen. We wish the Lord’s plan would happen soon. Then we would know what his plan is.”

<sup>20</sup>Those people say that good things are bad, and bad things are good. Those people think light is darkness, and darkness is light. Those people think sour is sweet, and sweet is sour. <sup>21</sup>Those people think they are very smart. They think they are very intelligent. <sup>22</sup>Those people are famous for drinking wine. They are champions at mixing drinks. <sup>23</sup>And if you pay those people money, they will forgive a criminal. But they don’t allow good people to

man of Judah This probably means the king of Judah.

You people ... in the whole land Or, “You join houses to houses and fields to fields until there is no room (for other people), until you are left living alone in the land.”

only a little wine Literally, “one bath.” A bath is a measure that equals about 6 gallons.

only a little grain Literally, “A homer of seed will grow only an ephah of grain.” A homer equals about 6 bushels. An ephah equals about one-half bushel.”

harps Musical instruments with several strings.

Sheol This is the place where all people go when they die. Usually this means the grave, but it can mean the place where our spirits go.

ropes Literally, “useless ropes.” The Hebrew words for useless ropes are like the words meaning “useless things—idols.”

be judged fairly. <sup>24</sup>Bad things will happen to those people. Their descendants* will be completely destroyed—like straw and leaves are burned by fire. Their descendants will be destroyed like a root (that dies and becomes dust. Their descendants will be destroyed like a fire destroys a flower—the ashes blow away in the wind.

Those people have refused to obey the teachings* of the Lord All-Powerful. Those people hated the message from the Holy One (God) of Israel. <sup>25</sup>So the Lord has become very angry with his people. And the Lord will raise his hand and punish them. Even the mountains will be frightened. Dead bodies will lie in the streets like garbage. But God will still be angry. His hand will still be raised to punish the people.

God Will Bring Armies to Punish Israel

<sup>26</sup>Look! God is giving a sign to the nations in a faraway land. God is raising a flag, and he is whistling to call those people. The enemy is coming from a faraway land. The enemy will soon enter the country. They are moving very quickly. <sup>27</sup>The enemy never becomes tired or falls down. They never become sleepy and fall asleep. Their weapon belts are always ready. Their shoestrings never break. <sup>28</sup>The enemy's arrows are sharp. All of their bows are ready to shoot. The horses' feet are hard like rock. Clouds of dust rise from behind their chariots.*

descendants A person's children, and all the people born from those children.

teachings This can also mean "laws." Sometimes this means the laws God gave Moses to teach to the people of Israel.

chariots Small wagons used for war.

God Calls Isaiah to Be a Prophet

6 In the year that King Uzziah* died,* I saw my Master. He was sitting on a very high and wonderful throne.* His long robe filled the temple.* <sup>2</sup>Seraph angels* stood around the Lord. Each Seraph angel had six wings. The angels used two of their wings to cover their faces. The angels used two of their wings to cover their feet. And the angels used two of their wings for flying. <sup>3</sup>Each angel was calling to the other angels. The angels said, "Holy, holy, holy, the Lord All-Powerful is very holy. The Lord's glory fills the whole earth." The angels' voices were very loud. "Their voices caused the frame around the door to shake. Then the temple* began filling with smoke.*"

<sup>4</sup>I became very scared. I said, "Oh, no! I will be destroyed. I am not pure (good) enough to speak to God. And I live among people that are not pure enough to speak to God.* Yet I have seen the King, the Lord All-Powerful."

<sup>5</sup>There was a fire on the altar.* <sup>6</sup>One of the Seraph angels* used a pair of tongs* to take a hot coal from the fire. The angel flew to me with the hot coal in his hand. <sup>7</sup>The Seraph angel touched my mouth with the hot coal. Then the angel said, "Look! Because this hot coal touched your lips the wrong things you have done are gone from you. Your sins are now erased."

<sup>8</sup>Then I heard my Lord's voice. The Lord said, "Who can I send? Who will go for us?"

So I said, "Here I am. Send me!"

Uzziah A king of Judah. He ruled from about 767-740 B.C.

year ... died This was probably 740 B.C.

throne A special chair a king or queen sits on.

temple A special building for worshipping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

Seraph angels Special angels God used as messengers.

The name might mean they were bright like fire.

smoke This showed that God was in the temple. See Exodus 40:34-35.

people ... God Literally, "people that do not have pure lips."

altar A stone table used for burning sacrifices as gifts to God.

tongs A "U-shaped" tool for holding hot things.

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord said, "Go and tell this to the people: 'Listen closely, but don't understand! Look closely, but don't learn!'" <sup>10</sup>Confuse the people. Make the people not able to understand the things they hear and see. If you don't do this, then people might really understand the things they hear with their ears. The people might really understand in their minds. If they did this, then the people might come back to me and be healed (forgiven!)"

The Lord answered, "Do this until the cities are destroyed, and the people are gone. Do this until there are no people left living in the houses. Do this until the land is destroyed and left empty."

<sup>12</sup>The Lord will make the people go far away. There will be large areas of empty land in the country. <sup>13</sup>But a tenth of the people will be allowed to stay in the land. These people will not be destroyed because they will return to the Lord. These people are like an oak tree. When the tree is chopped down, a stump is left. This stump (the people remaining) is a very special seed.

Trouble with Syria

7 Ahaz* was the son of Jotham.* Jotham was the son of Uzziah.* Rezin* was the king of Syria.* Pekah son of Remaliah* was the king of Israel. During the time Ahaz was king of Judah, Rezin and Pekah went up to Jerusalem to fight against it. But they were not able to defeat the city.

<sup>2</sup>A message was told to the family of David.* The message said, "The army of Syria and the army of Ephraim (Israel) have joined together. The two armies are camped together."

Ahaz A king of Judah. He ruled about 735-727 B.C.

Jotham A king of Judah. He ruled about 740-735 B.C.

Uzziah A king of Judah. He ruled about 767-740 B.C.

Rezin A king of Aram (Syria). He ruled about 740-731 B.C.

Syria Or, "Aram," a country north of Israel.

Pekah ... Remaliah A king of north Israel. He ruled about 740-731 B.C.

family of David The royal family of Judah. God promised that men from David's family would be kings in Judah.

When King Ahaz heard this message, he and the people became very scared. They were shaking with fear like trees of the forest blowing in the wind.

<sup>3</sup>Then the Lord told Isaiah, "You and you son Shear Jashub* should go out and talk to Ahaz. Go to the place where the water flows into the upper pool. This is on the street going to Laundryman's Field.

<sup>4</sup>"Tell Ahaz, 'Be careful, but be calm. Don't be afraid. Don't let those two men, Rezin and Remaliah's son,* scare you! Those men are like two burnt sticks. In the past they were burning hot. But now they are only smoke. Rezin, Syria, and Remaliah's son are angry. <sup>5</sup>They have made plans against you. They said: 'We should go and fight against Judah. We will divide Judah for ourselves. We will make Tabeel's son the new king of Judah.'"

<sup>7</sup>The Lord my Master says, "Their plan will not succeed. It will not happen. <sup>8</sup>It will not happen while Rezin* is the ruler of Damascus.* Ephraim (Israel) is now a nation, but 65 years in the future Ephraim (Israel) will not be a nation. <sup>9</sup>Their plan will not succeed while Samaria is the capital of Ephraim (Israel) and while the ruler of Samaria is Remaliah's son.* If you don't believe this message then people should not believe you."

Immanuel—God Is with Us

<sup>10</sup>Then the Lord continued to speak to Ahaz.* <sup>11</sup>The Lord said, "Ask for a sign to prove to yourself that these things are true. You can ask for any sign you want. The sign can come from a place as deep as Sheol,* or the sign can come from a place as high as the skies.*

<sup>12</sup>But Ahaz said, "I will not ask for a sign as proof. I will not test the Lord."

Shear Jashub This name means "a few people will come back."

Remaliah's son This is Pekah, the king of north Israel. He ruled about 740-731 B.C.

Damascus A city in the country Syria.

The ... Sheol Or, "make your question deep." The Hebrew word for "question" is like the word for Sheol.

the ... skies Literally, "make your question very high."

<sup>13</sup>Then Isaiah said, "Family of David,* listen very carefully! You test the people's patience—and this is not important to you. So, now you test my God's patience. <sup>14</sup>But [God,] my Master, will show you a sign:

Look, a virgin* will become pregnant.

This young woman will have a baby, and she will name the boy Immanuel.*

<sup>15</sup> Immanuel will eat butter and honey.*
[He will live like this,] to learn the way to choose to do good and to refuse to do evil.

<sup>16</sup> But before the child learns what is good and what is evil, the land of Ephraim (Israel) and Syria will be empty.

"You are afraid of those two kings now.

<sup>17</sup>But you should be afraid of the Lord. Why? Because, the Lord will bring some troubled times to you. Those troubles will come to your people and to the people of your father's family. [What will God do?], God will bring the king of Assyria* to fight against you.

<sup>18</sup>"At that time, the Lord will call for the 'Fly.' (The 'Fly' is now near the streams of Egypt.) And the Lord will call for the 'Bee.' (The 'Bee' is now in the country of Assyria.*) These enemies will come to your country. <sup>19</sup>These enemies will camp in the rocky canyons near the desert streams and near the bushes and watering holes. <sup>20</sup>The Lord will use Assyria to punish Judah. Assyria will be hired and used like a razor. It will be like the Lord is shaving the hair from Judah's head and legs. It will be like the Lord is shaving off Judah's beard.*

Family of David The royal family of Judah. God promised that men from David's family would be kings in Judah.

virgin The Hebrew word means "a young woman." Often this meant a girl that was not married and had not yet had sexual relations with anyone.

Immanuel This name means "God is with us."

butter and honey This probably means the food that poor people can also find and eat.

Assyria This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.

shaving ... beard This showed that the people of Judah would be made slaves.

<sup>21</sup>"At that time, a person will be able to keep only one young cow and two sheep alive.

<sup>22</sup>There will be only enough milk for that person to eat butter. Every person in the country will eat butter and honey.* <sup>23</sup>In this land, there are now fields that have 1,000 grapevines. Each grapevine is worth 1,000 pieces of silver. But these fields will become full of weeds and thorns. <sup>24</sup>The land will become wild and useful only as a hunting ground. <sup>25</sup>People once worked and grew food on these hills. But at that time, people will not go there. The land will be filled with weeds and thorns. Only sheep and cattle will go to those places."

Assyria Will Come Soon

8 The Lord told me, "Take a large scroll* to write on. Use a pen* to write these words: 'To Maher Shalal Hash Baz.' (This means 'There will soon be looting and stealing.')"

<sup>1</sup>I gathered some people that could be trusted to be witnesses. (These people were Uriah the priest, Zechariah, and Jereberekiah.) These men watched me writing these things. <sup>2</sup>Then I went to the woman that is a prophet.* After I was with her, she became pregnant and had a son. Then the Lord told me, "Name the boy Maher Shalal Hash Baz. [Why?], Because before the boy learns to say, 'Mama' and 'Daddy,' God will take all the wealth and riches from Damascus* and Samaria,* and God will give those things to the king of Assyria.*"

<sup>3</sup>Again the Lord spoke to me. <sup>4</sup>My Master said, "These people refuse to accept the slow-moving waters of the pool of Shiloah.* These people are happy with Rezin* and scroll This Hebrew word might also mean "a clay or stone tablet."

pen Literally, "stylus of a man." This might be a special pen for writing on clay.

prophet A true prophet was a person called by God to be a special servant. God used dreams and visions to show them things to teach to the people.

Damascus A city in the country Syria.

Samaria The capital city of north Israel.

Shiloah A pool of water in Jerusalem. In the New Testament this pool is called, "Siloam."

Rezin A king of Aram (Syria). He ruled about 740-731 B.C.

Remaliah's son (Pekah). <sup>7</sup>But I, the Lord, will bring the king of Assyria and all his power against you. They will come like a powerful flood of water from the Euphrates River. It will be like water rising up and over the river banks. <sup>8</sup>That water will spill out of that river and flow into Judah. The water will rise to Judah's throat—it will almost drown Judah.

Immanuel, this flood will spread until it covers your whole country.*<sup>9</sup>

The Lord Protects His Servants

- <sup>9</sup> All you nations, prepare for war!
You will be defeated.
Listen, all you faraway countries!
Prepare for battle!
You will be defeated.
- <sup>10</sup> Make your plans for the fight!
Your plans will be defeated.
Give orders to your armies!
Your orders will be useless.
Why? Because God is with us!*

Warnings to Isaiah

<sup>11</sup>The Lord spoke to me with his great power. The Lord warned me not to be like these other people.* The Lord said, <sup>12</sup>"Every person is saying that other people are making plans against him. You should not believe those things. Don't be afraid of the things those people fear. Don't be afraid of those things!"

<sup>13</sup>The Lord All-Powerful is the One you should be afraid of. He is the One you should respect. He is the One you should fear. <sup>14</sup>If you will respect the Lord and consider him holy, then he will be a safe place for you. But you don't respect him. So God is like a rock that you people fall over. He is a rock that makes the two families of Israel stumble. The Lord is a trap to catch all the people of Jerusalem.

Immanuel ... country Literally, "Then the edge of his garment will fill your whole land. God is with us." The name "Immanuel" means "God is with us."

God is with us! In Hebrew, these words are like the name Immanuel.

The Lord spoke ... people Or, "The Lord spoke to me. With his great power he prevented me from living like these other people."

<sup>15</sup>(Many people will fall over this rock. Those people will fall and be broken. They will be trapped and caught.)

I will wait for the Lord to help us.
The Lord is ashamed of the family of Jacob (Israel).
He refuses to look at them.
But I will wait for the Lord.
He will save us.

<sup>18</sup>"My children and I are signs and proofs for the people of Israel. We have been sent by the Lord All-Powerful—the Lord who lives on the Mount Zion.*"

<sup>19</sup>Some people say, "Ask the fortune tellers and wizards what to do." (These fortune tellers and wizards talk like birds and speak quietly to make people think they have smart ideas.) But I tell you that, people should ask their God, for help. Those fortune tellers and wizards ask dead people what to do. Why should living people ask something from the dead?

<sup>20</sup>You should follow the teachings and the agreement.* If you don't follow these commands, then you might follow the wrong commands. (The wrong commands are those commands that come from the wizards and fortune tellers. Those commands are worth nothing; you will gain nothing by following those commands.)

<sup>21</sup>If you follow those wrong commands, then there will be troubles and hunger in the land. People will become hungry. Then they will become angry and say things against their king and his gods.* Then they will look up to God for help. <sup>22</sup>If they look around them at their land, then they will see only trouble and seal This showed that the agreement should not be changed.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.

Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

agreement Usually, this means the agreement God made with Israel through Moses. Here it might mean the agreement of verse 17, above.

his gods Or possibly, "his God."

depressing darkness—the dark sadness of people forced to leave their country. And the people that are trapped in that darkness will not be able to free themselves.

A New Day Is Coming

9 In the past, people thought the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali were not important. But in a later time, God will make that land great: the land near the sea, the land across the Jordan River, and Galilee where the non-Jews live.

<sup>3</sup>God, you will cause the nation to grow. You will make the people happy. And the people will show their happiness to you. It will be like the joy during harvest time. It will be like the joy when people take their share of things they have won in war. <sup>4</sup>Why? Because you will take away the heavy burden. You will take away the heavy pole on the people’s backs. You will take away the rod that the enemy uses to punish your people. This will be like the time you defeated Midian.*

<sup>5</sup>Every boot that marched in battle will be destroyed. Every uniform stained with blood will be destroyed. Those things will be thrown into the fire. <sup>6</sup>This will happen when the special child is born. God will give a son to us. This son will be responsible for leading the people. His name will be “Wonderful Counselor, Powerful God, Father Who Lives Forever, Prince of Peace.” <sup>7</sup>Power and peace will be in his kingdom. It will continue to grow for this king from David’s family. This king will use goodness and fair judgment to rule the kingdom forever and ever.

The Lord All-Powerful has a strong love* for his people. And this strong love will cause him to do these things.

This ... Midian See Numbers 22:1ff.
strong love This Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.

God Will Punish Israel

<sup>8</sup>My Lord gave a command against the people of Jacob (Israel). That command against Israel will be obeyed. <sup>9</sup>Then every person in Ephraim (Israel), even the leaders in Samaria, will know that God punished them.

Those people are very proud and boastful now. Those people say, <sup>10</sup>“These bricks might fall, but we will build again. And we will build with strong stone. These small trees might be chopped down. But we will put new trees there. And the new trees will be large, strong trees.”

<sup>11</sup>So the Lord will find people to fight against Israel. The Lord will bring Rezin’s* enemies against them. <sup>12</sup>The Lord will bring the Syrians from the east and the Philistines from the west. Those enemies will defeat Israel with their armies. But the Lord will still be angry with Israel. The Lord will still be ready to punish the people.

<sup>13</sup>God will punish the people, but they will not stop sinning. They will not return to him. They will not follow the Lord All-Powerful. <sup>14</sup>So the Lord will cut off Israel’s head and tail. The Lord will take away the branch and the stalk in one day. <sup>15</sup>(The head means the elders* and important leaders. The tail means the prophets that speak lies.)

<sup>16</sup>The men that lead the people are leading them the wrong way. And the people that follow them will be destroyed. <sup>17</sup>All the people are evil. So the Lord is not happy with the young men. And the Lord will not show mercy to their widows and orphans.* Why? Because all the people are evil. The people do things that are against God. The people speak lies. So God will continue to be angry with the people. God will continue to punish the people.

<sup>18</sup>Evil is like a small fire. First, the fire burns weeds and thorns. Next, the fire burns the larger bushes in the forest. And finally, it becomes a great fire—and everything goes up in smoke.

Rezin A king of Aram (Syria). He ruled about 740-731 B.C.
elders Older men that were city leaders; they helped make decisions for the people.

widows and orphans Widows are women whose husbands have died, and orphans are children whose parents have died. Often these people have no one to care for them.

<sup>19</sup>The Lord All-Powerful is angry, so the land will be burned. All the people will be burned in that fire. No person will try to save his brother. <sup>20</sup>People will grab something on the right, but they will still be hungry. They will eat something on the left, but they will not be filled. Then each person will turn and eat his own body. <sup>21</sup>(This means, Manasseh will fight against Ephraim, and Ephraim will fight against Manasseh. And then both of them will turn against Judah.)

The Lord is still angry against Israel. The Lord is still ready to punish his people.

10 Look at the lawmakers that write evil laws. Those lawmakers write laws that make life hard for people. <sup>2</sup>Those lawmakers are not fair to the poor people. They take away the poor people's rights. They allow people to steal from widows and orphans.*

<sup>3</sup>Lawmakers, you will have to explain the things you have done. What will you do at that time? Your destruction is coming from a faraway country. Where will you run for help? Your money and your riches will not help you. <sup>4</sup>You will have to bow down like a prisoner. You will fall down like a dead person. But that will not help you! God will still be angry. God will still be ready to punish you.

<sup>5</sup>God will say, "I will use Assyria* like a stick. In anger, I will use Assyria to punish Israel. <sup>6</sup>I will send Assyria to fight against the people that do evil things. I am angry at those people, and I will command Assyria to fight against them. Assyria will defeat them and Assyria will take their wealth from them. Israel will become like dirt for Assyria to trample (walk on) in the streets.

<sup>7</sup>But Assyria* does not understand that I will use him. Assyria does not think that he is a tool for me. Assyria only wants to destroy other people. Assyria only plans to destroy many nations. <sup>8</sup>Assyria says to himself, 'All of my leaders are like kings! <sup>9</sup>The city Calno is like the city Carchemish. And the city Arpad is like the city Hamath. The city Samaria is like the city Damascus. <sup>10</sup>I defeated those evil kingdoms and now I control them. The idols* those people worship are better than the idols of Jerusalem and Samaria. <sup>11</sup>I defeated Samaria and her idols. I will also defeat Jerusalem and the idols her people have made.'"

<sup>12</sup>My Master will finish doing the things he planned to Jerusalem and Mount Zion.* Then the Lord will punish Assyria.* The king of Assyria is very proud. His pride made him do many bad things. So God will punish him.

<sup>13</sup>The king of Assyria says, "I am very wise. By my own wisdom and power I have done many great things. I have defeated many nations. I have taken their wealth. And I have taken their people to be slaves. I am a very powerful man. <sup>14</sup>With my own hands I have taken the riches of all these people—like a person taking eggs from a bird's nest. A bird often leaves its nest and eggs. And there is nothing to protect the nest. There is no bird to chirp and fight with its wings and beak. So people take the eggs. In the same way, there was no person to stop me from taking all the people on earth."

God Controls Assyria's Power

<sup>15</sup>An axe is not better than the person that cuts with it. A saw is not better than the person that saws with it. But Assyria thinks he is more important and powerful than God. And this is like a stick being more powerful and important than the person that picks it up and uses it to punish someone.

<sup>16</sup>Assyria thinks he is great. But the Lord All-Powerful will send a terrible disease against Assyria. Assyria will lose his wealth and power like a sick man loses weight. Then Assyria's glory will be destroyed. It will be like a fire burning until everything is gone. <sup>17</sup>Israel's Light (God) will be like a fire. The Holy One will be like a flame. He will be like a fire that first burns the weeds and thorns. <sup>18</sup>Then the fire widows and orphans Widows are women whose husbands have died, and orphans are children whose parents have died. Often these people have no one to care for them.

Assyria This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

grows and burns away the great trees and vineyards.* Finally, everything is destroyed—even the people. It will be like that when God destroys Assyria. Assyria will be like a rotting log.<sup>19</sup> There might be a few trees left standing in the forest. But even a child will be able to count them.

<sup>20</sup>At that time, the people that are left living in Israel, the people from the Jacob's family, will not continue to depend on the person that beats them. They will learn to truly depend on the Lord, the Holy One of Israel. <sup>21</sup>The people that are left in Jacob's family will again follow the powerful God.

<sup>22</sup>Your people are very many. They are like the sands of the sea. But only a few of the people will be left to come back to the Lord. Those people will return to God, but first, your country will be destroyed. God has announced that he will destroy the land. And then goodness will come into the land; it will be like a river flowing full. <sup>23</sup>My Master, the Lord All-Powerful, will surely destroy this land.

<sup>24</sup>My Master, the Lord All-Powerful, says, "My people living in Zion,* don't be afraid of Assyria! He will beat you like Egypt beat you in the past. It will be like Assyria is using a stick to hurt you. <sup>25</sup>But after a short time my anger will stop. I will be satisfied that Assyria has punished you enough."

<sup>26</sup>Then the Lord All-Powerful will beat Assyria with a whip. In the past, the Lord defeated Midian at Raven Rock.* It will be the same when the Lord attacks Assyria. In the past, the Lord punished Egypt—he lifted the stick over the sea,* and led his people from Egypt. It will be the same when the Lord saves his people from Assyria.

<sup>27</sup>Assyria* will bring troubles to you—those troubles will be like weights you have to carry on, a pole across your shoulder. But, that pole will be taken off your neck. That pole will be broken by your strength (God).

vineyards Gardens for growing grapes.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.

Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Assyria This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.

Midian at Raven Rock See Num. 22:1ff.

he lifted the stick ... sea See Ex. 14:1-15:21.

The Army of Assyria Invades Israel

<sup>28</sup>* The army will enter near the "Ruins" (Aiath). The army will walk on the "Threshing Floor" (Migron). The army will keep its food in the "Storehouse" (Micmash). <sup>29</sup>The army will cross the river at the "Crossing" (Maabarah). The army will sleep at Geba.* Ramah* will be afraid. The people at Gibeah of Saul* will run away.

<sup>33</sup>Watch! Our Master, the Lord All-Powerful, will chop down the great tree (Assyria). The Lord will do this with his great power. The great and important people will be cut down—they will become not important. <sup>34</sup>The Lord will cut down the forest with his axe. And the great trees in Lebanon* (important people) will fall.

The King of Peace Is Coming

11 A small tree (child) will begin to grow from the stump (family) of Jesse.* That branch will grow from Jesse's roots. <sup>2</sup>The Lord's Spirit will be in that child. The Spirit gives wisdom, understanding, guidance, and power. And the Spirit will help this child, know and respect the Lord. <sup>3</sup>This child will respect the Lord, and this will make the child happy.

This child will not judge people by the way things look. He will not judge by the things he

Verses 28-32 Isaiah uses word games to show how the Assyrian army would come and fight against Judah.

Geba, Ramah, Gibeah of Saul Towns north of Jerusalem.

Bath Gallim Gallim, a city south of Jerusalem. This name means "daughter of the waves," and might also mean "seagull." These birds make very loud noises.

Gebim An unknown city. This name is like the Hebrew word for "pit" or "cistern," a hole in the ground for storing water.

Lebanon A country north of Israel. It was famous for its great cedar and pine trees.

Jesse King David's father.

hears. <sup>45</sup>He will judge the poor people fairly and honestly. He will be fair when he decides the things to do to the poor people of the land. If he decides people should be beaten, then he will give the command, and those people will be beaten. If he decides people must die, then he will give the command, and those evil people will be killed. Goodness and fairness will give this child strength. They will be like a belt he wears around his waist.

<sup>6</sup>At that time, wolves will live in peace with lambs. And tigers will lie down in peace with young goats. Calves, lions, and bulls will live together in peace. A little child will lead them. <sup>7</sup>Cows and bears will live together in peace. All of their children will lie down together and will not hurt each other. Lions will eat hay like cows. Even snakes will not hurt people. <sup>8</sup>A baby will be able to play near a cobra's* home. A baby will be able to put his hand into the home of a poisonous snake.

<sup>9</sup>All these things show that there will be peace,—no person will hurt any other person. People on my holy mountain will not want to destroy things. Why? Because people will truly know the Lord. They will be full of knowledge about him, like the sea is full of water.

<sup>10</sup>At that time, there will be a special person from Jesse's* family. This person will be like a flag. This “flag” will show all the nations that they should come together around him. The nations will ask him the things they should do. And the place where he is will be filled with glory.

<sup>11</sup>At that time, my Master (God) will again reach out and take his people that are left. This will be the second time God has done this. (These are God's people that are left in countries like Assyria, North Egypt, South Egypt, Ethiopia, Elam, Babylonia, Hamath, and all the faraway countries around the world.)

<sup>12</sup>God will raise this “flag” as a sign for all people. The people of Israel and Judah were forced to leave their country. The people were scattered to all the faraway places on earth. But God will gather them together.

cobra A very poisonous snake.
Jesse King David's father.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord became angry and divided the sea of Egypt. In the same way, the Lord will wave his arm over the Euphrates River. He will hit the river, and the river will divide into seven small rivers. The small rivers will not be deep—people will be able to walk across those rivers with their shoes on. <sup>16</sup>God's people that are left will have a way to leave Assyria. It will be like the time God took the people out of Egypt.

A Song of Praise to God

12 At that time, you will say:
“I praise you Lord!

You have been angry at me.

But don't be angry with me now!

Show your love to me.”

<sup>2</sup> God saves me.

I trust him.

I am not afraid.

He saves me.

The Lord Yah is my strength.

He saves me.

And I sing songs of praise about him.*

<sup>3</sup> Get your water from the spring of salvation.

Then you will be happy.

<sup>4</sup> Then you will say,

Philistines People living on the coast of Palestine. They were one of Israel's enemies.

Edom, Moab Two countries east of Israel. They were Israel's enemies for many, many years.

Ammon A country east of Israel.

The ... him Literally, “Yah, Yahweh is my strength and praise. And he becomes my salvation.” This comes from the victory song of Moses. (Exodus 15:2.)

“Praise the Lord!
Worship his name!
Tell all people about the things he has
done!”

<sup>5</sup> Sing songs of praise about the Lord!
Why? Because he has done great things!
Spread this news about God through the whole world.
Let all people know these things.

<sup>6</sup> People of Zion,* shout about these things!
The Holy One of Israel is with you in a powerful way.
So, be happy!

God's Message to Babylon

13 God showed Isaiah son of Amoz this sad message about Babylon. <sup>2</sup>God said:↓

“Raise a flag on the mountain with nothing on it.*
Call out to the men, soldiers!↓
Wave your arms!
Tell those men to enter through the gates for important people!”

“I have separated those men from the
people.
And I myself will command them.
I am angry.
I have gathered my best men to punish the people.
I am proud of these happy men!

<sup>4</sup> “There is a loud noise in the mountains.
Listen to the noise!
It sounds like many, many people.
People from many kingdoms are gathering together.
The Lord All-Powerful is calling his army together.

<sup>5</sup> The Lord and this army are coming from a faraway land.

They are coming from beyond the horizon.
The Lord will use this army like a weapon to show his anger.
This army will destroy the whole country.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord's special day is near. So cry and be sad for yourselves. A time is coming when the enemy will steal your wealth. God
All-Powerful will make that happen.* <sup>7</sup>People will lose their courage. Fear will make the people weak. <sup>8</sup>Every person will be afraid.
Their fear will cause their stomachs to hurt like a woman giving birth to a baby. Their faces will become red like fire. The people will be amazed because this look of fear will be on all their neighbors' faces.

God's Judgment Against Babylon

<sup>9</sup>Look, the Lord's special day is coming! It will be a terrible day. God will become very angry, and he will destroy the country. God will force all people that sin to leave the country. <sup>10</sup>The skies will be dark. The sun, the moon, and the stars will not shine.

<sup>11</sup>God says,↓ “I will cause bad things to happen to the world. I will punish the evil people for their sin. I will cause the proud people to lose their pride. I will stop the bragging of the people that are mean to others.
<sup>12</sup>There will be only a few people left. There will not be many, the same as gold is hard to find. And these people will be worth much more than pure gold. <sup>13</sup>With my anger, I will make the sky shake. And the earth will be moved from its place.”

That will happen on the day the Lord
All-Powerful shows his anger. <sup>14</sup>Then the people from Babylon will run away, like wounded deer. They will run like sheep that have no shepherd. Every person will turn and run back to his own country and people. <sup>15</sup>But the enemy will chase the people of Babylon.
And when the enemy,↓ catches a person, the

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
mountain ... it This probably means Babylon.

A time ... happen This is a word play in Hebrew. The word meaning “stealing things in war” is like the word meaning “God All-Powerful.”

enemy will kill that person with a sword. <sup>16</sup>Everything in their houses will be stolen. Their wives will be raped. And their little children will be beaten to death while the people are watching.

<sup>17</sup>God says, “Look, I will cause the armies of Media to attack Babylon. The armies of Media will not stop attacking, even if they are paid silver and gold. <sup>18</sup>The soldiers will attack and kill the young men of Babylon. The soldiers will not show mercy to the children. The soldiers will not be kind to the little boys. Babylon will be destroyed—it will be like the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah. * God will cause this destruction, and there will be nothing left.

<sup>19</sup>“Babylon is the most beautiful of all kingdoms. The Babylonian* people are very proud of their city. <sup>20</sup>But Babylon will not continue to be beautiful. People will not continue to live there in the future. Arabs will not put their tents there. Shepherds will not bring their sheep to let them eat there. <sup>21</sup>The only animals living there will be wild animals from the desert. People will not be living in their houses in Babylon. The houses will be full of owls and large birds. Wild goats* will play in the houses. <sup>22</sup>Wild dogs and wolves will howl in the great and beautiful buildings of Babylon. Babylon will be finished. The end of Babylon is near. I will not let Babylon’s destruction wait until later.”

Israel Will Return Home

14 In the future, the Lord will again show his love to Jacob. The Lord will again choose the people of Israel. At that time, the Lord will give those people their land. Then non-Jewish people* will join themselves to the Jewish people. Both people

Sodom and Gomorrah Two cities that God destroyed because the people were so evil.

Babylonian Literally, “Chaldean.”

Wild goats The Hebrew word means “hairy,” “goat,” or “goat-demon.”

non-Jewish people Usually this means “People that live in a country, but are not yet citizens of that country.” Here it is the non-Jewish people that decided to follow God.

will join and become one family—Jacob’s family. <sup>2</sup>Those nations will take the people of Israel back to Israel’s land. Those men and women from the other nations will become slaves to Israel. In the past, those people forced the people of Israel to become their slaves. But at this time, the people of Israel will defeat those nations and Israel will then rule over them. <sup>3</sup>The Lord will take away your hard work, and he will comfort you. In the past, you were slaves. Men forced you to do very hard work. But the Lord will end this hard work for you.

A Song About the King of Babylon

“At that time, you will begin to sing this song about the king of Babylon:

The king was mean when he ruled us.
But now his rule is finished.

That evil ruler did not stop beating people.

That evil ruler ruled the people in anger.
He never stopped doing bad things to the people.

<sup>7</sup> But now, the whole country rests.
The country is quiet.

Now the people begin to celebrate.

<sup>8</sup> You were an evil king, and now you are finished.
Even the pine trees are happy.

And the cedar trees of Lebanon are happy.

The trees say,

“The king chopped us down.

But now the king has fallen.

And he will never stand again.”

<sup>9</sup> Sheol,* the place of death, is excited because you are coming.

scepter A special stick. Kings and leaders carried scepters to show they were rulers.

Sheol This is the place where all people go when they die. Usually this means the grave, but it can mean the place where our spirits go.

Sheol is waking the spirits of all the leaders of the earth for you.

Sheol is making the kings stand from their thrones.*

They will be ready for your coming.

10 All these leaders will make fun of you.

They will say,

“Now you are a dead body like us.

Now you are just like us.”

11 Your pride has been sent down to Sheol.*

The music from your harps* announces the coming of your proud spirit.

Maggots (flies) will eat your body.

You will lie on them like a bed.

And worms will cover your body like a blanket.

12 You were like the morning star,
but you have fallen from the sky.

In the past, all the nations on earth bowed down before you,

but now you have been cut down.

13 You always told yourself,

“I will be like God Most-High.”

I will go to the skies above.

I will put my throne above God’s stars.

I will sit on the holy mountain,
Zaphon.*

I will meet with the gods, on that hidden mountain.

14 I will go up to the altar in the clouds.

I will be like God Most-High.”

15 But that did not happen.

You did not go to the sky with God.

You were brought down to the deep pit—Sheol.*

16 The people look at you and think about
you.

“The people see that you are only a dead body,”

and the people say;

“Is this the same man that caused great fear

in all the kingdoms on earth?

17 Is this the same man that destroyed cities?

Is this the same man that changed the land into a desert?

Is this the same man that captured people in war and would not let those people go home?”

18 Every king on earth has died with glory.
Every king has his own grave.

19 But you, evil king, have been thrown from your grave.

You are like a branch cut from a tree.

That branch is cut and thrown away.

You are like a dead man that fell during
battle,

and other soldiers walked on him.

Now, you look like any other dead
person.

You are wrapped in burial clothes.

20 Many other kings have died.

And they all have their own graves.

But you will not join them.

Why? Because you ruined your own country.

You killed your own people.

Your children will not continue to destroy like you did.

Your children will be stopped.

21 Prepare to kill his children.

Kill them because their father is guilty.

His children will never again take control of the land.

His children will never again fill the world with their cities.

thrones Special chairs kings or queens sit on.

Sheol This is the place where all people go when they die.

Usually this means the grave, but it can mean the place where our spirits go.

harps Musical instruments with several strings.

holy mountain Zaphon Literally, “Zaphon.” This Hebrew word means “north” or “hidden.” But here it means a special mountain where many people believed their gods met together.

<sup>22</sup>The Lord All-Powerful said, “I will stand and fight against those people. I will destroy the famous city, Babylon. I will destroy all the people of Babylon. I will destroy their children, their grandchildren, and their great-grandchildren." The Lord himself said those things.

<sup>20</sup>The Lord said, "I will change Babylon. That place will be for animals,* not people. That place will be a swamp. I will use the 'broom of destruction' to sweep Babylon away." The Lord All-Powerful said those things.

God Will also Punish Assyria

<sup>21</sup>The Lord All-Powerful has made a promise. The Lord said, "I promise, these things will happen exactly like I thought. These things will happen exactly the way I planned. <sup>22</sup>I will destroy the king of Assyria in my country. I will trample (walk on) that king on my mountains. That king made my people be his slaves; he put a yoke* on their necks. That pole will be taken off Judah's neck. That burden will be removed. <sup>23</sup>That is the thing I plan to do for my people. And I will use my arm (power) to punish all nations."

<sup>24</sup>When the Lord makes a plan, no person can stop that plan. When the Lord raises his arm to punish people, no person can stop him.

God's Message to Philistia

<sup>2</sup>Country of Philistia, you are very happy because the king that beat you is now dead. But you should not be really happy. It is true that his rule has ended. But the king's son will come and rule. And it will be like one snake giving birth to a more dangerous snake. This new king will be like a very quick and dangerous snake to you. <sup>3</sup>But my poor people will be able to eat safely. Their children will be safe. My poor people will be able to lie down and feel safe. But I will kill your family with hunger. And all your people that are left will die.

<sup>31</sup> You people near the city gates, cry!
You people in the city, cry out!
All of you people in Philistia will be frightened.
Your courage will melt like hot wax.

Look to the north!

There is a cloud of dust!

„An army from Assyria* is coming!„

All the men in that army are strong!*

<sup>32</sup> „That army will send messengers to their country.„

What will those messengers tell their people?

They will announce:

„Philistia was defeated.„

but the Lord made Zion* strong.

And his poor people went there for safety.

God's Message to Moab

15 This is a sad message about Moab:*

One night, armies took the wealth from Ar, Moab.

That night, the city was destroyed.

One night, armies took the wealth from Kir, Moab.

That night, the city was destroyed.

<sup>2</sup> The king's, family and the people of Dibon*

are going to the high places of worship* to cry.

The people of Moab are crying for Nebo* and Medeba.*

All the people have shaved their heads and beards to show they are sad.„

Assyria This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.

All ... strong Literally, "There are no stragglers in that group."

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.

Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Moab A country east of Israel.

Dibon A city in the country Moab. This name is like a Hebrew word meaning "to be very sad."

high ... worship Places for worshiping God or false gods.

These places were usually on the hills and mountains.

Nebo A city in the country Moab. This is also the name of a false god.

Medeba A city in the country Moab. This name is like a Hebrew word meaning "to be very sad."

- <sup>3</sup> Everywhere in Moab, on the housetops and in the streets,
people are wearing black clothes,
people are crying.
- <sup>4</sup> People in the cities Heshbon and El Aleh are crying very loudly.
You can hear their voices far away in the city Jahaz.
Even the soldiers are scared.
The soldiers are shaking from fear.
- <sup>5</sup> My heart cries with sorrow for Moab.
People are running for safety.
They run far away to Zoar.
They run to Eglath Shelishiyah.
People are going up the mountain road to Luhith.
And the people are crying.
People are going on the road to Horonaim.
And the people are crying very loudly.
<sup>6</sup> But Nimrim Brook is dry like a desert.
All the plants are dead.
Nothing is green.
- <sup>7</sup> So the people gather the things they own,
and they leave Moab.
They carry those things,
and cross the border, at Poplar Creek.*
- <sup>8</sup> Crying can be heard everywhere in Moab.
The people far away in the city Eglaim are crying.
The people in the city Beer Elim* are crying.
- <sup>9</sup> The water of the city Dimon* is full of blood.
And I (the Lord) will bring even more troubles to Dimon.
A few people living in Moab have escaped the enemy.
But I will send lions to eat those people.

16 You people should send a gift to the king of the land. You should send a lamb from Sela, through the desert, to the mountain of the Daughter of Zion*

(Jerusalem).

- <sup>2</sup> The women of Moab* try to cross the river Arnon.
They run from one place to another looking for help.
They are like little birds lost on the
ground
after their nest has fallen.
- <sup>3</sup> They say, “Help us!
Tell us what to do!
Protect us from our enemies,
like shade protects us from the noon sun.
We are running from our enemies.
Hide us!
Don’t give us to our enemies.”
- <sup>4</sup> Those people from Moab were forced to leave their homes.
So let them live in your land.
Hide them from their enemies.
The looting will stop.
The enemy will be defeated.
The men that hurt others will be gone from the land.
- <sup>5</sup> Then a new king will come.
This king will be from David’s family.*
He will be sincere.
He will be loving and kind.
This king will judge fairly.
He will do things that are right and
good.

<sup>6</sup>We have heard that the people of Moab* are very proud and conceited. These people are violent and they boast. But the boasts are only empty words.

<sup>7</sup>The whole country of Moab will suffer because of that pride. All the people of Moab will cry. The people will be sad—they will want the things they had in the past. They will want

Poplar Creek A small stream in the country Moab, also called “Arabah Stream.”

Beer Elim A city in the country Moab.

Dimon This is probably the city Dibun. Dimon is like the Hebrew word meaning “blood.”

Daughter of Zion Another name for Jerusalem.

Moab A country east of Israel.

David’s family The royal family of Judah. God promised that men from David’s family would be kings in Judah.

the fig-cakes made in Kir Hareseth.* <sup>8</sup>The people will be sad, because the fields of Heshbon and the vines of Sibmah are not able to grow grapes. Foreign rulers have cut down the grapevines. The enemy armies have spread far to the city of Jazer and into the desert. And they have spread down to the sea.*

A Sad Song about Moab

- <sup>9</sup> "I will cry with the people of Jazer and Sibmah because the grapes have been destroyed. I will cry with the people of Heshbon and El Aleh because there will be no harvest. There will be no summer fruit. And there will be no shouts of joy.
- <sup>10</sup> There will be no joy and singing in Carmel.* I will stop all the happiness at harvest time. The grapes are ready to become wine. But they will all be wasted.
- <sup>11</sup> So, I am very sad for Moab. I am very sad for Kir Heres.* I am very, very sad for these cities.
- <sup>12</sup> The people of Moab will go to their high places of worship.* The people will try to pray. But they will see all the things that have happened, and they will be too weak to pray."

<sup>13</sup>The Lord said these things about Moab many times. <sup>14</sup>And now the Lord says, "In three years (the way a hired helper counts time) all those people and the things they are proud of will be gone. There will be a few people left, but there will not be many."

Kir Hareseth A city in the country Moab.

Foreign ... sea Or, "These grapes made many foreign rulers drunk. The vines spread far to the city Jazer and into the desert. The vines have spread down to the sea."

Carmel A hill in north Israel very good for growing plants. This name means "God's vineyard."

Kir Heres This is Kir Hareseth, a city in the country of Moab. Kir Heres means "a city chosen to be destroyed."

high ... worship Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were usually on the hills and mountains.

God's Message to Syria

17 This is the sad message for Damascus.* The Lord says these things will happen to Damascus:

- "Damascus is now a city. But Damascus will be destroyed. Only destroyed buildings will be left in Damascus.
- <sup>2</sup> People will leave the cities of Aroer.* Flocks of sheep will wander freely in those empty towns; There will be no person to bother them.
- <sup>3</sup> The fort cities of Ephraim (Israel) will be destroyed. The government in Damascus will be finished. The same thing that happens to Israel, will happen to Syria:* All the important people will be taken away."

The Lord All-Powerful said those things will happen.

- <sup>4</sup> At that time, Jacob's (Israel's) wealth will all be gone. Jacob will be like a man that has lost much weight from sickness.

<sup>5</sup>That time will be like grain harvest in Rephaim Valley.* The workers gather plants that grow in the field. Then they cut the heads of grain from the plants. And they collect the grain.

<sup>6</sup>That time will also be like the time people harvest olives. People knock olives from olive trees. But a few olives are usually left at the top of the tree. Four or five olives are left on some of the top branches. It will be the same for those cities. The Lord All-Powerful said those things.

<sup>7</sup>At that time, people will look up to <sup>1</sup>God<sup>J</sup>, the One who made them. Their eyes will see

Damascus A city in the country Syria.

Aroer A place in the country Syria.

Syria Or, "Aram," a country north of Israel.

Rephaim Valley A valley southwest of Jerusalem.

the Holy One of Israel. <sup>8</sup>The people will not trust the great things they have made. They will not go to the special gardens* and altars* ,they made for false gods,.

<sup>9</sup>At that time, all the fort cities will be empty. Those cities will be like the mountains and the forests* in the land before the people of Israel came. [In the past,] all the people ran away because the people of Israel were coming. [In the future,] the country will be empty again. <sup>10</sup>This will happen because you have forgotten the God who saves you. You have not remembered that God is your place of safety.

You brought some very good grapevines from faraway places. You can plant those grapevines, but those plants will not grow. <sup>11</sup>You will plant your grapevines one day and try to make them grow. The next day the plants will begin to grow. But at harvest time, you will go to gather the fruit from the plants, and you will see that everything is dead. A sickness will kill all the plants.

They are crying loud like the noise from the sea.

Listen to the noise!

The crying is like the crashing and crashing of waves in the sea,

<sup>13</sup> [And the people will be like those waves—]

God will speak harshly to the people, and they will run away.

The people will be like chaff* being chased by the wind.

The people will be like tumbleweeds* being chased by a storm.

The wind blows and the weeds go far

special gardens People worshiped false gods in these gardens.

altars These might be altars for burning incense or they might be altars for worshipping a special false god.

mountains ... forests This might mean "The Horite and Amorite people."

chaff The seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers saved the seeds and let the wind blow the useless chaff away.

tumbleweeds A small plant with short roots. When a strong wind blows, the plant is pulled loose and blown away.

<sup>14</sup> That night, the people will be very frightened.

Before morning, nothing will be left. So our enemies will get nothing.

They will come to our land, but nothing will be there.

God's Message to Ethiopia

18 Look at the land along the rivers of Ethiopia.* [The land is filled with insects; you can hear,] their buzzing wings. <sup>2</sup>That land sends people across the sea in reed boats.*

Fast messengers, go to the people that are tall and strong! (People in all places are afraid of these tall and strong people. They are a powerful nation. Their nation defeats other nations. They are in a country divided by rivers.) <sup>3</sup>Warn those people that something bad will happen to them. All the people in the world will see this thing happen to that nation. People will see this thing clearly like a flag raised on a mountain. All the people living on earth will hear about the thing that happens to these tall people. They will hear it clearly like the noise from a horn before a battle.

"The Lord said, "I will be in the place prepared for me.* I will quietly watch these things happen: <sup>5</sup>On a beautiful summer day, at noon, people will be resting. (It will be during the hot harvest time when there is no rain, but only early morning dew.) Then something terrible will happen. The time will be after the flowers have bloomed. The new grapes will be budding and growing. But before harvest, the enemy will come and cut the plants. The enemy will break the vines and throw them away. <sup>6</sup>The vines will be left for the birds from the mountains and the wild animals to eat. Birds will live on the vines during the summer. And that winter, wild animals will eat the vines."

Ethiopia Also called Cush, a country in Africa, by the Red Sea.

reed boats These boats were made by tying many, many reeds (a type of water plant) together.

the ... me Probably the temple in Jerusalem.

<sup>1</sup>At that time, a special offering will be brought to the Lord All-Powerful. The offering will come from the people that are tall and strong. (People in all places are afraid of these tall and strong people. They are a powerful nation. Their nation defeats other nations. They are in a country divided by rivers.) This offering will be brought to the Lord's place, Mount Zion.*

God's Message to Egypt

19 The sad message about Egypt: Look! The Lord is coming on a fast cloud. The Lord will enter Egypt, and all the false gods of Egypt will shake, with fear. Egypt was brave, but that courage will melt away like hot wax.

<sup>2</sup>God says, "I will cause the people of Egypt to fight against themselves. Men will fight their brothers. Neighbors will be against neighbors. Cities will be against cities. States will be against states.* <sup>3</sup>The people of Egypt will be confused. The people will ask their false gods and wise men what they should do. The people will ask their wizards and magicians. But their advice will be worthless."

<sup>4</sup>The Master, the Lord All-Powerful, says, "I (God) will give Egypt to a hard master. A powerful king will rule over the people. <sup>5</sup>The Nile River will become dry. The water will be gone from the sea. <sup>6</sup>All the rivers will smell very bad.* The canals in Egypt will become dry and the water will be gone. All the water plants will rot. <sup>7</sup>All the plants along the river banks will die and blow away. Even the plants at the widest part of the river will be dead.

<sup>8</sup>"The fishermen, all the people that catch fish from the Nile River, will become sad and they will cry. They depend on the Nile River for their food, but it will be dry. <sup>9</sup>All the people that make cloth will be very, very sad. These people need flax* to make linen.* But the river will be dry, and these plants will not grow. <sup>10</sup>The people that make dams to save water will have no work, so they will be sad.

<sup>11</sup>"The leaders of the city Zoan are fools. Pharaoh's 'wise advisers' give wrong advice. Those leaders say they are wise. They say they are from the old family of the kings. But they are not wise like they think."

<sup>12</sup>Egypt, where are your wise men? Those wise men should learn what the Lord All-Powerful has planned for Egypt. They should be the people to tell you what will happen.

<sup>13</sup>The leaders of Zoan have been fooled. The leaders of Noph have believed false things. So the leaders lead Egypt the wrong way. <sup>14</sup>The Lord made the leaders confused. They wander and lead Egypt in the wrong ways. Everything the leaders do is wrong. They are like drunk people rolling with sickness on the ground. <sup>15</sup>There is nothing the leaders can do. (These leaders are "the heads and the tails.") They are "the tops and the stalks of plants.")*

<sup>16</sup>At that time, the Egyptians will be like scared women. They will be afraid of the Lord All-Powerful. The Lord will raise his arm to punish the people, and they will be afraid. <sup>17</sup>The land of Judah will be a place for all the people in Egypt to fear. Any person in Egypt that hears the name Judah will be scared. This will happen because the Lord All-Powerful has planned terrible things to happen to Egypt. <sup>18</sup>At that time, there will be five cities in Egypt where people speak the language of Canaan (the Jewish language). One of these cities will be named "Destruction City."*

The people will promise to follow the Lord All-Powerful. <sup>19</sup>At that time, there will be an altar* for the Lord in the middle of Egypt. At the border of Egypt there will be a monument to show honor to the Lord. <sup>20</sup>This will be a sign

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
States ... states Literally, kingdom will be against kingdom. This means Egyptians will fight other Egyptians.
smell very bad This Hebrew word is like a name for the Nile River.

flax A plant used to make linen.

linen A type of cloth.

the ... plants See Isaiah 9:14-15.

Destruction City This name is like a name meaning "Sun City." This is probably the city On (Heliopolis).

altar A stone table used for burning sacrifices as gifts to God.

to show that the Lord All-Powerful does powerful things. Any time the people cry for help from the Lord, the Lord will send help. The Lord will send a person to save and defend the people. That person will rescue the people from other people that do wrong things to them.

<sup>2</sup>At that time, the people in Egypt will truly know the Lord. The people of Egypt will love God. The people will serve God and give many sacrifices.* They will make promises* to the Lord. And they will keep those promises.

<sup>2</sup>The Lord will punish the people of Egypt. And then the Lord will heal (forgive) them, and they will come back to the Lord. The Lord will listen to their prayers and heal (forgive) them.

<sup>2</sup>At that time, there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria.* Then people from Assyria will go to Egypt, and people from Egypt will go to Assyria. Egypt will work with Assyria.*

<sup>2</sup>At that time, Israel, Assyria, and Egypt will join together and control the land. This will be a blessing for the land. <sup>2</sup>The Lord All-Powerful will bless these countries. He will say, "Egypt, you are my people. Assyria, I made you. Israel, I own you. You are all blessed!"

Assyria Will Defeat Egypt and Ethiopia

20 Sargon* was the king of Assyria.* Sargon sent Tarton* to Ashdod to fight against that city. Tarton went there and captured the city. <sup>2</sup>At that time, the Lord spoke through Isaiah son of Amoz. The Lord said, "Go, take the cloth of sadness off your waist. Take your shoes off your feet." Isaiah obeyed the Lord. And Isaiah walked around without clothes and without shoes.

Ethiopia. <sup>4</sup>The king of Assyria will defeat Egypt and Ethiopia. Assyria will take prisoners and lead them away from their countries. The old people and young people will be led without clothes and without shoes. They will be completely naked. The people from Egypt will be shamed. <sup>3</sup>People looked to Ethiopia for help. Those people will be broken. People were amazed by Egypt's glory. Those people will be shamed."

<sup>4</sup>Those people living near the sea will say, "We trusted those countries to help us. We ran to them so they would rescue us from the king of Assyria. But look at them. Those countries have been captured, so how will we be able to escape?"

God's Message to Babylon

21 The sad message about the Desert of the Sea:*

Something is coming from the desert.

It is coming like wind blowing from the Negev.*

It is coming from a terrible country.

<sup>2</sup> I have seen something very terrible that will happen.

I see traitors* turning against you.

I see people taking your wealth.

Elam, go and fight against the people!

Media, put your armies around the city and defeat it!

I will end all the evil things in that city.

<sup>3</sup>I saw those terrible things, and now I am scared. My stomach hurts because of my fear. That pain is like the pain of giving birth. The things I hear make me very afraid. The things I see make me shake with fear. <sup>4</sup>I am worried and I am shaking from fear. My pleasant evening has become a night of fear.

promises A special kind of promise to God. See Leviticus 22:18ff.

Assyria This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.

Egypt ... Assyria Or, Egypt will worship with Assyria.

Sargon A king of Assyria. He was king about 721-705 B.C.

Tarton An Assyrian military commander.

Desert ... Sea Probably Babylon.

Negev The desert area south of Judah.

traitors People that turn against their country, friends, or family and do bad things to them.

“Prepare the table!
Spread the cloth over the table!
Eat!
Drink!”

But the people should say:

“Leaders, stand up and prepare for battle!”

<sup>6</sup>Why? Because the Lord, my Master, told me these things, “Go and find a man to guard the city. <sup>7</sup>If the guard sees rows of horse soldiers, donkeys, or camels, the guard should listen carefully—very carefully. <sup>8</sup>Then the guard should call out the warning, ‘Lion!’”

The guard said to the Lord, “My Master, every day I have been in the watchtower* watching. Every night I have been standing and guarding, but ... <sup>9</sup>Look! They are coming! I see rows of men and horse soldiers.”

Then one of the men, said,

“Babylon has been defeated,
Babylon has fallen to the ground.
All the statues of her false gods have been thrown to the ground and have broken to pieces.”

<sup>10</sup>Isaiah said, “My people, I have told you everything that I heard from the Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel. You will be crushed like grain on a threshing floor.*

God’s Message to Edom

Someone called me from Seir (Edom).
He said,
“Guard, how much of the night is left?
How much longer will it be night!”

<sup>12</sup> The guard answered, “Morning is coming,

But then night will come again.
If you have something to ask,
then come back* and ask.”

God’ Message to Arabia

<sup>13</sup>The sad message about Arabia.

A caravan* from Dedan spent the night near some trees in Arabian desert.

<sup>14</sup> They gave water to some thirsty travelers.
The people of Tema gave food to some people that were traveling.

<sup>15</sup> Those people were running from swords ready to kill.

They were running from bows ready to shoot.

They were running from a hard battle.

<sup>16</sup>The Lord, my Master, told me those things would happen. The Lord said, “In one year,
(the way a hired helper counts time) all Kedar’s* glory will be gone. <sup>17</sup>At that time, only a few of the archers,* the great soldiers of Kedar, will be left living.” The Lord, the God of Israel, told me those things.

God’s Message to Jerusalem

22 The sad message about the Valley of Vision.*

What is wrong with you people?
Why are you hiding on your housetops?

<sup>2</sup> In the past, this city was a very busy
city.

This city was very noisy—and very happy.

But now, things have changed.

Your people have been killed—
but not with swords.

The people died—

watchtower A tall building where guards stood and watched to see if anyone was coming near their city.

threshing floor A place where grain is walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.

Dumah Edom. This Hebrew word means “silence” or “destruction.”

come back This can also mean “change your heart, repent.”

caravan A group of traders and their animals that carry wealth from one place to another.

Kedar’s A country east of Israel.

archers Soldiers that use bows and arrows in war.

Valley of Vision This probably means the valley near Jerusalem.

- but not while fighting.
- <sup>3</sup> All of your leaders ran away together.
But they have all been captured—and without bows.
All the leaders ran far away together.
But they have been captured.
- <sup>4</sup> So I say, “Don’t look at me!
Let me cry!
Don’t rush to comfort me about the destruction of Jerusalem.”

<sup>5</sup>The Lord has chosen a special day. On that day there will be riots and confusion. People will trample (walk on) each other in the Valley of Vision.* The city walls will be pulled down. The people in the valley will be shouting at the people in the city on the mountain. <sup>6</sup>The horse soldiers from Elam will take their bags of arrows and ride to battle. The people from Kir will make noise with their shields. <sup>7</sup>The armies will meet in your special valley. The valley will be filled with chariots.* Horse soldiers will be put in front of the city gates. <sup>8</sup>At that time, the people of Judah will want to use the weapons they keep at the Forest Palace.*

The enemy will pull down the walls protecting Judah. <sup>9,11</sup>The walls of the City of David will begin to crack, and you will see those cracks. So, you will count the houses, and you will use stones from the houses to fix the walls. You will make a place between the double walls for saving water from the old stream, and you will save the water.

You will do all this to protect yourselves. But you will not trust the God who made all these things. You will not see the One (God) who made all these things long ago.

<sup>12</sup>So, my Master, the Lord All-Powerful, will tell the people to cry and be sad, for their dead friends. People will shave their heads and wear clothes of sadness.

<sup>13</sup>But look! The people are happy now. The people are rejoicing. The people are saying:

Valley of Vision This probably means the valley near Jerusalem.

chariots Small wagons used for war.

Forest Palace Or, Beth HaYar, a city built by Solomon for storing his weapons and wealth.

Kill the cattle and the sheep.
We will celebrate.
Eat your food and drink the wine.
Eat and drink because tomorrow we die.

<sup>14</sup>The Lord All-Powerful said these things to me and I heard it with my ears: “You are guilty of doing wrong things. And I promise, you will die before this guilt is forgiven.” My Master, the Lord All-Powerful said those things.

God’s Message to Shebna, the Palace Manager

<sup>15</sup>My Master, the Lord All-Powerful, told me these things: “Go to that servant Shebna. That servant is the palace manager. <sup>16</sup>Ask that servant, ‘What are you doing here? Is any person from your family buried here? Why are you making a grave here?’”

Isaiah said, “Look at this man! He is making his grave in a high place. This man is cutting into rock to make his grave.

<sup>17,18</sup>“Man, the Lord will crush you. The Lord will roll you into a small ball and throw you far away into the open arms of another country. And there you will die.”

The Lord said, “You are very proud of your chariots.* But in that faraway land your new ruler will have better chariots. And your chariots will not look important in his palace. <sup>19</sup>I will force you out of your important job here. Your new leader will take you away from your important job. <sup>20</sup>At that time, I will call for my servant, Eliakim son of Hilkiah. <sup>21</sup>I will take your robe and put it on that servant. I will give him your scepter.* I will give him the important job you have. That servant will be like a father to the people of Jerusalem and Judah’s family.

<sup>22</sup>I will put the key to David’s house around that man’s neck. If he opens a door, that door will stay opened. No person will be able to close it. If he closes a door, that door will stay closed. No person will be able to open it. That servant will be like a very honored chair

in his father's house. <sup>21</sup>I will make him strong like a nail that is hammered into a very strong board. <sup>24</sup>All the honored and important things of his father's house will hang on him. All the adults and little children will depend on him. Those people will be like small dishes and large water bottles hanging on him.

<sup>25</sup>"At that time, the nail (Shebna) that is now hammered into a very strong board will become weak and it will break. That nail will fall to the ground and all the things hanging on that nail will be destroyed. Then everything I said in this message will happen." (Those things will happen because the Lord said them.)

God's Message To Lebanon

23 The sad message about Tyre:
You ships from Tarshish,* be sad!
Your harbor has been destroyed. (The people on these ships were told this news while on their way from the land of Kittim.)*

<sup>2</sup>You people living near the sea should stop and be sad. Tyre was the "Merchant* of Sidon." That city by the sea sent businessmen across the seas, and those men filled you with riches. <sup>3</sup>Those men traveled the seas looking for grain. Those men from Tyre bought the grain that grows near the Nile River, and they sold the grain to other nations.

<sup>4</sup>Sidon, you should be very sad. Why? Because now the Sea, and the Fort of the Sea* say:

I have no children.
I have not felt the pain of birth.
I have not given birth to children.
I have not raised young men and women.

<sup>5</sup> Egypt will hear the news about Tyre.
And this news will make Egypt hurt with sorrow.

You people living near the sea should be sad.

<sup>7</sup> In the past, you enjoyed the city of Tyre.
That city has been growing since the beginning.

People from that city have traveled far away to live.

<sup>8</sup> The city of Tyre has produced many leaders.

Businessmen from that city are like princes.

And the people that buy and sell are honored everywhere.

So who made plans against Tyre?

<sup>9</sup> It was the Lord All-Powerful.

He decided to make them not important.

<sup>10</sup> You ships from Tarshish should go back to your country.

Cross the sea like it is a small river.

No person will stop you now.

<sup>11</sup> The Lord has stretched his arm over the sea.

The Lord is gathering kingdoms to fight against Tyre.

The Lord commands Canaan* to destroy Tyre, her place of safety.

<sup>12</sup> The Lord says,

Virgin Daughter of Sidon,* you will be destroyed.

You will not rejoice any more."

„But the people of Tyre say,„

"Cyprus* will help us!"

But if you cross the sea to Cyprus, you will not find a place to rest.

<sup>13</sup> „So the people of Tyre say,„

ships from Tarshish This is probably a special type of cargo ship.

Kittim This could be either the island of Cyprus or the island of Crete.

Merchant A businessman that buys and sells things for a living.

Fort of the Sea Another name for the city Tyre.

Tarshish A city far away from Israel, probably in Spain.

Tarshish was famous for its large ships that sailed the Mediterranean Sea.

Canaan The land where the Canaanite people lived. This includes part of Israel, Lebanon, and Syria.

Virgin Daughter of Sidon The city Sidon.

Cyprus Literally, "Kittim." This could also mean "Crete."

"The people of Babylon will help us!"

But look at the land of the Chaldeans!*
Babylon is not a country now.

Assyria* attacked Babylon and built war towers around it.

The soldiers took everything from the beautiful houses.

Assyria made Babylon a place for wild animals.

They changed Babylon to a place of ruins.

- <sup>14</sup> So, be sad, you ships from Tarshish.*
Your place of safety (Tyre) will be destroyed.

<sup>15</sup>People will forget about Tyre for 70 years.
(That is, about the length of a certain king's rule.) After 70 years, Tyre will be like the prostitute* in this song:

- <sup>16</sup> Oh woman that men forgot, take your harp and walk through the
city.
Play your song well.
Sing your song often.
Then people will remember you.

<sup>17</sup>After 70 years, the Lord will review Tyre's case, and he will give her a decision. Tyre will again have trade. Tyre will be like a prostitute* for all the nations on earth. <sup>18</sup>But Tyre will not keep the money she earns. Tyre's profit from her trade will be saved for the Lord. Tyre will give that profit to the people that serve the Lord. So the Lord's servants will eat until they are full, and they will wear nice clothes.

God Will Punish Israel

24 Look! The Lord will destroy this land.
The Lord will completely clean everything from the land. The Lord will force the people to go far away.

Chaldeans The people of the land of Babylon.

Assyria This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.

ships from Tarshish This is probably a special type of cargo ship.

prostitute A woman that sells her body for sex. Sometimes this also means a person that stops following God.

<sup>2</sup>At that time, the common people and the priests will be the same. Slaves and masters will be the same. Women slaves and their women masters will be the same. The buyers and sellers will be the same. The people that borrow and the people that lend will be the same. The bankers and the people that owe the bank will be the same. <sup>3</sup>All the people will be forced out of the land. The wealth will all be taken. This will happen because the Lord commanded it. <sup>4</sup>The country will be empty and sad. The world will be empty and weak. The great leaders of the people in this land will become weak.

<sup>5</sup>The people on the land have made the land dirty. „How did this happen,? The people did wrong things against God's teaching. The people did not obey God's laws. The people made an agreement with God a long time ago, but those people broke their agreement with God. <sup>6</sup>The people living in this land are guilty of doing wrong. So God promised to destroy the land. The people will be punished. Only a few people will survive.

<sup>7</sup>The grapevines are dying. The new wine is bad. In the past, people were happy. But now those people are sad. <sup>8</sup>People have stopped showing their joy. All the happy sounds have stopped. The happy music from the drums and harps has ended. <sup>9</sup>People don't sing happy songs while they drink their wine. The beer now tastes bitter to the person drinking it.

<sup>10</sup>“Total Confusion” is a good name for this city. The city has been destroyed. People can't enter the houses. The doors are blocked.
<sup>11</sup>People still ask for wine in the market places.
But all the happiness is gone. Joy has been carried far away. <sup>12</sup>Only destruction is left for the city. Even the gates are crushed.

- <sup>13</sup> At harvest time, people knock olives from olive trees.

But, a few olives are left in the trees.

It will be like that in this land among the nations.

- <sup>14</sup> The people that are left will begin shouting.

- The people will be louder than the noise from the ocean.
They will be happy because of the Lord's greatness.
- <sup>15</sup> Those people will say,
"People in the east, praise the Lord!
People in faraway lands, praise the Lord's name.
The Lord is the God of Israel."
- <sup>16</sup> We will hear songs of praise for God from every place on earth.
These songs will praise the Good God.
But I say;
"Enough! I have had enough!
The things I see are terrible.
Traitors* are turning against people and hurting them.
- <sup>17</sup> I see danger for the people living in the land.
I see, fear, holes, and traps for them.
- <sup>18</sup> People will hear about danger and they will be scared.
Some of the people will run away.
But they will fall into holes and be trapped.
Some of those people will climb out of the holes.
But they will be caught in another trap."
The flood gates in the skies above will open;
(the floods will begin).
The foundations of the earth will begin to shake.
- <sup>19</sup> There will be earthquakes.
And the earth will split open.
- <sup>20</sup> The sins of the world are very heavy.
So the earth will fall under that weight.
The earth will shake like an old house.
The earth will fall like a drunk person.
The earth will not be able to continue.
- <sup>21</sup> At that time, the Lord will judge the heavenly armies in heaven

- and the earthly kings on earth.
- <sup>22</sup> Many, many people will be gathered together.
Some of these people have been locked in the Pit.
Some of these people have been in prison.*
But finally, after much time, they will be judged.
- <sup>23</sup> The Lord will rule as king on Mount Zion* in Jerusalem.
His Glory will be before the elders.*
(His Glory will be so bright that,
the moon will be embarrassed,
the sun will be ashamed.

A Song of Praise to God

- 25 Lord, you are my God.
I honor you and praise your name.
You have done amazing things.
The words you said long ago are completely true.
Everything has happened the way you said it would.
- <sup>2</sup> You have destroyed the city.
It was a city protected by strong walls.
But now it is only a pile of rocks.
The foreign palace has been destroyed.
It will never be built again.
- <sup>3</sup> People from powerful nations will honor you.
Powerful people from strong cities will fear you.
- <sup>4</sup> Lord, you are a safe place for poor people that have needs.
Many problems begin to defeat these people,
but you protect them.
(Lord, you are like a house protecting people from floods and heat.

Pit ... prison This is probably "Sheol," the grave.
Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
elders Older men that were city leaders; they helped make decisions for the people.

Traitors People that turn against their country, friends, or family and do bad things to them.

Troubles are like terrible winds and rain.

The rain hits the wall and runs down, and the people in the house are not hurt.

- 5 The enemy shouts and makes noise. The terrible enemy shouts challenges. But you, God, will stop them. Heat makes a land weak during a hot, dry time. In the same way, you will be stronger than the enemy. Thick clouds stop the summer heat. In the same way, you will stop the shouts of the terrible enemy.

God's Banquet for His Servants

<sup>6</sup> At that time, the Lord All-Powerful will give a feast for all the people on this mountain. At the feast, there will be the best foods and wines. The meat will be tender and good.

<sup>7</sup> But now, there is a veil* covering all nations and people. This veil is called, "death." <sup>8</sup> But death will be destroyed forever.* And the Lord my Master will wipe away every tear from every face. In the past, all of his people were sad. But God will take away that sadness from the earth. All of this will happen because the Lord said it would.

- <sup>9</sup> At that time, people will say, "Here is our God! He is the One we have been waiting for. He has come to save us. We have been waiting for our Lord. So we will rejoice and be happy when the Lord saves us."

- <sup>10</sup> The Lord's hand (power) is on this mountain. And Moab* will be defeated. The Lord will trample (walk on) the enemy.

It will be like walking on straw in a pile of waste.

- <sup>11</sup> The Lord will spread his arms like a person that is swimming. Then the Lord will gather all the things the people are proud of. The Lord will gather all the beautiful things they have made. And the Lord will throw those things down. <sup>12</sup> The Lord will destroy the people's high walls and safe places. The Lord will throw them down into the dust on the ground.

A Song of Praise to God

26 At that time, people will sing this song in Judah:

The Lord gives us our salvation; we have a strong city, and our city has strong walls and defenses.

- <sup>2</sup> Open the gates and the good people will enter.

Those people follow God's good way of living.

- <sup>3</sup> You, Lord, give true peace.

You give peace to people that depend on you.

You give peace to people that trust you.

- <sup>4</sup> So, trust the Lord always.

You must truly trust the Lord Yah,* forever.

- <sup>5</sup> But the Lord will destroy the proud city. And he will punish the people living there.

The Lord will throw that high city down to the ground.

It will fall into the dust.

- <sup>6</sup> Then poor and humble people will walk on those ruins.

veil A piece of cloth used to cover a person's face.

death ... forever This can also be translated, "death will be swallowed in victory."

Moab Or "the enemy." This name is like a Hebrew word meaning, "enemy."

Lord Yah Literally, "Yah Yahweh." The Hebrew name for God.

- <sup>7</sup> Honesty is the way of living for good people.
 Good people follow the way that is straight and true.
 And God, you make that way smooth and easy to follow.
- <sup>8</sup> But Lord, we are waiting for your way of justice.
 Our souls want to remember you and your name.
- <sup>9</sup> My soul wants to be with you at night.
 And the spirit in me wants to be with you at the dawning of every new day.
 When your way of justice comes to the land,
 people will learn the right way of living.
- <sup>10</sup> An evil person will not learn to do good if you show him only kindness.
 An evil person will continue doing bad things,
 even if he lives in a good world.
 That evil person might never see the Lord's greatness.
- <sup>11</sup> But Lord, if you punish those people,
 they will see it.
 Lord, show the evil people the strong love* that you have for your people.
 Then evil people will become ashamed.
 Your enemies will be burned in their own fire (evil).
- <sup>12</sup> Lord, you have succeeded in doing all the things that we tried to do.
 So give us peace.

God Will Give New Life to His People

- <sup>13</sup> Lord, you are our God.
 But in the past, we followed other lords.*
 We belonged to other masters.
 But now we want people to remember only one name, your name!

strong love This Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.

lords This word means "husbands," "lords," and "Baals" (false gods).

- <sup>14</sup> Those false gods are not alive.
 Those ghosts will not rise from death.
 You decided to destroy them.
 And you destroyed everything that makes us think about them.
- <sup>15</sup> You have helped the nation you love.
 You stopped other people from defeating that nation.
- <sup>16</sup> Lord, people remember you when they are in trouble.
 People say quiet prayers to you when you punish them.
- <sup>17</sup> Lord, when we are not with you,
 we are like a woman giving birth to a baby.
 She cries and has pain from birth.
- <sup>18</sup> In the same way, we have pain.
 We give birth, but only to wind.
 We don't make new people for the world.
 We don't bring salvation to the land.
- <sup>19</sup> Your people have died,
 but they will live again.
 The bodies of my people will rise from death.
- Dead people in the ground,
 stand and be happy!
 The dew covering you is like the light of a new day;
 it shows a new time is coming.
 People are now buried in the ground,
 but they will have new life.

Judgment: Reward or Punishment

- <sup>20</sup> My people, go into your rooms.
 Lock your doors.
 Hide in your rooms for a short time.
 Hide until God's anger is finished.
- <sup>21</sup> The Lord will leave his place.*
 The Lord will judge the people of the world for the bad things they have done.
 The earth will show the blood of the people that have been killed.

his place Probably the temple in Jerusalem.

The earth will not cover the dead people any more.

27 At that time, the Lord will judge Leviathan,* the crooked snake.

The Lord will use his great sword, his hard and powerful sword, and he will punish Leviathan, the coiled snake.

The Lord will kill the large creature in the sea.*

<sup>3</sup> "I, the Lord, will care for that garden. I will water the garden at the right time. I will guard that garden day and night. No one will hurt that garden.

<sup>4</sup> I am not angry. But if anyone builds a wall of thorn bushes* in war, then I will march to it, and burn it.

<sup>5</sup> But if any person comes to me for safety and wants to make peace with me, he should come and make peace with me.

<sup>6</sup> People will come to me, and those people will help Jacob to be strong, like a plant with good roots. Those people will cause Israel to grow like a plant beginning to bloom. Then the land will be filled with the children of Israel, like fruit from plants."

Leviathan The Dragon, or giant snake. Some ancient stories say the Dragon was an enemy of God.

large ... sea This is probably Rahab. Some ancient stories tell of Rahab fighting with God.

vineyard A garden for growing grapes.

a wall of thorn bushes Literally, "thorns and thistles." Farmers planted walls of thorn bushes around vineyards to protect them from animals. See Isaiah 5:5.

God "Divorces" Israel

<sup>7</sup>How will the Lord punish his people? In the past, enemies hurt the people. Will the Lord hurt them that same way? In the past, many, many people were killed. Will the Lord do the same thing and kill many people?

"The Lord will settle his argument with Israel by sending her far away. The Lord will speak harshly to Israel. His words will burn like the hot desert wind.

"How will Jacob's guilt be forgiven? What will happen so his sins can be taken away? [These things will happen:] The rocks of the altar will be crushed to dust; the statues* and altars* for worshiping false gods will all be destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>At that time, the great city will be empty—it will be like a desert. All the people will be gone—they will run away. That city will be like an open pasture. Young cattle will eat grass there. The cattle will eat leaves from the branches of the vines. <sup>11</sup>The vines will become dry. And the branches will break off. Women will use those branches for firewood.

The people refuse to understand. So God, their Maker, will not comfort them. Their Maker will not be kind to them.

<sup>12</sup>At that time, the Lord will begin separating his people from others. He will begin at the Euphrates River.* The Lord will gather all his people from the Euphrates River to the River of Egypt.*

You people of Israel will be gathered together one by one. <sup>13</sup>Many of my people are now lost in Assyria.* Some of my people have run away to Egypt. But at that time, a great trumpet will be blown. And all those people will come back to Jerusalem. Those people will statues Idols, statues of false gods that people worshiped.

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices as gifts to God.

separating his people ... Euphrates River

Literally, "He will begin threshing at the stream of the river." This Hebrew word for stream is like the word meaning "head of grain."

Euphrates ... Egypt These are the borders of the land God promised to give to Israel.

Assyria This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.

bow down before the Lord on that holy mountain.

Warnings to North Israel

28 Look at Samaria!
The drunk people of Ephraim are proud of that city.

That city sits on a hill with a rich valley around it.

The people of Samaria think their city is a beautiful crown of flowers.

But they are drunk with wine.

And this "Beautiful Crown" is just a dying plant.

<sup>2</sup> Look, my Master has a person that is strong and brave.

That person will come into the country, like a storm of hail and rain.

He will come like a storm into the country.

He will be like a powerful stream of water flooding the country.

He will throw that crown (Samaria) down to the ground.

But that city will be walked on.

But that "Beautiful Crown of Flowers" is only a dying plant.

That city will be like the first figs of summer.

When a person sees one of those figs, he quickly picks the fig and eats it.

<sup>5</sup>At that time, the Lord All-Powerful will become the "Beautiful Crown." He will be the "Wonderful Crown of Flowers" for his people that are left. <sup>6</sup>Then the Lord will give wisdom to the judges that rule his people. The Lord will give strength to the people in battles at the city gates. <sup>7</sup>But now those leaders are drunk. The priests and prophets are all drunk with wine and beer. They stumble and fall down. The prophets are drunk when they see their dreams. The judges are drunk when they make their decisions. <sup>8</sup>Every table is covered with vomit. There is not a clean place anywhere.

God Wants to Help His People

<sup>9</sup>The Lord is trying to teach a lesson to these people. The Lord is trying to make the people understand his teachings. But the people are like little babies. They are like babies that were at their mother's breast only a very short time ago. <sup>10</sup>So the Lord speaks to them like they are babies.;

Saw lasaw saw lasaw
Qaw laqaw qaw laqaw
Ze'er sham ze'er sham.*

<sup>11</sup>The Lord will use this strange way of talking and he will use other languages to speak to these people.

<sup>12</sup>In the past God spoke to those people, and he said, "Here is a resting place. This is the peaceful place. Let the tired people come and rest. This is the place of peace."

But the people did not want to listen to God. <sup>13</sup>So the words from God were like a foreign language:*

Saw lasaw saw lasaw.
Qaw laqaw qaw laqaw.
Ze'er sham ze'er sham.*

The people did like they wanted to do. So the people fell back and were defeated. The people were trapped and captured.

No One Escapes God's Judgment

<sup>14</sup>You leaders in Jerusalem should listen to the Lord's message. But now you refuse to listen to him. <sup>15</sup>You people say, "We have made an agreement with death. We have a contract with Sheol—the place of death. So we will not be punished. Punishment will pass us without hurting us. We will hide behind our tricks and lies."

Saw lasaw ... ze'er sham This is probably a Hebrew song to teach little children how to write. It sounds like baby talk or a foreign language, but it can also be translated, "A command here, a command there. A rule here, a rule there. A lesson here, a lesson there."

foreign language Or, "gibberish" or "baby talk."

<sup>16</sup>Because of those things, the Lord my Master says, "I will put a rock—a cornerstone—in the ground in Zion.* This will be a very precious stone.* Everything will be built on this very important rock. Any person that trusts in that rock will not be disappointed.

"You evil people are trying to hide behind your lies and tricks. But you will be punished. It will be like, a storm or a flood is coming to destroy your hiding places. <sup>18</sup>Your agreement with death will be erased. Your contract with Sheol* will not help you.

"Some person will come and punish you. He will make you like the dirt he walks on. <sup>19</sup>That person will come and take you away. Your punishment will be terrible. Your punishment will come early in the morning, and it will continue late into the night.

<sup>20</sup>"Then you will understand this story: A man tried to sleep on a bed that was too short for him. And he had a blanket that was not wide enough to cover him. The bed and blanket were useless, and so were your agreements."

<sup>21</sup>The Lord will fight like he did at Mount Perazim. The Lord will be angry like he was in Gibeon Valley.* Then the Lord will do the things he must do. The Lord will do some strange things. But he will finish his work. His work is a stranger's job. <sup>22</sup>Now, you must not fight against those things. If you do, the ropes around you will become tighter.

The words I heard will not change. Those words came from the Lord All-Powerful, the ruler of all the earth. And those things will be done.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

very precious stone This also means a stone has been tested and shown that it has no cracks.

Sheol This is the place where all people go when they die. Usually this means the grave, but it can mean the place where our spirits go.

Mount ... Valley See 1 Chronicles 14:8-17.

The Lord Punishes Fairly

<sup>23</sup>Listen closely to the message I am telling you. <sup>24</sup>Does a farmer plow his field all the time? No! Does he work the soil all the time? No! <sup>25</sup>A farmer prepares the ground, and then he plants the seed. A farmer plants different kinds of seeds different ways. A farmer scatters dill seeds. A farmer throws cummin seeds on the ground. And a farmer plants wheat in rows. A farmer plants barley in its special place, and he plants spelt* seeds at the edge of his field.

<sup>26</sup>Our God is using this to teach you a lesson. This example, shows us that God is fair when he punishes his people. <sup>27</sup>Does a farmer use large boards with sharp teeth to crush dill seeds? No! Does a farmer use a wagon to crush cummin seeds? No! A farmer uses a small stick to break the hulls from these seeds of grain.

<sup>28</sup>When a woman makes bread, she works and presses the dough with her hands, but she does not do this forever. The Lord punishes his people in the same way. He will scare them with the wagon wheel, but he will not crush them completely. He will not allow many horses* to trample (walk on) them. <sup>29</sup>This lesson comes from the Lord All-Powerful. The Lord gives wonderful advice. God is truly wise.

God's Love for Jerusalem

29 God says,

"Look at Ariel!*

Ariel, the city where David camped.

Her holidays have continued year after year.

That city has been filled with sadness and crying.

But she has always been my Ariel.

<sup>3</sup> "I have put armies all around you, Ariel.* I raised war towers against you.

<sup>4</sup> You were defeated and, pulled to the spelt A type of grain.

horses This word also means "horse soldiers."

Ariel A name for the altar at the temple in Jerusalem. This name means "hearth" or "fireplace."

ground.

Now, I hear your voice rising from the ground like the voice of a ghost.

Your words come like a quiet voice from the dirt.”

<sup>5</sup> There are many strangers there—like very small pieces of dust.

There are many cruel people—like chaff* blowing in the wind.

<sup>6</sup> The Lord All-Powerful punished you.

The Lord punished you using thunder, earthquakes, and great noises.

The Lord used storms, strong winds, and fire that burned and destroyed.

<sup>7</sup> Many, many nations have fought against Ariel.*

It has been like a terrible dream in the
night.

Armies have come around Ariel and punished her.

<sup>8</sup> But it will also be like a dream to the armies.

Those armies will not get the things
they want.

It will be like a hungry man dreaming about food.

When the man wakes, he is still hungry.

It will be like a thirsty man dreaming about water.

The man wakes, and he is still thirsty.

The same thing is true about all the nations fighting against Zion.*

Those nations will not get the things
they want.

You will become drunk—but not from wine.

Look and be amazed!

You will stumble and fall—but not from beer.

<sup>10</sup> The Lord will make you sleepy.

The Lord will close your eyes.

(The prophets are your eyes.)

The Lord will cover your heads.

(The prophets are your heads.)

<sup>11</sup> I tell you these things will happen, but you don't understand me. My words, are like the words in a book that is closed and sealed.*

<sup>12</sup> You can give the book to a person that can read, and tell that person to read the book. But that person will say, “I can't read the book. It is closed and I can't open it.” Or you can give the book to a person that can't read, and tell that person to read the book. That person will say, “I can't read the book because I don't know how to read.”

<sup>13</sup> My Master says, “These people say they love me. They show honor to me with words from their mouths. But their hearts are far from me. The honor they show me is nothing but human rules they have memorized. “So I will continue to amaze these people by doing powerful and amazing things. Their wise men will lose their wisdom. Their wise men will not be able to understand.”

<sup>14</sup> Those people try to hide things from the Lord. They think the Lord will not understand.
Those people do their evil things in darkness.
Those people tell themselves, “No person can see us. No person will know who we are.”

<sup>15</sup> You are confused. You think the clay is equal to the potter.* You think that something made can tell the person that made it, “You did not make me!” This is like a pot telling its maker, “You don't understand.”

A Better Time Is Coming

<sup>17</sup> This is the truth: After a short time, Lebanon will have rich soil like Mount Carmel.* And Mount Carmel will be like a

chaff The seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers saved the seeds and let the wind blow the useless chaff away.

Ariel A name for the altar at the temple in Jerusalem. This name means “hearth” or “fireplace.”

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

sealed A piece of clay or wax was put on the closed book to show the book should not be opened.

potter A worker that makes things from clay.

Mount Carmel A hill in north Israel very good for growing plants. This name means “God's vineyard.”

thick forest. <sup>18</sup>The deaf will hear the words in the book. The blind will see through the darkness and fog. <sup>19</sup>The Lord will make the poor people happy. The poor people will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>20</sup>This will happen when the mean and cruel people are finished. It will happen when those people that enjoy doing bad things are gone. <sup>21</sup>(Those people lie about good people. They try to trap people in court. They try to destroy innocent people.)

<sup>22</sup>So the Lord speaks to Jacob's family. (This is the Lord that made Abraham free.) The Lord says, "Now Jacob (the people of Israel) will not be embarrassed and ashamed. <sup>23</sup>He will see all his children, and he will say my name is holy. I made these children with my hands. And these children will say that the Holy One (God) of Jacob is very special. These children will respect the God of Israel. <sup>24</sup>Many of these people did not understand, so they did wrong things. These people did not understand, but they will learn their lesson."

Israel Should Trust God, Not Egypt

30 The Lord said, "Look at these children. They don't obey me. They make plans, but they don't ask me to help them. They make agreements with other nations, but my Spirit does not want those agreements. These people are adding more and more sins to themselves. <sup>2</sup>These children are going down to Egypt for help, but they did not ask me if that was the right thing to do. They hope they will be saved by the Pharaoh.* They want Egypt to protect them.

<sup>3</sup>"But I tell you, hiding in Egypt will not help you. Egypt will not be able to protect you. <sup>4</sup>Your leaders have gone to Zoan* and your ambassadors have gone to Hanes.* <sup>5</sup>But they will be disappointed. They are depending on a nation that can't help them. Egypt is useless—Egypt will give no help. Egypt will cause only shame and embarrassment."

Pharaoh A title for the kings of Egypt.

Zoan A city in the country Egypt.

Hanes A city in the country Egypt.

God's Message to Judah

The Negev is a dangerous place. This land is full of lions, and adders,* and fast snakes.* <sup>7</sup>But some people are traveling through the Negev—they are going to Egypt. Those people have put their wealth on the backs of donkeys. Those people have put their treasure on the backs of camels. <sup>8</sup>(This means that, the people are depending on a nation that cannot help. <sup>9</sup>That useless nation is Egypt. Egypt's help will be worth nothing. So I call Egypt the "Do-Nothing Dragon.")

<sup>10</sup>Now write this on a sign so all people can see it. And write this in a book. Write these things for the last days. This will be far, far in the future.

<sup>11</sup>These people are like children that refuse to obey (their parents). They lie and refuse to listen to the Lord's teachings. <sup>12</sup>They tell the prophets, "Don't see dreams* about things we should do! Don't tell us the truth! Say nice things to us and make us feel good! See only good things for us! <sup>13</sup>Stop seeing things that will really happen! Get out of our way! Stop telling us about the Holy One of Israel."

Judah's Help Comes Only from God

<sup>14</sup>The Holy One (God) of Israel says, "You people have refused to accept this message from the Lord. You people want to depend on fighting and lies to help you. <sup>15</sup>You are guilty of these things so you are like a tall wall with cracks in it. That wall will fall and break into small pieces. <sup>16</sup>You will be like a large clay jar that breaks and becomes many, many small pieces. Those pieces are useless. You can't use those pieces to get a hot coal from the fire or to get water from a pool in the ground."

Negev The desert area south of Judah.

adders Very poisonous snakes.

fast snakes Literally, "flying snakes."

dreams Or "visions." Special kinds of dreams God used to speak to his prophets.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord my Master, the Holy One of Israel, says, "If you come back to me you will be saved. The only strength you have will come if you trust me. But you must be calm."

But you don't want to do that! <sup>16</sup>You say, "No, we need horses to run away on!" That is true—you will run away on horses. But the enemy will chase you. And the enemy will be faster than your horses. <sup>17</sup>One enemy will make threats and a thousand of your men will run away. Five enemies will make threats and all of you will run from them. The only thing that will be left of your army will be a flagpole on a hill.

<sup>18</sup>The Lord wants to show his mercy to you. The Lord is waiting. The Lord wants to rise and comfort you. The Lord God is fair, and every person that waits for the Lord's help will be blessed (happy).

<sup>19</sup>The Lord's people will live in Jerusalem on Mount Zion.* You people will not continue crying. The Lord will hear your crying and he will comfort you. The Lord will hear you, and he will help you.

God Will Help His People

<sup>20</sup>In the past, my Master (God) gave you sorrow and hurt—it was like the bread and water you ate every day. But God is your teacher, and he will not continue to hide from you. You will see your teacher with your own eyes. <sup>21</sup>Then, if you do wrong and go (live) the wrong way (to the right or to the left), you will hear a voice behind you saying, "This is the right way. You should go this way!"

<sup>22</sup>You have statues covered with silver and gold. Those false gods have made you dirty (sinful). But you will stop serving those false gods. You will throw away those gods like waste and dirty rags.*

<sup>23</sup>At that time, the Lord will send rain for you. You will plant seeds in the ground, and the ground will grow food for you. You will have a very large harvest. You will have plenty of food in the fields for your animals. There will be large fields for your sheep. <sup>24</sup>Your cattle and donkeys will have all the food they need. There will be very much food. You will have to use shovels and pitchforks* to spread all the food* for your animals to eat. <sup>25</sup>Every mountain and hill will have streams filled with water. These things will happen after many people are killed and the towers are pulled down.

<sup>26</sup>At that time, the light from the moon will be bright like the sun. The light from the sun will be seven times brighter than now. The light from the sun in one day will be like a full week. These things will happen when the Lord bandages his broken people and heals the hurts from their beatings.

<sup>29</sup>At that time, you will sing happy songs. That time, will be like the nights when you begin a holiday. You are very happy while walking to the Lord's mountain. You are happy while listening to the flute on the way to worship the Lord, the Rock* of Israel.

<sup>30</sup>The Lord will cause all people to hear his great voice. The Lord will cause all people to see his powerful arm come down with anger. That arm will be like a great fire that burns everything. The Lord's power will be like a great storm with much rain and hail. <sup>31</sup>Assyria* will be afraid when he hears the Lord's voice.

pitchforks Tools for throwing or spreading hay.

food This was special food that had been allowed to ferment. This made the meat of the animal tender and good.

bit A piece of metal in a horse's mouth used to make the horse go the right way.

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a strong place of safety.

Assyria This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.

Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

You ... rags This also means "You will throw away those gods like menstrual clothes. You will say, 'Go away!'"

The Lord will beat Assyria with a stick.<sup>32</sup>The Lord will beat Assyria, and it will be like playing music on drums and harps.* The Lord will defeat Assyria with his great arm (power).

<sup>33</sup>Topheth* has been made ready for a long time. It is ready for the king.* It was made very deep and wide. There is a very big pile of wood and fire there. And the Lord's breath (Spirit) will come like a stream of burning sulfur and burn it.

Israel Should Depend on God's Power

31 Look at the people going down to Egypt for help. The people ask for horses. They think horses will save them. The people hope the chariots* and horse soldiers from Egypt will protect them. The people think they are safe because that army is very big. The people don't trust the Holy One of Israel (God). The people don't ask the Lord for help.

<sup>2</sup>But, it is the Lord who is wise. And it is the Lord who will bring trouble against them. The people will not be able to change the Lord's command. The Lord will rise and fight against the evil people (Judah). And the Lord will fight against the people (Egypt) that try to help them.

<sup>3</sup>The people of Egypt are only human—not God. The horses from Egypt are only animals—not spirit. The Lord will stretch out his arm and the helper (Egypt) will be defeated. And the people that wanted help (Judah) will fall. All those people will be destroyed together.

<sup>4</sup>The Lord told me: "When a lion or a lion's cub catches an animal to eat, the lion stands over the dead animal and roars. At that time nothing can scare that great lion. If men come and yell at the lion, the lion will not be afraid. The men can make much noise, but the lion will not run away."

In the same way, the Lord All-Powerful will come down to Mount Zion.* The Lord will fight on that hill.<sup>5</sup>The Lord All-Powerful will defend* Jerusalem—like birds flying over their nests. The Lord will save her. The Lord will "pass over" and save Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>You children of Israel turned against God. You should come back to God.<sup>7</sup>Then people would stop worshiping the gold and silver idols you made. You truly sinned when you made those idols.<sup>8</sup>It is true that Assyria* will be defeated with a sword. But that sword will not be a man's sword. Assyria will be destroyed. But that destruction will not come from a man's sword. Assyria will run away from God's sword. But the young men will be caught and made slaves.<sup>9</sup>Their place of safety will be destroyed. Their leaders will be defeated and leave their flag.

The Lord said all those things. The Lord's fireplace (altar) is on Zion*. The Lord's oven (altar) is in Jerusalem.

Leaders Should Be Good and Fair

32 Listen to the things I say! A king should rule in a way that brings goodness. Leaders should make fair decisions when they lead the people.<sup>2</sup>If this would happen,, then the king* would be like a place to hide from the wind and rain. It would be like having streams of water in a dry land. It would be like a cool shadow from a large rock in a hot land.<sup>3</sup>People would turn to the king for help, and people would truly listen to the things he says.<sup>4</sup>People that are now confused would be able to understand. People that can't speak clearly now would be able to speak clearly and quickly.<sup>5</sup>Foolish people would not be called great men. People would not respect men that make secret plans.

<sup>6</sup>A foolish person* says foolish things, and in his heart (mind), plans evil things to do. A foolish person wants to do things that are

harps Musical instruments with several strings.

Topheth Gehenna; the Valley of Hinnom. In this valley people killed their children to honor the false god, "Molech."

king This is like the name of the false god, "Molech."

chariots Small wagons used for war.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.

Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

defend Literally, "fight on" or "fight against."

Assyria This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.

foolish person A person that does not follow God and his wise teachings.

wrong. A foolish person says bad things about the Lord. A foolish person does not let hungry people eat food. A foolish person does not let thirsty people drink water. <sup>7</sup>That foolish person uses evil like a tool. He plans ways to take everything from poor people. That foolish person tells lies about the poor people. And his lies keep the poor people from being judged fairly.

<sup>8</sup>But a good leader plans good things to do. And those good things make him a good leader.

Hard Times Are Coming

<sup>9</sup>Some of you women are calm now. You feel safe. But you should stand and listen to the words I say. <sup>10</sup>You women feel safe now, but after one year you will be troubled. Why? Because you will not gather grapes next year—there will be no grapes to gather.

<sup>11</sup>Women, you are calm now, but you should be afraid! Women, you feel safe now, but you should be worried! Take off your nice clothes and put on your clothes of sadness. Wrap those clothes around your waist. <sup>12</sup>Put those clothes of sadness over your sorrow-filled breasts.

Cry because your fields are empty. Your vineyards* once gave grapes—but now they are empty. <sup>13</sup>Cry for the land of my people. Cry because only thorns and weeds will grow there. Cry for the city and for all the houses that were once filled with joy.

<sup>14</sup>People will leave the capital city. The palace and towers will be left empty. People will not live in houses—they will live in caves. Wild donkeys and sheep will live in the city—animals will go there to eat grass.

<sup>15-16</sup>This will continue until God gives us his Spirit from above. Now there is no goodness in the land—it is like a desert. But in the future, that desert will be like the land of Carmel*—fair judgment will live there. And Carmel will be like a green forest—goodness will live there. <sup>17</sup>That goodness will bring peace and safety forever. <sup>18</sup>My people will live in the beautiful field of peace. My people will live in tents of safety. They will live in calm and peaceful places.

<sup>19</sup>But before these things happen, the forest must fall. That city must be defeated. <sup>20</sup>Some of you people plant seeds near every stream of water. You let your cattle and donkeys walk around and eat freely. You people will be very happy.

Evil Causes Only More Evil

33 Look, you people make war and steal things from people, and those people never stole anything from you. You turn against people, and those people never turned against you. So when you stop stealing, other people will begin stealing from you. When you stop turning against people, other people will start turning against you. Then you will say, <sup>2</sup> Lord, be kind to us.

We have waited for your help.

Lord, give us strength every morning.

Save us when we are in trouble.

<sup>3</sup> Your powerful voice scares people, and they run away from you.

Your greatness causes the nations to run away.

<sup>4</sup>You people stole things in war. Those things will be taken from you. Many, many people will come and take your wealth. It will be like the times when locusts* come and eat all your crops.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord is very great. He lives in a very high place. The Lord fills Zion* with fairness and goodness.

<sup>6</sup>Jerusalem, you are rich—you are rich with wisdom and knowledge of God. You are rich with salvation. You respect the Lord and that makes you rich. So you can know that you will continue.

<sup>7</sup>But listen! The angels are crying outside. The messengers* that bring peace are crying

locusts Insects like grasshoppers. Locusts can destroy a large crop very quickly.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

messengers This word also means "angels."

vineyards Gardens for growing grapes.

very hard. <sup>8</sup>The roads are destroyed. No one is walking in the streets. People have broken the agreements they made. People refuse to believe the proof from witnesses.* No one respects other people. <sup>9</sup>The land is sick and dying. Lebanon* is dying and Sharon Valley* is dry and empty. Bashan* and Carmel* once grew beautiful plants—but now those plants have stopped growing.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord says, “Now, I will stand and show my greatness. Now, I will become important to the people. <sup>11</sup>You people have done useless things. Those things are like hay and straw. They are worth nothing! Your spirit* will be like a fire and burn you. <sup>12</sup>People will be burned until their bones are like lime.* The people will burn quickly like thorns and dry bushes.

<sup>13</sup>“You people in faraway lands, hear about the things I have done. You people that are near me, learn about my power.”

<sup>14</sup>The sinners in Zion* are afraid. The people that do wrong things shake with fear. They say, “Can any of us live through this fire that destroys? Who can live near this fire that burns forever?”*

<sup>15</sup>Good, honest people that refuse to hurt others for money—they will live through that fire. Those people refuse to take bribes. They refuse to listen to plans to murder other people. They refuse to look at plans for doing bad things. <sup>16</sup>Those people will live safely in high places. They will be protected in high rock fortresses. Those people will always have food and water.

witnesses Literally, “cities.” The Hebrew word is like the word meaning “witnesses.”

Lebanon A country north of Israel. It was famous for its great cedar and pine trees.

Sharon Valley The low land along the coast of Palestine.

Bashan An area northeast of Israel.

Carmel A hill in north Israel very good for growing plants.

This name means “God’s vineyard.”

spirit Or, “Spirit.”

lime A white powder that is often used to make mortar or cement. It can be made by burning bones, shells, or limestone.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

fire ... forever This might mean God, the Fire (Light) of Israel.

<sup>17</sup>Your eyes will see the King (God) in his beauty. You will see the great land. <sup>18-19</sup>You will think about the troubles you had in the past. You will think, “Where are those people from other countries? Those people spoke languages we could not understand. Where are those officials and tax collectors from other lands? Where are the spies that counted our defense towers? [They are all gone!.]”

God Will Protect Jerusalem

<sup>20</sup>Look at Zion*, the city of our religious holidays. Look at Jerusalem—that beautiful place of rest. Jerusalem is like a tent that will never be moved. The pegs that hold her in place will never be pulled up. Her ropes will never be broken. <sup>21-23</sup>Why? Because the Powerful Lord is there. That land is a place with streams and wide rivers. But there will be no enemy boats or powerful ships on those rivers. You men that work on those boats can quit your work with the ropes. You can’t make the mast* strong enough. You will not be able to open your sails. [Why?], Because the Lord is our judge.* The Lord makes our laws. The Lord is our king. He saves us. So the Lord will give us much wealth. Even crippled people will win great wealth in war. <sup>24</sup>No person living there will say, “I am sick.” The people living there are people whose sins are forgiven.

God Will Punish His Enemies

34 All you nations, come near and listen! All you people should listen closely. The earth and all the people on the earth should listen to these things. <sup>2</sup>The Lord is angry at all the nations and their armies. The Lord will destroy them all. He will cause them all to be killed. <sup>3</sup>Their bodies will be thrown outside. The stink will rise from the bodies, and the blood will flow down the mountains. <sup>4</sup>The skies will be rolled shut like a scroll.* And the stars mast The pole that holds the sail on a sailboat.

judge In Israel judges were leaders that judged, led, and protected the people.

rolled ... scroll This is like a person closing a book when he has finished reading it.

will die and fall like leaves from a vine or a fig tree. All the stars* in the sky will melt away. <sup>5</sup>The Lord says, "This will happen when my sword in the sky is covered with blood."

Look! The Lord's sword will cut through Edom.* The Lord judged those people guilty, and they must die.* <sup>6</sup>Why? Because the Lord decided there should be a time for killing in Bozrah* and in Edom. <sup>7</sup>So the rams, the cattle, and the strong bulls will be killed. The land will be filled with their blood. The dirt will be covered with their fat.

<sup>8</sup>Those things will happen, because the Lord has chosen a time for punishment. The Lord has chosen a year when people must pay for the wrong things they did to Zion.* <sup>9</sup>Edom's rivers will be like hot tar.* Edom's ground will be like burning sulfur.* <sup>10</sup>The fires will burn day and night—no person will stop the fire. The smoke will rise from Edom forever. That land will be destroyed forever and ever. No people will ever travel through that land again. <sup>11</sup>Birds and small animals will own that land. Owls and ravens will live there. That land will be called "Empty Desert."* <sup>12</sup>The freemen* and leaders will all be gone. And there will be nothing left for them to rule.

<sup>13</sup>Thorns and wild bushes will grow in all the beautiful homes there. Wild dogs and owls will live in those homes. Wild animals will make their homes there. Big birds will live in the grasses that grow there. <sup>14</sup>Wild cats will live there with hyenas.* And wild goats* will call to their friends. Night animals* will look there and find a place to rest. <sup>15</sup>Snakes will make their homes there. Snakes will lay their eggs there. The eggs will open, and small snakes will crawl from those dark places. Birds that eat dead things will gather like women visiting their friends.

<sup>16</sup>Look at the Lord's scroll.* Read what is written there. Nothing is missing. It is written in that scroll that those animals will be together. God said he will gather them together. So God's Spirit will gather them together. <sup>17</sup>God decided what he should do with them. Then God chose a place for them. God drew a line and showed them their land. So the animals will own that land forever. They will live there year after year.

God Will Comfort His People

35 The dry desert will become very happy. The desert will be glad and will grow like a flower. <sup>2</sup>The desert will be full of growing flowers and will begin to show its happiness. It will seem like the desert is dancing with joy. The desert will be beautiful like the forest of Lebanon,* the hill of Carmel,* and Sharon Valley.* This will happen because all people will see God's glory. People will see our Lord's greatness.

<sup>3</sup>Make the weak arms strong again. Make the weak knees strong. <sup>4</sup>People are afraid and confused. Say to those people, "Be strong! Don't be afraid!" Look, your God will come and punish your enemies. He will come and give you your reward. The Lord will save you.

stars Literally, "the armies of the skies."

Edom A country east of Judah.

guilty ... die The Hebrew means the people belonged completely to God, and if he does not get them, they must die.

Bozrah A city in Edom.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

tar A very thick oil that must be heated to become liquid.

sulfur A yellow chemical that looks like rock or dirt. Sulfur burns with a hot flame, and it gives a bad odor when it burns.

Empty Desert Literally, "They will measure this city with the measuring string called 'emptiness' and stone weights called 'nothingness.'" These words described the empty earth in Genesis 1:2.

freemen Important citizens of a town or country. These people came from 'good families' and had never been slaves.

hyenas A kind of wild dog that often eats the meat of dead animals that other animals killed.

wild goats This Hebrew word means "goat, or goat-demon."

Night animals Or, "Lilith, the night demon." This name is like the Hebrew word for night.

scroll A long roll of leather or papyrus (paper) used for writing books, letters, and legal documents.

Lebanon A country north of Israel. It was famous for its great cedar and pine trees.

Carmel A hill in north Israel very good for growing plants. This name means "God's vineyard."

Sharon Valley The low land along the coast of Palestine.

<sup>7</sup>Then the blind people will be able to see again. Their eyes will be opened. Then the deaf people will be able to hear. Their ears will be opened. <sup>8</sup>Crippled people will dance like deer. And the people that can't talk now will use their voices to sing happy songs. This will happen when springs of water begin flowing in the desert. Springs will flow in the dry land. <sup>9</sup>Now people see mirages* that look like water. But at that time there will be real pools of water. There will be wells in the dry land. Water will flow from the ground. Tall water plants will grow where wild animals once ruled.

<sup>10</sup>At that time, there will be a road there. This highway will be called "The Holy Road." Evil people will not be allowed to walk on that road. No fools* will go to that road. Only good people will walk on that road. <sup>11</sup>There will be no dangers on that road. There will be no lions on that road to hurt people. There will be no dangerous animals on that road. That road will be for the people God saves.

<sup>12</sup>God will make his people free! And those people will come back to him. The people will be happy when they come into Zion.* The people will be happy forever. Their happiness will be like a crown on their heads. Their gladness and joy will fill them completely. Sorrow and sadness will be gone far, far away.

The Assyrians Invade Judah

mirages In the desert, heat rising from the ground looks like water from far away. This is a mirage.

fools Here this means people that do not follow God and his wise teachings.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Hezekiah A king of Judah. He ruled about 727-687 B.C.

Sennacherib A king of Assyria. He was king about 706-681 B.C.

and went to King Hezekiah in Jerusalem. That commander led his powerful army with him. The commander and his army went to the road near Laundryman's Field. This road is near the aqueduct* that comes from the upper pool.

<sup>3</sup>Three men from Jerusalem went out to talk with the commander. These men were Eliakim son of Hilkiah, Joah son of Asaph, and Shebna. Eliakim was the palace manager. Joah was the record keeper. And Shebna was the royal secretary.

"The Great King, the king of Assyria says, 'What are you trusting in to help you? <sup>1</sup>I tell you if you are trusting in power and smart plans for battle—then that is useless. Those are nothing but empty words. So, why are you fighting against me? <sup>2</sup>Now I ask you, who are you trusting to help you? Are you depending on Egypt to help you? Egypt is like a broken stick. If you lean on it for support, it will only hurt you and make a hole in your hand. Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, can't be trusted by any of the people that depend on him for help.'

<sup>3</sup>"But maybe you will say, 'We are trusting in the Lord our God to help us.' But I say, Hezekiah destroyed the Lord's altars* and high places of worship.* This is true, right? It is true that Hezekiah told Judah and Jerusalem these things: 'You will worship only at this one altar here in Jerusalem.'

<sup>4</sup>"If you still want to fight, my lord, the king of Assyria will make this agreement with you: The king says, 'I will give you 2,000 horses if you can find enough men to ride those horses into battle.'<sup>5</sup>But even then you will not be able to defeat one of my lord's slaves, altars Stone tables used for burning sacrifices as gifts to God.

high ... worship Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were usually on the hills and mountains.

not even one of his smallest officers. So why do you continue to depend on Egypt's horses and chariots?

<sup>10</sup>“Also, remember that the Lord was with me when I came and fought in this country. The Lord was with me when I destroyed the cities. The Lord told me, ‘Stand up! Go to this country and destroy it!’”

<sup>11</sup>The three men from Jerusalem, Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah, told the commander, “Please, speak to us in the Aramaic language. Don't speak to us in our Jewish language. If you use the Jewish language, the people on the city walls will understand you.”

<sup>12</sup>But the commander said, “My master did not send me to tell these things only to you and your master Hezekiah. My master sent me to also tell these things to those people sitting on the walls. Those people will not have enough food or water either; they too will eat their waste and drink their urine just like you.”

<sup>13</sup>Then the commander stood and spoke with a very loud voice. He spoke in the Jewish language. <sup>14</sup>The commander said, “Listen to the words from the great king, the king of Assyria:

“Don't let Hezekiah fool you. He will not be able to save you. <sup>15</sup>Don't believe Hezekiah when he says, ‘Trust in the Lord! The Lord will save us. The Lord will not let the king of Assyria defeat the city.’

<sup>16</sup>“Don't listen to those words from Hezekiah. Listen to the king of Assyria. The king of Assyria says, ‘We should make an agreement. You people should come out of the city to me. Then every person will be free to go home. Every person will be free to eat grapes from his own vine. And every person will be free to eat the figs from his own fig tree. Every person will be free to drink water from his own well. <sup>17</sup>You can do this until I come and take each of you to a country like your own. In that new country you will have good grain and new wine. That land will have food and fields of grapes.’

<sup>18</sup>“Don't let Hezekiah fool you. He says, ‘The Lord will save us.’ But I ask you, did any of the gods of other nations save their people from Assyria's power? No! We defeated every one of those people. <sup>19</sup>Where are the gods of Hamath* and Arpad?* [They are defeated!], Where are the gods of Sepharvaim?* [They are defeated!], And did the gods* of Samaria* save those people from my power? No! <sup>20</sup>Tell me the name of one god from all those nations that saved his people from my power. I defeated them all. So, the Lord will not save Jerusalem from my power.”

<sup>21</sup>The people in Jerusalem were very quiet. They did not answer the commander. (Hezekiah had given a command to the people. Hezekiah said, “Don't answer the commander.”)

<sup>22</sup>Then the palace manager (Eliakim son of Hilkiah), the royal secretary (Shebna), and the record keeper* (Joah son of Asaph) tore their clothes. (This showed that they were very sad.) The three men went to Hezekiah and told him all the things that the commander had told them.

Hezekiah Asks God to Help

37 Hezekiah listened to the message from the commander. When he heard the message, Hezekiah tore his clothes. Then Hezekiah put on the special clothes of sadness and went to the Lord's temple.* <sup>2</sup>Hezekiah sent the palace director (Eliakim), the royal

Arpad A city in the country Syria.

Sepharvaim A city in the country Syria.

temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

secretary (Shebna), and the elders (leaders) of the priests* to the prophet, Isaiah son of Amoz. These three men wore special clothes of sadness.

<sup>3</sup>These men told Isaiah, "King Hezekiah has commanded that today will be a special day for sorrow and sadness. It will be a very sad day. It will be like a day when a child should be born, but is not strong enough to come from its mother. 'Maybe the Lord, your God, will listen to the things the commander said. The king of Assyria sent the commander to say very bad things about the living God. And the Lord, your God, heard those evil things. Please pray for the few people of Israel that are left.'"

<sup>4</sup>Hezekiah's servants went to Isaiah. Isaiah told them, "Tell your rulers these things: The Lord says, 'Don't be afraid of the things you heard from the commander! Don't believe the evil things those "boys" from the king of Assyria said about me. 'Look, I will send a spirit against Assyria. The king of Assyria will get a report warning him about a danger to his country. So, he will go back to his country. At that time, I will kill him with a sword in his own country.'"

The Assyrian Army Leaves Jerusalem

<sup>5</sup>The king of Assyria got a report. The report said, "Tirhakah,* the king of Ethiopia,* is coming to fight you." So, the king of Assyria left Lachish and went to Libnah. The commander heard this, and he went to the city Libnah, where the king of Assyria was fighting. Then the commander sent messengers to Hezekiah. The commander said, <sup>6</sup>"You should tell these things to Hezekiah, the king of Judah:

Don't be fooled by the god you trust.
Don't say, 'God will not let Jerusalem be defeated by the king of Assyria.'

<sup>7</sup>Listen, you have heard about the kings of Assyria; they have defeated the people in every country. And the king of Assyria will also defeat and kill you.

<sup>8</sup>Did the gods of those people save them? No! My fathers (ancestors) destroyed them. My people defeated the cities Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people in Eden* living in Tel Assar. <sup>9</sup>Where are the kings of Hamath and Arpad? Where is the king of Sepharvaim? Where are the kings of Hena and Ivvah? 'They are finished! They were all destroyed!'"

Hezekiah Prays to God

<sup>10</sup>Hezekiah took the message from the men and read it. Then Hezekiah went to the Lord's temple.* Hezekiah opened the message and laid it before the Lord. <sup>11</sup>Hezekiah began praying to the Lord. Hezekiah said:

<sup>12</sup>Lord All-Powerful, God of Israel, you sit as king on the Cherub angels.* You, and only you, are the God that rules all the kingdoms on earth. You made the heavens and the earth. <sup>13</sup>Hear me! Open your eyes and see this message from Sennacherib. Sennacherib sent this message to me. This message says evil things about you, the living God.

<sup>14</sup>Lord, the kings of Assyria really have destroyed all the countries and their lands. <sup>15</sup>The kings of Assyria have burned the gods of those nations. But those were not true gods. They were only statues that men made. They were only wood and rock. So they were lost and destroyed. <sup>16</sup>But you are the Lord our God. So please save us from the power of the king of Assyria. Then all the other

Tirhakah This is probably Taharqa, the pharaoh of Egypt about 690-664 B.C.

Ethiopia Literally, "Cush," a country in Africa by the Red Sea.

Eden Beth Eden, an area in the country Syria.

temple A special building for worshipping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

nations will know that you are the Lord, and you are the only Lord.

God's Answer to Hezekiah

<sup>21</sup>Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah. Isaiah said, "You prayed to the Lord, the God of Israel. You prayed about the message that came from Sennacherib. <sup>22</sup>The Lord heard your prayer and told me to come to you. This is the message from the Lord:

Bride of Zion (Jerusalem),
People have stolen from you.
People have made fun of you.
Daughter of Jerusalem,
People have thought bad things about you.

- <sup>23</sup> King of Assyria, you have said bad things about me.
You have spoken against me!
Do you know who I am?
Raise your eyes and look up to the heavens.
You will see that you have said bad things about the Holy One (God) of Israel."

<sup>24</sup>[Isaiah also said, "You have used your servants to say bad things about my Master, the Lord. You said:

I have many, many chariots.*
I have brought my chariots across the great mountains of Lebanon.*
I have cut down all the great trees (armies) of Lebanon.

- <sup>25</sup> I have gone to every river of Egypt.
I filled my hands with water from all those rivers.
And I drank that water.
With my own power I have destroyed all the rivers (power) of Egypt."

<sup>26</sup>But the Lord says, "King of Assyria, surely you heard long ago that I, the Lord, did those things. Long, long ago, I myself made Assyria. And now, I have brought you here. I allowed you to destroy those other cities. I used you to do my work and changed those cities into piles of rocks. <sup>27</sup>The people living in those cities were weak. The people were scared and ashamed. Those people were like grass in the field. They were like grass that grows on the tops of houses. That grass is burned by a hot desert wind before it grows tall.

<sup>28</sup>"I know all about your army and your battles. I know when you rested. I know when you went out to war. I know when you came home from war. I also know that you are angry at me. <sup>29</sup>You are angry at me, and you have said bad things about me. I heard the things you said. So I will punish you. I will put a hook in your nose. I will put a bit* in your mouth. Then I will force you to leave my country on the same road you came on."

<sup>30</sup>Then the Lord said to Hezekiah, "Hezekiah, I will give you a sign to show you these words are true. This year you will have no grain planted to eat. So this year you will eat grain that grew wild from last year's crop. But in three years, you will eat grain that you planted. You will harvest those crops and you will have plenty to eat. You will plant grapevines and eat their fruit.

<sup>31</sup>Some of the people in Judah's family will be saved. Those few people will become a very large nation. Those people will be like plants that send their roots deep into the ground and grow strong. Then the people will have much fruit (children) above ground. <sup>32</sup>A few people will come from Jerusalem alive. There will be survivors coming from Mount Zion.*" The strong love* of the Lord All-Powerful will do this.

<sup>33</sup>So the Lord has a message for the king of Assyria. The Lord says, "You will not enter this city. You will not even shoot an arrow at this city. You will not move to fight against this bit A piece of metal people put in a horse's mouth to make the horse go in the right way.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

strong love This Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.

chariots Small wagons used for war.

Lebanon A country north of Israel. It was famous for its great cedar and pine trees.

city with your shields. You will not build a ramp to the city walls. <sup>34</sup>You will go back to your own country on the same road you came. You will not enter this city." This message was from the Lord.

<sup>35</sup>The Lord says, "I will defend and save this city. I will do this for myself, and for David my servant."

<sup>36</sup>So the angel of the Lord went and killed 185,000 men in the Assyrian camp. The people woke the next morning, and they saw the bodies of dead men all around them. <sup>37</sup>So Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, went back to Nineveh and stayed there.

<sup>38</sup>One day, Sennacherib was in the temple of his god, Nisroch, worshiping him. At that time his two sons, Adrammelech and Sharezer, killed him with a sword. Then the sons ran away to Ararat. So Sennacherib's son Esarhaddon became the new king of Assyria.

Hezekiah's Illness

38 At that time, Hezekiah became very sick. He almost died. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to see him.

Isaiah told the king, "The Lord told me to tell you these things: 'You will die soon. So you should tell your family what they should do when you die. You will not become well again.'"

<sup>2</sup>Hezekiah turned toward the temple, wall and began praying. He said: <sup>3</sup>"Please Lord, remember that I have always lived before you with a pure and honest heart. I have done things that you call good." Then Hezekiah began crying very loudly.

<sup>4</sup>Isaiah received this message from the Lord: <sup>5</sup>"Go to Hezekiah and tell him: These are the things the Lord, the God of David your father says, 'I heard your prayer, and I saw your tears of sadness. I will add 15 years to your life. <sup>6</sup>I will protect you from the king of Assyria. I will save you and this city.'"

<sup>22*</sup> But Hezekiah asked Isaiah, "What is the sign from the Lord that proves I will become well? What is the sign that proves, I will be able to go to the Lord's temple?*" <sup>7</sup>This is the sign from the Lord to show you that he will do the things he says: <sup>8</sup>"Look, I am causing the shadow that is on the steps of Ahaz* to go back ten steps. The sun's shadow will go back up the ten steps that it has gone down."

<sup>21*</sup> Then Isaiah told Hezekiah, "You should crush figs together and put them on your sore, then you will become well."

<sup>9</sup>This is the letter from Hezekiah when he became well from the sickness:

<sup>10</sup> I told myself I would live until I was old.

But then it was my time to go through the gates of Sheol.*

Now I will spend all of my time there.

<sup>11</sup> So I said,

"I will not see the Lord Yah* in the land of the living again.

I will not see the people living on the earth.

<sup>12</sup> My home, my shepherd's tent, is being pulled down and taken from me.

"I am finished

like the cloth a man rolls up, and cuts from the loom.*

In one day—from day to night, you brought me to this end.

<sup>13</sup> All night I cried loud like a lion.

But my hopes were crushed like a lion eating bones.

In one day—from day to night, you brought me to this end.

temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

Ahaz A king of Judah. He ruled about 735-727 B.C.

Verse 21 This verse is at the end of the chapter in the printed Hebrew text.

Sheol This is the place where all people go when they die. Usually this means the grave, but it can mean the place where our spirits go.

Lord Yah Literally, "Yah Yahweh." The Hebrew name for God.

loom A machine used for making cloth.

Verse 22 This verse is at the end of the chapter in the printed Hebrew text.

- 14 I cried like a dove.
I cried like a bird.
My eyes became tired, but I continued looking to the heavens.
- “My Master, I have troubles.
Promise to help me.”
- 15 What can I say?
My Master told me what will happen.
And my Master will cause that to happen.
I have had these troubles in my soul.
So now I will be humble all my life.
- 16 My Master, use this hard time to make my spirit live again.
Help my spirit become strong and healthy.
Help me become well!
Help me live again!
- 17 Look! My troubles are gone!
I now have peace.
You love me very much.
You did not let me rot in the grave.
You forgave all my sins.
You threw my sins far away.
- 18 Dead people don’t sing praises to you.
People in Sheol* don’t praise you.
Dead people don’t trust you to help them.
They go into a hole in the ground,
and never speak again.
- 19 The people that are alive—
like me today—
are the people that praise you.
A father should tell his children that you can be trusted.
- 20 So I say:
“The Lord saved me.
So we will sing and play songs
in the Lord’s temple all our lives.”

Messengers from Babylon

39 At that time, Baladan’s son, Merodach Baladan, was the king of Babylon.
Merodach sent letters and gifts to Hezekiah.

Merodach sent gifts because he heard that Hezekiah was sick and became well. <sup>2</sup>These gifts made Hezekiah very happy. So Hezekiah let Merodach’s men see the special things in Hezekiah’s kingdom. Hezekiah showed the men all his wealth: the silver, gold, expensive oils, and perfumes. Hezekiah showed them the swords and shields used for war. Hezekiah showed them everything he had saved.
Hezekiah showed them everything in his house and in his kingdom.

<sup>3</sup>Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked him, “What did these men say?”
Where did they come from?”

Hezekiah said, “These men came to me from a faraway country. These men came from Babylon.”

<sup>4</sup>So Isaiah asked him, “What did they see in your kingdom?”

Hezekiah said, “They saw everything in my palace.* I showed them all my wealth.”

<sup>5</sup>Isaiah said this to Hezekiah: “Listen to the words from the Lord All-Powerful. “In the future, everything you have will be taken to Babylon. All the wealth will be taken away.
Nothing will be left.” The Lord All-Powerful said this. <sup>7</sup>The king of Babylon will take your sons—the sons that will come from you. Your sons will become officers* in the palace* of the king of Babylon.”

<sup>8</sup>Hezekiah told Isaiah, “These words from the Lord are good for me to hear.” (Hezekiah said this because he thought, “There will be peace and no trouble while I am king.”)

Israel’s Punishment Will End

40 Your God says, “Comfort, comfort my people!
<sup>2</sup> Speak kindly to Jerusalem!
Tell Jerusalem,
“Your time of service is finished.
You have paid the price for your sins.””
The Lord punished Jerusalem—

Sheol This is the place where all people go when they die.
Usually this means the grave, but it can mean the place where our spirits go.

palace A large house for the king and his family.
officers Literally, “eunuchs.” Sometimes their male sex organs were removed so they could not have children.

twice for every sin she did.

- <sup>3</sup> Listen! You can hear the sound of a man calling loudly:

“Prepare a way for the Lord in the desert!
Make the road in the desert straight for our God!

- <sup>4</sup> Fill every valley.

Make every mountain and hill flat.
Make the crooked roads straight.
Make the rough ground smooth.

- <sup>5</sup> Then, the Lord’s Glory will be seen.
All people will see the Lord’s Glory together.

This will happen
because the Lord himself said these things.”

- <sup>6</sup> A voice said, “Speak!”

So the man said,
“What should I say?”

The voice said, “Say this:

All people are like grass.
Peoples’ goodness is like a new piece of grass.

- <sup>7</sup> A powerful wind from the Lord blows on the grass.

And the grass becomes dry and dies.
The truth is this:
All people are grass.

- <sup>8</sup> The grass becomes dry and dies.
But the words from our God continue forever.”

Salvation: God’s Good News

- <sup>9</sup> Zion,* you have good news to tell.
You should go up on a high mountain and speak very loudly.

Jerusalem, you have good news to tell.
Don’t be afraid!
Speak loudly!

Tell these things to all of the cities of

Judah:

“Look, here is your God!

- <sup>10</sup> Look, the Lord my Master is coming with power.

He will use his power to rule all the people.

The Lord will bring reward for his people.

The Lord will have their payment with him.

- <sup>11</sup> The Lord will lead his people like a shepherd leads sheep.

The Lord will use his arm (power) and gather his sheep together.

The Lord will pick up the little sheep and hold them in his arms.

The mothers will walk beside him.”

God Made the World; He Rules It

- <sup>12</sup> Who measured the oceans in the palm of his hand?

Who used his hand to measure the sky?
Who used a bowl to measure all the dust of the earth?

Who used measuring scales to measure the mountains and hills?

It was the Lord,!

- <sup>13</sup> No person told the Lord’s Spirit what he should do.

No person told the Lord how to do the things he did.

- <sup>14</sup> Did the Lord ask for any person’s help?
Did any person teach the Lord how to be fair?

Did any person teach the Lord knowledge?

Did any person teach the Lord to use wisdom?

„No! The Lord already knew these things.”

- <sup>15</sup> Look, the nations are a very small part of the Lord’s world.

The nations are like a small drop in a bucket.

If the Lord took all the faraway nations, and put them on his weighing scales,

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

they would be like small pieces of dust.

16 All the trees in, Lebanon are not enough to burn for the Lord.

And all the animals in Lebanon are not enough to kill for a sacrifice.

17 If you compare all the nations of the world to God, the nations are nothing. Compared to God, all the nations are worth nothing at all.

People Can't Imagine What God Is Like

18 Can you compare God to anything? No! Can you make a picture of God? No!

19 But some people make statues from rock or wood, and they name them gods.

A worker makes a statue, and the gold worker covers the statue with gold.

Then he makes silver chains for the statue.

20 A poor man can't buy those expensive statues. So a poor man finds a tree that will not rot and pays a man to cut the face of a god on it.

That is the poor man's god. And that "god" can't even move!

21 Surely you know the truth, don't you? Surely you have heard! Surely someone in the beginning told you the truth. Surely you understand who made the earth!

22 The true God sits above the circle of the earth, and compared to him, people are like grasshoppers. The true God opened the skies like a piece of cloth. The true God stretched the skies like a tent to sit under.

23 The true God makes rulers not important.

He makes the judges of this world completely worthless.

24 Those rulers are like plants; they are planted in the ground, but before they can send their roots into the ground, God blows on the "plants," and they become dead and dry, and the wind blows them away like straw.

25 The Holy One (God) says: "Can you compare me to anyone? No! No one is equal to me.

26 Look up to the skies. Who created all those stars? Who created all those 'armies' in the sky?

Who knows every star by name? The true God is very strong and powerful, so none of these stars is lost."

27 Jacob, this is true! Israel, you should believe this! So why do you say: "The Lord can't see the way I live. God will not find me and punish me."

28 Surely you have heard and know that the Lord God is very wise, and people can't learn all the things he knows.

The Lord does not become tired and need to rest.

The Lord made all the faraway places on earth.

The Lord lives forever.

29 The Lord helps weak people to be strong. He causes the people without power to become powerful.

30 Young men become tired and need to rest.

Even young boys stumble and fall.

31 But the people that trust and depend on the Lord become strong again.

It is like they grow wings like an eagle.
 These people run and run without needing to rest.
 These people walk without becoming tired.

The Lord Is the Creator Who Lives Forever

41 <sup>1</sup> The Lord says, “Faraway countries, be quiet and come to me!
 Nations be brave.
 Come to me and speak.
 We will meet together,
 and we will decide who is right.
<sup>2</sup> <sup>2</sup> Tell me the answers to these questions:;
 “Who woke the man (that is coming, from the east?
 Goodness walks with him.
 He uses his sword and defeats
 nations,—
 they become like dust.
 He uses his bow and conquers kings—
 they run away
 like straw blown by the wind.
<sup>3</sup> He chases armies and is never hurt.
 He goes places where he has never been before.
<sup>4</sup> Who caused (these things to happen),?
 Who did this?
 Who called all people from the beginning?
 “I, the Lord, did these things,!
 I, the Lord, am the first.
 I was here since before the beginning.
 And I will be here when all things are finished.
<sup>5</sup> All you faraway places,
 look, and be afraid!
 All you places far away on the earth,
 shake with fear!
 All of you, come close, (and listen to
 me,!

“Workers help each other. They encourage each other to be strong. <sup>7</sup>One worker cuts wood to make a statue. That person encourages the man that works with gold.

Another worker uses a hammer and makes the metal smooth. Then that worker encourages the man at the anvil.* This last worker says, ‘This work is good; the metal will not come off.’ So he nails the statue to a base. The statue can’t fall over. And it never moves!”

Only The Lord, The True God, Can Save Us

<sup>8</sup> The Lord says,;
 “You, Israel, are my servant.
 Jacob, I chose you.
 You are from Abraham’s family.
 And I loved Abraham.
<sup>9</sup> You were far away on the earth.
 You were in a faraway country,
 but I called you and said,
 ‘You are my servant.’
 I chose you.
 And I have not turned against you.
<sup>10</sup> “Don’t worry, I am with you.
 Don’t be afraid, I am your God.
 I have made you strong.
 I will help you.
 I will support you with my right hand of goodness.
<sup>11</sup> Look, some people are angry with you.
 But they will be shamed.
 Your enemies will disappear and be lost.
<sup>12</sup> You will look for the people that were against you.
 But you will not be able to find them.
 The people that fought against you will disappear completely.
<sup>13</sup> I am the Lord your God.
 I am holding your right hand.
 And I tell you:
 Don’t be afraid!
 I will help you.
<sup>14</sup> Precious Judah, don’t be afraid!
 My dear* people of Israel, don’t be scared!

anvil A heavy metal block. A worker puts hot metal on an anvil and beats the hot metal to change its shape.

Precious ... dear Literally, “worm ... men.” These are like Aramaic words meaning “scarlet ... silk: very expensive pieces of cloth.”

Truly, I will help you.”

The Lord himself said those things.

The Holy One (God) of Israel,
the One who saves you,
said these things:

<sup>15</sup> “Look, I have made you like a new threshing board.

This tool has many sharp teeth, and farmers use it, to crush hulls from grain.

You will trample (walk on) mountains and crush them.

You will make hills to be like those hulls.

<sup>16</sup> You will throw them into the air, and the wind will blow them away and scatter them.

Then you will be happy in the Lord.
You will be very proud of the Holy One (God) of Israel.

<sup>17</sup> “The poor and needy people look for water,
but they can’t find any.

They are thirsty.
Their tongues are very dry.

I will answer their prayers.
I will not leave them and let them die.

<sup>18</sup> I will cause rivers to flow on the dry hills.
I will cause springs of water to flow through the valleys.

I will make the desert become a lake filled with water.
Dry lands will have springs of water.

<sup>19</sup> Trees will grow in the desert.
There will be cedar trees, acacia trees, olive trees, cypress trees, fir trees, and pine trees.

<sup>20</sup> People will see these things happen, and they will know the Lord’s power did this.

The people will see these things,
and they will begin to understand.

The people will know that the Holy One (God) of Israel did
these things.”

The Lord Challenges the False Gods

<sup>21</sup>The Lord, the king of Jacob, says, “Come, tell me your arguments. Show me your proof, and we will decide the things that are right.
<sup>22</sup>Your statues (false gods) should come and tell us what is happening.

“What happened in the beginning? What will happen in the future? Tell us! We will listen closely. Then we will know what will happen next. <sup>23</sup>Tell us the things we should look for to know what will happen. Then we will believe that you really are gods. Do something! Do anything, good or bad! Then we will see that you are alive. And we will follow
you.

<sup>24</sup>“Look, you false gods are less than nothing! You can’t do anything! Only a worthless person would want to worship you!”

The Lord Proves He Is the Only God

<sup>25</sup> “I woke a person in the north.*
He is coming from the east where the sun rises.

He worships my name.
A man that makes pots walks on wet clay.
In the same way, this special man will trample (walk on) kings.”

<sup>26</sup> Who told us about this before it happened?

We should call him God.*
Did one of your statues tell us these things? No!

None of those statues told us anything.
Those statues did not say a word—and those false gods can’t hear the words you say.

<sup>27</sup> I, the Lord, was the first to tell Zion* about these things.

I sent a messenger to Jerusalem with
this message:

“Look, your people are coming back!”

person ... north This probably means Cyrus, a king of Persia. He ruled about 550-530 B.C.

God Literally, “the Good One.”

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

- <sup>28</sup> I looked at those false gods.
None of them were wise enough to say anything.
I asked them questions,
and they did not say a word!
- <sup>29</sup> All of those gods are less than nothing!
They can't do anything!
Those statues are absolutely worthless!

The Lord's Special Servant

- 42 "Look at my Servant!
I support him.
He is the one I chose.
And I am very pleased with him.
I put my Spirit in him.
He will bring fairness to all nations.
- <sup>2</sup> He will not speak loudly in the streets.
He will not cry out or yell.
- <sup>3</sup> He will be gentle.
He will not break a crushed piece of grass.*
He will not stop even a very weak flame.
He will use fairness
and find what is true.
- <sup>4</sup> He will not become weak or be crushed until he brings justice to the world.
And people in faraway places will trust his teachings."

The Lord Is the Ruler and Maker of the World

<sup>5</sup>The Lord, the true, God, said these things.
(The Lord made the skies. The Lord spread the skies over the earth. He also made everything on the earth. The Lord breathes life into all people on earth. The Lord gives a spirit to every person that walks on the earth):

- <sup>6</sup> "I, the Lord, called you to do right.
I will hold your hand.
And I will protect you.
You will be the sign that shows
I have an Agreement with the people.
You will be a light to shine for all people.

- <sup>7</sup> You will open the eyes of the blind people,
and they will be able to see.
Many people are in prison;
you will free those people.
Many people live in darkness;
you will lead them out of that prison.
- <sup>8</sup> "I am the Lord.
My name is Yahweh.
I will not give my glory to another.
I will not let statues (false gods)
take the praise that should be mine.
- <sup>9</sup> In the beginning, I said some things would happen,
and those things happened!
And now, before it happens,
I tell you about things that will happen in the future."

A Song of Praise to God

- <sup>10</sup> Sing a new song to the Lord.
All you people that are far away on the earth,
All you people that sail on the seas,
All you animals in the oceans,
All you people in faraway places,
Praise the Lord!
- <sup>11</sup> Deserts and cities, Fields of Kedar,*
praise the Lord!
People living in Sela, sing for joy!
Sing from the top of your mountain.
- <sup>12</sup> Give glory to the Lord.
People in all the faraway lands should praise him!
- <sup>13</sup> The Lord will go out like a strong soldier.
He will be like a man ready to fight a war.
He will become very excited.
He will cry out and shout loudly,
and he will defeat his enemies.

God Is Very Patient

- <sup>14</sup> "For a long time I have said nothing.

grass Literally, "reed," a plant that grows near water.

Kedar A country east of Israel.

- I have continued to be quiet and control myself.
 But now I will cry out like a woman giving birth to a child.
 I will breath very hard and loud.
- 15 I will destroy the hills and mountains.
 I will dry up all the plants that grow there.
 I will make the rivers to become dry land.
 I will make the pools of water become dry.
- 16 Then I will lead the blind people in a way they never knew.
 I will lead the blind people on paths they have never been.
 I will make the darkness become light for them.
 And I will make the rough ground smooth.
 I will do the things I promise!
 I will not leave my people.
- 17 But some people have stopped following me.
 Those people have statues that are covered with gold.
 They tell those statues,
 'You are my gods.'
 And those people trust their false gods.
 But those people will be disappointed!"

Israel Refused to Listen to God

- 18 "You deaf people should hear me!
 You blind people should look and see me!
- 19 In all the world, my servant* is the most blind!
 The messenger I send to the world, is the most deaf.
 The person I own
 -the servant of the Lord-is the most blind.
- 20 This servant sees what he should do,
 but he does not obey me.
 He can hear with his ears,

but he refuses to listen to me."

- 21 The Lord wants to be fair to his servant.
 So the Lord gives wonderful teachings to the people.*
- 22 But look at the people.
 Other people have defeated them and have stolen from them.
 All the young men are afraid.
 They are locked in the prisons.
 People have taken their money from them.
 And there is no person to save them.
 Other people took their money.
 And there was no person to say,
 "Give it back!"

<sup>21</sup>Did any of you people listen to God's words? No! But you should listen very closely to his words and think about what happened.
<sup>22</sup>Who let people take the wealth from Jacob and Israel? The Lord allowed them to do this! We sinned against the Lord. So the Lord allowed people to take away our wealth. The people of Israel did not want to live the way the Lord wanted. The people of Israel did not listen to his teaching. <sup>23</sup>So the Lord became angry at them. The Lord caused powerful wars against them. It was like the people of Israel had fire all around them. But they did not know what was happening. It was like they were burning. But they did not try to understand the things that were happening.

God Is Always with His People

43 Jacob, the Lord made you! Israel, the Lord made you! And now the Lord says, "Don't be afraid! I saved you. I named you. You are mine. <sup>2</sup>When you have troubles, I am with you. When you cross rivers, you will not be hurt. When you walk through fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not hurt you. <sup>3</sup>Why? Because I, the Lord, am your God. I, the Holy One of Israel, am your Savior. I gave Egypt to pay for you. I gave Ethiopia and Seba to make you mine. <sup>4</sup>You are very important to me, so I will honor you. I love you, and I will give all people and nations so you can live.”

God Will Bring His Children Home

“So don’t be afraid! I am with you. I will gather your children and bring them to you. I will gather them from the east and from the west. <sup>6</sup>I will tell the north: Give my people to me! I will tell the south: Don’t keep my people in prison! Bring my sons and daughters to me from the faraway places! <sup>7</sup>Bring to me all the people that are mine—the people that have my name. I made those people for myself. I made those people, and they are mine.”

Israel Is God’s Witness to the World

<sup>8</sup>“Bring out the people that have eyes but are blind. Bring out the people that have ears but are deaf.* <sup>9</sup>All people and all nations should also be gathered together. Maybe one of their false gods wants to tell about what happened in the beginning. They should bring their witnesses. The witnesses should speak the truth. This will show they are right.”

<sup>10</sup>The Lord says, “You people are my witnesses. You are the servant that I chose. I chose you so you would help people to believe me. I chose you so you would understand that ‘I Am He’—I am the true God. There was no God before me, and there will be no God after me. <sup>11</sup>I myself am the Lord. And there is no other Savior—I am the only One. <sup>12</sup>I am the One who spoke to you. I saved you. I told you those things. It was not some stranger that was with you. You are my witnesses, and I am God.” (The Lord himself said these things.) <sup>13</sup>“I have always been God. When I do something, no person can change what I have done. And no person can save people from my power.”

<sup>14</sup>The Lord, the Holy One of Israel, saves you. And the Lord says, “I will send armies to Babylon for you. Many people will be captured. Those people, the Chaldeans, will be taken away in their own boats. (The Chaldeans are very proud of those boats.) <sup>15</sup>I am the Lord your Holy One. I made Israel. I am your king.”

God Will Save His People Again

<sup>16</sup>The Lord will make roads through the sea. Even through rough waters he will make a path for his people. And the Lord says, <sup>17</sup>“The people that fight against me with their chariots,* horses, and armies will be defeated. They will never rise again. They will be destroyed. They will be stopped like the flame of a candle* is stopped. <sup>18</sup>So don’t remember the things that happened in the beginning. Don’t think about the things that happened a long time ago. <sup>19</sup>Why? Because I will do new things! Now you will grow like a new plant. Surely you know this is true. I really will make a road in the desert. I really will make rivers in the dry land. <sup>20</sup>Even the wild animals will be thankful to me. The large animals and birds will honor me. They will honor me when I put water in the desert. They will honor me when I make rivers in the dry land. I will do this to give water to my people—the people I chose. <sup>21</sup>These are the people I made. And these people will sing songs to praise me.

<sup>22</sup>“Jacob, you have not called to me. Why? Because you, Israel, have become tired of me. <sup>23</sup>You people have not brought your sacrifices* of sheep to me. You have not honored me. You have not given sacrifices to me. I did not force you to give sacrifices to me. I did not force you to burn incense* until you became tired. <sup>24</sup>So you did not use your money to buy things to honor me. But you did force me to be like your slave. You sinned until all your wrong-doings made me very tired.

<sup>25</sup>“I, I am the One who wipes away all your sins. I do this to please myself. I will not remember your sins. <sup>26</sup>But you should

candle Literally, “lamp.” These were small clay bowls filled with oil. A string or strip of cloth was placed in the bowl and lit to produce light.

sacrifices Gifts to God. Sometimes these were special kinds of animals that were killed and burned on an altar.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

blind ... deaf This probably means the people of Israel that would not believe God. See Isaiah 6:9-10.

remember me. We should meet together and decide what is right. You should tell the things you have done, and show you are right. <sup>27</sup>Your first father sinned. And your lawyers have done things against me. <sup>28</sup>I will make your holy rulers not holy. I will cause Jacob to be completely mine.* Bad things will happen to Israel."

The Lord Is the Only God

44 "Jacob, you are my servant. Listen to me! Israel, I chose you. Hear the things I say! <sup>1</sup>I am the Lord, and I made you. I am the One who made you to be what you are. I have helped you since the time you were in your mother's body. Jacob, my servant, don't be afraid. Jeshurun,* I chose you.

<sup>2</sup>"I will pour water for thirsty people. I will make streams flow on dry land. I will pour my Spirit on your children—it will be like a stream of water flowing over your family. <sup>3</sup>They will grow among the people in the world. They will be like trees growing beside streams of water.

<sup>4</sup>"One person will say, 'I belong to the Lord.' Another person will use the name 'Jacob.' Another person will sign his name 'I am the Lord's.' And another person will use the name 'Israel.'"

<sup>5</sup>The Lord is the king of Israel. The Lord All-Powerful saves Israel. The Lord says, "I am the only God. There are no other gods. I am the Beginning and the End. <sup>6</sup>There is no other God like me. If there is, then that god should speak now. That god should come and show proof that he is like me. That god should tell me what has happened since the time I made these people that continue forever. That god should give signs to show that he knows what will happen in the future. <sup>7</sup>Don't be afraid! Don't worry! I have always told you what will happen. You are my witnesses. There is no other God—I am the only One. There is no other 'Rock'*—I know I am the only One."

cause ... mine This means that only God can have this special thing. He gets it, or it must die so no one else will.

Jeshurun Another name for Israel. This name means "good" or "honest."

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a strong place of safety.

False Gods Are Useless

<sup>8</sup>Some people make statues (false gods)—but they are worthless. People love those statues—but the statues are useless. Those people are the witnesses of the statues—but they can't see. They know nothing—they don't know enough to be ashamed of the things they do.

<sup>9</sup>Who made these false gods? Who made these useless statues? <sup>10</sup>Workers made those gods! And all those workers are people—not gods. If all of those people would come together and discuss these things, then they would all be ashamed and afraid.

<sup>12</sup>Another worker uses his stringline* and compass* to draw lines on the wood. This shows where he should cut. Then the man uses his chisels* and cuts a statue from the wood. He uses his calipers* to measure the statue. This way, the worker makes the wood look exactly like a man. And this statue of a man does nothing but sit in the house.

<sup>13</sup>A man cuts down cedar, cypress, or maybe oak trees. (That man did not make the trees grow—those trees grew by their own power in the forest. If a man plants a pine tree, the rain makes the tree grow.) <sup>14</sup>Then that man uses the tree to burn in his fire. The man cuts the tree into small pieces of wood. And he uses the wood to cook and keep him warm. The man starts a fire with some of the wood and bakes his bread. But the man still uses part of that wood to make a god—and the man worships that god! That god is a statue that the man made—but the man bows down before the statue! <sup>15</sup>The man burns half of the wood in the stringline In ancient times, this was a piece of string with wet paint on it. This was used to make straight lines on wood or stone.

compass A tool used to draw circles and copy measurements.

chisels Sharp tools used to carve wood or stone.

calipers A special measuring tool, like a compass.

fire. The man uses the fire to cook his meat and eats the meat until he is full. The man burns the wood to keep himself warm. The man says, "Good! Now I am warm, and I can see because there is light from the fire." <sup>17</sup>But a little wood is left, so the man makes a statue from that wood and calls it his god. He bows down before this god and worships it. The man prays to the god and says, "You are my god, save me!"

<sup>18</sup>Those people don't know what they are doing. They don't understand! It is like their eyes are covered so they can't see. Their hearts (minds) don't try to understand. <sup>19</sup>Those people have not thought about these things. The people don't understand, so they have never thought to themselves, "I burned half of the wood in the fire. I used the hot coals to bake my bread and cook my meat. Then I ate the meat. And I used the wood that was left to make this terrible thing. I am worshiping a block of wood!"

<sup>20</sup>That man does not know what he is doing. He is confused, so his heart leads him the wrong way. That man can't save himself. And he can't see that he is doing wrong. That man will not say, "This statue I am holding is a false god."

The Lord, the True God, Helps Israel

- <sup>21</sup> "Jacob, remember these things!
Israel, remember that you are my servant.
I made you.
You are my servant.
So Israel, don't forget me.
- <sup>22</sup> Your sins were like a big cloud.
But I wiped away those sins.
Your sins are gone,
like a cloud that disappeared into the air.
I rescued and protected you,
so come back to me!"
- <sup>23</sup> The skies are happy because the Lord did great things.
The earth is happy, even deep down under the earth!

The mountains sing with thanks to God.

All the trees in the forest are happy!

Why? Because the Lord saved Jacob.

The Lord did great things for Israel.

<sup>24</sup> The Lord made you what you are.

The Lord did this while you were still in your mother's body.

The Lord says,

"I, the Lord, made everything!

I put the skies there myself!

I spread the earth before me."

<sup>25</sup>False prophets* tell lies. But the Lord shows their lies are false. The Lord makes foolish people of the men that do magic. The Lord confuses even wise men. They think they know much, but the Lord makes them look foolish. <sup>26</sup>The Lord sends his servants to tell messages to the people. And the Lord makes those messages true. The Lord sends messengers to tell the people the things they should do. And the Lord shows their advice is good.

God Chooses Cyrus to Rebuild Judah

The Lord says to Jerusalem,

"People will live in you again!"

The Lord says to the cities of Judah,

"You will be built again!"

The Lord says to the cities that were destroyed,

"I will make you cities again!"

<sup>27</sup> The Lord tells the deep waters,

"Become dry!

I will make your streams become dry!"

<sup>28</sup> The Lord says to Cyrus,*

"You are my shepherd.

You will do the things I want.

You will say to Jerusalem,

'You will be built again!'

You will tell the temple,*

false prophets People that lie, saying they received a special message from God.

Cyrus A king of Persia. He ruled about 550-530 B.C.

temple A special building for worshipping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

'Your foundations will be built again!''

God Chooses Cyrus to Make Israel Free

45 These are the things the Lord says to Cyrus,* his chosen king.*

"I will hold Cyrus's right hand.
I will help him take power away from kings.
City gates will not stop Cyrus.
I will open the city gates,
and Cyrus will go in."

- 2 "Cyrus, your armies will march,
and I will go in front of you.
I will make the mountains flat.
I will break the bronze city gates.
I will cut the iron bars on the gates.
- 3 I will give you the wealth that is saved in darkness.
And I will give you the hidden riches.
I will do this so that you will know that I am the Lord.
I, the God of Israel, am calling you by name!
- 4 I do these things for my servant—Jacob.
And I do these things for my chosen people—Israel.
(Cyrus,) I am calling you by name.
You don't know me,
but I am calling you by name.
- 5 I am the Lord!
I am the only God.
There is no other God.
I put your clothes on you,*
but still you don't know me.
- 6 I do these things so all people will know that I am the only God.
From the east to the west people will know that I am the Lord,
and there is no other God.
- 7 I made the light,
and I made darkness.

I make peace,
and I make troubles.
I am the Lord—
and I do all these things.

- 8 "May the clouds in the skies above make goodness fall on the earth like rain!
May the earth open
and let salvation grow!
And may goodness grow with it!
I, the Lord, made him.*

God Controls His Creation

"Look at these people! They are arguing with the One who made them. Look at them argue with me! They are like pieces of clay from a broken pot. A man uses soft, wet clay to make a pot. And the clay does not ask, 'Man, what are you doing?' Things that are made don't have the power to question the one who makes them. 'People are like this clay.' "A father gives life to his children. And the children can't ask, 'Why are you giving me life?' The children can't question their mother and ask, 'Why are you giving birth to me?'"

"The Lord God is the Holy One of Israel. He made Israel. And the Lord says,

"You asked me to show you a sign, my sons.
You commanded me to show you the things I have done.
"So, look,
I made the earth.
And I made all the people living on it.
I used my own hands
and made the skies.
And I command all the armies in the sky.*

- 13 I gave Cyrus his power
so he would do good things.*

him This probably means Cyrus. Cyrus was a king of Persia. Cyrus lived about 150 years after Isaiah died.
armies in the sky Sometimes this means the angels, and sometimes it means the stars.
I gave ... things This might also mean "I did what was right when I woke him."

Cyrus A king of Persia. He ruled about 550-530 B.C. chosen king Literally, "messiah, the anointed one."
I put ... you This also means "I made you strong."

And I will make his work easy.

Cyrus will build my city again.

And he will make my people free.

Cyrus will not sell my people to me.

I will not have to pay him to do these things.

The people will be freed,
and the cost to me will be nothing.”

The Lord, All-Powerful, said these things.

<sup>14</sup> The Lord says,

“Many things were made in Egypt and Ethiopia,

but you people of Israel will get those things.

The tall people from Seba will be yours.

They will walk behind you with chains around their necks.

Those people will bow down before you.

Those people will pray to you.”

Israel, God is with you.

And there is no other God.

<sup>15</sup> God, you are the God people can't see.

You are the Savior of Israel.

But those people will be disappointed.

All of those people will go away ashamed.

<sup>17</sup> But Israel will be saved by the Lord.

That salvation will continue forever.

Never, never again will Israel be shamed.

<sup>18</sup> The Lord is God.

He made the skies and the earth.

The Lord put the earth in its place.

The Lord did not want the earth to be empty when he made it.

The Lord wanted life to be on the earth.

The Lord says,

“I am the Lord.

There is no other God.

<sup>19</sup> I did not speak in secret.

I have spoken freely.

I did not hide my words in a dark place of the world.

I did not tell the people of Jacob to look for me in empty places.

I am the Lord, and I speak the truth.

When I speak, I say right things.”

The Lord Proves He Is the Only God

<sup>20</sup>“You people have escaped from other nations. So gather together and come before me. (These people carry statues of false gods. These people pray to those useless gods. But the people don't know what they are doing. <sup>21</sup>Tell these people to come to me. Let them talk about these things together.)

“Who told you about the things that happened a long time ago? Who has continued to tell you these things since long, long ago? I, the Lord, am the One who said these things. I am the only God. Is there another God like me? Is there another good God? Is there another God who saves his people? No! There is no other God! <sup>22</sup>All you people in faraway places should stop following those false gods. You should follow me and be saved. I am God. There is no other God. I am the only God.

<sup>23</sup>“I will make a promise by my own power. And if I promise to do something, then that promise is a command. And if I command something to happen, that thing happens. And I promise that every person will bow before me (God). Every person will promise to follow me. <sup>24</sup>People will say, ‘Goodness and power come only from the Lord.’”

Some people are angry at the Lord. But the Lord's witnesses will come and tell about the things the Lord has done. So those angry people will be ashamed. <sup>25</sup>The Lord will help the people of Israel do good, and the people will be very proud of their God.

False Gods Are Useless

46 Bel* and Nebo,* will bow down before me.

False gods are only statues. Men put those statues on the backs of animals—those statues are only heavy burdens that must be carried. The false gods do nothing but make people

Bel A false god.

Nebo A false god.

tired. <sup>2</sup>Those false gods will all bow down—they will all fall. Those false gods can't escape—they will all be carried away like prisoners.

<sup>3</sup>"Family of Jacob, listen to me! All you people from Israel that are still alive, listen! I have been carrying you. I have carried you since the time you were in your mother's body. 'I carried you when you were born, and I will carry you when you become old. Your hair will become gray, and I will still carry you, because I made you. I will continue to carry you and I will save you.

<sup>4</sup>"Can you compare me to anyone? No! No person is equal to me. You can't understand everything about me. There is nothing like me. <sup>5</sup>Some people are rich with gold and silver. Gold falls from their purses, and they weigh their silver on scales. Those people pay an artist to make a false god from wood. Then those people bow down and worship that false god. <sup>7</sup>Those people put their false god on their shoulders and carry it. That false god is useless—people have to carry it! People set the statue on the ground; and that false god can't move. That false god never walks away from its place. People can yell at it, but it will not answer. That false god is only a statue—it can't save people from their troubles.

<sup>8</sup>"You people have sinned. You should think about these things again. Remember these things and be strong. <sup>9</sup>Remember the things that happened long ago. Remember that I am God. There is no other God. Those false gods are not like me.

<sup>10</sup>"In the beginning, I told you about the things that will happen in the end. A long time ago, I told you things that had not yet happened. When I plan something—that thing happens. I do the things I want to do. <sup>11</sup>And I am calling a man from the east. That man will be like an eagle. He will come from a faraway country, and he will do the things I decide to do. I am telling you that I will do this, and I will do it. I made him, and I will bring him!

<sup>12</sup>"Some of you think that you have great power—but you don't do good things. Listen to me! <sup>13</sup>I will do good things! Soon, I will save my people. I will bring salvation to Zion* and to my wonderful Israel.

God's Message to Babylon

47 "Fall down in the dirt and sit there!

Virgin daughter of the Chaldeans,* sit on the ground!

You are not the ruler now!

People will not continue calling you nice or beautiful.

Take off your nice skirts.

Take the special stones and crush↓ grain to make flour.

Raise your skirts until men can see your legs,

and cross the rivers.*

Leave your country!

<sup>3</sup> Men will see your body, and men will use you for sex.

I will make you pay for the bad things you did.

And no man will come and help you."

<sup>4</sup> "My people say,↓

'God saves us.

His name is:

The Lord All-Powerful,
The Holy One of Israel.'

<sup>5</sup> "So Babylon, you should sit and say nothing.

Daughter of the Chaldeans,* go into the darkness.

Why? Because you will no longer be

'The Queen of the Kingdoms.'

<sup>6</sup> "I was angry at my people.

These people belong to me,

but I was angry,

so I made them not important.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.

Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

daughter of the Chaldeans This is another name for the city Babylon.

rivers The Tigris and Euphrates Rivers. Babylon was between these two rivers.

- I gave them to you,
and you punished them.
You showed no mercy to them.
You made the work very hard for older
people.
- 7 You said,
'I will live forever.
I will always be The Queen.'
You did not notice the bad things you did to those people.
You did not think about what would happen.
- 8 So now, 'nice lady' listen to me!
You feel safe and you tell yourself,
'I am the only important person.
No one else is important like me.
I will never be a widow.
I will always have children.'
- 9 These two things will happen to you:
First, you will lose your children
(people).
And then you will lose your husband (kingdom).
These things will truly happen to you.
All your magic and all your powerful tricks will not save you.
- 10 You do bad things,
but you still feel safe.
You say,
'No one sees the wrong things I do.'
You do wrong,
but you think your wisdom and knowledge will save you.
You say,
'I am the only one.
No one is important like me.'
- 11 "But troubles will come to you.
You don't know when it will happen,
but disaster is coming.
You will not be able to do anything to stop those troubles.
You will be destroyed quickly!
You will not know what happened to
you!
- 12 You worked hard all your life learning tricks and magic.
So, start using your tricks and magic!

- Maybe those tricks will help you.
Maybe you will be able to scare
someone.
- 13 You have many, many advisers.
Are you tired of the advice they give
you?
Then send out your men that read the stars.
They are able to tell when the month starts.
So maybe they can tell you when your troubles will come.
- 14 "But those men will not even be able to save themselves.
They will burn like straw.
They will burn so fast that there will be no coals left to cook bread with;
there will be no fire left to sit near.
- 15 That will happen to everything you worked hard for.
The people you did business with all your life will leave you.
Every person will go his own way.
And there will be no person left to
save you."

God Rules His World

- 48 The Lord says,
"Family of Jacob, listen to me!
You people call yourself 'Israel.'
You are from Judah's family.
You use the Lord's name to make promises.
You praise the God of Israel.
But you are not honest and sincere when you do these things.
- 2 "You people are called members of the Holy City.
You depend on the God of Israel.
The Lord All-Powerful is his Name.
- 3 "Long ago I told you about the things that
would happen.
I told you about those things, and then, suddenly, I made those things happen.

- 4 I did that because I knew you were stubborn.
 You refused to believe anything I said,
 You were very stubborn—
 like iron that does not bend,
 It was like your head was made of bronze.
- 5 So, a long time ago I told you about things that would happen.
 I told you about those things long before they happened.
 I did this so that you would not be able to say,
 ‘We did these things using our own power.’
 I did this so you could not say,
 ‘Our idols—our statues—made these things happen.’”

God Punishes Israel to Make Them Pure

- 6 “You saw and heard all the things that happened.
 So you should tell this news to other people.
 Now I will begin telling you about new things—things that you don’t know yet.
- 7 These are not things that happened long ago.
 These are things that are beginning to happen now.
 You have never heard about these things before today.
 So you can’t say,
 ‘We already knew that.’
- 8 But even if I tell you about what will happen in the future, you will still refuse to listen to me.
 You will learn nothing.
 You never listened to anything I told you.
 I have known since the beginning that you would be against me.
 You have done wrong things since the time you were born.
- 9 But, I will be patient.
 I will do this for myself.

- People will praise me for not becoming angry and destroying you.
 You will praise me for waiting.
- 10 Look, I will make you pure.
 People use a hot fire to make silver pure.
 But I will make you pure by giving you troubles.
- 11 I will do this for myself—
 for me!
 You will not make me not important!
 I will not let some false god take my glory and praise!
- 12 Jacob, listen to me!
 People of Israel, I called you to be my people.
 So listen to me!
 I am the Beginning!
 And I am the End!
- 13 I made the earth with my own hands (power).
 My right hand made the sky.
 And if I call them,
 they will come together before me.
- 14 So, all of you should gather together and listen to me!
 Did any of the false gods say these things would happen? “No!”
- The Lord loves Israel.
 The Lord will do anything he wants to Babylon and to the Chaldeans.
- 15 The Lord says,
 “I told you I would call him.*
 And I will bring him!
 I will make him succeed!
- 16 Come to me and listen to me!
 In the beginning, I spoke clearly so people could hear me.
 And I was there when Babylon began as a nation.”

Then Isaiah said, “Now, the Lord my Master sends me and his Spirit to tell you these things.” The Lord, the Savior, the Holy One of Israel, says, *him This is probably talking about Cyrus. Cyrus was a king of Persia that lived about 150 years after Isaiah died.

I am the Lord your God.
I teach you to do good things.
I lead you in the way you should go.

- <sup>18</sup> If you had obeyed me, then you would have had peace like a full flowing river.
Good things would have flowed to you like the waves of the sea.
- <sup>19</sup> If you had obeyed me, then you would have had many, many
children.
They would have been as many as the grains of sand.
If you had obeyed me,
then you would not have been
destroyed.
You would have continued with me.”

- <sup>20</sup> My people, leave Babylon!
My people, run from the Chaldeans!
Tell this news with joy to the people!
Spread this news to the faraway places
on earth!
Tell the people,
“The Lord has rescued his servant
Jacob!
- <sup>21</sup> The Lord has led his people through the
desert,
and the people never became thirsty!
Why? Because he made water flow from a rock for his people!
He split the rock,
and water flowed out!”

<sup>22</sup>But the Lord says, “There is no peace for evil people!”

God Calls His Special Servant

- 49 All you people in faraway places, listen to me!
Listen all of you people living on earth!
Before I was born, the Lord called me
to serve him.
The Lord named me while I was still in my mother’s body.
- <sup>2</sup> The Lord uses me to speak for him,
He uses me like a soldier uses a sharp sword,

but he also protects me, hiding me in his hand.

- The Lord uses me like a sharp arrow,
but he also hides me in his arrow bag.
- <sup>3</sup> The Lord, told me, “Israel, you are my servant.
I will do wonderful things with you.”
- <sup>4</sup> I said,
“I worked hard for nothing.
I became very tired,
but I did nothing useful.
I used all my power,
but did not really do anything.
So, the Lord must decide what to do with
me.
God must decide my reward.
- <sup>5</sup> The Lord made me in my mother’s body.
He made me so I would be his servant.
He made me so I would lead Jacob and Israel back to him.
The Lord will honor me.
I will get my strength from my God.”
- The Lord told me,
<sup>6</sup> “You are a very important servant to me.
The people of Israel are prisoners,
and they will be brought back to me.
Then Jacob’s family groups will come back to me.
But, you have another job;
it is even more important than this!
I will make you a light for all nations.
You will be my way to save all the people on earth.”

- <sup>7</sup> The Lord, the Holy One of Israel, protects Israel.
And the Lord says,
“My Servant is humble.
He serves rulers.
And people hate him.
But, kings will see him, and stand to honor him.
Great leaders will bow down before
him.”

This will happen because the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, wants it.

And the Lord can be trusted.
He is the One who chose you.

The Day of Salvation

<sup>8</sup>The Lord says,

“At the right time I will answer your prayers.
On the day of salvation, I will help you.
I will protect you.

And you will be the proof that I have an Agreement with the people.

The country is destroyed now,
but you will give the land back to its owners.

<sup>9</sup> You will tell the prisoners,
‘Come out of your prison!’
You will tell the people that are in darkness,

‘Come out of the dark!’
The people will eat while traveling.
They will have food even on empty hills.

<sup>10</sup> The people will not be hungry.
They will not be thirsty.
The hot sun and wind will not hurt them.

Why? Because the One who comforts them (God) will lead them.
He will lead the people near springs of water.

<sup>11</sup> “I will make a road for my people.
The mountains will be made flat,
and the low roads will be raised.

<sup>12</sup> “Look!
People are coming to me from faraway places.
People are coming from the north and from the west.
People are coming from Aswan in Egypt.”

<sup>13</sup> Heavens and Earth, be happy!
Mountains, shout with joy!
Why? Because the Lord comforts his people.
The Lord is good to his poor people.

Zion: A Woman Left Alone

<sup>14</sup>But now Zion* says,

“The Lord left me.
My Master forgot me.”

<sup>15</sup> „But I say,,
“Can a woman forget her baby? No!
Can a woman forget the child that came from her body? No!

A woman can't forget her children.
And I (the Lord) can't forget you.

<sup>16</sup> Look, I have written your name on my hand.
I always think about you!

<sup>17</sup> Your children will come back to you.
People defeated you,
but those people will leave you alone.”

Israel's People Return

<sup>18</sup> Look up!
Look around you!
All of your children are gathering together and coming to you.

The Lord says,

“I am alive, and I promise you this:
Your children will be like jewels you tie around your neck.
Your children will be like the necklace a bride wears.

<sup>19</sup> You are destroyed and defeated now.
Your land is useless.
But after a short time, you will have many, many people in your land.
And those people that destroyed you will be far, far away.

<sup>20</sup> You were sad for the children you lost, but those children will tell you,
‘This place is too small!
Give us a bigger place to live!’

<sup>21</sup> Then you will say to yourself,
‘Who gave me all these children?’

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

This is very good!
I was sad and lonely.
I was defeated and away from my
people.

So who gave me these children?
Look, I was left alone.
Where did all these children come from?"

y Master, the Lord says,

"Look, I will wave my hand to the
nations.
I will raise my flag for all people to see.
Then those people will bring your children to you.
Those people will carry your children
on their shoulders,
and they will hold them in their arms.
Kings will be teachers to your children.
Kings' daughters will care for those
children.
Those kings and their daughters will bow
down before you.
They will kiss the dirt at your feet.
Then you will know that I am the Lord.
You will know that any person that trusts in me
will not be disappointed."

When a strong soldier wins wealth in war,
you can't take that wealth from him.
When a powerful soldier guards a prisoner,
that prisoner can't escape.

But the Lord says,
"The prisoners will be taken from the strong soldier.

Those prisoners will escape.
How will this happen?
I will fight your fights.
I will save your children.
I will force those people that trouble you to eat their own bodies.
Their blood will be the wine that makes them drunk.

Then every person will know that I am the Lord—the One who saves you.
All people will know that the Powerful One of Jacob saves you."

Israel Was Punished Because the People Sinned

50 The Lord says,
"People of Israel, you say I divorced your mother, Jerusalem.
But where is the legal paper that proves
I divorced her?"

My children, did I owe money to someone?

Did I sell you to pay a debt? No!

Look, I gave you away because of the wrong things you did.

I sent your mother (Jerusalem) away because of the wrong things she did.

<sup>2</sup> I came home and found no one there.
I called and called,
but no one answered.

Do you think I am not able to save you?
I have the power to save you from your troubles.

Look, if I command the sea to become dry,
then it will become dry!
The fish will die because there is no
water,
and their bodies will rot.

<sup>3</sup> I can make the skies dark.
The skies will be black like clothes of
sadness."

God's Servant Truly Depends on God

"The Lord my Master gave me the ability to teach. So now I teach these sad people. Every morning he wakes me and teaches me like a student. <sup>3</sup>The Lord my Master helps me learn, and I have not turned against him. I will not stop following him. <sup>4</sup>I will let those people beat me. I will let them pull the hair from my beard.
I will not hide my face when they say bad things to me and spit at me. <sup>7</sup>The Lord my Master will help me. So the bad things they say will not hurt me. I will be strong. I know I will not be disappointed.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord is with me. He shows I am innocent. So no person will be able to show I am guilty. If someone wants to try to prove I am wrong, that person should come to me, and we will have a trial. <sup>9</sup>But look, the Lord my Master helps me. So no person can show me to be evil. All those people will become like worthless old clothes. Moths will eat them.

<sup>10</sup>The people that respect the Lord also listen to his servant. That servant lives completely trusting in God without knowing what will happen. He truly trusts in the Lord's name, and that servant depends on his God.

<sup>11</sup>"Look, you people want to live your own ways. You light your own fires and torches (lights). So, live your own way. But, you will be punished! You will fall into your fires and torches and you will be burned. I will make that happen."

Israel Should Be Like Abraham

51 "Some of you people try hard to live good lives. You go to the Lord for help. Listen to me. You should look at Abraham your father. He is the rock you were cut from. <sup>2</sup>Abraham is your father, and you should look at him. You should look at Sarah—the woman that gave birth to you. Abraham was alone when I called him. Then I blessed him, and he began a great family. Many, many people came from him."

<sup>3</sup>In the same way, the Lord will bless Zion.* The Lord will feel sorry for her and her people, and he will do a great thing for her. The Lord will change the desert. The desert will become a garden like the garden of Eden. That land was empty, but it will become like the Lord's Garden. People there will be very, very happy. People there will show their joy. They will sing songs about thanks and victory.

<sup>4</sup> "My people, listen to me!
My decisions will be like lights showing people how to live.

<sup>5</sup> I will soon show I am fair.
I will soon save you.

I will use my power and judge all nations
All the faraway places are waiting for me.

<sup>6</sup> They wait for my power to help them.
Look up to the heavens!

Look around you at the earth below!
The skies will disappear like clouds of smoke.

The earth will become like worthless old clothes.

The people on earth will die,
but my Salvation will continue forever.
My goodness will never end.

<sup>7</sup> You people that understand goodness should listen to me.

You people that follow my teachings should hear the things I say.

Don't be afraid of evil people.
Don't be afraid of the bad things they say to you.

<sup>8</sup> Why? Because they will be like old clothes.

Moths will eat them.
They will be like wood.
Worms will eat them.

But my goodness will continue forever.
My salvation will continue forever and ever."

God's Own Power Will Save His People

<sup>9</sup> Arm (power) of the Lord, wake up!
Wake up!

Prepare your strength!

Use your strength

like you did a long time ago;
like you have from ancient times.

You are the power that defeated Rahab.*
You defeated the Dragon.

<sup>10</sup> You caused the sea to become dry!

You dried the waters of the great deep!
You made the deepest parts of the sea into a road.

Your people crossed over that road and were saved.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Rahab ... Dragon. This is Rahab the great sea monster. Some ancient stories tell about Rahab fighting with God.

- <sup>11</sup> The Lord will save his people.
They will return to Zion* with joy.
They will be very, very happy.
Their happiness will be like a crown on their heads forever.
They will be singing with joy.
All sadness will be gone far away.
- <sup>12</sup> The Lord says,
"I am the One who comforts you.
So why should you be afraid of other
people?
They are only people that live and die.
They are only humans—they die the same as grass."
- <sup>13</sup> The Lord made you.
With his power he made the earth!
With his power he spread the skies across the earth!
But you forget him and his power.
So you are always afraid of angry men that hurt you.
Those men planned to destroy you.
But where are they now?
[They are all gone.]
- <sup>14</sup> People in prison will soon be made free.
Those people will not die and rot in prison.
Those people will have enough food.
- <sup>15</sup> "I, the Lord, am your God.
I stir up the sea and make the waves."
(The Lord All-Powerful is his name.)
- <sup>16</sup> ["My servant, I will give you the words I want you to say. And I will cover you with my hands and protect you. I will use you to make the new heaven and earth. I will use you to tell Israel, 'You are my people.'"]

God Punished Israel

- <sup>17</sup> Wake up! Wake up!
Jerusalem, get up!
The Lord was very angry at you.

So you were punished.
[This punishment was like] a cup of poison you had to drink.
And you drank it.

<sup>18</sup> Jerusalem had many people, but none of those people became leaders for her. None of the children she raised became guides to lead her. <sup>19</sup>Troubles came to Jerusalem in groups of two; stealing and breaking, great hunger and fighting.

No person helped you when you were suffering. No person was kind to you. <sup>20</sup>Your people became weak. They fell on the ground and lay there. Those people were lying on every street corner. They were like animals caught in a net. They were punished from the Lord's anger until they could not accept any more punishment. When God said he would give them more punishment, they became very weak.

<sup>21</sup>Listen to me, poor Jerusalem. You are weak like, a drunk person, but you are not drunk from wine. [You are weak from that "cup of poison."]

<sup>22</sup>Your God and Master, the Lord, will fight for his people. He says to you, "Look, I am taking this 'cup of poison' (punishment) away from you. I am taking my anger away from you. You will not be punished by my anger any more. <sup>23</sup>I will now use my anger to punish the people that hurt you. Those people tried to kill you. They told you, 'Bow down before us, and we will walk on you!' They forced you to bow down before them. Then those people made your back like dirt for them to walk on. You were like a road for them to travel on."

Israel Will Be Saved

52 Wake up!
Wake up Zion!*
Dress yourselves!
Put on your strength!
Holy Jerusalem, stand up!
The people that have not agreed to follow
God*

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

have ... God Literally, "People that are not circumcised and that are not pure."

—the people that are not clean—will not enter you again.

<sup>2</sup> Shake off the dust!

Put on your wonderful clothes!
Jerusalem, Daughter of Zion,* you were a prisoner.

But now, free yourself from the chains around your neck!

<sup>3</sup> The Lord says,

“You were not sold for money.
So you will be saved without using money.”

“The Lord my Master says, “My people first went down to Egypt to stay—and then they became slaves. Later, Assyria made them slaves. Now look what has happened! Another nation has taken my people. Who is this country that has taken my people like slaves?
This country did not pay to take my people.
This nation rules my people and laughs at them.
Those people always say bad things about me.”

“The Lord says, “This has happened, so my people will learn about me. My people will know who I am. My people will know my name, and they will know that I Am He* is speaking to them.”

<sup>7</sup>It is a wonderful thing to see a messenger come over the hills with good news. It is wonderful to hear a messenger announce, “There is peace! We have been saved! Your God is king!”

<sup>8</sup> The city guards* begin shouting.
They are all rejoicing together!
Why? Because every one of them sees the Lord returning to Zion.*

<sup>9</sup> Jerusalem, your destroyed buildings will be happy again.

Daughter of Zion This means Jerusalem, the city built on Mount Zion.

I Am He This is like the Hebrew name for God. It shows God lives forever, and that he is always with his people. See Exodus 3:13-17.

guards Men that stand on the city walls and watch for messengers or trouble coming to the city. Here this probably means the prophets.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

You will all rejoice together.
Why? Because the Lord will be kind to Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> The Lord will rescue his people.
The Lord will show his holy strength to all the nations.
And all the faraway countries will see how God saves his people.

<sup>11</sup> You people should leave Babylon!
Leave that place!
You men that carry the things used in worship,
make yourselves pure.
Don't touch anything that is not pure.

<sup>12</sup> You will leave Babylon.
But you will not be forced to leave in a hurry.
You will not be forced to run away.
You will walk out,
and the Lord will walk with you,
The Lord will be in front of you,
and the God of Israel will be behind
you.*

God's Suffering Servant

<sup>13</sup>“Look at my Servant. He will be very successful.* He will be very important. In the future, people will honor and respect him.

<sup>14</sup>“But many people were shocked when they saw my Servant. He was hurt so badly that they could hardly recognize him as a man.
<sup>15</sup>But even more people will be amazed. Kings will look at him amazed and not say a word.
These people did not hear the story about my Servant—they saw what happened. These people did not hear that story, but they understood.”

53 Who really believed the things we announced? Who really accepted the Lord's punishment?

<sup>2</sup>He grew up like a small plant before the Lord. He was like a root growing in dry ground. He did not look special. He had no special glory. If we looked at him, we would

The Lord ... behind you This shows God will protect the people. Compare Exodus 14:19,20.

He will ... successful Or, “He is very wise.” Or “He will teach people—making them wise.”

see nothing special that would cause us to like him. <sup>3</sup>He was shamed and his friends left him. He was a man that had much pain. He knew sickness very well. People did not give him the honor of even looking at him. We did not even notice him.

<sup>4</sup>But he took our troubles and made them his. He took away our pain, and we thought God was punishing him. We thought God beat him <sub>for something he did.</sub> <sup>5</sup>But he was given pain to suffer for the wrong things we did. He was crushed for our guilt. A debt we owed—our punishment—was given to him. We were healed (forgiven) because of his pain. <sup>6</sup>But <sub>even after he did this,</sub> all of us wandered away like sheep. Each of us went our own way. <sub>We did this after,</sub> the Lord <sub>freed us from our guilt and,</sub> put all our guilt on him.

<sup>7</sup>He was hurt and punished. But he never protested. He said nothing—like a sheep being carried to be killed. He was quiet like a lamb is quiet while the wool is being cut from him. He never opened his mouth <sub>to defend himself.</sub> <sup>8</sup>Men used force and took him—and they did not judge him fairly. No person can tell about his future family, because he was taken from the land of living people. He was punished to pay for the sins of my people.

<sup>9</sup>He died and was buried with the rich. He was buried with evil men. He did nothing wrong—he never spoke lies—but still these things happened to him.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord decided to crush him. The Lord decided that he must suffer. So the Servant gave himself to be the One to die. But he will live a new life for a long, long time. He will see his people. He will complete the things the Lord wants him to do.

<sup>11</sup>He will suffer many things in his soul. But, he will see the good things that happen. He will be satisfied with the things he learns. My Good Servant will make many people free from guilt; he will carry away their sins. <sup>12</sup>For this reason, I will make him a great man among people. He will have a share of all things with the people that are strong. <sub>I will do this for him,</sub> because he gave his life for the people, and he died.

People said he was a criminal. But <sub>the truth is that,</sub> he carried away the sins of many, many people. And now he speaks for people that have sinned.

God Brings His People Home

54 Woman, be happy!
You have not given birth to children.

But you should be very happy!

The Lord says,

“The woman that is alone* will have more children than the woman with a husband.”

<sup>2</sup> Make your tent bigger.

Open your doors wide.

Don't stop adding to your home.

Make your tent large and strong.

<sup>3</sup> Why? Because you will begin growing very much.

Your children will get people from many nations, and those children will again live in the cities that were destroyed.

<sup>4</sup> Don't be afraid!

You will not be disappointed.

People will not say bad things against you.

You will not be embarrassed.

When you were young, you felt shame.

But you will forget that shame now.

You will not remember the shame that you felt when you lost your husband.

Because your husband is the One who made you.

His name is the Lord All-Powerful.

He is the One who saves Israel.

He is the Holy One of Israel.

And he will be called the God of all the earth!

The woman ... alone This Hebrew word is like the word, “destroyed.” This probably means “Jerusalem, the city that is destroyed.”

You were very sad in your spirit, but the Lord called you to be his.
You were like a woman that married young,
and her husband left her.
But God called you to be his.

<sup>7</sup> God says,
"I left you,
but only for a short time.
I will gather you to me again.
And I will show you great kindness.

<sup>8</sup> I became very angry and hid from you for a short time.
But I will comfort you with kindness
forever."
The Lord your Savior said this.

God Always Loves His People

<sup>9</sup> God says,
"This is like I punished the world with the flood in Noah's time.
I promised Noah I would never flood the world again.
In the same way, I promise I will never become angry and say bad things to you again."

<sup>10</sup> The Lord says,
"The mountains may disappear,
and the hills may become dust.
But my kindness will never leave you.
I will make peace with you,
and it will never end."
The Lord shows mercy to you.
And he is the One that said these things.

<sup>11</sup> "You poor city!
Storms have hurt you,
and you have not been comforted.
I will build you again.
I will lay your foundations using precious stones.
I will use turquoise and sapphire.

<sup>12</sup> I will use rubies to build your walls.
I will use shiny jewels for the gates.
I will use precious stones to build all your walls.

<sup>13</sup> Your children will follow God,
and he will teach them.
Your children will have much peace.
<sup>14</sup> I will build you using fairness.
So, you should stay far away from being cruel and not fair.
Then you will have nothing to fear.
Nothing will come to hurt you.
<sup>15</sup> None of my armies will fight against you.
And if any army tries to attack you,
you will defeat that army."

<sup>16</sup>"Look, I made the blacksmith.* He blows on fire to make it hotter. Then he takes the hot iron and makes the kind of tool he wants to make. In the same way, I made the 'Destroyer' that destroys things.

<sup>17</sup>"People will make weapons to fight against you, but those weapons will not defeat
you. Some people will say things against you.
But every person that speaks against you will be shown to be wrong."

The Lord says, "What do the Lord's servants get? They get the good things that come from me!"

God Gives the "Food" That Really Satisfies

55 "All you thirsty people,
Come drink water!
Don't worry if you do not have money.
Come, eat and drink until you are full!
You do not need money;
eat and drink until you are full.
The food and wine cost nothing!
<sup>2</sup> Why waste your money on something that is not real food?
Why should you work for something that does not really satisfy you?
Listen very closely to me,
and you will eat the good food.
You will enjoy the food that satisfies your soul.
<sup>3</sup> Listen closely to the things I say.
Listen to me so your souls will live.
Come to me!

- And I will make an agreement with you that will continue forever.
It will be like the agreement I made with David.
I promised David that I would be kind to him forever.
And you can trust that agreement.
- 4 I made David a witness of my power for all nations.
I promised David that he would become a ruler
and a commander of many nations.”
- 5 There are nations in places you don't know,
but you will call for those nations.
Those nations don't know you,
but they will run to you.
This will happen because the Lord, your God, wants it.
This will happen because the Holy One of Israel honors you.
- 6 So you should look for the Lord
before it is too late.
You should call to him now,
while he is near.
- 7 Evil people should stop living their evil
way.
They should stop thinking bad thoughts.
They should come to the Lord again.
Then the Lord will comfort them.
Those people should come to the Lord because our God forgives.

People Are Not Wise Enough to Understand God

- 8 The Lord says,
“Your thoughts are not like my thoughts.
Your ways are not like my ways.”
- 9 The heavens are higher than the earth.
In the same way, my ways are higher than your ways.
And my thoughts are higher than your thoughts.”
The Lord himself said these things.
- 10 “Rain and snow fall from the sky.

- And they don't go back to the sky until they touch the ground and make the ground wet.
Then the ground makes plants sprout and grow.
These plants make seeds for the farmer.
And people use these seeds to make bread to eat.
- 11 In the same way, my words leave my
mouth,
and they don't come back until they make things happen.
My words make the things happen that I want to happen.
My words succeed in doing the things I send them to do.
- 12 My words will go out with happiness,
and they will bring peace.
Mountains and hills will begin dancing with happiness.
All the trees in the fields will clap their hands.
- 13 Large cypress trees will grow where bushes were.
Myrtle trees will grow where weeds were.
These things will make the Lord famous.
These things will be proof that the Lord is powerful.
This proof will never be destroyed.”

All Nations Will Follow the Lord

56 The Lord said these things, “Be fair to all people. Do things that are right!
Why? Because soon my salvation will come to you. My goodness will soon be shown to the whole world.”

<sup>2</sup>The person that obeys God's law about the Sabbath* will be blessed. And the person that does no evil will be happy. <sup>3</sup>Some people that are not Jews will join themselves to the Lord.
Those people should not say, “The Lord will not accept me with his people.” A eunuch*

Sabbath Saturday. A special day of rest and worship for the Jews.

eunuch(s) Special servants. Sometimes their male sex organs were removed so they could not have children.

should not say, "I am a dry piece of wood—I can't make any children." <sup>44</sup> These people should not say those things, because the Lord says, "I will give power and fame to the eunuchs that obey the laws about the Sabbath. I will give power and fame to the eunuchs that do the things I want. They will be in my temple* and in my city. I will do these things for all my people that follow my Agreement.* I will give those people something better than sons and daughters. I will give them a name that continues forever."

<sup>6</sup> Some people that are not Jews will join themselves to the Lord. They will do this so they can serve him and love the Lord's name. They will join themselves to the Lord to become his servants. They will keep the Sabbath* as a special day of worship, and they will continue to closely follow my Agreement (Law).

<sup>7</sup> The Lord says, "I will bring those people to my holy mountain. I will make them happy in my house of prayer. The offerings and sacrifices they give me will please me. Why? Because my temple* will be called a house of prayer for all nations." <sup>8</sup> The Lord my Master said these things.

The people of Israel were forced to leave their country. But the Lord will gather them together again. The Lord says, "I will again gather these people together."

God Invites All People to Serve Him

- <sup>9</sup> All you wild animals in the forest, come to eat!
- <sup>10</sup> The guards (prophets) are all blind. They don't know what they are doing. They are like dogs that don't know how to bark.

temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

Agreement Usually, this means the agreement God made with Israel through Moses. Here it might mean the agreement of Isaiah 55:3.

Sabbath Saturday. A special day of rest and worship for the Jews.

- They lie on the ground and sleep. Oh, they love to sleep.
- <sup>11</sup> They are like hungry dogs. They are never satisfied. Those shepherds don't know what they are doing. They are like their sheep, that have all wandered away. They are greedy. All they want to do is satisfy themselves.
- <sup>12</sup> They come and say, "I will drink some wine. I will drink some beer. I will also do this tomorrow. And later, I will drink even more."

Israel Does Not Follow God

- 57 The good people are gone, but no person noticed it. People don't understand what is happening, but they have gathered the good people together. People don't understand that troubles are coming. They don't know that good people have been gathered together for protection.
- <sup>2</sup> But peace will come, and the people will rest in their own beds, and people will live the way God wants them to.
- <sup>3</sup> "Come here you children of witches. Your father is guilty of sexual sins, and your mother sells her body for sex. Come here!
- <sup>4</sup> You are evil and lying children. You make fun of me. You make faces at me. You stick your tongues out at me.
- <sup>5</sup> All you want is to worship false gods under every green tree. You kill children by every stream, and sacrifice them in the rocky places.

- 6 You love to worship the smooth rocks in the rivers.
 You pour wine on them to worship them.
 You give sacrifices* to them,
 but those rocks are all you get.
 Do you think this makes me happy?
 No! It does not make me happy.
 You make your bed on every hill and high mountain.*
- 7 You go up to those places and offer sacrifices.*
- 8 Then you get in those beds and sin against me by loving those gods.
 You love those gods,
 and you enjoy looking at their naked bodies.
 You were with me,
 but you left me to be with them.
 You hide the things that help you remember me.
 You hide those things behind the doors and behind the door posts.*
 And you go and make agreements with those false gods.
- 9 You use your oils and perfumes to look nice for Molech.*
 You have sent your messengers to faraway lands.
 And this will bring you down to Sheol,
 the place of death.

Israel Should Trust God, Not Statues

- 10 "You have worked hard to do these things, but you never became tired.
 You found new strength,

sacrifices Gifts to God. Sometimes these were special kinds of animals that were killed and burned on an altar.

every ... mountain The people worship false gods in these places. The people thought these false gods would give them good crops and more children.

door posts The people of Israel were supposed to put special things on their door frames to help them remember God. See Deuteronomy 6:9.

Molech A false god. This name is like the Hebrew word meaning "king."

- because you enjoyed these things.
- 11 You did not remember me.
 You did not even notice me!
 So, who were you worrying about?
 Who were you afraid of?
 Why did you lie?
 Look, I have been quiet for a long time—and you did not honor me.
- 12 I could tell about your 'goodness' and all the 'religious' things you do; but those things are useless!
- 13 When you need help, you cry to those false gods you have gathered around you.
 But I tell you, the wind will blow them all away.
 A puff of wind will take them all away from you,
 but the person that depends on me will get the earth.
 That person will have my holy mountain.*

The Lord Will Save His People

- 14 "Clear the road!
 Clear the road!
 Make the way clear for my people!
- 15 The One who is high and lifted up,
 the One who lives forever,
 the One whose name is holy,
 he says:

I live in a high and holy place,
 but also with people that are sad and humble.

I will give new life to the people that are humble in spirit.

I will give new life to the people that are sad in their hearts.

- 16 I will not continue fighting forever.

I will not always be angry.

If I continued to be angry,

then man's spirit

—the life I gave them—

holy mountain This is the mountain the temple in Jerusalem is built on."

would die in front of me.

- <sup>17</sup> These people did evil things, and it made me angry.
So, I punished Israel.
I turned away from him because I was
angry.
And Israel left me.
Israel went any place he wanted.

- <sup>18</sup> I saw where Israel went.
So, I will heal (forgive) him.
I will comfort him
and say words to make him feel better.
Then he and his people will not feel sad.

- <sup>19</sup> I will make a new word for those people,
peace.
I will give peace to the people near me
and to the people that are far away.
I will heal (forgive) those people!"
The Lord said those things.

<sup>20</sup>But evil people are like the angry ocean.
They can't be quiet and peaceful. They are angry, and like the ocean, they stir up mud. My God says, <sup>21</sup>"There is no peace for evil people."

People Must Be Told to Follow God

58 Shout as loud as you can!
Don't stop yourself!

Shout loud like a trumpet!

Tell the people about the wrong things they have done!

Tell Jacob's family about their sins!

- <sup>2</sup> Then they will come every day to worship me.

And the people will want to learn my ways.

Those people will become a nation that does things that are right.

Those people will not quit following God's good commands.

Those people will ask me to judge them fairly.

They will want to go to God, for his fair decisions.

<sup>3</sup>Now those people say, "We stop eating food to show honor to you. Why don't you see us? We hurt our bodies to show honor to you.

Why don't you notice us?"

But the Lord says, "You do things to please yourselves on those special days for not eating food. And you punish your servants—not your own bodies. <sup>4</sup>You are hungry; but not for food.
You are hungry for arguing and fighting, not bread. You are hungry to hit people with your evil hands. When you stop eating food, it is not for me. You don't want to use your voice to praise me. <sup>5</sup>Do you think on those special days for not eating food that all I want is to see people punish their bodies? Do you think I want people to look sad? Do you think I want people to bow their heads like dead plants and wear clothes of sadness? Do you think I want people to sit in ashes to show their sadness?
That is what you do on your special days for not eating food. Do you think that is what the Lord wants?

"I will tell you the kind of special day I want—a day to make people free. I want a day that you take the burdens off people. I want a day when you make the troubled people free. I want a day when you take the burdens from their shoulders. <sup>7</sup>I want you to share your food with the hungry people. I want you to find poor people that don't have homes, and I want you to bring them into your own homes. When you see a man that has no clothes—give him your clothes! Don't hide from helping those people; they are just like you."

<sup>8</sup>If you do these things, your light will begin shining like the light of dawn. Then your wounds will heal. Your "Goodness" (God) will walk in front of you, and the Lord's Glory will come following behind you. <sup>9</sup>Then you will call to the Lord, and the Lord will answer you. You will shout to the Lord, and he will say, "Here I am."

God's People Must Do Right

You should stop making troubles and burdens for people. You should stop using bitter words and blaming people for things.
<sup>10</sup>You should feel sorry for hungry people and give them food. You should help the people that are troubled—satisfy their needs. Then your light will shine in the darkness. And you will have no sadness. You will be bright like sunshine at noon.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord will always lead you. He will satisfy your soul in dry lands. The Lord will give strength to your bones. You will be like a garden that has much water. You will be like a spring that always has water.

<sup>12</sup>Your cities have been destroyed for many, many years. But new cities will be built, and the foundations of these cities will continue for many, many years. You will be called "The One Who Fixes Fences." And you will be called, "The One Who Builds Roads and Houses."

<sup>13</sup>That will happen when you stop sinning against God's law about the Sabbath.* And that will happen when you stop doing things to please yourself on that special day. You should call the Sabbath a happy day. You should honor the Lord's special day. You should honor that special day by not doing and saying those things you do every other day. <sup>14</sup>Then you will please the Lord, and the Lord will say,

"I will carry you to the High Places above the earth.

I will feed you.

I will give you the things that Jacob your father had."

The Lord said these things, so they will happen.

Evil! People Should Change Their Lives

59 Look, the Lord's power is enough to save you. He can hear you when you ask him for help. <sup>2</sup>But your sins separate you from your God. The Lord sees your sins, and he turns away from you.

<sup>3</sup>Your hands are dirty; they are covered with blood. Your fingers are covered with guilt. You tell lies with your mouth. Your tongue says evil things. <sup>4</sup>No person tells the truth about other people. People sue each other in court, and they depend on false arguments to win their cases. They tell lies about each other. They are full of trouble, and they give birth to evil. <sup>5</sup>They hatch evil, like, eggs from poison snakes. If you eat one of those eggs you will die. And if you break one of those eggs, a poison snake will come out.

People tell lies—these lies are like spider webs. <sup>6</sup>The webs they make can't be used for clothes. You can't cover yourself with those webs.

Some people do evil things and use their hands to hurt other people. <sup>7</sup>Those people use their feet to run to evil. They hurry to kill people that have done nothing wrong. They think evil thoughts. Rioting and stealing is their way of living.

<sup>8</sup>Those people don't know the way of peace. There is no goodness in their lives. Their ways are not honest. Any people that live like they live, will never have peace in their lives.

Israel's Sin Brings Trouble

<sup>9</sup> All fairness and goodness is gone.

There is only darkness near us,
so we must wait for the light.

We hope for a bright light,
but all we have is darkness.

<sup>10</sup> We are like people without eyes.

We walk into walls like blind people.

We stumble and fall like it is night.

Even in the daylight we can't see.

At noontime we fall like dead men.

<sup>11</sup> We are all very sad.

We make sad sounds like doves and bears.

We are waiting for a time when people are fair.

But there is no fairness yet.

We are waiting to be saved,
but salvation is still far away.

<sup>12</sup> Why? Because we have done many, many wrong things against our God.

Our sins show we are wrong.

We know we are guilty of doing these things.

<sup>13</sup> We have sinned and turned against the Lord.

We have turned away from the Lord and left him.

We have planned evil things.

We have planned things that are against God.

We have thought of these things and planned them in our hearts.

<sup>14</sup> Justice has turned away from us.

Fairness stands far away.

Truth has fallen in the streets.

Goodness is not allowed to enter the city.

<sup>15</sup> Truth is gone.

And people that try to do good are robbed.

The Lord looked, and he could not find any goodness.

The Lord did not like this.

So the Lord used his own power and his own goodness, and the Lord saved the people.

The Lord put on the helmet of salvation.

The Lord put on the clothes of punishment.

The Lord put on the coat of strong love.*

<sup>18</sup> The Lord is angry at his enemies.

So the Lord will give them the punishment they deserve.

The Lord is angry with his enemies.

So the Lord will punish the people in all the faraway places.

The Lord will give them the punishment they deserve.

<sup>19</sup> Then people in the west will respect the Lord's name.

People in the east will be afraid of the Lord's Glory.

The Lord will come quickly like a fast flowing river.

It will be like a powerful wind from the Lord blowing this river.

<sup>a</sup>Then a Savior will come to Zion.* He will come to the people of Jacob that sinned but came back to God.

<sup>2</sup>The Lord says, "I will make an Agreement with those people. I promise, my Spirit and my words that I put in your mouth will never leave you. They will be with your children and your children's children. They will be with you for now and forever."

God Is Coming!

60 "Jerusalem, my light, get up!
Your Light (God) is coming!

The Lord's Glory will shine on you.

But the Lord will shine on you, and people will see his Glory around you.

<sup>3</sup> At that time, the nations will come to your Light (God).

Kings will come to your bright Light.

See, people are gathering around and coming to you.

Those people are your sons coming from far away.

And your daughters are coming with them.

<sup>5</sup> This will happen in the future,]

And at that time, you will see your people, and your faces will shine with happiness.]

[First,] you will be afraid, but then, you will be excited!

All the riches of the nations from across the seas will be put before you.

The riches of the nations will come to you.

<sup>6</sup> Herds of camels from Midian and Ephah will cover your land.

Long lines of camels will come from Sheba.

strong love This Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

- They will bring gold and incense.
 People will sing praises to the Lord.
- 7 All the sheep from Kedar will be collected and given to you.
 Rams* from Nebaioth will be brought to you.
 They will be acceptable sacrifices on my altar.*
 And I will make my wonderful temple* more beautiful.
- 8 “Look at the people!
 They are hurrying to you like clouds that cross the sky quickly.
 They are like doves flying to their nests.
- 9 The faraway lands are waiting for me.
 The great ships from Tarshish* are ready to go.
 Those ships are ready to bring your children from faraway lands.
 And those ships will bring their silver and gold with them.
 This will happen to honor the Lord your God.
 This will happen because the Holy One of Israel does wonderful things.
- 10 Children from other lands will build your walls again.
 Their kings will serve you.
 When I was angry, I hurt you.
 But now, I want to be kind to you.
 So I will comfort you.
- 11 Your gates will always be open.
 They will not be closed night or day.
 Nations and kings will bring their wealth to you.
- 12 Some nations and kingdoms will not serve you,
 but those nations and kingdoms will be lost and destroyed.

- 13 “All the great things of Lebanon* will be given to you.
 People will bring pine, fir, and cypress trees to you.
 You will use these trees to make my holy place* more beautiful.
 (This place is like a stool in front of my throne, and I will give it much honor.)
- 14 In the past, people hurt you.
 Those people will bow down before you.
 In the past, people hated you.
 Those people will bow down at your feet.
 Those people will call you
 ‘The Lord’s City.’
 ‘The Zion* of the Holy One of Israel.’

The New Israel: Land of Peace

- 15 “You will never again be left alone.
 You will never again be hated.
 You will never again be empty.
 I will make you great forever.
 You will be happy forever and ever.
- 16 Nations will give you things you need.
 It will be like a child drinking milk from its mother,
 but you will ‘drink’ riches from kings.
 Then you will know that it is I, the Lord,
 who saves you.
 You will know that the Great One of Jacob protects you.
- 17 You now have copper,
 I will bring you gold.
 You now have iron,
 I will bring you silver.
 I will change your wood into copper.
 I will change your rocks into iron.
 I will change your punishment into peace.

ram(s) A male sheep.

altar A stone table used for burning sacrifices as gifts to God.
temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

ships from Tarshish This is probably a special type of cargo ship.

Lebanon A country north of Israel. It was famous for its great cedar and pine trees.

my holy place This probably means the temple in Jerusalem.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

People now hurt you,
 but people will do good things for you.
 18 People will never again be mean to you.
 People will never again steal from you in your country.
 You will name your walls,
 'Salvation.'
 You will name your gates,
 'Praise.'
 19 The sun will no longer be your light during the day.
 The light from the moon will no longer be your light.
 Why? Because the Lord will be your light
 forever.
 Your God will be your glory.
 20 Your 'sun' will never go down again.
 Your 'moon' will never be dark again.
 Why? Because the Lord will be your light
 forever.
 And your time of sadness will end.
 21 All of your people will be good.
 Those people will get the earth forever.
 I made those people.
 They are the wonderful plant I made with my own hands.
 22 The smallest person will become a large family,
 and the youngest person will become a powerful nation.
 When the time is right, I, the Lord, will come quickly.
 I will make these things happen."

The Lord's Message of Freedom

61 The Lord's servant says, "The Lord my Master put his Spirit in me. The Lord is with me because he chose me to do some special things. The Lord chose me to:

Announce good news to the poor
 people;
 comfort the sad people;
 announce freedom to the people that are not free;
 give new strength to the weak people;
 2 announce the time when the Lord will show his kindness;

announce the time when our God will punish evil people;
 comfort the sad people;
 3 give honor to the sad people of Zion*;
 (Now they have only ashes.)
 give the people of Zion the oil of happiness;
 (Now they have only sadness.)
 give the people of Zion songs of praise
 to God;
 (Now they have only sorrow.)
 name those people
 'Good Trees';
 name those people,
 'The Lord's Wonderful Plant.'"

"At that time, the old cities that were destroyed will be built again. Those cities will be made new like they were in the beginning.
 The cities that were destroyed for many, many years will be made like new.

"Then your enemies will come to you and care for your sheep. The children of your enemies will work in your fields and in your gardens. 'You will be called, 'The Lord's Priests,' 'The Servants of our God.' You will have the riches that come from all the nations on earth. And you will be proud you have it.

"In the past other people shamed you and said bad things to you. You were shamed much more than any other people. So in your land you will get two times more than other people.
 You will get happiness that continues forever.
 'Why will this happen?,' Because I am the Lord and I love fairness. I hate stealing and everything that is wrong. So I will give the people the payment they should have.

"I have made an Agreement with my people forever. 'Everyone in all nations will know my people. Everyone will know the children from my nation. Any person that sees them will know that the Lord blesses them.'"

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
 Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

God's Servant Brings Salvation and Goodness

- <sup>10</sup> "The Lord makes me very, very happy.
My whole self is happy in my God.
The Lord covered me with the clothes of salvation.
These clothes are like the nice clothes a man wears at his wedding.
The Lord covered me with a coat of goodness.
This coat is like the beautiful clothes a woman wears at her wedding.
- <sup>11</sup> The earth causes plants to grow.
People plant seeds in the garden,
and the garden causes those seeds to grow.
In the same way, the Lord will make goodness grow.
The Lord will make praise grow in all the nations."

New Jerusalem: A City Full of Goodness

- 62 "I love Zion,*
so I will continue to speak for her.
I love Jerusalem,
so I will not stop speaking.
I will speak until goodness shines like a bright light.
I will speak until salvation burns bright like a flame.
- <sup>2</sup> Then all nations will see your goodness.
All kings will see your honor.
Then you will have a new name.
The Lord himself will give you people that new name.
- <sup>3</sup> The Lord will be very proud of you.
You will be like a beautiful crown in the Lord's hand.
- <sup>4</sup> You will never again be called
'The People that God had Left.'
Your land will never again be called
'The Land that God Destroyed.'

- You will be called
'The People God Loves.'
Your land will be called
'God's Bride.'
Why? Because the Lord loves you.
And your land will belong to him.
- <sup>5</sup> When a young man loves a woman, he marries her.
And she becomes his wife.
In the same way, your land will belong to your children.
A man is very happy with his new wife.
In the same way, your God will be very happy with you."

God Will Keep His Promises

- <sup>6</sup> "I put guards (prophets) on the walls of Jerusalem to watch.
These guards will not be silent.
Day and night they will teach."
- You people that teach about the Lord should never be quiet.
- <sup>7</sup> You should not stop praying to the Lord.
You should pray to him always.
Pray to the Lord until he makes Jerusalem a city again.
Pray to the Lord until he makes Jerusalem a city that all people on the earth will praise.
- <sup>8</sup> The Lord made a promise.
The Lord made the promise using his own power as proof.
And the Lord will use his power to keep that promise.
The Lord said,
"I promise I will never again give your food to your enemies.
I promise that your enemies will never again take the wine that you make.
- <sup>9</sup> The person that gathers food will eat it,
and that person will praise the Lord.
The person that gathers the grapes, will drink the wine that comes from those grapes.
- All these things will happen in my holy

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

- <sup>10</sup> Come through the gates!
Make the way clear for the people!
Prepare the road!
Move all the stones off the road!
Raise the flag as a sign for the people!
- <sup>11</sup> Listen, the Lord is speaking to all the faraway lands:
“Tell the people of Zion:”
Look, your Savior is coming.
He is bringing your reward to you.
He is bringing that reward with him.”
- <sup>12</sup> His people will be called:
“The Holy People,”
“The Saved People of the Lord.”
And Jerusalem will be called:
“The City God Wants,”
“The City God Is With.”

The Lord Judges His People

- 63 Who is this coming from Edom?*
- He comes from Bozrah* wearing red
clothes.
He is glorious in his clothes.
And he is walking tall with his great power.
He says,
“I have the power to save you.
And I speak honestly.”
- <sup>2</sup> “Why are your clothes bright red?
Why are your clothes red like the person that makes wine from grapes?”
- <sup>3</sup> He answers,
“I walked in the winepress* by myself.
No person helped me.
I was angry and I walked on the grapes.
The juice* splashed on my clothes.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Edom A country east of Judah.

Bozrah A city in Edom.

winepress A place where people walk on grapes to squeeze the juice from them. This juice then becomes wine.

juice Or, “strong drink” or “blood.”

- So now my clothes are dirty.
- <sup>4</sup> I chose a time to punish people.
The time has come for me to save and protect my people.
- <sup>5</sup> I looked around, but I saw no person to
help me.
I was surprised that no person supported
me.
So I used my own power to save my
people.
My own anger supported me.
- <sup>6</sup> While I was angry, I walked on people.
I punished them while I was mad.
I poured their blood* on the ground.”

The Lord Has Been Kind to His People

- <sup>7</sup> I will remember that the Lord is kind.
And I will remember to praise the Lord.
The Lord gave many good things to the family of Israel.
The Lord has been very kind to us.
The Lord showed mercy to us.
- <sup>8</sup> The Lord said,
“These are my people.
These children don’t lie.”
So the Lord saved those people.
- <sup>9</sup> The people had many troubles,
but the Lord was not against them.
The Lord loved the people and felt sorry for them.
So the Lord saved the people.
He sent his special angel to save them.
And the Lord will continue to care for the people forever.
The Lord did not want to ever stop caring for those people.
- <sup>10</sup> But the people turned against the Lord.
The people made his Holy Spirit very sad.
So the Lord became their enemy.
The Lord fought against those people.
- <sup>11</sup> But the Lord still remembers a long time ago.
The Lord remembers Moses and his
people.

blood Or, “strong drink” or “strength.”

The Lord is the One who brought the people through the sea.

The Lord used his shepherds (prophets) to lead his flock (people).

But where is the Lord now—the One who put his Spirit in Moses?

- <sup>12</sup> The Lord led Moses by the right hand.
The Lord used his wonderful power to lead Moses.

The Lord divided the water so that the people could walk through the sea.

The Lord made his name famous by doing these great things.

- <sup>13</sup> The Lord led the people through the deep seas.

The people walked without falling. They walked like a horse through the desert.

- <sup>14</sup> A cow does not fall just walking in the field.

„In the same way, the people did not fall while going through the sea.“

The Lord’s Spirit led the people to a resting place.

The people were safe all the time.

Lord, that is the way you led your people.

You led the people and you made your name wonderful.

A Prayer for God to Help His People

- <sup>15</sup> Lord, look down from the heavens.
See the things that are happening now!
Look down at us from your great and holy home in heaven.
Where is your strong love* for us?
Where are your powerful works that come from deep inside you?
Where is your mercy for me?
Why are you hiding your kind love from me?
- <sup>16</sup> Look! You are our father!
Abraham does not know we are his children.

Israel (Jacob) does not recognize us.
Lord, you are our father!

You are the One who has always saved us!

- <sup>17</sup> Lord, why are you pushing us away from you?

Why are you making it hard for us to follow you?

Come back to us Lord!

We are your servants.

Come to us and help us!

Our families belong to you.

- <sup>18</sup> Your holy people now have many troubles.

Our enemies are walking on your holy temple.*

- <sup>19</sup> Some people don’t follow you.

Those people don’t wear your name.

And we were like those people.

64 <sup>1,2</sup> If you would tear open the skies and come down to earth, „then everything would change.“
The mountains would melt before you.

- <sup>2</sup> „The mountains, would burn in flames like burning bushes.

„The mountains would boil like water on the fire.

Then your enemies would learn about you.

Then all nations would shake with fear when they see you.

- <sup>3</sup> (But we don’t really want you to do these things.

The mountains would melt before you.)

- <sup>4</sup> Your people have never really listened to you.

Your people have never really heard the things you said.

No person has ever seen a God like you.

There is no other God—only you.

If people are patient and wait for you to help them,

strong love This Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.

temple A special building for worshipping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

then you will do great things for them.

- <sup>5</sup> You are with people that enjoy doing good.
Those people remember your ways of living.
But look, in the past we sinned against you.
So you became angry with us.
Now, how will we be saved?
- <sup>6</sup> We are all dirty with sin.
All our “goodness” is like old dirty clothes.
We are all like dead leaves.
Our sins have carried us away like wind.
- <sup>7</sup> We don’t worship you.
We don’t trust in your name.
None of us are excited about following you.
So you have turned away from us.
We are helpless before you,
because we are full of sin.
- <sup>8</sup> But Lord, you are our father.
We are like clay.
And you are the potter.*
Your hands made us all.
- <sup>9</sup> Lord, don’t continue to be angry with us!
Don’t remember our sins forever!
Please, look at us!
We are your people.
- <sup>10</sup> Your holy cities are empty.
Those cities are like deserts now.
Zion* is a desert!
Jerusalem is destroyed!
- <sup>11</sup> Our holy temple has been burned by fire.
That temple was great to us.
Our fathers worshiped you there.
All the good things we owned are now destroyed.
- <sup>12</sup> Will these things always keep you from showing your love to us,<sup>1</sup>?
Will you continue to say nothing?
Will you punish us forever?

potter A person that makes pots and other things from clay.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

All People Will Learn About God

65 The Lord says, “I helped people that had not come to me for advice. The people that found me were not looking for me. I spoke to a nation that does not wear my name. I said, ‘Here I am! Here I am!’

<sup>2</sup>“I stood ready to accept people that turned against me. I was waiting for those people to come to me. But they continued living a way that is not good. They did anything their hearts wanted to do. <sup>3</sup>Those people are in front of me always making me angry. Those people offer sacrifices* and burn incense* in their special gardens.* <sup>4</sup>Those people sit among the graves. They wait to get messages from dead people. They even live among dead bodies. They eat pig meat. Their forks and knives are dirty with rotten meat.

<sup>5</sup>“But those people tell other people, ‘Don’t come near me! Don’t touch me until I make you clean.’ Those people are like smoke in my eyes. And their fire burns all the time.”

Israel Must Be Punished

<sup>6</sup>“Look, here is a bill that must be paid. (This bill shows you are guilty for your sins.) I will not be quiet until I pay this bill, and I will pay the bill by punishing you.

<sup>7</sup>“Your sins and your fathers’ sins are all the same.” The Lord said this, “Your fathers did these sins when they burned incense* in the mountains. They shamed me on those hills. And I punished them first. I gave them the punishment they should have.”

God Will Not Completely Destroy Israel

<sup>8</sup>The Lord says, “When there is new wine in the grapes, people squeeze out the wine. But they don’t completely destroy the grapes. They do this because the grapes can still be used. I will do the same thing to my servants. I will not sacrifices Gifts to God. Sometimes these were special kinds of animals that were killed and burned on an altar.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

special gardens People worshiped false gods in these gardens.

completely destroy them. <sup>9</sup>I will keep some of the people of Jacob (Israel). Some of the people of Judah will get my mountain. My servants will live there. I will choose the people that will live there. <sup>10</sup>Then Sharon Valley* will be a field for sheep. The Valley of Achor* will be a place for cattle to rest. All these things will be for my people—the people that look for me.

<sup>11</sup>“But you people that left the Lord will be punished. You are the people that forgot about my holy mountain.* You are the people that worship Luck. You depend on the false god Fate.* <sup>12</sup>But I decide your future. And I will punish you by using my sword. You will all be humble before the One who punishes you.

I called you and you refused to answer me! I spoke to you and you would not listen. You did the things that I say are evil. You decided to do the things that I don't like.”

<sup>13</sup> So the Lord my Master said these things.

“My servants will eat,
but you evil people will be hungry.
My servants will drink,
but you evil people will be thirsty.
My servants will be happy,
but you evil people will be shamed.

<sup>14</sup> My servants have goodness in their hearts, so they will be happy.
But you evil people will cry,
because you will have pain in your hearts.

Your spirits will be broken, and you will be very sad.

<sup>15</sup> Your names will be like bad words to my servants.”

My Master and Lord will kill you.
And he will call his servants by a new name.

<sup>16</sup> People now ask blessings from the earth.
But in the future, they will ask blessings from the faithful God.

People now trust in the power of the earth
when they make a promise.

But in the future, they will trust in the faithful God.

Why? Because the troubles in the past will all be forgotten.

My people will never again remember those troubles.

A New Time Is Coming

<sup>17</sup> “Look, I will make a new heaven and a new earth.

People will not remember the past
things.

None of those things will be in the memories of my people.

<sup>18</sup> My people will not be sad!
No, they will be happy and will praise
God forever.

They will be happy because of the things
I will make.

I will make a Jerusalem that is full of joy,

and I will make them a happy people.

<sup>19</sup> Then I will be happy with Jerusalem.
I will be happy with my people.

There will never again be crying and sadness in that city.

<sup>20</sup> There will never be a child from that city, that is born and lives only a few days.
No person from that city will die after only a short life.

Every child born will live a long life,
and every older person will continue living for a long time.

A person that lives 100 years will be called young.

(But the person that sins will be full of trouble, even if he lives 100 years.)

<sup>21</sup> In that city, if a person builds a house, that person will live there.

If a person plants a garden of grapes, that person will eat the grapes from the garden.

Sharon Valley The low land along the coast of Palestine.

Valley of Achor A valley about ten miles north of Jerusalem.

my holy mountain Mount Zion, the mountain Jerusalem is built on.

Luck ... Fate Two false gods. The people thought these gods controlled their futures.’

- <sup>22</sup> It will not happen that one person builds a house and another person lives there.
And it will not happen that one person plants a garden and another person eats the fruit from that garden.
My people will live as long as the trees.
The people I choose will enjoy the things they make.
- <sup>23</sup> People will never again work for nothing.
People will never again give birth to children that die young.
All my people will be blessed by the
Lord.
My people and their children will be blessed.
- <sup>24</sup> I will know the things they need before they ask.
I will help them—even before they finish asking me for help.
- <sup>25</sup> Wolves and little lambs will eat together.
Lions will eat with cattle.
A snake on the ground will not scare or hurt any person on my holy
mountain.”
The Lord said all those things.

God Will Judge All Nations

- 66 This is what the Lord says,
“The skies are my throne.
The earth is my footstool.
So do you think you can build a house for
me?
No! You can’t!
Can you give me a place to rest?
No! You can’t!
- <sup>2</sup> I myself made all things.
All things are here because I made
them.”
The Lord said these things.
- “Tell me, what people do I care for?
I care for the poor people.
These are the people that are very sad.
I care for people that obey my words.
- <sup>3</sup> Some people kill bulls to give to me as a sacrifice,

but they also beat people.
Those people kill sheep to give to me as a
sacrifice,
but they also break the necks of dogs!
And they offer me the blood of pigs!*

Those people remember to burn incense,*
but they also love their worthless idols.*
Those people choose their own ways—not mine.
They love their terrible idols completely.

- <sup>4</sup> So I decided to use their own tricks!
I mean that, I will punish them using the things they are most afraid
of.
I called to those people,
but they did not listen.
I spoke to them,
but they did not hear me.
So I will do the same thing to them.
Those people did things I said are evil.
They chose to do things I did not like.”
- <sup>5</sup> You people that obey the Lord’s commands should listen to the things
the Lord says,
“Your brothers hated you.
They turned against you because you followed me.
Your brothers said,
‘We will come back to you when the Lord is honored.
Then we will be happy with you.’
Those people will be punished.”

<sup>6</sup>Listen! There is a loud noise coming from the city and the temple.* That noise is the Lord punishing his enemies. The Lord is giving them the punishment they should have.

dogs ... pigs God did not want his people to offer dogs and pigs as sacrifices.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

<sup>7-8</sup>“It does not happen that a woman gives birth before she feels the pain. It has never happened that a woman sees her son born before she feels any pain. This has never happened. In the same way, no person ever saw a new world begin in one day. No person has ever heard of a new nation that began in one day. The land must first have pain like the pain of birth. After the birth pain then the land will give birth to her children—a new nation. <sup>9</sup>In the same way, I will not cause pain without allowing something new to be born.”

The Lord says this. “I promise, if I cause you the pain of birth then I will not stop you from having your new nation.” Your God said this.

- <sup>10</sup> Jerusalem, be happy!
 All you people that love Jerusalem should be happy!
 Sad things happened to Jerusalem,
 so some of you people are sad.
 But now you people should be very, very
 happy.
- <sup>11</sup> Why? Because you will have mercy like milk coming from her breast.
 That “milk” will truly satisfy you!
 You people will drink the milk, and you will truly enjoy the glory of Jerusalem.

- <sup>12</sup> The Lord says,
 “Look, I will give you peace.
 This peace will come flowing to you like a great river.
 All the wealth from all the nations on earth will come flowing to you.
 This wealth will flow like a stream from a flood.
 You will be like little children,
 You will drink the ‘milk.’
 You will be lifted and held in my arms.
 You will be bounced on my knees.
- <sup>13</sup> You will be comforted in Jerusalem.
 I will comfort you like a mother comforts her child.
- <sup>14</sup> You will see the things that you truly enjoy.

You will be free and grow like grass.
 The Lord’s servants will see his power, but the Lord’s enemies will see his anger.

<sup>15</sup>Look, the Lord is coming with fire. The Lord’s armies are coming with clouds of dust.
 The Lord will punish those people with his anger. The Lord will use flames of fire to punish those people while he is angry. <sup>16</sup>The Lord will judge the people. Then the Lord will destroy the people with fire and with his sword.
 The Lord will destroy many people.

<sup>17</sup>Those people wash themselves to make themselves pure for worshiping in their special gardens.* These people follow each other into their special gardens. Then they worship their idols. But, the Lord will destroy all those people.

“Those people eat the meat from pigs, rats, and other dirty things. But, all of those people will be destroyed together.” (The Lord himself said these things.)

<sup>18</sup>“Those people have evil thoughts and do evil things. So I am coming to punish them. I will gather all nations and all people. All people will come together and see my power.
<sup>19</sup>I will put a mark on some of the people—I will save them. I will send some of these saved people to the nations Tarshish,* Libya,* Lud*

special gardens People worshiped false gods in these gardens.

Tarshish A city far away from Israel, probably in Spain.
 Tarshish was famous for its large ships that sailed the Mediterranean Sea.

Libya A country in North Africa, west of Egypt.

Lud This country was probably in the country that is now western Turkey.

(the land of archers*), Tubal,* Greece, and all the faraway lands. Those people have never heard my teachings. Those people have never seen my glory. So the saved people will tell the nations about my glory. <sup>20</sup>And they will bring all your brothers and sisters from all nations. They will bring your brothers and sisters to my holy mountain,* Jerusalem. Your brothers and sisters will come on horses, donkeys, camels, and in chariots and wagons. Your brothers and sisters will be like the gifts that the people of Israel bring on clean plates to the Lord's temple.* <sup>21</sup>I will also choose some of these people to be priests and Levites.*" (The Lord said these things.)

The New Heavens and the New Earth

<sup>22</sup>"I will make a new world—and the new heavens and the new earth, will last forever. In the same way, your names and your children will always be with me. <sup>23</sup>All people will come to worship me on every worship day; they will come every Sabbath* and every first day of the month.*

<sup>24</sup>"These people will be in my holy city. And if they go out of the city, they will see the dead bodies of the people that sinned against me. There will be worms in those bodies, and the worms will never die. Fires will burn those bodies, and the fires will never stop.

archers Soldiers that use bows and arrows in war.

Tubal This country was probably in the country that is now eastern Turkey.

my holy mountain This is probably Mount Zion, the mountain Jerusalem is built on.

temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

Levites People from the family group of Levi. Only Levites could help the priests in the temple.

Sabbath Saturday. A special day of rest and worship for the Jews.

first ... month Literally, "new moon," the first day of the Jewish month and a special day of worship.

Jeremiah

1 These are the messages of Jeremiah. Jeremiah was the son of a man named Hilkiyah. Jeremiah belonged to the family of priests that lived in the city of Anathoth.* That city is in the land that belongs to the family group of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup>The Lord began to speak to Jeremiah during the days when Josiah was king of the nation of Judah. Josiah was the son of a man named Amon. The Lord began to speak to Jeremiah in the 13th year that Josiah was king.* <sup>3</sup>The Lord continued to speak to Jeremiah during the time when Jehoiakim was king of Judah. Jehoiakim was the son of Josiah. The Lord continued to speak to Jeremiah during the eleven years and five months that Zedekiah was king of Judah. Zedekiah was also a son of Josiah. In the fifth month of Zedekiah's eleventh year as king, the people that lived in Jerusalem were taken away into exile.

God Calls Jeremiah

"The Lord's message came to Jeremiah. This message was from the Lord:

<sup>1</sup> "Before I made you in your mother's body, I knew you.
Before you were born, I chose you for a special work.

priests ... Anathoth These priests probably belonged to the family of the priest Abiathar. Abiathar was a high priest in Jerusalem during the time David was king. He was sent away to Anathoth by King Solomon. See 1 Kings 2:26.

13th ... king That is 627 B.C.

I chose you to be a prophet to the nations."

<sup>4</sup>Then I, Jeremiah, said, "But Lord All-Powerful, I don't know how to speak. I am only a boy."

<sup>5</sup>But the Lord said to me,

"Don't say, 'I am only a boy.'

You must go everywhere that I send you.

You must say everything I tell you to say.

<sup>8</sup> Don't be afraid of anyone.

I am with you,

and I will protect you."

This message is from the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord reached out with his hand and touched my mouth. The Lord said to me,

"Jeremiah, I am putting my words in your mouth.

<sup>10</sup> Today I have put you in charge of nations and kingdoms.

You will pull up and tear down.

You will destroy and overthrow.

You will build up and plant."

Two Visions

<sup>11</sup>The Lord's message came to me. This message was from the Lord: "Jeremiah, what do you see?"

I answered the Lord and said, "I see a stick made from almond wood."

<sup>12</sup>The Lord said to me, "You have seen very well. And I am watching* to make sure that my message to you comes true.”

<sup>13</sup>The Lord’s message came to me again. This message was from the Lord: “Jeremiah, what do you see?”

I answered the Lord and said, “I see a pot of boiling water. That pot is tipping over from the north.”

<sup>14</sup>The Lord said to me,

“Something terrible will come from the north.

It will happen to all the people that live in this country.

<sup>15</sup> In a short time I will call all of the people in the northern kingdoms.”

The Lord said those things.

“The kings of those countries will come.

They will set up their thrones near the gates of Jerusalem.

They will attack all the city walls of Jerusalem.

They will attack all the cities in the land of Judah.

<sup>16</sup> And I will announce my judgment against my people.

I will do this because they are bad people and they have turned against me.

My people left me.

How did they leave me?,

They offered sacrifices to other gods.

They worshiped idols they had made with their own hands.

Stand up and speak to the people.

Tell the people everything that I tell you to say.

Don’t be afraid of the people.

If you are afraid of the people, then I will give you good reason to be afraid of them.

<sup>18</sup> As for me, today I am going to make you a strong city, an iron column, a bronze wall.

You will be able to stand against everyone in the land, against the kings of the land of Judah, against the leaders of Judah, against the priests of Judah, and against the people of the land of Judah.

<sup>19</sup> All those people will fight against you, but they will not defeat you.

Why? Because I am with you, and I will save you.”

This message is from the Lord.

Judah Was Unfaithful

2 The Lord’s message came to Jeremiah. This message was from the Lord: <sup>2</sup>“Jeremiah, go and speak to the people of Jerusalem. Say to them:

“‘At the time you were a young nation, you were faithful to me.

You followed me like a young bride.

You followed me through the desert, through a land that had never been used for farm land.

<sup>3</sup> The people of Israel were a holy gift to the Lord.

They were the firstfruit to be gathered by the Lord.

Any people that tried to hurt the people of Israel were judged guilty.

Bad things happened to those wicked people.’”

This message was from the Lord.

<sup>4</sup> Hear the Lord’s message, family of Jacob.

Hear the message, all you family groups of Israel.

“Was I not fair to your ancestors*?

Is that why they turned away from me?

Your ancestors worshiped worthless idols,

watching This is a play on words. “Shaqed” is the Hebrew word for “almond wood,” and “shoqed” is the word for “watching.”

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

- and they became worthless themselves.
- 6 Your ancestors did not say,
 'The Lord brought us from Egypt.
 Where is he?
 The Lord led us through the desert.
 Where is he?
 The Lord led us through a dry and rocky
 land.
 Where is he?
 The Lord led us through a dark and dangerous land.
 No people travel through that land.
 No people live in that land.
 Where is he?'
- 7 No, your ancestors did not ask those questions!
- 7 I brought you into a good land with many good things.
 I did this so you could eat the fruit and produce that grew there.
 But you came and made my land
 'dirty.'
- I gave that land to you,
 but you made it a bad place.
- 8 "The priests did not ask,
 'Where is the Lord?'
 The people that know the law did not want to know me.
 The leaders of the people of Israel turned
 against me.
 The prophets prophesied* in the name of the false god Baal.*
 They worshiped worthless idols.
- 9 "So now I will accuse you again," says the Lord, "And I will also accuse your grandchildren.
- 10 Go across the sea to the Islands of Kittim* and see.
 Send someone to the land of Kedar* to pay close attention.

prophesied Or, "spoke."

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Islands of Kittim The name means the Island of Cyprus. But the name was often used for the other islands and coastlands of the Mediterranean Sea.

Kedar This was the name of an Arabian family group that lived in the desert to the east of Palestine.

- See if any person has ever done such a thing as this:
- 11 Has a nation of people ever exchanged their old gods for new gods? No!
 (Of course, their gods are not really gods at all!)
 But my people have exchanged their glorious God
 for idols that are worth nothing.
- 12 "Skies, be shocked at the things that have happened!
 Shake with great fear!"
 This message was from the Lord.
- 13 "My people have done two evil things.
 They have turned away from me
 (I am the spring of living water), and they have dug their own water cisterns.
 (They turned to other gods.)
 But their cisterns are broken.
 Those cisterns can't hold water.
- 14 "Have the people of Israel become slaves?
 Have they become like a person that was born a slave?
 Why did people take the wealth from the people of Israel?"
- 15 Young lions' (enemies) roar at the nation of Israel.
 The lions growl.
 Lions have destroyed the land of the people of Israel.
 The cities of Israel have been burned.
 There are no people left in them.
- 16 The men from the cities of Memphis and Tahpanhes* have smashed the top of your head.
- 17 This trouble is your own fault!
 You turned away from the Lord your
 God.*
- 18 People of Judah, think about this:

Memphis and Tahpanhes Two important cities in Egypt.

God The Hebrew text adds "at the time of the one that leads you on the way." The ancient Greek translation does not have this addition.

- Did it help to go to Egypt?
Did it help to drink from the Nile River?
No!
Did it help to go to Assyria?
Did it help to drink from the Euphrates River?
No!
- 19 You did bad things,
and those bad things will only bring punishment to you.
Trouble will come to you.
And that trouble will teach you a lesson.
Think about it!
Then you will understand how bad it is to turn away from your God.
It is wrong not to fear me!"
This message was from my Master, the Lord All-Powerful.
- 20 "Judah, a long time ago you threw off your yoke.
You broke the ropes I used to hold you close to me.
You said to me, 'I will not serve you!'
In fact, on every high hill,
and under every green tree,
you lie down and act like a prostitute!*
- 21 I planted you, Judah, like a special vine.
All of you were like good seed.
How did you turn into a different vine that grows bad fruit?
- 22 Even if you wash yourself with lye,*
even if you use much soap,
I can still see your guilt." This message was from the Lord God.
- 23 "Judah, how can you say to me, 'I am not guilty;
I have not worshiped the Baal* idols'?
Think about the things you did in the valley.
Think about what you have done.
- You are like a fast she-camel that runs from place to place.
24 You are like a wild donkey that lives in the desert.
At mating time, she sniffs (smells) the wind.
No person can bring her back at the time she is in heat.
At mating time, every male that wants her will get her.
It is easy to find her.
- 25 Judah, stop chasing after idols!
Stop being thirsty for those other gods.
But you say, 'It is no use! I can't quit!
I love those other gods.
I want to worship them.'
- 26 "A thief is ashamed when people catch him.
In the same way, the family of Israel is ashamed.
The kings and the leaders,
the priests and the prophets are ashamed.
- 27 Those people talk to pieces of wood!
They say, 'You are my father.'
Those people speak to a rock.
They say, 'You gave birth to me.'
All those people will be ashamed.
Those people don't look at me.
They have turned their backs to me.
But when the people of Judah get into trouble,
they say to me, 'Come and save us!'
- 28 Let those idols come and save you!
Where are the idols you have made for yourselves?
Let's see if those idols come and save you when you are in trouble.
People of Judah, you have as many idols as cities!
- 29 "Why do you argue with me?
All of you have turned against me."
This message was from the Lord.
- 30 "I punished you people of Judah,
but it did not help.
You did not come back when you were on every ... a prostitute This means the people worshiped their false gods in these places.

lye A chemical that is used like soap.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

punished.

You killed with your swords the prophets that came to you.

You were like a dangerous lion and you killed the prophets.”

<sup>31</sup> People of this generation, pay attention to the Lord’s message!

“Have I been like a desert to the people of Israel?

Have I been like a dark and dangerous land to them?

My people say,

‘We are free to go our own way.

We will not come back to you again,
Lord!’

Why do they say those things?

<sup>32</sup> Does a young woman forget her jewelry?

No!

Does a bride forget the sash for her dress?

No!

But my people have forgotten me
for days without number.

<sup>33</sup> “Judah, you really know how to chase
after lovers (false gods).

So you have taught yourselves to do evil things.

<sup>34</sup> You have blood on your hands!

It is the blood of the poor and innocent
people.

You killed people,
and those people were not even burglars that you had caught.

You do those bad things,

<sup>35</sup> but you still keep on saying,

‘I am innocent.

God is not angry with me.’

So I will also judge you guilty of lying.

Why? Because you say, ‘I have done nothing wrong.’

<sup>36</sup> It is so easy for you to change your mind.
Assyria disappointed you.

So you left Assyria and went to Egypt
for help.

Egypt will disappoint you.

<sup>37</sup> You will eventually leave Egypt, too.

And your hands will be on your head in shame.

You trusted those countries.

But you will not have any success with those countries.

Why? Because the Lord has rejected
those countries.

3

“If a man divorces his wife, and that wife leaves him
and marries another man, can that man come back to his wife
again?

No!

If that man went back to that woman,*
then the land would become completely ‘dirty.’

Judah, you acted like a prostitute with many lovers (false gods).

And now you want to come back to
me?”

This message was from the Lord.

<sup>2</sup> “Look up to the bare hilltops, Judah.

Is there any place where you have not had sex?

You have sat by the road waiting for lovers.

You sat there like an Arab waiting in the desert.

You made the land ‘dirty’!

How? You did many bad things and you were unfaithful to me.

<sup>3</sup> You sinned, so the rain has not come.

There have not been any springtime rains.

But you still have the look of a prostitute on your face.

You refuse even to be ashamed of the things you did.

<sup>4</sup> But now you are calling me.

‘My father,

You have been my dear friend since I was a child.

<sup>5</sup> God will not always be angry at me.

God’s anger will not continue forever.’

If that ... woman It was against the law of Moses for a man to marry a woman he had divorced if that woman had become another man’s wife. It was against the law for that man to marry her again even if her second husband divorced her or died. See Deuteronomy 24:1-4.

Judah, you say those things, but you do as much evil as you can.”

The Two Bad Sisters: Israel and Judah

“During the time that King Josiah was ruling the nation of Judah, the Lord spoke to me. The Lord said: ‘Jeremiah, you saw the bad things that Israel* did? You saw how she was unfaithful to me. She did the sin of adultery with idols on every hill and under every green tree. <sup>7</sup>I said to myself, ‘Israel will come back to me after she has finished doing these evil things.’ But she did not come back to me. And Israel’s unfaithful sister, Judah, saw what she did. <sup>8</sup>Israel was unfaithful and Israel knew why I sent her away. Israel knew that I divorced her because she did the sin of adultery. But that did not make her unfaithful sister afraid. Judah, was not afraid. Judah also went out and acted like a prostitute. <sup>9</sup>Judah did not care that she was acting like a prostitute. So she made her country ‘dirty.’ She did the sin of adultery by worshiping idols made out of stone and wood. <sup>10</sup>Israel’s unfaithful sister (Judah) did not come back to me with her whole heart. She only pretended that she came back to me.” This message was from the Lord.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord said to me, “Israel was not faithful to me. But she had a better excuse than unfaithful Judah. <sup>12</sup>Go, Jeremiah, and speak this message toward the north:

‘Come back, you faithless people of Israel.’

This message was from the Lord.

‘I will stop frowning at you.

I am full of mercy.’

This message was from the Lord.

‘I will not be angry with you forever.

<sup>13</sup> All you have to do is recognize your sin.

You turned against the Lord your God.

That is your sin.

You worshiped the idols of the people from other nations.

You worshiped the idols under every green tree.

You did not obey me.’”

This message was from the Lord.

<sup>14</sup>“Come back to me you unfaithful people.
This message was from the Lord.

“I am your Master. I will take one person from every city and two people from every family and bring you to Zion.* <sup>15</sup>Then I will give you new rulers. Those rulers will be faithful to me. They will lead you with knowledge and understanding. <sup>16</sup>In those days there will be many of you in the land.” This message is from the Lord.

“At that time, people will never again say, ‘I remember the days when we had the Box of the Lord’s Agreement.’* They won’t even think about the Holy Box anymore. They won’t even remember or miss it. They will never make another Holy Box. <sup>17</sup>At that time, the city of Jerusalem will be called the ‘Lord’s Throne.’ All nations will come together in the city of Jerusalem to give honor to the name of the Lord. They won’t follow their stubborn, evil hearts anymore. <sup>18</sup>In those days, the family of Judah will join the family of Israel. They will come together from a land in the north. They will come to the land I gave to their ancestors.*

‘I would be happy to treat you like my own children.

I would be happy to give you a pleasant
land,

a land more beautiful than any other nation.’

I thought that you would call me ‘Father.’

I thought that you would always follow
me.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Box of the Agreement The box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert. Also called “The Ark of the Covenant.”

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Israel Here the name Israel means the northern kingdom of Israel. Israel was destroyed by the Assyrians about 100 years before Jeremiah’s time.

<sup>20</sup> But you have been like a woman that is unfaithful to her husband.

Family of Israel, you have been unfaithful to me!"

This message was from the Lord.

<sup>21</sup> You can hear crying on the bare hills.

The people of Israel are crying and praying for mercy.

They became very evil.

They forgot the Lord their God.

(The Lord also said,)

<sup>22</sup> "Come back to me, you unfaithful people
of Israel.

Come back and I will forgive* you for being unfaithful to me."

(The people should say,)

"Yes, we will come to you.

You are the Lord our God.

<sup>23</sup> It was foolish to worship idols on the hills.

All the loud parties on the mountains were only a lie.

Surely the salvation of Israel,
comes from the Lord our God.

<sup>24</sup> The shameful one*

has eaten up in sacrifice everything our fathers owned.

This has happened since we were
children.

The shameful one took our fathers' sheep and cattle,

their sons and daughters.

<sup>25</sup> Let us lie down in our shame.

Let our shame cover us like a blanket.

We have sinned against the Lord our
God.

We and our fathers have sinned.

Since we were children until now, we have not obeyed the Lord our God."

4 This message is from the Lord.

"If you want to come back, Israel,"
then come back to me.

Throw away your idols.

Don't wander away from me.

<sup>2</sup> If you do those things, then you will be able to use these words
to make a promise:

You will be able to say, 'As the Lord lives.'

And you will be able to use those words in a truthful, honest, and right way.

If you do these things, then the nations will be blessed by the Lord.

They will brag about the things the Lord has done."

<sup>3</sup>This is what the Lord says to the men of the nation of Judah, and to the city of Jerusalem:

"Your fields have not been plowed.

Plow those fields!

Don't plant seeds among the thorns.

Change your hearts!*

Men of Judah and people of Jerusalem,
if you don't change,

then I will become very angry.

My anger will spread fast like a fire,
and my anger will burn you up.

And no person will be able to put out that fire.

Why will this happen?

Because of the evil things you have
done."

Disaster from the North

<sup>5</sup>"Announce this message to the people of Judah:

Tell every person in the city of Jerusalem,
'blow the trumpet all over the country.'

Shout out loud and say,

'Come together!

Let us all escape to the strong cities for protection.'

Become ... hearts Literally, "Be circumcised to the Lord. Cut away the foreskin of your hearts." A man cut away the foreskin from his sex organ to show he was becoming one of God's people. Jeremiah is saying that the real circumcision must be from inside a person's heart (mind).

forgive Literally, "heal."

shameful one This is probably a specific reference to the god Baal.

- 6 Raise the signal flag toward Zion.*
Run for your lives!
Don't wait!
Do this because I am bringing disaster from the north.*
I am bringing terrible destruction."
- 7 A lion has come out of his cave.
A destroyer of nations has begun to march.
He has left his home
to destroy your land.
Your towns will be destroyed.
There will be no people left to live in
them.
- 8 So put on sackcloth.*
Cry loud!
Why? Because the Lord is very angry at
us.
- 9 At the time this happens,"
this message is from the Lord,
"the king and leaders will lose their courage.
The priests will be scared!
The prophets will be shocked!"
- 10 Then I, Jeremiah, said, "Lord my Master, you have really tricked the people of Judah and Jerusalem. You said to them, 'You will have peace.' But now the sword is pointing at their throats!"
- 11 At that time a message will be given to the people of Judah and Jerusalem:
"A hot wind blows from the bare hills.
It comes out of the desert toward my
people.
It is not like the gentle wind that farmers use to separate the grain from the chaff.*
- 12 It is a stronger wind than that,
and it comes from me.
Now, I will announce my judgment against the people of Judah."
- 13 Look! The enemy rises up like a cloud.
His chariots* look like a wind storm.
His horses are faster than eagles.
It will be very bad for us!
We are ruined!
- 14 People of Jerusalem, wash the evil things from your hearts.
Make your hearts pure so that you can be saved.
Don't continue making evil plans.
- 15 Listen! The voice of a messenger from the land of Dan*
is speaking.
One is bringing bad news from the hill country of Ephraim.*
- 16 "Report it to this nation.*
Spread the news to the people in Jerusalem.
Enemies are coming from a faraway
country.
Those enemies are shouting words of war against the cities of Judah.
- 17 The enemy has surrounded Jerusalem like men that guard a field.
Judah, you turned against me!
So the enemy is coming against you!"
This message is from the Lord.
- 18 "The way you lived and the things you did brought this trouble to you.
It is your evil that has made your life so hard.
It is your evil, that brought the pain that hurts deep in your heart."

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

north The Babylonian army came from this direction to attack Judah. Armies from countries north and east of Israel often came this way to attack Judah and Israel.

sackcloth A kind of cloth that people wore to show they were sad or crying for dead people.

chaff The seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers saved the seeds but let the wind blow the useless chaff away.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

land of Dan The people from the family group of Dan lived near the border in the northern part of Israel. They would be the first to be attacked by an enemy from the north.
hill ... Ephraim This was the central part of the land that had been the northern kingdom of Israel.

Report ... nation The Hebrew is hard to understand here.

Jeremiah's Cry

- 19 Oh, my sadness and worry is making my stomach hurt.
I am bent over in pain.
Oh, I am so scared.
My heart is pounding inside me.
I can't keep quiet.
Why? Because I have heard the trumpet blow.
The trumpet is calling the army to war!
- 20 Disaster follows disaster!
The whole country is destroyed!
Suddenly my tents are destroyed!
My curtains are torn down!
- 21 How long, O Lord, must I see the war flags?
How long must I hear the war trumpets?
- 22 God said, "My people are foolish.
They don't know me.
They are stupid children.
They don't understand.
They are skillful at doing evil,
but they don't know how to do good."

Disaster Is Coming

- 23 I looked at the earth.
The earth was empty; nothing was on the earth.
I looked at the sky,
and its light was gone.*
- 24 I looked at the mountains, and they were shaking.
All the hills were trembling.
- 25 I looked, but there were no people.
All the birds of the sky had flown away.
- 26 I looked, and the good land had become a desert.
All the cities in that land were destroyed.
The Lord caused this.
The Lord and his great anger caused this.

- 27 The Lord says these things:
"The whole country will be ruined.
(But I will not completely destroy the land.)
- 28 So the people in the land will cry for the dead people.
The sky will grow dark.
I have spoken and will not change.
I have made a decision and I will not change my mind."
- 29 The people of Judah will hear the sound of the horse soldiers and the archers,* and the people will run away!
Some of the people will hide in caves,* some will hide in the bushes,
some will climb up into the rocks.
All of the cities of Judah are empty.
No one lives in them.
- 30 O Judah, you destroyed nation, what are you doing?
Why do you put on your finest red dress?
Why do you put on your gold jewelry?
Why do you put on your eye makeup?
You make yourself beautiful, but it is all useless.
Your lovers hate you.
They are trying to kill you.
- 31 I hear a cry like the cry of a woman having a baby.
It is a scream like a woman that is having her first baby.
It is the cry of the Daughter of Zion.*
She is lifting her hands in prayer, saying,
"Oh! I am about to faint!
Murderers are all around me!"

The Evil of the People of Judah

5 (The Lord says,)
"Walk up and down the streets of Jerusalem.
Look around and think about these

archers Soldiers that use bows and arrows in war.

hide in caves This line is from the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew text does not have this line.

Daughter of Zion A name for the city of Jerusalem.

things.

Search the public squares of the city.

See if you can find one good person,
one person that does honest things,
one that searches for the truth.

If you find one good person,
I will forgive Jerusalem!

<sup>2</sup> The people make promises and say,
'As the Lord lives.'
But they don't really mean it."

<sup>3</sup> O Lord, I know that you look for truth in people.

You hit the people of Judah,
but they did not feel any pain.

You destroyed them,
but they refused to learn their lesson.
They became very stubborn.

They refused to be sorry for their evil deeds.

<sup>4</sup> But I (Jeremiah) said to myself,
"It must be only the poor people that are so foolish.

It is they that have not learned the way of the Lord.

The poor people don't know the teachings of their God.

<sup>5</sup> So I will go to the leaders of the people of Judah.

I will talk to them.

Surely the leaders understand the way of
the Lord.

I am sure they know the law of their
God."

But the leaders had all joined together to break away from serving the Lord.*

<sup>6</sup> They turned against God, so a lion from the forest will attack
them.

A wolf from the desert will kill them.

A leopard is hiding near their cities.

The leopard will tear to pieces anyone that comes out of the city.

This will happen because the people of Judah have sinned again and again.

They have wandered away from the Lord many times.

<sup>7</sup> God said, "Judah, give me a reason why
I should forgive you.

Your children have abandoned me.

They have made promises to idols that are not gods at all.

I gave your children everything they needed.

But they still were unfaithful to me!

They spent much time in houses of prostitution.

<sup>8</sup> They are like horses that have had plenty to eat and are ready to mate.

They are like a horse calling its neighbor's wife.

<sup>9</sup> Should I punish the people of Judah for doing these things?"

This message is from the Lord.

"Yes! You know I should punish a nation such as this.

I should give them the punishment they deserve.

<sup>10</sup> "Go along the rows of Judah's grapevines.

Cut down the vines.

(But don't completely destroy them.)

Cut off all their branches.

Why? Because these branches don't belong to the Lord.

<sup>11</sup> The family of Israel and the family of Judah

have been unfaithful to me in every way."

This message is from the Lord.

<sup>12</sup> "Those people have lied about the Lord.
They have said,

'The Lord will not do anything to us.

Nothing bad will happen to us.

We will never see an army attack us.

We will never starve.'

<sup>13</sup> "The false prophets are only empty wind.*

break ... Lord Literally, "break the yoke and throw off the bonds."

wind This is a word play. The Hebrew word for wind is like the word for Spirit.

The word of God is not in them.*
Bad things will happen to them.”

- 14 The Lord, God All-Powerful, said these things:
“Those people said I would not punish them.
So Jeremiah, the words I give you will be like fire.
And those people will be like wood.
The fire will burn up all the wood.
15 Family of Israel,”
this message is from the Lord,
“I will soon bring a nation from far away to attack you.
It is an old nation.
It is an ancient nation.
The people of that nation speak a language you don’t know.
You can’t understand what they say.
16 Their arrow bags are like open graves.
All of their men are strong soldiers.
17 Those soldiers will eat the crops that you have harvested.
They will eat all of your food.
They will eat (destroy) your sons and daughters.
They will eat your flocks and your herds.
They will eat your grapes and your figs.
They will destroy your strong cities with their swords.
They will destroy the strong cities that you trust in!
18 “But when those terrible days come,”
this message is from the Lord,
“I will not fully destroy you, Judah.
19 The people of Judah will ask you,
‘Jeremiah, why has the Lord our God done this bad thing to us?’
Give them this answer:
‘You people of Judah have left the Lord,
and you have served foreign idols in your own land.

You did those things,
so now you will serve foreigners in a land that does not belong to you.’”

- 20 The Lord said, “Announce this message to the family of Jacob.
Tell this message in the nation of Judah:
21 Hear this message,
You foolish people that have no sense:
‘You people have eyes, but you don’t see!
You people have ears, but you don’t listen!’
22 Surely you are afraid of me.”
This message is from the Lord.
“You should shake with fear in front of me.
I am the One who made the beaches to be a boundary for the sea.
I made it that way to keep the water in its place forever.
The waves may pound the beach, but they will not destroy it.
The waves may roar as they come in, but they can’t go beyond the beach.
23 But the people of Judah are stubborn.
They are always planning ways to turn against me.
They have turned and gone away from me.
24 The people of Judah never say to themselves,
‘We should fear and respect the Lord our God.
He gives us autumn and spring rains just at the right time.
He makes sure that we have the harvest at the right time.’
25 People of Judah, you have done wrong.
So the rains and the harvest have not come.
Your sins have kept you from enjoying those good things from the Lord.
26 There are evil men among my people.
Those evil men are like men that make nets for catching birds.*

The word of God ... them Literally, “and the ‘He said’ is not in them.”

men that make nets ... birds The Hebrew is hard to understand here.

- These men set their traps,
 But they catch men instead of birds.
- 27 The houses of these evil men are full of lies,
 like a cage full of birds.
 Their lies have made them rich and powerful.
- 28 They have grown big and fat from the evil things they have done.
 There is no end to the evil things they do.
 They will not plead the case of the orphaned children.
 They will not help the orphans.
 They will not let poor people be judged fairly.
- 29 Should I punish the people of Judah for doing these things?"
 This message is from the Lord.
 "You know that I should punish a nation such as this.
 I should give them the punishment they should have."
- 30 The Lord says, "A terrible and shocking thing has happened in the land of Judah.
 This is what has happened:
 31 The prophets tell lies.
 The priests take power into their own hands.*
 My people love it this way.
 But what will you people do when punishment comes?"

The City of Jerusalem Surrounded by the Enemy

- 6 Run for your lives, people of Benjamin!
 Run away from the city of Jerusalem!
 Blow the war trumpet in the city of Tekoa!
 Put up the warning flag in the city of Beth Hakkerem!
 Do these things because disaster is looking down from the north.*

take ... hands The Hebrew is hard to understand here.
north This refers to the army of Babylon coming from the north to attack the nation of Judah.

- Terrible destruction is coming to you.
- 2 Daughter of Zion,* you are like a beautiful meadow.*
 3 Shepherds come to Jerusalem, and they bring their flocks.
 They set up their tents all around her.
 Each shepherd takes care of his own flock.
- 4 "Get ready to fight against the city of Jerusalem.
 Get up! We will attack the city at noon.
 But it is already getting late.
 The evening shadows are growing long.
 5 So get up! We will attack the city at night!
 We will destroy the strong defenses of Jerusalem."
- 6 This is what the Lord All-Powerful says:
 "Cut down the trees around Jerusalem.
 And build a siege mound* against Jerusalem.
 This city should be punished."
 Inside this city is nothing but oppression.
- 7 A well keeps its water fresh.
 In the same way, Jerusalem keeps its wickedness fresh.
 Violence and destruction are heard in this city.
 I can always see the sickness and hurts of Jerusalem.
- 8 Listen to this warning, Jerusalem.
 If you don't listen I will turn my back on you.
 I will make your land an empty desert.
 No person will be able to live there."
- 9 This is what the Lord All-Powerful says:
 "Gather* the people of Israel that were left on their land.

Daughter of Zion A name for the city of Jerusalem.
you ... meadow The Hebrew is hard to understand here.
siege mound A large pile of dirt and rock that an army put against the wall of a city they were attacking. This made it easier for the enemy soldiers to climb over the wall into the city.
Gather Or "Glean." Farmers were supposed to leave a little of their grain and other crops in the field. In this way, poor people and travelers could always find something to eat. Gathering this leftover grain is called gleaning.

- Gather them like you would gather the last grapes on a grapevine.
Check each vine,
like a grape-gatherer does.”
- 10 Who can I speak to?
Who can I warn?
Who will listen to me?
The people of Israel have closed their ears,
so they can't hear my warnings.
The people don't like the Lord's
teachings.
They don't want to listen to the word of
the Lord.
- 11 But I (Jeremiah) am full of the anger of
the Lord!
I am tired of holding it in!
“Pour out the Lord's anger on the children that play in the street.
Pour it out on the young men that gather
together.
A husband and his wife will both be captured.
The old and very old people will be captured.
- 12 Their houses will be given to other
people.
Their fields and their wives will be given to others.
I will raise my hand and punish the people of the land of Judah.”
This message was from the Lord.
- 13 “All the people of Israel want more and more money.
From the least to the greatest people,
they are all greedy.
Even the prophets and the priests live lies!
- 14 The prophets and priests try to treat the hurt of my people,
like it is only a small wound.
They say,
‘It is alright, it is alright!’
But really, it is not alright!
- 15 The prophets and priests should be ashamed of the bad things they do.

- But they are not ashamed at all.
They don't even know enough to be embarrassed about their sin.
So they will be punished with everyone else.
They will be thrown to the ground when I punish them.”
This message is from the Lord.
- 16 The Lord says these things:
“Stand at the crossroads and look.
Ask where the old road is.
Ask where the good road is,
and walk on that road.
If you do, you will find rest for yourselves.
But you people have said,
‘We will not walk on the good road!’
17 I chose watchmen to watch over you.
I told them,
‘Listen for the sound of the war trumpet.’
But they said,
‘We will not listen!’
- 18 So, listen, all you nations!
Pay attention, all of you people in those countries!*
- Listen to the things I will do to the people of Judah.」
- 19 Hear this, people of the earth:
I am going to bring disaster to the people of Judah.
Why? Because of all the bad things those people planned.
This will happen because they have not paid attention to my messages.
Those people refused to obey my law.”
- 20 The Lord says, “Why do you bring me offerings of incense* from the country of Sheba?*
- Why do you bring me sweet-smelling cane from a distant land as an

Pay ... countries The Hebrew is hard to understand here.
incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.
Sheba A land south of Israel, located where part of Saudi Arabia is today. Sheba controlled the spice trade in the time of Jeremiah.

- offering?
 Your burnt offerings don't make me
 happy.
 Your sacrifices don't please me."
 21 So, this is what the Lord says:
 "I will put problems in front of the people of Judah.
 They will be like stones that make people fall.
 Fathers and sons will stumble over them.
 Friends and neighbors will die."
 22 This is what the Lord says:
 "An army is coming from the land of
 the north.*
 A great nation is coming from faraway places on earth.
 23 The soldiers carry bows and spears.
 They are cruel.
 They have no mercy.
 They are so powerful.
 They sound like the roaring ocean
 as they ride their horses.
 That army is coming ready for battle.
 That army is coming to attack you, O
 Daughter of Zion."*
 24 We have heard the news about that army.
 We are helpless from fear.
 We feel trapped by our troubles.
 We are in pain like a woman that is having a baby.
 25 Don't go out into the fields.
 Don't go on the roads.
 Why? Because the enemy has swords.
 Because danger is everywhere.
 26 O my people, put on sackcloth*,
 And roll in the ashes.*
 Cry loud for the dead people.
 Cry like you lost an only son.
 Do these things because the destroyer will come against us very quickly.

north This refers to the army of Babylon coming from the north to attack the nation of Judah.

Daughter of Zion A name for the city of Jerusalem.

sackcloth A kind of cloth that people wore to show they were sad or crying for dead people.

And ... ashes This is one way in which people showed that they were sad or crying for a dead person.

- 27 "Jeremiah, I (the Lord) made you like a worker that tests metals.
 You will test my people and watch their ways.
 28 My people have turned against me, and they are very stubborn.
 They go around telling bad things about
 people.
 They are like bronze and iron, that became covered with rust and tarnish.
 29 They are like a worker that tried to make silver pure.
 The bellows* blew strongly, and the fire became hotter.
 But only lead came from the fire!*
 It was a waste of time to try to make pure
 silver.
 In the same way, the evil was not removed from my people.
 30 My people will be called, 'Rejected
 Silver.'
 They will be given that name because the Lord did not accept them."

Jeremiah's Temple Sermon

7 This is the Lord's message to Jeremiah: 2Jeremiah, stand at the gate of the Lord's house. Preach this message at the gate:

"Hear the message from the Lord, all you people of the nation of Judah. All you people that come through these gates to worship the Lord, hear this message. 3The Lord is the God of the people of Israel. This is what the Lord
 All-Powerful says: 'Change your lives and do good things. If you do this, I will let you live in this place.* 'Don't trust the lies that some bellows A tool for blowing air on a fire to make the fire hotter.

lead ... fire Workers melted metals like silver to make the metals pure. Lead was the first metal to melt, so the workers poured the lead out, leaving the other metal pure. Here Jeremiah is saying the people are all bad—they are all lead and no silver!

I will let you live ... place This can also mean, "I will live with you."

people say. They say, "This is the temple* of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord!"* <sup>4</sup>If you change your lives and do good things, I will let you live in this place. You must be fair to each other. <sup>5</sup>You must be fair to strangers. You must do the right things for widows and orphans.* Don't kill innocent people! Don't follow other gods! Why? Because they will ruin your lives. <sup>7</sup>If you obey me, I will let you live in this place. I gave this land to your ancestors* for them to keep forever.

<sup>8</sup>"But you are trusting lies. And those lies are worthless. <sup>9</sup>Will you steal and murder? Will you do the sin of adultery?*" Will you falsely accuse other people? Will you worship the false god Baal* and follow other gods that you have not known? <sup>10</sup>If you do those sins, do you think that you can stand before me in this house that is called by my name? Do you think you can stand before me and say, "We are safe," just so you can do all these terrible things? <sup>11</sup>This temple is called by my name! Is this temple nothing more to you than a hideout for robbers? I have been watching you." This message is from the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>"You people of Judah, go now to the town of Shiloh. Go to the place where I first made a house for my name. The people of Israel also did evil things. Go and see what I did to that place because of the evil things they did.* <sup>13</sup>You people of Israel were doing all these evil things"—This message is from the Lord!—"I spoke to you again and again, but you refused to listen to me. I called to you, but you did not answer. <sup>14</sup>So I will destroy the house called by my name in Jerusalem. I will destroy that temple* like I destroyed Shiloh. And that house in Jerusalem that is called by my name is the temple that you trust in. I gave that place to you and to your ancestors.* <sup>15</sup>I will throw you away from me just like I threw away all your brothers from Ephraim.*

<sup>16</sup>"As for you, Jeremiah, don't pray for these people of Judah. Don't beg for them or pray for them. Don't beg for me to help them. I will not listen to your prayer for them. <sup>17</sup>I know you see what those people are doing in the towns of Judah. You can see what they are doing in the streets of the city of Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>This is what the people of Judah are doing: The children gather wood. The fathers use the wood to make a fire. The women make the dough and make cakes of bread to offer to the Queen of Heaven.* Those people of Judah pour out drink offerings to worship other gods. They do this to make me angry. <sup>19</sup>But I am not the one the people of Judah are really hurting." This message is from the Lord. "They are only hurting themselves. They are bringing shame on themselves."

<sup>20</sup>So the Lord says this: "I will show my anger against this place. I will punish people and animals. I will punish the trees in the field and the crops that grow in the ground. My anger will be like a hot fire—and no person will be able to stop it."

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
temple of the Lord Many people in Jerusalem thought that the Lord would always protect Jerusalem because his temple was there. They thought God would protect Jerusalem, no matter how evil the people were.

widows and orphans Widows are women whose husbands have died, and orphans are children whose parents have died. Often these people have no one to care for them.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

adultery Breaking the marriage promise by sexual sin.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Go and see ... they did That place was probably destroyed by the Philistines in the time of Eli and Samuel. See 1 Sam. 4.

The Lord Wants Obedience More than Sacrifice

<sup>21</sup>The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says these things: "Go and offer as many burnt offerings and sacrifices as you want. Eat the meat of those sacrifices yourselves. <sup>22</sup>I brought your ancestors* out of Egypt. I spoke to them, but I did not give them any commands about burnt offerings and sacrifices. <sup>21</sup>I only gave them this command: 'Obey me and I will be your God, and you will be my people. Do all that I command, and good things will happen to you.'

Ephraim This is the northern kingdom of Israel.

Queen of Heaven Probably the false god Astarte. She was the goddess of sex and war. People in Mesopotamia worshiped her. They thought she was the planet Venus, which looks like a star in the sky.

<sup>22</sup>"But your ancestors* did not listen to me. They did not pay attention to me. They were stubborn and did the things they wanted to do. They did not become good. They became even more evil—they went backward, not forward. <sup>23</sup>From the day that your ancestors left Egypt to this day, I have sent my servants to you. My servants are the prophets. I sent them to you again and again. <sup>24</sup>But your ancestors did not listen to me. They did not pay attention to me. They were very stubborn and did evil worse than their fathers.

<sup>25</sup>"Jeremiah, you will tell these things to the people of Judah. But they won't listen to you! You call to them, but they won't answer you. <sup>26</sup>So you must tell them these things: This is the nation that did not obey the Lord its God. These people did not listen to God's teachings. These people don't know the true teachings.

The Valley of Slaughter

<sup>27</sup>"Jeremiah, cut off your hair and throw it away.* Go up to the bare hilltop and cry. Why? Because the Lord has rejected this generation of people. The Lord has turned his back on these people. And in anger, he will punish them. <sup>28</sup>Do this because I have seen the people of Judah doing evil things." This message is from the Lord. "They have set up their idols. And I hate those idols! They have set up idols in the temple that is called by my name. They have made my house 'dirty'! <sup>29</sup>The people of Judah have built the high places* of Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. In those places the people killed their own sons and daughters—they burned them as sacrifices. This is something I never commanded. Something like this never even entered my mind! <sup>30</sup>So, I warn you. The days are coming," this message is from the Lord, "when people won't call this place Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom anymore. No, they will call it the Valley of Slaughter.* They will give it this name because they will bury the dead people in Topheth until there is no more room to bury anyone else. <sup>31</sup>Then the bodies of the dead people will lie on top of the ground and become food for the birds of the sky. Wild animals will eat the bodies of those people. There will be no person left alive to chase the birds or animals away. <sup>32</sup>I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and happiness in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. There will be no more sounds of the bride and bridegroom in Judah or Jerusalem. The land will become an empty desert."

8 This message is from the Lord: "At that time, men will take the bones of the kings and important rulers of Judah from their tombs.* They will take the bones of the priests and prophets from their tombs. They will take the bones of all the people of Jerusalem from their tombs. <sup>2</sup>Those men will spread those bones on the ground under the sun, the moon, and the stars. The people of Jerusalem love to worship the sun, the moon, and the stars. No person will gather those bones and bury them again. So, the bones of those people will be like dung thrown on the ground.

<sup>3</sup>"I will force the people of Judah to leave their homes and their land. The people will be taken away to foreign lands. Some of the people of Judah that were not killed in the war will wish that they had been killed." This message is from the Lord.

Sin and Punishment

*Jeremiah, say this to the people of Judah:

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

cut off your hair ... away This showed Jeremiah was sad.

high places Special places where the people worshiped false gods. These places were often on hilltops, but not always. Some high places were in valleys.

Slaughter Usually, this word means to kill an animal and cut it into pieces of meat. But it often means to kill people like they are animals.

tomb(s) A grave dug in a wall of rock.

- The Lord says these things:
 “You know if a man falls down,
 he gets up again.
 And if a man goes the wrong way,
 he turns around and comes back.
- 5 The people of Judah have gone (lived) the wrong way.
 But why do those people of Jerusalem continue going the wrong way?
 They believe their own lies.
 They refuse to turn around and come back.
- 6 I have listened to them very carefully.
 But they don't say what is right.
 The people are not sorry for their sins.
 The people don't think about the bad things they have done.
 The people do things without thinking.
 They are like horses running into a battle.
- 7 Even the birds in the sky know the right time to do things.
 The storks, doves, swifts, and thrushes know when it is time to fly to a new home.
 But my people don't know what the Lord wants them to do.
- 8 “You keep saying,
 ‘We have the Lord's teachings!
 So we are wise!’
 But that is not true.
 Why? Because the scribes* have lied with their pens.
- 9 Those ‘wise people’ refused to listen to the Lord's teachings.
 So they are not really wise people at all.
 Those ‘wise people’ were trapped.
 They became shocked and ashamed.
- 10 So I will give their wives to other men.
 I will give their fields to new owners.
 All the people of Israel want more and more money.
- All the people, from the least important to most important people, are like that.
 All the people, from prophets to priests tell lies.
- 11 The prophets and the priests try to heal the hurt of my people as if it were only a small wound.
 They say, ‘It is alright, it is alright!’
 But it is not alright!
- 12 Those people should be ashamed of the bad things they do.
 But they are not ashamed at all.
 They don't know enough to be embarrassed about their sins.
 So they will be punished with everyone else.
 I will punish them,
 and I will throw them to the ground.”
 The Lord said those things.
- 13 “I will take away their fruit and crops, so that there will be no harvest.”
 This message is from the Lord.
 “There will not be any grapes on the vine.
 There will not be any figs on the fig tree.
 Even the leaves will become dry and die.
 I will take away the things I gave them.*
- 14 “Why are we just sitting here?
 Come, let's run to the strong cities.
 If the Lord our God is going to make us die,
 then let's die there.
 We have sinned against the Lord,
 so God gave us poisoned water to drink.
- 15 We hoped to have peace,
 but nothing good has come.
 We hoped for a time that he would forgive us,
 but only disaster has come.
- 16 From the land of the family group of Dan, we hear the snorting*

scribes Men that wrote down and copied different things. Some of those writings included the books that later became the Old Testament. Those men spent so much time with those writings, that they often became experts at knowing what those scriptures (writings) meant.

I will take away ... gave them The Hebrew of this line is hard to understand.

snorting The sound that comes from breathing very hard through the nose.

of the enemy's horses.

The ground shakes from the pounding of their hooves.*

They have come to destroy the land and everything in it.

They have come to destroy the city and all the people that live there.

<sup>17</sup> "People of Judah, I am sending poisonous snakes* to attack you.

Those snakes can't be controlled.

Those snakes will bite you."

This message is from the Lord.

<sup>18</sup> God, I am very sad and afraid.

<sup>19</sup> Listen to my people.

Everywhere in this country they are crying for help.

They say,

"Is the Lord still at Zion?*

Is Zion's King still there?"

But God says,

"Why did the people of Judah make me angry by worshiping their idols?

They worshiped their worthless foreign idols."

<sup>20</sup> And the people say,

"Harvest time is over.

Summer is gone,
and we have not been saved."

<sup>21</sup> My people are sick,*

so I am sick!*

I am sad and silent, from worrying about these sick people,

<sup>22</sup> Surely there is some medicine in the land of Gilead.

Surely there is a doctor in the land of Gilead.

So why are the hurts of my people not healed?

If my head was filled with water,

9 If my head was filled with water,
and if my eyes were a fountain of
tears,

I would cry day and night for my people that have been destroyed.

<sup>2</sup> If only I had a place in the desert,
a house where travelers spend the night,
I could leave my people.

I could go away from those people.

Why? Because they are all being unfaithful to God.

They are all turning against him.

<sup>3</sup> "Those people use their tongues like a bow;

lies fly from their mouths like arrows.

Lies, not truth, have grown strong in the
land.

Those people go from one sin to another
sin.

They don't know me."

The Lord said these things.

<sup>4</sup> "Watch your neighbors!

Don't trust your own brothers!

Why? Because every brother is a cheat.

Every neighbor talks behind your back.

No person speaks the truth.

The people of Judah have taught their tongues to lie.

They sinned until they were too tired to come back.

<sup>6</sup> One bad thing followed another.

And lies followed lies.

The people refused to know me."

The Lord said those things.

<sup>7</sup> So, the Lord All-Powerful says:

"I will test the people of Judah like a person tests metal—
by heating it in a fire.

I have no other choice.

My people have sinned.

<sup>8</sup> The people of Judah have tongues that are like sharp arrows.

Their mouths speak lies.

Each person speaks nice to his neighbor.

hooves The hard part of the feet of certain animals.

poisonous snakes This probably means one of Judah's
enemies.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

sick Literally, "broken."

- But he is secretly planning to attack his neighbor.
- 9 Should I not punish the people of Judah for doing these things?"
This message is from the Lord.
"You know that I should punish that kind of people.
I should give them the punishment they deserve."
- 10 I (Jeremiah) will cry loud for the mountains.
I will sing a funeral song for the empty fields.
Why? Because the living things were taken away.
No person travels there.
The sound of cattle can't be heard in those places.
The birds have flown away and the animals are gone.
- 11 "I (the Lord) will make the city of Jerusalem a pile of garbage.
It will become a home for jackals.*
I will destroy the cities in the land of Judah, so no one will live there."
- 12 Is there a man that is wise enough to understand these things?
Is there some person that has been taught by the Lord?
Can anyone explain the Lord's message?
Why was the land ruined?
Why was it made like an empty desert where no people go?
- 13 The Lord answered these questions. He said,
"It is because the people of Judah quit following my teachings.
I gave them my teachings,
but they refused to listen to me.
They did not follow my teachings.
- 14 The people of Judah lived their own way.

- They were stubborn.
They followed the false god Baal.*
Their fathers taught them to follow those false gods."
- 15 So the Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says,
"I will soon make the people of Judah eat bitter food.
I will make them drink poisoned water.
- 16 I will scatter the people of Judah through other nations.
They will live in strange nations.
They and their fathers never knew about those countries.
I will send men with swords.
Those men will kill the people of Judah.
They will kill them until the people are finished."
- 17 This is what the Lord All-Powerful says:
"Now, think about these things!
Call for the women that get paid to cry at funerals.
Send for the people that are good at that job.
- 18 The people say, 'Let those women come quickly and cry for us.
Then our eyes will fill with tears,
and streams of water will come out of our eyes.'
- 19 "The sound of loud crying is heard from Zion*:
'We are truly ruined!
We are truly ashamed!
We must leave our land,
because our houses are destroyed and ruined.'"
- 20 Now, women of Judah, listen to the message from the Lord.
Open your ears to hear the words of the Lord's mouth.

jackals A wild animal, like a dog. Those animals only live where no people are.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

The Lord says, “Teach your daughters how to cry loud.
Each woman must learn to sing this funeral song:

<sup>21</sup> ‘Death has come and climbed in through our windows.
Death has entered our palaces.*
Death has come to our children that play in the streets.
Death has come to the young men that meet in the public places.’

The dead bodies of men will lie in the fields like dung.
Their bodies will lie on the ground like grain a farmer has cut.
But there will be no one to gather them.’”

<sup>23</sup> The Lord says:
“Wise men must not brag about their wisdom.
Strong men must not brag about their strength.
Rich men must not brag about their money.

<sup>24</sup> But if someone wants to brag, then let him brag about these things:
Let him brag that he understands and knows me.
Let him brag that he understands that I am the Lord.
Let him brag that I am kind and fair.
Let him brag that I do good things on earth.
I love to do those things.”
This message is from the Lord.

<sup>25</sup>“The time is coming,” this message is from the Lord, “when I will punish all the people that are circumcised* only in the body.
<sup>26</sup>I am talking about the people of the nations of Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon, Moab, and all the people that live in the desert. The men in those countries really were not circumcised in their bodies. But the people from the family of Israel were not circumcised in their hearts.”

The Lord and the Idols

10 Family of Israel, listen to the Lord

“Don’t live like the people from other nations.

Don’t be afraid of special signs in the sky.*

The other nations are afraid of the things they see in the sky.

But you must not be afraid of those things.

<sup>3</sup> The customs of other people are worth nothing.

Their idols are nothing but wood from the forest.

Their idols are made by a worker with his chisel.

With hammers and nails they fasten their idols down,

So that they will not fall over.

<sup>5</sup> The idols of the other nations are like a scarecrow in a cucumber field.

Their idols can’t talk.

Their idols can’t walk.

People must carry the idols.

So don’t be afraid of those idols.

They can’t hurt you.

And they can’t help you either!”

<sup>6</sup> Lord, there is no one like you!

You are great!

Your name is great and powerful!

<sup>7</sup> Every person should respect you, God.

You are the King of all the nations.

You deserve their respect.

There are many wise men among the palace(s) A large house for the king and his family.

circumcised To have the foreskin cut off. This was done to every Jewish male to show he shared in the Agreement God made with Israel. See Gen. 17:9-14.

special signs in the sky People believed that such things as comets, meteors, or eclipses of the sun and moon could be used to learn what was going to happen in the future.

nations.

But none of those people are as wise as you.

- 8 All the people of the other nations are stupid and foolish.

Their teachings come from worthless wooden statues.

- 9 They use silver from the city of Tarshish and gold from the city of Uphaz and make their statues.

Those idols are made by carpenters and metal-workers.

They put blue and purple clothes on those idols.

“Wise men” make those “gods.”

- 10 But the Lord is the only true God.

He is the only God who is truly alive.

He is the King that rules forever.

The earth shakes when God is angry.

The people of the nations can't stop his anger.

- 11 (The Lord says,)

“Tell this message to those people:

“Those false gods did not make heaven and earth.

And those false gods will be destroyed and disappear from heaven and earth.”**

- 12 God is the One who made the earth with his power.

God used his wisdom and built the world.

With his understanding, God stretched out the sky over the earth.

- 13 God causes the loud thunder, and he causes great floods of water to fall from the sky.

He makes clouds rise in the sky every place on earth.

He sends lightning with the rain.

He brings out the wind from his storehouses.

- 14 People are so stupid!

Metal workers are made foolish by their idols.

Those statues are nothing but lies.

They are stupid.*

- 15 Those idols are worth nothing.

They are something to make fun of.

In the time of judgment, those idols will be destroyed.

- 16 But Jacob's God*

is not like those idols.

God made everything.

And Israel is the family that God chose to be his own people.

God's name is “Lord All-Powerful.”

Destruction Is Coming

- 17 Get everything you own and prepare to leave.

You people of Judah are caught in the city, and the enemy is all around it.

- 18 The Lord says:

“This time, I will throw the people of Judah out of this country.

I will bring pain and trouble to them.

I will do this so they will learn their lesson.”**

- 19 Oh, I (Jeremiah) am hurt badly.

I am injured and I can't be healed.

Yet I told myself,

“This is my sickness,

I must suffer through it.”

- 20 My tent is ruined.

All the tent's ropes are broken.

My children left me.

They are gone.

No person is left to put up my tent.

No person is left to fix a shelter for me.

They are stupid Literally, “they have no spirit.” The Bible teaches that it is the Spirit of God that makes people wise. This might also mean “they are not alive.”

Jacob's God Literally, “Jacob's share.” This shows that God and Israel had a special relationship—God belonged to Israel, and Israel belonged to God.”

they will learn their lesson The Hebrew here is hard to understand.

Tell this message ... earth This part was written in Aramaic, not Hebrew. This was the language people used often when writing to people in other countries. It was also the language spoken in Babylon.

- <sup>21</sup> The shepherds (leaders) are stupid.
They don't try to find the Lord.
They are not wise,
so their flocks (people) are scattered and lost.
- <sup>22</sup> Listen! A loud noise!
The loud noise is coming from the north.*
It will destroy the cities of Judah.
Judah will become an empty desert.
It will be a home for jackals.*
- <sup>23</sup> Lord, I know that a person does not really own his life.
People don't really know the right way to live.
- <sup>24</sup> Lord, correct us!
But be fair!
Don't punish us in anger!
- <sup>25</sup> If you are angry, then punish the other nations.
They don't know or respect you.
Those people don't worship you.
Those nations destroyed Jacob's family.
They destroyed Israel completely.
They destroyed Israel's homeland.

The Agreement Is Broken

11 This is the message that came to Jeremiah. This message came from the Lord: <sup>24</sup>"Jeremiah, listen to the words of this Agreement.* Tell the people of Judah about these things. Tell these things to the people living in the Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'Bad things will happen to any person that does not obey this Agreement.' <sup>4</sup>I am talking about the Agreement I made with your ancestors.* I made that Agreement with them at the time I brought them out of Egypt. Egypt was a place of many

north This refers to the army of Babylon coming from the north to attack the nation of Judah.

jackals A wild animal, like a dog. Those animals only live where no people are.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

troubles—it was like an oven hot enough to melt iron. I told those people: Obey me and do everything I command you. If you do this, you will be my people, and I will be your God.

<sup>4</sup>"I did this to keep the promise that I had made to your ancestors.* I promised to give them a very fertile land—a land flowing with milk and honey. And you are living in that country today."

I (Jeremiah) answered, "Amen,* Lord."

<sup>6</sup>The Lord said to me, "Jeremiah, preach this message in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. This is the message: Listen to the words of this Agreement.* And then obey those laws. <sup>7</sup>I gave a warning to your ancestors* at the time I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I warned them again and again to this very day. I told them to obey me. <sup>8</sup>But your ancestors did not listen to me. They were stubborn and did what their own evil hearts wanted. The Agreement says that bad things will happen to them if they don't obey. So I made all those bad things happen to them! I commanded them to obey the Agreement, but they did not."

<sup>9</sup>The Lord said to me, "Jeremiah, I know that the people of Judah and the people living in Jerusalem have made secret plans. <sup>10</sup>Those people are doing the same sins that their ancestors did. Their ancestors refused to listen to my message. They followed and worshiped other gods. The family of Israel and the family of Judah have broken the Agreement I made with their ancestors."

<sup>11</sup>So the Lord says: "I will soon make something terrible happen to the people of Judah. They will not be able to escape! They will be sorry. And they will cry to me for help. But I will not listen to them. <sup>12</sup>The people in the towns of Judah and in the city of Jerusalem will go and pray to their idols for help. Those people burn incense* to those idols. But those idols will not be able to help the people of Judah when that terrible time comes.

Amen The Hebrew word "amen" means, "truly," or "indeed." It is used to show that the person agrees with what has been said.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

<sup>13</sup>“People of Judah, you have many idols—there are as many idols as there are towns in Judah. You have built many altars for worshiping that disgusting god Baal*—there are as many altars as there are streets in Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup>“As for you, Jeremiah, don’t pray for these people of Judah. Don’t beg for them. Don’t say prayers for them. I will not listen. Those people will begin to suffer. And then they will call to me for help. But I will not listen.

<sup>15</sup> “Why* is my lover (Judah) in my house (temple)?

She has no right to be there.

She had done many evil things.

Judah, do you think that special promises and animal sacrifices will stop you from being destroyed?

Do you think you can escape punishment by offering sacrifices to me?”

<sup>16</sup> The Lord gave you a name.

He called you, ‘A green olive tree, beautiful to look at.’

But with a strong storm, the Lord will set that tree on fire, and its branches will be burned up.

<sup>17</sup> The Lord All-Powerful planted you. And he has announced that disaster will come to you.

Why? Because the family of Israel and the family of Judah have done evil things.

They made me angry by offering sacrifices to Baal.”*

Evil Plans Against Jeremiah

<sup>18</sup>The Lord showed me that the men of Anathoth* were making plots against me. The Lord showed me the things they were doing, so I knew they were against me. <sup>19</sup>Before the Lord showed me that the people were against me, I

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Why We are not sure of the exact meaning of verses 15 and 16.

men of Anathoth Anathoth was Jeremiah’s home town. The people that were plotting against him there included his own relatives. See Jer. 12:6.

was like a gentle lamb waiting to be butchered. I did not understand that they were against me. They were saying these things about me: “Let us destroy the tree and its fruit! Let us kill him! Then people will forget him.” <sup>20</sup>But Lord, you are a fair judge. You know how to test peoples’ hearts and minds. I will tell you my arguments. And I will let you give them the punishment they deserve.

<sup>21</sup>The men from Anathoth were planning to kill Jeremiah. Those men said to Jeremiah, “Don’t prophesy* in the name of the Lord, or we will kill you.” The Lord made a decision about those men from Anathoth. <sup>22</sup>The Lord All-Powerful said, “I will soon punish those men from Anathoth. Their young men will die in war. Their sons and daughters will die from hunger. <sup>23</sup>No person from the city of Anathoth will be left. No person will survive. I will punish them. I will cause something bad to happen to them.”

Jeremiah Complains to God

12 Lord, if I argue with you, you are always right! But I want to ask you about some things that don’t seem right. Why are wicked people successful? Why do people you can’t trust have such easy lives?

<sup>2</sup> You have put those wicked people here. They are like plants with strong roots, they grow and produce fruit. With their mouths, they say that you are near and dear to them.

But in their hearts, they are really far away from you.

<sup>3</sup> But you know my heart, O Lord. You see me and test my mind. Drag those evil people away like sheep to be butchered.

Choose them for the day of slaughter.

<sup>4</sup> How much longer will the land stay dried up?

How long will the grass be dry and prophecy To speak for God.

dead?
 The animals and birds in the land have died,
 And it is the fault of the wicked people.
 Yet those wicked people are saying,
 "Jeremiah will not live long enough to see what happens to us."

God's Answer to Jeremiah

- 5 "Jeremiah, if you get tired running in a footrace with men,
 how will you race against horses?
 If you get tired in a country that is safe,
 what will you do when you come to the dangerous thorn bushes that grow along the Jordan River?
- 6 These men are your own brothers.
 Members of your own family are making plans against you.
 People from your own family are yelling at you.
 Don't trust them,
 even when they speak to you like friends."

The Lord Rejects His People, Judah

- 7 "I (the Lord) have abandoned my house.
 I have left my own property.*
 I have given the one I love (Judah) to her enemies.
- 8 My 'property' has become like a wild lion to me.
 She roars at me,
 so I hate her.
- 9 My 'property' has become like a dying animal, surrounded by vultures.
 Those birds fly around her.
 Come on, wild animals.
 Come get something to eat.
- 10 Many shepherds (leaders) have ruined my field of grapes.
 Those shepherds have walked on the plants in my field.
 Those shepherds have made my beautiful field into an empty desert.

- 11 They changed my field to a desert.
 It is dry and dead.
 No people live there.
 The whole country is an empty desert.
 There is no person left to take care of that field.
- 12 Many soldiers marched over those barren hills.
 The Lord used those armies to punish that land.
 People from one end of the land to the other were punished.
 No person was safe.
- 13 The people will plant wheat,
 but they will harvest only thorns.
 They will work hard until they are very tired,
 but they will get nothing for all their work.
 They will be ashamed of their crop.
 The Lord's anger caused those things."

The Lord's Promise to Israel's Neighbors

"This is what the Lord says: "I will tell you what I will do for all the people that live around the land of Israel. Those people are very wicked. They have destroyed the land I gave to the people of Israel. I will pull those evil people up and throw them out of their land. And I will pull the people of Judah up with them. <sup>13</sup>But after I pull those people out of their land, I will feel sorry for them. I will bring each family back to its own property and to its own land. <sup>16</sup>I want those people to learn their lessons well. In the past, those people taught my people to use Baal's* name to make promises. Now, I want those people to learn their lessons just as well. I want those people to learn to use my name. I want those people to say, 'As the Lord lives ... ' If those people do that, then I will allow them to be successful and I will let them live among my people. <sup>17</sup>But if any nation does not listen to my message, then I will completely destroy it. I will pull it up like a dead plant." This message is from the Lord.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

house ... property This means the people of Judah.

The Sign of the Waistcloth

13 This is what the Lord said to me: “Jeremiah, go and buy a linen waistcloth.* Then put it around your waist. Don’t let the waistcloth get wet.”

<sup>2</sup>So I bought a linen waistcloth,* just as the Lord told me to do. And I put it around my waist. <sup>3</sup>Then the message of the Lord came to me a second time. “This was the message: “Jeremiah, take the waistcloth you bought and are wearing, and go to Perath.* Hide the waistcloth there in a crack in the rocks.”

<sup>5</sup>So I went to Perath* and hid the waistcloth* there, just like the Lord told me to do. “Many days later, the Lord said to me, “Now, Jeremiah, go to Perath. Get the waistcloth that I told you to hide there.”

<sup>7</sup>So I went to Perath and dug up the waistcloth. I took it out of the crack in the rocks where I had hidden it. But now I could not wear the waistcloth, because it was ruined. It was not good for anything.

<sup>8</sup>Then the message of the Lord came to me. <sup>9</sup>This is what the Lord said: “The waistcloth* is ruined and not good for anything. In the same way, I will ruin the proud people of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>I will ruin those proud and evil people of Judah. They refuse to listen to my messages. They are stubborn and do only the things they want to do. They follow and worship other gods. Those people of Judah will become like this linen waistcloth. They will be ruined and not good for anything. “A waistcloth is wrapped tightly around a man’s waist. In the same way, I wrapped all the family of Israel and all the family of Judah around me.” This message is from the Lord. “I did that so those people would be my people. Then my people would bring fame, praise, and honor to me. But my people would not listen to me.”

waistcloth A common undergarment in ancient Judah. It was a short skirt that was wrapped around the hips. It reached about halfway down the thighs.

Perath Probably a village near Jerusalem. It is probably the town that is called Parah in the list of the cities of the land of Benjamin in Joshua 18:23. But the name “Perath” also means the Euphrates River.

Warnings to Judah

<sup>12</sup>“Jeremiah, say to the people of Judah: ‘This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Every wineskin* should be filled with wine.’ Those people will laugh and say to you, ‘Of course, we know that every wineskin should be filled with wine.’ <sup>13</sup>Then you will say to them, ‘This is what the Lord says: I will make everyone that lives in this land helpless, like a drunken man. I am talking about the kings that sit on David’s throne. I am also talking about the priests, the prophets, and all the people that live in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>I will make the people of Judah stumble and fall into one another. Fathers and sons will fall into one another.’” This message is from the Lord. “‘I will not feel sorry or have pity for them. I will not allow compassion to stop me from destroying the people of Judah.’”

The Lord has spoken to you.

Don’t be proud.

<sup>16</sup> Honor the Lord your God.

Praise him or he will bring darkness.

Praise him before you fall on the dark hills.

You people of Judah are hoping for light.

But the Lord will turn the light into thick darkness.

The Lord will change the light into a very thick darkness.

<sup>17</sup> If you people of Judah don’t listen to the Lord,

I will hide and cry.

Your pride will cause me to cry.

I will cry very hard.

My eyes will overflow with tears,

Why? Because the Lord’s flock* will be captured.

“Come down from your thrones.

wineskin A bottle made from the skin of an animal and used for storing wine.

Lord’s flock This is a figurative name for the people of Judah. The Lord is thought of as a shepherd, while his people are seen as his flock of sheep.

Your beautiful crowns have fallen from your heads.”

- <sup>19</sup> The cities in the Negev desert*
are locked up.
No person can open them.
All the people of Judah are taken into exile.*
All of them have been carried away as prisoners.
- <sup>20</sup> Jerusalem, look up!
Look at the enemy, coming from the north.*
Where is your flock?*
- God gave that beautiful flock to you.
You were supposed to care for that flock.
- <sup>21</sup> What will you say when the Lord asks you to account for that flock?
You were supposed to teach the people about God.
Your leaders were supposed to lead
the people.
But they did not do their job!
So you will have much pain and troubles.
Your pain will be like the pain of a woman having a baby.
- <sup>22</sup> You might ask yourself, “Why has this bad thing happened to
me?”
Those things happened because of your many sins.
Because of your sins,
your skirt was torn off and your shoes were taken away.
They did this to embarrass you.
- <sup>23</sup> A black man can’t change the color of his skin.
And a leopard can’t change his spots.

Negev desert The desert area in the southern part of the kingdom of Judah.

exile Being forced to leave one’s home country and being moved to a foreign country.

north This refers to the army of Babylon coming from the north to attack the nation of Judah.

flock Here, the word “flock” refers to all the towns around Jerusalem, as if Jerusalem were the shepherd and the towns of Judah were her flock.

In the same way, O Jerusalem, you can’t change and do good.

- You always do bad things.
- <sup>24</sup> “I will force you to leave your homes.
You will run in all directions as you run
away.
You will be like chaff* that is blown away by the desert wind.
- <sup>25</sup> These are the things that will happen to
you;
this is your part in my plans.”
This message is from the Lord.
“Why will this happen? Because you forgot me.
You trusted false gods.
- <sup>26</sup> Jerusalem, I will pull your skirts up over your face.
Everyone will see you, and you will be ashamed.
- <sup>27</sup> I saw the terrible things you did.*
I saw you laughing and having sex with your lovers.
I know about your plans to act like a prostitute.*
I have seen you on the hills and in the fields.
It will be very bad for you, Jerusalem.
I wonder how long you will continue doing your dirty sins.”

Drought and False Prophets

14 This is the Lord’s message to Jeremiah about the drought:*

- <sup>2</sup> “The nation of Judah cries for people that have died.
The people in the cities of Judah grow weaker and weaker.

chaff The seed coverings and stems separated from the seed of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers saved the seeds but let the wind blow the useless chaff away.

I saw ... you did This is probably talking about worshipping false gods. But part of that worship was having sex with temple prostitutes.

prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometime this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stop following him.

drought A time when no rain falls and the crops become dry and die.

- Those people lie on the ground.
A cry goes up to God from the city of Jerusalem.
- <sup>3</sup> The leaders of the people send their servants to get water.
The servants go to the water storage
places,
but they don't find any water.
The servants come back with empty jars.
So they are ashamed and embarrassed.
They cover their heads from shame.
- <sup>4</sup> No person prepares the ground for crops.*
No rain falls on the land.
The farmers are depressed.
So they cover their heads from shame.
- <sup>5</sup> Even the mother deer in the field leaves her newborn baby alone.
She does this because there is no grass.
- <sup>6</sup> Wild donkeys stand on the bare hills.
They sniff the wind like jackals.*
But their eyes can't find any food, because there are no plants to eat.
- <sup>7</sup> "We know that those things are our fault.
We are now suffering because of our sins.
Lord, do something to help us for the good of your name.
We admit that we have left you many times.
We have sinned against you.
- <sup>8</sup> God, you are the Hope of Israel!
You save Israel in times of trouble.
But now it seems like you are a stranger in the land.
It seems like you are a traveler that only stays one night.
- <sup>9</sup> You seem like a man that has been attacked by surprise.
You seem like a soldier that does not have the power to save anyone.

But you are with us, O Lord.
We are called by your name,
So don't leave us without help!"

<sup>10</sup>This is what the Lord says about the people of Judah: "The people of Judah really love to leave me. Those people don't stop themselves from leaving me. So now, the Lord will not accept them. Now the Lord will remember the bad things they do. The Lord will punish them for their sins."

<sup>11</sup>Then the Lord said to me, "Jeremiah, don't pray for good things to happen to the people of Judah. <sup>12</sup>The people of Judah might begin to fast* (and pray to me). But I will not listen to their prayers. Even if they offer burnt offerings and grain offerings to me, I will not accept those people. I will destroy the people of Judah with war. I will take away their food, and the people of Judah will starve. And I will destroy them with terrible diseases."

<sup>13</sup>But I said to the Lord, "Lord, my Master, the prophets were telling the people something different. They were telling the people of Judah, 'You people will not suffer from an enemy's sword. You will never suffer from hunger. The Lord will give you peace in this land.'"

<sup>14</sup>Then the Lord said to me, "Jeremiah, those prophets are preaching lies in my name. I did not send those prophets. I did not command them or speak to them. Those prophets have been preaching false visions, worthless magic,
and their own wishful thinking. <sup>15</sup>So this is what I say about the prophets that are preaching in my name. I did not send those prophets.
Those prophets said, 'No enemy with swords will ever attack this country. There will never be hunger in this land.' Those prophets will die from hunger and an enemy's sword will kill them. <sup>16</sup>And the people those prophets spoke to will be thrown into the streets. Those people will die from hunger and from an enemy's sword. No person will be there to bury those people, or their wives or their sons or daughters. I will punish them.

No person ... crops Following the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew is hard to understand.

jackals A wild animal, like a dog. Those animals only live where no people are.

fast Going without food for a special time of prayer and worship.

17 “Jeremiah, speak this message to the people of Judah:
 ‘My eyes are filled with tears.
 I will cry night and day without stopping.
 I will cry for my virgin daughter.*
 I will cry for my people.
 Why? Because someone hit them and crushed them.
 They have been hurt very badly.’

18 If I go into the country,
 I see those people that were killed with swords.
 If I go into the city,
 I see much sickness, because the people have no food.
 The priests and the prophets have been taken to a foreign land.’”

19 “Lord, have you completely rejected the nation of Judah?
 Lord, do you hate Zion*?
 You hurt us so badly that we can’t be made well again.
 Why did you do that?
 We were hoping for peace,
 but nothing good has come.
 We were hoping for a time of healing,
 but only terror came.

20 Lord, we know that we are very evil people.
 We know that our ancestors* did bad things.
 Yes, we sinned against you.

21 Lord, for the good of your name,
 don’t push us away.
 Don’t take away the honor from your glorious throne.
 Remember your Agreement* with us.
 Don’t break that Agreement.

22 Foreign idols don’t have the power to bring rain.
 The sky does not have the power to send showers of rain down.
 You are our only hope.
 You are the One who made all these things.”

15 The Lord said to me, “Jeremiah, even if Moses and Samuel were here to pray for the people of Judah, I would not feel sorry for these people. Send the people of Judah away from me. Tell them to go. 2Those people might ask you, ‘Where will we go?’ You tell them this: This is what the Lord says:

‘I have appointed some people to die.
 Those people will die.
 I have appointed some people to be killed with swords.
 Those people will die with the swords.
 I have appointed some people to die from hunger.
 Those people will die from hunger.
 I have appointed some people to be captured and carried to a foreign country.
 Those people will be prisoners in that foreign country.’

3 I will send four kinds of destroyers against them.’
 This message is from the Lord.
 ‘I will send the enemy with a sword to kill.
 I will send the dogs to drag their bodies away.
 I will send birds of the air and wild animals to eat and destroy their bodies.’

4 I will make the people of Judah an example of some terrible thing for all the people on earth.
 I will do this to the people of Judah because of what Manasseh* did in Jerusalem.

virgin daughter This is another name for Jerusalem.
Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
 Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

Manasseh Manasseh was the most evil king of Judah, according to 2 Kings 21:1-16. He worshiped many gods.

Manasseh was the son of King
Hezekiah.

Manasseh was a king of the nation of Judah.’

5 “No person will feel sorry for you, city of Jerusalem.

No person will be sad and cry for you.
No person will go out of his way to even ask how you are!

6 Jerusalem, you left me.”

This message is from the Lord.

“Again and again you left me!

So I will punish and destroy you.

I am tired of holding back your punishment.

7 I will separate the people of Judah with my pitchfork.*

I will scatter them at the city gates of
the land.

My people have not changed.

So I will destroy them.

I will take away their children.

8 Many women will lose their husbands.

There will be more widows than there is sand of the sea.

I will bring a destroyer at noontime.

The destroyer will attack the mothers of the young men of Judah.

I will bring pain and fear on the people of Judah.

I will make this happen very quickly.

9 The enemy will attack with swords and kill the people.

They will kill the survivors* from Judah.

A woman might have seven sons,

„but they will all die,„

she will cry and cry

until she becomes weak and not able to breathe.

She will be upset and confused.

Her bright day will become dark from

sadness.”

Jeremiah Again Complains to God

10 Mother, I am sorry that you gave birth to
me.

I (Jeremiah) am the person that must accuse and criticize the whole land.
I have not loaned or borrowed anything.
But every person curses me.

11 Truly, Lord, I have served you well.

In time of troubles, I prayed to you about my enemies.

God Answers Jeremiah

12 “Jeremiah, you know that no person can smash a piece of iron.

I mean the kind of iron that is from the north.*

And no person can smash a piece of bronze either.

13 The people of Judah have wealth and treasures.

I will give those riches to other people.
Those other people will not have to buy those riches.

„I will give those riches to them.„

Why? Because Judah has many sins.

Judah has sinned in every part of the
country.

14 People of Judah, I will make you slaves of your enemies.

You will be slaves in a land that you have never known.

I have become very angry.

My anger is like a hot fire,
and you will be burned.”

15 Lord, you understand me.

Remember me and take care of me.

People are hurting me.

Give those people the punishment they deserve.

You are being patient with those people.

But don’t destroy me while you remain patient with them.

pitchfork A tool with sharp points for throwing hay from one place to another.

survivor(s) People that escaped some disaster. Here this means the Jewish people that survived the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy armies.

north This refers to the army of Babylon coming from the north to attack the nation of Judah.

Think about me.

Think about the pain I suffer for you,
Lord.

<sup>16</sup> Your message came to me and I ate your words.

Your message made me very happy.
I was happy because I am called by your name.

Your name is Lord (God) All-Powerful.

<sup>17</sup> I never sat with the crowd as they laughed and had fun.

I sat by myself because of your influence on me.

You filled me with anger at the evil around me.

<sup>18</sup> I don't understand why I still hurt.

I don't understand why my wound is not cured and cannot be healed.

Lord, I think you have changed.

You are like a spring of water that became dry.

You are like a spring whose water has stopped flowing.

<sup>19</sup> Then, the Lord said,

"Jeremiah, if you change and come back to me,

then I will not punish you.

If you change and come back to me, you can serve me.

If you speak important things, and not those worthless words, then you can speak for me.

The people of Judah should change and come back to you, Jeremiah.

But don't you change and be like them.

<sup>20</sup> I will make you strong.

Those people will think you are strong like a wall made of bronze.

The people of Judah will fight against you.

But they will not defeat you.

They will not defeat you.

Why? Because I am with you.

I will help you and I will save you."

This message is from the Lord.

<sup>21</sup> "I will save you from those evil people.

Those people scare you.

But I will save you from those people."

The Day of Disaster

16 The Lord's message came to me: <sup>1</sup>"Jeremiah, you must not get married. You must not have sons or daughters in this place."

<sup>2</sup>The Lord says these things about the sons and daughters that are born in the land of Judah. And this is what the Lord says about the mothers and fathers of those children: "Those people will die a terrible death. No person will cry for those people. No person will bury them. Their bodies will lie on the ground like dung. Those people will die by an enemy's sword, or they will starve to death. Their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the sky and the wild animals of the earth."

<sup>3</sup>So the Lord says: "Jeremiah, don't go into a house where people are eating a funeral meal. Don't go there to cry for the dead or show your sorrow. Don't do those things. Why? Because I have taken back my blessing. I will not be kind to these people of Judah. I will not feel sorry for them." This message is from the Lord. "Important people and common people will die in the land of Judah. No person will bury those people or cry for them. No person will cut himself or shave his head to show sorrow for those people. <sup>4</sup>No person will bring food to the people that are crying for the dead. No person will comfort those people whose mother or father has died. No person will offer a drink to comfort the people that are crying for the dead.

<sup>5</sup>"Jeremiah, don't go into a house where the people are having a party. Don't go into that house and sit down to eat and drink. <sup>6</sup>The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel says these things: 'I will soon stop the sounds of people having fun. I will stop the happy sounds people make during a wedding party. This will happen during your lifetime. I will do these things quickly.'

<sup>7</sup>"Jeremiah, you will tell the people of Judah these things. And the people will ask you, 'Why has the Lord said these terrible things to us? What have we done wrong? What sin have we done against the Lord our God?"

<sup>11</sup>You must say these things to those people: 'Terrible things will happen to you because your ancestors* quit following me.' This message is from the Lord. 'They quit following me and began to follow and serve other gods. They worshiped those other gods. Your ancestors left me and they quit obeying my law. <sup>12</sup>But you people have sinned more than your ancestors. You are very stubborn. And you are doing only the things that you want to do. You are not obeying me. You do only what you want to do. <sup>13</sup>So I will throw you out of this country. I will force you to go to a foreign country. You will go to a land that you and your ancestors never knew. In that land you can serve false gods all you want to. I will not help you or show you any favors.'

<sup>14</sup>"People make promises and say, 'As surely as the Lord lives. He is the One who brought the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt.' But the time is coming," this message is from the Lord, "when people will not say those things. <sup>15</sup>The people will say something new. They will say, 'As surely as the Lord lives. He is the One who brought the people of Israel out of the northern land. He brought them out of all the countries where he had sent them.' Why will the people say these things? Because I will bring the people of Israel back to the land that I gave to their ancestors.

<sup>16</sup>"I will soon send for many fishermen to come to this land." This message is from the Lord. "Those fishermen will catch the people of Judah. After that happens, I will send for many hunters to come to this land. Those hunters* will hunt the people of Judah on every mountain and hill and in the cracks of the rocks. <sup>17</sup>I see everything they do. The people of Judah can't hide from me the things they do. Their sin is not hidden from me. <sup>18</sup>I will pay the people of Judah back for the bad things they did—I will punish them two times for every sin.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

fishermen ... hunters This means the enemy soldiers from Babylon.

I will do this because they have made my land 'dirty.' They made my land 'dirty' with their terrible idols. I hate those idols. But they have filled my country with their idols."

- <sup>19</sup> Lord, you are my strength and my protection.
You are a safe place to run to in a time of trouble.
The nations will come to you from all over the world.
They will say,
"Our fathers had false gods.
They worshiped those worthless idols,
but those idols did not help them at all."
<sup>20</sup> Can people make real gods for themselves?
No! They can make statues, but those statues are not really gods.
<sup>21</sup> "So I will teach those people that make idol gods.
Right now I will teach them about my power and my strength.
Then they will know that I am God.
They will know that my Name is the Lord."

Guilt Written on the Heart

17 "The sin of the people of Judah is written down where it can't be erased.

Those sins were cut into stone with an iron pen.

Their sins were cut into stone with a diamond tipped pen.*

And that stone is their heart.

Those sins were cut into the horns of their altars.*

- <sup>2</sup> Their children remember the altars dedicated to false gods.

diamond tipped pen Or, "flint-tipped pen."

horns of their altars The corners of altars were shaped like horns. This was like a place of safety for the people. If a person did something wrong, he could run to the altar. People could punish them only if they proved the person was guilty. Here Jeremiah is saying that there is no safe place for the people of Judah.

They remember the wooden poles dedicated to Asherah.*

They remember those things under the green trees and on the hills.

- 3 “They remember those things on the mountains in the open country. The people of Judah have wealth and treasures.
I will give those things to other people. People will destroy all the high places* in your country.
You sinned by worshipping at those places.
- 4 You will lose the land I gave you. I will let your enemies take you as their slaves.
Why? Because I am very angry. My anger is like a hot fire, and you will be burned forever.”

Trusting In People, and Trusting In God

- 5 The Lord says these things:
“Bad things will happen to people that trust only other people.
Bad things will happen to people that depend on other people for strength.
Why? Because those people have stopped trusting the Lord.
- 6 Those people are like a bush in a desert. That bush is in a land where no people live.
That bush is in a hot and dry land.
That bush is in a bad soil.
That bush does not know about the good things that God can give.
- 7 But the person that trusts in the Lord will be blessed.
Why? Because the Lord will show him that he can be trusted.
- 8 That person will be strong like a tree planted near water.

That tree has large roots that find the water.

That tree is not afraid when the days are hot.

Its leaves are always green.
It does not worry in a year when no rain comes.

That tree always produces fruit.

- 9 “A person’s mind is very tricky!
The mind can be very sick,
and no person truly understands the mind.
- 10 But I am the Lord, and I can look into a person’s heart.
I can test a person’s mind.
So I can decide what each person should have.
I can give each person the right payment for the things he does.
- 11 Sometimes a bird will hatch an egg that it did not lay.
A person that cheats to get money is like that bird.
When that man’s life is half finished,
he will lose the money.
At the end of his life,
it will be clear that he was a foolish person.”
- 12 From the very beginning,
our temple* has been a glorious throne for God.
It is a very important place.
- 13 Lord, you are the hope of Israel.
Lord, you are like a spring of living water.
If a person quits following the Lord, then his life will be very short.*

Jeremiah’s Third Complaint

- 14 Lord, if you heal me,
I truly will be healed.

Asherah An important Canaanite goddess. At this time, the people thought she was the wife of Baal.

high places Special places where the people worshiped false gods. These places were often on hilltops, but not always. Some ‘high places’ were in valleys.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
his ... short Literally, “He will be written in the dirt.” This might mean a person’s name was written on a list of people that would soon die. Or that a person’s life will soon be gone—like a name written in the sand.

Save me,
and I truly will be saved.

Lord, I praise you!

<sup>15</sup> The people of Judah keep asking me questions.

They say,
“Jeremiah, where is the message from the Lord?”

Let’s see that message come true.”

<sup>16</sup> Lord, I did not run away from you.
I followed you.

I became the shepherd* you wanted.
I did not want the terrible day to come.

Lord, you know the things I said.
You see all that is happening.

<sup>17</sup> Lord, don’t ruin me.
I depend on you in times of trouble.

<sup>18</sup> People are hurting me.
Make those people ashamed.

But don’t disappoint me.
Let those people be scared.

But don’t scare me.
Bring the terrible day of disaster to my enemies.

Break them.
And break them again.

Keeping the Sabbath Day Holy

<sup>19</sup>The Lord said these things to me: “Jeremiah, go and stand at the People’s Gate* of Jerusalem, where the kings of Judah go in and out. Tell the people my message, and then, go to all the other gates of Jerusalem and do the same things.”

<sup>20</sup>Say to those people: “Listen to the message of the Lord. Listen, kings of Judah. Listen, all you people of Judah. All you people that come through these gates into Jerusalem, listen to me! <sup>21</sup>The Lord says these things: Be careful that you don’t carry a load on the Sabbath* day. And don’t bring a load through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day.

<sup>22</sup>Don’t bring a load out of your houses on the Sabbath day. Don’t do any work on that day.

You must make the Sabbath day a holy day. I gave this same command to your ancestors.*

<sup>23</sup>But your ancestors did not obey me. They did not pay attention to me. Your ancestors were very stubborn. I punished them, but it did not do any good. They did not listen to me.

<sup>24</sup>But you must be careful to obey me.” This message is from the Lord. “You must not bring a load through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath.

You must make the Sabbath day a holy day. You will do this by not doing any work on that day.

<sup>25</sup>“If you obey this command, then kings that sit on David’s throne will come through the gates of Jerusalem. Those kings will come riding on chariots* and on horses. The leaders of the people of Judah and Jerusalem will be with those kings. The city of Jerusalem will have people living in it forever! <sup>26</sup>People will come to Jerusalem from the towns of Judah. People will come to Jerusalem from the little villages that are around it. People will come from the land where the family group of Benjamin lives.* People will come from the western foothills and from the hill country. And people will come from the Negev.* All those people will bring burnt offerings, sacrifices, grains offerings, incense,* and thank offerings. They will bring those offerings and sacrifices to the temple of the Lord.

<sup>27</sup>“But if you don’t listen to me and obey me, then bad things will happen. If you carry loads into Jerusalem on the Sabbath* day, then you are not keeping it a holy day. So I will start a fire that can’t be put out. That fire will start at the gates of Jerusalem, and it will burn until it burns even the palaces.*”

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

the land where ... Benjamin lives The land of Benjamin was just north of the land of Judah.

Negev The desert area south of Judah.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

palaces A large house for the king and his family.

shepherd God’s people are sometimes called his “sheep,” and the person that takes care of them is called the “shepherd.”

People’s Gate Each city gate of Jerusalem had its own name.

Sabbath Saturday, a special day of rest and worship for the Jews.

The Potter and the Clay

18 This is the message that came to Jeremiah from the Lord: “Jeremiah, go down to the potter’s* house. I will give you my message at the potter’s house.”

“So I went down to the potter’s house. I saw the potter working with clay at the wheel. “He was making a pot from clay. But there was something wrong with the pot. So the potter used that clay again, and he made another pot. He used his hands to shape the pot the way that he wanted it to be.

“Then the message from the Lord came to me: “Family of Israel, you know that I (God) can do the same thing with you. You are like the clay in the potter’s* hands. And I am like the potter! “There may come a time that I will speak about a nation or a kingdom. I may say that I will pull that nation up. Or maybe I will say that I will pull that nation down and destroy that nation or kingdom. “But the people of that nation might change their hearts and lives. The people in that nation might stop doing evil things. Then I would change my mind. I would not follow my plans to bring disaster to that nation. “There might come another time when I speak about a nation. I might say that I will build up and plant that nation. “<sup>10</sup>But I might see that nation doing evil things by not obeying me. Then I would think again about the good I had planned to do for that nation.

<sup>11</sup>“So, Jeremiah, say to the people of Judah and the people that live in Jerusalem, “This is what the Lord says: I am preparing troubles for you right now. I am making plans against you. So stop doing the evil things that you are doing. Each person must change and start doing good things!” <sup>12</sup>But the people of Judah will answer, “It will not do any good to try. We will continue to do what we want. Each of us is going to do the things his stubborn, evil heart wants.””

potter’s Someone that makes pottery (jars, bowls, etc.) from clay. The Hebrew word also means, “Creator, or “a person that makes new things.”

“Ask the people in other nations this question:

“Have you ever heard of anyone doing the evil things Israel has done?”

And Israel is like God’s bride!

You know that the snow on the mountains of Lebanon never melts. You know that cool, flowing streams do not become dry.

<sup>15</sup> But my people have forgotten about me. They make offerings to worthless idols. My people stumble in the things they do. They stumble about in the old paths of their ancestors.*

My people would rather walk along back roads, and poor highways, than to follow me on the good roads.

<sup>16</sup> So Judah’s country will become an empty desert.

People will whistle and shake their heads every time they pass by. They will be shocked at how the country was destroyed.

<sup>17</sup> I will scatter the people of Judah before their enemies.

I will scatter them like the strong east wind blows things around.

I will destroy those people.

At that time, they will not see me coming to help them.

No! They will see me leaving!”

Jeremiah’s Fourth Complaint

<sup>18</sup>Then the enemies of Jeremiah said, “Come, let us make plans against Jeremiah. Surely the teaching of the law by the priest will not be lost. And the advice from the wise men

You ... themselves This is probably a word play. In Hebrew this sounds like, “Would anyone leave the Rock, Shaddai?” These are two names for God. But this could also be translated, “Does Lebanon’s snow ever melt from Shaddai’s mountain?” This would probably mean Mount Hermon.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

will still be with us. We will still have the words of the prophets. So let us tell lies about him. That will ruin him. We will not pay attention to anything he says.”

- <sup>19</sup> Lord, listen to me!
Listen to my arguments and decide who is right.
- <sup>20</sup> I have done good to the people of Judah.
But now they are paying me back with evil.
Now they have dug a pit in order to kill me.
Lord, do you remember the things I did?
I stood before you and asked you to do good things for these people.
I asked you to stop being angry at them.
I have done good to the people of Judah.
But now they are paying me back with evil.
They are trying to trap me and kill me.
- <sup>21</sup> So now, make their children starve in a famine.*
Let their enemies defeat them with swords.
Let their wives be without children.
Let the men from Judah be put to death.
Make their wives into widows.
Let the men from Judah be put to death.
Let the young men be killed with swords in battle.
- <sup>22</sup> Let there be crying in their houses.
Make them cry when you suddenly bring an enemy against them.
Let all this happen because my enemies have tried to trap me.
They have hidden traps for me to step in.
- <sup>23</sup> Lord, you know about their plans to kill me.
Don't forgive their crimes.
Don't erase their sins.
Destroy my enemies!
Punish those people while you are angry!

famine A time when there is not enough rain for crops to grow. People and animals die without enough food or water.

The Broken Jar

19 The Lord said to me: “Jeremiah, go and buy a clay jar from a potter.* <sup>2</sup>Go out to the Valley of Ben Hinnom, near the front of the Potsherd Gate.* Take some of the elders (leaders) of the people and some priests with you. At that place, tell them the things that I tell you. <sup>3</sup>Say to those people with you, ‘King of Judah and people of Jerusalem, listen to this message from the Lord! This is what the Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: I will soon make a terrible thing happen to this place! Every person that hears about it will be amazed and full of fear. <sup>4</sup>I will do these things because the people of Judah quit following me. They have made this a place for foreign gods. The people of Judah have burned sacrifices in this place to other gods. The people did not worship those gods long ago. Their ancestors* did not worship those gods. These are new gods from other countries. The kings of Judah filled this place with the blood of the innocent children. <sup>5</sup>The kings of Judah built high places* for the god Baal.* They use those places to burn their sons in the fire. They burned their sons as burnt offerings to the god Baal. I did not tell them to do that. I did not ask you to offer your sons as sacrifices. I never even thought of such a thing. <sup>6</sup>Now people call this place in the Valley of Hinnom, Topheth. But, I give you this warning: The days are coming,’” this message is from the Lord, “‘when people will call this place the Valley of Slaughter.*’ <sup>7</sup>At this place, I will ruin the plans potter A worker that makes things from clay. The Hebrew word also means “creator.”

Potsherd Gate Each city gate of Jerusalem had its own name.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

high places Special places where the people worshiped false gods. These places were often on hilltops, but not always. Some ‘high places’ were in valleys.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Slaughter Usually, this word means to kill an animal and cut it into pieces of meat. But it often means to kill people like they are animals.

of the people of Judah and Jerusalem. The enemy will chase these people. And I will let the people of Judah be killed with swords in this place. And I will make their dead bodies food for the birds and wild animals. <sup>8</sup>I will completely destroy this city. People will whistle and shake their heads when they pass by Jerusalem. They will be shocked when they see how the city was destroyed. <sup>9</sup>The enemy will bring its army around the city. That army will not let people go out to get food. So the people in the city will begin to starve. They will become so hungry that they will eat the bodies of their own sons and daughters. And then they will begin to eat each other.<sup>7</sup>

<sup>10</sup>“Jeremiah, you will tell those things to the people. And while they are watching, you will break that jar. <sup>11</sup>At that time, say these things: ‘The Lord All-Powerful says, I will break the nation of Judah and the city of Jerusalem just like someone breaking a clay jar! This jar can’t be put back together again. It will be the same for the nation of Judah. The dead people will be buried here in Topheth until there is no more room. <sup>12</sup>I will do this to these people and to this place. I will make this city like Topheth.’ This message is from the Lord. <sup>13</sup>‘The houses in Jerusalem will become as “dirty” as this place, Topheth. The kings’ palaces* will be ruined like this place, Topheth. Why? Because the people worshiped false gods on the roofs of those houses.* They worshiped the stars and burned sacrifices to honor them. They gave drink offerings to false gods.’”

<sup>14</sup>Then Jeremiah left Topheth where the Lord had told him to preach. Jeremiah went to the Lord’s temple* and stood in the courtyard* of the temple. Jeremiah said to all the people: <sup>15</sup>“This is what the Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel says: ‘I said I would bring many disasters to Jerusalem and the villages around it. I will soon make those things happen. Why? Because the people are very stubborn—they refused to listen and obey me.’”

palace(s) A large house for the king and his family.
roofs of those houses People built their house with a flat roof, and they used the roof like an extra room.
temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
courtyard The large area around the temple sanctuary.

Jeremiah and Pashhur

20 A man named Pashhur was a priest. He was the highest officer in the temple* of the Lord. Pashhur was the son of a man named Immer. Pashhur heard Jeremiah preach those things in the temple yard. <sup>2</sup>So he had Jeremiah the prophet beaten. And he had Jeremiah’s hands and feet locked between large blocks of wood. This was at the Upper Gate of Benjamin of the temple. <sup>3</sup>The next day Pashhur took Jeremiah out from between the blocks of wood. Then Jeremiah said to Pashhur, “The Lord’s name for you is not Pashhur. Now the Lord’s name for you is Terror on Every Side. <sup>4</sup>That is your name, because the Lord says: ‘I will soon make you a terror to yourself! I will soon make you a terror to all your friends. You will watch enemies killing your friends with swords. I will give all the people of Judah to the king of Babylon. He will take the people of Judah away to the country of Babylon. And his army will kill the people of Judah with their swords. <sup>5</sup>The people of Jerusalem worked hard to build things and become wealthy. But I will give all those things to their enemies. The king in Jerusalem has many treasures. But I will give all those treasures to the enemy. The enemy will take those things and carry them away to the country of Babylon. <sup>6</sup>And Pashhur, you and all the people living in your house will be taken away. You will be forced to go and live in the country of Babylon. You will die in Babylon. And you will be buried in that foreign country. You preached lies to your friends. (You said these things would not happen.) But all of your friends will also die and be buried in Babylon.’”

Jeremiah's Fifth Complaint

<sup>7</sup> Lord, you tricked me, and I certainly was fooled.
 You are stronger than I am,
 so you won.

I have become a joke.

People laugh at me and make fun of me
 all day long.

- <sup>8</sup> Every time I speak, I shout.
I am always shouting about violence and destruction.
I tell the people about the message I received from the Lord.
But people only insult me and make fun
of me.
- <sup>9</sup> Sometimes I say to myself,
“I will forget about the Lord.
I will not speak any more in the name of
the Lord!”
But if I say that,
then the Lord’s message becomes like a burning fire inside me!
It feels like it is burning me deep in my bones!
I get tired of trying to hold the Lord’s message inside of me.
And finally, I am not able to hold it in.
- <sup>10</sup> I hear many people talking against me with low voices.
Everywhere, I hear things that scare me.
Even my friends are saying things
against me.
People are just waiting for me to make some mistake.
They are saying,
“Let us lie and say he did some bad thing.
Maybe we can trick Jeremiah.
Then we will have him.
We will finally be rid of him.
Then we will grab him and take our revenge on him.”
- <sup>11</sup> But the Lord is with me.
The Lord is like a strong soldier.
So the people that are chasing me will fall.
Those people will not defeat me.
Those people will fail.
They will be disappointed.
Those people will be ashamed.
And people will never forget that
shame.
- <sup>12</sup> Lord All-Powerful, you test good people.
You look deeply into the heart and mind of a person.

I have told you my arguments against those people,
so let me see you give them the punishment they deserve.

<sup>13</sup> Sing to the Lord!
Praise the Lord!
The Lord saves the lives of poor people!
He saves them from the power of the wicked people!

Jeremiah’s Sixth Complaint

- <sup>14</sup> Curse the day that I was born!
Don’t bless the day my mother had me.
- <sup>15</sup> Curse the man that told my father
the news that I was born.
“You have a son,” he said, “It is a boy!”
He made my father very happy when he told him this.
- <sup>16</sup> Let that man be the same as the cities that the Lord destroyed.*
The Lord did not have any pity on those cities.
Let that man hear shouts of war in the morning.
And let him hear battle cries at noontime.
- <sup>17</sup> Why? Because that man did not kill me while I was in my mother’s body.
If he had killed me at that time, then my mother would have been my
grave,
and I would never have been born.
- <sup>18</sup> Why did I have to come out of the body?
All I have seen is trouble and sorrow.
And my life will end in shame.

God Rejects King Zedekiah’s Request

21 This is the message that came to Jeremiah from the Lord. This message came when Zedekiah, the king of Judah, sent a man named Pashhur and a priest named cities ... destroyed The cities of Sodom and Gomorrah.

See Genesis 19.

Zephaniah to Jeremiah. Pashhur* was the son of a man named Malkijah. Zephaniah was the son of a man named Maaseiah. Pashhur and Zephaniah brought a message for Jeremiah. <sup>2</sup>Pashhur and Zephaniah said to Jeremiah, "Pray to the Lord for us. Ask the Lord what will happen. We want to know, because Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, is attacking us. Maybe the Lord will do great things for us, like he did in the past. Maybe the Lord will make Nebuchadnezzar stop attacking us and leave."

<sup>3</sup>Then Jeremiah answered Pashhur and Zephaniah. He said, "Tell King Zedekiah: 'This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'You have weapons of war in your hands. You are using those weapons to defend yourselves against the king of Babylon and the Babylonians.* But I will make those weapons worthless.

"The army from Babylon is outside the wall around the city. That army is all around the city. Soon I will bring that army into Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>I myself will fight against you people of Judah. I will fight against you with my own powerful hand. I am very angry with you, so I will fight against you with my own powerful arm. I will fight very hard against you and show how angry I am. <sup>6</sup>I will kill the people living in Jerusalem. I will kill people and animals. They will die from terrible sicknesses that will spread all through the city. <sup>7</sup>After that happens,'" this message is from the Lord, "'I will give Zedekiah king of Judah to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. I will also give Zedekiah's officials to Nebuchadnezzar. Some of the people in Jerusalem will not die from the terrible sicknesses. Some of the people will not be killed with swords. Some of them will not die from hunger. But I will give those people to Nebuchadnezzar. I will let Judah's enemy win. Nebuchadnezzar's army wants to kill the people of Judah. So the people of Judah and Jerusalem will be killed with swords. Nebuchadnezzar will not show any mercy. He will not feel sorry for those people.'

"Also tell these things to the people of Jerusalem. The Lord says these things: 'Understand that I will let you choose to live or die. <sup>9</sup>Any person that stays in Jerusalem will die. That person will die by a sword, or from hunger, or from a terrible sickness. But any person that goes out of Jerusalem and surrenders to the Babylonian army will live! That army has surrounded the city. So no person can bring food into the city. But any person that leaves the city will save his life. <sup>10</sup>I have decided to make trouble for the city of Jerusalem. I will not help the city.'" This message is from the Lord. "'I will give the city of Jerusalem to the king of Babylon. He will burn it with fire.'

Listen to the message from the Lord.

<sup>12</sup> Family of David,* the Lord says these things:

'You must judge people fairly every day.

Protect the victims*

from the criminals.

If you don't do that, then I will become very angry.

My anger will be like a fire that no person will be able to put out.

This will happen because you have done evil things.'

<sup>13</sup> "Jerusalem, I am against you.

You sit on top of the mountain.

You sit like a queen over this valley.

You people of Jerusalem say,

'No person can attack us.

No person can come into our strong city.'

Pashhur This is not the same Pashhur as the man in Jer. 20:1.

Babylonians The Babylonians were the family group to which King Nebuchadnezzar belonged. They were the group that controlled the land of Babylon at this time.

Family of David The royal family of Judah. God promised that men from David's family would be kings in Judah.

victims People that have suffered some kind of hurt or trouble. Often this means people that were hurt or lost something during a crime.

But listen to this message from the Lord.

<sup>14</sup> ‘You will get the punishment you deserve.

I will start a fire in your forests.
That fire will completely burn everything around you.’”

Judgment Against Evil Kings

22 The Lord said: “Jeremiah, go down to the king’s palace. Go to the king of Judah and preach this message there: <sup>2</sup>‘Listen to the message from the Lord, King of Judah. You rule from David’s throne, so listen. King, you and your officials must listen well. All of your people that come through the gates of Jerusalem must listen to the message from the Lord. <sup>3</sup>The Lord says: Do the things that are fair and right. Protect the person that has been robbed from the person that robbed him. Don’t hurt or do anything wrong to orphans* or widows.* Don’t kill innocent people. <sup>4</sup>If you obey these commands, then this is what will happen: kings that sit on David’s throne will continue to come through the gates into the city of Jerusalem. Those kings will come through the gates with their officials. Those kings, their officials, and their people will come riding in chariots* and on horses. <sup>5</sup>But if you don’t obey these commands, this is what the Lord says: I, the Lord, promise that this king’s palace* will be destroyed—it will become a pile of rocks.’”

“This palace* is tall,
like the forests of Gilead.
It is tall
like the mountains of Lebanon.
But I will truly make it like a desert.
This palace will be empty like a city where no person lives.

orphan(s) Children whose parents are dead. Often these children have no one to care for them.

widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

palace A large house for the king and his family.

<sup>7</sup> I will send men to destroy the palace.
Each man will have weapons that he will use to destroy that house.
Those men will cut up your strong, beautiful cedar beams.
Those men will throw those beams into the fire.

<sup>8</sup>“People from many nations will pass by this city. They will ask one another, ‘Why has the Lord done such a terrible thing to Jerusalem? Jerusalem was such a great city.’ <sup>9</sup>This will be the answer to that question: ‘God destroyed Jerusalem because the people of Judah quit following the Agreement* of the Lord their God. Those people worshipped and served other gods.’”

Judgment Against King Jehoahaz (Shallum)

<sup>10</sup> Don’t cry for the king that has died.*
Don’t cry for him.
But cry very hard for the king that is going away from here.*
Cry for him because he will never come back again.
Jehoahaz will never see his homeland again.

<sup>11</sup>This is what the Lord says about Shallum (Jehoahaz) son of Josiah. (Shallum became king of Judah after his father Josiah died.) “Jehoahaz has gone away from Jerusalem. He will never come back to Jerusalem again. <sup>12</sup>Jehoahaz will die in the place where the Egyptians have taken him. He will not see this land again.”

Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

king ... died This means King Josiah that was killed in battle against the Egyptians in 609 B.C.

king ... here This means Josiah’s son, Jehoahaz. He became king after Josiah died. He is also called Shallum. Neco, the king of Egypt, defeated Josiah. And Neco took Jehoahaz off the throne of Judah and made him a prisoner in Egypt.

Judgment Against King Jehoiakim

- 13 "It will be very bad for King Jehoiakim.
 He is doing bad things so he can build his palace.
 He is cheating people so he can build rooms upstairs.
 He is making his own people work for nothing.
 He is not paying them for their work.
- 14 Jehoiakim says, 'I will build a great palace for myself.
 I will have large upper rooms.'
 So he builds the house with large windows.
 He uses cedar wood for paneling,
 And he paints it red.
- 15 Jehoiakim, having a lot of cedar wood in your house
 does not make you a great king.
 Your father Josiah was satisfied to have food and drink.
 He did what was right and fair.
 Josiah did that,
 so everything went well for him.
- 16 Josiah helped the poor and needy people.
 Josiah did that,
 so everything went well for him.
 Jehoiakim, what does it mean "to know
 God?"
 Living right and being fair,
 that is what it means to know me."
 This message is from the Lord.
- 17 "Jehoiakim, your eyes look only for what benefits yourself,
 You are always thinking about getting more for yourself.
 You are willing to kill innocent people.
 You are willing to steal things from other people."
- 18 So this is what the Lord says to King
 Jehoiakim son of Josiah:
 "The people of Judah will not cry for Jehoiakim.
 They will not say to one another,
 'Oh, my brother, I am so sad about Jehoiakim,'!
 Oh, my sister, I am so sad about

- Jehoiakim,'!
 The people of Judah will not cry for Jehoiakim.
 They will not say about him,
 'Oh, master, I am so sad,'!
 Oh, King, I am so sad.'!
 19 The people of Jerusalem will bury Jehoiakim like they were burying a donkey.
 They will just drag his body away.
 And they will throw his body outside the gates of Jerusalem.
- 20 "Judah, go up to the mountains of Lebanon and cry out.
 Let your voice be heard in the mountains of Bashan.
 Cry out in the mountains of Abarim.
 Why? Because your 'lovers' will all be destroyed.
- 21 Judah, you felt safe.
 But I warned you!
 I warned you,
 but you refused to listen.
 You have acted like this since you were young.
 And since you were young,
 you have not obeyed me, Judah.
- 22 Judah, my punishment will come like a storm.
 And it will blow all your shepherds (leaders) away.
 You thought some of the other nations would help you.
 But those nations will also be defeated.
 Then you will really be disappointed.
 You will be embarrassed about all of the bad things you did.
- 23 King, you live high on the mountain in your house made from cedar wood.
 It is almost like you live in Lebanon where that wood came from.
 You think you are safe, high on the mountain in your big house.
 But you will really groan when your punishment comes.
 You will hurt like a woman giving birth to a baby."

Judgment Upon King Jeholachin (Coniah)

<sup>24</sup>“As surely as I live,” this message is from the Lord, “I will do this to you, Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah: Even if you were a signet ring* on my right hand, I would still pull you off. <sup>25</sup>Jehoiachin, I will give you to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, and the Babylonians. Those are the people you are afraid of. Those people want to kill you. <sup>26</sup>I will throw you and your mother into another country where neither of you was born. You and your mother will die in that country. <sup>27</sup>Jehoiachin, you will want to come back to your land—but you will never be allowed to come back.”

<sup>28</sup> Coniah (Jehoiachin) is like a broken pot some person threw away.

He is like a pot that no person wants.
Why will Jehoiachin and his children be thrown out?

Why will they be thrown into a foreign land?

<sup>29</sup> Land, land, land of Judah!

Listen to the message of the Lord!

<sup>30</sup> The Lord says,

“Write this down about Jehoiachin:

‘He is a man that has no children anymore!

Jehoiachin will not be successful in his lifetime.

None of his children will sit on the throne of David.

None of his children will rule in Judah.’”

23 “It will be very bad for the shepherds (leaders) of the people of Judah. Those shepherds are destroying the sheep. They are making the sheep run from my pasture in all directions.” This message is from the Lord.

<sup>2</sup>Those shepherds (leaders) are responsible for my people. And the Lord, the God of Israel, says these things to those shepherds: “You shepherds (leaders) have made my sheep run away in all directions. You have forced them to go away. And you have not taken care of them. But I will take care of you—I will punish you for the bad things you did.” This message is from the Lord: <sup>3</sup>“I sent my sheep (people) to other countries. But I will gather together my sheep (people) that are left. And I will bring them back to their pasture (country). When my sheep (people) are back in their pasture (country), they will have many children and grow in number. ‘I will place new shepherds (leaders) over my sheep. Those shepherds (leaders) will take care of my sheep (people). And my sheep (people) will not be scared or afraid. None of my sheep (people) will be lost.” This message is from the Lord.

The Righteous “Sprout”

<sup>5</sup> “The time is coming,”

this message is from the Lord,
“when I will raise up a righteous ‘sprout.’*
He will be a king that will rule in a wise

way.

And he will do what is fair and right in the land.

<sup>6</sup> In the time of that righteous ‘sprout,’ the people of Judah will be saved.

And Israel will live in safety.

This will be his name:

The Lord is our Righteousness.*

<sup>7</sup>“So the time is coming,” this message is from the Lord, “when people won’t say the old promise by the Lord any more. The old promise is: ‘As surely as the Lord lives, the Lord is the One who brought the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt.’ <sup>8</sup>But people will say something new. They will say, ‘As surely as the Lord lives, the Lord is the One who brought the people of Israel out of the land of the north. He brought them out of all the countries where he sprout This means a new king from the family of David.

The ... Righteousness This is a word play. In Hebrew, this is like the name Zedekiah, the king of Judah at the time that this prophecy was probably given. But Jeremiah is talking about another king.

signet ring A special ring worn by a king. The design on the ring could be pressed into a bit of clay or warm wax and leave an impression of the design. This was like a person’s signature—so the ring was very important.

had sent them.’ Then the people of Israel will live in their own land.”

Judgments Against False Prophets

- 9 A message to the prophets:
I am very sad—my heart is broken.
All my bones are shaking.
I (Jeremiah) am like a man that is drunk.
Why? Because of the Lord and his holy words.
- 10 The land of Judah is full of people that do the sin of adultery.*
They are unfaithful in many ways.
The Lord cursed the land,
and it became very dry.
The plants are dried and dying in the pastures.
The fields have become like the desert.
The prophets are evil.
Those prophets use their influence and power in the wrong way.
- 11 “The prophets and even the priests are evil.
I have seen them doing evil things in my own temple.”
This message is from the Lord.
- 12 “So, I will stop giving my messages to them.
It will be like they are forced to walk in darkness.
It will be like the road is slippery for the prophets and priests.
In that dark place, those prophets and priests will fall.
I will bring disaster on them.
At that time, I will punish those prophets and priests.”
This message is from the Lord.
- 13 “I saw the prophets of Samaria* do something wrong.
I saw those prophets prophesy* by the

- false god Baal.*
Those prophets led the people of Israel away from the Lord.
- 14 And I have seen the prophets of Judah do some terrible things in Jerusalem.
These prophets do the sin of adultery.*
They listened to lies—and they obeyed those false teachings.
They encourage wicked people to keep on doing evil.
So the people did not stop sinning.
All of those people are like the city of Sodom.
The people of Jerusalem are like the city of Gomorrah* to me.”
- 15 So, this is what the Lord All-Powerful says about the prophets:
“I will punish those prophets.
The punishment will be like eating poisoned food and water.
The prophets started a spiritual sickness.
And that sickness spread through the whole country.
So I will punish those prophets.
That sickness came from the prophets in Jerusalem.”
- 16 The Lord All-Powerful says these things:
“Don’t pay attention to the things those prophets are saying to you.
They are trying to fool you.
Those prophets talk about visions.*
But they did not get their visions from me.
Their visions come from their own minds.
- 17 Some of the people hate the Lord’s true messages.
So those prophets say different things to those people.
They say,

adultery Breaking the marriage promise by sexual sin.
Samaria The capital of the northern kingdom of Israel. This kingdom was destroyed by God because its people did many bad things.
prophesy To speak for God.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.
Sodom, Gomorrah Two cities that God destroyed because the people were so evil.
vision(s) Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.

'You will have peace.'

Some of the people are very stubborn.

They do only the things they want to do.

So those prophets say,

'Nothing bad will happen to you!'

None of them has seen or heard the message of the Lord.

None of them has paid close attention to the Lord's message.

<sup>19</sup> Now the punishment from the Lord will come like a storm.

The Lord's anger will be like a tornado.

It will come crashing down on the heads of those wicked people.

<sup>20</sup> The Lord's anger will not stop until he finishes what he plans to do.

When that day is over, you will understand this clearly.

<sup>21</sup> I did not send those prophets.

But they ran to tell their messages.

I did not speak to them.

But they preached in my name.

<sup>22</sup> If they had stood in my heavenly council, then they would have told my messages to the people of Judah.

they would have stopped the people from doing bad things.

they would have stopped them from doing evil."

<sup>23</sup> "I am God, and I am always near!"

This message is from the Lord.

"I am not far away!

But it is easy for me to see him.

Why? Because I am everywhere in heaven and earth!"

The Lord said these things.

<sup>25</sup>"There are prophets that preach lies in my name. They say, 'I have had a dream! I have had a dream!' I heard them say those things.

heavenly council The people in the Old Testament often talk about God like he was the leader of a council of heavenly beings (angels). Compare 1 Kings 22:19-23; Isaiah 6:1-8; Job chapters 1 and 2.

<sup>26</sup>How long will this continue? Those prophets think up lies. And then they teach those lies to the people. <sup>27</sup>These prophets are trying to make the people of Judah forget my name. They are doing this by telling each other these false dreams. They are trying to make my people forget me in the same way that their ancestors* forgot me. Their ancestors forgot me and worshiped the false god Baal.* <sup>28</sup>Straw is not the same thing as wheat! In the same way, those prophets' dreams are not messages from me. If a person wants to tell about his dreams, then let him. But let the man that hears my message speak my message truthfully. <sup>29</sup>My message is like a fire." This message is from the Lord. "It is like a hammer that smashes a rock.

<sup>30</sup>"So I am against the false prophets." This message is from the Lord. "These prophets keep stealing my words from one another. <sup>31</sup>I am against the false prophets." This message is from the Lord. "They use their own words and pretend that it is a message from me. <sup>32</sup>I am against the false prophets that preach fake dreams." This message is from the Lord. "They misled my people with their lies and false teachings. I did not send those prophets to teach the people. I never commanded them to do anything for me. They can't help the people of Judah at all." This message is from the Lord.

The Sad Message from the Lord

<sup>33</sup>"The people of Judah, or a prophet, or a priest may ask you, 'Jeremiah, what is the announcement of the Lord?' You will answer them and say, 'You are a heavy load* to the Lord. And I will throw down this heavy load.' This message is from the Lord.

<sup>34</sup>"A prophet, or a priest, or maybe one of the people might say, 'This is an announcement from the Lord ... ' That person lied, so I will

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

heavy load This is a word play. The Hebrew word for "announcement" is like the word translated "heavy load."

punish that person and his whole family. <sup>13</sup>This is what you will say to one another: ‘What did the Lord answer?’ or ‘What did the Lord say?’ <sup>14</sup>But you will never again use the expression, ‘The announcement (heavy load) of the Lord.’ This is because the Lord’s message should not be a heavy load for anyone. But you changed the words of our God. He is the living God, the Lord All-Powerful!

<sup>15</sup>“If you want to learn about God’s message, then ask a prophet, ‘What answer did the Lord give you?’ or ‘What did the Lord say?’ <sup>16</sup>But don’t say, ‘What was the announcement (heavy load) from the Lord?’ If you use these words, then the Lord will say these things to you: ‘You should not have called my message an ‘announcement (heavy load) from the Lord.’ I told you not to use those words. <sup>17</sup>But you called my message a heavy load, so I will pick you up like a heavy load and throw you away from me. I gave the city of Jerusalem to your ancestors.* But I will throw you and that city away from me. <sup>18</sup>And I will make you a disgrace forever. You will never forget your embarrassment.’”

The Good Figs and the Bad Figs

24 The Lord showed me these things: I saw two baskets of figs arranged in front of the temple* of the Lord. (I saw this vision after Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, took Jehoniah* as a prisoner. Jehoniah was the son of King Jehoiakim. Jehoniah and his important officials were taken away from Jerusalem. They were taken to Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar also took away all the carpenters and metal-workers of Judah.) <sup>2</sup>One basket had very good figs in it. Those figs were like figs that ripen early in the season. But the other basket had rotten figs. They were too rotten to eat.

<sup>3</sup>The Lord said to me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” I answered, “I see figs. The good figs are very good. And the rotten figs are very rotten. They are too rotten to eat.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the message of the Lord came to me. <sup>5</sup>The Lord, the God of Israel, said: “The people of Judah were taken from their country. Their enemy brought them to Babylon. Those people will be like these good figs. I will be kind to those people. <sup>6</sup>I will protect them. I will bring them back to the land of Judah. I will not tear them down—I will build them up. I will not pull them up—I will plant them so they can grow. <sup>7</sup>I will make them want to know me. They will know that I am the Lord. They will be my people, and I will be their God. I will do this because those prisoners in Babylon will turn to me with their whole hearts.

<sup>8</sup>“But Zedekiah king of Judah will be like those figs that are too rotten to eat. Zedekiah, his high officials, all the people that are left in Jerusalem, and those people of Judah that are living in Egypt will be like those rotten figs.

<sup>9</sup>“I will punish those people. The punishment will shock all the people on earth. People will make fun of those people from Judah. People will tell jokes about them. People will curse them in all the places where I scatter them. <sup>10</sup>I will send a sword, starvation, and disease against them. I will attack them until they have all been killed. Then they will no longer be on the land which I gave to them and to their ancestors.*

A Summary of Jeremiah’s Preaching

25 This is the message that came to Jeremiah concerning all of the people of Judah. This message came in the fourth year* that Jehoiakim was king of Judah. Jehoiakim was the son of Josiah. The fourth year of his time as king was the first year that Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon. <sup>2</sup>This is the message that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and all the people of Jerusalem:

<sup>3</sup>I have given you messages from the Lord again and again for these past 23 years. I have been a prophet since the 13th year that Josiah son of Amon was the king of Judah. I have spoken messages from the Lord to you from that time until today. But you have not listened. <sup>4</sup>The Lord has sent his servants, the prophets, to you over and over again. But you have not listened to them. You have not paid any attention to them.

<sup>5</sup>Those prophets said, "Change your lives! Stop doing those bad things! If you change, then you can return to the land which the Lord gave you and your ancestors* long ago. He gave you this land to live in forever. <sup>6</sup>Don't follow other gods. Don't serve or worship them. Don't worship idols that some person has made. That only makes me angry at you. Doing this only hurts yourselves."*

<sup>7</sup>"But you did not listen to me." This message is from the Lord. "You worshiped idols that some person made. And that made me angry. And that only hurt you."

<sup>8</sup>So, this is what the Lord All-Powerful says, "You have not listened to my messages. <sup>9</sup>So I will soon send for all the family groups of the north."* This message is from the Lord. "I will soon send for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He is my servant. I will bring those people against the land of Judah and against the people of Judah. I will bring them against all the nations around you too. I will destroy all of those countries. I will make those lands like a empty desert forever. People will see those countries, and whistle about how badly they were destroyed. <sup>10</sup>I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and happiness in those places. There will be no more happy sounds of the brides and bridegrooms. I will take away the sound of people grinding meal. I will take away the light of the lamp. <sup>11</sup>That whole area will be an empty desert. All of those people will be slaves of the king of Babylon for 70 years.

<sup>12</sup>"But when the 70 years have passed, I will punish the king of Babylon. I will punish the nation of Babylon." This message is from the Lord. "I will punish the land of the Babylonians for their sins. I will make that land a desert forever. <sup>13</sup>I have said many bad things will happen to Babylon. All of those things will happen. Jeremiah preached about those foreign nations. And all of those warnings are written in this book. <sup>14</sup>Yes, the people of Babylon will have to serve many nations and many great kings. I will give them the punishment they deserve for all the things they will do."

Judgment on the Nations of the World

<sup>15</sup>The Lord, the God of Israel, said these things to me: "Jeremiah, take this cup of wine from my hand. It is the wine of my anger. I am sending you to different nations. Make all those nations drink from this cup. <sup>16</sup>They will drink this wine. Then they will vomit and act like crazy people. They will do this because of the sword that I will soon send against them."

<sup>17</sup>So I took the cup of wine from the Lord's hand. I went to those nations and I made those people drink from the cup. <sup>18</sup>I poured this wine for the people of Jerusalem and Judah. I made the kings and leaders of Judah drink from the cup. I did this so that they would become an empty desert. I did this so that place would be destroyed so badly that people would whistle about it and say curses about that place. And it happened—Judah is like that now!

<sup>19</sup>I also made Pharaoh king of Egypt drink from the cup. I made his officials, his important leaders, and all his people drink from the cup of the Lord's anger.

<sup>20</sup>I also made all the Arabs and all of the kings of the land of Uz drink from the cup.

I also made all the kings of the land of the Philistines drink from the cup. These were the kings of the cities of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and what remains of the city Ashdod.

<sup>21</sup>Then I made the people of Edom, Moab, and Ammon drink from the cup.

<sup>22</sup>I made all the kings of Tyre and Sidon drink from the cup.

I also made all the kings of the faraway countries drink from that cup. <sup>23</sup>I made the people of Dedan, Tema, and Buz drink from

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Doing ... yourselves Following the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew reads, "Then I will not hurt you."

north This refers to the army of Babylon coming from the north to attack the nation of Judah.

the cup. I made all those that cut their hair at their temples drink from the cup. <sup>21</sup>I made all the kings of Arabia drink from the cup. These kings live in the desert. <sup>22</sup>I made all the kings from Zimri, Elam, and Media drink from the cup. <sup>23</sup>I made all the kings of the north, those that were near and far, drink from the cup. I made them drink one after the other. I made all the kingdoms that are on earth drink from the cup of the anger of the Lord. But the king of Babylon will drink from this cup after all of these other nations.

<sup>24</sup>“Jeremiah, say to those nations, this is what the Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says, ‘Drink this cup of my anger. Get drunk from it and vomit! Fall down and don’t get up. Don’t get up because I am sending a sword to kill you.’

<sup>25</sup>“Those people will refuse to take the cup from your hand. They will refuse to drink it. But you will say to them, ‘The Lord All-Powerful says these things: You will indeed drink from this cup! <sup>26</sup>I am already making these bad things happen to Jerusalem, the city that is called by my name. Maybe you people think that you will not be punished. But you are wrong. You will be punished. I am calling out a sword to attack all the people of the earth.’” This message is from the Lord.

<sup>27</sup>“Jeremiah, you will give them this message:

‘The Lord shouts from the high and holy temple!

The Lord shouts against his pasture
(people)!

His shouts are loud
like people that walk on grapes to make wine.

<sup>31</sup> The noise spreads to all the people on earth.

What is all the noise about?

The Lord is punishing the people from all the nations.

The Lord told his arguments against the people.

He judged the people.

And he is killing the evil people with a sword.’”

This message is from the Lord.

<sup>32</sup> This is what the Lord All-Powerful says: “Disasters will soon spread from country to country.

They will come like a powerful storm to all the faraway places on earth!”

<sup>33</sup>The dead bodies of those people will reach from one end of the country to the other. No person will cry for those dead people. No person will gather up their bodies and bury them. They will be left lying on the ground like dung.

<sup>34</sup> Shepherds (leaders), you should be leading the sheep (people).

Start crying you great leaders!

Roll around on the ground in pain, you leaders of the sheep (people).

Why? Because it is now time for your slaughter.*

I will scatter your sheep.

They will scatter everywhere, like the pieces from a broken jar.

<sup>35</sup> There will be no place for the shepherds (leaders) to hide.

Those leaders will not escape.

<sup>36</sup> I hear the shepherds (leaders) shouting.
I hear the leaders of the sheep (people)

crying.

The Lord is destroying their pastures
(country).

<sup>37</sup> Those peaceful pastures are like an empty
desert.

This happened because the Lord is very angry.

<sup>38</sup> The Lord is like a dangerous lion leaving his cave.

The Lord is angry!

The Lord’s anger will hurt those people.
Their country will become an empty
desert.

Jeremiah's Lesson at the Temple

26 This message came from the Lord during the first year that Jehoiakim was king* of Judah. Jehoiakim was the son of King Josiah. <sup>2</sup>The Lord said: "Jeremiah, stand in the temple* yard of the Lord. Give this message to all the people of Judah that are coming to worship at the temple of the Lord. Tell them everything that I tell you to speak. Don't leave out any part of my message. <sup>3</sup>Maybe they will listen and obey my message. Maybe they will stop living such evil lives. If they change, then I might change my mind about my plans to punish them. I am planning this punishment because of many bad things those people have done. <sup>4</sup>You will say to them, 'This is what the Lord says: I gave my teachings to you. You must obey me and follow my teachings. <sup>5</sup>You must listen to the things my servants say to you. (The prophets are my servants.) I have sent prophets to you again and again, but you did not listen to them. <sup>6</sup>If you don't obey me, then I will make my temple in Jerusalem just like my Holy Tent at Shiloh.* People all over the world will think of Jerusalem when they ask for bad things to happen to other cities.'"

<sup>7</sup>The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah say all of these words at the Lord's temple.* <sup>8</sup>Jeremiah finished speaking everything the Lord had commanded him to say to the people. Then the priests, the prophets, and all the people grabbed Jeremiah. They said, "You will die for saying such terrible things! <sup>9</sup>How dare you preach such a thing in the name of the Lord! How dare you say that this temple will be destroyed like the one at Shiloh! How dare you say that Jerusalem will become a desert with no people living in it!" All the people gathered around Jeremiah in the temple of the Lord.

<sup>10</sup>Now the rulers of Judah heard about all of the things that were happening. So they came out of the king's palace. They went up to the Lord's temple. There, they took their places at the entrance of the New Gate. The New Gate is a gate leading to the Lord's temple. <sup>11</sup>Then the priests and the prophets spoke to the rulers and all the other people. They said, "Jeremiah should be killed. He said bad things about Jerusalem. You heard him say those things."

<sup>12</sup>Then Jeremiah spoke to all the rulers of Judah and all the other people. He said, "The Lord sent me to say these things about this temple and this city. Everything that you have heard is from the Lord. <sup>13</sup>You people change your lives! You must start doing good things! You must obey the Lord your God. If you do that, then the Lord will change his mind. The Lord will not do the bad things he told you about. <sup>14</sup>As for me, I am in your power. Do to me what you think is good and right. <sup>15</sup>But if you kill me, be sure of one thing. You will be guilty of killing an innocent person. You will make this city and everyone that lives in it guilty, too. The Lord really did send me to you. The message you heard really is from the Lord."

<sup>16</sup>Then the rulers and all the people spoke. Those people said to the priests and the prophets, "Jeremiah must not be killed. The things Jeremiah told us come from the Lord our God."

<sup>17</sup>Then some of the elders (leaders) stood up and spoke to all the people. <sup>18</sup>They said, "Micah the prophet was from the city of Moresheth. Micah was a prophet during the time that Hezekiah was king of Judah. Micah said* these things to all the people of Judah:

'The Lord All-Powerful says:

"Zion* will become a plowed field!

Jerusalem will become a pile of rocks!

The hill where the temple is will be overgrown with trees!"'

<sup>19</sup>"Hezekiah was the king of Judah. And Hezekiah didn't kill Micah. None of the people of Judah killed Micah. You know that

First ... king This was 609 B.C.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

my Holy ... Shiloh The holy place at Shiloh was probably destroyed during the time of Samuel. See Jeremiah 7 and 1 Samuel 4.

Micah said See Micah 3:12.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Hezekiah respected the Lord. He wanted to please the Lord. The Lord had said he would do bad things to Judah. But Hezekiah prayed to the Lord, and the Lord changed his mind. The Lord didn't do those bad things. If we hurt Jeremiah, then we will bring many troubles on ourselves. And those troubles will be our own fault."

<sup>21</sup>In the past, there was another man that preached the Lord's message. His name was Uriah. He was the son of a man named Shemaiah. Uriah was from the city of Kiriath Jearim. Uriah preached the same things against this city and this land as Jeremiah did. <sup>22</sup>King Jehoiakim and his army officers and the leaders of Judah heard Uriah preach. They became angry. King Jehoiakim wanted to kill Uriah. But Uriah heard that Jehoiakim wanted to kill him. Uriah was afraid, so he escaped to the land of Egypt. <sup>23</sup>But King Jehoiakim sent a man named Elnathan and some other men to Egypt. Elnathan was the son of a man named Achbor. <sup>24</sup>Those men brought Uriah from Egypt. Then those men took Uriah to King Jehoiakim. Jehoiakim ordered Uriah to be killed with a sword. Uriah's body was thrown into the burial place where poor people are buried.

<sup>25</sup>There was an important man named Ahikam son of Shaphan. Ahikam supported Jeremiah. So Ahikam kept Jeremiah from being killed by the priests and prophets.

The Lord Has Made Nebuchadnezzar Ruler

27 A message from the Lord came to Jeremiah. It came during the fourth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah.* Zedekiah was the son of King Josiah. <sup>2</sup>This is what the Lord said to me: "Jeremiah, make a yoke* out of straps and poles. Put that yoke on the back of your neck. <sup>3</sup>Then send messages to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon. Send the messages with the messengers of these kings that have come to Jerusalem to see Zedekiah king of Judah. 'Tell those messengers to give this message to their masters. Tell them, 'The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: Tell your masters that 'I made the earth and all the people on it. I made all the animals on the earth. I did this with my great power and my strong arm. I can give the earth to anyone I want. <sup>6</sup>Now I have given all your countries to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He is my servant. I will make even the wild animals obey him. <sup>7</sup>All nations will serve Nebuchadnezzar and his son and his grandson. Then the time will come for Babylon to be defeated. Many nations and great kings will make Babylon their servant.

<sup>8</sup>"But now, some nations or kingdoms might refuse to serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. They might refuse to put his yoke* on their necks. If that happens, this is what I will do: I will punish that nation with sword, hunger, and terrible sickness.'" This message is from the Lord. "I will do that until I destroy that nation. I will use Nebuchadnezzar to destroy the nation that fights against him. <sup>9</sup>So don't listen to your prophets. Don't listen to the people that use magic to tell what will happen in the future. Don't listen to people that say they can interpret dreams. Don't listen to people that talk to the dead or to people that practice magic. All those people tell you, "You will not be slaves to the king of Babylon."<sup>10</sup> But those people are telling you lies. They will only cause you to be taken far from your homeland. I will force you to leave your homes. And you will die in another land.

<sup>11</sup>"But the nations that put their necks under the yoke* of the king of Babylon and obey him will live. I will let those nations stay in their own country and serve the king of Babylon.'" This message is from the Lord. "The people from those nations will live in their own land and farm it.

<sup>12</sup>"I gave the same message to Zedekiah king of Judah. I said, "Zedekiah, you must place your neck under the yoke* of the king of Babylon and obey him. If you serve the king of Babylon and his people, then you will live. <sup>13</sup>If you don't agree to serve the king of Babylon, then you and your people will die from the enemy's sword, from hunger, and from terrible sicknesses. The Lord said those things will happen. <sup>14</sup>But the false prophets are saying: You will never be slaves to the king of Babylon.

<sup>15</sup>"Don't listen to those prophets, because they are preaching lies to you. <sup>16</sup>I didn't send those prophets." This message is from the Lord. "They are preaching lies and saying that the message is from me. So, I will send you people of Judah away. You will die. And those prophets that preach to you will die also."

<sup>17</sup>Then I (Jeremiah) said to the priests and all those people, "The Lord says: Those false prophets are saying, 'The Babylonians took many things from the Lord's temple.* Those things will be brought back soon.' Don't listen to those prophets because they are preaching lies to you. <sup>18</sup>Don't listen to those prophets. Serve the king of Babylon. Accept your punishment, and you will live. There is no reason for you to cause this city of Jerusalem to be destroyed. <sup>19</sup>If those men are prophets and have the message from the Lord, let them pray. Let them pray about the things that are still in the Lord's temple. Let them pray about the things that are still in the king's palace. And let them pray about the things that are still in Jerusalem. Let those prophets pray that all those things will not be taken away to Babylon."

Israel, says this about the things still left in the Lord's temple, and in the king's palace and in Jerusalem: "All of those things will also be taken to Babylon. <sup>23</sup>Those things will be brought to Babylon until the day comes when I go to get them." This message is from the Lord. "Then I will bring those things back. I will put those things back in this place."

The False Prophet Hananiah

28 In the fifth month of the fourth year* that Zedekiah was king of Judah, Hananiah the prophet spoke to me. Hananiah was the son of a man named Azzur. Hananiah was from the town of Gibeon. Hananiah was in the Lord's temple when he spoke to me. The priests and all the people were there also. This is what Hananiah said: <sup>2</sup>"The Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: 'I will break the yoke* that the king of Babylon has put on the people of Judah. <sup>3</sup>Before two years are over, I will bring back all the things that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took from the Lord's temple. Nebuchadnezzar has carried those things to Babylon. But I will bring those things back here to Jerusalem. 'I will also bring Jehoiachin king of Judah back to this place. Jehoiachin is the son of Jehoiakim. And I will bring back all those people of Judah that Nebuchadnezzar forced to leave their homes and go to Babylon.' This message is from the Lord. 'So I will break the yoke that the king of Babylon put on the people of Judah!'"

<sup>4</sup>Then the prophet Jeremiah answered the prophet Hananiah. They were standing in the temple of the Lord. The priests and all the people there could hear Jeremiah's answer. <sup>5</sup>Jeremiah said to Hananiah, "Amen!* I hope the Lord will really do that! I hope the Lord will make the message you preach come true. I hope the Lord will bring the things of the Lord's temple back to this place from Babylon. And I hope the Lord will bring all the people that were forced to leave their homes back to this place.

<sup>7</sup>"But listen to what I must say, Hananiah. Listen to what I say to all you people. <sup>8</sup>There were prophets long before you and I became prophets, Hananiah. They preached that war, hunger, and terrible sicknesses would come to many countries and great kingdoms. <sup>9</sup>But the prophet that preaches that we will have peace must be tested to see if he truly was sent by the Lord. If the message of that prophet comes true, then people can know that he truly was sent by the Lord."

<sup>10</sup>Jeremiah was wearing a yoke* around his neck. Then the prophet Hananiah took that yoke from Jeremiah's neck. Hananiah broke that yoke. <sup>11</sup>Then Hananiah spoke loudly, so all the people could hear him. He said, "The Lord says: 'In the same way I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He put that yoke on all the nations of the world. But I will break that yoke before two years are over.'"

After Hananiah said that, Jeremiah left the temple.

<sup>12</sup>Then the message of the Lord came to Jeremiah. This happened after Hananiah had taken the yoke* off of Jeremiah's neck and had broken it. <sup>13</sup>The Lord said to Jeremiah, "Go and tell Hananiah, 'This is what the Lord says: You have broken a wooden yoke. But I will make a yoke of iron in the place of the wooden yoke.' <sup>14</sup>The Lord All-Powerful, the God of the Israel, says: 'I will put a yoke of iron on the necks of all these nations. I will do that to make them serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And they will be slaves to him. I will even give Nebuchadnezzar control over the wild animals.'"

<sup>15</sup>Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah, "Listen, Hananiah! The Lord did not send you. But you have made the people of Judah trust in lies. <sup>16</sup>So this is what the Lord says, 'Soon I will take you from this world, Hananiah. You will die this year. Why? Because you taught the people to turn against the Lord.'"

<sup>17</sup>Hananiah died in the seventh month of that same year.

A Letter to the Jewish Captives in Babylon

29 Jeremiah sent a letter to the Jewish captives* in Babylon. He sent it to the elders (leaders), the priests, the prophets, and all the other people that were living in Babylon. These were the people that Nebuchadnezzar took from Jerusalem and brought to Babylon. <sup>2</sup>(This letter was sent after King Jehoiachin, the queen mother, the officials and the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the carpenters, and the metal workers had been taken from Jerusalem.) <sup>3</sup>Zedekiah sent Elasah and Gemariah to King Nebuchadnezzar. Zedekiah was the king of Judah. Elasah was the son of Shaphan. And Gemariah was the son of Hilkiah. Jeremiah gave the letter to those men to take to Babylon. This is what the letter said:

"The Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says these things to all those people he sent into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon: <sup>4</sup>"Build houses and live in them. Settle in the land. Plant gardens and eat the food you grow. <sup>5</sup>Get married and have sons and daughters. Find wives for your sons. And let your daughters be married. Do that so they also may have sons and daughters. Have many children and grow in number in Babylon. Don't become fewer in number. <sup>6</sup>Also, do good things for the city I sent you to. Pray to the Lord for the city you are living in. Why? Because if there is peace in that city, then you will have peace also." <sup>7</sup>The Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: "Don't let your prophets and the people that practice magic fool you. Don't listen to the dreams they have.

captives People that were taken away like prisoners. Here this means the Jewish people that were taken to Babylon.

<sup>9</sup>They are preaching lies. And they are saying that their message is from me. But I didn't send it." This message is from the Lord.

<sup>10</sup>This is what the Lord says: "Babylon will be powerful for 70 years. After that time, I will come to you people that are living in Babylon. I will keep my good promise to bring you back to Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup>I say this because I know the plans that I have for you." This message is from the Lord. "I have good plans for you. I don't plan to hurt you. I plan to give you hope and a good future. <sup>12</sup>Then you people will call my name. You will come to me and pray to me. And I will listen to you. <sup>13</sup>You people will search for me. And when you search for me with all your heart, you will find me. <sup>14</sup>I will let you find me." This message is from the Lord. "And I will bring you back from your captivity. I forced you to leave this place. But I will gather you from all the nations and places where I have sent you," – this message is from the Lord – "and I will bring you back to this place."

<sup>16</sup>But the Lord says these things about your relatives that were not carried away to Babylon. I am talking about the king that is sitting on David's throne now and all the other people that are still in the city of Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup>The Lord All-Powerful says: "I will soon send the sword, hunger, and terrible sicknesses against those people that are still in Jerusalem. And I will make them the same as bad figs, which are too rotten to eat. <sup>18</sup>I will chase those people that are still in Jerusalem with the sword, with hunger, and terrible sicknesses. And I will make it so that all the kingdoms of the earth will be frightened at what has happened to those people. Those people will be destroyed. People will whistle with amazement when they hear about the things that happened. And people use them as an example when they ask for bad things to happen to people. People will insult them wherever I force those people to go. <sup>19</sup>I will make all those things happen because those people of Jerusalem have not listened to my message." This message is from the Lord. "I sent my message to them again and again. I used my servants, the prophets, to give my messages to those people. But the people didn't listen." This message is from the Lord. <sup>20</sup>"You people are captives.* I forced you to leave Jerusalem and go to Babylon. So, listen to the message from the Lord."

<sup>21</sup>The Lord All-Powerful says this about Ahab son of Koliaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah: "These two men have been preaching lies to you. They have said that their message is from me. But they were lying. I will give those two prophets to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And Nebuchadnezzar will kill those prophets in front of all you people that are captives in Babylon. <sup>22</sup>All of the Jewish captives use those men as examples when they ask for bad things to happen to other people. Those captives will say: 'May the Lord treat you like Zedekiah and Ahab. The king of Babylon burned those two in the fire!' <sup>23</sup>Those two prophets have done very bad things among the people of Israel. They have done the sin of adultery* with their neighbors' wives. They have also spoken lies and said those lies were a message from me, the Lord. I did not tell them to do those things. I know what they have done. I am a witness." This message is from the Lord.

captives People taken away like prisoners. Here this means the Jewish people that were taken to Babylon.
adultery Breaking the marriage promise by sexual sin.

God's Message to Shemaiah

<sup>24</sup>Also give a message to Shemaiah. Shemaiah is from the Nehelamite family. <sup>25</sup>The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: "Shemaiah, you sent letters to all the people in Jerusalem. And you sent letters to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah. You also sent letters to all the priests. You sent those letters in your own name and not by the authority of the Lord. <sup>26</sup>Shemaiah, this is what you said in your letter to Zephaniah: 'Zephaniah, the Lord has made you priest in place of Jehoiada. You are to be in charge of the Lord's temple. You should arrest anyone that acts like a crazy person* and acts like a prophet. You should put that person's feet between large blocks of wood and put neck-irons* on him. <sup>27</sup>Now, Jeremiah is acting like a prophet. So why have you not arrested him?' <sup>28</sup>Jeremiah has sent this message to us in Babylon: "You people in Babylon will be there for a long time. So build houses and settle down. Plant gardens and eat what you grow."

crazy person Shemaiah is referring to Jeremiah here. See verses 27-28.

neck-iron(s) A ring made from iron. People put the rings around prisoners necks. They often fastened a chain to the ring to control the prisoners.

captives People taken away like prisoners. Here this means the Jewish people that were taken to Babylon.

Promises of Hope

30 This is the message that came to Jeremiah from the Lord. <sup>2</sup>The Lord, the God of the people of Israel, said: "Jeremiah, write in a book the words I have spoken to you. Write this book for yourself. <sup>3</sup>Do this because the days will come" – this message is from the Lord – "when I will bring my people, Israel and Judah, back from exile."* This message is from the Lord. "I will put those people back in the land that I gave to their ancestors.* Then my people will own that land again."

<sup>4</sup>The Lord spoke this message about the people of Israel and Judah. <sup>5</sup>This is what the Lord said:

"We hear people crying from fear!
People are scared!
There is no peace!

<sup>6</sup> "Ask this question, and consider it:
Can a man have a baby? Of course not!
Then why do I see every strong man holding his stomach
like a woman having labor pains?
Why is every person's face turning white like a dead man?
(Why? Because the men are very scared.)

This is a time of great trouble.
There will never be another time like this.
But Jacob* will be saved.

"At that time," this message is from the Lord All-Powerful, "I will break the yoke* from the necks of the people of Israel and Judah. And I will break the ropes holding you. People from foreign countries will never again force my people to be slaves. <sup>9</sup>The people of Israel and Judah will not serve foreign countries. No! They will serve the Lord their

exile Being forced to leave one's home country.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22-28.

yoke A pole that was put on the shoulders of men or animals to help them carry or pull things. This often showed that a person was a slave.

God. And they will serve David their king,* I will send that king to them.

<sup>10</sup> "So, Jacob,* my servant, don't be afraid!"
This message is from the Lord.

"Israel, don't be afraid.

I will save you from that faraway place.

You are captives* in that faraway land,

But I will save your descendants* from that land.

Jacob will have peace again.

People will not bother Jacob.

There will be no enemy to scare my people.

<sup>11</sup> People of Israel and Judah, I am with you."

This message is from the Lord.

"And I will save you.

I sent you to those nations.

But I will completely destroy all those nations.

It is true, I will destroy those nations,
but I will not destroy you.

You must be punished for the bad things you did.

But I will discipline you fairly."

<sup>12</sup> The Lord says:

"You people of Israel and Judah have a wound that can't be cured.

You have an injury that will not heal.

<sup>13</sup> There is no person to care for your sores.
So you will not be healed.

<sup>14</sup> You became friends with many nations.
But those nations don't care about you.

Your 'friends' have forgotten you.

I hurt you like an enemy.

I punished you very hard.

I did this because of your great guilt.

I did this because of your many sins.

<sup>15</sup> Israel and Judah, why are you yelling about your wound?

Your wound is painful, and there is no cure for it.

I, the Lord, did these things to you because of your great guilt.

I did these things because of your many sins.

<sup>16</sup> Those nations destroyed you.

But now those nations have been destroyed.

Israel, Judah, your enemies will become captives.*

Those people stole things from you.

But other people will steal things from them.

Those people took things from you in war.

But other people will take things from them in war.

<sup>17</sup> And I will bring your health back.
And I will heal your wounds."

This message is from the Lord.

"Why? Because other people said you were outcasts.*

Those people said, 'No one cares about Zion.*'"

<sup>18</sup> The Lord says:

"Jacob's* people are now in captivity.

But they will come back.

And I will have pity on Jacob's houses.

The city* is now only a hill covered with ruined buildings.

But the city will be built again.

And the king's house will be built again where it should be.

<sup>19</sup> People in those places will sing songs of praise.

There will also be the sound of laughter.

I will give them many children.

Israel and Judah will not be small.

I will bring honor to them.

No person will look down on them.

David their king This means another king of Israel, that will be great like King David.

Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22-28.

captives People that were taken away like prisoners. Here this means the Jewish people that were taken to Babylon.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

outcasts People that were thrown out of some special group of people. Usually other people don't like or respect outcasts.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

city This probably refers to Jerusalem. But it might also mean all of the cities of Israel and Judah.

- <sup>20</sup> Jacob's family will be like the family in the old days.
I will make the people of Israel and Judah strong.
And I will punish the people that hurt them.
- <sup>21</sup> One of their own people will lead them.
That ruler will come from my people.
People can come close to me only if I ask them to.
So I will ask that leader to come to me, and he will be close to me.
- <sup>22</sup> You will be my people.
And I will be your God."
- <sup>23</sup> The Lord was very angry!
He punished the people.
And the punishment came like a storm.
The punishment came like a tornado against the wicked people.
- <sup>24</sup> The Lord will stay angry until he finishes punishing the people.
He will stay angry until he finishes the punishment he planned.
When that day comes,
you people of Judah will understand.

The New Israel

31 The Lord said these things: "At that time, I will be the God of all the family groups of Israel. And they will be my people."

- <sup>2</sup> The Lord says:
"Some of the people were not killed by the enemy's sword.
Those people will find comfort in the desert.
Israel will come looking for rest."
<sup>3</sup> From far away, the Lord will appear to his people.
(The Lord says,)
"I love you people.
And my love will continue forever.
I will be true to you forever."
<sup>4</sup> Israel, my bride, I will build you again.
You will be a country again.

- You will pick up your tambourines again.
You will dance with all the other people that are having fun.
- <sup>5</sup> You farmers of Israel will plant fields of grapes again.
You will plant those vineyards on the hills around the city of Samaria.
And the farmers will enjoy the fruit from those vineyards.
- <sup>6</sup> There will be a time when watchmen shout this message:
'Come, let's go up to Zion* to worship the Lord our God!'
Even the watchmen in the hill country of Ephraim* will shout that message."
- <sup>7</sup> The Lord says:
"Be happy and sing for Jacob*!
Shout for Israel, the greatest of the nations!
Sing your praises!
Shout this:
'The Lord has saved his people!*
He has saved the people that are left alive from the nation of Israel.'
<sup>8</sup> Understand that I will bring Israel from the country in the north.
I will gather the people of Israel from the faraway places on earth.
Some of the people are blind and crippled.
Some of the women will be pregnant and ready to give birth.
Many, many people will come back.
<sup>9</sup> Those people will be crying as they come back.
But I will lead them and comfort them.
I will lead those people by streams of water.
I will lead them on an easy road, so that they will not stumble.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
Ephraim This means the northern kingdom of Israel.
Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22-28.
The ... people Or, "Lord, save your people!" This is often a shout of victory.

I will lead them in that way because I am Israel's father.
And Ephraim* is my firstborn son.

<sup>10</sup> "Nations, listen to this message from the Lord!

Tell the message in the faraway lands by the sea. Say,

'The One who scattered the people of Israel will bring them back together.
And he will watch over his flock
(people) like a shepherd.'

<sup>11</sup> The Lord will bring Jacob* back.
The Lord will save his people from people that were stronger than they were.

<sup>12</sup> The people of Israel will come to the heights of Zion.*
And they will shout from joy.
Their faces will shine with happiness about the good things the Lord gives
them.

The Lord will give them grain, new wine, oil, young sheep, and cows.
They will be like a garden that has plenty of water.

And the people of Israel will not be troubled anymore.

<sup>13</sup> Then the young women of Israel will be happy and will dance.
The young men and old men will also join in the dancing.
I will change their sadness into happiness.
I will comfort the people of Israel.

I will change their sadness to happiness.

<sup>14</sup> The priests will have more than enough sacrifices.
And my people will be filled and satisfied with the good things I give
them."

This message is from the Lord.

<sup>15</sup> The Lord says:

"A sound will be heard in Ramah.
It will be bitter crying and much
sadness.

Rachel* will be crying for her children.
Rachel will refuse to be comforted, because her children are dead."

<sup>16</sup> But the Lord says:

"Stop crying!
Don't fill your eyes with tears!
You will be rewarded for your work!"
This message is from the Lord.

"The people of Israel will come back from their enemy's land.

<sup>17</sup> So, Israel, there is hope for you."
This message is from the Lord.

"Your children will come back to their own land.

<sup>18</sup> I have heard Ephraim* crying.
I heard Ephraim say these things:
'Lord, you really punished me!
And I learned my lesson.

I was like a calf that was never trained.

Please stop punishing me,
and I will come back to you.

You truly are the Lord my God.

<sup>19</sup> Lord, I wandered away from you.
But I learned about the bad things I did.
So I changed my heart and life.
I am ashamed and embarrassed about the foolish things I did when I was young.'

<sup>20</sup> (God says), "You know that Ephraim* is my dear son.

I love that child.

Yes, I often speak against Ephraim, but I still remember him.

I love him very much.

"I want to really comfort him."

This message is from the Lord.

<sup>21</sup> "People of Israel, fix the road signs.
Put up the signs that show you the way home.

Watch the road.

Pay attention to the road you are traveling on.

Israel, my bride, come home.

Come back to your towns.

<sup>22</sup> You were an unfaithful daughter.

(But you changed.)

So how long will you wait before you come home?

The Lord has made things like new in the land:

Let the woman surround the man."*

<sup>23</sup>The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: "I will again do good things for the people of Judah. At that time, the people in the land of Judah and in its towns will once again use these words: 'May the Lord bless you, O righteous dwelling, O holy mountain.'"*

<sup>24</sup>"People in all the towns of Judah will live together in peace. Farmers and those that move around with their flocks will live peacefully together in Judah. <sup>25</sup>"I will give rest and strength to the people that are weak and tired."

<sup>26</sup>After hearing that, I (Jeremiah) woke up and looked around. That was a very pleasant sleep.

<sup>27</sup>"The days are coming," this message is from the Lord, "when I will help the family of Israel and Judah to grow. I will help their children and animals to grow too. It will be like planting and caring for a plant. <sup>28</sup>In the past, I watched over Israel and Judah, but I watched for the time to pull them up. I tore them down. I destroyed them. I gave many troubles to them. But now, I will watch over them to build them up and make them strong." This message is from the Lord.

<sup>29</sup>"At that time, people will no longer use this saying: 'The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and that caused the children to grind their teeth.'* <sup>30</sup>But, each person will die for his own sin. The person that eats sour grapes will grind his own teeth because of the sour taste."

The New Agreement

<sup>31</sup>The Lord said these things: "The time is coming when I will make a new Agreement* with the family of Israel, and with the family of Judah. <sup>32</sup>It will not be like the Agreement I made with their ancestors.* I made that Agreement when I took them by the hand and brought them out of Egypt. I was their Master, but they broke that Agreement." This message is from the Lord.

<sup>33</sup>"In the future, I will make this Agreement with the people of Israel." This message is from the Lord. "I will put my teachings in their minds, and I will write them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. <sup>34</sup>People will not have to teach their neighbors and relatives to know the Lord. Why? Because a!! people, from the least important to the greatest, will know me." This message is from the Lord. "I will forgive them for the bad things they did. I won't remember their sins."

The Lord Will Never Leave Israel

<sup>35</sup> The Lord says:

"The Lord makes the sun shine in the day.

And the Lord makes the moon and the stars shine at night.

The Lord stirs up the sea so that its waves crash on the shore.

"The only way the descendants* of Israel will stop being a nation before me,

The ... teeth This means that children were suffering for the things their parents did.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

is if I lose control over the sun, moon, stars, and sea.”

“The only way I will reject the descendants of the people of Israel is if people can measure the sky above, and if they can learn all the secrets of the earth below.

If people can do those things, then I will reject the descendants of the people of Israel.

Then I will reject them because of what they have done.”

This message is from the Lord.

The New Jerusalem

<sup>38</sup>“The days are coming,” this message is from the Lord, “when the city of Jerusalem will be built again for the Lord. The whole city will be built again—from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. <sup>39</sup>The measuring line* will stretch from the Corner Gate straight to the hill of Gareb and then turn to the place named Gorah. <sup>40</sup>The whole valley where dead bodies and ashes are thrown will be holy to the Lord. And all the terraces out to the Kidron Valley on the east as far as the corner of the Horse Gate will be included. All that area will be holy to the Lord. The city of Jerusalem will never again be torn down or destroyed.”

Jeremiah Buys a Field

32 This is the message from the Lord that came to Jeremiah during the tenth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah.* The tenth year of Zedekiah was the 18th year of Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>2</sup>At that time, the army of the king of Babylon was surrounding the city of Jerusalem. And Jeremiah was under arrest in the courtyard of the guard. This courtyard was at the palace of the king of Judah. <sup>3</sup>Zedekiah king of Judah had put Jeremiah in prison in that place. Zedekiah didn't like the things Jeremiah prophesied.* Jeremiah had said, “The Lord says: ‘I will soon give the city of Jerusalem to the king of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar will capture this city. ‘Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape from the army of the Babylonians. But he will surely be given to the king of Babylon. And Zedekiah will speak to the king of Babylon face to face. Zedekiah will see him with his own eyes. ‘The king of Babylon will take Zedekiah to Babylon. Zedekiah will stay there until I have punished him.’ This message is from the Lord. ‘If you fight against the army of the Babylonians, you will not succeed.’”)

“While Jeremiah was prisoner, he said, “The message from the Lord came to me. This was the message: <sup>7</sup>Jeremiah, your cousin, Hanamel, will come to you soon. He is the son of your uncle Shallum. Hanamel will say to you, ‘Jeremiah, buy my field near the town of Anathoth. Buy it because you are my nearest relative. It is your right and your responsibility to buy that field.’

“Then it happened just as the Lord said. My cousin Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the guard. Hanamel said to me, ‘Jeremiah, buy my field near the town of Anathoth, in the land of the family group of Benjamin. Buy that land for yourself because it is your right to buy it and own it.’”

So I knew that this was a message from the Lord. <sup>9</sup>I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel. I weighed out 17 shekels* of silver for him. <sup>10</sup>I signed the deed.* And I had a copy of the deed sealed up.* And I got some men to witness the things I had done. And I weighed out the silver on the scales. <sup>11</sup>Then I took the sealed copy of the deed and the copy that was not sealed, <sup>12</sup>and I gave them to Baruch. Baruch was the son of Neriah. Neriah was the son of Mahseiah. The sealed copy of prophesied Spoke for God.

shekel Or, “<sup>2</sup>/<sub>5</sub> of an ounce.”

deed A piece of paper that proves a person owns a certain piece of property.

sealed up Important documents were rolled up and tied with a string. Then a piece of clay or wax was put on the string. Then a person's mark was put in that clay or wax. This way, people could prove nothing in the document was changed.

measuring line A rope or chain for measuring property lines.

tenth year ... Judah This was 588-587 B.C. This was the year Jerusalem was destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar.

the deed had all the terms and conditions of my purchase. I gave this deed to Baruch while my cousin Hanamel and the other witnesses were there. Those witnesses also signed the deed. There were also many people of Judah sitting in the courtyard that saw me give the deed to Baruch.

<sup>13</sup>With all the people watching, I said to Baruch: <sup>14</sup>“The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘Take both copies of the deed—the sealed copy and the copy that was not sealed—and put them in a clay jar. Do this so that these deeds will last a long time.’ <sup>15</sup>The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘In the future, my people will once again buy houses, fields, and vineyards in the land of Israel.’”

<sup>16</sup>After I gave the deed to Baruch son of Neriah I prayed to the Lord. I said:

<sup>17</sup>“Lord God, you made the skies and the earth. You made them with your great power. There is nothing too wonderful for you to do. <sup>18</sup>Lord, you are loyal and kind to thousands of people. But you also bring punishment to children for their fathers’ sins. Great and powerful God, your name is the Lord All-Powerful. <sup>19</sup>You plan and do great things, Lord. You see everything that people do. You give reward to people that do good things and you punish people that do bad things—you give them what they deserve. <sup>20</sup>Lord, you did powerful miracles in the land of Egypt. You have done powerful miracles even until today. You did those things in Israel and you did those things wherever there are people. You have become famous because of these things. <sup>21</sup>Lord, you used powerful miracles and brought your people Israel out of Egypt. You used your own powerful hand to do those things. Your power was amazing!

<sup>22</sup>“Lord, you gave this land to the people of Israel. This is the land you promised to give to their ancestors* long ago. It is a very good land. It is a good land with many good things. <sup>23</sup>The people of Israel came into this land and took it for their own. But those people didn’t obey you. They didn’t follow your teachings. They didn’t do the things you commanded. So you made all these terrible things happen to the people of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>“And now, the enemy has surrounded the city. They are building ramps, so that they can get over the walls of Jerusalem and capture it. By using their swords, and hunger, and terrible sicknesses, the Babylonian army will defeat the city of Jerusalem. The Babylonian army is attacking the city now. Lord, you said this would happen—and now you see it is happening.

<sup>25</sup>“Lord my Master, all of those bad things are happening. But now you are telling me, ‘Jeremiah, buy the field with silver and choose some men to witness the purchase.’ You are telling me this while the Babylonian army is ready to capture the city. Why should I waste my money like that?.”

<sup>26</sup>Then the message from the Lord came to Jeremiah: <sup>27</sup>“Jeremiah, I am the Lord. I am the God of every person on the earth. Jeremiah, you know that nothing is impossible for me.” <sup>28</sup>The Lord also said, <sup>29</sup>“I will soon give the city of Jerusalem to the Babylonian army and to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. That army will capture the city. <sup>30</sup>The Babylonian army is already attacking the city of Jerusalem. They will soon enter the city and start a fire. They will burn this city down. There are houses in this city where the people of Jerusalem made me angry by offering sacrifices to the false god Baal* on the housetops. And the people poured out drink offerings to other idol gods. The Babylonian army will burn down those houses.

<sup>30</sup>I have watched the people of Israel and the people of Judah. Everything they do is evil. They have done evil things since they were young. The people of Israel have made me very angry. They have made me angry because they worship idols that they made with their own hands.<sup>31</sup> This message is from the Lord. <sup>31</sup>“From the time that Jerusalem was built until now, the people of this city have made me angry. This city has made me so angry, I must remove it from my sight. <sup>32</sup>I will destroy Jerusalem because of all the evil things the people of Israel and Judah have done. The people, their kings, leaders, their priests and prophets, the men of Judah, and the people of Jerusalem have all made me angry.

<sup>33</sup>“Those people should have come to me for help. But they turned their backs to me. I tried to teach those people again and again. But they would not listen to me. I tried to correct them, but they would not listen. <sup>34</sup>Those people have made their idols—and I hate those idols. They put their idols in the temple* that is called by my name. In this way, they made my temple ‘dirty.’

<sup>35</sup>“In the Valley of Ben Hinnom,* those people built high places* to the false god Baal.* They built those worship places so that they could burn their sons and daughters as child sacrifices. I never commanded them to do such a terrible thing. I never even thought the people of Judah would do such a terrible thing.

<sup>36</sup>“You people are saying, ‘The king of Babylon will capture Jerusalem. He will use swords, hunger, and terrible sicknesses to defeat this city.’ But the Lord, the God of the people of Israel, says: <sup>37</sup>‘I have forced the people of Israel and Judah to leave their land. I was very angry with those people. But I will bring them back to this place. I will gather those people from the land where I forced them to go. I will bring them back to this place. I will let them live in peace and safety.<sup>38</sup> The people of Israel and Judah will be my people. And I will be their God. <sup>39</sup>I will give those people the desire to be truly one people. They will have one goal—they will truly want to worship me all their lives. They will truly want to do this, and so will their children.

<sup>40</sup>“I will make an Agreement with the people of Israel and Judah. This Agreement will last forever. In this Agreement, I will never turn away from those people. I will always be good to them. I will make them want to respect me. Then they will never turn away from me. <sup>41</sup>They will make me happy. I will enjoy doing good to them. And I will surely plant them in this land and make them grow. I will do this with all my heart and soul.’”

<sup>42</sup>This is what the Lord says: “I have brought this great disaster to the people of Israel and Judah. In the same way, I will bring good things to them. I promise to do good things for them. <sup>43</sup>You people are saying: ‘This land is an empty desert. There are no people or animals here. The Babylonian army defeated this country.’ But in the future, people will once again buy fields in this land. <sup>44</sup>People will use their money and buy fields. They will sign and seal their agreements. People will witness the people signing their deeds.* People will again buy fields in the land where the family group of Benjamin lives. They will buy fields in the area around Jerusalem. They will buy fields in the towns of the land of Judah, in the hill country, in the western foothills, and in the area of the southern desert. That will happen because I will bring your people back home.” This message is from the Lord.

The Promise of God

33 The message from the Lord came to Jeremiah a second time. Jeremiah was

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
Valley ... Hinnom This valley is also called, “Gehenna.”

This name comes from the Hebrew name “Ge Hinnom—Hinnom’s Valley.” This place became an example of how God punishes wicked people.

high places Special places where the people worshiped false gods. These places were often on hilltops, but not always. Some ‘high places’ were in valleys.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

deed(s) A piece of paper that proves a person owns a certain piece of property.

still locked up in the courtyard* of the guards.<sup>2</sup>The Lord made the earth, and he keeps it safe. The Lord is his name. The Lord says,<sup>3</sup>“Judah, pray to me, and I will answer you. I will tell you important secrets. You have never heard these things before.”<sup>4</sup>The Lord is the God of Israel. The Lord says these things about the houses in Jerusalem and about the palaces* of the kings of Judah. The enemy will pull those houses down. The enemy will build ramps up to the top of the city walls. The enemy will use swords and fight the people in these cities.

<sup>5</sup>“The people in Jerusalem have done many bad things. I am angry at those people. I have turned against them. So I will kill many, many people there. The Babylonian army will come to fight against Jerusalem. There will be many, many dead bodies in the houses in Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>“But then I will heal the people in that city. I will let those people enjoy peace and safety.<sup>7</sup>I will make good things happen to Judah and Israel again. I will make those people strong like in the past.<sup>8</sup>They sinned against me—but I will wash away that sin. They fought against me—but I will forgive them.<sup>9</sup>Then Jerusalem will be a wonderful place. People will be happy. And people from other nations will praise it. This will happen at the time those people hear about the good things happening there. They will hear about the good things I am doing for Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>“You people are saying, ‘Our country is an empty desert. There are no people or animals living there.’ It is now quiet in the streets of Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah. But it will be noisy there soon.<sup>11</sup>There will be sounds of joy and happiness. There will be the happy sounds of a bride and groom. There will be the sounds of people bringing their gifts to the Lord’s temple.* Those people will say, ‘Praise the Lord All-Powerful! The Lord is good! The Lord’s kindness continues forever!’ The people will say these things because I will again do good things to Judah. It will be like in the beginning.” The Lord said these things.

<sup>12</sup>The Lord All-Powerful says, “This place is empty now. There are no people or animals living here. But there will be people in all the towns of Judah. There will be shepherds, and there will be pastures where they will let their flocks rest.<sup>13</sup>Shepherds count their sheep as the sheep walk in front of them. People will be counting their sheep all around the country—in the hill-country, in the western foothills, in the Negev,* and in all the other towns of Judah.”

The Good Branch

<sup>14</sup>This message is from the Lord: “I made a special promise to the people of Israel and Judah. The time is coming when I will do the things I promised.<sup>15</sup>At that time, I will make a good ‘branch’ grow from David’s family. That good ‘branch’ will do the things that are good and right for the country.<sup>16</sup>At the time of this ‘branch,’ the people of Judah will be saved. The people will live safely in Jerusalem. The branch’s name is: ‘The Lord is Good.’”

<sup>17</sup>The Lord says, “A person from David’s family will always sit on the throne and rule the family of Israel.<sup>18</sup>And there will always be priests from the family of Levi. Those priests will always stand before me and offer burnt offerings and sacrifice grain offerings and give sacrifices to me.”

<sup>19</sup>This message from the Lord came to Jeremiah.<sup>20</sup>The Lord says, “I have an agreement with day and night. I agreed that they will continue forever. You can’t change that agreement. Day and night will always come at the right time. If you could change that agreement,<sup>21</sup>then you could change my Agreement with David and Levi. Then descendants* from David would not be the kings and the family of Levi would not be priests.<sup>22</sup>But I will give many descendants to my servant David and to the family group of Levi. They will be as many as the stars in the sky—no person can count all those stars. And they will be as many as the pieces of sand on courtyard An area around the king’s house.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

Negev The desert area south of Judah.

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

the seashore—no person can count those pieces of sand.”

<sup>2</sup>Jeremiah received this message from the Lord: <sup>24</sup>“Jeremiah, have you heard what the people are saying? Those people are saying, ‘The Lord turned away from the two families of Israel and Judah. The Lord chose those people, but now he does not even accept them as a nation.’”

<sup>25</sup>The Lord says, “If my agreement with day and night does not continue, and if I didn’t make the laws for the sky and earth, then maybe I would leave those people. <sup>26</sup>Then maybe I would turn away from Jacob’s* descendants.* And then maybe I would not let David’s descendants rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. But David is my servant. And I will be kind to those people. And I will again cause good things to happen to those people.”

A Warning to Zedekiah King of Judah

34 The message from the Lord came to Jeremiah. The message came at the time when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, was fighting against Jerusalem and all the towns around it. Nebuchadnezzar had with him all his army and the armies of all the kingdoms and peoples in the empire he ruled.

<sup>2</sup>This was the message: “This is what the Lord, the God of the people of Israel, says: Jeremiah, go to Zedekiah king of Judah and give him this message: ‘Zedekiah, this is what the Lord says: I will give the city of Jerusalem to the king of Babylon very soon, and he will burn it down. <sup>3</sup>Zedekiah, you will not escape from the king of Babylon. You will surely be caught and given to him. You will see the king of Babylon with your own eyes. He will talk to you face to face, and you will go to Babylon. <sup>4</sup>But listen to the promise of the Lord, Zedekiah king of Judah. This is what the Lord says about you: You will not be killed with a sword. <sup>5</sup>You will die in a peaceful way. People made funeral fires to honor your ancestors,* the kings that ruled before you became king. In the same way, people will make a funeral fire to honor you. They will cry for you. They will sadly say, “Oh, master!” I myself make this promise to you.” This message is from the Lord.

<sup>6</sup>So Jeremiah gave the message from the Lord to Zedekiah in Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>This was while the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem. The army of Babylon was also fighting against the cities of Judah that had not been captured. Those cities were Lachish and Azekah. These were the only fortified cities left in the land of Judah.

The People Break One of their Agreements

<sup>8</sup>King Zedekiah had made an agreement with all the people in Jerusalem to give freedom to all the Hebrew slaves. A message from the Lord came to Jeremiah after Zedekiah had made that agreement. <sup>9</sup>Every person was supposed to free his Hebrew slaves. All male and female Hebrew slaves were to be set free. No one was supposed to keep another person from the family group of Judah in slavery. <sup>10</sup>So all the leaders of Judah and all the people accepted this agreement. Every person would free their male and female slaves and no longer keep them as slaves. Every person agreed, and so all the slaves were set free. <sup>11</sup>But after that,* the people that had slaves changed their minds. So they took the people they had set free and made them slaves again.

<sup>12</sup>Then the message from the Lord came to Jeremiah: <sup>13</sup>Jeremiah, this is what the Lord, the God of the people of Israel, says: “I brought your ancestors* out of the land of Egypt, where they were slaves. When I did that, I made an Agreement with them. <sup>14</sup>I said to your

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

after that In the summer of 588 B.C., the Egyptian army came to help the people of Jerusalem, and the Babylonian army had to leave Jerusalem briefly to fight the Egyptians. The people of Jerusalem thought that God had helped them, and that things were back to normal, so they didn’t keep their promise. They took the slaves that they had set free back into slavery.

Jacob’s Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22-28.

ancestors: 'At the end of every seven years, each person must set his Hebrew slaves free. If you have a fellow Hebrew that has sold himself to you, you must let him go free after he has served you for six years.' But your ancestors didn't listen to me or pay attention to me. <sup>15</sup>A short time ago, you changed your hearts to do what is right. Each of you gave freedom to his fellow Hebrews that were slaves. And you even made an agreement before me in the temple* that is called by my name. <sup>16</sup>But now, you have changed your minds. You have shown you don't honor my name. How did you do this? Each of you has taken back the male and female slaves that you had set free. You have forced them to become slaves again.

<sup>17</sup>"So this is what the Lord says: 'You people have not obeyed me. You have not given freedom to your fellow Hebrews. Because you have not kept the agreement, I will give "freedom.'" This is the message of the Lord. (I will give) "freedom" to be killed by swords, by terrible sicknesses, and by hunger! I will make you become something that terrifies all the kingdoms of the earth, when they hear about you. <sup>18</sup>I will hand over the men that broke my Agreement, and have not kept the promises they made before me. These men cut a calf into two pieces before me and walked between the two pieces.* <sup>19</sup>These are the people that walked between the two pieces of the calf when they made the Agreement before me: the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the important officials of the court, the priests, and the people of the land. <sup>20</sup>So I will give those people to their enemies and to every person that wants to kill them. The bodies of those people will become food for the birds of the air and for the wild animals of the earth. <sup>21</sup>I will give Zedekiah king of Judah, and his leaders to their enemies and to every person that wants to kill them. I will

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
These men ... two pieces This is part of a ceremony people used when they made an important agreement. A calf (or sometimes other animals) was cut into two pieces. The people that were making the agreement would walk between the pieces. Then they would say something like, "I hope this same thing happens to me if I don't keep the agreement."

give Zedekiah and his people to the army of the king of Babylon, even though that army has left Jerusalem.* <sup>22</sup>But I will give the order,' this message is from the Lord, 'to bring the Babylonian army back to Jerusalem. That army will fight against Jerusalem. They will capture it and set it on fire and burn it down. And I will destroy the cities in the land of Judah. Those cities will become empty deserts. No people will live there.'"

The Good Example of the Recabite Family

35 During the time when Jehoiakim was king of Judah, the message from the Lord came to Jeremiah. Jehoiakim was the son of King Josiah. This was the message from the Lord: <sup>2</sup>"Jeremiah, go to the Recabite family.* Invite them to come to one of the side rooms of the temple* of the Lord. Offer them wine to drink."

<sup>3</sup>So I (Jeremiah) went to get Jaazaniah.* Jaazaniah was the son of a man named Jeremiah,* that was the son of a man named Habazziniah. And I got all of Jaazaniah's brothers and sons. I got the whole family of the Recabites together. <sup>4</sup>Then I brought the Recabite family into the temple of the Lord. We went into the room called the room of the sons of Hanan. Hanan was the son of a man named Igdaliah. Hanan was a man of God.* The room was next to the room where the princes of Judah stay. It was over the room of Maaseiah son of Shallum. Maaseiah was the doorkeeper in the temple. <sup>5</sup>Then I (Jeremiah) put some bowls full of wine with some cups in front of the Recabite family. And I said to them, "Drink some wine."

left Jerusalem An army from Egypt came to help the people of Jerusalem in the summer of 588 B.C. So the Babylonian army left Jerusalem for a short time to fight them. See Jer. 37:5. See also the footnote to Jer. 34:11.

Recabite family A group of people descended from Jonadab son of Recab. The family was very loyal to the Lord. See 2 Kings 10:15-28 for the story of Jonadab.

Jaazaniah He was the head of the Recabite family at that time.

Jeremiah Not the prophet Jeremiah, but a different man of the same name.

man of God This is usually an honorable title for a prophet. We know nothing else about Hanan.

“But the Recabite people answered, “We never drink wine. We never drink it because our ancestor* Jonadab son of Recab, gave us this command: ‘You and your descendants* must never drink wine.’<sup>7</sup> Also, you must never build houses, plant seeds, or plant vineyards. You must never do any of those things. You must live only in tents. If you do that, then you will live a long time in the land where you move from place to place.’<sup>8</sup> So, we Recabite people have obeyed everything our ancestor Jonadab commanded us. We never drink wine. And our wives, sons, and daughters never drink wine.<sup>9</sup> We never build houses to live in. And we never own vineyards or fields. And we never plant crops.<sup>10</sup> We have lived in tents and have obeyed everything our ancestor Jonadab commanded us.<sup>11</sup> But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked the country of Judah, we did go into Jerusalem. We said to each other, ‘Come, we must enter the city of Jerusalem, so that we can escape the Babylonian army and the Aramean army.’ So we have stayed in Jerusalem.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the message from the Lord came to Jeremiah: <sup>13</sup>“The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘Jeremiah, go and tell this message to the men of Judah and to the people of Jerusalem: You people should learn a lesson and obey my message.’ This message is from the Lord. <sup>14</sup>“Jonadab son of Recab ordered his sons not to drink wine, and that command has been obeyed. Until today, the descendants of Jonadab obeyed their ancestor’s command. They don’t drink wine. But I am the Lord. And I have given you people of Judah messages again and again, but you didn’t obey me. <sup>15</sup>I sent my servants the prophets to you people of Israel and Judah. I sent them to you again and again. Those prophets said to you, ‘Each of you people of Israel and Judah must stop doing evil things. You must be good. Don’t follow other gods. Don’t worship or serve them. If you obey me, then you will live in the land I have given to you and your ancestors.’ But you people have not paid attention to my message. <sup>16</sup>The descendants of Jonadab obeyed the commands that their ancestor gave them. But the people of Judah have not obeyed me.”

<sup>17</sup>So the Lord God All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: “I said many bad things would happen to Judah and Jerusalem. I will soon make all those bad things happen. I spoke to those people, but they refused to listen. I called out to them, but they didn’t answer me.”

<sup>18</sup>Then Jeremiah said to the family of Recabite people, “The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says, ‘You people have obeyed the commands of your ancestor* Jonadab. You have followed all of Jonadab’s teachings. You have done everything he commanded.’<sup>19</sup> So the Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: There will always be a descendant of Jonadab son of Recab to serve me.’”

King Jeholakim Burns Jeremiah’s Scroll

36 The message from the Lord came to Jeremiah. This was during the fourth year that Jehoikim son of Josiah was king of Judah. This was the message from the Lord: <sup>2</sup>“Jeremiah, get a scroll* and write on it all the messages I have spoken to you. I have spoken to you about the nations of Israel and Judah and all the nations. Write all the words that I have spoken to you from the time that Josiah was king, until now. <sup>3</sup>Maybe the family of Judah will hear what I am planning to do to them. And maybe they will stop doing bad things. If they will do that, I will forgive them for the bad sins they have done.”

<sup>4</sup>So Jeremiah called a man named Baruch. Baruch was the son of Neriah. Jeremiah spoke the messages the Lord had given him. While Jeremiah spoke, Baruch wrote those messages on the scroll.* <sup>5</sup>Then Jeremiah said to Baruch, “I can’t go to the Lord’s temple. I am not allowed to go there. <sup>6</sup>So I want you to go to the temple of the Lord. Go there on a day of fasting* and read to the people from the scroll. Read to the people the messages from the Lord that you wrote on the scroll as I spoke them to you. Read those messages to all the people of Judah that come into Jerusalem from the towns where they live. <sup>7</sup>Perhaps those people will ask the Lord to help them. Perhaps each person will stop doing bad things. The Lord has announced that he is very angry with those people.” <sup>8</sup>So Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet told him to do. Baruch read aloud the scroll that had the Lord’s messages written on it. He read it in the Lord’s temple.

ancestor Literally, “father,” meaning a person that people are descended from.

<sup>9</sup>In the ninth month of the fifth year that Jehoiakim was king, a fast* was announced. All the people that lived in the city of Jerusalem, and everyone that had come into Jerusalem from the towns of Judah were supposed to fast before the Lord. <sup>10</sup>At that time, Baruch read the scroll* that contained Jeremiah’s words. He read the scroll in the temple of the Lord. Baruch read the scroll to all the people that were in the Lord’s temple. Baruch was in the room of Gemariah in the upper courtyard when he read from the scroll. That room was located at the entrance of the New Gate of the temple. Gemariah was the son of Shaphan. Gemariah was a scribe* in the temple.

<sup>11</sup>A man named Micaiah heard all the messages from the Lord that Baruch read from the scroll.* Micaiah was the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan. <sup>12</sup>When Micaiah heard the messages from the scroll, he went down to the secretary’s room in the king’s palace. All of the royal officials were sitting there in the king’s palace. These are names of those officials: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Achbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah; and all the other royal officials were there too. <sup>13</sup>Micaiah told those officials everything he had heard Baruch read from the scroll.

<sup>14</sup>Then all those officials sent a man named Jehudi to Baruch. Jehudi was the son of Nethaniah, son of Shelemiah. Shelemiah was the son of Cushi. Jehudi said to Baruch, “Bring the scroll* that you read from and come with me.”

Baruch son of Neriah took the scroll and went with Jehudi to the officials.

<sup>15</sup>Then those officials said to Baruch, “Sit down and read the scroll to us.”

So Baruch read the scroll to them.

<sup>16</sup>Those royal officials heard all the messages from the scroll. Then they became afraid, and they looked at one another. They said to Baruch, “We must tell King Jehoiakim about these messages on the scroll.” <sup>17</sup>Then the officials asked Baruch a question. They said, “Tell us, Baruch, where did you get these messages that you wrote on the scroll? Did you write down the things Jeremiah spoke to you?”

<sup>19</sup>Then the royal officials said to Baruch, “You and Jeremiah must go and hide. Don’t tell anyone where you are hiding.”

<sup>20</sup>Then the royal officials put the scroll in the room of Elishama the scribe. They went to King Jehoiakim and told him all about the scroll.

<sup>21</sup>So King Jehoiakim sent Jehudi to get the scroll. Jehudi brought the scroll from the room of Elishama the scribe. Then Jehudi read the scroll to the king and all of the servants that stood around the king. <sup>22</sup>The time this happened was in the ninth month,* so King Jehoiakim was sitting in the winter apartment. There was a fire burning in a small fireplace in front of the king. <sup>23</sup>Jehudi began to read from the scroll. But whenever he would read two or three columns, King Jehoiakim would grab the scroll. Then he would cut those columns off of the scroll with a small knife and throw them into the fireplace. Finally, the whole scroll was burned in the fire. <sup>24</sup>And, when King Jehoiakim and his servants heard the message from the scroll, they were not afraid. They didn't tear their clothes to show sorrow for doing wrong.

<sup>25</sup>Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah tried to talk King Jehoiakim into not burning the scroll.* But the king would not listen to them. <sup>26</sup>And King Jehoiakim commanded some men to arrest Baruch the scribe* and Jeremiah the prophet. Those men were Jerahmeel, a son of the king, and Seraiah son of Abdeel. But those men could not find Baruch and Jeremiah, because the Lord had hidden them.

<sup>27</sup>The message from the Lord came to Jeremiah. This happened after King Jehoiakim burned the scroll* that had contained all the messages from the Lord. Jeremiah had spoken to Baruch, and Baruch had written the messages on the scroll. This was the message from the Lord that came to Jeremiah:

<sup>28</sup>"Jeremiah, get another scroll.* Write all the messages on it that were on the first scroll. That is the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah burned. <sup>29</sup>Jeremiah, also say this to Jehoiakim king of Judah, 'This is what the Lord says: Jehoiakim, you burned that scroll. You said, "Why did Jeremiah write that the king of Babylon will surely come and destroy this land? Why did he say that the king of Babylon will destroy both men and animals in this land?"' <sup>30</sup>So, this is what the Lord says about Jehoiakim king of Judah: Jehoiakim's* descendants* will not sit on David's throne. When Jehoiakim dies, he will not get a king's funeral, but his body will be thrown out on the ground. His body will be left out in the heat of the day, and the cold frost of the night. <sup>31</sup>I, the Lord, will punish Jehoiakim and his children. And I will punish his officials. I will do this because they are wicked. I have promised to bring terrible disasters on them, and on all the people that live in Jerusalem and on the people from Judah. I will bring all the bad things on them, just as I promised, because they have not listened to me.'"

<sup>32</sup>Then Jeremiah took another scroll* and gave it to Baruch son of Neriah, the scribe.* As Jeremiah spoke, Baruch wrote on the scroll the same messages that were on the scroll that King Jehoiakim had burned in the fire. And many other words like those messages were added to the second scroll.

Jeremiah Is Put in Prison

37 Nebuchadnezzar was the king of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar appointed Zedekiah as king of Judah in the place of Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim. Zedekiah was a son of King Josiah. <sup>2</sup>But Zedekiah did not pay attention to the messages the Lord had given to Jeremiah the prophet to preach. And Zedekiah's servants and the people of Judah did not pay attention to the Lord's messages.

<sup>3</sup>King Zedekiah sent a man named Jehucal and the priest Zephaniah to Jeremiah the prophet with a message. Jehucal was the son of Shelemiah. The priest Zephaniah was the son of Maaseiah. This was the message they brought to Jeremiah: "Jeremiah, pray to the Lord our God for us."

<sup>4</sup>(At that time, Jeremiah had not yet been put into prison, so he was free to go anywhere he wanted. <sup>5</sup>Also at that time, Pharaoh's army had marched from Egypt toward Judah. The Babylonian army had surrounded the city of Jerusalem, in order to defeat it. Then they had heard about the army from Egypt marching toward them. So the army from Babylon had left Jerusalem to fight with the army from Egypt.)

<sup>6</sup>The message from the Lord came to Jeremiah the prophet: <sup>7</sup>"This is what the Lord, the God of the people of Israel, says: 'Jehucal and Zephaniah, I know that Zedekiah king of Judah, sent you to me to ask questions. Tell this to King Zedekiah: Pharaoh's army marched out of Egypt to come here to help you against the army of Babylon. But Pharaoh's army will go back to Egypt. <sup>8</sup>After that, the army from Babylon will come back here. They will attack Jerusalem. Then that army from Babylon will capture and burn Jerusalem.' <sup>9</sup>This is what the Lord says: 'People of Jerusalem, don't fool yourselves. Don't say to yourselves, "The army of Babylon will surely leave us alone." They will not. <sup>10</sup>People of Jerusalem, even if you could defeat all of the Babylonian army that is attacking you, there would still be a few wounded men left in their tents. Even those few wounded men would come out of their tents and burn Jerusalem down.'"

<sup>14</sup>Jeremiah said to Irijah, "That is not true. I am not leaving to join the Babylonians." But Irijah refused to listen to Jeremiah. And Irijah arrested Jeremiah and took him to the royal officials of Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>Those officials were very angry with Jeremiah. They gave an order for Jeremiah to be beaten. Then they put Jeremiah in a prison. The prison was in the house of a man named Jonathan. Jonathan was a scribe* for the king of Judah. Jonathan's house had been made into a prison. <sup>16</sup>Those people put Jeremiah into a cell under the house of Jonathan. That cell was in a dungeon* under the ground. Jeremiah was there for a long time.

the ... Benjamin Jeremiah was going to his home town, Anathoth, which was in the land of Benjamin.

<sup>17</sup>Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah and had him brought to the king's house. Zedekiah talked to Jeremiah in private. He asked Jeremiah, "Is there any message from the Lord?"

Jeremiah answered, "Yes, there is a message from the Lord. Zedekiah, you will be given to the king of Babylon." <sup>18</sup>Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, "What have I done wrong? What crime have I done against you or your officials or the people of Jerusalem? Why have you thrown me into prison? <sup>19</sup>King Zedekiah, where are your prophets now? Those prophets preached a false message to you. They said, 'The king of Babylon will not attack you or this land of Judah.' <sup>20</sup>But now, my lord, king of Judah, please listen to me. Please let me bring my request to you. This is what I ask: Don't send me back to the house of Jonathan the scribe. If you send me back, I will die there."

<sup>21</sup>So King Zedekiah gave orders for Jeremiah to be put under guard in the courtyard. And he ordered that Jeremiah should be given bread from the street bakers. Jeremiah was given bread until there was no more bread in the city. So Jeremiah stayed under guard in the courtyard.

Jeremiah Is Thrown into a Cistern

38 Some of the royal officials heard what Jeremiah was preaching. They were: Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehucal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah. Jeremiah was telling all the people this message: <sup>2</sup>"This is what the Lord says: 'Everyone that stays in Jerusalem will die by a sword, or hunger, or terrible sickness. But everyone that surrenders to the army of Babylon will live. Those people will escape with their lives.' <sup>3</sup>And this is what the Lord says: 'This city of Jerusalem will surely be given to the army of the king of Babylon. He will capture this city.'"

<sup>4</sup>Then those royal officials that heard the things Jeremiah was telling the people went to King Zedekiah. They said to the king, "Jeremiah must be put to death. He is making the soldiers that are still in the city become discouraged. Jeremiah is discouraging everyone by the things he is saying. Jeremiah does not want good to happen to us. He wants to ruin the people of Jerusalem.”

<sup>5</sup>So King Zedekiah said to those officials, “Jeremiah is in your control. I can’t do anything to stop you.”

<sup>6</sup>So those officials took Jeremiah and put him into Malkijah’s cistern.* (Malkijah was the king’s son.) That cistern was in the temple yard where the king’s guard stayed. Those officials used ropes to lower Jeremiah into the cistern. The cistern didn’t have any water in it, but only mud. And Jeremiah sank down into the mud.

<sup>7</sup>But a man named Ebed-Melech heard that those officials had put Jeremiah into the cistern.* Ebed-Melech was a man from Ethiopia, and he was a eunuch* in the king’s house. King Zedekiah was sitting at the Benjamin Gate. So Ebed-Melech left the king’s house and went to talk to the king at that gate. <sup>8</sup>Ebed-Melech said, “My lord and king, those officials have acted in a wicked way. They have treated Jeremiah the prophet wickedly. They have thrown him into a cistern. They have left him there to die.”*

<sup>9</sup>Then King Zedekiah gave a command to Ebed-Melech, the Ethiopian. This was the command: “Ebed-Melech, take three* men from the king’s house with you. Go and lift Jeremiah out of the cistern before he dies.”

<sup>10</sup>So Ebed-Melech took the men with him. But first he went to a room under the storeroom in the king’s house. He took some old rags and worn-out clothes from that room. Then he let those rags down with some ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern. <sup>11</sup>Ebed-Melech, the Ethiopian, said to Jeremiah, “Put these old rags and worn-out clothes under your arms. When we pull you out, these rags will pad your underarms. Then the ropes will not hurt you.”

So Jeremiah did as Ebed-Melech said. <sup>13</sup>Those men pulled Jeremiah up with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern. And Jeremiah stayed under guard in the temple yard.

Zedekiah Asks Jeremiah Some Questions Again

<sup>14</sup>Then King Zedekiah sent someone to get Jeremiah the prophet. He had Jeremiah brought to the third entrance to the temple of the Lord. Then the king said, “Jeremiah, I am going to ask you something. Don’t hide anything from me, but tell me everything honestly.”

<sup>15</sup>Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “If I give you an answer, you will probably kill me. And even if I did give you advice, you would not listen to me.”

<sup>16</sup>But King Zedekiah swore an oath to Jeremiah. Zedekiah did this in secret. This is what Zedekiah swore: “As surely as the Lord lives, who has given us breath and life, I will not kill you, Jeremiah. And I promise not to give you to those officials that want to kill you.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, “This is what the Lord God Almighty, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘If you surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, your life will be saved and Jerusalem will not be burned down. And you and your family will live. <sup>18</sup>But if you refuse to surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, Jerusalem will be given to the Babylonian army. They will burn Jerusalem down, and you yourself will not escape from them.’”

<sup>19</sup>Then King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “But I am afraid of the men of Judah that have already gone over to the side of the Babylonian army. I am afraid that the soldiers will give me to those men of Judah and they will treat me badly and hurt me.”

<sup>20</sup>But Jeremiah answered, “The soldiers will not give you to those men of Judah. King Zedekiah, obey the Lord by doing what I tell you. Then things will go well for you, and your life will be saved. <sup>21</sup>But if you refuse to surrender to the army of Babylon, the Lord has shown me what will happen. This is what the Lord has told me: <sup>2</sup>All the women that are left in the house of the king of Judah will be brought out. They will be brought to the important officials of the king of Babylon. Your women will make fun of you with a song. This is what the women will say:

'Your good friends led you the wrong way and were stronger than you.
Those were friends that you trusted.
Your feet are stuck in the mud.
Your friends have left you.'

<sup>3</sup>"All your wives and children will be brought out. They will be given to the Babylonian army. You yourself will not escape from the army of Babylon. You will be captured by the king of Babylon, and Jerusalem will be burned down."

<sup>4</sup>Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Don't tell any person that I have been talking to you. If you do, you might die. <sup>5</sup>Those officials might find out that I talked to you. Then they will come to you and say, 'Jeremiah, tell us what you said to King Zedekiah. And tell us what King Zedekiah said to you. Be honest with us and tell us everything, or we will kill you.' <sup>6</sup>If they say this to you, then tell them, 'I was begging the king not to send me back to the cell in the dungeon* under Jonathan's house. If I were to go back there, I would die.'"

<sup>7</sup>It happened that those royal officials of the king did come to Jeremiah to question him. So Jeremiah told them everything the king had ordered him to say. Then those officials left Jeremiah alone. No person had heard what Jeremiah and the king had talked about.

<sup>8</sup>So Jeremiah stayed under guard in the temple yard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

The Fall of Jerusalem

39 This is how Jerusalem was captured: During the tenth month of the ninth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. He surrounded the city to defeat it. <sup>2</sup>And on the ninth day of the fourth month in Zedekiah's eleventh year, the wall of Jerusalem was broken through. <sup>3</sup>Then all the royal officials of the king of Babylon came into the city of Jerusalem. They came in and sat down at the Middle Gate. These are the names of those officials: Nergal-Sharezzer, the governor of the district of Samgar, a very high official; Nebo-Sarsekim, another very high official; and various other important officials were there also.

<sup>4</sup>Zedekiah king of Judah saw those officials from Babylon, so he and the soldiers with him ran away. They left Jerusalem at night and went out from the king's garden. They went through the gate that was between the two walls. Then they headed toward the desert. <sup>5</sup>But the Babylonian army chased Zedekiah and the soldiers with him. The Chaldean army caught up with Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. They captured Zedekiah and took him to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar was at the town of Riblah, in the land of Hamath. At that place, Nebuchadnezzar announced his judgment on Zedekiah. <sup>6</sup>There at the town of Riblah, the king of Babylon killed Zedekiah's sons, while Zedekiah watched. And Nebuchadnezzar killed all the royal officials of Judah while Zedekiah watched. <sup>7</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar tore out Zedekiah's eyes. He put bronze chains on Zedekiah, and took him to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup>The army of Babylon set fire to the king's house and the houses of the people of Jerusalem. And they broke down the walls of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>A man named Nebuzaradan was the commander of the king of Babylon's special guards. He took the people that were left in Jerusalem and made them captives. He carried them away to Babylon. Nebuzaradan also made those people of Jerusalem captives that had surrendered to him earlier. He made all the others of the people of Jerusalem captives and carried them away to Babylon. <sup>10</sup>But Nebuzaradan, the commander of the special guards, left some of the poor people of Judah behind. Those were the people that owned nothing. So on that day, Nebuzaradan gave those poor people of Judah vineyards and fields.

<sup>13</sup>So Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king's special guards, Nebushazban, a chief officer in the army of Babylon, Nergal-Sharezer, a high official, and all the other officers of the army of Babylon sent for Jeremiah. <sup>14</sup>Those men had Jeremiah taken out of the temple yard where he had been under the guard of the king of Judah. Those officers of the army of Babylon turned Jeremiah over to Gedaliah.* Gedaliah was the son of Ahikam. Ahikam was the son of Shaphan. Gedaliah had orders to take Jeremiah back home. So Jeremiah was taken home, and he stayed among his own people.

A Message from the Lord to Ebed-Melech

<sup>15</sup>While Jeremiah had been under guard in the temple yard, a message from the Lord came to him. This was the message: <sup>16</sup>"Jeremiah, go and tell Ebed-Melech,* the man from Ethiopia, this message: 'This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of the people of Israel, says: Very soon I will make my messages about this city of Jerusalem come true. My messages will come true through disaster and not good things. You will see everything come true with your own eyes.' <sup>17</sup>But I will save you on that day, Ebed-Melech.' This is the message of the Lord. 'You won't be given to the people you are afraid of. <sup>18</sup>I will save you, Ebed-Melech. You won't die from a sword, but you will escape and live. That will happen because you have trusted in me.'"<sup>19</sup> This message is from the Lord.

Gedaliah Gedaliah was the man that Nebuchadnezzar appointed as his governor for the land of Judah.
Ebed-Melech See Jeremiah 38:7-13.

Jeremiah Is Set Free

40 The message from the Lord came to Jeremiah after he was set free at the city of Ramah. Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king of Babylon's special guards, found Jeremiah in Ramah. Jeremiah was bound with chains. He was with all the captives from Jerusalem and Judah. Those captives were being taken away in captivity to Babylon. <sup>2</sup>When commander Nebuzaradan found Jeremiah, he spoke to him. He said, "Jeremiah, the Lord, your God, announced that this disaster would come to this place. <sup>3</sup>And now the Lord has done everything just as he said he would do. This disaster happened because you people of Judah sinned against the Lord. You people didn't obey the Lord. <sup>4</sup>But now, Jeremiah, I will set you free. I am taking the chains off your wrists. If you want to, come with me to Babylon, and I will take good care of you. But if you don't want to come with me, then don't come. Look, the whole country is open to you. Go anywhere you want. <sup>5</sup>Or* go back to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan. The king of Babylon has chosen Gedaliah to be governor over the towns of Judah. Go and live with Gedaliah among the people. Or you can go anywhere you want." Then Nebuzaradan gave Jeremiah some food and a present and let him go. <sup>6</sup>So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. Jeremiah stayed with Gedaliah among the people that were left behind in the land of Judah.

The Short Rule of Gedaliah

<sup>7</sup>There were some soldiers from the army of Judah, officers and their men, still out in the open country when Jerusalem was destroyed. Those soldiers heard that the king of Babylon had put Gedaliah son of Ahikam in charge of the people that were left in the land. The people that were left were men, women, and children that were very poor and were not carried off to

Or The Hebrew of the beginning of this verse is obscure. It reads, "He had not yet returned. Return!"

Babylon as captives. <sup>8</sup>So those soldiers came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. Those soldiers were: Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan, and his brother Jonathan, sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah son of the Maacathite, and the men that were with them.

<sup>9</sup>Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, made an oath to make those soldiers and their men feel more secure. This is what Gedaliah said: "You soldiers, don't be afraid to serve the Babylonian people. Settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon. If you do this, things will go well for you. <sup>10</sup>I, myself, will live in Mizpah. I will speak for you before the Chaldean people that come here. You people leave that work to me. You should harvest the wine, the summer fruit, and the oil. Put what you harvest in your storage jars. Live in the towns that you have taken control of."

<sup>11</sup>All the people of Judah that were in the countries of Moab, Ammon, Edom, and all the other countries heard that the king of Babylon had left some people of Judah in the land. And they heard that the king of Babylon had chosen Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, to be governor over them. <sup>12</sup>When those people of Judah heard that news, they came back to the land of Judah. They came back to Gedaliah at Mizpah from all the countries where they had been scattered. So they came back and gathered a large harvest of wine and summer fruit.

<sup>13</sup>Johanan son of Kareah and all the officers of the army of Judah that were still in the open country came to Gedaliah. Gedaliah was at the town of Mizpah. <sup>14</sup>Johanan and those officers with him said to Gedaliah, "Do you know that Baalis, the king of the Ammonite people, wants to kill you? He has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to kill you." But Gedaliah son of Ahikam didn't believe them.

<sup>15</sup>Then Johanan son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in private at Mizpah. Johanan said to Gedaliah, "Let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah. No person will know anything about it. We should not let Ishmael kill you. That would cause all the people of Judah that are gathered around you to be scattered to different countries again. And that would mean that the few survivors of Judah would be lost."

<sup>16</sup>But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, "Don't kill Ishmael. The things you are saying about Ishmael are not true."

41 In the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah (the son of Elishama) came to Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael came with ten of his men. Those men came to the town of Mizpah. Ishmael was a member of the king's family. He had been one of the officers of the king of Judah. Ishmael and his men ate a meal with Gedaliah. <sup>2</sup>While they were eating together, Ishmael and his ten men got up and killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam with a sword. Gedaliah was the man that the king of Babylon had chosen to be governor of Judah. <sup>3</sup>Ishmael also killed all the men of Judah that were with Gedaliah at the town of Mizpah. Ishmael also killed the Babylonian soldiers that were there with Gedaliah.

<sup>4</sup>The day after Gedaliah was murdered, 80 men came to Mizpah. They were bringing grain offerings and incense* to the Lord's temple.* Those 80 men had shaved off their beards, torn their clothes, and cut themselves.* They came from Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria. None of these men knew that Gedaliah had been murdered. <sup>5</sup>Ishmael went out from the town of Mizpah to meet those 80 men. He cried* while he walked to meet them. Ishmael met those 80 men and said, "Come with me to meet with Gedaliah son of Ahikam." <sup>7</sup>Those 80 men went into the city of Mizpah. Then Ishmael and his men killed 70 of those men. Ishmael and his men threw the bodies of those 70 men into a deep cistern!* <sup>8</sup>But the ten men that were left said to Ishmael, "Don't kill us! We have wheat and barley. And we have oil and honey. We have hidden those things in a field.” So Ishmael left those ten men alone. He didn’t kill them with the others. <sup>9</sup>(That cistern was very big. It had been built by a king of Judah named Asa. King Asa had made the cistern so that during war there would be water in the city.* Asa did this to protect his city from Baasha, the king of Israel. Ishmael put dead bodies in that cistern until it was full.)

<sup>10</sup>Ishmael captured all the other people in the town of Mizpah. Those people included the king’s daughters, and all the other people that were left there. Those were the people that Nebuzaradan had chosen Gedaliah to watch over. Nebuzaradan was the commander of the king of Babylon’s special guards. So Ishmael captured those people and started to cross over to the country of the Ammonite people.

<sup>16</sup>So Johanah son of Kareah and all his army officers rescued the captives.* Ishmael had murdered Gedaliah and then he had taken those people from Mizpah. Among the survivors* were soldiers, women, children, and court officials. Johanah brought them back from the town of Gibeon.

The Escape to Egypt

<sup>17-18</sup>Johanah and the other army officers were afraid of the Chaldeans.* The king of Babylon had chosen Gedaliah to be governor of Judah. But Ishmael murdered Gedaliah, and Johanah was afraid that the Chaldeans would be angry. So they decided to run away to Egypt. On the way to Egypt, they stayed at Geruth Kimham. Geruth Kimham is near the town of Bethlehem.

42 While they were at Geruth Kimham, Johanah and a man named Jezaniah son of Hoshaiah went to Jeremiah the prophet. All the army officers went with Johanah and Jezaniah. All the people, from the least important to the most important person, went to Jeremiah. <sup>2</sup>All those people said to him, “Jeremiah, please listen to what we ask. Pray to the Lord your God for all these people that are survivors* from the family of Judah. Jeremiah, you can see that there are not many of us left. At one time there were many of us. <sup>3</sup>Jeremiah, pray that the Lord your God will tell us where we should go and what we should do.”

<sup>4</sup>Then Jeremiah the prophet answered, “I understand the things you want me to do. I will pray to the Lord your God, like you asked me to do. I will tell you everything the Lord says. I will not hide anything from you.”

<sup>5</sup>Then those people said to Jeremiah, “If we don’t do everything the Lord your God tells us, then we hope the Lord will be a true and faithful witness against us. We know the Lord your God will send you to tell us what to do. <sup>6</sup>It does not matter if we like the message or if we don’t like the message. We will obey the Lord our God. We are sending you to the Lord for a message from him. We will obey what he says. Then good things will happen to us. Yes, we will obey the Lord our God.”

<sup>7</sup>At the end of ten days, the message from the Lord came to Jeremiah. <sup>8</sup>Then Jeremiah called together Johanah son of Kareah and the army officers that were with him. Jeremiah also called all the other people together, from the least important to the most important person. <sup>9</sup>Then Jeremiah said to them, “This is what the Lord, the God of the people of Israel, says. You sent me to him. I asked the Lord what you wanted me to ask. This is what the Lord says: <sup>10</sup>‘If you people will stay in Judah, I will make you strong—I will not destroy you. I will plant you, and I will not pull you up. I will do this because I am sad about the terrible things that I made happen to you. <sup>11</sup>Now you are afraid of the king of Babylon. But don’t be afraid of him. Don’t be afraid of the king of Babylon,’ this is the message of the Lord, ‘because I am with you. I will save you. I will rescue you. He will not get his hands on you. <sup>12</sup>I will be kind to you. And the king of Babylon will also treat you with mercy. And he will bring you back to your land.’ <sup>13</sup>But you might say, ‘We will not stay in Judah.’ If you say that, you will disobey the Lord your God. <sup>14</sup>And you might say, ‘No, we will go and live in Egypt. We will not be bothered with war in that place. We will not hear the trumpets of war. And in Egypt we will not be hungry.’ <sup>15</sup>If you say those things, then listen to the message of the Lord, you survivors* from Judah. This is what the Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘If you decide to go to live in Egypt, then these things will happen: <sup>16</sup>You are afraid of the sword of war, but it will defeat you there. And you are worried about hunger, but you will be hungry in Egypt. You will die there. <sup>17</sup>Every person that decides to go live in Egypt will die by a sword, or hunger, or terrible sickness. Not one person that goes to Egypt will survive. Not one of them will escape the terrible things that I will bring to them.’

<sup>18</sup>‘The Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘I showed my anger against Jerusalem. I punished the people that lived in Jerusalem. In the same way, I will show my anger against every person that goes to Egypt. People will use you as an example when they ask for bad things to happen to other people. You will become like a curse word. People will be ashamed of you. People will insult you. And you will never see Judah again.’

<sup>19</sup>“Survivors* of Judah, the Lord told you: ‘Don’t go to Egypt.’ I warn you right now, <sup>20</sup>you people are making a mistake that will cause your deaths. You people sent me to the Lord your God. You said to me, ‘Pray to the Lord our God for us. Tell us everything the Lord says to do. We will obey the Lord.’ <sup>21</sup>So today, I have told you the message from the Lord. But you have not obeyed the Lord your God. You have not done all that he sent me to tell you to do. <sup>22</sup>So now, be sure you understand this: You people want to go live in Egypt. But these things will happen to you in Egypt: You will die by a sword, or hunger, or terrible sickness.”

43 So Jeremiah finished telling the people the message from the Lord their God. Jeremiah told them everything that the Lord had sent him to tell the people.

<sup>2</sup>Azariah son of Hoshaiah, Johanan son of Kareah, and some other men were proud and stubborn. Those people became angry at Jeremiah. Those men said to Jeremiah, “Jeremiah, you are lying! The Lord our God didn’t send you to say to us, ‘You people must not go to Egypt to live there.’” <sup>3</sup>Jeremiah, we think that Baruch son of Neriah is encouraging you to be against us. He wants you to give us to the Babylonian people. He wants you to do this so they can kill us. Or he wants you to do this so that they can make us captives* and carry us to Babylon.”

“So Johanan, the army officers, and all the people disobeyed the Lord’s command. The Lord had commanded them to stay in Judah. <sup>5</sup>But instead of obeying the Lord, Johanan and the army officers took those survivors* from Judah to Egypt. In the past, the enemy had taken those survivors to other countries. But they had come back to Judah. <sup>6</sup>Now, Johanan and all the army officers took all the men, women, and children and led them to Egypt. Among those people were the king’s daughters. (Nebuzaradan had put Gedaliah in charge of those people. Nebuzaradan was the commander of the king of Babylon’s special guards.)

Johanah also took Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah. <sup>7</sup>Those people didn't listen to the Lord. So all those people went to Egypt. They went to the town of Tahpanhes.*

<sup>8</sup>In the town of Tahpanhes, Jeremiah received this message from the Lord: <sup>9</sup>"Jeremiah, get some large stones. Take them and bury them in the clay and brick sidewalk in front of Pharaoh's official building in Tahpanhes. Do this while the men of Judah are watching you. <sup>10</sup>Then say to those men of Judah that are watching you: 'This is what the Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: I will send for Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, to come here. He is my servant. And I will set his throne over these stones I have buried here. Nebuchadnezzar will spread his canopy* above these stones. <sup>11</sup>Nebuchadnezzar will come here and attack Egypt. He will bring death to those that are to die. He will bring captivity to those that are to be taken captive. And he will bring the sword to those that are to be killed with a sword. <sup>12</sup>Nebuchadnezzar will start a fire in the temples of the false gods of Egypt. He will burn those temples and he will take those idols away. A shepherd picks the bugs and stickers off of his clothes to make them clean. In the same way, Nebuchadnezzar will pick Egypt clean. Then he will safely leave Egypt. <sup>13</sup>Nebuchadnezzar will destroy the memorial stones* that are in the temple of the Sun God* in Egypt. And he will burn down the temples of the false gods of Egypt.'"

The Lord's Messages to the People of Judah in Egypt

44 Jeremiah received a message from the Lord. This message was for all the people of Judah living in Egypt. The message was for the people of Judah living in the towns of Migdol, Tahpanhes, Memphis, and southern canopy A temporary covering used for shade. It is like a tent without sides.

Tahpanhes A town in northeastern Egypt.

memorial stones Stones that were set up to help people remember something special. In ancient Israel, people often set up stones as special places to worship false gods.

Sun God This was the most important god in Egypt.

Egypt. This was the message: <sup>2</sup>The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says, "You people saw the terrible happenings that I brought on the city of Jerusalem and on all the towns of Judah. Those towns are empty piles of stones today. <sup>3</sup>Those places were destroyed because the people living in them did evil things. Those people gave sacrifices to other gods – and that made me angry! Your people and your ancestors* did not worship those gods in the past. <sup>4</sup>I sent my prophets to those people again and again. Those prophets were my servants. Those prophets spoke my message and said to the people, 'Don't do this terrible thing. I hate for you to worship idols.' <sup>5</sup>But those people didn't listen to the prophets. They didn't pay attention to those prophets. Those people didn't stop doing wicked things. They didn't stop making sacrifices to other gods. <sup>6</sup>So, I showed my anger against those people. I punished the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. My anger made Jerusalem and the towns of Judah the empty piles of stone they are today."

<sup>7</sup>So, the Lord God All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: "Why are you hurting yourselves by continuing to worship idols? You are separating the men and women, the children and babies from the family of Judah. And so you leave yourselves without any survivors* from the family of Judah. <sup>8</sup>Why do you people want to make me angry by making idols? Now you are living in Egypt. And now you are making me angry by offering sacrifices to the false gods of Egypt. You people will destroy yourselves. It will be your own fault. You will make yourselves something that people of other nations will speak evil of. And all the other nations on the earth will make fun of you. <sup>9</sup>Have you forgotten about the wicked things your ancestors* did? And have you forgotten about the wicked things the kings and queens of Judah did? Have you forgotten about the wicked things you and your wives did in Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>10</sup>Even to this

survivor(s) People that escaped some disaster.

day, the people of Judah have not made themselves humble. They have not shown any respect for me. And those people have not followed my teachings. They have not obeyed the laws I gave you and your ancestors.*"

<sup>11</sup>So, this is what the Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: "I have decided to make terrible things happen to you. I will destroy the whole family of Judah. <sup>12</sup>There were a few survivors from Judah. Those people came here to Egypt. But I will destroy those few survivors from the family of Judah. They will be killed with swords or die from hunger. They will be something that people of other nations will speak evil about. Other nations will be afraid at what happened to those people. Those people will become a curse word. Other nations will insult those people of Judah. <sup>13</sup>I will punish those people that have gone to live in Egypt. I will use swords, hunger, and terrible sicknesses to punish them. I will punish those people just like I punished the city of Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>Not one of the few survivors of Judah that have gone to live in Egypt will escape my punishment. None of them will survive to come back to Judah. Those people want to come back to Judah and live there. But not one of those people will go back to Judah, except maybe a few people that escape."

<sup>15</sup>Many of the women of Judah that lived in Egypt were making sacrifices to other gods. Their husbands knew it, but didn't stop them. There was a large group of people of Judah meeting together. They were the people of Judah that were living in southern Egypt. The husbands of those women that were making sacrifices to other gods said to Jeremiah, <sup>16</sup>"We will not listen to the message from the Lord that you spoke to us. <sup>17</sup>We promised to make sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven.* And we will do everything we promised. We will offer sacrifices and pour out drink offerings in worship to her. We did that in the past. And our ancestors, our kings, and our officials did that in the past. All of us did those things in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. At the time we worshiped the Queen of Heaven, we had plenty of food. We were successful. Nothing bad happened to us. <sup>18</sup>But then we stopped making sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven. And we stopped pouring out drink offerings to her. Since we have stopped doing those things in worship to her, we have had problems. Our people have been killed by swords and hunger."

<sup>19</sup>Then the women spoke up.* They said to Jeremiah, "Our husbands knew what we were doing. We had their permission to make sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven. We had their permission to pour out drink offerings to her. Our husbands also knew that we were making cakes that looked like her."

<sup>20</sup>Then Jeremiah spoke to all those men and women. He spoke to the people that had just said those things. <sup>21</sup>Jeremiah said to those people, "The Lord remembered that you made sacrifices in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. You and your ancestors,* your kings, your officials, and the people of the land did that. The Lord remembered what you had done, and thought about that. <sup>22</sup>Then the Lord could not be patient with you any longer. The Lord hated the terrible things you did. So the Lord made your country an empty desert. No person lives there now. Other people say bad things about that country. <sup>23</sup>All of those bad things happened to you because you made sacrifices to other gods. You sinned against the Lord. You didn't obey the Lord. You didn't follow his teachings or the laws he gave you. You didn't keep your part of the Agreement.*"

<sup>24</sup>Then Jeremiah spoke to all those men and women. Jeremiah said, "All you people of Judah that are now in Egypt, listen to the message from the Lord: <sup>25</sup>The Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel,

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Queen of Heaven Probably the false god Astarte. She was the goddess of sex and war. People in Mesopotamia worshipped her. They thought she was the planet Venus, which looks like a star in the sky.

Then ... up This is from the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew does not have this sentence.

Agreement This is probably the Law of Moses, the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.

says: "You women did what you said you would do. You said, "We will keep the promises we made. We promised to make sacrifices and pour out drink offerings to the Queen of Heaven." So, go ahead. Do the things you promised you would do. Keep your promises. <sup>26</sup>But, listen to the message from the Lord, all you people of Judah that are living in Egypt: 'I use my great name and make this promise: I promise none of the people of Judah that are now living in Egypt will ever again use my name to make promises. They will never again say, "As surely as the Lord lives . . . ." <sup>27</sup>I am watching over those people of Judah. But I am not watching over them to take care of them. I am watching over them to hurt them. The people of Judah that live in Egypt will die from hunger and be killed by swords. They will continue to die until they are finished. <sup>28</sup>Some people of Judah will escape being killed by the sword. They will come back to Judah from Egypt. But there will be very few people of Judah that escape. Then those survivors* of Judah that came to live in Egypt will know whose word will come true. They will know whether my word or their word came true. <sup>29</sup>I will give you people proof" – this is the message of the Lord – "that I will punish you here in Egypt. Then you will know for sure that my promises to hurt you will really happen. <sup>30</sup>This will be your proof that I will do what I say.' This is what the Lord says: 'Pharaoh Hophra is the king of Egypt. His enemies want to kill him. I will give Pharaoh Hophra to his enemies. Zedekiah was the king of Judah. Nebuchadnezzar was Zedekiah's enemy. And I gave Zedekiah to his enemy. In the same way, I will give Pharaoh Hophra to his enemy.'"

A Message to Baruch

45 Jehoiakim was the son of Josiah. In the fourth year Jehoiakim was king of Judah,* Jeremiah the prophet told these things

fourth ... Judah This was 605 B.C.

to Baruch son of Neriah. Baruch wrote these things on a scroll.* This is what Jeremiah said to Baruch: <sup>24</sup>"This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says to you: <sup>25</sup>"Baruch, you have said: It is very bad for me. The Lord has given me sorrow along with my pain. I am very tired. I am worn out because of my suffering. I can't find rest.' <sup>26</sup>Jeremiah, say this to Baruch: 'This is what the Lord says: I will tear down what I have built. And I will pull up what I have planted. I will do that everywhere in Judah. <sup>27</sup>Baruch, you are looking for great things for yourself. But don't look for those things. Don't look for them, because I will make terrible things happen to all the people.' The Lord said these things. 'You will have to go many places. But I will let you escape alive wherever you go.'"

Messages from the Lord About the Nations

46 These messages came to Jeremiah the prophet. These messages are about different nations.

Messages About Egypt

<sup>2</sup>This message is about the nation of Egypt. This message is about the army of Pharaoh Neco. Neco was the king of Egypt. His army was defeated at the town of Carchemish. Carchemish is on the Euphrates River. Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated the army of Pharaoh Neco at Carchemish in the fourth year that Jehoiakim was king of Judah.* Jehoiakim was the son of King Josiah. This is the Lord's message to Egypt:

- <sup>3</sup> "Get your large and small shields ready.
March out for battle.
- <sup>4</sup> Get the horses ready.
Soldiers, get on your horses.
Go to your places for battle.
Put your helmets on.
Sharpen your spears.

Scroll(s) A long roll of leather or papyrus (paper) used for writing books, letters, and legal documents.

fourth year ... Judah This was about 605 B.C.

- Put your armor on.
- 5 What do I see?
That army is scared.
The soldiers are running away.
Their brave soldiers are defeated.
They run away in a hurry.
They don't look back.
There is fear all around."
The Lord said these things.
- 6 "The fast men can't run away.
The strong soldier can't escape.
They will all stumble and fall.
This will happen in the north, by the Euphrates River.
- 7 Who is coming like the Nile River?
Who is coming like that strong, fast river?
- 8 It is Egypt that comes like the rising Nile River.
It is Egypt that comes like that strong, fast river.
Egypt says, 'I will come and cover the earth.
I will destroy cities and the people in them.'
- 9 Horse soldiers, charge into battle.
Chariot drivers, drive fast.
March on, brave soldiers.
Soldiers from Cush and Put, carry your shields.
Soldiers from Lydia, use your bows.
- 10 "But that day our Master, the Lord All-Powerful, will win.
At that time, he will give the punishment those people should have.
The Lord's enemies will get the punishment they should have.
The sword will kill until it is finished.
The sword will kill until it satisfies its thirst for blood.
This will happen because there is a sacrifice for our Master, the Lord All-Powerful.
That sacrifice is Egypt's army, in the land of the north, by the Euphrates River.

- 11 "Egypt, go to Gilead and get some medicine.
You will make up many medicines, but they will not help.
You will not be healed.
- 12 The nations will hear you crying.
Your cries will be heard all over the earth.
One 'brave soldier' will run into another 'brave soldier.'
And both 'brave soldiers' will fall down together."
- "This is the message the Lord spoke to Jeremiah the prophet. This message is about Nebuchadnezzar coming to attack Egypt.
- 14 "Announce this message in Egypt.
Preach it in the city of Migdol.
Preach this message also in Memphis and Tahpanhes:
'Get ready for war.
Why? Because people all around you are being killed with swords.'
- 15 Egypt, why will your strong soldiers be killed?
They can't stand,
because the Lord will push them down.
- 16 Those soldiers will stumble again and again.
They will fall over each other.
They will say,
'Get up, let us go back to our own people.
Let us go back to our homeland.
Our enemy is defeating us.
We must get away.'
- 17 In their homelands, those soldiers will say,
'Pharaoh king of Egypt is only a lot of noise.
His time of glory is over.'
- 18 This message is from the King.
The King is the Lord All-Powerful.
"As surely as I live, a powerful leader will come.
He will be great like Mount Tabor and Mount Carmel near the sea.

- <sup>19</sup> People of Egypt, pack your things.
Get ready for captivity.
Why? Because Memphis will become a ruined, empty land.
The cities will be destroyed,
and no person will live there.
- <sup>20</sup> "Egypt is like a beautiful cow.
But a horsefly* is coming from the north* to bother her.
- <sup>21</sup> The hired soldiers in Egypt's army are like fat calves.
They will all turn and run away.
They will not stand strong against the attack.
Their time of destruction is coming.
They will soon be punished.
- <sup>22</sup> Egypt is like a snake hissing and trying to escape.
The enemy comes closer and closer,
and the Egyptian army is trying to run
away.
The enemy will come against Egypt with axes.
They are like men that cut down trees."
- <sup>23</sup> The Lord says these things.
"The enemy will chop down Egypt's forest (army).
That forest (army) has many trees (soldiers),
but it will be cut down.
There are more enemy soldiers than locusts.*
There are so many soldiers, no one can count them.
- <sup>24</sup> Egypt will be ashamed.
The enemy from the north will defeat
her."
- <sup>25</sup> The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: "Very soon I will punish Amon,* the god of Thebes. And I will punish Pharaoh, Egypt, and her gods. I will punish the kings of Egypt.

And I will punish the people that depend on Pharaoh. <sup>26</sup>I will let all those people be defeated by their enemies—and those enemies want to kill them. I will give those people to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, and his servants.

"Long ago, Egypt lived in peace. And after all these times of trouble, Egypt will live in peace again." The Lord said these things.

A Message for North Israel

- <sup>27</sup> "Jacob,* my servant, don't be afraid.
Don't be scared, Israel.
I will surely save you from those faraway
places.
I will save your children from the countries where they are captives.*
Jacob will have peace and safety again.
And no person will make him afraid."
- <sup>28</sup> The Lord says these things.
"Jacob, my servant, don't be afraid.
I am with you.
I sent you away to many different places.
And I will completely destroy all those
nations.
But I will not completely destroy you.
You must be punished for the bad things
you did.
So I will not let you escape your
punishment.
I will discipline you,
but I will be fair."

A Message About the Philistine People

47 This is the message from the Lord that came to Jeremiah the prophet. This message is about the Philistine people. This horsefly A large insect that often flies around and bites cows and horses.

north This refers to the army of Babylon coming from the north to attack the nation of Judah.

locusts Insects like grasshoppers that could destroy a large crop very quickly.

Amon For many centuries Amon was the most important god of Egypt. At the time of this prophecy he was not worshiped as much in northern Egypt. But he was still the most important god in southern Egypt, especially around the old Egyptian capital city of Thebes.

Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22-28.

captives People that were taken away like prisoners.

message came before Pharaoh attacked the city of Gaza.

- 2 The Lord says:
 "See, the enemy soldiers are grouping together, in the north.*
 They will come like a fast river spilling over its banks.
 They will cover the whole country like a flood.
 They will cover the towns and the people living in them.
 Everyone living in that country will cry for help.
- 3 "They will hear the sound of the running horses.
 They will hear the noisy chariots.
 They will hear the rumbling wheels.
 Fathers will not help their children to safety.
 Those fathers' will be too weak to help.
- 4 "The time has come to destroy all the Philistine people.
 The time has come to destroy Tyre and Sidon's remaining helpers.
 The Lord will destroy the Philistine people very soon.
 He will destroy the survivors from the Island of Crete.*
- 5 The people from Gaza will be sad and shave their heads.
 The people from Ashkelon will be made silent.
 Survivors from the valley, how long will you cut yourselves?*
- 6 "Sword of the Lord, you have not quit.
 How long will you keep fighting?
 Go back into your scabbard!*
 Stop! Be still!

north This refers to the army of Babylon coming from the north to attack the nation of Judah.

Island of Crete Literally, "Island of Captor." Sometimes this means Crete, and sometimes it means Cyprus. The Bible says the Philistines originally came from Caphtor.

sad ... yourselves The people did these things to show their sadness.

scabbard A holder for a sword.

- 7 But how can the sword of the Lord rest?
 The Lord gave it a command.
 The Lord has ordered it to attack the city of Ashkelon and the seacoast."

A Message About Moab

48 This message is about the country of Moab. This is what the Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says:

- "It will be bad for Mount Nebo.*
 Mount Nebo will be ruined.
 The town of Kiriathaim will be humbled.
 It will be captured.
 The strong place will be humbled.
 It will be shattered.
- 2 Moab will not be praised again.
 Men in the town of Heshbon will plan Moab's defeat.
 They will say: 'Come, let us put an end to that nation.'
 Madmenah, you will also be silenced.
 The sword will chase you.
- 3 Listen to the cries from the town of Horonaim.
 They are cries of much confusion and destruction.
- 4 Moab will be destroyed.
 Her little children will cry for help.
- 5 Moab's people go up the path to Luhith.
 They are crying bitterly as they go.
 On the road down to the town of Horonaim,
 Cries of pain and suffering can be heard.
- 6 Run away!
 Run for your lives!
 Run away like a bush*
 blowing, through the desert.
- 7 "You trust in the things you made and in your wealth.

Mount Nebo A mountain in Moab, a country east of Israel.
bush This is a word play. This word is like the name "Aroer," an important city in Moab.

- So you will be captured.
The god Chemosh*
will be taken into captivity.
And his priests and officials will be taken with him.
- 8 The Destroyer will come against every town.
Not one town will escape.
The valley will be ruined.
The high plain will be destroyed.
The Lord said this would happen,
so it will happen.
- 9 Spread salt*
over the fields in Moab.
The country will be an empty desert.
Moab's towns will become empty.
No people will live in them.
- 10 If a person does not do what the Lord says,
if he does not use his sword to kill those
people,
then bad things will happen to that person.
- 11 "Moab has never known trouble.
Moab is like wine left to settle.
Moab has never been poured from one jar to another.
He has not been taken into captivity.
So he tastes like he did before.
And his smell has not changed."
- 12 The Lord says these things.
"But I will soon send men to pour you from your jars.*
Those men will empty Moab's jars.
And then they will smash those jars."
- 13 Then the people of Moab will be ashamed of their false god, Chemosh*. The people of Israel trusted that false god, in Bethel.* And the people of Israel were embarrassed when

Chemosh This god was the god of the people of Moab.
salt This is a word play, and we are not sure of the exact meaning of this Hebrew word.

jars This probably means the cities in Moab.

in Bethel This means the temple that King Jeroboam built in the town of Bethel. See 1 Kings 12:28-33. It is not clear whether the people still worshiped the Lord there, but in a wrong way. Or whether they worshiped a false god, perhaps the Canaanite god El or Baal.

that false god did not help them. Moab will be like that.

- 14 "You can't say,
'We are good soldiers.
We are brave men in battle.'
- 15 The enemy will attack Moab.
The enemy will enter those towns and destroy them.
Her best young men will be killed in the slaughter."
This message is from the King.
The King's name is the Lord
All-Powerful.
- 16 "The end of Moab is near.
Moab will soon be destroyed.
- 17 All of you people living around Moab should cry for that country.
You people know how famous Moab is.
So cry for him.
Say,
'The ruler's power is broken.
Moab's power and glory is gone.'
- 18 "You people living in Dibon,*
come down from your place of honor.
Sit on the ground in the dust.
Why? Because the Destroyer is coming.
And he will destroy your strong cities.
- 19 "You people living in Aroer, stand next to the road and watch.
See the man running away.
See that woman running away.
Ask them what happened.
- 20 "Moab will be ruined and filled with
shame.
Moab will cry and cry.
Announce at the Arnon River,* that Moab is destroyed.
- 21 People on the high plain have been punished.
Judgment has come to the towns of Holon, Jahzah, and Mephaath,

Dibon A town in the country of Moab.

Arnon River An important river in Moab.

- <sup>22</sup> to the towns of Dibon, Nebo, and Beth Diblathaim,
<sup>24</sup> to the towns of Kerioth and Bozrah. Judgment has come to all the towns of Moab, far and near.
<sup>25</sup> Moab's strength has been cut off. Moab's arm has been broken." The Lord said these things.
- <sup>26</sup> "Moab thought he was more important than the Lord. So punish Moab until he is like a drunk person. Moab will fall and roll around in his vomit. People will make fun of Moab.
- <sup>27</sup> "Moab, you made fun of Israel. Israel was caught by a gang of thieves. Every time you spoke about Israel, you shook your head and acted like you were better than Israel.
- <sup>28</sup> People in Moab, leave your towns. Go live among the rocks; be like a dove that makes its nest at the opening of a cave."
- <sup>29</sup> "We have heard about Moab's pride. He was very proud. He thought he was important. He was always bragging. He was very, very proud."
- <sup>30</sup> The Lord says, "I know that Moab becomes angry quickly and brags about himself. But his boasts are lies. He can't do the things he says.
- <sup>31</sup> So, I cry for Moab. I cry for everyone in Moab. I cry for the men from Kir Hareseth.
- <sup>32</sup> I cry with the people of Jazer for Jazer. Sibmah, in the past your vines spread all the way to the sea. They reached as far as the town of Jazer. But the Destroyer has taken your fruit and grapes.

- <sup>33</sup> Joy and happiness are gone from the large vineyards* of Moab. I have stopped the flow of wine from the winepresses.* There is no singing and dancing from people walking on the grapes to make wine. There are no shouts of joy.

<sup>34</sup>"The people of the towns of Heshbon and Elealeh are crying. Their cry is heard even as far away as the town of Jahaz. Their cry is heard from the town of Zoar, as far away as the towns of Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah. Even the waters of Nimrim are dried. <sup>35</sup>I will stop Moab from making burnt offerings on the high places.* I will stop them from making sacrifices to their gods." The Lord said those things.

<sup>36</sup>"I am very sad for Moab. My hearts cries like the sad sound of a flute playing a funeral song. I am sad for the people from Kir Hareseth. Their money and riches have all been taken away. <sup>37</sup>Everyone has a shaved head. Everyone's beard is cut off. Everyone's hands are cut and bleeding.* Everyone is wearing their clothes of sadness around their waists. <sup>38</sup>People are crying for the dead everywhere in Moab—on every housetop and in every public square. There is sadness because I have broken Moab like an empty jar." The Lord said these things.

- <sup>40</sup> The Lord says, "Look! An eagle is diving down from the sky.

vineyard(s) A garden for growing grapes.
winepresses A place for squeezing the juice from grapes. Sometimes this was only a shallow hole in a large rock in the ground.
high places Special places where the people worshiped false gods. These places were often on hilltops, but not always. Some 'high places' were in valleys.
Everyone ... bleeding The people did these things to show their sadness for people that had died.

- It is spreading its wings over Moab.
- <sup>41</sup> The towns of Moab will be captured.
The strong hiding places will be defeated.
At that time, Moab's soldiers will be scared,
like a woman that is having a baby.
- <sup>42</sup> The nation of Moab will be destroyed.
Why? Because they thought they were more important than the Lord."
- <sup>43</sup> The Lord says these things:
"People of Moab, fear, deep holes, and traps,*
wait for you.
- <sup>44</sup> People will be afraid and run away,
and they will fall into the deep holes.
If anyone climbs out of the deep holes,
he will be caught in the traps.
I will bring the year of punishment to Moab." The Lord said these things.
- <sup>45</sup> "People have run from the powerful enemy.
They ran to safety in the town Heshbon.
[But there was no safety,]
A fire started in Heshbon.
That fire started in Sihon's town*
And it is destroying the leaders of Moab.
It is destroying those proud people.
- <sup>46</sup> It will be bad for you, Moab.
Chemosh's* people are being destroyed.
Your sons and daughters are being taken away as prisoners and captives.*
- <sup>47</sup>"Moab's people will be taken away as captives. But in days to come, I will bring Moab's people back." This message is from the Lord.

fear ... traps This is a word play in Hebrew. The Hebrew words are: "Pahad, Pahat, and Pah."

Sihon's town This was Heshbon. See Numbers 21:25-30.

Chemosh The national god of the land of Moab, even though Milcom was the god of the Ammonite people.

captives People that were taken away like prisoners. Here this means the Moabite people.

This ends the judgment on Moab.

A Message About Ammon

49 This message is about the Ammonite people.

The Lord says:

"Ammonite people, do you think that the people of Israel don't have children?
Do you think there are no people to take the land when the parents die?

Maybe that is why Milcom* took Gad's* land?"

- <sup>2</sup> The Lord says,
"The time will come that the people in Rabbah-Ammon* will hear the sounds of battle.
Rabbah-Ammon will be destroyed.
It will be a hill covered with destroyed buildings.
And the towns around it will be burned.

Those people forced Israel to leave that land.
But the people of Israel will force them to leave."

The Lord said these things.

- <sup>3</sup> "People in Heshbon, cry!
Why? Because the town of Ai is destroyed.
Women in Rabbah-Ammon, cry!
Put on your clothes of sadness and cry.
Run to the city for safety.
Why? Because the enemy is coming.]
They take away the god, Milcom.*
[The enemy, will take away Milcom's priests and officials.

- <sup>4</sup> You brag about your strength.
But you are losing your strength.
You trust your money will save you.

Milcom The god of the Ammonite people.

Gad's One of the family groups of Israel. Their land was on the east side of the Jordan River, near the country of Ammon.

Rabbah-Ammon The capital city of the Ammonite people.

You think no one would even think of attacking you.”

- <sup>5</sup> But the Lord All-Powerful says this:
“I will bring troubles to you from every side.

You will all run away.
And no one will be able to bring you together again.”

“The Ammonite people will be taken away as captives. But the time will come that I will bring the Ammonite people back.” This message is from the Lord.

A Message About Edom

<sup>7</sup>This message is about Edom.

The Lord All-Powerful says:
“Is there no more wisdom in the town of Teman*?

Are the wise men of Edom not able to give good advice?
Have they lost their wisdom?

- <sup>8</sup> You people living in Dedan, run away!
Hide!

Why? Because I will punish Esau* for the things he did.

- <sup>9</sup> “Workers come and pick the grapes from your grapevines, but they leave a few grapes on the plants.

If thieves come at night,
they take only as much as they want.

- <sup>10</sup> But I will take everything from Esau.*
I will find all of his hiding places.
He will not be able to hide from me.
His children, relatives, and neighbors will die.

- <sup>11</sup> No person will be left to care for his children.
His wives will have no one to trust in.”

<sup>12</sup>This is what the Lord says, “Some people don’t deserve to be punished—but they suffer. But Edom, you deserve to be punished—so you will really be punished. You will not escape the punishment you deserve. You will be punished.” <sup>13</sup>The Lord says, “By my own power, I make this promise: I promise that the city of Bozrah will be destroyed. That city will become a ruined pile of rocks. People will use that city as an example when they ask for bad things to happen to other cities. People will insult that city. And all the towns around Bozrah will become ruins forever.”

- <sup>14</sup> I heard a message from the Lord:
The Lord sent a messenger to the nations. This is the message:

“Gather your armies together!
Get ready for battle!
March against the nation of Edom!

- <sup>15</sup> Edom, I will make you become not important.

Every person will hate you.

- <sup>16</sup> Edom, you scared other nations.
So you thought you were important.
But you were fooled.

Your pride has tricked you.
Edom, you live high in the hills.
You live in places protected by big rocks and hills.

But even if you build your home as high as an eagle’s nest,
I will get you,
and I will bring you down from there.”
The Lord said these things.

- <sup>17</sup> “Edom will be destroyed.
People will be shocked to see the destroyed cities.
People will whistle from amazement at the destroyed cities.

- <sup>18</sup> Edom will be destroyed like the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah* and the towns around them.
No people will live there.”
The Lord said these things.

<sup>19</sup>“Sometimes a lion will come from the thick bushes near the Jordan River. And that lion will go into the fields where people put

Teman This town was in the northern part of Edom.

Esau Jacob’s twin brother. But here this means Edom because the people of Edom are descendants of Esau.

Sodom and Gomorrah Two cities that God destroyed because the people were so evil.

their sheep and cattle. I am like that lion. I will go to Edom. And I will scare those people. I will make them run away. None of their young men will stop me. No one is like me. No one will challenge me. None of their shepherds (leaders) will stand up against me.”

<sup>20</sup> So listen to what the Lord has planned to do against Edom.

Listen to what the Lord has decided to do to the people in Teman.*

The enemy will drag away the young ones of Edom’s flock (people).
Edom’s pastures will be shocked at what has happened.

<sup>21</sup> At the sound of Edom’s fall, the earth will shake.

Their cry will be heard all the way to the Red Sea.

<sup>22</sup> The Lord will be like an eagle flying over the animal it will attack.

The Lord is like an eagle spreading its wings over the city of Bozrah.

At that time, Edom’s soldiers will become very scared.

They will be crying from fear like a woman having a baby.

A Message About Damascus

<sup>23</sup>This message is about the city of Damascus:

“The towns of Hamath and Arpad are afraid.

They are afraid because they have heard bad news.

They are discouraged.

They are worried and scared.

<sup>24</sup> The city of Damascus has become weak.

The people want to run away.

The people are ready to panic.

The people feel pain and suffering like a woman having a baby.

<sup>25</sup> “Damascus, is a happy city.

The people have not left that ‘fun city’ yet.

<sup>26</sup> So the young men will die in the public squares of that city.

All of her soldiers will be killed at that time.”

The Lord All-Powerful said these things.

<sup>27</sup> “I will set the walls of Damascus on fire.

The fire will completely burn up the strong forts of Ben-Hadad.”*

A Message About Kedar and Hazor

<sup>28</sup>This message is about the family group of Kedar and the rulers of Hazor.*
Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, defeated them.

The Lord says:

“Go and attack the family group of Kedar.

Destroy the people of the East.

<sup>29</sup> Their tents and flocks will be taken away.

Their tent and all their things will be carried off.

Their enemy will take away the camels.

Men will shout this to them:

‘Terrible things are happening all around us.’

<sup>30</sup> Run away quickly!

People in Hazor, find a good place to hide.”

This message is from the Lord.

“Nebuchadnezzar made plans against you.

He thought of a smart plan to defeat you.

<sup>31</sup> “There is a nation that is comfortable.

That nation is sure that no one will defeat it.

That nation does not have gates or fences to protect it.

Ben-Hadad This was the name of several of the kings of Aram-Damascus.

family ... Hazor Kedar was the name of an Arab family group that lived in the desert southeast of the land of Judah.

Teman This town was in the northern part of Edom.

Those people live alone.

The Lord says,
'Attack that nation!'

- <sup>32</sup> The enemy will steal their camels and their large herds of cattle.
The enemy will steal their large herds.
I will send those people who have the corners of their hair cut off* to every part of the earth.
And I will bring terrible happenings to them from everywhere."

This message is from the Lord.

- <sup>33</sup> "The land of Hazor will become a place where wild dogs live.
It will become an empty desert forever.
No person will live there.
No person will live in that place."

A Message About Elam

<sup>34</sup>Early in the time when Zedekiah was king of Judah, Jeremiah the prophet received a message from the Lord. This message is about the nation of Elam.*

- <sup>35</sup> The Lord All-Powerful says,
"I will break Elam's bow very soon.
The bow is Elam's strongest weapon."
<sup>36</sup> I will bring the four winds against Elam.
I will bring them from the four corners of the skies.
I will send the people of Elam to every place on the earth where the four winds blow.
And Elam's captives will go to every nation.
<sup>37</sup> I will break Elam to pieces while their enemies are watching.
I will break Elam in front of those that want to kill them.
I will bring terrible happenings to them.
I will show them how angry I am."
This message is from the Lord.
"I will send a sword to chase Elam.
The sword will chase them until I have killed them all.

- <sup>38</sup> I will show Elam that I am in charge.
And I will destroy her king and her royal officials."

This message is from the Lord.

<sup>39</sup>"But I will make good things happen to Elam in the future." This message is from the Lord.

A Message About Babylon

50 This is the message the Lord spoke about the nation of Babylon and the Babylonian people. The Lord spoke this message through Jeremiah.

- <sup>1</sup> "Announce this to all nations!
Lift up a flag and announce the message!
Speak the whole message and say,
'The nation of Babylon will be captured.
The god Bel* will be put to shame.
The god Marduk* will be very afraid.
Babylon's idols will be put to shame.
Her idol gods will be filled with terror.'
<sup>3</sup> A nation from the north will attack Babylon.
That nation will make Babylon like an empty desert.
No people will live there.
Both men and animals will run away from there."
<sup>4</sup> The Lord says,
"At that time, the people of Israel and the people of Judah will be together.
They will cry and cry together.
And together, they will go to look for the Lord their God."
<sup>5</sup> Those people will ask how to go to Zion.*

Bel This is one of the names of the god Marduk, the most important god of the Babylonians.

Marduk Marduk was the most important god of the Babylonians.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

those ... off This is another name for the Arab people.
Elam A nation east of Babylon.

- They will start to go in that direction.
The people will say,
'Come, let us join ourselves to the Lord.
Let us make an agreement that will last forever.
Let us make an agreement that we will never forget.'
- 6 "My people have been like lost sheep.
Their shepherds (leaders) have led them
in the wrong way,
Their leaders made them wander around in the mountains and hills.
They forgot where their resting place is.
- 7 Whoever found my people hurt them.
And those enemies said, 'We did
nothing wrong.'
Those people sinned against the Lord.
The Lord was their true resting place.
The Lord was the God their fathers trusted in.
- 8 "Run away from Babylon.
Leave the land of the Babylonian
people.
Be like the goats that lead the flock.
- 9 I will bring many nations together from
the north.
This group of nations will get ready for war against Babylon.
Babylon will be captured by people from
the north.
Those nations will shoot many arrows at Babylon.
And those arrows are like soldiers that don't come back from war with their hands empty.
- 10 The enemy will take all the wealth from the Chaldean people.
Those enemy soldiers will get all they want."
The Lord said these things.
- 11 "Babylon, you are excited and happy.
You took my land.
You dance around like a young cow in the grain.
Your laughter is like the happy sounds that horses make.
- 12 Now your mother will be very ashamed.
The woman that gave you birth will be embarrassed.
Babylon will be the least important of all
the nations.
She will be an empty, dry desert.
- 13 The Lord will show his anger,
so no people will live there.
The city of Babylon will be completely empty.
Everyone that passes by Babylon will be afraid.
They will shake their heads when they see how it has been destroyed.
- 14 "Prepare for war against Babylon.
All you soldiers with bows, shoot your arrows at Babylon.
don't save any of your arrows.
Babylon has sinned against the Lord.
- 15 Soldiers around Babylon, shout the war cry.
Now, Babylon has surrendered!
Her walls and towers have been pulled down!
The Lord is giving those people the punishment they should have.
You nations should give Babylon what she should have.
Do to her what she has done to other
nations.
- 16 Don't let the people from Babylon plant their crops.
Don't let them gather the harvest.
The soldiers of Babylon brought many prisoners to their city.
Now the enemy soldiers have come,
So those prisoners are going back
home.
Those prisoners are running back to their own countries.
- 17 "Israel is like a flock of sheep that are scattered all over the country.
Israel is like sheep that have been chased away by lions.
The first lion to eat him up was the king of Assyria.

The last lion to crush his bones was Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.”

<sup>18</sup>So the Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says:

“I will soon punish the king of Babylon and his country.

I will punish him like I punished the king of Assyria.

<sup>19</sup> “But I will bring Israel back to his own fields.

He will eat food that grows on Mount Carmel and in the land of Bashan.

He will eat and be full.

He will eat on the hills in the lands of Ephraim and Gilead.”

<sup>20</sup> The Lord says,

“At that time, people will try to find Israel’s guilt,
but there will be no guilt.

People will try to find Judah’s sins,
but no sins will be found.

Why? Because I am saving the few survivors* from Israel and Judah.

And I am forgiving them for all of their sins.”

<sup>21</sup> The Lord says,

“Attack the country of Merathaim!
Attack the people that live in the land of Pekod!

Attack them!

Kill them and completely destroy them!

Do everything I commanded you!

<sup>22</sup> “The noise of battle can be heard all over the country.

It is the noise of much destruction.

<sup>23</sup> Babylon was the ‘Hammer of the Whole
Earth.’

But now the ‘Hammer’ is broken and shattered.

Babylon is truly the most ruined of the
nations.

<sup>24</sup> Babylon, I set a trap for you.

And you were caught before you knew
it.

You fought against the Lord,
so you were found and captured.

<sup>25</sup> The Lord has opened up his storeroom.

The Lord has brought out from the storeroom the weapons of his anger.

The Lord God All-Powerful has brought out those weapons because he has work to do.

He has work to do in the land of the Chaldean people.

<sup>26</sup> “Come against Babylon from far away.

Break open the storehouses where she keeps her grain.

Completely destroy Babylon and don’t leave anyone alive.

Pile her dead bodies like big piles of grain.

<sup>27</sup> Kill all the young bulls (men) in Babylon.

Let them be slaughtered.*

The time has come for them to be
defeated,

so it will be very bad for them.

It is time for them to be punished.

<sup>28</sup> People are running from the country of Babylon.

They are escaping from that country.

Those people are coming to Zion.*

And those people are telling everyone about the things the Lord is doing.

They are telling about the Lord giving Babylon the punishment it should have.

Babylon destroyed the Lord’s temple,
so now the Lord is destroying Babylon.

<sup>29</sup> “Call for the men that shoot arrows to come against Babylon.

Tell those men to surround the city.

Don’t let anyone escape.

Pay her back for the bad things she has slaughter(ed) Usually, this word means to kill an animal and cut it into pieces of meat. But it often means to kill people like they are animals.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

survivor(s) People that escaped some disaster. Here this means the Jewish people that survived the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy armies.

- done.
Do to her what she has done to other nations.
Babylon did not respect the Lord.
Babylon was very rude to the Holy One of Israel.
So punish Babylon.
- 30 Babylon's young men will be killed in the streets.
All her soldiers will die on that day.”
- The Lord says these things.
- 31 “Babylon, you are too proud.
And I am against you.”
Our Master, the Lord All-Powerful, says these things.
“I am against you,
and the time has come for you to be punished.
- 32 Proud Babylon will stumble and fall.
And no person will help her get up.
I will start a fire in her towns.
That fire will completely burn everyone around her.”
- 33 The Lord All-Powerful says:
“The people of Israel and Judah are slaves.
The enemy took them,
and the enemy will not let Israel go.
- 34 But God will get those people back.
His name is the Lord God All-Powerful.
He will defend those people very strongly.
He will defend them so that he can give rest to the earth.
But he will not give rest to people living in Babylon.”
- 35 The Lord says,
“Let a sword kill the people living in Babylon.
Let a sword kill the king's officials and wise men of Babylon.
- 36 Let a sword kill the priests of Babylon.
Those priests will become like foolish people.
Let a sword kill the soldiers of Babylon.
Those soldiers will be full of terror.
- 37 Let a sword kill the horses and chariots of Babylon.
Let a sword kill all the soldiers hired from other countries.
Those soldiers will be like frightened women.
Let there be a sword against the treasures of Babylon.
Those treasures will be taken away.
- 38 Let there be a sword against the waters of Babylon.
Those waters will be dried up.
The country of Babylon has many, many idols.
Those idols show that the people of Babylon are foolish.
So bad things will happen to those people.
- 39 “Babylon will never be filled with people again.
Wild dogs, ostriches,*
and other desert animals will live there.
But no people will live there ever again.
- 40 God completely destroyed the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah* and the towns around them.
And no person lives in those towns now.”
In the same way, no people will live in Babylon.
And no people will ever go to live there.
- 41 “Look! There are people coming from the north.
They come from a powerful nation.
Many kings are coming together from all around the world.
- 42 Their armies have bows and spears.
The soldiers are cruel.
They have no mercy.
The soldiers come riding on their horses, and the sound is loud like the roaring ostriches Large birds that live in the desert. These birds can't fly.

Sodom and Gomorrah Two cities that God destroyed because the people were so evil.

- sea.
They stand in their places, ready for battle.
They are ready to attack you, city of Babylon.
- 43 The king of Babylon heard about those armies.
And he became very scared.
He is so afraid,
his hands will not move.
His fear makes his stomach hurt,
like a woman having a baby.”
- 44 The Lord says, “Sometimes a lion will come from the thick bushes near the Jordan River.
That lion will walk into the fields where people have their animals, and the animals will all run away,
I will be like that lion,
I will chase Babylon from its land.
Who should I choose to do this?
There is no person like me.
There is no person that can challenge me.
So I will do it.
No shepherd will come to chase me away.
I will chase away the people of Babylon.”
- 45 Listen to what the Lord has planned to do against Babylon.
Listen to what the Lord has decided to do against the Babylonian people.
The Lord will take his young sheep (people) back.
He will take those young sheep back home.
Then the Lord will completely destroy Babylon's pastures.
Babylon will be shocked at what has happened.
- 46 Babylon will fall,
and that fall will shake the earth.
People in all nations will hear about the destruction of Babylon.

- I will cause it to blow against Babylon and the Babylonian people.
- 2 I will send people to winnow* Babylon.
They will winnow* Babylon.
Those people will make Babylon empty.
Armies will surround the city,
and terrible destruction will happen.
- 3 The Babylonian soldiers will not use their bows and arrows.
Those soldiers will not even put on their armor.
Don't feel sorry for the young men of Babylon.
Completely destroy her army.
- 4 Babylon's soldiers will be killed in the land of the Chaldeans.
They will be badly wounded in Babylon's streets.”
- 5 The Lord All-Powerful did not leave Israel and Judah alone, like a woman whose husband has died.
God did not leave those people.
No! Those people are guilty of leaving the Holy One of Israel.
They left him,
But he has not left them.
- 6 Run away from Babylon.
Run to save your lives!
Don't stay and be killed because of Babylon's sins!
It is time for the Lord to punish the people of Babylon for the bad things they did.
Babylon will get the punishment she should have.
- 7 Babylon was like a golden cup in the Lord's hand.
Babylon made the whole earth drunk.
The nations drank Babylon's wine.
So they went crazy.

51 The Lord says:
“I will cause a powerful wind to blow.

winnow To separate grain, which is good to eat, from the shell that the grain is in. Farmers winnowed the grain by throwing the grain and the hulls in the air. The air blew the hulls away. And the good grain fell back to the ground.

- 8 Babylon will fall and be broken very suddenly.
Cry for her!
Get medicine for her pain!
Maybe she can be healed!
- 9 We tried to heal Babylon,
but she can't be healed.
So let us leave her,
and let each of us go to our own country.
God in heaven will decide Babylon's punishment.
He will decide what will happen to Babylon.
- 10 The Lord got even for us.
Come, let us tell about that in Zion.*
Let us tell about the things the Lord our God has done.
- 11 Sharpen the arrows!
Put your shields on!
The Lord has stirred up the kings of the Medes.*
He has stirred them up because he wants to destroy Babylon.
The Lord will give the people of Babylon the punishment they deserve.
The army from Babylon destroyed the Lord's temple* in Jerusalem.
So the Lord will give them the punishment they should have.
- 12 Lift up a flag against the walls of Babylon.
Bring more guards.
Put the watchmen in their places.
Get ready for a secret attack.
The Lord will do what he has planned.
He will do what he said he would do against the people of Babylon.
- 13 Babylon, you live near much water.
You are rich with treasures.
But your end as a nation has come.
- It is time for you to be destroyed.
- 14 The Lord All-Powerful used his name to make this promise:
"Babylon, I will surely fill you with many enemy soldiers.
They will be like a swarm of locusts.*
Those soldiers will win their war against you.
And they will stand over you and shout from victory."
- 15 The Lord used his great power and made the earth.
He used his wisdom to build the world.
He used his understanding to stretch out the skies.
- 16 When he thunders, the waters in the skies roar.
He makes clouds go up from all over the earth.
He sends lightning with the rain.
He brings out the wind from his storehouses.
- 17 But people are so stupid.
They don't understand what God has done.
Skilled workers make statues of false gods.
Those statues are only false gods.
So they show how foolish that worker is.
Those statues are not alive.
- 18 Those idols are worthless.
People made those idols,
and they are nothing but a joke.
Their time of judgment will come,
and those idols will be destroyed.
- 19 But Jacob's Portion (God) is not like those worthless statues.
People didn't make God,
God made his people.
God made everything.
His name is the Lord All-Powerful.
- 20 The Lord says, "Babylon, you are my

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

locusts Insects like grasshoppers that could destroy a large crop very quickly.

club.
 I use you to smash nations.
 I use you to destroy kingdoms.
 21 I use you to smash horse and rider.
 I use you to smash chariot and driver.
 22 I use you to smash men and women.
 I use you to smash old men and young men.
 I use you to smash young men and young women.
 23 I use you to smash shepherds and flocks.
 I use you to smash farmers and cows.
 I use you to smash governors and important officials.
 24 But I will pay Babylon back.
 I will pay all the Babylonian people back.
 I will pay them back for all the bad things they did to Zion.*
 I will pay them back so that you can see it, Judah.”
 The Lord said those things.
 25 The Lord says,
 “Babylon, you are a destroying mountain,
 and I am against you.
 Babylon, you have destroyed the whole land,
 and I am against you.
 I will put my hand out against you.
 I will roll you off the cliffs.
 I will make you into a bumed-up mountain.
 26 People will not find any rocks big enough for cornerstones.
 People will not take any rocks from Babylon to use for the foundation of a building.
 Why? Because your city will be just a pile of broken rocks forever.”
 The Lord said these things.
 27 “Lift up the war flag in the land!

Blow the trumpet in all the nations!
 Get the nations ready for battle against Babylon!
 Call these kingdoms to come fight against Babylon:
 Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.
 Choose a commander to lead the army against her.
 Send so many horses that they are like a swarm of locusts.*
 28 Get the nations ready for battle against her.
 Get the kings of the Medes* ready.
 Get their governors and all their important officials ready.
 Get all the countries they rule ready for battle against Babylon.
 29 The land shakes and moves like it is in pain.
 It will shake when the Lord does what he planned to Babylon.
 The Lord’s plan is to make the land of Babylon into an empty desert.
 No person will live there.
 30 Babylon’s soldiers have stopped fighting.
 They stay in their forts.
 Their strength is gone.
 They have become like scared women.
 Babylon’s houses are burning.
 The bars of her gates are broken.
 31 One messenger follows another.
 Messenger follows messenger.
 They announce to the king of Babylon, that his whole city has been captured.
 32 The places where the rivers are crossed have been captured.
 The swamplands are burning.
 All of Babylon’s soldiers are afraid.”
 33 The Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says:
 “The City of Babylon is like a threshing floor.*

locusts Insects like grasshoppers that could destroy a large crop very quickly.
Medes People from the Medo-Persian Empire. This empire defeated the country Babylon.
threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

At harvest time, people beat grain to separate the good parts from the chaff.*

And the time to harvest (destroy) Babylon is coming soon.

<sup>34</sup> “Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, destroyed us in the past.

In the past, Nebuchadnezzar hurt us.
In the past, he took our people away,
and we became like an empty jar.

He took our best things.

He was like a giant monster that ate everything until it was full.

He took our best things,
and threw us away.

<sup>35</sup> Babylon did terrible things to hurt us.
Now I want those things to happen to Babylon.”

The people living in Zion* said these
things:

“The people of Babylon are guilty of killing our people.

Now they are being punished for the bad things they did.”

The city of Jerusalem said those things.

<sup>36</sup> So the Lord says:

“I will defend you, Judah.

I will make sure that Babylon is punished.

I will dry up Babylon’s sea.

And I will make her water springs
become dry.

<sup>37</sup> Babylon will become a pile of ruined buildings.

Babylon will be a place for wild dogs to
live.

People will look at that pile of rocks and be amazed.

People will shake their heads about
Babylon.

Babylon will be a place where no people live.

<sup>38</sup> “Babylon’s people are like roaring young lions.

They growl like baby lions.

<sup>39</sup> Those people are acting like powerful lions.

I will give a party for them.

I will make them drunk.

They will laugh and have a good time.
And then they will sleep forever.

They will never wake up.”

The Lord said these things.

<sup>40</sup> “I will take the people of Babylon to be killed.

Babylon will be like sheep, rams, and goats waiting to be killed.

<sup>41</sup> “Sheshach* will be defeated.

The best and proudest country of the whole earth will be taken captive.

People from other nations will look at Babylon,

and the things they see will make them
afraid.

<sup>42</sup> The sea will rise over Babylon.

Its roaring waves will cover her.

<sup>43</sup> Babylon’s towns will be ruined and empty.

Babylon will become a dry, desert land.
It will become a land where no people
live.

People will not even travel through Babylon.

<sup>44</sup> I will punish the god Bel* in Babylon.

I will make him vomit out the people he swallowed.

Other nations will not come to Babylon.

And the wall around the city of Babylon will fall.

<sup>45</sup> Come out of the city of Babylon, my
people.

Run to save your lives.

Run from the Lord’s great anger.

chaff The seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers saved the seeds but let the wind blow the useless chaff away.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Sheshach This name was created as a word play on the name Babylon.

Bel This is one of the names of the god Marduk, the most important god of the Babylonians.

- Rumors will spread, but don't be afraid.
 One rumor comes this year.
 Another rumor will come next year.
 There will be rumors about terrible fighting in the country.
 There will be rumors about rulers fighting against other rulers.
- 47 The time will surely come,
 that I will punish the false gods of Babylon.
 And the whole land of Babylon will be put to shame.
 There will be many, many dead people, lying in the streets of that city.
- 48 Then heaven and earth and all that is in them will shout with joy about Babylon.
 They will shout because the army came from the north and fought against Babylon.”
 The Lord said these things.
- 49 “Babylon killed people from Israel.
 Babylon killed people from everywhere on earth.
 So Babylon must fall!
- 50 You people escaped being killed with swords.
 You must hurry and leave Babylon.
 Don't wait!
 You are in a faraway land.
 But remember the Lord where you are.
 And remember Jerusalem.
- 51 “We people of Judah are ashamed.
 We are ashamed because we have been insulted.
 Why? Because strangers have gone into the Holy Places of the Lord's temple.”
- 52 The Lord says,
 “The time is coming, that I will punish the idols of Babylon.
 At that time, wounded people will cry with pain everywhere in that country.
- 53 Babylon might grow until she touches the sky.
 Babylon might make her forts strong.
 But I will send people to fight against that city.

- And those people will destroy her.”
 The Lord said these things.
- 54 “We can hear people crying in Babylon.
 We hear the sound of people destroying things in the land of the Babylonian people.
- 55 The Lord will destroy Babylon very soon.
 He will make the loud sounds of the city become silent.
 Enemies will come roaring in like ocean waves.
 People all around will hear that roar.
- 56 The army will come and destroy Babylon.
 Babylon's soldiers will be captured.
 Their bows will be broken.
 Why? Because the Lord punishes people for the bad things they do.
 The Lord gives them the full punishment they deserve.
- 57 I will make Babylon's important officials and wise men drunk.
 I will make her governors, officers, and soldiers drunk too.
 Then they will sleep forever.
 They will never wake up.”
 The King said these things.
 His name is the Lord All-Powerful.
- 58 The Lord All-Powerful says:
 “Babylon's thick, strong wall will be pulled down.
 Her high gates will be burned.
 The people of Babylon will work hard, but it will not help.
 They will become very tired trying to save the city,
 but they will only become fuel for the flames.”

Jeremiah Sends a Message to Babylon

☞This is the message that Jeremiah gave to the officer Seraiah.* Seraiah was the son of Neriah. Neriah was the son of Mahseiah. Seraiah went to Babylon with Zedekiah king of Judah. This happened in the fourth year that Seraiah Seraiah was a brother of Baruch, Jeremiah's secretary.

Zedekiah was king of Judah.* At that time, Jeremiah gave this message to Seraiah, the officer. <sup>6</sup>Jeremiah had written on a scroll* all the terrible things that would happen to Babylon. He had written all these things about Babylon.

<sup>6</sup>Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "Seraiah, go to Babylon. Be sure to read this message so all the people can hear you. <sup>6</sup>Then say, 'O Lord, you have said that you will destroy this place, Babylon. You will destroy it so that no people or animals will live in it. This place will be an empty ruin forever.' <sup>6</sup>After you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it. Then throw this scroll* into the Euphrates River. <sup>6</sup>Then say, 'In the same way, Babylon will sink. Babylon will rise no more. Babylon will sink because of the terrible things that I will make happen here.'"

The words of Jeremiah end here.

The Fall of Jerusalem

52 Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king of Judah. Zedekiah ruled in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah.* Hamutal's family was from the town of Libnah. <sup>2</sup>Zedekiah did evil things, just like King Jehoiakim had done. The Lord did not like Zedekiah doing those evil things. <sup>3</sup>Terrible things happened to Jerusalem and Judah because the Lord was angry with them. Finally, the Lord threw the people of Jerusalem and Judah away from his presence.

Zedekiah turned against the king of Babylon. <sup>4</sup>So, in the ninth year of Zedekiah's rule, on the tenth day of the tenth month* Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, marched against Jerusalem. Nebuchadnezzar had his whole army with him. The army of Babylon set up their camp outside of Jerusalem. Then they built ramps all around the city walls, so they could get over those walls. <sup>5</sup>The city of Jerusalem was surrounded by the army of Babylon until the eleventh year that Zedekiah was king.* <sup>6</sup>By the ninth day of the fourth month of that year, the hunger in the city was very bad. There was no food left for the people in the city to eat. <sup>7</sup>On that day, the army of Babylon broke into Jerusalem. The soldiers of Jerusalem ran away. They left the city at night. They went through the gate between the two walls. That gate was near the king's garden. Even though the army of Babylon had surrounded the city, the soldiers of Jerusalem still ran away. They ran away toward the desert.

<sup>8</sup>But the Babylonian army chased King Zedekiah. They caught him on the plains of Jericho. All of Zedekiah's soldiers ran away. <sup>9</sup>The army of Babylon captured King Zedekiah. They took him to the king of Babylon at the city of Riblah. Riblah is in the land of Hamath. At Riblah the king of Babylon announced his judgment on King Zedekiah. <sup>10</sup>There at the city of Riblah, the king of Babylon killed Zedekiah's sons. Zedekiah was forced to watch his sons being killed. The king of Babylon also killed all the king's officials of Judah. <sup>11</sup>Then the king of Babylon tore out Zedekiah's eyes. He put bronze chains on him. Then he carried Zedekiah away to Babylon. In Babylon he put Zedekiah into prison. Zedekiah stayed in prison until the day he died.

<sup>12</sup>Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king of Babylon's special guard, came to Jerusalem. This was on the tenth day of the fifth month, in the 19th year that Nebuchadnezzar was king.* Nebuzaradan was an important leader in Babylon. <sup>13</sup>Nebuzaradan burned the Lord's temple. He also burned down the king's house and all the houses of Jerusalem. He burned down every important building in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>The whole Babylonian army broke down the walls around Jerusalem. That army was under the commander of the king's special guard. <sup>15</sup>Nebuzaradan, the commander, took the rest of the people that were still in Jerusalem* into captivity. He also carried away those that had surrendered to the king of Babylon earlier. He also carried away the skilled craftsmen that were left in Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>But Nebuzaradan left some of the poorest people behind in the land. He left those people to work in the vineyards and the fields.

<sup>17</sup>The Babylonian army broke up the bronze columns of the temple. They also broke up the stands and the Bronze Tank* that were in the Lord's temple. They carried all that bronze away to Babylon. <sup>18</sup>The army of Babylon also took these things from the temple: pots, shovels, wick trimmers, large bowls, pans, and all the bronze things that were used in the temple service. <sup>19</sup>The commander of the king's special guards took these things away: basins, firepans, large bowls, pots, lampstands, pans, and bowls used for drink offerings. He took everything that was made of gold or silver. <sup>20</sup>The two pillars, the Sea and the twelve bronze bulls under it, and the moveable stands were very heavy. King Solomon had made those things for the Lord's temple. The bronze that those things were made of was so heavy it could not be weighed.

<sup>21</sup>Each of the bronze pillars was 27 feet* high. Each pillar was 18 feet* around. Each pillar was hollow. The walls of each pillar was 4 inches* thick. <sup>22</sup>The bronze capital on top of the first pillar was 7½ feet* high. It was decorated with a net design and bronze pomegranates* all around it. The other pillar had pomegranates too. It was like the first pillar. <sup>23</sup>There were 96 pomegranates on the sides of the pillars. All together, there were 100 pomegranates above the net design that went around the pillars.

<sup>24</sup>The commander of the king's special guards took Seraiah and Zephaniah as prisoners. Seraiah was the high priest, and Zephaniah was the next highest priest. The three doorkeepers were also taken as prisoners. <sup>25</sup>The commander of the king's special guards also took the officer in charge of the fighting men. He also took seven of the king's advisers as prisoners. Those men were still there in Jerusalem. He also took the scribe* that was in charge of putting people in the army. And he took 60 of the ordinary people that were there in the city. <sup>26-27</sup>Nebuzaradan, the commander, took all those officials. He brought them to the king of Babylon. The king of Babylon was at the city of Riblah. Riblah is in the country of Hamath. There at the city of Riblah, the king ordered all those officials to be killed.

So the people of Judah were taken from their country. <sup>28</sup>This is how many people Nebuchadnezzar carried into captivity:

In the 7th year of King Nebuchadnezzar:*
3,023 men from Judah.

<sup>29</sup> In Nebuchadnezzar's 18th year:*
832 people from Jerusalem.

<sup>30</sup> In Nebuchadnezzar's 23rd year:*
Nebuzaradan took 745 men of Judah into captivity. Nebuzaradan was the commander of the king's special guards.

In all, 4,600 people were taken captive.

bronze columns ... Bronze Tank These verses list the things that the Babylonian army took away from the Lord's temple. For a description of the temple furniture, see 1 Kings 7:13-26.

27 feet Literally, "18 cubits."

18 feet Literally, "12 cubits."

4 inches Literally, "4 fingers."

7½ feet Literally, "7 cubits."

pomegranate A red fruit containing many tiny seeds covered with a soft, juicy part of the fruit.

scribe A man that wrote down and copied books and letters. He often became an expert at the meaning of those writings ("scriptures").

of his imprisonment,* Evil-Merodach, the king of Babylon, was very kind to Jehoiachin. He let Jehoiachin out of prison in that year. This was the same year that Evil-Merodach became king of Babylon. Evil-Merodach set Jehoiachin free from prison on the 25th day of the 12th month.<sup>32</sup> Evil-Merodach spoke in a kind way to Jehoiachin. He gave Jehoiachin a place of honor higher than the other kings that were with him in Babylon.<sup>33</sup> So Jehoiachin took his prison clothes off. For the rest of his life, he ate regularly at the king's table.<sup>34</sup> Every day the king of Babylon gave Jehoiachin an allowance. This continued until Jehoiachin died.

Lamentations

Jerusalem Cries Over Her Destruction

- 1 Jerusalem once was a city full of people.
But now the city is so deserted!
Jerusalem once was a great city among the nations.
But now she* has become like a widow.
She was once a princess among cities.
But now she has been made a slave.
- 2 She cries bitterly in the night.
Her tears are on her cheeks.
She has no one to comfort her.
None of the nations that were friendly to her comforts her.
All of her friends turned their backs on her.
Her friends became her enemies.
- 3 Judah has gone into captivity after much suffering.
Judah has gone into captivity after much work.
Judah lives among other nations.
But she has found no rest.
The people that chased her caught her.
Those people caught her in the narrow valleys.
- 4 The roads to Zion* are very sad.
They are sad because no person comes to Zion for the holidays anymore.
All of Zion's gates have been destroyed.

- All of Zion's priests groan.
Zion's young women have been taken away.*
And all of this is a bitter sadness to Zion.
- 5 Jerusalem's enemies have won.
Her enemies have been successful.
This happened because the Lord punished her.
He punished Jerusalem for her many sins.
Her children have gone away.
They have gone away, captives of their enemies.
- 6 The beauty of the Daughter of Zion* has gone away.
Her princes became like deer.
They were like deer that can't find a meadow to feed in.
They ran away without strength.
They ran away from those people that chased them.
- 7 Jerusalem thinks back.
Jerusalem remembers the time when she was hurt and when she became homeless.
She remembers all the nice things that she had in the past.
She remembers those nice things she had in the old days.

she Throughout this poem, the city of Jerusalem is figuratively portrayed as a woman.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

have been taken away Following the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew has "are upset."

Daughter of Zion This is a figurative name for the city of Jerusalem.

- She remembers when her people were captured by the enemy.
 She remembers when there was no person to help her.
 When her enemies saw her, they laughed.
 They laughed because she was destroyed.
- <sup>8</sup> Jerusalem sinned very badly.
 Because Jerusalem sinned, she has become something that people shake their heads about.
 All those people that respected her, hate her now.
 They hate her because they have seen her naked.
 Jerusalem groans.
 She turns away.
- <sup>9</sup> Jerusalem's skirts were dirty.
 She didn't think about the things that would happen to her.
 Her fall was amazing.
 She had no person to comfort her.
 "O Lord," she says, "see how I am hurt!
 See how my enemy thinks he is so great!"
- <sup>10</sup> The enemy stretched out his hand.
 He took all of her nice things.
 In fact, she saw the foreign nations go inside her sanctuary.* You, Lord, had given this order:
 "Those people will not enter your assembly."
- <sup>11</sup> All of Jerusalem's people are groaning.
 All of her people are looking for food.
 They are giving away all their nice things for food.
 They are doing this to keep alive.
 "Look, Lord," says Jerusalem; "look at me!
 See how people hate me.
- <sup>12</sup> "All you people that pass by on the road, you don't seem to care.

- But look at me and see.
 Is there any pain like my pain?
 Is there any pain like the pain that has come to me?
 Is there any pain like the pain the Lord has punished me with?
 He has punished me on the day of his great anger.
- <sup>13</sup> The Lord sent fire from above.
 That fire went down into my bones.
 He stretched out a net for my feet.
 He turned me all the way around.
 He made me into a wasteland.
 I am sick all day.
- <sup>14</sup> "My sins were tied up like a yoke.*
 My sins were tied up in the Lord's hands.
 The Lord's yoke is on my neck.
 The Lord has made me weak.
 The Lord has given me to people that I can't stand up against.
- <sup>15</sup> "The Lord rejected all my strong soldiers.
 Those soldiers were inside the city.
 Then the Lord brought a group of people against me.
 He brought those people to kill my young soldiers.
 The Lord has stepped on the grapes in the winepress.
 That winepress belongs to the virgin daughter of Jerusalem.*
- <sup>16</sup> "I cry about all these things.
 My eyes, my eyes run down with water.
 There is no comforter near me.
 There is no person that can make me feel better.
 My children are like a wasteland.
 They are like that because the enemy has won."
- <sup>17</sup> Zion* spread out her hands.

sanctuary A building used to worship God in. The sanctuary referred to here is the temple of the Lord that was in Jerusalem. That temple had been destroyed by the army of Babylon in 587 B.C. That was shortly before this poem was written.

virgin ... Jerusalem This is another figurative name for the city of Jerusalem.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

There was no person to comfort her.
The Lord had given orders to Jacob's*
enemies.

The Lord had ordered Jacob's enemies to surround him.

Jerusalem has become something dirty.
She is something dirty among those
enemies.

- 18 "The Lord is in the right," she says,
"because I refused to listen to him.
So listen, all you people!
Look at my pain!
My young women and men
have gone into captivity.
- 19 "I called out to my lovers.
But they tricked me.
My priests and my elders
have died in the city.
They were looking for food for themselves.
They wanted to keep themselves alive.
- 20 "Look at me, Lord. I am in distress!
My insides are upset!
My heart feels like it has turned upside down inside me!
My heart feels this way because I have been so stubborn!
In the streets, the sword killed my
children.
Inside the houses, death was there.
- 21 "Listen to me, because I am groaning!
I have no person to comfort me.
All my enemies have heard of my trouble.
They are happy.
They are happy that you have done this
to me.
Now bring on that day that you have announced.
On that day, let my enemies be like I am now.
- 22 "Let the evil of my enemies come before
you.
Then you can treat them

the same way you treated me
because of all my sins.
Do this because I am groaning over and over again.
Do this because my heart is sick."

The Lord Destroyed Jerusalem

- 2 Look how the Lord has set the Daughter of Zion* under a cloud.
He has thrown the glory of Israel from the sky to the ground.
The Lord didn't keep in mind that Israel was his footstool,
on the day of his anger.
- 2 The Lord swallowed up the houses of Jacob.*
He swallowed them up without mercy.
He destroyed in his anger
the fortresses of the Daughter of Judah.*
The Lord threw the kingdom of Judah and its rulers
to the earth. He ruined the kingdom.
- 3 The Lord has cut off in his anger
all the strength of Israel.
He took away his right hand from Israel.
He did this when the enemy came.
He burned like a flaming fire in Jacob.*
He was like a fire that burns all around.
- 4 The Lord bent his bow like an enemy.
The holder for his sword was in his right hand.
He killed all the good looking men of Judah.
The Lord killed them as if he were the enemy.
The Lord poured out his anger.
He poured it out on the tents of Zion.
- 5 The Lord has become like an enemy.

Daughter of Zion This is a figurative name for the city of Jerusalem.

Daughter of Judah This is a figurative name for the nation of Judah.

- He has swallowed up Israel.
 He has swallowed up all her palaces.
 He has swallowed up all her fortresses.
 He has made much sadness and crying for the dead
 in the Daughter of Judah.*
- 6 The Lord has destroyed his own tent* as if it were a garden.
 He has ruined the place where the people used to meet to worship him.
 The Lord has made people forget special assemblies and special days of rest* in Zion.
 The Lord has rejected king and priest.
 He has rejected them in his great anger.
- 7 The Lord has rejected his altar.
 He has rejected his Holy Place of worship.
 He has given the walls of Jerusalem's palaces
 over to the enemy.
 The enemy made noise in the Lord's
 temple.
 They made noise, as if it were a holiday.
- 8 The Lord planned to destroy the wall of the Daughter of Zion.
 He marked the wall off with a measuring line.
 He didn't stop himself from destroying.
 So he made the outer walls and other walls cry out in sadness.
 Together they wasted away.
- 9 Jerusalem's gates have sunk into the
 ground.
 He destroyed and smashed the bars of the gates.
 Her king and her princes are among the
 nations.
 There is no more teaching for them.

Also Jerusalem's prophets have not found any visions from the Lord.

- 10 The elders of Zion* sit on the ground.
 They sit on the ground and are quiet.
 They pour dust on their heads.
 They put on sackcloth.*
 The young women of Jerusalem
 bow their heads to the ground in sorrow.
- 11 My eyes are worn out with tears!
 My insides are upset!
 My heart feels like it has been poured on the ground!
 I feel this way because of the destruction of my people.
 Children and babies are fainting.
 They are fainting in the public squares of the city.
- 12 Those children say to their mothers,
 "Where is bread and wine?"
 They ask this question as they die.
 They die while they are lying on their mother's laps.
- 13 What can I liken you to, Daughter of Zion?*
- What can I compare you to?
 What can I compare you to, Virgin
 Daughter of Zion*?
 How can I comfort you?
 Your destruction is as big as the sea!
 I don't think anyone can heal you.
- 14 Your prophets saw visions for you.
 But their visions were only worthless
 lies.
 They didn't preach against your sins.
 They didn't try to make things better.
 They preached messages for you,
 but they were false messages that fooled
 you.

Daughter of Judah This is a figurative name for the nation of Judah.

tent This is a reference to the Lord's temple in Jerusalem.

special days of rest Or, "Sabbaths." This might mean Saturday, or it might mean all of the special days when the people were not supposed to work.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

sackcloth A kind of cloth that people wore to show they were sad or crying for dead people.

(Virgin) Daughter of Zion This is a figurative name for the city of Jerusalem.

- 15 The people that pass by on the road clap their hands at you in shock.
They whistle and shake their heads
at the Daughter of Jerusalem.
"Is this the city," they ask, "that people called
'The Perfectly Beautiful City,' and, 'The Joy of all the Earth'?"
- 16 All your enemies
open their mouths at you.
They whistle and grind their teeth at you.
They say, "We have swallowed them up!
This is truly the day we were hoping for.
We have finally seen this happen."
- 17 The Lord did what he planned to do.
He has done what he said he would do.
He has done what he commanded from times of long ago.
He destroyed, and he had no pity.
He made your enemies happy because of
you.
He raised up the strength of your
enemies.
- 18 Cry out* with your hearts to the Lord!
O wall of the Daughter of Zion;
let tears roll down like a stream!
Let your tears roll down day and night.
Don't stop!
Don't let your eyes be still!
- 19 Get up! Cry out in the night!
Cry out at the beginning of each of the parts of the night!
Pour out your heart as if it were water!
Pour out your heart before the Lord!
Lift up your hands in prayer to the Lord.
Ask him to let your children live.
Ask him to let your children live that are fainting with starvation.
They are fainting with starvation in all the streets of the city.
- 20 Look at me, Lord!
See who it is that you have treated this
way!

Let me ask this question:
Should women eat the children they have given birth to?
Should women eat the children that they have cared for?
Should priest and prophet be killed in the temple of the Lord?

- 21 Young men and old men lie on the ground in the streets of the city.
My young women and young men have been killed by the sword.
You, Lord, killed them on the day of your anger!
You killed them without mercy!
- 22 You invited terror to come to me from all around.
You invited terror like you were inviting it to a holiday.
There was no person that escaped or that got away
on the day of the Lord's anger.
My enemy has killed
those that I raised and brought up.

A Man Considers the Meaning of His Suffering

- 3 I am a man that has seen much
trouble.
I have seen trouble under the rod of the Lord's anger.
- 2 The Lord led and brought me into darkness, not light.
- 3 The Lord turned his hand against me.
He did this again and again, all day.
- 4 He wore out my flesh and skin.
He broke my bones.
- 5 The Lord built up bitterness and trouble
against me.
He made bitterness and trouble come all around me.
- 6 He made me sit in the dark.
He made me like some person that has been dead a long time.
- 7 The Lord shut me in, so I could not get out.

 He put heavy chains on me.
 8 Even when I cry out and ask for help,
 the Lord does not listen to my prayer.
 9 He has blocked up my path with stones.
 He has made my path crooked.
 10 The Lord is like a bear about to attack
 me.
 He is like a lion that is in a hiding place.
 11 The Lord led me off my path. He tore me to pieces.
 He ruined me.
 12 He made his bow ready.
 He made me the target for his arrows.
 13 He shot me in the stomach.
 He shot me with his arrows.
 14 I have become a joke to all of my people.
 All day long they make fun of me with songs.
 15 The Lord filled me with bitter things to drink.
 He made me full of bitter drink.
 16 The Lord pushed my teeth into rocky ground.
 He pushed me into the dirt.
 17 I thought I would never have peace again.
 I forgot about good things.
 18 I said to myself,
 "I no longer have any hope that the Lord will help me."
 19 Remember, O Lord, my sadness and how
 I have no home.
 Remember the bitter drink and the poisoned drink you have given me.
 20 I remember well all my troubles.
 And I am very sad.
 21 But then I think of something else, then I have hope. What I think of is this:
 22 The Lord's love and kindness never ends.*
 The Lord's mercies are never over.
 23 They are new every morning.
 Your faithfulness, O Lord, is great.
 24 I say to myself, "The Lord is my portion.
 Because of this I will have hope."

25 The Lord is good to those that wait for
 him.
 The Lord is good to the person that looks for him.
 26 It is good for a person to wait quietly for the Lord to save him.
 27 It is good for a person to wear the yoke*
 of the Lord.
 It is good for a person to wear that yoke from the time he is young.
 28 That person should sit alone and be quiet
 when the Lord puts his yoke on him.
 29 That person should bow to the Lord with his face to the ground.
 Maybe there is still hope.
 30 That person should turn his cheek to the one that hits him.
 That person should be ready to be insulted.
 31 That person should remember that the Lord does not reject people forever.
 32 When the Lord punishes, he also has mercy.
 He has mercy because of his great love
 and kindness.
 33 The Lord does not want to punish people.
 He does not like to make people unhappy.
 34 The Lord does not like these things:
 He does not like for someone to crush all the prisoners of the earth under his feet.
 35 He does not like for someone to be unfair to a person.
 Some people do that right in front of the Most High God.
 36 He does not like for someone to hurt a person's good cause.
 The Lord does not like any of these
 things.
 37 Nobody can say something and have it happen,
 unless the Lord orders it to happen.

yoke A pole that was put on the shoulders of men or animals to help them carry or pull things. This often showed that a person was a slave.

38 Both bad and good things come from the mouth of the Most High
 God.
 39 What living person can complain because the Lord has punished him for his sins?
 40 Let us check and look at what we have
 done.
 Then let us turn back to the Lord.
 41 Let us lift up our hearts and our hands to the God of heaven.
 42 Let us say to him: "We have sinned and have been stubborn.
 Because of this, you have not forgiven
 us.
 43 You wrapped yourself with anger. You chased us.
 You killed us without mercy!
 44 You wrapped yourself in a cloud.
 You did that so that no prayer could get through.
 45 You made us like garbage and dirt to the other nations.
 46 All of our enemies
 speak angrily to us.
 47 We have been frightened. We have fallen into a pit.
 We have been hurt bad! We have been broken!"
 48 My eyes flow with streams of tears!
 I cry because of the destruction of my
 people!
 49 My eyes will flow without stopping!
 I will keep on crying!
 50 I will keep on crying until you look down and see us, O Lord!
 I will keep crying until you see us from heaven!
 51 My eyes make me sad, when I see what has happened to the daughters of my city.
 52 Those people that are my enemies for no good reason hunted for me as if I were a bird.
 53 They threw me into a pit while I was still alive.
 They threw stones at me.

54 Water came up over my head.
 I said to myself, "I am lost."
 55 I called out your name, O Lord.
 I called out your name from the bottom of the pit.
 56 You heard my voice. You didn't close your ears.
 You didn't refuse to rescue and save
 me.
 57 You came close to me on the day that I called out to you.
 You said to me, "Don't be afraid."
 58 You, O Lord, have taken my side of the case.
 You have bought my life back for me.
 59 You have seen my trouble, O Lord.
 Now judge my case for me.
 60 You have seen how my enemies have hurt me.
 You have seen all the evil plans they made against me.
 61 You have heard how they insult me, O
 Lord.
 You have heard all the evil plans they
 made against me.
 62 The words and the thoughts of my
 enemies
 are against me all the time.
 63 When they sit down and when they stand up.
 Look, O Lord, how they make fun of
 me!
 64 Give them back what they deserve, O
 Lord!
 Pay them back for what they have done!
 65 Give them stubbornness of heart!
 Then put your curse on them!
 66 Chase them in anger! Destroy them!
 Destroy them from under the sky, O
 Lord!

The Horrors of the Attack on Jerusalem

4 See how the gold has grown dark.
 See how the good gold is changed.
 There are jewels*

- scattered around.
Those jewels are scattered at every street corner.
- <sup>2</sup> The people of Zion* were worth a lot.
They were worth their weight in gold.
But now the enemy treats those people like old clay jars.
The enemy treats them like clay jars made by a potter.
- <sup>3</sup> Even the jackal gives her breast to her young.
Even the jackal lets her pups suck at her breast.
But the daughter of my people* is cruel.
She is like the ostrich that lives in the desert.
- <sup>4</sup> The little baby's tongue sticks to the roof of its mouth from thirst.
Young children ask for bread.
But no one gives any bread to them.
- <sup>5</sup> The people that at one time ate rich food now are dying in the streets.
The people that grew up wearing nice red clothes now pick through garbage piles.
- <sup>6</sup> The sin of the daughter of my people* was very great.
Their sin was greater than the sin of Sodom and Gomorrah.*
Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed suddenly.
No human hand caused that destruction.*
- <sup>7</sup> The men of Judah that were specially dedicated to God were whiter than snow.

- They were whiter than milk.
Their bodies were red like coral.
Their beards were dark like the stone called lapis lazuli.
- <sup>8</sup> But now their faces are blacker than soot.
No one even recognizes those men in the streets.
Their skin is wrinkled over their bones.
Their skin is like wood.
- <sup>9</sup> The people that were killed by the sword had it better than the people that were killed by famine.
The starving people were very sad. They were hurt.
They died because they had no food from the field.
- <sup>10</sup> At that time, even very nice women cooked their own children.
Those children became food for their mothers.
This happened when my people were destroyed.
- <sup>11</sup> The Lord used all of his anger.
He poured out all his anger.
He made a fire in Zion.*
That fire burned down Zion to its foundations.
- <sup>12</sup> The kings of the earth could not believe what had happened.
The people of the world could not believe what had happened.
They could not believe that enemies would be able to come through the city gates of Jerusalem.
- <sup>13</sup> This happened because Jerusalem's prophets sinned.
This happened because Jerusalem's priests did evil things.
Those people were shedding blood in the city of Jerusalem.
They were shedding the blood of good people.
- <sup>14</sup> The prophets and priests walked around blind in the streets.
They had become dirty with blood.
No one could even touch their clothes because they were dirty.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.

Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

daughter ... people This is a figurative way of referring here to the women of Jerusalem.

daughter of my people These words refer to all the people of Jerusalem.

Sodom and Gomorrah Two cities that God destroyed because the people were so evil.

No human ... destruction The Hebrew of this line is unclear.

- 15 "Get away. Get away. Do not touch us."
Those people wandered around and had no home.
People in other nations said, "We don't want them to live with us."
- 16 The Lord himself has destroyed those
people.
He didn't look after them anymore.
He didn't respect the priests.
He was not friendly to the elders of Judah.
- 17 Our eyes stop working.
They get tired because we look for help,
but no help comes.
We kept on looking out for a nation to
save us.
We kept watch from our watch tower,
but no nation saved us.
- 18 Our enemies hunted us all the time.
We could not even go out into the streets.
Our end came near. Our time was up.
Our end came!
- 19 The men that chased us were faster than eagles in the sky.
Those men chased us into the mountains.
They hid in the desert to catch us.
- 20 The king, that was like breath in our noses, was captured in their pit.
The king was the person that had been chosen by the Lord.
We had said about the king, "We will live
in his shadow.
We will live in his shadow among the
nations."
- 21 Be happy and be glad, people of Edom.
Be happy, you people that live in the land of Uz.
But remember, the cup of the Lord's anger, will come around to you, too.
When you drink it, you will get drunk and will make yourselves naked.
- 22 Your punishment is complete, Zion.*
You will not go into captivity again.

But the Lord will punish your sins, people of Edom.
He will uncover your sins.

A Prayer to the Lord

- 5 Remember, Lord, what happened to
us.
Look and see our disgrace.
- 2 Our land has been turned over to strangers.
Our houses have been given to foreigners.
- 3 We have become orphans. We have no father.
Our mothers have become like widows.
- 4 We have to buy the water that we drink.
We have to pay for the wood that we use.
- 5 We are forced to wear a yoke* on our necks.
We get tired, and we have no rest.
- 6 We made an agreement with Egypt.
We also made an agreement with Assyria to get enough bread.
- 7 Our ancestors sinned against you. Now they are dead.
We are suffering now because of their
sins.
- 8 Slaves have become our rulers.
There is no person that can save us from
them.
- 9 We risk our lives to get our food.
We risk our lives because of the men with swords in the desert.
- 10 Our skin is hot like an oven.
Our skin is hot because of the hunger
we have.
- 11 The enemy raped the women of Zion.
They raped the women of the cities of Judah.
- 12 The enemy hanged our princes.
They didn't honor our elders.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

yoke A pole that was put on the shoulders of men or animals to help them carry or pull things. This often showed that a person was a slave.

- <sup>13</sup> The enemy made our young men grind grain at the mill.
Our young men stumbled under loads of wood.
- <sup>14</sup> The elders no longer sit at the gates of the
city.
The young men no longer make music.
- <sup>15</sup> We have no more joy in our hearts.
Our dancing has turned into crying for
the dead.
- <sup>16</sup> The crown has fallen from our head.
Things have gone bad for us because we have sinned.
- <sup>17</sup> Because of this, our hearts have become sick.

LAMENTATIONS 5:13-22

- Because of these things, our eyes have become dim.
- <sup>18</sup> Mount Zion is a wasteland.
On Mount Zion, foxes walk about.
- <sup>19</sup> But you rule forever, Lord.
Your kingly chair lasts forever and ever.
- <sup>20</sup> You seem to have forgotten us forever,
Lord.
You seem to have left us alone for such a long time.
- <sup>21</sup> Bring us back to you, Lord. We will gladly come back to you.
Make our days like they were before.
- <sup>22</sup> Have you completely rejected us?
You have been very angry with us.

Ezekiel

INTRODUCTION

1<sup>1-3</sup>I am the priest, Ezekiel son of Buzzi. I was in exile.* I was by Kebar Canal in Babylonia when the skies opened up and I saw visions* of God. This was on the fifth day of the fourth month (June) of the thirtieth year.*

During King Jehoiachin's fifth year in exile,* on the fifth day of the month, the word of the Lord came to Ezekiel. The Lord's power came on him at that place.

The Chariot of the Lord—God's Throne

<sup>4</sup>I (Ezekiel) saw a dust storm coming from the north. It was a big cloud, and there was fire flashing from it. Light was shining out all around it. It looked like hot metal* glowing in a fire. <sup>5</sup>Inside, there were four animals. They looked like a person. <sup>6</sup>But each animal had four faces and four wings. <sup>7</sup>Their legs were straight. Their feet looked like cow's feet. And they glittered like polished brass. <sup>8</sup>Under their wings were human arms. There were four animals. And each animal had four faces and four wings.

<sup>9</sup>And now I will tell about their faces. The animals were all joined together where their vision(s) Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.

thirtieth year We are not sure what year this is. It might be the same as the fifth year of exile, or it might be that Ezekiel is beginning his book with the last vision he saw of God, and it was the same as the first vision he saw.

hot metal We are not sure of the meaning of this Hebrew word. It might mean, "melted copper" or "amber."

wings touched. They did not turn when they moved. They went in the direction they were looking. <sup>10</sup>Each animal had four faces. In the front, they each had a man's face. On the right side there was a lion's face. On the left side there was a bull's face. And on the back there was an eagle's face. Each animal looked the same. <sup>11</sup>The animals used their wings to cover themselves. They used two wings to cover their head and two wings to cover their body. <sup>12</sup>The animals did not turn when they moved. They went in the direction they were looking. They went wherever the wind* caused them to go.

<sup>13</sup>The animals were shining like burning coals. And there was a fire like lightning that flashed from one animal to another. <sup>14</sup>The animals ran back and forth—fast like lightning!

<sup>15-16</sup>I looked at the animals and I saw four wheels. There was one wheel for each face. The wheels touched the ground. The wheels looked like they were made from a clear yellow jewel. They looked like there was a wheel inside a wheel. <sup>17</sup>The wheels, did not change direction when they moved.

<sup>18</sup>And now I will tell about their backs. They were tall and they could see with their backs. All four animals were the same.

<sup>19</sup>The wheels always moved with the animals. If the animals went up into the air, the wheels went with them. <sup>20</sup>They went wherever the wind wanted them to go, and the wheels went with them. Why? Because the wind (power) of the animal was in the wheels. <sup>21</sup>So if the animals moved, the wheels moved. If the animals stopped, the wheels stopped. If the wheels went into the air, the animals went with them. Why? Because the wind* was in the wheels.

<sup>22</sup>There was an amazing thing over the animals. It was like a bowl* turned upside down. And the bowl was clear like ice. It was hanging in the air over the animals' heads.

<sup>23</sup>Under this bowl each animal had four straight wings. Two wings covered one part of its body and two wings covered the other part.

<sup>24</sup>Then I heard the wings. Every time the animals moved, their wings made a very loud noise. They were loud like a lot of water rushing by. They were loud like God, All-Powerful walking by. They were loud like an army or a crowd of people. And when the animals stopped moving, they put their wings down by their side.

<sup>25</sup>The animals stopped moving and lowered their wings. And there was another loud sound. That sound came from above the bowl over their heads. <sup>26</sup>There was something above that bowl. It looked like a throne. It was blue like sapphire. And there was something that looked like a man sitting on that throne! <sup>27</sup>I looked at him from his waist up. He looked like hot metal.* It looked like fire all around him! And I looked at him from his waist down. It looked like fire. And it was shining all around him. <sup>28</sup>The light shining around him was like a rainbow. It looked like the Glory of the Lord. So I fell to the ground. I bowed with my face to the ground. And then I heard a voice speaking to me.

2 The voice said, "Son of man,* stand up and I will speak with you."

<sup>2</sup>Then a wind came and lifted me up on my feet. And I listened to the person (God) that spoke to me. <sup>3</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, I am sending you to speak to the family of Israel.

Those people turned against me many times. And their ancestors turned against me. They have sinned against me many times—and they are still sinning against me today. <sup>4</sup>I am sending you to speak to those people. But they are very stubborn. They are very hard headed. But you must speak to those people. You must say, 'The Lord our Master says these things.' <sup>5</sup>But those people won't listen to you. They won't stop sinning against me. Why? Because they are very rebellious people—they always turn against me! But you must say those things so they will know that there is a prophet* living among them.

<sup>6</sup>"Son of man,* don't be afraid of those people. Don't be afraid of the things they say. It is true, they will turn against you and try to hurt you. They will be like thorns. You will think you are living with scorpions.* But don't be afraid of the things they say. They are a rebellious people. But don't be afraid of them. <sup>7</sup>You must tell them the things I say. I know they won't listen to you. And they won't stop sinning against me! Why? Because they are a rebellious people.

<sup>8</sup>"Son of man,* you must listen to the things I say to you. Don't turn against me like those rebellious people. Open your mouth and accept the words I give you and then speak those words to the people. Eat these words."

<sup>9</sup>Then I (Ezekiel) saw an arm reach out towards me. It was holding a scroll* with words written on it. <sup>10</sup>I rolled the scroll open and there were words written on the front and on the back. There were all kinds of sad songs, sad stories, and warnings.

3 God, said to me, "Son of man,* eat what you see. Eat this scroll,* and then go tell these things to the family of Israel."

<sup>2</sup>So I opened my mouth and put the scroll in my mouth. <sup>3</sup>Then God, said, "Son of man, I

wind Or, "Spirit."

bowl This Hebrew word is the same word used in Gen. 1:6-7 to describe the dome over the sky.

hot metal We are not sure of the meaning of this Hebrew word. It might mean, "melted copper" or "amber."

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person," or "a human being." But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

prophet A person called by God to be a special servant. God used dreams and visions to show them things to teach to the people.

am giving you this scroll. Swallow it! Let that scroll fill your body.”

So I ate the scroll.* It was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

“Then God, said to me, “Son of man,* go to the family of Israel. Speak my words to them. <sup>5</sup>I am not sending you to some foreigners you can’t understand. You don’t have to learn another language. I am sending you to the family of Israel! <sup>6</sup>I am not sending you to many different countries where people speak languages you can’t understand. If you went to those people and spoke to them, they would listen to you. But you won’t have to learn those hard languages. <sup>7</sup>No! I am sending you to the family of Israel. Only, these people have hard heads—they are very stubborn! And the people of Israel will refuse to listen to you. They don’t want to listen to me! <sup>8</sup>But I will make you just as stubborn as they are. Your head will be just as hard as theirs! <sup>9</sup>A diamond is harder than flint rock. In the same way, your head will be harder than theirs. You will be more stubborn, so you won’t be afraid of those people. You won’t be afraid of those people that always turn against me.”

<sup>10</sup>Then God, said to me, “Son of man,* you must listen to every word I say to you. And you must remember those words. <sup>11</sup>Then go to all of your people that are in exile.* Go to them and say, ‘The Lord our Master says these things.’ They won’t listen and they won’t stop sinning, but you must tell them these things.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the wind* lifted me up. Then I heard a voice behind me. It was very loud, like thunder. It said, “Blessed is the Glory of the Lord!” <sup>13</sup>Then the wings of the animals began moving. The wings made a very loud noise as they touched each other. And the wheels in front of them began making a loud noise—it was loud like thunder. <sup>14</sup>The wind* lifted me and took me away. I left that place. My spirit* was very excited! The Lord’s power was very strong in me! <sup>15</sup>I went to the people of Israel that were forced to live in Tel Aviv.* These people lived by Kebar Canal. I said hello to the people living there. I stayed there seven days and told them the things God said.

<sup>16</sup>After seven days, the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>17</sup>“Son of man,* I am making you a watchman* for Israel. I will tell you about bad things that will happen to them. And you must warn Israel about those things. <sup>18</sup>If I say, ‘This bad man will die!’ Then you must warn him! You must tell him to change his life and stop doing bad things. If you don’t warn that person, then he will die. He will die because he sinned. But I will also make you responsible for his death! Why? Because you did not go to him and save his life.

<sup>19</sup>“Maybe you will warn a person and tell him to change his life and stop doing bad things. If that person refuses to listen to you, then that person will die. He will die because he sinned. But you warned him, so you saved your own life.

<sup>20</sup>“Or maybe a good man will stop being good. I might put something in front of him that causes him to fall (sin). He will start to do bad things, so he will die. He will die because he is sinning and you did not warn him. I will make you responsible for his death. And people won’t remember all the good things he did.

<sup>21</sup>“But if you warn the good person and tell him to stop sinning, and if he stops sinning, then he won’t die. Why? Because you warned him and he listened. In this way, you saved your own life.”

<sup>22</sup>Then the Lord’s power came to me in that place. He said to me, “Get up and go to the valley. I will speak to you in that place.”

Scroll(s) A long roll of leather or papyrus (paper) used for writing books, letters, and legal documents.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

exile Being forced to live in a foreign country. King Nebuchadnezzar forced many Jewish people to leave Judah and live in foreign countries.

wind Or, “Spirit.”

spirit Or, “wind.”

Tel Aviv This was a place outside of Israel. We are not sure where it is exactly. The name means “Spring Hill.”

watchman A guard that stood on the city wall and looked for enemy soldiers. If he saw trouble coming, he would warn the people in the city.

<sup>2</sup>So I got up and went out to the valley. The Glory of the Lord* was there—just like I had seen it by Kebar Canal. So I bowed with my face to the ground. <sup>2</sup>But a wind* came and lifted me up on my feet. He said to me, “Go home and lock yourself in your house. <sup>2</sup>Son of man,* people will come with ropes and tie you up. They won’t let you go out among the people. <sup>2</sup>I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth—you won’t be able to talk. So those people won’t have any person to teach them that they are doing wrong. Why? Because those people are always turning against me. <sup>2</sup>But I will talk to you. And then I will allow you to speak. But you must say to them, “The Lord our Master says these things.’ If a person wants to listen, then fine. If a person doesn’t want to listen, then fine. But those people always turn against me.

4 Son of man,* take a brick. Scratch a picture on it. Draw a picture of a city—the city Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>And then act like you are an army surrounding the city. Build a dirt wall around the city to help you attack it. Build a dirt road leading up to the city wall. Bring battering rams* and set up army camps around the city. <sup>3</sup>And then take an iron pan and put it between you and the city. It will be like an iron wall separating you and the city. In this way, you will show that you are against that city. You will surround and attack that city. Why? Because this is an example for the family of Israel. It will show that I (God) will destroy Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>“Then you must lie down on your left side. You must do the thing that shows that you, are taking the sins of the people of Israel on yourself. You will carry that guilt for as many days as you lie on your left side. <sup>5</sup>You must bear the guilt of Israel for 390 days.* In this way, I am telling you how long Israel will be punished, one day equals one year.

<sup>6</sup>“After that time, you will lie on your right side for 40 days. This time you will bear the guilt of Judah for 40 days. One day equals one year. I am telling you how long Judah must be punished.”

<sup>7</sup>God again spoke. He said, “Now, roll up your sleeve and raise your arm over the brick. Act like you are attacking the city Jerusalem. Do this to show that you are speaking as my messenger to the people. <sup>8</sup>Now look, I am tying ropes on you. You won’t be able to roll over from one side to another until your attack against the city* is finished.”

<sup>9</sup>God also said, “You must get some grain to make bread. Get some wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt. Mix all those things together in one bowl and grind them to make flour. You will use this flour to make bread. You will eat only this bread during the 390 days that you lie on your side. <sup>10</sup>You will be allowed to use only 1 cup* of that flour each day to make bread. You will eat that bread from time to time throughout the day. <sup>11</sup>And you will only be allowed a little water every day. You can drink only 3 cups* of water each day. <sup>12</sup>You must make your bread each day. You must get dry human dung and burn it. Then you must cook the bread over this burning dung. You must eat this bread in front of the people.” <sup>13</sup>Then the Lord said, “This will show that the family of Israel will eat unclean bread* in foreign countries. And I forced them to leave Israel and go to those countries!

<sup>14</sup>Then I (Ezekiel) said, “Oh, but Lord my Master, I have never eaten any unclean food. I have never eaten meat from an animal that died from a disease or from an animal that was killed by a wild animal. I have never eaten

Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. This was like a bright shining light.
wind Or, “Spirit.”

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

battering rams Heavy logs that soldiers used to break holes into the gates or walls around a city.

390 days The ancient Greek translation has, “190 days.”

your ... city This is a word play in Hebrew. The Hebrew word can mean, “time of hunger,” “time of trouble,” or “attack against a city.”

1 cup Literally, “20 shekels.”

3 cups Literally, “1/6 hin.”

unclean bread Bread that touched something unclean. If a person ate this bread, then that person could not join in worshipping God. See Lev. 11-15 for rules about clean and unclean things.

unclean meat—not from the time I was a little baby until today. None of that bad meat ever entered my mouth.”

<sup>15</sup>Then God said to me, “Ok! I will let you use dry cow dung to cook your bread. You don’t have to use dry human dung.”

<sup>16</sup>Then God said to me, “Son of man,* I am destroying Jerusalem’s supply of bread. People will have only a little bread to eat. They will be very worried about their food supply. And they will have only a little water to drink. They will be very scared when they drink that water. <sup>17</sup>Why? Because there won’t be enough food and water for the people. People will be terrified of each other—they will see each other wasting away because of their sins.

5 <sup>12</sup>“Son of man,* after your time of hunger* you must do these things. You must get a sharp sword. Use that sword like a barber’s razor. Shave off your hair and beard. Put the hair on a scale and weigh it. Separate your hair into three equal parts. Put one third of your hair on the city (brick). Burn that hair in that city. This shows that some of the people will die from disease. Then use a sword and cut one third of your hair into small pieces. Put that hair around that city (brick). This will show that some of the people will die from hunger. Then throw one third of your hair into the air—let the wind blow it far away. This will show that I will chase some of the people into faraway countries. <sup>3</sup>But then you must go and get a few of those hairs. Bring those hairs back and cover them and protect them. This will show that I will bring a few of my people back to me. <sup>4</sup>And then get some more of those hairs that blew away. Throw those hairs into the fire. This shows that a fire will burn and destroy the whole house of Israel.*”

<sup>5</sup>Then the Lord my Master said to me, “I have taken the people from this city of Jerusalem. And I have spread them among other nations. Those people are now in the other countries around Israel. <sup>6</sup>Those people rebelled against my commands. They were worse than any of the other nations! They broke more of my laws than any of the people in the countries around them. They refused to listen to my commands! They did not obey my laws!”

<sup>7</sup>So, the Lord my Master says, “I will do terrible things to you! Why? Because you did not obey my laws. You did not obey my commands. You broke more of my laws than the people that live around you! And you even did things those people say are wrong!” <sup>8</sup>So the Lord my Master says, “So now I will show you what justice means—I will punish you so those other people can see. <sup>9</sup>I will do things to you that I have never done before. And I will never do those terrible things again! Why? Because you did so many terrible things. <sup>10</sup>People in Jerusalem will be so hungry that fathers will eat their own children. And children will eat their own fathers. I will punish you in many ways. And the people that are left alive, I will scatter them to the winds.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord my Master says, “Jerusalem, I promise by my life that I will punish you. I promise that I will punish you! Why? Because you did terrible things to my Holy Place. You did horrible things that made it dirty! I will punish you! I won’t show any mercy. I will not feel sorry for you! <sup>12</sup>One third of your people will die from diseases. One third of your people will die from hunger. And I will scatter one third of your people to the winds. Your enemy will chase them with swords. And the people living around you will kill them in war! Only then will I stop being angry at you. <sup>13</sup>Only then will I stop being angry at your people. I will know that they have been punished for the bad things they did to me. And they will know that I am the Lord, and that I spoke to them because of my strong love* for them!”

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

your time of hunger Or, “your attack on the city.” See Ez. 4:8.

house of Israel This probably means the people of the northern ten family groups of Israel.

strong love The Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.

<sup>14</sup>God said, “Jerusalem, I will destroy you—you will be nothing but a pile of rocks. The people around you will make fun of you. Every person that walks by will make fun of you, but you will also be a lesson for them. They will see that I was angry and punished you. I was very angry. I warned you. I, the Lord, told you what I would do! <sup>16</sup>I told you I would send you terrible times of hunger. I told you I would send you things that would destroy you! And those times of hunger came again and again. I took away your supply of food. <sup>17</sup>I sent that time of hunger—and it was like a wild animal that killed your children. There was disease and death all through the city. And I brought those enemy soldiers to fight against you. I, the Lord, told you all these things would happen—and they all happened!”

6 Then the word of the Lord came to me again. <sup>2</sup>He said, “Son of man,* turn towards the mountains of Israel. Speak against them for me. <sup>3</sup>Tell those mountains these things:

“Mountains of Israel, listen to this message from the Lord my Master! The Lord my Master says these things to the hills and mountains, and to the ravines and valleys. Look! I (God) am bringing the enemy to fight against you. I will destroy your high places.* <sup>4</sup>Your altars* will be broken into pieces! Your incense* altars will be smashed! And I will throw down your dead bodies in front of your filthy idols. <sup>5</sup>I will put the dead bodies of the people of Israel in front of their filthy idols. I will scatter your bones around your altars. <sup>6</sup>Bad things will happen wherever your people live. Their cities will become piles of rock. Their high places will be destroyed. Why? So that those places of worship will never be used again. Those altars

high places Places for worshipping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.

will all be destroyed. People will never worship those filthy idols again. Those incense altars will be smashed. All the things you made will be completely destroyed! <sup>7</sup>Your people will be killed. And then you will know that I am the Lord!”

<sup>8</sup>God said, “But I will let a few of your people escape. They will live in other countries for a short time. I will scatter them and force them to live in other countries. <sup>9</sup>Then those survivors* will be taken prisoners. They will be forced to live in other countries. But those survivors will remember me. I broke their spirit.* They will hate themselves for the bad things they did. In the past, they turned away from me and left me. They chased after their filthy idols. They were like a woman leaving her husband and running after some other man. They did many terrible things. <sup>10</sup>But they will know that I am the Lord. And they will know that if I say that I will do something, then I will do it! They will know that I caused all of the bad things that happened to them.”

<sup>11</sup>Then the Lord my Master said to me, “Clap your hands and stamp your feet. Speak against all the terrible things that the people of Israel have done. Warn them that they will be killed by disease and hunger. Tell them they will be killed in war. <sup>12</sup>People far away will die from disease. People near this place will be killed with swords. And the people that are left in the city will starve to death. Only then will I stop being angry. <sup>13</sup>And only then will you know that I am the Lord. You will know this when you see your dead bodies in front of your filthy idols and around their altars. Those bodies will be near every one of your places of worship—on every high hill and mountain, under every green tree and every oak tree with leaves. In all those places you offered your sacrifices. They were a sweet smell for your filthy idols. <sup>14</sup>But I raised my arm over you people and punished you! I destroyed your

spirit Literally, “heart.”

country! It is more empty than Diblah Desert.* Now, in every place that your people live, they know that I am the Lord!"

7 Then the word of the Lord came to me. <sup>2</sup>He said, "Now, Son of man,* here is a message from the Lord my Master. This message is for the land of Israel.

The end.

The end has come.

The whole country is destroyed.

<sup>3</sup> Now, your end has come.

I will show how angry I am at you.

I will punish you for the bad things you did.

I will make you pay for all the terrible things you did.

<sup>4</sup> I won't show you any mercy.

I won't feel sorry for you.

I am punishing you for the bad things you did.

You have done such terrible things.

Now, you will know that I am the Lord."

"There will be one disaster. One bad thing will happen: the end is coming! The end is coming. And it will happen very soon! <sup>7</sup>You people living in Israel, do you hear the whistle? The enemy is coming. That time of punishment is coming very soon! The noise of the enemy is getting louder and louder on the mountains. <sup>8</sup>Very soon now, I will show you how angry I am. I will show all of my anger against you. I will punish you for the bad things you did. I will make you pay for all the terrible things you did. <sup>9</sup>I won't show you any mercy. I won't feel sorry for you. You have done such terrible things. Now you will know that I am the Lord and that I punished you.

<sup>10</sup>"That time of punishment has come. Do you hear the whistle? God gave the signal. The punishment is starting. The walking stick has started sprouting.* The proud king, (Nebuchadnezzar) has already begun to grow more powerful. <sup>11</sup>That violent man is ready to punish those evil people. There are very many people in Israel,—but he is not one of them. He is not a person in that crowd. He is not some important leader from those people.

<sup>12</sup>"That time of punishment has come. That day is here. People that buy things won't be happy. And people that sell things won't feel bad about selling them. Why? Because that terrible punishment will happen to every person. <sup>13</sup>The people that sold their property* will never go back to it. Even if a person escapes alive, he will never go back to his property. Why? Because this vision* is for the whole crowd of people. So even if a person escapes alive, it won't make people feel better.

<sup>14</sup>"They will blow the trumpet to warn the people. The people will get ready for battle. But they won't go out to fight. Why? Because I will show the whole crowd how angry I am. <sup>15</sup>The enemy with his sword is outside the city. Disease and hunger is inside the city. If a person goes out into the fields, then an enemy soldier will kill him. If he stays in the city, hunger and disease will destroy him.

<sup>16</sup>"But some of the people will escape. Those survivors will run to the mountains. But those people won't be happy. They will be sad for all their sins. They will cry and make sad noises like doves. <sup>17</sup>People will be too tired and sad to raise their arms. Their legs will be like water. <sup>18</sup>They will wear clothes of sadness and be covered with fear. You will see the shame on every face. They will shave their heads to show their sadness. <sup>19</sup>They will throw their gold and silver idols into the streets. Why?

The ... sprouting This might refer to the time God made Aaron's walking grow buds. During this time, some Levites turned against Moses and Aaron, and God completely destroyed those Levites. See Num. 16:1-17:11.

sold their property In ancient Israel property did not belong to a person, it belonged to a family. A person might sell his property, but at the time of Jubilees his family would get the land back. Here, Ezekiel says the people will never get their property again.

vision Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.

Diblah Desert This is probably "Riblah Desert."

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person," or "a human being." But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

Because those statues could not save them when the Lord showed his anger. Those statues were nothing but a trap that caused the people to fall (sin). Those statues will not give food to the people. Those statues won't put food in their bellies.

<sup>20</sup>“Those people used their beautiful jewelry and made an idol. They were proud of that statue. They made their terrible statues. They made those filthy things. So I (God) will throw them away like a dirty rag. <sup>21</sup>I will let strangers take them. Those strangers will make fun of them. Those strangers will kill some of the people and take others away as prisoners. <sup>22</sup>I will turn my head away from them—I won't look at them. Those strangers will ruin my temple—they will go into the secret parts of that holy building and make it not holy.

<sup>23</sup>“Make chains for the prisoners! Why? Because many people will be punished for killing other people. There will be violence every place in the city. <sup>24</sup>I will bring evil people from other nations. And those evil people will get all the houses of the people of Israel. I will stop all of you powerful people from being so proud. Those people from other nations will get all your places of worship.

<sup>25</sup>“You people will shake with fear. You will look for peace, but there will be none. <sup>26</sup>You will hear one sad story after another. You will hear nothing but bad news. You will look for a prophet and ask him for a vision.* But there won't be one. The priests will have nothing to teach you. And the elders (leaders) won't have any good advice to give you. <sup>27</sup>Your king will be crying for the people that died. The leaders will wear clothes of sadness. The common people will be very scared. Why? Because I will pay them back for the things they did. I will decide their punishment. And I will punish them. Then those people will know that I am the Lord.”

8 One day I (Ezekiel) was sitting in my house, and the elders (leaders) of Judah were sitting there in front of me. This was on the fifth day of the sixth month (August) of the sixth year of exile. Suddenly, the power of the Lord my Master came on me. <sup>1</sup>I saw something that looked like fire. It looked like a man's body. From the waist up, he was bright and shining like hot metal* in a fire. <sup>2</sup>Then I saw something that looked like an arm. The arm reached out and grabbed me by the hair on my head. Then the wind* lifted me into the air. And in God's vision,* he took me to Jerusalem. He took me to the inner gate—the gate that is on the north side. That statue that makes God jealous is by that gate. <sup>4</sup>But the Glory of the God of Israel was there. The Glory looked just like the vision I saw in the valley by Kebar Canal.

<sup>5</sup>God spoke to me. He said, “Son of man,* look towards the north!” So I looked towards the north. And there, north of the Altar Gate by the entrance, was that statue that made God jealous.

<sup>6</sup>Then God said to me, “Son of man,* do you see what terrible things the people of Israel are doing? They built that thing here, right next to my temple! And if you come with me, you will see even more terrible things!”

<sup>7</sup>So I went to the entrance to the courtyard, and I saw a hole in the wall. <sup>8</sup>God said to me, “Son of man,* go through that hole in the wall.” So I went through the hole in the wall. And there I saw a door.

<sup>9</sup>Then God said to me, “Go in and look at the terrible, evil things that the people are doing here.” <sup>10</sup>So I went in and looked. I saw statues of all kinds of reptiles* and animals that you hate to think about. Those statues were the filthy idols that the people of Israel worshiped. There were pictures of those animals carved all around on every wall!

<sup>11</sup>Then I noticed that Jaazaniah son of Shapham and the 70 elders (leaders) of Israel

hot metal We are not sure of the meaning of this Hebrew word. It might mean, “melted copper” or “amber.”

wind Or, “Spirit.”

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

reptiles The Hebrew word can mean, “lizards,” “snakes,” and “all kinds of bugs and insects.”

vision Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.

were there with the people worshiping in that place. There they were, right at the front of the people! And each leader had his own incense\* dish in his hand. The smoke from the burning incense was rising into the air. <sup>12</sup>Then  $\text{God}$ , said to me, "Son of man,\* do you see what the elders of Israel do in the dark? Each man has a special room for his own false god! Those men say to themselves, 'The Lord can't see us. The Lord left this country.'" <sup>13</sup>Then  $\text{God}$ , said to me, "If you come with me, you will see those men doing even more terrible things!"

<sup>14</sup>Then  $\text{God}$ , led me to the entrance to the Lord's temple. This gate was on the north side. And there I saw women sitting and crying. They were sad about the false god Tammuz!\*

<sup>15</sup> $\text{God}$ , said to me, "Son of man,\* do you see these terrible things? Come with me and you will see things that are even worse than this!" <sup>16</sup>Then he led me to the inner courtyard of the Lord's temple. At that place, I saw 25 men bowing down and worshiping. They were between the porch and the altar—but they were facing the wrong way! Their backs were to the Holy Place. They were bowing down to worship the sun!

<sup>17</sup>Then  $\text{God}$ , said, "Son of man,\* do you see this? The people of Judah think my temple is so unimportant that they will do these terrible things here in my temple! This country is filled with violence. And they constantly do things to make me mad. Look, they are wearing rings in their noses to honor the moon like a false god!\*" <sup>18</sup>I will show them my anger! I won't show them any mercy! I will not feel sorry for them! They will shout to me—but I refuse to listen to them!"

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

Tammuz People thought this false god died and his wife Ishtar asked everyone to be sad and cry with her. Ishtar hoped this would bring him back to life. This ceremony was on the 2nd day of the fourth month (June/July). This month was named Tammuz because of this holiday.

Look ... god Or, "Look at them putting that cut branch in their noses."

9 Then  $\text{God}$ , shouted to the leaders in charge of punishing, the city. Each leader had his own destructive weapon in his hand.\* <sup>2</sup>Then I saw six men walking on the road from the upper gate. This gate is on the north side. Each man had his own deadly weapon in his hand. One of the men wore linen clothes.\* He wore a scribe's pen and ink set\* at his waist. Those men went to the bronze altar in the temple, and stood there. <sup>3</sup>Then the Glory of the  $\text{God}$  of Israel rose from above the Cherub angels\* where he had been. Then the Glory went to the door of the temple. He stopped when he was over the threshold. Then the Glory called to the man wearing the linen clothes and the scribe's pen and ink set.

<sup>4</sup>Then the Lord (Glory) said to him, "Go through the city of Jerusalem. Put a mark on the forehead of every person that feels sad and upset about all the terrible things people are doing in this city."

<sup>5</sup>Then I heard  $\text{God}$ , say to the other men, "I want you to follow the first man. You must kill every person that does not have the mark on his forehead. It does not matter if they are elders (leaders), young men or young women; children or mothers—you must use your weapon and kill every person that does not have the mark on his forehead. Don't show any mercy. Don't feel sorry for any person! Start here at my temple." So they started with the elders (leaders) in front of the temple.

<sup>6</sup>God said to them, "Make this place unclean*—fill this courtyard with dead bodies!! Now go!" So they went and killed the people in the city.

<sup>7</sup>I stayed there while those men went to kill the people. I bowed with my face to the ground and said, "Oh Lord my Master, in showing your anger against Jerusalem, are you killing all the survivors in Israel?"

Each ... hand In Hebrew, this is like Ez. 8:11.

linen clothes Priests usually wore these clothes.

scribe's ... set A scribe was a person that copied official documents and counted supplies and things. He often carried a small board with dry ink in it and a pen. He could put water on the ink and then write with it.

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

<sup>9</sup>God<sub>1</sub> said, “The family of Israel and Judah have done many, many very bad sins! People are being murdered everywhere in this country. And this city is filled with crime. Why? Because the people say to themselves, ‘The Lord left this country. He can’t see the things we are doing.’ <sup>10</sup>And I won’t show any mercy. I won’t feel sorry for these people. They brought it on themselves—I am only giving these people the punishment they deserve!”

<sup>11</sup>Then the man wearing linen clothes and a scribe’s pen and ink set* spoke up. He said, “I have done what you commanded.”

10 Then I looked up at the bowl* over the heads of the Cherub angels.* The bowl looked clear blue like sapphire. And there was something that looked like a throne over the bowl. He (God) could be seen there. <sup>2</sup>Then he said to the man dressed in linen clothes, “Come into the stormcloud.* Come to the area under the Cherub angels. Take some of the burning coals from between the Cherub angels. Carry the coals in your hands and go throw them over the city of Jerusalem.”

The man walked past me. <sup>3</sup>The Cherub angels* were standing in the area south of the temple when the man walked into the cloud. The cloud filled the inner courtyard. <sup>4</sup>Then the Glory of the Lord rose up off of the Cherub angels. Those angels were standing on the threshold of the door of the temple. Then the cloud filled the temple. And the bright light from the Glory of the Lord filled the whole courtyard. <sup>5</sup>Then I heard the wings of the Cherub angels. The sound was very loud—like the thundering voice when God All-Powerful speaks. The noise of the wings could be heard all the way out in the outer courtyard.

scribe’s ... set A scribe was a person that copied official documents and counted supplies and things. He often carried a small board with dry ink in it and a pen. He could put water on the ink and then write with it.

bowl This Hebrew word is the same word used in Gen. 1:6-7 to describe the dome over the sky.

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

stormcloud This is probably the windstorm or cloud described in chapter 1. The Hebrew word might also mean “wheel” or possibly “chariot.”

<sup>6</sup>God<sub>1</sub> had given the man dressed in linen clothes a command. God<sub>1</sub> had told him to go into the stormcloud* and get some hot coals from between the Cherub angels.* So the man went into the stormcloud<sub>1</sub> and stood by one of the wheels. <sup>7</sup>One of the Cherub angels reached out his arm and took some of the hot coals from the area between the Cherub angels. He poured the coals into the man’s hands. And the man left. (<sup>8</sup>The Cherub angels had what looked like human arms under their wings.)

<sup>9</sup>Then I noticed that there were four wheels. There was one wheel by each Cherub angel.* And the wheels looked like a clear yellow jewel. <sup>10</sup>There were four wheels, and all the wheels looked the same. They looked like there was a wheel in a wheel. <sup>11</sup>Whenever they moved, all four of them moved at the same time. But the Cherub angels<sub>1</sub> did not turn around when they moved. They went in the direction that the head was looking. They did not turn around when they moved. <sup>12</sup>There were eyes all over their bodies. There were eyes on their backs, on their arms, on their wings, and on their wheels. Yes, there were eyes on<sub>1</sub> all four wheels! <sup>13</sup>The stormcloud* spoke to the four wheels—I heard it!

<sup>14-15</sup>Each Cherub angel* had four faces. The first face was a Cherub’s face.* The second face was a man’s face. The third face was a lion’s face. And the fourth face was an eagle’s face. The Cherub angels were the animals I saw in the vision by Kebar Canal.*

Then the Cherub angels* rose into the air. <sup>16</sup>And the wheels rose with them. The wheels did not change direction when the Cherub angels raised their wings and flew into the air. <sup>17</sup>If the Cherub angels flew into the air, the wheels went with them. If the Cherub angels stood still, so did the wheels. Why? Because the wind* (power) of the animal was in them.

Cherub angel Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

Cherub’s face This is the bull’s face mentioned in Ez. 1:10. See Ez. 10:22.

vision ... Canal See Ez. 1.

wind Or, “Spirit.”

<sup>1</sup>Then the Glory of the Lord rose from the threshold of the temple, moved to the place over the Cherub angels* and stopped there. <sup>2</sup>Then the Cherub angels raised their wings and flew into the air. I saw them leave the temple! The wheels went with them. Then they stopped at the East Gate of the Lord's temple. The Glory of the God of Israel was in the air above them.

<sup>2</sup>Then I remembered the animals under the Glory of the God of Israel in the vision at Kebar Canal. And I realized those animals were Cherub angels. <sup>2</sup>Each animal had four faces, four wings, and something that looked like human arms under their wings. <sup>2</sup>The faces of the Cherub angels were the same as the four faces on the animals in the vision by Kebar Canal. And they all looked straight ahead in the direction they were going.

11 Then the wind* carried me to the East Gate of the Lord's temple. This gate faces the east, where the sun comes up. I saw 25 men there at the entrance of this gate. Jaazaniah son of Azzur was with those men. And Pelatiah son of Benaiah was there. Pelatiah was the leader of the people.

<sup>2</sup>Then God, spoke to me. He said, "Son of man,* these are the men who make evil plans for this city. These men always tell the people to do bad things. <sup>3</sup>These men say, 'We will be building our houses again very soon. We are as safe in this city as meat in a pot!' <sup>4</sup>They are telling these lies. So you must speak to the people for me. Son of man, go prophesy to the people."

<sup>5</sup>Then the Spirit of the Lord came on me. He said to me, "Tell them that the Lord said these things: House of Israel, you are planning big things. But I know what you are thinking! <sup>6</sup>You have killed many people in this city. You have filled the streets with dead bodies. <sup>7</sup>Now, the Lord our Master says these things, 'Those dead bodies are the meat. And the city is the pot. But he (Nebuchadnezzar) will come and take you out of this safe pot! <sup>8</sup>You are afraid of the sword. But I am bringing the sword against you!' <sup>9</sup>The Lord our Master said these things. So they will happen!,"

<sup>9</sup>God also said, "I will take you people out of this city. And I will give you to strangers. I will punish you! <sup>10</sup>You will die by the sword. I will punish you here in Israel, so you will know that I am the One punishing you. I am the Lord. <sup>11</sup>Yes, this place will be the cooking pot! And you will be the meat cooking in it! I will punish you here in Israel. <sup>12</sup>Then you will know that I am the Lord. It was my law that you broke! You did not obey my commands. You decided to live like the nations around you."

<sup>13</sup>As soon as I finished speaking for God, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died! I fell to the ground. I bowed with my face touching the ground and said, "Oh, Lord my Master, you are going to completely destroy all the survivors of Israel!"

<sup>14</sup>But then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>15</sup>"Son of man,* remember your brothers, the family of Israel, that were forced to leave this country. Those people live in a country far away from here. But the people living here in Jerusalem are really the people that are far away from the Lord. Israel does not belong to these bad people. This land belongs to us!"

<sup>16</sup>"So tell those people these things: The Lord our Master says, "It is true, I forced my people to go far away to other nations. I did scatter them among many countries. And they will be sad about my temple for a short time in those other countries. <sup>17</sup>So you must tell those people that the Lord their Master will bring them back. I have scattered you among many nations. But I will gather you together and bring you back from those nations. I will give the land of Israel back to you! <sup>18</sup>And when my people come back, they will destroy all the terrible, filthy idols that are here now. <sup>19</sup>I will bring them together and make them like one person. I will put a new spirit* in them. I will take away that heart of stone, and I will put a real heart in its place. <sup>20</sup>Then they will obey my laws. They will obey my commands. They will do the things I tell them. They will truly be my people, and I will be their God.”

<sup>21</sup>Then God said, “But now, their hearts belong to those terrible, filthy idols. And I must punish those people for the bad things they did.” The Lord my Master said those things. <sup>22</sup>And then the Cherub angels* raised their wings and flew into the air. The wheels went with them. And the Glory of the God of Israel was above them. <sup>23</sup>The Glory of the Lord rose into the air and left Jerusalem. He stopped for a moment on the hill east of Jerusalem.* <sup>24</sup>Then the wind* lifted me into the air and brought me back to Babylonia. It brought me back to the people that were forced to leave Israel. Then, in the vision, the Spirit* of the Lord rose into the air and left me. I saw all of those things in the vision. <sup>25</sup>And I spoke to the people in exile. I told them about all the things the Lord showed me.

12 Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>1</sup>“Son of man,* you live among rebellious people—they always turn against me. They have eyes to see the things I have done for them. But they don’t see those things. They have ears to hear the things I told them to do. But they don’t hear my commands. Why? Because they are rebellious people. <sup>2</sup>So, Son of man,* pack your bags. Act like you are going to a faraway country. Do this so the people can see you. Maybe they will see you—but they are very rebellious people.

your bag on your shoulder and leave. Cover your face so you can’t see where you are going. You must do these things so the people can see you. Why? Because I am using you as an example to the family of Israel.”

<sup>6</sup>So I (Ezekiel) did as I was commanded. During the day, I took my bags and acted like I was going to a faraway country. That evening I used my hands and made a hole in the wall. During the night I put my bag on my shoulder and left. I did this so all the people could see me.

<sup>7</sup>The next morning, the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>8</sup>“Son of man,* did those rebellious people of Israel ask you what you were doing? <sup>9</sup>Tell them that the Lord their Master said these things. This sad message is about the leader of Jerusalem and all the people of Israel living there. <sup>10</sup>Tell them, ‘I (Ezekiel) am an example for all you people. The things I have done will really happen to you.’ You really will be forced to go to a faraway country as prisoners. <sup>11</sup>And your leader will make a hole in the wall and sneak out at night. He will cover his face so people won’t recognize him. His eyes won’t be able to see where he is going. <sup>12</sup>He will try to escape. But I (God) will catch him! He will be caught in my trap. And I will bring him to Babylonia—the land of the Chaldean people. But he will not be able to see where he is going. The enemy will poke out his eyes and make him blind. <sup>13</sup>I will force the king’s people to live in the foreign countries around Israel. And I will scatter his army to the winds. And the enemy soldiers will chase after them. <sup>14</sup>Then those people will know that I am the Lord. They will know that I scattered them among the nations. They will know that I forced them to go to other countries.

<sup>15</sup>“But I will let a few of the people live. They won’t die from the disease, hunger, and war. I will let those people live so they can tell other people about the terrible things they did against me. And then they will know that I am the Lord.”

<sup>16</sup>Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>17</sup>“Son of man,* you must act like you are very scared. You must shake when you eat your food. You must act worried and afraid when you drink your water. <sup>19</sup>You must tell these things to the common people. You must say, "The Lord our Master says these things to the people living in Jerusalem and in the other parts of Israel. You people will be very worried while you eat your food. You will be terrified while you drink your water. Why? Because all the things in your country will be destroyed! The enemy will be very cruel to all the people living there. <sup>20</sup>Many people live in your cities now—but those cities will be ruined. Your whole country will be destroyed! Then you will know that I am the Lord."

<sup>21</sup>Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>22</sup>"Son of man,* why do people say this poem about the land of Israel:

Trouble won't come soon,
the visions won't happen.

<sup>23</sup>"Tell those people that the Lord their Master will stop that poem. They won't say those things about Israel any more. Now they will say this poem:

Trouble will come soon,
the visions will happen.

<sup>24</sup>It is true, there won't be any more false visions in Israel. There won't be any more magicians telling things that don't come true. <sup>25</sup>Why? Because I am the Lord. And I will say what I want to say, and that thing will happen! And I won't let the time stretch out. Those troubles are coming soon—in your own lifetime. You rebellious people, when I say something, I make it happen." The Lord my Master said those things.

<sup>26</sup>Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>27</sup>"Son of man,* the people of Israel think that the visions I give you are for a time far in the future. They think you are talking about things that will happen many, many years from now. <sup>28</sup>So you must tell them these things, 'The Lord my Master says: I won't delay any longer. If I say something will happen, then it will happen!'" The Lord my Master said those things.

13 Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>1</sup>"Son of man,* you must speak to the prophets of Israel for me. (Those prophets are not really speaking for me.) Those prophets are saying things they want to say. So you must speak to them. Tell them these things, 'Listen to this message from the Lord! <sup>2</sup>The Lord my Master says these things. Bad things will happen to you foolish prophets. You are following your own spirits. You are not telling people what you really see, in visions..

<sup>3</sup>"Israel, your prophets will be like foxes running through empty, destroyed buildings. <sup>4</sup>You have not put soldiers near the broken walls of the city. You have not built walls to protect the family of Israel. So when the day comes for the Lord to punish you, you will lose the war!

<sup>5</sup>"False prophets said they saw visions. They did their magic and said things would happen—but they lied. They said the Lord sent them—but they lied. They are still waiting for their lies to come true.

<sup>6</sup>"False prophets, the visions you saw were not true. You did your magic and said things would happen. But you lied! You said that the Lord said those things. But I did not speak to you!"

<sup>7</sup>So now, the Lord my Master really will speak! He says, "You told lies. You saw visions that were not true. So now I (God) am against you!" The Lord my Master said these things. <sup>8</sup>The Lord says, "I will punish the prophets that saw false visions and told lies. I will remove them from my people. Their names won't be in the list of the family of Israel. They will never again come to the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord and Master!

<sup>9</sup>Again and again those false prophet lied to my people. The prophets said there would be peace. And there is no peace. The people need to fix the walls and prepare for war. But they only slap a thin coat of plaster* over the broken plaster A type of cement people put on stone walls to make them smooth and waterproof. This is also a word play. The Hebrew word is like the word meaning, "It will fall."

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person," or "a human being." But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

walls. <sup>11</sup>Tell those men that I will send hail and a strong rain (enemy army). The wind will blow hard and a tornado will come. Then the wall will fall down. <sup>12</sup>The wall will fall down. And the people will ask the prophets, "What happened to the plaster you put on the wall?"

<sup>13</sup>The Lord my Master says, "I am angry and I will send a storm against you. I am angry and I will send a strong rain. I am angry and I will make hail fall from the sky and completely destroy you! <sup>14</sup>You put plaster* on the wall. But I will destroy the whole wall. I will pull it to the ground. The wall will fall on you. And then you will know that I am the Lord. <sup>15</sup>I will finish showing my anger against the wall and the people that put plaster on it. Then I will say, 'There is no wall. And there are no workers to put plaster on it.'

<sup>16</sup>"All those things will happen to the false prophets of Israel. Those prophets speak to the people of Jerusalem. Those prophets say there will be peace, but there is no peace." The Lord my Master said those things.

<sup>17</sup>[God said,] "Son of man,* look at the women prophets in Israel. Those women prophets don't speak for me. They say the things they want to say. So you must speak against them for me. You must say these things to them. <sup>18</sup>"The Lord my Master says these things: Bad things will happen to you women. You sew cloth bracelets for people to wear on their arms. You make special scarves for people to wear on their heads. You say those things have magic powers, to control people's lives. You trap those people only to keep yourselves alive! <sup>19</sup>You make the people think I am not important. You turn them against me for a few handfuls of barley and a few scraps of bread. You tell lies to my people. Those people love to listen to lies. You kill people that should live. And you let people live that should die. <sup>20</sup>So the Lord and Master says these things to you: You make those cloth bracelets to trap people—but I will set those people free. I will tear those bracelets off your arms, and the people will be free from you. They will be like birds flying from a trap! <sup>21</sup>And I will tear up those scarves, and save my people from your power. Those people will escape from your trap. And you will know that I am the Lord.

<sup>22</sup>"You prophets tell lies. Your lies hurt good people—I did not want to hurt those good people! You support bad people and encourage them. You don't tell them to change their lives. You don't try to save their lives! <sup>23</sup>So you won't see any more useless visions. You won't do any more magic. I will save my people from your power. And you will know that I am the Lord."

14 Some of the elders (leaders) of Israel came to me. They sat down to talk with me. <sup>2</sup>The word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>3</sup>"Son of man,* these men came to talk to you. (They wanted you to ask me for advice.) But these men still have their filthy idols. They kept the things that made them sin. They still worship those statues. So why do they come to me for advice? Should I answer their questions? No! <sup>4</sup>But I will give them an answer. I will punish them! You must tell those people these things. 'The Lord my Master says: If any Israelite comes to a prophet and asks me for advice, then the prophet won't give that person an answer. I myself will answer that person's question. I will answer him even if he still has his filthy idols, even if he kept the things that made him sin, and even if he still worships those statues. I will speak to him in spite of all his filthy idols. <sup>5</sup>Why? Because I want to touch their heart. I want to show them I love them, even though they left me for their filthy idols.'

<sup>6</sup>"So tell the family of Israel these things. Tell them, 'The Lord my Master says: Come back to me, and leave your filthy idols. Turn away from those terrible false gods. <sup>7</sup>If any Israelite or foreigner living in Israel comes to me for advice, I will give him an answer. I will answer him even if he still has his filthy idols and even if he kept the things that made him sin and even if he worships those statues. And this is the answer I will give him: 'I will turn against that person. I will destroy him. He will be an example to other people. People will laugh at him. I will remove him from my people. Then you will know that I am the Lord!'<sup>9</sup> And if a prophet is foolish enough to give his own answer, then I will show him how foolish he is! I will use my power against him. I will destroy him and remove him from among my people, Israel.<sup>10</sup> So, both the person that came for advice and the prophet that gave an answer will get the same punishment.<sup>11</sup> Why? So those prophets will stop leading my people away from me. And so my people will stop becoming filthy with their sins. Then they will be my special people. And I will be their God.'" The Lord my Master said those things.

<sup>12</sup>Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>13</sup>"Son of man,* I will punish any nation that leaves me and sins against me. I will stop their food supply. I might cause a time of hunger and remove the people and animals from that country.<sup>14</sup> I would punish that country, even if Noah, Danel, and Job* lived there. Those men could save their own lives by their goodness, but they could not save the whole country." The Lord my Master said these things.

<sup>15</sup>God said, "Or, I might send wild animals through that country. And those animals might kill all the people. No person would travel through that country because of the wild animals.<sup>16</sup> If Noah, Danel, and Job lived there, then I would save those three good men. Those three men could save their own lives. But by my life I promise, they could not save the lives of other people—not even their own sons and daughters! That evil country would be destroyed!" The Lord my Master said these things.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person," or "a human being." But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

Noah ... Job Three men from ancient times. They were famous for being very good and wise men. Stories about Noah and Job are in the Bible. Stories about Danel are in writings from Ras Shamra.

<sup>17</sup>God said, "Or, I might send an enemy army to fight against that country. Those soldiers would destroy that country—I would remove all the people and animals from that country.<sup>18</sup> If Noah, Danel, and Job lived there, then I would save those three good men. Those three men could save their own lives. But by my life I promise, they could not save the lives of other people—not even their own sons and daughters! That evil country would be destroyed!" The Lord my Master said these things.

<sup>19</sup>God said, "Or, I might send a disease against that country. I will pour my anger down on those people. I will remove all the people and animals from that country.<sup>20</sup> If Noah, Danel, and Job lived there, then I would save those three men, because they are good men. Those three men could save their own lives. But by my life I promise, they could not save the lives of other people—not even their own sons and daughters!" The Lord my Master said these things.

<sup>21</sup>Then the Lord my Master said, "So think how bad it will be for Jerusalem: I will send all four of those punishments against that city! I will send enemy soldiers, hunger, disease, and wild animals against that city. I will remove all the people and animals from that country!"<sup>22</sup> Some of the people will escape from that country. They will bring their sons and daughters and come to you for help. Then you will see how bad those people really are. And you will feel better about all the troubles that I will bring to Jerusalem.<sup>23</sup> You will see the way they live and the bad things they do. And then you will know that I had a good reason for punishing those people." The Lord my Master said these things.

15 Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>24</sup>"Son of man,* are the pieces of wood from a grapevine* any better than the little branches cut from trees in the forest? No!<sup>25</sup> Can you use that wood from a grapevine to make anything? No! Can you use that wood to hang dishes on? No! 'People only throw that wood into the fire. Some sticks begin to burn on the ends, the middles turn black from the fire, but the sticks don't burn completely. Can you make anything from that burnt stick? 'If you can't make anything from that wood before it is burned, then you surely can't make anything from that wood after it is burned! 'So the pieces of wood from a grapevine are just like pieces of wood from trees in the forest. People throw those pieces of wood into the fire. And the fire burns them. In the same way, I will throw the people living in Jerusalem into the fire!" The Lord my Master said these things. "I will punish those people. But some of those people will be like the sticks that don't burn completely—they will be punished, but they won't be destroyed completely. You will see that I punished these people, and you will know that I am the Lord! 'I will destroy that country because the people left me to worship false gods." The Lord my Master said those things.

16 Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, "Son of man,* tell the people of Jerusalem about the terrible things they have done. 'You must say, "The Lord my Master says these things to Jerusalem: Look at your history. You were born in Canaan. Your father was an Amorite. Your mother was a Hittite. 'Jerusalem, on the day you were born, there was no one to cut your naval cord. No one put salt on you and washed you to make you clean. No one wrapped you in cloth. 'Jerusalem, you were all alone. No one felt sorry for you or look care of you. Jerusalem, on the day you were born, your parents threw you out in the field. You were still covered with the blood and afterbirth.

"Then I (God) passed by. I saw you lying here, kicking in the blood. You were covered with blood but I said, "Please live!" Yes, you were covered with blood but I said, "Please live!" 'I helped you grow like a plant in the field. You grew and grew. You became a young woman: your periods began, your breasts grew, your hair began to grow. But you were still bare and naked. 'I looked you over. I saw you were ready for love. So I spread my clothes over you* and covered your nakedness. I promised to marry you. I made the agreement* with you. And you became mine. "' The Lord my Master said these things. "'I washed you in water. I washed away your blood. And I rubbed oil on your skin. 'I gave you a nice dress and soft leather shoes. I gave you a linen headband and a silk scarf. 'Then I gave you some jewelry. I put bracelets on your arms and a necklace around your neck. 'I gave you a nose ring, some earrings, and a beautiful crown to wear. 'You were beautiful in your silver and gold jewelry, and your linen, silk, and embroidered material. You ate the best foods. You were very, very beautiful. And you became the queen! 'You became famous for your beauty. And all because I made you so lovely!" The Lord my Master said these things.

"God said, "But you began to trust in your beauty. You used the good name you had and became unfaithful to me. You acted like a prostitute* with every man that passed by. You gave yourself to them all! 'You took your beautiful clothes and used them to decorate your places of worship. And you acted like a prostitute* in those places. You gave yourself to every man that came by! 'Then you took your beautiful jewelry that I gave you. And you used that gold and silver to make statues of men. And you had sex with them too! 'Then you took the beautiful cloth and made clothes for those statues. You took the perfume and incense I gave you, and you put it in front of those idols. 'I gave you bread, honey, and oil.

spread ... you This showed that he was agreeing to protect her and care for her. See Ruth 3:1-15.

agreement Here this means the marriage agreement. But it also refers to the Agreement God made with the people of Israel.

Verses 10-13 All the materials in this list are the things used in building the Holy Tent. See Ex. 25-40.

prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person," or "a human being." But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

But you gave that food to your idols. You offered them as a sweet smell to please your false gods. You acted like a prostitute with those false gods!" The Lord my Master said these things.

<sup>20</sup>God said, "You and I had children together. But you took our children. You killed them and gave them to those false gods! But that is only some of the bad things you did when you cheated on me and went to those false gods. <sup>21</sup>You slaughtered* my sons and then passed them through the fire, to those false gods. <sup>22</sup>You left me and did all those terrible things. And you never remembered the time when you were young. You did not remember that you were naked and kicking in blood when I found you.

<sup>23</sup>"After all those bad things, ... Oh Jerusalem, it will be very bad for you!" The Lord my Master said all these things. <sup>24</sup>"After all those things you made that mound for worshiping that false god. You built those places for worshiping false gods on every street corner. <sup>25</sup>You built your mounds at the head of every road. Then you degraded your beauty. You used it to catch every man that walked by. You raised your skirt so they could see your legs, and then you were like a prostitute* with those men. <sup>26</sup>Then you went to Egypt, your neighbor with the big sex organ. You had sex with him many times to make me angry. <sup>27</sup>So I punished you! I took away part of your allowance (land). I let your enemies, the daughters (cities) of the Philistines do what they wanted to you. Even they were shocked at the bad things you did. <sup>28</sup>Then you went to have sex with Assyria. You could not get enough. You were never satisfied. <sup>29</sup>So you turned to Canaan, and then to Babylonia. And still you were not satisfied. <sup>30</sup>You are so weak. You let all those men (countries) cause you to sin. You acted just like a prostitute.*" The Lord my Master said those things.

<sup>31</sup>God said, "But you were not exactly like a prostitute.* You built your mounds at the head of every road and you built your places of worship at every street corner. You had sex with all those men. But you did not ask them to pay you like a prostitute does. <sup>32</sup>You adulterous woman. You prefer having sex with strangers rather than your own husband. <sup>33</sup>Most prostitutes force men to pay them for sex. But you give yourself away to your many lovers. You invite all the men around to come in to have sex with you. <sup>34</sup>You are just the opposite of most prostitutes. Most prostitutes force men to pay them. But you pay the men to have sex with you."

<sup>35</sup>Prostitute, listen to the message from the Lord. <sup>36</sup>The Lord my Master says these things: "You have spent your money* and let your lovers and filthy gods see your naked body and have sex with you. You have killed your children and poured out their blood. This was your gift to those false gods. <sup>37</sup>So I am bringing all of your lovers together. I will bring all the men you loved and all the men you hated. I will bring them all together and let them see you naked.* They will see you completely naked: <sup>38</sup>Then I will punish you. I will punish you as a murderer and a woman that did the sin of adultery. You will be punished as if by an angry and jealous husband. <sup>39</sup>I will let those lovers have you. They will destroy your mounds. They will burn your places of worship. They will tear off your clothes and take your beautiful jewelry. They will leave you bare and naked like you were when I found you. <sup>40</sup>They will bring a crowd of people and throw rocks at you to kill you. Then they will cut you in pieces with their swords. <sup>41</sup>They will burn your house (temple). They will punish you so all the other women can see. I will stop you from living like a prostitute. I will stop you from paying money to your lovers. <sup>42</sup>Then I slaughtered Usually, this word means to kill an animal and cut it into pieces for meat. But it often means to kill people like they are animals.

prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.

spent your money Literally, "poured out your copper." This might also mean, "you have done the things that stain you with sin."

let ... naked The Hebrew words are like the word meaning, "to be carried away as a prisoner to a foreign country."

will stop being angry and jealous. I will calm down. I won't be angry any more. <sup>43</sup>Why will all these things happen? Because you did not remember what happened when you were young. You did all those bad things and made me angry. So I had to punish you for doing those bad things. But you planned even more terrible things." The Lord my Master said those things.

<sup>44</sup>"All the people that talk about you will now have one more thing to say. They will say, 'Like mother, like daughter.' <sup>45</sup>You are your mother's daughter. You don't care about your husband or your children. You are just like your sister. Both of you hated your husband and your children. You are just like your parents." Your mother was a Hittite and your father was an Amorite. <sup>46</sup>Your older sister was Samaria. She lived to the north of you with her daughters (towns). And your younger sister was Sodom.* She lived to the south of you with her daughters (towns). <sup>47</sup>You did all the terrible things they did. But you also did things that were even worse! <sup>48</sup>I am the Lord and Master. I am alive. And by my life I promise, your sister Sodom and her daughters never did as many bad things as you and your daughters."

<sup>49</sup>God said, "Your sister Sodom and her daughters were proud, they had too much to eat, and too much time on their hands. And they did not help poor, helpless people. <sup>50</sup>Sodom and her daughters became too proud and began to do terrible things in front of me. And when I saw them doing those things, I punished them."

<sup>51</sup>God said, "And Samaria did only half as many bad things as you did. You did many more terrible things than Samaria! You have done so many more terrible things than your sisters. Sodom and Samaria seem good compared to you. <sup>52</sup>So you must bear your shame. You have made your sisters look good compared to you. You have done terrible things, so you should be ashamed."

<sup>53</sup>God said, "I destroyed Sodom and the towns around it. And I destroyed Samaria around it. And Jerusalem, I will destroy you. But I will build those cities again. And Jerusalem, I will build you again too. <sup>54</sup>I will comfort you. Then you will remember the terrible things you did, and you will be ashamed. <sup>55</sup>So you and your sisters will be built again. Sodom and the towns around her, Samaria and the towns around her, and you and the towns around you will all be built again."

<sup>56</sup>God said, "In the past, you were proud and made fun of your sister Sodom. But you won't do that again. <sup>57</sup>You did that before you were punished, before your neighbors started making fun of you. The daughters (towns) of Edom* and Philistia are making fun of you now. <sup>58</sup>Now you must suffer for the terrible things you did." The Lord said these things.

<sup>59</sup>The Lord my Master said these things. "You broke your marriage promise. You did not respect our Agreement. <sup>60</sup>But I remember the agreement we made when you were young. I made an agreement with you that will continue forever! <sup>61</sup>I will bring your sisters to you, and I will make them your daughters. That was not in our agreement, but I will do that for you. Then you will remember the terrible things you did, and you will be ashamed. <sup>62</sup>So I will make my agreement with you. And you will know that I am the Lord. <sup>63</sup>I will be good to you, so you will remember me and be ashamed of the bad things you did. I will make you pure, and you will never have to be ashamed again!" The Lord my Master said those things.

17 Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man,* tell this story to the family of Israel. Ask them what it means. <sup>3</sup>Say to them:

A large eagle (Nebuchadnezzar) with big wings

Samaria ... Sodom Ezekiel is saying that the people in Judah are just as evil as the people that lived in Samaria and Sodom—And those people were so evil that God completely destroyed those cities.

Edom Or, "Aram."

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person," or "a human being." But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

came to Lebanon.

The eagle had many feathers covered with spots.

- 4 That eagle broke the top out of that big cedar tree (Lebanon) and brought it to Canaan.

The eagle set down the branch in the town of businessmen.

- 5 Then the eagle took some of the seeds (people) from Canaan.

He planted them in good soil.

He planted them by a good river.

- 6 The seeds grew and became a grapevine. It was a good vine.

The vine was not tall, but it spread to cover a large area.

The vine grew stems, and smaller vines grew very long.

- 7 Then another eagle with big wings saw the grapevine. The eagle had many feathers.

The grapevine wanted this new eagle to care for it.

So it made its roots grow toward this eagle.

Its branches stretched toward this eagle.

The branches grew away from the field it was planted in.

The grapevine wanted the new eagle to water it.

- 8 The grapevine was planted in a good field.

It was planted near plenty of water.

It could have grown branches and fruit.

It could have become a very good grapevine."

- 9 The Lord my Master said these things. "Do you think that plant will succeed?"

No! The new eagle will pull the plant from the ground.

And the bird will break the plant's roots.

It will eat up all the grapes.

Then the new leaves will become dry and die.

That plant will be very weak.

It won't take strong arms or a powerful nation to pull up that plant by the roots.

- 10 Will the plant grow where it is planted?

No! The hot east wind will blow and the plant will become dry and die.

It will die there where it was planted."

"The word of the Lord came to me. He said,<sup>12</sup> "Explain this story to the people of Israel—they always turn against me. Tell them these things: The first eagle is Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylonia. He came to Jerusalem and took away the king and other leaders. He brought them to Babylonia.<sup>13</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar made an agreement with a man from the king's family. Nebuchadnezzar forced that man to make a promise. So this man promised to be loyal to Nebuchadnezzar. Nebuchadnezzar made this man the new king of Judah. Then he took all the powerful men away from Judah.<sup>14</sup> So Judah became a weak kingdom that could not turn against King Nebuchadnezzar. The people were forced to keep the agreement Nebuchadnezzar made with the new king of Judah.<sup>15</sup> But this new king tried to rebel against Nebuchadnezzar anyway! He sent messengers to Egypt to ask for help. The new king asked for many horses and soldiers. Now, do you think the new king of Judah will succeed? Do you think the new king will have enough power to break the agreement and escape punishment?"

<sup>16</sup>The Lord my Master says, "By my life, promise this new king will die in Babylonia! Nebuchadnezzar made this man the new king of Judah. But this man broke his promise with Nebuchadnezzar. This new king ignored the agreement.<sup>17</sup> And the king of Egypt won't be able to save the king of Judah. He might send many soldiers, but Egypt's great power won't save Judah. Nebuchadnezzar's army will build dirt roads and dirt walls to capture the city. Many people will die.<sup>18</sup> But the king of Judah won't escape. Why? Because he ignored his agreement. He broke his promise to Nebuchadnezzar.<sup>19</sup> The Lord my Master make this promise: "By my life, I promise I will punish the king of Judah. Why? Because he ignored my warnings. He broke our agreement. <sup>20</sup>I will set my trap, and he will be caught in it. And I will bring him to Babylon and I will punish him in that place. I will punish him because he turned against me. <sup>21</sup>And I will destroy his army. I will destroy his best soldiers. And I will scatter the survivors to the winds. Then you will know that I am the Lord and that I told you these things.”

<sup>22</sup>The Lord my Master said these things:

“Then I will take a branch from the tall cedar tree.

I will take a small branch from the top of the tree.

And I myself will plant it on a very high mountain.

<sup>23</sup> I myself will plant it on a high mountain in Israel.

That branch will grow into a tree.

It will grow branches and make fruit.

It will become a beautiful cedar tree.

Many birds will sit on its branches.

Many birds will live in the shadows under its branches.

<sup>24</sup> “Then the other trees will know that I make tall trees fall to the ground, and I make small trees grow and become tall.

I make green trees become dry, and I make dry trees become green.

I am the Lord.

If I say that I will do something, then I will do it!”

18 The word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>24</sup>“You people keep repeating this proverb. Why? You say:

The parents ate the sour grapes,
but the children got the sour taste.

“You think you can sin, and some person in the future will be punished for it.” <sup>3</sup>But the Lord my Master says, “By my life, I promise that people in Israel won’t think this proverb is true anymore! ‘I will treat each person just the same. It won’t matter if that person is the parent or the child. The person that sins is the person that will die!

<sup>4</sup>“If a person is good, then he will live! That good person treats people fairly. <sup>6</sup>That good person does not go to the mountains and share in foods offered to false gods. He does not pray to those filthy idols in Israel. He does not do the sin of adultery with his neighbor’s wife. He does not have sex with his wife during her period. <sup>7</sup>That good person does not take advantage of people. If a person borrows money from him, the good man takes the collateral* and gives the other person the money. And when that person pays him back, then the good man gives the collateral back. The good person gives food to hungry people. And he gives clothes to people that need them. <sup>8</sup>If a person wants to borrow money, the good man lends him the money. And he does not charge interest on that loan. The good man refuses to be crooked. He is always fair with every person. People can trust him. <sup>9</sup>He obeys my laws. He thinks about my decisions and learns to be fair and dependable. He is a good person, so he will live.

<sup>10</sup>“But that good person might have a son that does not do any of those good things. The son might steal things and kill people. <sup>11</sup>The son might do any of these bad things. He might go to the mountains and share in foods offered to false gods. That evil son might do the sin of adultery with his neighbor’s wife. <sup>12</sup>He might mistreat poor, helpless people. He might take advantage of people. He might not give back the collateral* when a person pays his debt. That evil son might pray to those filthy idols and do other terrible things. <sup>13</sup>A person might need to borrow money from that evil son. The son might lend him the money, but he will force that person to pay interest on that loan. So that evil son won’t live. He did terrible things, so he will be put to death. And he is responsible for his own death.

<sup>14</sup>“Now, that evil son might also have a son. But this son might see the bad things his father

did, and he might refuse to live like his father. That good son treats people fairly. <sup>15</sup>That good son does not go to the mountains and share in foods offered to false gods. He does not pray to those filthy idols in Israel. He does not do the sin of adultery with his neighbor's wife. <sup>16</sup>That good son does not take advantage of people. If a person borrows money from him, the good son takes the collateral* and gives the other person the money. And when that person pays him back, then the good son gives the collateral back. The good son gives food to hungry people. And he gives clothes to people that need them. <sup>17</sup>He helps poor people. If a person wants to borrow money, the good son lends him the money. And he does not charge interest on that loan! The good son obeys my laws and follows my laws. That good son will not be put to death for his father's sins! That good son will live. <sup>18</sup>The father might hurt people and steal things. He might never do anything good for my people! That father will die because of his own sins. But the son won't be punished for his father's sins.

<sup>19</sup>"You might ask, 'Why won't the son be punished for his father's sins?' The reason is that the son was fair and did good things! He very carefully obeyed my laws! So he will live. <sup>20</sup>The person that sins is the person that will be put to death! A son won't be punished for his father's sins. And a father won't be punished for his son's sins. A good man's goodness belongs to him alone. And a bad man's evil belongs to him alone.

<sup>21</sup>"Now, if a bad person changes his life then he will live and not die. That person might stop doing all the bad things he did. He might begin to carefully obey all my laws. He might become fair and good. <sup>22</sup>God won't remember all the bad things he did. God will remember only his goodness! So that man will live!"

<sup>23</sup>The Lord my Master says, "I don't want bad people to die. I want them to change their lives so they can live!

<sup>24</sup>"Now, maybe a good man might stop being good. He might change his life and begin to do all the terrible things that bad person had done in the past. (That bad person changed, so he can live!) So if that good person changes, and becomes bad, then God won't remember all the good things that person did. God will remember that that man turned against him and began to sin. So that man will die because of his sin."

<sup>25</sup>God said, "You people might say, 'God, my Master can't be like that!' But listen, family of Israel. I am like that. You are the people who must change! <sup>26</sup>If a good person changes and becomes evil, then he must die for the bad things he does. <sup>27</sup>And if a bad man changes and become good and fair, then he will save his life. He will live! <sup>28</sup>That person saw how bad he was and came back to me. He stopped doing the bad things he did in the past. So he will live! He won't die!"

<sup>29</sup>The people of Israel said, "That's not fair! The Lord, my Master can't be like that!"

God said, "I am like that! You are the people who must change! <sup>30</sup>Why? Because family of Israel, I will judge each person only for the things that person does!" The Lord my Master said these things. "So come back to me! Stop doing bad thing! Don't let those terrible things cause you to sin! <sup>31</sup>Throw away all the terrible things you made—they only cause you to sin! Change your heart and spirit! Why should you let yourselves die, people of Israel? <sup>32</sup>I don't want to kill you! Please come back and live!" The Lord my Master said those things.

19 God said to me, "You must sing this sad song about the leaders of Israel.

<sup>1</sup>"What's wrong, mother lion?

You are lying there with the adult lions.

The mother lion lies down with the young lions.

She has many babies.

<sup>2</sup> One of those cubs gets up.

He has grown to be a strong young lion.

He has learned to catch his food.

collateral Things that a person uses to borrow money. If that person does not pay his debt, then the person he borrowed from can keep those things. It was against Moses' law to take a person's clothes as collateral. See Deuteronomy 24:12-13.

He killed and ate a man.

- 4 The people heard him roar.
And they caught him in their trap!
They put hooks in his mouth,
and carried the young lion to Egypt.
- 5<sup>4</sup> "The mother lion had hoped that cub would become the leader.
But now she lost all hope.
So she took another of her cubs.
She trained him to be a lion.
- 6 He went on hunts with the adult lions.
He became a strong young lion.
He learned to catch his food.
He killed and ate a man.
- 7 He attacked the palaces.
He destroyed the cities.
Every person in that country was scared speechless
when they heard his growl.
- 8 Then the people living around him set a trap for him.
And they caught him in their trap.
- 9 They put hooks on him and locked him
up.
They had him in their trap.
So they took him to the king of Babylon.
And now, you can't hear his roar
on the mountains of Israel.
- 10<sup>4</sup> "Your mother was like a grapevine planted by the water.
She had plenty of water,
so she grew many strong vines.
- 11 Then she grew a large branch.
That branch was like a walking stick.
That branch was like a king's scepter.*
The vine grew taller and taller.
It had many branches and reached to the clouds.
- 12 But the vine was pulled up by the roots, and thrown down to the ground.
The hot east wind blew and dried its fruit.

The strong branches broke.
And they were thrown into the fire.

- 13 Now that grapevine is planted in the desert.
It is a very dry and thirsty land.
- 14 The fire from the large branch spread.
The fire destroyed all its twigs and fruit.
So there was no strong walking stick.
There was no king's scepter.*

This was a sad song about death, and it was sung as a sad song about death."

20 One day, some of the elders (leaders) of Israel came to me to ask the Lord for advice. This was on the tenth day of the first month (July), of the seventh year of exile. The elders (leaders) sat down in front of
me.

<sup>2</sup>Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>3</sup>"Son of man,* speak to the elders (leaders) of Israel. Tell them 'The Lord my Master says these things: Have you men come to ask me advice? If you have, then I won't give it to you. The Lord my Master said these things.' <sup>4</sup>"Should you judge them? Will you judge them, Son of man?* You must tell them about the terrible things their fathers have done.
<sup>5</sup>You must tell them, 'The Lord my Master says these things: On the day I chose Israel, I raised my hand to Jacob's family and made a promise to them in Egypt. I raised my hand and said: "I am the Lord your God. <sup>6</sup>On that day, I promised to take you out of Egypt and lead you to the land I was giving to you. That was a good land filled with many good things.* It was the most beautiful of all countries!

<sup>7</sup>"I told the family of Israel to throw away their horrible idols. I told them not to become filthy with those filthy statues from Egypt. I am the Lord your God." <sup>8</sup>But they turned against me and refused to listen to me. They did not throw away their horrible idols. They did not leave their filthy statues in Egypt. So I (God)

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person," or "a human being." But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

a good land ... good things Literally, "a land flowing with milk and honey."

scepter A special stick. Kings and leaders carried scepters to show they were rulers.

decided to destroy them in Egypt—to let them feel the full force of my anger. <sup>9</sup>But I did not destroy them. I had already told the people where they were living that I would bring my people out of Egypt. I did not want to ruin my good name, so I did not destroy Israel in front of those other people. <sup>10</sup>I brought the family of Israel out of Egypt. I led them into the desert. <sup>11</sup>Then I gave them my laws. I told them all my rules. If a person obeys those rules, then he will live. <sup>12</sup>I also told them about all the special days of rest. Those holidays were a special sign between me and them. They showed that I am the Lord and that I was making them special to me.

<sup>13</sup>“But the family of Israel turned against me in the desert. They did not follow my laws. They refused to obey my rules. And they are good rules,—if a person obeys those rules, then he will live. They treated my special days of rest as if they were not important. They worked on those days many, many times. I decided to destroy them in the desert—to let them feel the full force of my anger. <sup>14</sup>But I did not destroy them. The other nations saw me bring Israel out of Egypt. I did not want to ruin my good name, so I did not destroy Israel in front of those other people. <sup>15</sup>I made another promise to those people in the desert. I promised that I would not bring them into the land I was giving them. That was a good land filled with many good things.* It was the most beautiful of all countries!

<sup>16</sup>“The people of Israel refused to obey my rules. They did not follow my laws. They treated my days of rest as if they were not important. They did all these things because their hearts belonged to their filthy idols. <sup>17</sup>But I felt sorry for them, so I did not destroy them. I did not completely destroy them in the desert. <sup>18</sup>I spoke to their children. I told them, ‘Don’t be like your parents. Don’t make yourself filthy with their filthy idols. Don’t follow their laws. Don’t obey their commands. <sup>19</sup>I am the Lord. I am your God. Obey my laws. Keep my commands. Do the things I tell you. <sup>20</sup>Show that my days of rest are important to you. Remember, they are a special sign between me and you. I am the Lord. And those holidays show you that I am your God.

<sup>21</sup>“But those children turned against me. They did not obey my laws. They did not keep my commands. They did not do the things I told them. And those are good laws. If a person obeys them, then he will live. They treated my special days of rest like they were not important. So I decided to destroy them completely in the desert, to let them feel the full force of my anger. <sup>22</sup>But I stopped myself. The other nations saw me bring Israel out of Egypt. I did not want to ruin my good name, so I did not destroy Israel in front of those other people. <sup>23</sup>So I made another promise to those people in the desert. I promised to scatter them among the nations, to send them to many different countries.

<sup>24</sup>“The people of Israel did not obey my commands. They refused to obey my laws. They treated my special days of rest like they were not important. And they worshiped the filthy idols of their fathers. <sup>25</sup>So I gave them laws that were not good. I gave them commands that would not bring life. <sup>26</sup>I let them make themselves filthy with their gifts. They even began to sacrifice their own firstborn children. In this way, I would destroy those people. Then they would know that I am the Lord. <sup>27</sup>So now, Son of man,* speak to the family of Israel. Tell them, ‘The Lord my Master says these things: The people of Israel said bad things about me and made evil plans against me. <sup>28</sup>But I still brought them to the land I promised to give to them. They saw all the hills and green trees, so they went to all those places to worship. They took their sacrifices and anger offerings* to all those places. They offered their sacrifices that made a weet smell, and they offered their drink offerings at those places. <sup>29</sup>I asked the people of Israel why they were going to those high places.* And those places of worship are still called “high places” today.’”

<sup>30</sup>God said, “The people of Israel did all those bad things.” So speak to the family of Israel. Tell them, ‘The Lord my Master says these things: You people have made yourselves filthy by doing the things your ancestors* did. You have acted like a prostitute.* You have left me to be with the horrible gods your ancestors worshiped. <sup>31</sup>You are giving the same kind of gifts. You are putting your children in the fire as a gift to your false gods. You are still making yourself filthy with those filthy idols today! Do you really think that I should let you come to me and ask me for advice? I am the Lord and Master. By my life I promise, I won’t answer your questions and give you advice! <sup>32</sup>You keep saying you want to be like the other nations. You live like the people in other nations. You serve pieces of wood and stone idols!’”

<sup>33</sup>The Lord my Master says, “By my life, I promise that I will rule over you as king. But I will raise my powerful arm and punish you. I will show my anger against you! <sup>34</sup>I will bring you out of these other nations. I scattered you among these nations. But I will gather you together and bring you back from these countries. But I will raise my powerful arm and punish you. I will show my anger against you! <sup>35</sup>I will lead you into a desert, like I did before. But this will be a place where other nations live. We will stand face to face and I will judge you. <sup>36</sup>I will judge you just like I judged your ancestors* in the desert near Egypt.” The Lord my Master said these things.

<sup>37</sup>“I will judge you guilty and punish you

according to the Agreement.* <sup>38</sup>I will remove all the people that turned against me and sinned against me. I will remove those people from your homeland. They will never again come to the Land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord.”

<sup>39</sup>Now, family of Israel, the Lord my Master says these things, “If any person wants to worship his filthy idols, then let him go and worship them. But later, don’t think you will get any advice from me! You will not ruin my name any more! Not when you continue to give your gifts to your filthy idols.”

<sup>40</sup>The Lord my Master says, “People must come to my holy mountain—the high mountain in Israel—to serve me! The whole family of Israel will be on their land—they will be there in their country. That is the place you can come to ask me for advice. And you must come to that place to bring me your offerings. You must bring the first part of your crops to me there in that place. You must bring all your holy gifts to me in that place. <sup>41</sup>Then I will be pleased with the sweet smell of your sacrifices. That will happen when I bring you back. I scattered you among many nations. But I will gather you together and make you my special people again. And all those nations will see it. <sup>42</sup>Then you will know that I am the Lord. You will know this when I bring you back to the Land of Israel. That is the land I promised to give to your ancestors.* <sup>43</sup>In that country you will remember all the bad things you did that made you filthy. And you will be ashamed. “Family of Israel, you did many bad things. And you should be destroyed because of those bad things. But to protect my good name, I won’t give you the punishment you really deserve. Then you will know that I am the Lord. The Lord my Master said these things.”

<sup>44</sup>Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>46</sup>“Son of man,* look toward the Negev,

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.

Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

the southern part of Judah. Speak against the Negev Forest.* <sup>4</sup>“Say to the Negev Forest, ‘Listen to the word of the Lord. The Lord my Master said these things: Look, I am ready to start a fire in your forest. The fire will destroy every green tree and every dry tree. The flame that burns won’t be put out. All the land from south to north will be burned by the fire. <sup>4</sup>Then all people will see that I, the Lord, have started the fire. The fire won’t be put out!’”

<sup>5</sup>Then I (Ezekiel) said, “Oh, Lord my Master! If I say those things, then the people will say that I am only telling them stories. They won’t think that it will really happen!”

21 So the word of the Lord came to me again. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man,* look toward Jerusalem and speak against their holy places. Speak against the land of Israel for me. <sup>3</sup>Say to the land of Israel, ‘The Lord said these things: I am against you! I will pull my sword from its sheath!* I will remove all people from you—the good people and the evil people! I will cut both good people and evil people from you. I will pull my sword from its sheath and use it against all people from south to north. <sup>4</sup>Then all people will know that I am the Lord. And they will know that I have pulled my sword from its sheath. My sword won’t go back into its sheath again, until it is finished.’”

<sup>6</sup>God said to me, “Son of man,* make sad sounds like a sad person with a broken heart. Make these sad sounds in front of the people. <sup>7</sup>Then they will ask you, ‘Why are you making these sad sounds?’ Then you must say, ‘Because of the sad news that is coming. Every heart will melt with fear. All hands will become weak. Every spirit will become weak. All knees will be like water.’ Look, that bad news is coming. These things will happen! The Lord my Master said these things.”

Negev Forest God is probably making fun. The Negev is a desert area, there are no forests in the Negev.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

sheath A place for the sword to be kept in when not in use. It was worn around the waist.

The Sword Is Ready

<sup>1</sup>The word of God came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man,* speak to the people for me. Say these things, ‘The Lord my Master says these things:

<sup>3</sup>“Look, a sword, a sharp sword.

And the sword has been polished.

<sup>10</sup> The sword was made sharp for killing.

It was polished to flash like lightning.

<sup>11</sup> “My son, you ran away from the stick I used to punish you.

You refused to be punished with that wooden stick.

<sup>12</sup> So the sword has been polished.

Now it can be used.

The sword was sharpened and polished.

Now it can be put in the hand of the killer.

<sup>13</sup> “Shout out and scream, Son of man! Why? Because the sword will be used against my people and all the rulers of Israel! Those rulers wanted war—so they will be with my people when the sword comes! So slap your thigh and make loud noises to show your sadness! <sup>14</sup>Why? Because it is not just a test: You refused to be punished with the wooden stick, so what else should I use to punish you? Yes, the sword.’ The Lord my Master said those things.

<sup>15</sup> God said, “Son of man,* clap your hand and speak to the people for me.

“Let the sword come down twice,
Yes, three times!

This sword is for killing the people.

This is the sword for the great killing!

This sword will set the people on edge.

<sup>16</sup> Their hearts will melt with fear.

And many people will be killed by their city gates.

Yes, I chose that sword for killing the people!

The sword shines like lightning.

<sup>17</sup> Sword, cut on the right side.

Cut on the left side.

Go every place your edge was chosen to go!

<sup>17</sup> “Then I too will clap my hands.
And I will stop showing my anger.
I, the Lord, have spoken!”

Choosing the Way to Jerusalem

<sup>18</sup>The word of the Lord came to me. He said, “Son of man,* draw two roads that the sword of the king of Babylon can use to come to Israel. Both roads will come from the same country (Babylon). Then draw a sign at the head of the road to the city. <sup>20</sup>Use the sign to show which road the sword will use. One road leads to the Ammonite city of Rabbah. The other road leads to Judah, to the protected city, Jerusalem! <sup>21</sup>This shows that the king of Babylon is planning the way he wants to attack that area. The king of Babylon has come to the place where the two roads separate. The king of Babylon has used magic signs to find the future. He shook some arrows. He asked questions from family idols. He looked at the liver* from an animal he killed.

<sup>22</sup>“The signs tell him to take the road on his right, the road leading to Jerusalem! He plans to bring the battering rams.* He will give the command, and his soldiers will begin the killing. They will shout the battle cry. Then they will build a wall of dirt around the city. They will build a dirt road leading up to the walls. They will build wooden towers to attack the city. <sup>23</sup>Those magic signs mean nothing to the people of Israel. They have the promises they made. But the Lord will remember their sin! Then the Israelites will be captured.”

<sup>24</sup>The Lord my Master says this, “You have done many bad things. Your sins are very clear. You forced me to remember that you are guilty. So the enemy will catch you in his hand. <sup>25</sup>And you, evil leader of Israel, you will be killed.

Your time of punishment has come! The end is here!”

<sup>26</sup>The Lord my Master says these things, “Take off the turban!* Take off the crown! The time has come to change. The important leaders will be brought low. And people that are not important now will become important leaders. <sup>27</sup>I will completely destroy that city! But this won’t happen until the right man becomes the new king. Then I will let him (the king of Babylon) have this city.”

Prophecy Against Ammon

<sup>28</sup>God said, “Son of man,* speak to the people for me. Say these things, “The Lord my Master says these things to the people of Ammon and their shameful god:

“Look, a sword!

The sword is out of its sheath.*

The sword has been polished!

The sword is ready to kill.

It was polished to flash like lightning!

<sup>29</sup> Your visions* are useless.

Your magic won’t help you.

It is only a bunch of lies.

The sword is now at the throats of evil men.

They will soon be only dead bodies.

Their time has come.

The time has come for their evil to end.

<sup>30</sup>“Now you can put the sword back in its sheath.* I will judge you in the place where you were created, in the land where you were born. <sup>31</sup>I will pour out my anger against you. My anger will burn you like a hot wind. I will hand you over to cruel men.* Those men are skilled at killing people. <sup>32</sup>You will be like fuel for the fire. Your blood will flow deep into the earth—people will never remember you again. I,

Arrows ... liver These were ways that people who believed in false gods tried to use to learn the future.

Battering rams Heavy logs that soldiers used to break holes into the gates or walls around a city.

turban(s) A head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.

sheath A place for the sword to be kept in when not in use. It was worn around the waist.

cruel men This is a word play. The Hebrew word is like the word meaning “to burn.”

the Lord, have spoken!"

Ezekiel Speaks Against Jerusalem

22 The word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man,* will you judge? Will you judge the city of murderers (Jerusalem)? Will you tell her about all the terrible things she has done? <sup>3</sup>You must say, 'The Lord my Master says this: The city is full of murderers. So her time of punishment will come! She made filthy idols for herself. And those idols made her filthy!

<sup>4</sup>"People of Jerusalem, you killed many people. You made filthy idols. You are guilty, and the time has come to punish you. Your end has come. Other nations will make fun of you. Those countries will laugh at you. <sup>5</sup>People far and near will make fun of you. You have ruined your name. You can hear the loud laughter.

<sup>6</sup>"Look! In Jerusalem, every ruler of Israel made himself strong so he could kill other people. <sup>7</sup>People in Jerusalem don't respect their parents. They hurt foreigners in that city. They cheat orphans and widows* in that place. <sup>8</sup>You people hate my holy things. You treat my special days of rest like they are not important. <sup>9</sup>People in Jerusalem tell lies about other people. They do this to kill those innocent people. People go to the mountains to worship false gods, and then come to Jerusalem to eat their fellowship meals.

orphans and widows Widows are women whose husbands have died, and orphans are children whose parents have died. Often these people have no one to care for them.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

<sup>12</sup>"In Jerusalem, you men take money to kill people. You people lend money and charge interest on those loans. You people cheat their neighbors just to make a little money. And you people have forgotten me.'" The Lord my Master said these things.

<sup>13</sup>God said, "Now look! I will slam my hand down and stop you! I will punish you for cheating and killing people. <sup>14</sup>Will you be brave then? Will you be strong at the time I come to punish you? No! I am the Lord. I have spoken. And I will do the things I said! <sup>15</sup>I will scatter you among the nations. I will force you to go to many countries. I will completely destroy the filthy things in this city. <sup>16</sup>But Jerusalem, you will become unclean.* And the other nations will see all these things happen. Then you will know that I am the Lord."

Israel Is Like Worthless Waste

<sup>17</sup>The word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>18</sup>"Son of man,* bronze, iron, lead, and tin are worthless compared to silver. Workers put silver into fire to make it pure. The silver melts and the workers separate it from the waste., The nation of Israel has become like that worthless waste. <sup>19</sup>So the Lord and Master says these things, 'All of you people have become like worthless waste. So I will gather you into Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>Workers put silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into a fire. They blow on the fire to make it hotter. Then the metals begin to melt. In the same way, I will put you in my fire and melt you. That fire is my hot anger. <sup>21</sup>I will put you in that fire. I will blow on the fire of my anger. And you will begin to melt. <sup>22</sup>Silver melts in the fire and workers pour off the silver and save it., In the same way, you will melt in the city. Then you will know that I am the Lord. And you will know that I have poured out my anger against you.'"

Ezekiel Speaks Against Jerusalem

<sup>23</sup>The word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>24</sup>"Son of man,* speak to Jerusalem. Tell her that she is not pure.* I am angry at that country, not pure This is a word play. The Hebrew word also means "not rained on."

so that country has not received its rain. <sup>25</sup>The prophets in Jerusalem are making evil plans. They are like a lion—it roars when it begins to eat the animal it caught. Those prophets have destroyed many lives. They have taken many valuable things. They caused many women to become widows* in Jerusalem.

<sup>26</sup>“The priests have really hurt my teachings. They don’t treat my holy things right—they don’t show they are important. They treat holy things just like things that are not holy. They treat clean* things just like things that are unclean. They don’t teach the people about these things. They refuse to respect my special days of rest. They treat me like I am not important.

<sup>27</sup>“The leaders in Jerusalem are like a wolf eating the animal it has caught. Those leaders attack and kill people just to get rich.

<sup>28</sup>“The prophets don’t warn the people—they cover up the truth. They are like workers that don’t really fix a wall,—they only put plaster over the holes. They only see lies. They do their magic to learn the future, but they only tell lies. They say, ‘The Lord my Master said these things.’ But they are only lying—the Lord did not speak to them!

<sup>29</sup>“The common people take advantage of each other. They cheat and steal from each other. They treat poor, helpless people like they are not important. They cheat foreigners and they act like there are no laws against it.

<sup>30</sup>“I asked the people to change their lives and, protect their country. I asked people to fix the walls. I wanted them to stand by those holes in the wall and fight to protect their city. But no person came to help! <sup>31</sup>So I will show them my anger—I will completely destroy them! I will punish them for the bad things they have done. It is all their fault!” The Lord my Master said these things.

widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

23 The word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>24</sup>“Son of man,* listen to this story about Samaria and Jerusalem. There were two sisters. They were daughters of the same mother. <sup>3</sup>They became prostitutes* in Egypt while they were still young girls. In Egypt, they first made love and let men touch their nipples and hold their young breasts. <sup>4</sup>The older daughter was named Oholah.* And her sister was named Oholibah.* Those sisters became my wives. And we had children. (Oholah is really Samaria. And Oholibah is really Jerusalem.)

<sup>5</sup>“Then Oholah became unfaithful to me—she began to live like a prostitute. She began to want her lovers. She saw the Assyrian soldiers <sup>6</sup>in their blue uniforms. They were all desirable young men riding horses. They were leaders and officers. <sup>7</sup>And Oholah gave herself to all those men. All of them were hand-picked soldiers in the Assyrian army. And she wanted them all! She became filthy with their filthy idols. <sup>8</sup>Besides that, she never stopped her love affair with Egypt. Egypt made love to her when she was a young girl. Egypt was the first lover to touch her young breasts. Egypt poured his untrue love on her. <sup>9</sup>So I let her lovers have her. She wanted Assyria, so I gave her to them! <sup>10</sup>They raped* her. They took her children. And they used a sword and killed her. They punished her. And women still talk about her.

<sup>11</sup>“Her younger sister, Oholibah, saw all these things happen. But Oholibah did more sins than her sister! She was more unfaithful than Oholah. <sup>12</sup>She wanted the Assyrian leaders and officers. She wanted those soldiers in blue uniforms riding their horses. They were all prostitute(s) A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.

Oholah This name means “Tent.” It probably refers to the Holy Tent where the people of Israel went to worship God.

Oholibah This name means “My Tent is in her country.”

raped Literally, “revealed her nakedness.” The Hebrew word meaning “revealed” is like the word meaning “carried away as a prisoner to a faraway country.”

desirable young men. <sup>13</sup>I saw that both women were going to ruin their lives with the same mistakes.

<sup>18</sup>“Oholibah let everyone see that she was unfaithful. She let so many men enjoy her naked body, that I became disgusted with her—just like I had become disgusted with her sister. <sup>19</sup>Again and again Oholibah was unfaithful to me. And then she remembered the love affair she had as a young girl in Egypt. <sup>20</sup>She remembered her lover with the penis like a donkey and a flood of semen like a horse.

<sup>21</sup>“Oholibah, you dreamed of those times when you were young; when your lover touched your nipples and held your young breasts. <sup>22</sup>So Oholibah, the Lord my Master says these things, “You became disgusted with your lovers. But I will bring your lovers here. They will surround you. <sup>23</sup>I will bring all those men from Babylon, especially the Chaldeans. I will bring the men from Pekod, Shoa, and Koa. And I will bring all those men from Assyria. So I will bring all those leaders and officers. They were all desirable young men, chariot* officers and hand-picked soldiers riding their horses. <sup>24</sup>Those crowd of men will come to you. They will come riding on their horses and in their chariots.* There will be many, many people. They will have their spears, shields, and helmets. They will gather together around you. I will tell them what you have done to me. And they will punish you their own way. <sup>25</sup>I will show you how jealous I am. They will be very angry and hurt you. They will cut off your nose and ears. They will use a sword and kill you. Then they will take your children, and burn whatever is left of you. <sup>26</sup>They will take your nice clothes and jewelry. <sup>27</sup>And I will stop your dreams about your love affair with Egypt. You will never again look for them. You will never remember Egypt again!”

<sup>28</sup>The Lord my Master says these things, “I am giving you to the men you hate. I am giving you to the men you became disgusted with. <sup>29</sup>And they will show how much they hate you! They will take everything you worked for. And they will leave you bare and naked! People will clearly see your sins. They will see that you acted like a prostitute and dreamed wicked dreams. <sup>30</sup>You did those bad things when you left me to chase after those other nations. You did those bad things when you began to worship their filthy idols. <sup>31</sup>You followed your sister and lived like her. You, yourself, took the cup of poison and held it in your hands. You caused your own punishment.” <sup>32</sup>The Lord my Master says these things:

“You will drink your sister’s cup of poison.

It is a tall, wide cup of poison.
That cup holds much poison
(punishment).

People will laugh at you and make fun of you.

- <sup>33</sup> You will stagger like a drunk person.
You will become very dizzy.
That is the cup of destruction and devastation.

It is like the cup (punishment) your sister drank.

- <sup>34</sup> You will drink the poison in that cup.
You will drink it to the last drop.
You will throw down the glass and break it to pieces.

And you will tear at your breasts from the pain.

This will happen because I am the Lord and Master.

And I said these things.

Chaldean An important family group in Babylonia. Sometimes this name means simply, “people from Babylonia.”

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

<sup>33</sup>“So, the Lord my Master said these things, ‘Jerusalem, you forgot me. You threw me away and left me behind. So now you must suffer for leaving me and living like a prostitute. You must suffer for your wicked dreams.’”

Judgment Against Oholah and Oholibah

<sup>36</sup>The Lord my Master said to me, “Son of man,* will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then tell them about the terrible things they have done. <sup>37</sup>They have done the sin of adultery.* They are guilty of murder. They acted like prostitutes—they left me to be with their filthy idols. They had my children. But they forced them to pass through fire. They did this to give food to their filthy idols. <sup>38</sup>They also treated my special days of rest and my holy place like they were not important. <sup>39</sup>They killed their children for their idols,* and then they went into my holy place and made it filthy too! They did this inside my temple!”

<sup>40</sup>“They have sent for men from faraway places. You sent a messenger to these men. And those men came to see you. You bathed for them, painted your eyes, and put on your jewelry. <sup>41</sup>You sat on a fine bed with a table set before it. You put my incense* and my oil* on this table.

<sup>42</sup>“The noise in Jerusalem sounded like a crowd of people having a party.* Many people came to the party. People were already drinking as they came in from the desert. They gave bracelets and beautiful crowns to the women.

adultery Breaking the marriage promise by sexual sin.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

my incense A special blend of spices that were burned as a gift to God. This special incense was to be burned only in the temple. See Ex. 30:34-38.

my oil This was the special oil that was to be used for anointing priests and things in the temple to make them holy (special). See Ex. 30:22-33.

party The Hebrew word is like the word for a fellowship offering, a time when people came to share a meal and enjoy themselves together with the Lord. Here it seems this time of worship turned into a wild party. See Deut. 14:22-29, 26:1-15.

<sup>43</sup>Then I spoke to one of the women who was worn out from her sexual sins. I told her, ‘Will they continue to do sexual sins with her, and she with them?’ “But they kept going to her like they would go to a prostitute.* Yes, they went again and again to Oholah and Oholibah, those wicked women.

<sup>44</sup>“But good men will judge them guilty. They will judge those women guilty of the sin of adultery* and murder. Why? Because Oholah and Oholibah have done the sin of adultery* and the blood from people they killed is still on their hands!”

<sup>45</sup>The Lord my Master said these things, “Gather the people together. Then let those people punish Oholah and Oholibah. This group of people will punish and make fun of these two women. <sup>47</sup>Then the group will throw stones at them and kill them. Then the group will cut the women to pieces with their swords. They will kill the women’s children and burn their houses. <sup>48</sup>In this way, I remove that shame from this country. And all the other women will be warned not do the shameful things you have done. <sup>49</sup>They will punish you for the wicked things you did. And you will be punished for worshiping your filthy idols. Then you will know that I am the Lord and Master.”

The Pot and the Meat

24 The word of the Lord my Master came to me. This was on the tenth day of the tenth month (December), in the ninth year of exile. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man,* write today’s date and this note: ‘Today the army of the king of Babylon surrounded Jerusalem.’ <sup>3</sup>And tell this story to the family that refuses to obey (Israel). Tell them these things, ‘The Lord my Master says this:

“Put the pot on the fire.

Put on the pot and pour in the water.

<sup>4</sup> Put in the pieces of meat.

Put in every good piece,

the thighs and the shoulders.
 Fill the pot with the best bones.
 5 Use the best animals in the flock.
 Pile the wood under the pot.
 And boil the pieces of meat.
 Boil the soup until even the bones are cooked!

6 "So the Lord my Master says these things:

"It will be bad for the city full of
 murderers.*
 Jerusalem is like, a pot that has spots of rust on it.

And those spots can't be removed!
 Take every piece of meat out of the pot!
 Don't eat that meat!
 Don't let the priests, choose any of that ruined meat.

7 Jerusalem is like that rusty pot.
 Why? Because the blood from those murders is still there!
 She put the blood on the bare rock!
 She did not pour the blood on the
 ground
 and cover it with dirt.*

8 I put her blood on the bare rock, so it would not be covered.
 I did this so people would become angry and punish her for killing innocent
 people."

9 So the Lord my Master says these things:

"It will be bad for the city full of
 murderers!

I will pile up plenty of wood for the fire.

10 Put plenty of wood under the pot.
 Light the fire.
 Cook the meat well done!
 Mix in the spices.*

city ... murderers Literally, "bloody city."

blood ... dust The Law of Moses teaches that if a person killed an animal for food, he must pour the blood on the ground and cover it with dirt. This showed that he was giving the life of that animal back to God. See Lev. 17:1-16 and Deut. 12:1-25. If the blood was not covered with dirt, then the blood was a witness against the killer. See Gen. 4:10, Job 15:18, and Isa. 26:21.

Mix ... spices We are not sure of the meaning of this sentence.

And let the bones be burned up.
 11 Then let the pot stand empty on the coals.
 Let it become so hot that its stains*
 begin to glow.
 Those stains will be melted away.
 The rust will be destroyed.

12 Jerusalem, might work hard to scrub away her stains.
 But that 'rust' won't go away!
 Only the fire (punishment) will remove that rust!

13 You sinned against me and became stained with sin.
 I wanted to wash you and make you clean.
 But the stains would not come out.
 I won't try washing you again until my hot anger is finished with you!

"I am the Lord. I said your punishment would come, and I will make it happen. I won't hold back the punishment. I won't feel sorry for you. I will punish you for the bad things you did." The Lord my Master said those things.

The Death of Ezekiel's Wife

14 Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, 16, "Son of man,* you love your wife very much, but I am going to take her away from you. Your wife will die suddenly. But you must not show your sadness. You must not cry loudly. You will cry and your tears will fall, 17 but you must make your sad sounds quietly.
 Don't cry out loud for your dead wife. You must wear the clothes you normally wear.
 Wear your turban* and your shoes. Don't cover your mustache (to show your sadness). And don't eat the food people normally eat when a person dies."

18 The next morning I told the people what God had said. That evening, my wife died. The person," or "a human being." But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

turban(s) A head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.

next morning I did the things God commanded. <sup>19</sup>Then the people said to me, “Why are you doing these things? What does it mean?”

<sup>20</sup>Then I said to them, “The word of the Lord came to me. He told me <sup>21</sup>to speak to the family of Israel. The Lord my Master said, ‘Look, I will destroy my holy place. You are proud of that place and sing songs of praise about it. You love to see that place. You really love that place. But I will destroy that place, and your children that you left behind will be killed in battle. <sup>22</sup>But you will do the same things that I have done about my dead wife. You won’t cover your mustache to show your sadness. You won’t eat the food people normally eat when a person dies. <sup>23</sup>You will wear your turbans* and your shoes. You won’t show your sadness. You won’t cry. But you will be wasting away because of your sins. You will make your sad sounds quietly to each other. <sup>24</sup>So Ezekiel is an example for you. You will do all the same things he did. That time of punishment will come. And then you will know that I am the Lord.’”

<sup>25-26</sup>“Son of man,* I will take away that safe place (Jerusalem) from the people. That beautiful place makes them happy. They love to see that place. They really love that place. But at that time, I will take that city and their children away from these people. One of the survivors will come to you with the bad news about Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>At that time, you will be able to speak to that person. You won’t be silent any more. In this way, you will be an example for them. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Prophecy Against Ammon

25 The word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>26</sup>“Son of man,* look toward the people of Ammon and speak against them for me. <sup>27</sup>Say to the people of Ammon: ‘Listen to the word of the Lord my Master! The Lord my

turban(s) A head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.

Master says this: You were happy when my holy place was destroyed. You were against the land of Israel when it was polluted. You were against the family of Judah when the people were carried away as prisoners. <sup>4</sup>“So I will give you to the people from the east. They will get your land. Their armies will set up their camps in your country. They will live among you. They will eat your fruit and drink your milk.

<sup>5</sup>“I will make the city Rabbah a pasture for camels and the country of Ammon a sheep pen. Then you will know that I am the Lord. <sup>6</sup>The Lord says these things: You were happy that Jerusalem was destroyed. You clapped your hands and stamped your feet. You had fun insulting the land of Israel. <sup>7</sup>So I will punish you. You will be like the valuable things soldiers take in war. You will lose your inheritance. You will die in faraway lands. I will destroy your country! Then you will know that I am the Lord.”

Prophecy Against Moab and Seir

<sup>8</sup>The Lord my Master says these things, “Moab and Seir (Edom) say, ‘The family of Judah is just like any other nation.’ <sup>9</sup>I will cut into Moab’s shoulder—I will take away its cities which are on its borders, the glory of the land, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim. <sup>10</sup>Then I will give these cities to the people of the east. They will get your land. And I will let those people from the east destroy the people of Ammon. Then everyone will forget that the people of Ammon were a nation. <sup>11</sup>So, I will punish Moab. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Prophecy Against Edom

<sup>12</sup>The Lord my Master says these things, “The people of Edom turned against the family of Judah and tried to get even. The people of Edom are guilty.” <sup>13</sup>So the Lord my Master says: “I will punish Edom. I will destroy the people and the animals in Edom. I will destroy the whole country of Edom, all the way from Teman to Dedan. The Edomites will be killed in battle. <sup>14</sup>I will use my people Israel and get even against Edom. In this way, the people of Israel will show my anger against Edom. Then those people of Edom will know that I punished them." The Lord my Master said these things.

Prophecy Against the Philistines

<sup>13</sup>The Lord my Master says these things, "The Philistines tried to get even. They were very cruel. They let their anger burn inside them too long!" <sup>14</sup>So the Lord my Master said, "I will punish the Philistines. Yes, I will destroy those people from Crete. I will completely destroy those people living on the sea coast. <sup>17</sup>I will punish those people—I will get even. I will let my anger teach them a lesson. Then they will know that I am the Lord!"

The Sad Message About Tyre

26 In the eleventh year of exile, on the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>24</sup>"Son of man,* Tyre said bad things about Jerusalem: 'Hurray! The city gate protecting the people is destroyed! The city gate is open for me. The city (Jerusalem) is ruined, so I can get plenty of valuable things out of it!'"

<sup>3</sup>So the Lord my Master says: "I am against you, Tyre! I will bring many nations to fight against you. They will come again and again, like waves on the beach."

<sup>4</sup>God said, "Those enemy soldiers will destroy the walls of Tyre and pull down her towers. I will also scrape the topsoil from her land. I will make Tyre a bare rock. <sup>5</sup>Tyre will become a place by the sea for spreading fishing nets. I have spoken!" The Lord my Master says, "Tyre will be like the valuable things soldiers take in war. <sup>6</sup>Her daughters (small towns) on the mainland will be killed in battle. Then they will know that I am the Lord."

Nebuchadnezzar Will Attack Tyre

<sup>7</sup>The Lord my Master says these things, "I will bring an enemy from the north against Tyre. That enemy is Nebuchadnezzar, the great king of Babylon! He will bring a very large army. There will be horses, chariots,* horse soldiers and many, many other soldiers! Those soldiers will be from many different nations. <sup>8</sup>Nebuchadnezzar will kill your daughters (small towns) on the mainland. He will build towers to attack your city. He will build a dirt road around your city. He will build a dirt road leading up to the walls. <sup>9</sup>He will bring the logs to break down your walls. He will use picks and break down your towers. <sup>10</sup>There will be so many of his horses that the dust from them will cover you. Your walls will shake at the noise of horse soldiers, wagons, and chariots* when the king of Babylon enters the city through your city gates. Yes, they will come into your city because its walls will be pulled down. <sup>11</sup>The king of Babylon will come riding through your city. His horses' hoofs* will come pounding over your streets. He will kill your people with swords. The strong columns in your city will fall to the ground. <sup>12</sup>Nebuchadnezzar's men will take away your riches. They will take the things you wanted to sell. They will break down your walls and destroy your pleasant houses. They will throw your stones and wood houses into the sea like garbage. <sup>13</sup>So I will stop the sound of your happy songs. People won't hear your harps any more. <sup>14</sup>I will make you a bare rock. You will be a place by the sea for spreading fishing nets! You won't be built again. Why? Because I, the Lord, have spoken!" The Lord my Master said those things.

Other Nations Will Cry for Tyre

<sup>15</sup>The Lord my Master says this to Tyre: "The countries along the Mediterranean coast will shake at the sound of your fall. That will happen when your people are hurt and killed. <sup>16</sup>Then all the leaders of the countries by the sea

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person," or "a human being." But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.
hoof(s) The hard part of a horse's foot.

will step down from their thrones and show their sadness. They will take off their special robes. They will take off their beautiful clothes. Then they will put on their 'clothes of shaking' (fear). They will sit on the ground and shake with fear. They will be shocked at how quickly you were destroyed. <sup>17</sup>They will sing this sad song about you:

"O Tyre, you were a famous city.*

People came from across the sea to live in you.*

You were famous,

but now you are gone!

You were strong on the sea,

and so were the people living in you.

You made all the people living on the mainland afraid of you.

<sup>18</sup> Now, on the day you fall, the countries along the coast will shake with fear.

You started many colonies along the coast.

Now those people will be scared when you are gone!"

<sup>19</sup>The Lord my Master says these things, "Tyre, I will destroy you, and you will become an old, empty city. No one will live there. I will cause the sea to flow over you. The great sea will cover you. <sup>20</sup>I will send you down into that deep hole—the place where dead people are. You will join the people that died long ago. I will send you to the world below, like all the other old, empty cities. You will be with all the others that go down to the grave. No one will live in you then. You will never again be in the land of the living! <sup>21</sup>Other people will be afraid about what happened to you. You will be finished! People will look for you, but they will never find you again!" That is what the Lord my Master says.

you ... city This can also mean, "People have cried for you."

People ... you This can also mean, "People have lived in you for a long time."

Tyre the Great Center of Trade on the Seas

27 The word of the Lord came to me again. He said, <sup>28</sup>"Son of man,* sing this sad song about Tyre. <sup>3</sup>Say these things about Tyre:

"Tyre, you are the door to the seas. You are the merchant* for many nations.

You travel to many countries along the coast.'

The Lord my Master says these things:

"Tyre, you think that you are so beautiful.

You think you are perfectly beautiful!

Your builders made you perfectly beautiful!

You are like the ships that sail from you.

<sup>5</sup> Your builders used cypress trees from Senir (Mount Hermon) to make all your planks.

They used cedar trees from Lebanon to make your mast.

They used pine trees from Cyprus to make the cabin on your deck.*

And they decorated this shelter with ivory.

<sup>7</sup> For your sail, they used colorful linen made in Egypt. That sail was your flag.

Your curtains for the cabin, were blue and purple.

They came from the coast of Cyprus.*

<sup>8</sup> Men living in Sidon and Arvad rowed your boats for you.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person," or "a human being." But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

merchant A person who earns his living buying and selling things.

deck The floor of a ship.

Cyprus Literally, "Elishah." This might be the area near Enkomi, Cyprus or it might be the Greek islands.

Tyre, your wise men were pilots on your ships.

- <sup>9</sup> The elders (leaders) and wise men from Byblos* were on board to help put caulking* between the boards on your ship. All the ships of the sea and their sailors came to trade and do business with you.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>10</sup>“Men from Persia, Lud, and Put were in your army. They were your men of war. They hung their shields and helmets on your walls. They brought honor and glory to your city. <sup>11</sup>Men from Arvad and your own soldiers were guards standing on the wall around your city. Your own brave men made your beauty perfect.

<sup>17</sup>“The people in Judah and Israel traded with you. They paid for the things you sold with the wheat, olives, early figs, honey, oil, and balm.* <sup>18</sup>Damascus was a good customer. They traded with you for the many wonderful things you had. They traded wine from Helbon and white wool for those things. <sup>19</sup>Damascus traded wine from Uzal for the things you sold. They paid wrought iron, cassia* and sugar cane for those things. <sup>20</sup>Dedan provided good business. They traded with you for saddlecloths and for riding horses. <sup>21</sup>Arabia and all the leaders of Kedar traded lambs, rams, and goats for your goods. <sup>22</sup>The merchants* of Sheba and Raamah traded with you. They traded all the best spices and every kind of precious stone and gold for your goods. <sup>23</sup>Haran, Canneh, Eden, the merchants* of Sheba, Asshur and Kilmad traded with you. <sup>24</sup>They paid with the best clothes, clothes from blue and fine needlework, carpets of many colors, tightly wound ropes and (things made from) cedar wood. These were the things they traded with you. <sup>25</sup>The ships of Tarshish carried the things you sold.

“The sea made you rich and famous.

- <sup>26</sup> The men that rowed your boats carried you across the great and powerful seas. But the powerful east wind will destroy your ship at sea. <sup>27</sup> And all your wealth will spill into the sea. Your wealth, your trade, and the things you sell, your sailors and your pilots, your men who put caulking* between the boards on your ship, your sellers, and all the soldiers in your city, and your crew will all sink into the sea. That will happen on the day you are destroyed!

- <sup>28</sup> “You send your businessmen to faraway places. Those places will shake with fear when they hear your pilot’s cry! <sup>29</sup> Your whole crew will jump ship. The sailors and pilots will jump from their ship

caulking Something like tar to make a ship watertight so it won’t sink.

Tarshish This is probably a city in Spain.

nation Literally, “house.” This might mean the royal family of that country.

Rhodes Or, “Dedan.” See vs. 20.

coral Sea animals that leave skeletons after they die. The skeletons are hard like rocks and are used for jewelry.

balm An ointment from some kinds of trees and plants. It is used as medicine.

cassia A spice or perfume.

merchant(s) A person who earns his living by buying and selling things.

and swim to the shore.
<sup>30</sup> They will be very sad about you.
 They will cry.
 They will throw dust on their heads,
 They will roll in ashes.
<sup>31</sup> They will shave their heads for you.
 They will put on clothes of sadness.
 They will cry for you.
 They will be like someone crying
 for a person that died.

<sup>32</sup>“And in their heavy crying they will sing this sad song about you, and cry about you.
 “No one is like Tyre!
 Tyre is destroyed,
 in the middle of the sea!
<sup>33</sup> Your businessmen sailed across the seas.
 You satisfied many people with your great wealth and the things you sold.
 You made the kings of the earth rich!
<sup>34</sup> But now you are broken by the seas,
 and by the deep waters.
 All the things you sell and all your people have fallen!
<sup>35</sup> All the people living on the coast are shocked about you.
 Their kings are terribly afraid.
 Their faces show their shock.
<sup>36</sup> The merchants* in other nations whistle
 about you.
 The things that happened to you will scare people.
 Why? Because you are finished.
 You will be no more.”

Tyre Thinks It Is like a God

28 The word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>24</sup>“Son of man,* say to the ruler of Tyre, “The Lord my Master says these things:

“You are very proud!

merchant(s) A person who earns his living by buying and selling things.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

And you say,
 “I am a god!
 I sit on the seat of gods
 in the middle of the seas.”

“But you are a man and not God!
 You only think you are a god.
<sup>3</sup> You think you are wiser than Danel!*

<sup>4</sup> Through your wisdom and all understanding you have gotten riches for yourself.
 And you put gold and silver in your treasuries.
<sup>5</sup> Through your great wisdom and trade,
 you have made your riches grow.
 And now you are proud because of those riches.

“So the Lord my Master says these things:
 “You thought you were like a god.
<sup>7</sup> I will bring strangers to fight against you.
 They are most terrible among the
 nations!
 They will pull out their swords and use them against the beautiful things your wisdom brought you.
 They will ruin your glory.
<sup>8</sup> They will bring you down to the grave.
 You will be like a sailor that died at sea.
<sup>9</sup> That person will kill you.
 Will you still say,
 “I am a god?”
 At that time, he will have you in his power.
 You will see that you are a man, not
 God!

<sup>10</sup> Strangers will treat you like a foreigner* and kill you.
 Those things will happen because,
 I gave the command!”
 The Lord my Master said those things.

<sup>11</sup>The word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>12</sup>“Son of man,* sing this sad song about the king of Tyre. Say to him, “The Lord my Master says these things:

Danel An ancient wise man.

foreigner Literally, “uncircumcised.” To have the foreskin cut off. This was done to every Jewish male to show he shared in the Agreement God made with Israel. See Gen. 17:9-14.

- “You were the ideal man.
 You were full of wisdom.
 You were perfectly handsome.
- 13 You were in Eden,
 the Garden of God.
 You had every precious stone—
 rubies, topaz, and diamonds;
 beryls, onyx, and jasper,
 sapphires, turquoise, and emeralds.
 And each of these stones was set in gold.
 You were given this beauty
 on the day you were created.
 God made you strong.

In this way, you made the holy places unclean.

So I brought fire from among you.
 It burned you!
 You became ashes on the ground.
 Now everyone can see your shame.

- 19 All the people in other nations were shocked about what happened to
 you.
 What happened to you will make people very afraid.
 You are finished!”

- 14 “You were one of the chosen Cherub
 angels.*
 Your wings, spread over my throne,
 And I put you on the holy mountain of
 God.
 You walked among the jewels that sparkled like fire.
- 15 You were good and honest
 when I created you.
 But then you became evil.
- 16 Your business brought you many riches,
 But they also put cruelty inside you.
 And you sinned.
 So I treated you like you were some unclean thing—
 I threw you off the mountain of God.
 You were one of the special Cherub
 angels—
 Your wings, spread over my throne,
 But I forced you to leave the jewels that sparkled like fire.

The Message Against Sidon

<sup>20</sup>The word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>21</sup>“Son of man,* look toward Sidon and speak for me against that place. <sup>22</sup>Say, ‘The Lord my Master says these things:

- “I am against you, Sidon!
 Your people will learn to respect me!
 I will punish Sidon.
 Then people will know that I am the
 Lord.
 Then they will learn that I am holy and they will treat me that way.
- <sup>23</sup> I will send disease and death to Sidon.
 The sword (enemy soldiers) outside the
 city
 will bring that death.
 Then they will know that I am the
 Lord!

The Nations Will Stop Making Fun of Israel

<sup>24</sup>“In the past, the countries around Israel hated her. But bad things will happen to those other countries. And there will be no more sharp stickers or thorn bushes to hurt the family of Israel. Then they will know that I am the Lord and Master.”

<sup>25</sup>The Lord my Master says these things, “I scattered the people of Israel among other nations. But I will gather the family of Israel together again. Then those nations will know

- 17 “You became proud because of your beauty.
 Your glory ruined your wisdom.
 So I threw you down to the ground.
 And now other kings stare at you.
- 18 You did many wrong things.
 You were a very crooked businessman.

Cherub angels These angels were often used like guards to be around the king (God) or to protect things (the Garden of Eden). Cherub angels were like guards by the king's throne on the Box of the Agreement.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

that I am holy and they will treat me that way. At that time, the people of Israel will live in their land—I gave that land to my servant Jacob. <sup>26</sup>They will live safely in the land. They will build houses and plant vineyards. I will punish the nations around them that hated them. Then the people of Israel will live in safety. And they will know that I am the Lord their God.”

The Message Against Egypt

29 On the twelfth day of the tenth month (December) of the tenth year of exile, the word of the Lord my Master came to me. He said, <sup>29</sup>“Son of man, * look toward Pharaoh, king of Egypt. Speak for me against him and Egypt. <sup>3</sup>Say, ‘The Lord my Master says these things:

“‘I am against you, Pharaoh, king of Egypt.

You are the great monster*
lying beside the Nile River.

You say,

“‘This is my river!
I made this river!’”

<sup>4-5</sup>“‘But I will put hooks in your jaws.
The fish in the Nile River will stick to your scales.

I will pull you and your fish up out of your rivers and on the dry land.

You will fall on the ground,
And no one will pick you up or bury you.

I will give you to the wild animals and birds.

You will be their food.

<sup>6</sup> Then all the people living in Egypt will know that I am the Lord!

great monster There were ancient stories about a sea monster that fought against God. The prophets called Egypt that sea monster many times. But here this might mean the crocodiles that rest on the banks of the Nile River.

“‘Why will I do these things?’

Because the people of Israel leaned on Egypt for support.

But Egypt was only a weak stick of reed.

<sup>7</sup> The people of Israel leaned on Egypt for support, and Egypt only pierced their hands and shoulder.

They leaned on you for support,
but you broke and twisted their back.’”

<sup>8</sup> So the Lord my Master says these things:
“I will bring a sword against you.

I will destroy all your people and animals.

Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

God said, “‘Why will I do those things? Because you said, ‘This is my river. I made this river.’” <sup>10</sup>So, I (God) am against you. I am against the many branches of your Nile River. I will destroy Egypt completely. The cities will be empty from Migdol to Aswan, and as far as the border of Ethiopia. <sup>11</sup>No person or animal will pass through Egypt. <sup>12</sup>No one will live in Egypt for 40 years. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations. I will plant them in foreign lands.”

<sup>13</sup>The Lord my Master says these things, “I will scatter the people of Egypt among many nations. But at the end of 40 years, I will gather those people together again. <sup>14</sup>I will bring back the Egyptian captives. I will bring back the Egyptians to the land of Pathros, to the land where they were born. But their kingdom won’t be important. <sup>15</sup>It will be the least important kingdom. It will never again lift itself above the other nations. I will make them so small that they won’t rule over the nations. <sup>16</sup>And the family of Israel will never again depend on Egypt. The Israelites will remember their sin—they will remember that they turned to Egypt for help and not to God. And they will know that I am the Lord and Master.”

Babylon Will Get Egypt

<sup>17</sup>On the first day of the first month (March) in the twenty-seventh year of exile, the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>18</sup>“Son of man,* Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, made his army fight hard against Tyre. They shaved every soldier’s hair. Every shoulder was rubbed bare from carrying heavy loads. Nebuchadnezzar and his army worked hard to defeat Tyre. But they got nothing from all that hard work. <sup>19</sup>So the Lord my Master says these things, “I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. And Nebuchadnezzar will carry away Egypt’s people. Nebuchadnezzar will take the many valuable things in Egypt. This will be the pay for Nebuchadnezzar’s army. <sup>20</sup>I have given Nebuchadnezzar the land of Egypt as a reward for the hard work he did. Why? Because they worked for me!” The Lord my Master said these things!

<sup>21</sup>“On that day I will make the family of Israel strong. And your people will make fun of the Egyptians. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

The Army of Babylon Will Attack Egypt

30 The word of the Lord came to me again. He said, <sup>1</sup>“Son of man,* speak for me. Say, “The Lord my Master says these things:

“Cry and say,
“That terrible day is coming.”

<sup>3</sup> That day is near!
Yes, the Lord’s day for judging is near.
It will be a cloudy day,
It will be the time for judging the
nations!

<sup>4</sup> A sword will come against Egypt!
People in Ethiopia will shake with fear,
at the time that Egypt falls.
The army of Babylon will take Egypt’s people away as prisoners.
Egypt’s foundations will be torn down!

<sup>5</sup>“Many people made peace agreements with Egypt. But all those people from Ethiopia, Put, Lud, all Arabia, Libya and the people of Israel* will be destroyed!

<sup>6</sup>“The Lord my Master says these things:

“Yes, those who support Egypt will fall!
The pride of her power will go down.
The people in Egypt will be killed in
battle,
all the way from Migdol to Aswan.”
The Lord my Master said those things!

<sup>7</sup>“Egypt will join the other countries that were destroyed.
Egypt will be one of those empty lands.
<sup>8</sup> I will start a fire in Egypt,
and all her helpers are destroyed.
Then they will know that I am the Lord!

<sup>9</sup>“At that time, I will send out messengers. They will go in ships to carry the bad news to Ethiopia. Ethiopia now feels safe. But the people of Ethiopia will shake with fear at the time Egypt is punished. That time is coming!

<sup>10</sup>“The Lord my Master says these things:

“I will use Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon,
and I will destroy the people of Egypt.
<sup>11</sup> Nebuchadnezzar and his people are the most terrible of the nations.
And I will bring them to destroy Egypt.
They will pull out their swords against Egypt.
They will fill the land with dead bodies.
<sup>12</sup> I will make the Nile River become dry
land.
Then I will sell the dry land to evil
people.
I will use strangers to make that land
empty.
I, the Lord, have spoken!”

The Idols of Egypt Will Be Destroyed

people of Israel Literally, “sons of the Agreement.” This might mean “all the people that made peace agreements with Egypt” or it might mean “Israel, the people that made the Agreement with God.”

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

- "I will also destroy the idols* in Egypt.
 I will take the statues away from Memphis.
 There won't be a leader any more in the land of Egypt,
 and I will put fear in the land of Egypt.
- <sup>14</sup> I will make Pathros empty.
 I will start a fire in Zoan.
 I will punish No,
<sup>15</sup> And I will pour out my anger against Sin,
 the fortress* of Egypt!
 I will destroy the people of No.
- <sup>16</sup> I will start a fire in Egypt;
 The place named Sin will be in great pain.
 The soldiers will break into the city No,
 and Memphis will have new troubles every day.
- <sup>17</sup> The young men of On and Pi-beseth will die in battle.
 And the women will be captured and taken away.
- <sup>18</sup> It will be a dark day in Tahpanhes when I break Egypt's control.* Egypt's proud power will be finished!
 A cloud will cover Egypt, and her daughters will be captured and
 taken away.
- <sup>19</sup> So I will punish Egypt.
 Then they will know I am the Lord!"

Egypt Will Become Weak Forever

<sup>20</sup>On the seventh day of the first month (March) of the eleventh year of exile, the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>21</sup>"Son of man,* I have broken the arm (power) of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. No one will wrap his arm with a bandage. It won't heal. So his arm won't be strong enough to hold a sword."

<sup>22</sup>The Lord my Master says these things, "I am against Pharaoh, king of Egypt. I will break

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

fortress A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

control Literally, "yoke."

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person," or "a human being." But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

both his arms, the strong arm and the arm that is already broken. I will make the sword fall from his hand. <sup>21</sup>I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations. <sup>24</sup>I will make the arms of the king of Babylon strong. I will put my sword in his hand. But I will break the arms of Pharaoh.
 Then Pharaoh will cry out in pain, the kind of cry that a dying man makes. <sup>25</sup>So I will make the arms of the king of Babylon strong, but the arms of Pharaoh will fall. Then they will know that I am the Lord.

"I will put my sword in the hand of the king of Babylon. Then he will stretch the sword out against the land of Egypt. <sup>26</sup>I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations. Then they will know that I am the Lord!"

Assyria Is Like A Cedar Tree

31 On the first day of the third month in the eleventh year of exile, the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>24</sup>"Son of man,* say these things to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and to his people:

"Who are you like in your greatness?

<sup>3</sup> Assyria was a cedar tree in Lebanon

With beautiful branches,

With forest shade,

And very tall.

Its top was among the clouds!

<sup>4</sup> The water made the tree grow.

The deep river made the tree tall.

Rivers flowed around the place where the tree was planted,

Only its streams flowed to all other trees of the field.

<sup>5</sup> So the tree was taller than all the trees of the field.

And it grew many branches.

There was plenty of water,

so the tree branches spread out.

<sup>6</sup> All the birds of the sky made their nests in the tree's branches.

And all the animals of the field gave birth under the tree's branches.

All the great nations lived in the tree's shade!

- <sup>7</sup> So the tree was beautiful in its greatness,
and in its long branches.
Why? Because its roots reached to plenty
of water!
- <sup>8</sup> Even the cedar trees in God's garden were not as big as this tree.
Cypress trees did not have as many branches.
Plane-trees did not have such branches.
No tree in God's garden was as beautiful as this tree.
- <sup>9</sup> I made the tree beautiful with many branches,
And all the trees in Eden, God's garden, were jealous!"

<sup>10</sup>So the Lord my Master says these things:
"The tree has grown tall. It has put its top among the clouds. The tree is proud because it is tall. <sup>11</sup>So I will let a powerful king have that tree. The ruler will punish the tree for the bad things it did. I take that tree out of my garden.
<sup>12</sup>Strangers—the most terrible of the nations—cut it down and left it. The tree's branches fell on the mountains and in all the valleys. Those broken limbs drifted on the rivers flowing through that land. There was no more shadow under that tree, so all the people of left. <sup>13</sup>Now the birds live in that fallen tree. Wild animals walk over its fallen branches.

<sup>14</sup>"Now, none of the trees by that water will be proud. They won't try to reach the clouds.
None of the strong trees that drink that water will brag about being tall. Why? Because all of them have been appointed to die. They will all go down into the world below—to Sheol, the place of death. They will be with the other people who died and went down into that deep hole."

<sup>15</sup>The Lord my Master says these things,
"On the day that the tree went down to Sheol,*
I caused people to mourn.* I covered the deep water with sadness for him.* I held back the

Sheol The place where people go when they die. Usually this means the grave, but it can mean the place where spirits go.
mourn Crying and showing sadness for a person that died.
I covered ... him This is a word play. Instead of the water covering the tree, the water is covered with the cloth of sadness.

tree's rivers. And the water for the tree stopped flowing. I made Lebanon mourn* for it. All the trees of the field became sick with sadness for that big tree. <sup>16</sup>I made the tree fall—and the nations shook with fear at the sound of the tree falling. I made the tree go down to the place of death. It went down to be with the other people that went down into that deep hole. In the past, all the trees of Eden, the best of Lebanon, drank that water. Those trees were comforted in the world below. <sup>17</sup>Yes, those trees also went down with the big tree to the place of death. They joined the people that were killed in battle. That big tree made the other trees strong. Those trees had lived under the big tree's shadow among the nations.

<sup>18</sup>"So Egypt, which tree in Eden should I compare you to? You will go down with the trees of Eden to the world below. You will lie in the place of death with those foreigners,* and with the people killed in battle. This will happen to Pharaoh and all his people!" The Lord my Master said those things.

Pharaoh: a Lion Or a Dragon?

32 On the first day of the twelfth month (February) in the twelfth year of exile, the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man,* sing this sad song about Pharaoh, king of Egypt. Say to him:

"You thought you were like a powerful young lion
walking proud among the nations.
But really, you are like the dragon* in the seas.
You snort with your nostrils.
And make the waters muddy with your foreigners Literally, "uncircumcised." This means, "to have the foreskin cut off." This was done to every Jewish male to show he shared in the Agreement God made with Israel. See Gen. 17:9-14.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person," or "a human being." But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

feet.

You stir up the rivers of Egypt.’”

<sup>3</sup>The Lord my Master says these things:

“I have gathered many people together.

Now I will throw my net over you.

Then those people will pull you in.

<sup>4</sup> Then I will drop you on the dry ground.

I will throw you down in the field.

I will cause all the birds to come to eat you.

I will let wild animals from every place come to eat you and be full.

<sup>5</sup> I will scatter your body on the mountains.

I will fill the valleys with your dead body.

<sup>6</sup> I will pour your blood on the mountains, and it will soak down into the ground.

The rivers will be full of you.

<sup>7</sup> I will make you disappear.

I will cover the sky
and make the stars dark.

I will cover the sun with a cloud,
and the moon will shine.

<sup>8</sup> I will make all the shining lights in the sky become dark over you.

I will cause your whole country to be dark.

<sup>9</sup>“Many people will be sad and upset when they learn that I brought an enemy to destroy you. Nations you don’t even know will be upset. <sup>10</sup>I will make many people shocked about you. Their kings will be terribly afraid about you, when I swing my sword before them. The kings will shake with fear every moment on the day you fall. Each king will be afraid for his own life.”

<sup>11</sup>Why? Because the Lord my Master says these things: “The sword of the king of Babylon will come to fight against you. <sup>12</sup>I will use those soldiers to kill your people in battle. Those soldiers come from the most terrible of the nations. They will destroy the things Egypt is proud of. The people of Egypt will be destroyed. <sup>13</sup>There are many animals by the rivers in Egypt. I will also destroy all those animals! People won’t make the waters muddy with their feet any more. The hoofs of cows won’t make the water muddy any more. “So I will make the water in Egypt calm. I will cause their rivers to run slowly—they will be slick like oil.” The Lord my Master said those things. <sup>14</sup>“I will make the land of Egypt empty. That land will lose everything. I will punish all the people living in Egypt. Then they will know that I am the Lord and Master!

<sup>16</sup>“This is a sad song that people will sing for Egypt. The daughters (cities) in other nations will sing this sad song about Egypt. They will sing it as a sad song about Egypt and all its people.” The Lord my Master said those things!

Egypt to Be Destroyed

<sup>17</sup>On the fifteenth day of that month, in the twelfth year of exile, the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>18</sup>“Son of man,* cry for the people of Egypt. Lead Egypt and those daughters from powerful nations to the grave. Lead them to the world below where they will be with the other people that went down into that deep hole.

<sup>19</sup>“Egypt, you are no better than anyone else! Go down to the place of death. Go lie down with those foreigners.*

<sup>20</sup>“Egypt will go to be with all the other men that were killed in battle. The enemy has pulled her and all her people away.

<sup>21</sup>“Strong and powerful men were killed in battle. Those foreigners went down to the place of death. And from that place, those men will speak to Egypt and his helpers. They too will be killed in battle.

<sup>22-23</sup>“Assyria and all its army are there in the place of death. Their graves are deep down in that deep hole. All those Assyrian soldiers were killed in battle. Assyria’s army is around its grave. When they were alive, they made people afraid. But now all of them are quiet—they were all killed in battle.

<sup>21</sup>“Elam is there and all its army is around her grave. All of them were killed in battle. Those foreigners went deep down into the ground. When they were alive, they made people afraid. But they carried their shame with them down to that deep hole. <sup>22</sup>They have made a bed for Elam and all its soldiers that were killed in battle. Elam’s army is all around its grave. All those foreigners were killed in battle. When they were alive, they scared people. But they carried their shame with them down into that deep hole. They were put with all the other people that were killed.

<sup>23</sup>“Meshech, Tubal, and all their armies are there. Their graves are around it. All of those foreigners were killed in battle. When they were alive, they made people afraid. <sup>24</sup>But now they are lying down by the powerful men that died long, long ago! They were buried with their weapons of war. Their swords will be laid under their heads. But their sins are on their bones. Why? Because when they were alive, they scared people.

<sup>25</sup>“Egypt, you too will be destroyed. And you will lie down by those foreigners. You will lie with those other soldiers that were killed in battle.

<sup>26</sup>“Edom is there also. His kings and other leaders are there with him. They were powerful soldiers too. But now they lie with the other men that were killed in battle. They are lying there with those foreigners. They are there with the other people that went down into that deep hole.

<sup>27</sup>“The rulers from the north are there, all of them! And there are all the soldiers from Sidon. Their strength scared people. But they are embarrassed. Those foreigners lie there with the other men that were killed in battle. They carried their shame with them down into that deep hole.

<sup>28</sup>“Pharaoh will see the people that went down to the place of death. He and all his people with him will be comforted. Yes, Pharaoh and all his army will be killed in battle.” The Lord my Master said these things.

<sup>29</sup>“When Pharaoh was alive, I made people afraid of him. But now, he will lie down with those foreigners. Pharaoh and his army will lie down with the other soldiers that were killed in battle.” The Lord my Master said those things.

God Chooses Ezekiel To Be a Watchman for Israel

33 The word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>1</sup>“Son of man,* speak to your people. Say to them, ‘I might bring enemy soldiers to fight against this country. When that happens people choose a man to be the watchman. <sup>2</sup>If this guard sees the enemy soldiers coming, then he blows the trumpet and warns the people. ‘If people hear the warning but ignore it, then the enemy will capture them and take them away as prisoners. That person will be responsible for his own death. <sup>3</sup>He heard the trumpet, but he ignored the warning. So he is to blame for his death. If he had paid attention to the warning, then he could have saved his own life.

<sup>4</sup>“‘But maybe that guard sees the enemy soldiers coming, but does not blow the trumpet. That guard did not warn the people. The enemy will capture them and take them away as prisoners. That person will be taken away because he sinned. But the guard will also be responsible for that man’s death.

<sup>5</sup>“Now, Son of man,* I am choosing you to be a watchman for the family of Israel. If you hear a message from my mouth, you must warn the people for me. <sup>6</sup>‘I might say to you, ‘This evil person will die.’ Then you must go warn that person for me. If you don’t warn that evil person and tell him to change his life, then that evil person will die because he sinned. But I will make you responsible for his death. <sup>7</sup>But if you do warn the evil person to change his life and stop sinning, and if he refuses to stop sinning, then he will die because he sinned. But you have saved your life.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

The Lord Does Not Want to See People Be Destroyed

<sup>10</sup>“So, Son of man,* speak to the family of Israel for me. Those people might say, ‘We have sinned and broken the law. Our sins are too heavy to bear. We rot away because of those sins. What can we do to live?’

<sup>11</sup>“You must say to them, ‘The Lord my Master says: On my life, I promise, I don’t enjoy seeing people die—not even evil people! I don’t want them to die. I want those evil people to come back to me. I want them to change their lives so they can really live! So come back to me! Stop doing bad things! Why must you die, family of Israel?’”

<sup>12</sup>“And Son of man,* say to your people: ‘The good things a person did in the past won’t save him if he becomes bad and begins to sin. And the bad things a person did in the past won’t destroy him if he turns from his evil. So remember, the good things a person did in the past won’t save him if he begins to sin.

<sup>13</sup>“Maybe I will tell a good person that he will live. But maybe that good person will begin to think that the good things he did in the past will save him. So he might begin to do bad things. But I won’t remember the good things he did in the past! No, he will die because of the bad things he begins to do.

<sup>14</sup>“Or maybe I will tell a bad person that he will die. But he might change his life. He might stop sinning and begin to live right. He might become good and fair. <sup>15</sup>He might give back the things he took when he loaned money. He might pay for the things he stole. He might begin to follow the laws that give life. He stops doing bad things. Then that person will surely live. He won’t die. <sup>16</sup>I won’t remember the bad things he did in the past. Why? Because now he lives right and is fair. So he will live!

<sup>17</sup>“But your people say, ‘That’s not fair! The Lord, my Master can’t be like that!’

“But they are the people that are not fair! They are the people who must change! <sup>18</sup>If a good person stops doing good things and begins to sin, then he will die because of his sins. <sup>19</sup>And if an evil person stops doing bad things and begins to live right and be fair, then he will live! <sup>20</sup>But you people still say that I am not fair. But I am telling you the truth. Family of Israel, each person will be judged for the things he does!”

“Jerusalem Has Been Taken”

<sup>21</sup>On the fifth day of the tenth month (December) in the twelfth year of exile, a person came to me from Jerusalem. He had escaped from the battle there. He said, “The city (Jerusalem) has been taken!”

<sup>22</sup>Now the power of the Lord my Master had come on me the evening before that person came to me. God made me not able to speak. At the time that person came to me, the Lord had opened my mouth and let me speak again. <sup>23</sup>Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>24</sup>“Son of man,* there are Israelite people living in the ruined cities in Israel. Those people are saying, ‘Abraham was only one man, and God gave him all this land. Now, we are many people, so surely this land belongs to us! It is our land!’

<sup>25</sup>“You must tell them that the Lord and Master says these things, ‘You eat meat with the blood still in it. You look to your idols* for help. You murder people. So why should I give you this land? <sup>26</sup>You depend on your own sword. Each of you does terrible things. Each of you does sexual sins with his neighbor’s wife. So you cannot have the land!’”

<sup>27</sup>“You must tell them that the Lord and Master says these things: On my life I promise, those people living in those ruined cities will be killed with a sword! If anyone is out in the country, I will let animals kill him and eat him. If people are hiding in the fortresses* and the caves, they will die from disease. <sup>28</sup>I will make the land empty and a waste. That country will lose all the things it

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

was proud of. The mountains of Israel will become empty. No one will pass through that place. <sup>29</sup>Those people have done many terrible things. So I will make that land an empty wasteland. Then these people will know that I am the Lord.”

<sup>30</sup>“And now, about you, Son of man.* Your people lean against the walls and stand in their doorways, and they talk about you. They tell each other, ‘Come on, let’s go hear what the Lord says.’ <sup>31</sup>So they come to you like they are my people. They sit in front of you like they are my people. They hear your words. But they won’t do the things you say. They only want to do what feels good. They only want to cheat people and make more money.”

<sup>32</sup>“You are nothing to these people but a singer singing love songs. You have a good voice. You play your instrument well. They hear your words, but they won’t do the things you say. <sup>33</sup>But the things you sing about really will happen. And then the people will know that there really was a prophet living among them!”

Israel Is Like a Flock of Sheep

34 The word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>24</sup>“Son of man,* speak against the shepherds (leaders) of Israel for me. Speak to them for me. Tell them that the Lord and Master says these things: You shepherds of Israel have only been feeding yourselves. It will be very bad for you! Why don’t you shepherds feed the flock? <sup>3</sup>You eat the fat sheep and use their wool to make clothes for yourselves. You kill the fat sheep, but you don’t feed the flock. <sup>4</sup>You have not made the weak strong. You have not cared for the sick sheep. You have not put bandages on the sheep that were hurt. Some of the sheep wandered away, and you did not go get them and bring them back. You did not go to look for those lost sheep. No, you were cruel and severe—that’s the way you tried to lead the sheep!

<sup>5</sup>“And now the sheep are scattered because there was no shepherd. They became food for every wild animal. So they were scattered. <sup>6</sup>My flock wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. My flock was scattered over all the face of the earth. There was no one to search or to look for them.”

<sup>7</sup>So, you shepherds, listen to the word of the Lord. The Lord my Master says, <sup>8</sup>“By my life, I promise this to you. Wild animals caught my sheep. Yes, my flock has become food for all the wild animals. Why? Because they did not have a real shepherd. My shepherds did not look out for my flock. No, those shepherds only killed the sheep and fed themselves. They did not feed my flock.”

<sup>9</sup>So, you shepherds, listen to the word of the Lord! <sup>10</sup>The Lord says, “I am against those shepherds! I will demand my sheep from them. I will fire them! They won’t be my shepherds any more! Then the shepherds won’t be able to feed themselves. And I will save my flock from their mouths. Then my sheep won’t be food for them.”

<sup>11</sup>The Lord my Master says, “I, myself, will be their Shepherd. I will search for my sheep. I will look out for them. <sup>12</sup>If a shepherd is with his sheep when they begin to wander away, then he will go searching for them. In the same way I will search for my sheep. I will save my sheep. I will bring them back from all the places where they were scattered on that dark and cloudy day. <sup>13</sup>I will bring them back from those nations. I will gather them from those countries. I will bring them to their own land. And I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the streams, in all the places where people live. <sup>14</sup>I will lead them to grassy fields. They will go to the place high on the mountains of Israel. There they will lie down on good ground and eat the grass. They will eat in rich grassland on the mountains of Israel. <sup>15</sup>Yes, I will feed my flock and I will lead them to a place of rest.” The Lord my Master said those things.

<sup>16</sup>“I will search for the lost sheep. I will bring back the sheep that were scattered. I will put bandages on the sheep that were hurt. I will make the weak sheep strong. But I will destroy those fat and powerful shepherds. I will feed them the punishment they deserve.

<sup>17</sup>The Lord my Master says these things, "And you, my flock, I will judge between one sheep and another. I will judge between the rams* and the male goats. <sup>18</sup>You can eat the grass growing on the good land. So why do you also crush the grass that other sheep want to eat? You can drink plenty of clear water. So why do you also stir the water that other sheep want to drink? <sup>19</sup>My flock must eat the grass you crushed with your feet, and they must drink the water you stir with your feet!"

<sup>20</sup>So the Lord my Master says to them: "I, myself, will judge between the fat sheep and the thin sheep! <sup>21</sup>You push with your side and with your shoulder, and knock down all the weak sheep with your horns, until you have forced them away. <sup>22</sup>So I will save my flock. They won't be caught by wild animals any more. I will judge between one sheep and another. <sup>23</sup>Then I will put one shepherd over them, my servant David. He will feed them. He will feed them himself and be their shepherd. <sup>24</sup>Then I, the Lord and Master, will be their God. And my servant David will be the ruler living among them. I, the Lord, have spoken."

<sup>25</sup>"And I will make a peace agreement with my sheep. I will take harmful animals away from the land. Then the sheep can be safe in the desert and sleep in the woods. <sup>26</sup>I will bless the sheep and the places around my hill (Jerusalem). I will cause the rains to fall at the right time. They will shower them with blessings. <sup>27</sup>And the trees growing in the field will produce their fruit. The earth will give its harvest. So the sheep will be safe on their land. I will break the yokes* on them. I will save them from the power of the people that made them slaves. Then they will know that I am the Lord. <sup>28</sup>They won't be caught like an animal by the nations any more. Those animals won't eat them any more. But they will live safely. No one will make them afraid. <sup>29</sup>I will give them some land that will make a good garden. Then they won't suffer from hunger in that land. They won't suffer the insults from the nations any more. <sup>30</sup>Then they will know that I am the Lord their God. And they will know that I am with them. And the family of Israel will know that they are my people!" The Lord my Master said those things!

<sup>31</sup>"And you, my sheep, the sheep of my grassland, you are only human beings and I am your God." The Lord my Master said those things.

The Message Against Edom

35 The word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man,* look toward Mount Seir, and speak against it for me. <sup>3</sup>Say to it, 'The Lord my Master says these things:

- "I am against you, Mount Seir!
I will punish you.
I will make you an empty wasteland.
<sup>4</sup> I will destroy your cities.
And you will become empty.
Then you will know that I am the Lord.
<sup>5</sup> Why? Because you have always been against my people.
You used your sword against the people of Israel at the time of their trouble, at the time of their final punishment.'"

<sup>6</sup>So the Lord my Master says, "By my life I promise that I will let death have you. Death will chase you. You did not hate killing people. So death will chase you. <sup>7</sup>And I will make Mount Seir an empty ruin. I will kill every person that comes from that city. And I will kill every person that tries to go into that city. <sup>8</sup>I will cover its mountains with dead bodies. Those dead bodies will be all over your hills, in your valleys, and in all your ravines. <sup>9</sup>I will make you empty forever. No one will live in your cities. Then you will know that I am the Lord."

ram(s) A male sheep.

yokes A pole that was put on the shoulders of men or animals to help them carry or pull things. This often showed that a person was a slave.

<sup>10</sup>You said, "These two nations and countries (Israel and Judah) will be mine. We will take them for our own."

But the Lord is there! <sup>11</sup>And the Lord my Master says, "You were jealous of my people. You were angry at them and you were hateful to me. So by my life, I promise that I will punish you the same way you hurt them! I will punish you and let my people know that I am with them. <sup>12</sup>And then you too will know that I have heard all your insults. You said many bad things against the mountain of Israel. You said, 'Israel has been destroyed! We will chew them up like food!' <sup>13</sup>And you were proud and said things against me. You spoke too many times and I have heard every word you said! Yes, I heard you."

<sup>14</sup>The Lord my Master says these things, "All the earth will be happy when I destroy you. <sup>15</sup>You were happy when the country of Israel was destroyed. I will treat you the same way. Mount Seir and the whole country of Edom will be destroyed. Then you will know that I am the Lord."

The Land of Israel Will Be Built again

36 "Son of man,* speak to the mountains of Israel for me. Tell the mountains of Israel to listen to the word of the Lord! <sup>2</sup>Tell them that the Lord and Master says these things. The enemy said bad things against you. They said: 'Hurrah! Now the ancient mountains* will be ours!'

<sup>3</sup>"So speak to the mountains of Israel for me. Tell them that the Lord and Master says these things. The enemy made you empty. They have crushed you from all around. They did this so you would belong to the other nations. Then people talked and whispered about you. <sup>4</sup>So, mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Lord and Master! <sup>5</sup>The Lord and Master says this to the mountains, hills, streams, valleys, empty ruins, and abandoned cities: You have been robbed and laughed at by the other nations around you. It is true, I will let my strong feelings speak for me! I will let Edom and the other nations feel my anger. The people of Edom took my land for themselves. They were very happy to take that land. They did not care at all about the people of Israel. They took the land for themselves!"

<sup>6</sup>So the Lord my Master says these things: "So speak to the land of Israel for me. Speak to the mountains and to the hills, to the streams, and to the valleys. Tell them that the Lord and Master says these things. I will let my strong feelings and anger speak for me. Why? Because you had to suffer the insults from those nations. " <sup>7</sup>So the Lord my Master says these things: "I promise that the nations around you will have to suffer insults.

<sup>8</sup>"But mountains of Israel, you will grow new trees and produce fruit for my people Israel. My people will soon come back. <sup>9</sup>I am with you. I will help you. People will till your soil. People will plant seeds in you. <sup>10</sup>There will be many, many people living on you. The whole family of Israel—all of them—will live there. The cities will have people living in them. The destroyed places will be built like new. <sup>11</sup>I will give you many people and animals. They will produce many more. I will cause you to have people living on you like you did before. I will make you better than at the beginning. Then you will know that I am the Lord. <sup>12</sup>Yes, I will cause people—my people, Israel—to walk on your land. They will take you and you will belong to them. You will never make them without children again."

<sup>13</sup>The Lord my Master says these things: "Land of Israel, people say bad things to you. They say you destroyed your people. They say you took away the children. <sup>14</sup>You won't destroy people any more. You won't take away the children any more." The Lord my Master said those things. <sup>15</sup>"I won't let those other nations insult you any more. You won't be hurt by those people any more. You will never make them without children again." The Lord my Master said those things.

mountains Literally, "high places"—usually a reference to places of worship.

The Lord Will Protect His Own Good Name

<sup>16</sup>Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>17</sup>“Son of man,* the family of Israel lived in their own country. But they made that land filthy by the bad things they did. To me, they were like a woman that becomes unclean* because of her monthly time of bleeding. <sup>18</sup>They spilled blood onto the ground when they murdered people in that land. They made the land filthy with their idols.* So I showed them how angry I was. <sup>19</sup>I scattered them among the nations and spread them through all the lands. I punished them the same because of the bad things they did. <sup>20</sup>They went to those other nations. And even in those countries they ruined my good name. How? The nations there talked about them. They said, ‘What kind of God is the Lord?’ These are the Lord’s people, but they left his land.’

<sup>21</sup>“The people of Israel ruined my holy name. And I felt sorry for my name. <sup>22</sup>So tell the family of Israel that the Lord and Master says these things, “Family of Israel, you ruined my holy name in the places where you went. I am going to do something to stop this. I won’t do it for your sake, Israel. I will do these things for my holy name. <sup>23</sup>I will show those nations that my great name is truly holy. You ruined my good name in those nations! But I will show you that I am holy. And then those nations will know that I am the Lord.” The Lord my Master said those things.

<sup>24</sup>God said, “I will take you out from those nations, gather you together, and bring you to your own land. <sup>25</sup>Then I will sprinkle clean water on you, and make you pure. I will wash away all your filth. And I will wash away the filth from those nasty idols.”

<sup>26</sup>God said, “I will also put a new spirit in you and change your way of thinking. I will take out the heart of stone from your body and give you a tender, human heart. <sup>27</sup>And I will put my Spirit inside you. I will change you so you will obey my laws. You will carefully obey my commands. <sup>28</sup>Then you will live in the land that I gave to your ancestors.* You will be my people, and I will be your God.”

<sup>29</sup>God said, “Also, I will save you and keep you from becoming unclean.* I will command the grain to grow. I won’t bring a time of hunger against you. <sup>30</sup>I will give you large crops of fruit from your trees and the harvest from your fields. Then you will never again feel the shame of being hungry in other countries. <sup>31</sup>You will remember the bad things you did. You will remember that those things were not good. Then you will hate yourselves because of your sins and the terrible things you did.”

<sup>32</sup>The Lord my Master says, “I want you to remember this: I am not doing these things for your good! I am doing them for my good name! So family of Israel, you should be ashamed and embarrassed about the way you lived!”

<sup>33</sup>The Lord my Master says these things, “On the day that I wash away your sins, I will bring people back to your cities. Those ruined cities will be built again. <sup>34</sup>The empty land will be tilled. It won’t be a pile of ruins for everyone who passes by to see. <sup>35</sup>They will say, ‘In the past, this land was ruined. But now it has become like the garden of Eden. The cities were destroyed. They were ruined and empty. But now they are protected, and there are people living in them.’”

<sup>36</sup>God said, “Then those nations around you will know I am the Lord and that I built those ruined places again. I am the Lord. I said these things, and I will make them happen!”

<sup>37</sup>The Lord my Master says these things, “Also, I will let the family of Israel ask me to do this thing for them: I will let them become many, many people. They will be like flocks of sheep. <sup>38</sup>The people will be like the many flocks of sheep and goats in Jerusalem during her special festivals. The cities and ruined places will be filled with flocks of people. Then

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

The Vision of the Dry Bones

37 The Lord's power came on me. The Spirit* of the Lord carried me, out of the city, and put me down in the middle of a valley. The valley was full of dead men's bones. <sup>2</sup>There were many, many bones lying on the ground in the valley. The Lord made me walk all around among the bones. I saw the bones were very dry.

<sup>3</sup>Then the Lord my Master said to me, "Son of man,* can these bones come to life?"

I answered, "Lord my Master, only you know the answer to that question."

<sup>4</sup>The Lord my Master said to me. "Speak to those bones for me. Tell those bones, 'Dry bones, listen to the word of the Lord! <sup>5</sup>The Lord my Master says these things to you: I will cause breath* to come into you, and you will come to life! <sup>6</sup>I will put sinews and muscles on you. And I will cover you with skin. Then I will put breath in you, and you will come back to life! Then you will know that I am the Lord and Master."

<sup>7</sup>So I spoke to the bones for the Lord, like he said. I was still speaking, when I heard the loud noise. The bones began to rattle, and bone joined together with bone! <sup>8</sup>There before my eyes, I saw sinew and muscles begin to cover the bones. And skin began to cover them. But the bodies didn't move,—there was no breath in them.

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord my Master said to me, "Speak to the wind* for me. Son of man,* speak to the wind for me. Tell the wind that the Lord and Master says these things: 'Wind, come from every direction and breathe air into these dead bodies! Breathe into them and they will come to life again!'"

<sup>10</sup>So I spoke to the wind for the Lord, like he said. And the breath came into the dead bodies. They came to life and stood up. There were many, many men—they were a very large army!

Spirit Or "wind."

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person," or "a human being." But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

breath Or "wind," or "a spirit."

wind The Hebrew word could also be translated "breath" or "spirit."

<sup>11</sup>Then the Lord my Master said to me, "Son of man,* these bones are like the whole family of Israel. The people of Israel say, 'Our bones have dried up,* our hope is gone. We have been completely destroyed!' <sup>12</sup>So, speak to them for me. Tell them the Lord and Master says these things, 'My people, I will open your graves and bring you up out of your graves! Then I will bring you to the land of Israel. <sup>13</sup>My people, I will open your graves and bring you up out of your graves. And then you will then know that I am the Lord. <sup>14</sup>I will put my Spirit* in you and you will come to life again. Then I will lead you back to your own land. Then you will know that I am the Lord. You will know that I said these things and that I made them happen!'" The Lord said those things.

Judah and Israel to Become One Again

<sup>15</sup>The word of the Lord came to me again. He said, <sup>16</sup>"Son of man,* get one stick and write this message on it: 'This stick belongs to Judah and his friends,* the people of Israel.' Then take another stick and write on it, 'This stick of Ephraim belongs to Joseph and his friends, the people of Israel.' <sup>17</sup>Then join those two sticks together. In your hand, they will be one stick.

<sup>18</sup>"Your people will ask you to explain what that means. <sup>19</sup>Tell them that the Lord and Master says these things. I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim and his friends, the people of Israel. Then I will put that stick with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick. In my hand, they will become one stick!

<sup>20</sup>"Hold those sticks in your hands in front of you. You wrote those names on those sticks. <sup>21</sup>Tell the people that the Lord and Master says these things: 'I will take the people of Israel from among the nations where they have gone. I will gather them from all around, and I will bring them into their own land. <sup>22</sup>I will make them one nation in the land on the mountains of Israel. One king will be king for all of them. They won't continue to be two nations. They won't be divided into two kingdoms any more.<sup>23</sup> And they won't continue to make themselves filthy with their idols* and horrible statues or with any of their other crimes. But I will save them from all sins wherever they are. And I will wash them and make them pure. And they will be my people, and I will be their God.

<sup>24</sup>“And my servant David will be the king over them. They will all have one shepherd. They will live by my rules and obey my laws. They will do the things I tell them.”<sup>25</sup> They will live on the land that I gave to my servant Jacob. Your ancestors* lived in that place. And my people will live there. They and their children, and their grandchildren will live there forever. And David my servant will be their leader forever.<sup>26</sup> And I will make a peace agreement with them. This agreement will continue forever. I agree to give them their land. I agree to make them become many, many people. And I agree to put my holy place there with them forever.<sup>27</sup> My Holy Tent will be there among them. Yes, I will be their God and they will be my people.<sup>28</sup> And the other nations will know that I am the Lord. And they will know that I make Israel my special people by putting my holy place there among them forever.”

The Message Against Gog

38 The word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>1</sup>“Son of man,* look toward Gog in the land of Magog. He is the most important leader of the nations of Meshech and Tubal. Speak for me against Gog.”<sup>2</sup> Tell him that the Lord and Master says these things, ‘Gog, you are the most important leader of the nations of Meshech and Tubal! But I am against you. <sup>3</sup>I will capture you and bring you back. I will bring back all the men in your army. I will bring back all the horses and horse soldiers. I will put hooks in your mouths, and I will bring all of you back. All of the soldiers will be wearing their uniforms with all their shields and swords.<sup>4</sup> Soldiers from Persia, Ethiopia, and Put will be with them. They will all be wearing their shields and helmets.<sup>5</sup> There will also be Gomer with all his groups of soldiers. And there will be the nation of Togarmah from the far north with all its groups of soldiers. There will be many, many people in that parade of prisoners.

<sup>6</sup>“Be prepared. Yes, prepare yourself and the armies that have joined with you. You must watch and be ready.”<sup>7</sup> After a long time you will be called for duty. In the later years you will come into the land that has been healed from war. The people in the land will be gathered from many nations to come back to the mountains of Israel. In the past, the mountains of Israel had been destroyed again and again. But these people will have come back from those other nations. They will live in safety, all of them.<sup>8</sup> But you will come to attack them. You will come like a storm. You will come like a thundercloud covering the land. You and all your groups of soldiers from many nations will come to attack these people.”

<sup>9</sup>“The Lord my Master says these things: “At that time, an idea will come into your mind. You will begin to make an evil plan.”<sup>10</sup> You will say, ‘I will go attack that country that has towns without walls (Israel). Those people live in peace. They think they are safe. There are not any walls around the cities to protect them. They don't have any locks on their gates—they don't even have gates!’<sup>11</sup> I will defeat those people and take all their valuable things away from them. I will fight against the places that were destroyed but now have people living in them. I will fight against those people (Israel) that were gathered from the nations. Now those people have cattle and property. They live at the crossroads of the world—The powerful countries must travel through that place to get to all the other powerful countries.”

<sup>12</sup>“Sheba, Dedan, and the businessmen of Tarshish, and all the cities they trade with will ask you, 'Did you come to capture valuable things? Did you bring your groups of soldiers together to grab those good things and to carry away silver, gold, cattle, and property. Did you come to take all those valuable things?'"

<sup>14</sup>God said, "Son of man,* speak to Gog for me. Tell him that the Lord and Master says these things: 'You will come to attack my people while they are living in peace and safety. <sup>15</sup>You will come from your place out of the far north. And you will bring many people with you. All of them will ride on horses. You will be a large and a powerful army. <sup>16</sup>You will come to fight against my people Israel. You will be like a thundercloud covering the land. When that time comes, I will bring you to fight against my land. Then, Gog, the nations will learn how powerful I am! They will learn to respect me and know that I am holy. They will see what I will do to you!'"

<sup>17</sup>The Lord my Master says these things, "At that time, people will remember<sub>r</sub> that I spoke about you in the past. They will remember that I used my servants the prophets of Israel. They will remember that the prophets of Israel spoke for me in the past and said that I would bring you to fight against them."

<sup>18</sup>The Lord my Master said, "At that time, Gog will come to fight against the land of Israel. I will show my anger. <sup>19</sup>In my anger and strong emotions I make this promise: I promise that there will be a strong earthquake in the land of Israel. <sup>20</sup>At that time, all living things will quake (shake) with fear. The fish in the sea, the birds in the air, the wild animals in the fields, and all the little creatures crawling on the ground will shake with fear. The mountains will fall down and the cliffs will collapse. Every wall will fall to the ground!"

<sup>21</sup>The Lord my Master says, "And on the mountains of Israel, I will call for every kind of terror against* Gog. His soldiers will be so scared that they will attack each other and kill each other with their swords. <sup>21</sup>I will punish Gog with diseases and death. I will cause hailstones, fire, and sulfur to rain down on Gog and his groups of soldiers from many nations. <sup>22</sup>Then I will show how great I am. I will prove that I am holy. Many nations will see me do these things and they will learn who I am. Then they will know that I am the Lord."

The Death of Gog and His Army

39 "Son of man,* speak against Gog for me. Tell him that the Lord and Master says these things, 'Gog, you are the most important leader of the countries Meshech and Tubal! But I am against you. <sup>2</sup>I will capture you and bring you back. I will bring you from the far north. I will bring you to fight against the mountains of Israel. <sup>3</sup>But I will knock your bow from your left hand. I will knock your arrows from your right hand. <sup>4</sup>You will be killed on the mountains of Israel. You, your groups of soldiers and all the other nations with you will be killed in the battle. I will give you as food to every kind of bird that eats meat and to all the wild animals. <sup>5</sup>You will not enter the city. You will be killed out in the open fields. I have spoken!'" The Lord my Master said those things.

<sup>6</sup>God said, "I will send fire against Magog and those people who live in safety on the coast. Then they will know that I am the Lord. <sup>7</sup>And I will make my holy name known among my people Israel. I will not let people ruin my holy name any more. The nations will know that I am the Lord. They will know that I am the Holy One in Israel. <sup>8</sup>That time is coming! It will happen!" The Lord said these things. "That is the day I am talking about.

<sup>9</sup>"At that time, the people living in the cities of Israel will go out to those fields. They will collect the enemy's weapons and burn them. They will burn all the shields, bows and arrows, clubs and spears. They will use those weapons as firewood for seven years. <sup>10</sup>They won't have to gather wood from the fields or chop firewood from the forests, because they use the weapons as firewood. They will take the valuable things from the soldiers that every ... against This is from the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrews has, "a sword against."

wanted to steal from them. They will take the good things from the soldiers that took good things from them." The Lord my Master said these things.

<sup>11</sup>God said, "At that time, I will choose a place in Israel to bury Gog. He will be buried in the Valley of the Travelers, east of the Dead Sea. It will block the road for travelers. Why? Because Gog and all his army will be buried in that place. People will call it "The Valley of Gog's Army."<sup>12</sup>The family of Israel will bury them for seven months to make the land pure.<sup>13</sup>All the people of the land will bury those enemy soldiers. The people of Israel will be famous on the day that I bring honor to myself." The Lord my Master said those things.

<sup>14</sup>God said, "The people will have to give workers a fulltime job burying those dead soldiers. In this way, they will make the land pure. Those workers will work for seven months. They will go around looking for dead bodies.<sup>15</sup>Those workers will go around looking. If one of them sees a bone, then he will put up a marker by it. The sign will stay there until the grave diggers come and bury the bone in the Valley of Gog's Army.<sup>16</sup>That city of dead people will be named Hamonah.* In this way, they will make the country pure."

<sup>17</sup>The Lord my Master said these things, "Son of man,* speak to all the birds and wild animals for me. Tell them, "Come here! Come here! Gather around. Come eat this sacrifice I am preparing for you. There will be a very big sacrifice on the mountains of Israel. Come, eat the meat and drink the blood.<sup>18</sup>You will eat the meat from the bodies of powerful soldiers. You will drink the blood from world leaders. They will be like rams, lambs, goats and fat bulls from Bashan.<sup>19</sup>You can eat all the fat you want. You can drink blood until you are full. You will eat and drink from my sacrifice which I kill for you.<sup>20</sup>At my table, you will have plenty of meat to eat. There will be horses and chariots, drivers,, powerful soldiers, and all the other fighting men." The Lord my Master said those things.

<sup>21</sup>God said, "I will let the other nations see what I have done. And those nations will begin to respect me! They will see my power that I used against that enemy.<sup>22</sup>Then from that day on, the family of Israel will know that I am the Lord their God.<sup>23</sup>And the nations will know why the family of Israel was carried away as prisoners to other countries. They will learn that my people turned against me. So I turned away from them. I let their enemies defeat them. So my people were killed in battle.<sup>24</sup>They sinned and made themselves filthy. So I punished them for the things they did. I turned away from them, and refused to help them."

<sup>25</sup>So the Lord my Master says these things: "Now I will bring the family of Jacob back from captivity. I will have mercy on the whole family of Israel. I will show my strong feelings for my holy name.<sup>26</sup>The people will forget their shame and all the times they turned against me. They will live in safety on their own land. No one will make them afraid.<sup>27</sup>I will bring my people back from other countries. I will gather them from the lands of their enemies. Then many nations will see how holy I am.<sup>28</sup>They will know that I am the Lord their God. Why? Because I made them to leave their homes and go as prisoners to other countries. And then I gathered them together and brought them back to their own land.<sup>29</sup>I will pour my Spirit onto the family of Israel. And after that time, I will never turn away from my people again." The Lord my Master said those things.

The New Temple

40 In the twenty-fifth year after we were taken away into captivity, at the beginning of the year (September), on the tenth day of the month the Lord's power came on me. This was fourteen years, to the very day, after the Babylonians took Jerusalem. In a vision,, the Lord took me there.

<sup>2</sup>In a vision,* God carried me to the land of

Hamonah This Hebrew word means "crowd."

vision(s) Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.

Israel. He put me down near a very high mountain. On the mountain, there was a building that looked like a city. The city was toward the south. <sup>3</sup>The Lord brought me there. There was a man there, and he looked shiny, like polished bronze. That man had a cloth tape measure and a measuring rod in his hand. He was standing by the gate. <sup>4</sup>The man said to me, "Son of man,* use your eyes and ears. Look at these things and listen to me. Pay attention to everything that I show you. Why? Because you have been brought here so I can show you these things. You must tell the family of Israel all that you see."

<sup>5</sup>I saw a wall that went all the way around the outside of the temple.* In the man's hand there was a ruler for measuring things. It was one cubit and one handbreadth (10' 6") long. So the man measured the thickness of the wall. It was one ruler (10' 6") thick. The man measured the height of the wall. It was one ruler (10' 6") tall. <sup>6</sup>Then the man went to the east gate. The man walked up its steps and measured the threshold of the gate. It was one ruler (10' 6") wide. The other threshold was also one ruler (10' 6") wide. <sup>7</sup>There was a room one ruler (10' 6") long and one ruler (10' 6") wide. There were 5 cubits (8' 9") of space between the rooms. The gate's threshold on the side of the gate's porch looking inside was one ruler (10' 6") wide.

<sup>8</sup>Then the man measured the porch of the gateway next to the temple. It was one ruler (10' 6") wide. <sup>9</sup>Then the man measured the porch of the gateway. It was 8 cubits (14'). The man measured the doorposts of the gate. Each doorpost was 2 cubits (3' 6") wide. The gate of the porch was inside. <sup>10</sup>There were three little rooms on each side of the gate. These three little rooms measured the same on each side. The doorposts on both sides measured the same. <sup>11</sup>The man measured the width of the doors of the gate. They were 10 cubits (17' 6") wide. The whole gate was 13 cubits (22' 9") wide. <sup>12</sup>There was a low wall in front of each room. That wall was 1 cubit (1' 6") tall and 1 cubit (1' 6") thick. The rooms were 6 cubits (10' 6") long on each side.

<sup>13</sup>The man measured the gate from the roof of one room to the roof of another room. It was 25 cubits (43' 9") from one door to the next door. <sup>14</sup>The man also measured the porch. It was 20 cubits (30') wide. The courtyard was around the porch. <sup>15</sup>The gate of the porch on the outside all the way to the gate inside measured 50 cubits (87' 6"). <sup>16</sup>The rooms had latticed* windows all around. The windows became more narrow inside toward their doorposts in the little rooms. Also the porch had windows all around inside. Carvings of palm trees were on each doorpost.

The Outside Courtyard

<sup>17</sup>Then the man brought me into the outer courtyard. I saw rooms and a pavement. They were all around the courtyard. Thirty rooms were in front on the pavement. <sup>18</sup>The pavement went by the side of the gates. The pavement was as long as the gates. This was the lower pavement. <sup>19</sup>Then the man measured the distance from the inside front of the lower gate to the outside front of the wall of the courtyard. It was 100 cubits (175') on the east and on the north.

<sup>20</sup>The man measured the length and width of the gate of the outer courtyard which looks toward the north. <sup>21</sup>It had three rooms on each side. Its doorposts and its porch measured the same as the first gate. It was 50 cubits (87' 6") long and 25 cubits (43' 9") wide. <sup>22</sup>Its windows, its porch, and its carvings of palm trees measured the same as the gate that looked toward the east. Seven steps went up to the gate. The gate's porch was inside. <sup>23</sup>The inner courtyard had a gate across from the gate on the north. It was like the gate on the east. The man measured from gate to gate. It was 100 cubits (175') from gate to gate.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person," or "a human being." But here this becomes a title for the man, Ezekiel.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

latticed Literally, "closed." We don't know exactly what this Hebrew word means.

<sup>28</sup>Then the man led me south. I saw a gate at the south. The man measured its doorposts and its porch. They measured the same as the other gates. <sup>29</sup>The gate and its porch had windows all around like the other gates. They were 50 cubits (87' 6") long and 25 cubits (43' 9") wide. <sup>26</sup>There were seven steps that led up to this gate. Its porch was inside. It had carvings of palm trees on its doorposts, one on each side. <sup>27</sup>A gate was on the south side of the inner courtyard. The man measured from gate to gate toward the south. It was 100 cubits (175') wide.

The Inner Courtyard

<sup>28</sup>Then the man brought me through the south gate to the inner courtyard. The south gate measured the same as the other gates. <sup>29</sup>The south gate's rooms, its doorposts, and its porch also measured the same as the other gates. There were windows all around the gate and its porch. The gate was 50 cubits (87' 6") long and 25 cubits (43' 9") wide. There were porches all around. <sup>30</sup>The porch was 25 cubits (43' 9") long and 5 cubits (8' 9") wide. <sup>31</sup>The south gate's porch looked toward the outer courtyard. Carvings of palm trees were on its doorposts. Its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>32</sup>The man brought me into the inner courtyard on the east side. He measured the gate. It measured the same as the other gates. <sup>33</sup>The east gate's rooms, doorposts and porch measured the same as the other gates. Windows were all around the gate and its porch. The east gate was 50 cubits (87' 6") long and 25 cubits (43' 9") wide. <sup>34</sup>Its porch looked toward the outer courtyard. Carvings of palm trees were on its doorposts on each side. Its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>35</sup>Then the man brought me to the north gate. He measured it. It measured the same as the other gates—<sup>36</sup>its rooms, its doorposts, and its porch. Windows were all around the gate. It was 50 cubits (87' 6") long and 25 cubits (43' 9") wide. <sup>37</sup>Its doorposts looked toward the outer courtyard. Carvings of palm trees were on its doorposts on each side. And its stairway had eight steps. <sup>38</sup>There was a room with its door at the gate's porch. This is where the priests wash the animals for the burnt offerings. <sup>39</sup>There were two tables on each side in the gate's porch. The animals for the burnt offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings were killed on these tables. <sup>40</sup>Outside the porch, at the place where the north gate opens, there were two tables. And on the other side of the porch of the gate there were two tables. <sup>41</sup>Four tables were inside the gate. Four tables were outside the gate. In all there were eight tables. The priests killed the animals for sacrifices on these tables. <sup>42</sup>There were four tables from cut stone for the burnt offerings. These tables were 1½ cubits (2' 7½") long, 1½ cubits (2' 7½") wide, and 1 cubit (1' 9") high. On these tables the priests lay the tools they used to kill the animals for the burnt offerings and the sacrifices. <sup>43</sup>The hooks, 1 handbreadth (3") long, were put up all through the temple. The meat for the offering was on the tables.

<sup>44</sup>There were two rooms outside the gate to the inner courtyard. One was by the north gate. It looked south. The other room was by the south gate. It looked north. <sup>45</sup>The man said to me, "This room, which looks toward the south, is for the priests who are on duty and serving in the temple. <sup>46</sup>But the room which looks toward the north is for the priests who are on duty and serving at the altar.* These priests are all descendants* of Zadok. The descendants of Zadok are the only men from the family group of Levite that can serve the Lord by bringing the sacrifices to him."

<sup>47</sup>The man measured the courtyard. The courtyard was a perfect square. It was 100 cubits (175') long and 100 cubits (175') wide. The altar* was in front of the temple.

The Porch of the Temple

<sup>48</sup>The man brought me to the porch of the temple and measured each doorpost of the porch. It was 5 cubits (8' 9") on each side. The gate was 14 cubits (24' 6") wide. The side walls of the gate were 3 cubits (5' 9") on each side. *The porch was 20 cubits (35') long and 12 cubits (19' 3") wide. Ten steps went up to the porch. Columns were by the doorposts—on each side.

The Outer Part of the Temple

41 The man brought me to the center room (Holy Place). He measured its doorposts. They were 6 cubits (10' 6") thick on each side. <sup>2</sup>The door was 10 cubits (17' 6") wide. The sides of the doorway were 5 cubits (8' 9") on each side. The man measured the outer holy place. It was 40 cubits (70') long, and 20 cubits (35') wide. <sup>3</sup>Then the man went inside and measured each doorpost of the doorway. Each doorpost was 2 cubits (3' 6") thick. It was 6 cubits (10' 6") high. The door was 7 cubits (12' 3") wide. <sup>4</sup>Then the man measured the length of the room. It was 20 cubits (35') long and 20 cubits (35') wide before entering the center room. The man said to me, "This is the Most Holy Place."

<sup>5</sup>Then the man measured the wall of the temple. It was 6 cubits (10' 6") wide. The side rooms were 4 cubits (7') wide all around the temple. <sup>6</sup>The side rooms were on three different floors. One was above the other. There were 30 rooms on each floor. The side rooms had supports on the wall all around. So the temple wall itself did not support the rooms. <sup>7</sup>Each floor of the side rooms around the temple was wider than the floor below. The high platform around the temple spread out on each floor on all sides of the temple. So rooms were wider on the top floors. A stairway went up from the lowest floor to the highest floor through the second story. <sup>8</sup>I also saw that the temple had a paved base all the way around it. The foundations for the side rooms were a full ruler (10' 6") high. <sup>9</sup>The outer wall of the side rooms was 5 cubits (8' 9") thick. The open area between the side rooms of the temple <sup>10</sup>and the priests' rooms were 20 cubits (35') all around the temple. <sup>11</sup>The doors of the side rooms opened on the paved base that was not a part of the wall. One door looked toward the north and one door looked toward the south. The paved base was 5 cubits (8' 9") wide all around.

<sup>12</sup>The building that was in front of the temple courtyard at the west side was 70 cubits (122' 6") wide. The wall of the building was 5 cubits (8' 9") thick all around. It was 90 cubits (157' 6") long. <sup>13</sup>Then the man measured the temple. The temple was 100 cubits (175') long. The courtyard with the building and its walls were also 100 cubits (175') long. <sup>14</sup>The east front of the temple and the courtyard was 100 cubits (175') wide.

<sup>15-16</sup>The man measured the length of the building that looked toward the courtyard at the rear of the temple and its walls on both sides. It was 100 cubits (175') long. The inner room of the center room (Holy Place), and the porches of the courtyard were paneled. All three had latticed windows all around. By the threshold, the temple had panels of wood all around from the floor up to the windows. The windows were covered.

<sup>17</sup>Wood panels covered the wall above the door all the way to the inner room and on the outside. On all the walls in the inner room and the outer room of the temple were carvings <sup>18</sup>of Cherub angels and palm trees. A palm tree was between Cherub angels. Every Cherub angel had two faces. <sup>19</sup>One face was a man's face looking toward the palm tree on one side. The other face was a lion's face looking toward the palm tree on the other side. They were carved all around on the temple. <sup>20</sup>From the floor to above the door, Cherub angels and palm trees were carved on all walls of the center room (Holy Place).

<sup>21</sup>The doorposts of the center room (Holy Place) were square. In front of the Most Holy Place, there was something that looked like <sup>22</sup>an altar* made from wood. It was 3 cubits (5' 3") high and 2 cubits (3' 6") long. Its corners, its base, and its sides were wood. The man said to me, "This is the table that is before the Lord." <sup>23</sup>Both the center room (Holy Place) and the Most Holy Place had a double door. <sup>24</sup>Each of the doors was made from two smaller doors.

altar(s) A stone table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

Each door was really two swinging doors.<sup>25</sup> Also Cherub angels and palm trees were carved on the doors of the center room (Holy Place). They were like those carved on the walls. And there was a wood covering over the front of the porch outside.<sup>26</sup> And there were windows set back and palm trees on both sides of the porch.

The Priests' Room

42 Then the man led me out into the outer courtyard, looking north. He led me to the rooms that were across from the temple courtyard and across from the building on the north.<sup>2</sup> The building on the north side was 100 cubits (175') long and 50 cubits (87' 6") wide.<sup>3</sup> There were three floors of balconies on walls of these buildings. They faced each other. Between them was the 20-cubit (35') open area between the inner courtyard and the pavement of the outer courtyard.<sup>4</sup> There was a hall in front of the rooms. It led inside. It was 10 cubits (17' 6") wide and 100 cubits (175') long. Their doors were on the north.<sup>5</sup> The top rooms were more narrow because the balconies took more space than from the middle and bottom rooms in the building.<sup>6</sup> The rooms were on three stories. They did not have columns like the columns of the outer courtyards. So the top rooms were farther back than the rooms on the middle and bottom floors.<sup>7</sup> There was a wall outside. It was parallel to the rooms. It led toward the outer courtyard. It was across from the rooms. It was 50 cubits (87' 6") long.<sup>8</sup> The rooms in the outer courtyard was 50 cubits (87' 6") long. The rooms that looked toward the center room were 100 cubits (175') long.<sup>9</sup> Under these rooms there was a door that entered the east side from the outer courtyard<sup>10</sup> at the beginning of the outside wall.

On the south side, in front of the temple courtyard and the outside wall of the temple's building, there were rooms. These rooms had a<sup>11</sup> hall in front of them. They were like the rooms on the north. The south doors measured the same as the north doors in length and width. The south doors had the same measurements, the same design, and the same kind of entrances as the north doors.<sup>12</sup> Under the south rooms, there was a door that entered the east side. It led to the hall. Across from the south doors was a dividing wall.*

<sup>13</sup>The man said to me, "The north rooms and south rooms across from the courtyard are holy rooms. These rooms are for the priests that offer the sacrifices to the Lord. Those priests will eat the most holy offerings in these rooms. They will put the most holy offering there. Why? Because this place is holy. The most holy offerings are: the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings.<sup>14</sup> The priests will enter the holy area. But before they go out into the outer courtyard, they will first leave their serving clothes in the holy place. Why? Because these clothes are holy. If a priest wants to go to the part of the temple where the other people are, then he must go to those rooms and put on other clothes.

The Outside Temple

<sup>15</sup>After the man had finished measuring inside the temple, he brought me out through the gate that looked toward the east. He measured the outside temple all around.<sup>16</sup> The man measured the east side with the ruler. It was 500 cubits (875') long.<sup>17</sup> He measured the north side. It was 500 cubits (875') long.<sup>18</sup> He measured the south side. It was 500 cubits (875') long.<sup>19</sup> He went around to the west side and measured it. It was 500 cubits (875') long.<sup>20</sup> He measured the temple on all four sides. The wall went all around the temple. The wall was 500 cubits (875') long and 500 cubits (875') wide. It separated the holy area from the area that is not holy.

The Lord to Live Among His People

43 The man led me to the gate, the gate that looks toward the east.<sup>2</sup> There the Glory of the God of Israel came from the east. God's voice was loud like the sound of the sea. The ground was bright with the light for the Glory of God.<sup>3</sup>The vision* that I saw was like the vision I saw by the Kebar Canal. I bowed with my face to the ground. <sup>4</sup>The Glory of the Lord came into the temple through the gate that looks toward the east.

<sup>5</sup>Then the Spirit* picked me up and brought me into the inner courtyard. The Glory of the Lord filled the temple. <sup>6</sup>I heard someone speaking to me from inside the temple. There was a man standing beside me. <sup>7</sup>The voice from the temple said to me, "Son of man,* this is the place with my throne and footstool. I will live in this place among the people of Israel forever. The family of Israel won't ruin my holy name again. The kings and their people won't bring shame to my name by doing sexual sins* or by burying the dead bodies of their kings in this place. <sup>8</sup>They won't bring shame to my name by putting their threshold next to my threshold, and their door post next to my door post. In the past, only a wall separated them from me. So they brought shame to my name everytime they sinned and did those terrible things. That is why I became angry and destroyed them. <sup>9</sup>Now let them put away their sex sins and the dead bodies of their kings far from me. Then I will live among them forever.

<sup>10</sup>"Now, Son of man,* tell the family of Israel about the temple. Then they will be ashamed of their sins. They will learn about the plans for the temple. <sup>11</sup>And they will be ashamed of all the bad things they have done. Let them know the design of the temple. Let them know how it is built, where the entrances and exits are, and all the designs on it. Teach them about all its rules and all its laws. And write down these things so they can all see it. Then they will obey all the laws and rules for the temple. Then they can do these things. <sup>12</sup>This is the law of the temple: All the area on the top of the mountain is most holy. This is the

The Altar

<sup>13</sup>"And these are the measurements of the altar* in cubits using the longer measurement.* There was a gutter all the way around the base of the altar. It was 1 cubit (1' 9") deep, and, each side, was 1 cubit (1' 9") wide. There was a rim around the edge 1 span (9") high. And: this was how tall the altar was: <sup>14</sup>From the ground to the lower ledge, the base measures 2 cubits (3' 6"). It was 1 cubit (1' 9") wide. It will measure 4 cubits (7') from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge. It was 2 cubits (3' 6") wide. <sup>15</sup>The place for the fire on the altar was 4 cubits (7') high. Four horns will reach out from the altar at each corner. <sup>16</sup>The place for the fire on the altar was 12 cubits (21') long by 12 cubits (21') wide. It was perfectly square. <sup>17</sup>The ledge was also square, 14 cubits (24' 6") long by 14 cubits (24' 6") wide. The border around it was 1/2 cubit (10 1/2") wide. (The gutter around the base was 2 cubits (3' 6") wide.) The steps going up to the altar were on the east side."

<sup>18</sup>Then the man said to me, "Son of man,* the Lord my Master says these things: 'These are the rules for the altar:* On the day it is put up to offer burnt offerings and to sprinkle blood on it, <sup>19</sup>you will give a young bull for a sin offering to the men from Zadok's family. These men are from the family group of Levi. They are the priests.'" The Lord my Master said these things. "They will bring the offerings to men and serve me. <sup>20</sup>You will take some of the bull's blood, and put it on the altar's four horns, on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border all around. So you will make the altar pure. <sup>21</sup>You will take the bull for the sin offering. The bull will be burned in a special place of the temple, outside the holy area.

<sup>22</sup>On the second day you will offer a male goat that has nothing wrong with it. It will be
